FOOD BEFORE LIQUOR

THE EXECUTIVE ORDER in the United States cutting down liquor distilleries' use of grain by forty percent is a humanitarian move. It means more cereals will go into food and feed—for people both at home and abroad. HOW ABOUT THE GIRLS?

DOYS of Prince Rupert are being pretty well provided for ,it seems, as far as summer outings are concerned. The annual Sea Cadet camp will take close to a hundred lads to a popular resort island near Vancouver where a couple of weeks will be spent in pleasant training. The Kinsmen's Club will take other boys to camp on the sunny shores of Lakelse

All this very worthy work is being done for the boys, but what about the girls? There must be as many girls as there are boys in Prince Rupert who would appreciate something being done along these lines for them. Their case might be commended to those who are interested in this sort of thing and desirous and capable of doing something about it.

NEED OF AIR FACILITIES

AIR service for Prince Rupert is get-H ting nicely organized. A regular weekly run between here and Vancouver is now in operation and a second flying boat is to be added within a week or so. Arrangements are under way for a connecting service from southeastern Alaska into Prince Rupert. It is pointed out that maintenance and expansion of air services for Prince Rupert will depend to a large extent upon what kind of servicing facilities may be made available here. At present, they are somewhat makeshift and awkward. However, we are now presented with the opportunity of acquiring ready-made facilities at Seal Cove for a public seaplane base. The importance of advantage being taken of the offer is apparent.

Norwegian Birthday Observed

Pride in the democratic and cultural traditions of their rockgirt homeland shone in the faces of Prince Ruperil citizens of Norwegian extraction last night as they joined millions of their countrymen at home and abroad n formal observance of Norway's 132nd anniversary of its Independence Day.

No evidence of self-conscious conflict of nationality was revealed by the speakers who addressed the Independence Day gathering in the Civic Centre auditorium. Canada's Norwegians, they emphasized, are true Canadians who have as their background the high traditions and vital principles of a small but stalwart nation.

More than 300 attended the proceedings in the Civic Centre, enjoying the two-hour program which featured Norwegian folk music by the Varden Singers, vocal solos by Mrs. A. Lindseth, classical piano music by Miss Frances Moore, A.T.C.M., violin solos by A. C. Cameron, and addresses by Mayor H. M. Daggett, Norwegian Vice-Council Dr Jens Munthe, Rev. A. O. "Ours is a rockbound country and it is on rock principles that it is built," he said. "In Norway the young people are taugh four "R's"-reading, 'riting, 'rithmetic and religion, and it is from religion that it has drawn its real strength."

Dr. Jens Munthe declared that, although Norway is small, history had demonstrated that it cherishes above all else freedom and independence.

In an address in Norwegian,

Gunnar Selvig outlined the history of Norway's strnuggle for independence following siging of the Eidsvick constitution on May 17, 1814. Norway's struggle, he said, drew as its source the spirit of the French revolution and the American war of independence. His talk was interpreted by Chairman Paul Tar-

Advertising for nurses outside the city is productive of no results.

In view of the nurses' shortage, the first floor of the hospital was closed during the past month. The result has been congestion alternately on the secand or third floors.

During the month of April there were 221 inpatients as compared with 227 in March and 264 in April of last year. The outpatients this April numbered 88 compared with 158 in March and 338 in April 1945. There were 1716 inpatient, days last month compared with 2229 in March and 2388 in April a year ago.

With total expenditures for the month of April $10,389.30, the per diem cost was $5.75, the finance committee raported.

Prince Rupert Getting Most of Halibut—Salmon Fishing Lighter— Launching Tonight

individuals have left wills of a American boats. Total landings make a quick run into Prince Rupert so that they can get in as many trips as possible before the season closes.

Some fishermen predict that sual western ingredients in- with the exhaustion of this luding villain and hero but is year's supply of live herring bait, catches on the flats will be slower and that, as a consequence the season will not be quite as short as was forecast earlier in the week. In addition, they say, the tremendous amount of fish will have depleted the schools o halibut now on the flats so that it will take longer to fill a boat than it has in the last two weeks.

There were 77 boats in this week, 65 of them Canadian. Biggest arrival of the week was the American boat New Washington, which brought in 86,000 Whiz. Biggest Canadian landing ars on Monday 20 May 46. Sub- was from the Vancouver boat Those sending flowers were Fisher Lassie, which sold 48,000 to Cold Storage.

Fear that the 1946 halibut season will be extremely short causing Vancouver to lose badly in the matter of halibut landings. Although most of the Canadian boats come from Vancouver, they are not taking the time to make the long run the southern port, preferring to
