Plotted To Kill British King and Queen

F.B.I. Measures Saved Their Majesties On 1939 American Visit

LONDON UNAWARE

LONDON (CP)—Reports from Washington of a plot to assassinate the King and Queen during their 1939 United States tour was labelled "news" by government and Scotland Yard officials. "We have not heard anything about this," said a government official. "It is entirely news."

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation disclosed last night that two Germans—Fritz Weidemann, then German consul-general at San Francisco, and Herman Schwinn—discussed the assassination of King George and Queen Elizabeth during their visit to the United States in 1939. As a result, one of the greatest protective nets ever assembled in modern times was immediately thrown about the King and Queen on their trip to United States and Canada. These protective measures obviated any attempt being ever made to carry out the plot as no opportunity presented itself.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation did not disclose the method of learning of the plot nor did it disclose the proposed method of assassination. At that time Schwinn was an active member of the German-American Bund and later was deported to Germany as a dangerous alien.

PUTTING DOWN JEWISH RIOTS

Tea Gas, Fire Hose and Clubs Are Used by British Troops at Haifa Monday

HAIFA — Steel-helmeted British troops were using tear gas, fire hoses and clubs to put down a riot of shouting Jewish refugees aboard the immigrant ship Hameria Halvri after an hour-long battle in which 10 soldiers were injured, four seriously.

The riot was touched off when troops boarded a ship, biggest yet to attempt the dash to Palestine, to begin removal of illegal immigrants to three British troopships to await the decision of the Palestine Supreme Court on their future. It was reported to have 3,370 refugees on board.

"The blighters were tossing full tins of UNRRA food at us," a police officer said. "It was ankle deep on the dock." At the height of the fight passengers hung a huge banner over the side of the ship, signed "Commander-in-Chief, Jewish Resistance Movement," and reading "For every Jew murdered or wounded aboard this ship you will pay in English blood. You have been warned."

Presumed Dead, Wife Returns After 17 Years

VULCAN, Alta. — Legal tangles today faced a farmer here whose wife, officially presumed dead more than a year ago, returned to Alberta from Australia after 17 years' absence.

Farmer Lacey Jones Hollister obtained a court decree in May, 1945, presuming the death of his wife, Mrs. Sylvia Cuban Gertrude Hollister. After a fruitless 16-year quest for her in Canada, New Zealand and Australia, he married again in 1945.

Sunday night the first Mrs. Hollister arrived in Calgary, about 58 miles southwest of here, with a party of Australians and other travellers from "down under."

SLAVS FORTIFY GREEK BORDER

ATHENS — The frontier ministry announced today that the Yugoslav government had informed the Greek minister in Belgrade that Yugoslavia is strengthening its forces along the frontier because of the large numbers of Greeks "seeking refuge from the terror" in northern Greece.

Meanwhile, a new battle has broken out in Macedonia. The Greek Third army headquarters said that 600 members of a "Communist" band had occupied two villages. This action took place 20 to 25 miles from the Skra-Notia front, not far from the Yugoslav border.

RUSSIA ASKS FACTS ABOUT ATOM BOMB

LAKE SUCCESS — A demand by Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov that the United States supply full information on atomic weapons today gave rise to the possibility that increased pressure will be exerted to strip the veil of secrecy from the deadly bomb.

Molotov's statement before the United Nations political committee yesterday implied that Russia would want to know in connection with its four-point proposal for disarmament how many bombs the United States had, where they were, the country's manufacturing capacity and future plans.

Actually it could be interpreted to cover everything but the actual "know-how" of the bomb, and even that might be presumed to be included in the Russian demand.

On the basis of previous performances, the United States is expected to oppose any such move until all safeguards are set up and the international inspection system well established.

LABOR GROUP TO DEFEND SPANIARDS

VANCOUVER — An all-out legal battle was promised today by delegates of the Vancouver Labor Council, C.C.L., to prevent the enforced return to Spain and possible death before a firing squad of four Spanish refugees from General Franco's army who fled into France and stowed away on a Vancouver-bound freighter.

The four were described as members of the anti-Franco movement. They were Julian M. Fuster and Jose Cruz Perez, both 21; Francisco Gasco Gisbert, 25, and Everiano Gasco Sanchez. Housed behind bars in Vancouver's immigration shed, they told of beatings from superiors in the Spanish army.

IMPORTED LIQUORS, WINES HERE; BEST STOCK SINCE WAR COMING UP

Imported Spanish, Portuguese and French wines and liquors which have not been seen since the early days of the war when the old stocks expired are returning in noticeable quantities to the shelves of the government liquor store, a tour of the public retail beverage emporium yesterday afternoon with Vendor C. L. Youngman revealed.

Famous name wines, ports and sherries are back again and even some Mumm's champagne, which has not been seen here for six or seven years, is on hand for those of aristocratic taste whose purses can afford it. Australian sauterens are among the returning lines.

"The stock is the best since the war started," said Vendor Youngman. "We should be able to look after the most of tastes." In the spirits line, imported rums are available again.

Mr. Youngman hinted that there should be a bottle of imported Scotch whiskey this December for every Prince Rupert customer. The "No Scotch today" sign, which has been so much in evidence of late, should be due for relegation soon.

Labor Wins New Zealand

Majority Is Slightly Reduced But Margin Still Safe

AUCKLAND, New Zealand — New Zealand's Labor government, in power for the last 11 years, was returned in today's general elections with a slightly reduced majority.

With only two ridings still in doubt, Labor had 41 seats compared with 25 for the last Parliament, and the National party had 37 against 21 for the previous house. The two remaining seats are expected to go Labor.

The Labor government had yesterday retained all four Maori seats in the House of Representatives in the first leg of the Dominion general elections, the voters of European origin pelling today to elect the remaining 76 members of the House.

The major voting took place on the eleventh anniversary of Labor's accession to office.

BOY HIT BY MOTOR CAR

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore of Smithers Injured

SMITHERS (Special to Daily News)—What might have been a very serious accident, occurred yesterday when young Kenneth Moore, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore of Prince George, ran out from behind a parked truck into the side of a car driven by R. W. Calderwood. Mr. Calderwood said he was driving between ten and fifteen miles per hour at the time.

The boy suffered only minor bruises and lacerations. He is resting comfortably in hospital. Mr. Calderwood said he did not see the child and did not know what had happened until he heard a scream from a woman passing on the street. He stopped the car and jumped out to see the boy being jacked up by Jack Chapman, owner of the parked truck, who rushed the child to the hospital.

Lewis Trial Starts Today

WASHINGTON — Judge T. Alan Goldsborough said today that John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers would be "guilty of contempt of court" if it is proved legally that they disregarded his order against the soft coal mine walkout.

In those words he indicated at the opening of the hearing this morning that his decision in the case against Lewis would not be influenced by the union's claim that the "stop strike" order violated the Norris-Laguardina anti-injunction act.

"No one can disobey an injunction," said the judge. "If that is done, we would have anarchy."

He said that the 400,000 miners had made "a very great mistake in walking out before the courts had ruled on the contract dispute with the government."

As the contempt trial opened, the whole morning was taken up with arguments by three of Lewis' lawyers seeking to win dismissal of the action. They challenged the right of the court to try Lewis and declared that operation of coal mines is not a "sovereign" function of the government.

One-time Army members so far have collected about $500,000,000. The Navy total is $42,850,000 and Air Force personnel around $150,000,000.

Balancing Family Budget

A PRESSING AND PRACTICAL QUESTION in every man's personal finances is how to make an adjustment to the rising cost of living. Segments of the gainfully employed, have already prepared a tentative answer. They assert that the remedy is further to mark up money wage rates.

At first blush, the proposal has sentimental appeal. But, while a rise in material wellbeing for the great multitudes is devoutly to be desired, there is a pitfall in confusing inflationary fluff with higher living standards.

Higher wages without increased productivity may merely implement the processes of inflation. For one man's wages constitute another worker's cost of living.

In terms of every family's immediate problem of making both ends meet, the possibility of enhancing buying power through bringing costs under control should be fully explored.

Budget makers of individual families as an immediate adjustment might review all their items of expenditures, and eliminate the less essential. Perhaps spending habits have been incurred, which do not provide sufficient satisfactions. The time is here for customer discrimination. Thumbs down on ersatz materials and discourtesy service will help to achieve thoroughgoing reconversion from the abnormalities of a war economy back to the status of a genuine situation. In taking this attitude and in waiting for postponable items, the customer will obviate the hazard of panicky bidding for scarce goods. Such a customer mood will accelerate the return of the merit system.

The time is almost over when "anything goes." Management, which discounts the inevitable by getting down to brass tacks, will make a contribution to restoration of the conditions making for prosperity and progress.

LEISURE AND BUSINESS

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE today are enjoying more leisure per week than they had prior to and during the war. In the majority of cases their "take home" pay remains the same or has been stepped up. In the days immediately ahead they are going to spend more in new ways, and their accumulated outlay will provide expanded sales for a great variety of products and services.

More leisure means many people will be able to travel more, read more books, wear more clothes, play more games, dig more gardens, indulge in more hobbies, buy more insurance, visit more theatres, decorate, furnish and improve their homes, and generally indulge long suppressed desires to get more out of living. These new expenditures will, in the main, come out of earnings which, economists agree, is a sounder source of national prosperity than the liquidation of savings.

20 YEARS AGO

Nov. 27, 1926

For the first time in the six months that the provincial police had been in charge of city police affairs, the doors of the city jail swung open because it had no occupants. Last occupant, prior to the temporary lull, was a native who served seven days for drunkenness.

The "phenomenal" growth of industry in British Columbia during the 10 years which the Liberal government had been in power provincially was outlined by Hon. T. D. Pattullo in a speech before constituents here. The output of all basic industries had doubled during that time, he said.

Two more deep sea vessels were due here to load grain. They were the Yoserie and Meigen Maru. The two vessels were expected to take 500,000 bushels of wheat from the elevator.

Hamelin Revives Ancient Legend

HAMELIN, Germany—The legend of the Pied Piper of Hamelin is being charmingly revived in that old city on the River Weser in Germany. U.N. R.R.A. has opened a summer holiday camp there for children of Baltic and Polish displaced persons where, for the first time in six years, they can enjoy freedom and open air.

They play in the fields and swim in the river, sleeping in tents and even the food is cooked and eaten out of doors. They can visit a cave in the hillside where, according to legend, the Pied Piper disappeared with Hamelin's children in 1294.

On the last night of each week after a concert for the children, the camp leader, Miss Kathleen Baird of Perth, Australia, wearing a cloak of feathered hat, pipes them up the hillside to their beds and the sound of the children singing can be heard a mile away in the town.

GREATNESS OF BRITAIN

Status of Power Debated At Open Forum

A number of new faces, a good attendance and a brisk, searching discussion characterized the session of the Citizen's Forum held in the Civic Centre at Prince Rupert on Tuesday evening.

The first motion defined a "Great Power" as one whose opinions were respected because they were backed up by great physical power. This was carried with one dissenting vote.

The second motion that "in the opinion of this meeting, it is unfortunately impossible for Great Britain to maintain her position as a great power, on this basis" was broadly debated and at great length. It was pointed out that, as Britain was an industrial nation, without raw materials, without power (comparatively) to drive her factories, and without the manpower of many of her competitors, it would be a physical impossibility for her to keep a supremacy of physical power. The motion was adopted without dissent.

The third motion expressed the belief that Great Britain would maintain her position as a leader of the smaller nations and a champion of freedom by reason of the moral greatness of her people and by pursuing a sound policy. This was supported by well over two-thirds of the meeting.

The final motion that, by reason of her economic and strategic position, a relative reduction in the status of Great Britain would not affect the position of Canada as an independent nation in the British Commonwealth was also overwhelmingly supported.

Every Young Husband

... should answer these questions

Were the EXPENSES of starting your home greater than you expected? In most cases the answer is "yes." Probably there is a mortgage and other debts. Given time, you can pay them! But they could be a burden to your wife, if something should happen to you. That is one reason why you should have adequate life insurance protection.

Does it matter which COMPANY you insure with? Yes! Life insurance companies are much alike as to policies and rates, but actual long-term results vary widely. Evidence of the satisfaction of our holders is furnished by that whole families and young generations have their life insurance exclusively to The Mutual of Canada, and each approximately 35% of business comes from holders. Ask your representative to explain special features of this

Campaign Under Way—Centered at Capitol—Lieut. Jones Speaks

Manager J. Harry Black and the Capitol Theatre have gone all out for the current navy recruiting campaign in Prince Rupert. Foyer and main body of the house have been lavishly decorated with all manner of flags and adornments appropriate to the naval atmosphere. House attendants are uniformed in white summer naval uniforms. In short, it is Navy Week in real earnest at the Capitol.

Attestation forms with all the necessary data are being handed out nightly at the theatre and will be returnable commencing next Monday night when the first parade on the newly commissioned H.M.C.S. Chatham reserve division is held. Already there has been some interest displayed in the taking out of attestation forms.

Last night, Lieut. Eric Jones, permanent force staff officer of H.M.C.S. Chatham, spoke from the stage of the theatre in instituting the recruiting campaign. He told of the advantages to be obtained through enlistment in the reserve division or the permanent naval force. While a primary consideration was to make in the reserve division a reservoir of trained men who would be ready in case of emergency, there were many other advantages to be derived in joining up among which was the access to for instruction of modern naval equipment, the acquisition of good and useful knowledge, and the opportunity for healthful training.

Lieut. Jones will be speaking nightly at the Capitol this week and there will be other activities incidental to the launching and publicizing of the campaign.

SEVERE NORTH WINDS BRING COLD—ACTIVITY ON MINING PROPERTIES

STEWART—For the past ten days this district has been undergoing the ordeal of trying to keep warm in the face of severe north winds, accompanied by temperatures which never got much above freezing. Most of the time the thermometer hovered between 16 and 20 above zero.

Work on the Big Four and the Morris Summit is proceeding apace and, so far as can be learned unofficially, with very encouraging results. The mill at the Riverside Mine on the Alaskan side has been closed down but it is the intention of the company to operate a small crew underground all winter provided their water system holds out.

Having run short of supplies, the contractors on the Silver Tip Group came to town during the week and will not be going back until spring. They report encouraging results although the objective has not yet been reached. This property has been under the direction of George Winkler.

Timbers are being got out for the construction of a pack bridge across Cascade Creek on the road to the Indian Mine and work will be started soon. This will facilitate work on the property when it is resumed in the spring.

New Health Doctor Is Named Here

Dr. G. F. Lane Coming From Victoria—Service to Cost Less

Prince Rupert Health Unit is to have a new full-time medical director early in January. He is Dr. G. F. Lane, of Victoria, whose appointment was approved by a meeting of the Union Board of Health Tuesday afternoon on the recommendation of assistant provincial health officer Dr. J. M. Hershey.

The Board approved the appointment of Dr. Lane to fill the position which has been held on a part time basis for the last year by W. S. Kergin, after Dr. Hershey had outlined his qualifications for public health practice and termed him "A man whom we like, and we think you will like."

A young Victoria medical man, Dr. Lane has recently completed public health studies at the University of Toronto, where he was sent on a B.C. Department of Health scholarship. He is married and has one child.

In recommending Dr. Lane, Dr. Hershey told the Union Board that, although the Prince Rupert Health Unit was first on the list to receive a new medical director when one became available, the Department of Health was anxious to supply a well qualified man who would fit into community life.

"I believe you will be well satisfied with Dr. Lane," he said.

The Board moved that a letter of thanks be sent to Dr. W. S. Kergin for directing the Health Unit during the last year.

Cost of Service Here is Reduced

Dr. Hershey outlined the proposed new plan under which the Health Unit would operate on a basis of a cost to the community of 30 cents per capita per year, with the Department of Health bearing the balance of the cost. Cost of the service to Prince Rupert would be about $2,700 annually on a basis of 9,000 population, as compared with more than $4,000 which the city paid for public health service during the war years.

The new set-up will place the public health staff on the same rating as civil servants, with opportunities to take part in pension schemes and other security programs available to civil servants.

"However, the Department of Health feels that it is absolutely essential that the Union Boards of Health continue. Local autonomy will still remain," Dr. Hershey said.

A proposed budget which Dr. Hershey presented to the meeting showed an annual operating cost of $17,980, of which the Department of Health would pay $14,087. Prince Rupert's share of the most would be $2,700 and the cost in unorganized areas of the Prince Rupert school district $559. Terrace and Hazelton, which are in the Health Unit, would be assessed $633.

In unorganized areas, the district school boards would collect the per capita assessments, while in Prince Rupert the method of collection would be arranged between the City Council and School Board.

Present at the Union Board of Health meeting were Alderman Nora E. Arnold, chairman; M. J. Harper, Miss Joyce Leslie, Alderman Clifford Ham, Alderman George Hills, Inspector of Schools E. E. Hyndman, School Trustee Mrs. E. W. Becker and Miss Joy Foster.

Macey's Down Port Edward

Taximen Maintain Unbeaten Record—Tie in Junior League Standing

Making what was in effect, practically a one-man raid on Macey's of the Senior "B" League, Port Edward hoopsters last night missed by only a narrow margin carrying off the honors in a hard fought encounter. The visitors ended holding the short end of the 45-43 score.

In the three other games of the session, 99 Taxi maintained its Senior "A" supremacy by defeating Savoys 32-30 while in the Girls' League Rainbirds downed People's Store by a score 29-21 and in the Junior League, Grotto overcame Canadian Legion 21-17.

Port Edward's scoring strength was pretty well wrapped up in the person of A. Gurney, who lobbed in 32 of the visitors' 43 points. In a manner reminiscent of Jack Lindsay in one of his "hot" moments, Gurney made every move count toward a score. His virtuosity accounted for 16 of his team's 32 points at half time but, even at that early date, failed to match the more widely distributed accuracy of Macey's who had tallied up 27 points by the half-time whistle.

Joe Haugan led the Macey's scoring with 14 points, followed by Maurice Teng with 10. R. McNeil scored 9 points for Port Edward.

99 Wins Again

In the Senior "A" game, 99 Taxi arrived at half time leading Savoys 17-14, and Savoys managed to narrow the margin during the second half by a single point. Lindsay carried the individual honors for the taximen with 12 points while Ted Arney ran up an equal number for Savoys.

The girls' game was distinguished by Rainbirds' successful effort to overcome People's Store's initial lead thus saving themselves from their second defeat of the season at the hands of the working girls. Half time score was 12-11 in favor of People's Store.

Hard-working Carol Grey tallied 12 points for People's Store while Budnich and Thain led the scoring for Rainbirds with 11 and 10 points respectively. Grotto obviously had the advantage throughout their Junior League encounter with Legion. Scoring was well distributed, none of the players running up any spectacular totals. Grotto led at half time by a score of 10-6.

British Women Seek Equality

Await Report of Commission Probing Equal Pay For Men And Women

By JAMES MCCOOK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (AP)—Miss Ann George, young and smart, told the Trades Union Congress at Brighton that she is private secretary to a cabinet minister, and complained that if a man could get her job he would get 20 per cent more pay.

Miss George's protest that women have labored too long under unfair conditions in all forms of employment stirs concern in high places in the Labor movement, dependent through its history on the support of women workers. Miss George is secretary to George Tomlinson, minister of works, and other ministers in the Labor government probably have women secretaries who hold similar views.

The equal-pay-for-equal-work school has its enemies in those who say the average man has to maintain not only himself but a wife and family while many working women have not the same responsibility. The T.U.C., however, carried unanimously a resolution declaring dissatisfaction with "discriminatory practices pursued by employers of labor against their female staffs."

As a major employer of female labor, the government hopes its answer to the demand for equal pay for men and women doing similar work will be made easier by the report of a royal commission on the question which has been sitting at length but is expected to report shortly.

The commission was established by the Churchill coalition government as a result of the defeat by one vote on an education bill amendment dealing with equal pay for women teachers.

Mrs. Thelma Cazlet-Kerr, then a Conservative back-bencher, was responsible for this defeat. Later she became under-secretary for education but lost her seat at the 1945 general election.

The commission was asked to advise the government on the social and industrial implications of equal pay and what would be involved if it were adopted as a matter of national policy. The commission is not required to say whether it believes equal pay is desirable.

Sawmill Principal Industrial Activity Going On Now That Fishing and Canning Suspended

KETCHIKAN — Operation of the Ketchikan Spruce Mills Ltd. sawmill plant here is currently Ketchikan's principal industrial activity now that fishing is seasonably quiet and the six salmon canneries of the community are closed down.

Although the sawmill is running full blast, the United States Army is taking its entire production and there are no building materials for many people who would be building homes and making improvements were they able to do so.

The waterfront has been practically deserted for the past couple of months of larger craft due to the west coast maritime strike, the only regular steamboat callers being the Canadian steamers Prince Rupert and Princess Louise to which the new Camosun has now been added. Civic Centre Was Attended By 12,000 Persons During October

Statistical lists usually make dry reading to most people, but the monthly report of Prince Rupert's Civic Centre for October is an exciting document to the staff and executive of the community centre for it shows the amazing way the building has become the hub of recreational and cultural life in the city.

Recorded attendance at the Civic Centre during October was 12,176, which considering that the city's population is slightly over 8,000, is an eloquent testimony of the interest taken in the centre and its works.

"That is an extremely conservative figure," Managing Director Don Forward commented. "It does not take into consideration the people who just entered the building to look around. It represents the people who actually took part in events in the Civic Centre."

Neither does it take into account the number of people who entered the public library, which was installed on the second floor of the centre and operated there for 12 days during October.

Only 13, attendance there was 1766. This is accounted for by the fact that the auditorium was the scene of large gatherings including five dances and a film showing.

The Teen Age games room was focal point for 1,260 youths and girls during the month. This room is a recognized centre of youthful activity which is source of a high degree of proprietary satisfaction to the young people.

The solarium, which is a place where the sun shines at the turn of a switch, cast a warm glow over 224 persons who stood under the sunlamps. The adult games room served 280 persons while the canteen was visited by 4,900.

Roosevelt Park gym was attended by 370 people who took part in badminton, lacrosse, boxing and basketball practices and games.

Every Section of City There

In the various meeting rooms of the Civic Centre, groups representing practically every section of the population gathered sometime during the month. At the 51 meetings which took place there, there was an attendance of 1,315.

The public library, which was open in the Civic Centre for 12 days during October, loaned 812

"I don't think that interest in the building can be questioned," Mr. Forward continued. "Take last Monday, for instance. That was a typical day. There were 12 events in the building on Monday, and in the evening, every bit of available space was taken up. When people say the building is too big they should call around and see the difficulty we have accommodating community activities at times."

LONDON (AP)—Mrs. Ann Ma-linda Martin, on her 101st birth-day, told the Labor Mayor of Willesden: "I've always been a rare old Tory and the sooner we get out this abominable lot that's in power now the better."

Boy Scouts Reorganized

Prince Rupert Ass'n Formed With T. E. Anfield as Chairman and Col. Dixon as District Commissioner

The Boy Scout movement is being resumed in this city as another activity for the welfare and healthful activity of the lads and youths of Prince Rupert. Last night the Prince Rupert Boy Scout Association was organized at a meeting in the committee room of the Civic Centre with F. Earl Anfield as chairman and Lt. Col. Keith Dixon as district commissioner. Two Scout groups are already in operation here and early expansion is anticipated.

Decision to develop the Boy Scout movement here is the result of a survey made by Ken Jordan of Vancouver, British Columbia commissioner, who found that there was a definite potential here. Mr. Jordan was in attendance at last night's meeting and guided it through its early stages, advising and recommending lines of procedure. There was a general discussion of all phases of Scouting activities as applicable locally.

Concurrent with the perfecting of the local executive, steps will be taken to organize groups additional to those already in existence.

A meeting of the newly formed executive will be held this Friday evening for the primary

NAVY SHOW, WAS HERE IN PERSON, RETURNS TO PR. RUPERT AS PICTURE

"Meet the Navy," the romantic, musical motion picture story of the Royal Canadian Navy's triumphant tour of Canada, Britain and the Continent, is the featured attraction at the Capitol Theatre here this Thursday, Friday and Saturday, appropriately enough coming co-incidental to the current Navy recruiting campaign here.

"Meet the Navy" is the very same navy blue revue that swept across Canada (including Prince Rupert), Britain and liberated Europe, on a tidal wave of laughter and applause. It features the same cast of navy men and women, the same great tunes with several new ones and many of the scenes in this fast-moving movie are in glowing technicolor.

Among the musical numbers featured in "Meet the Navy" are, "You'll Get Used to It", "Lydia", "Beauty on Duty", "Boy in the Bell Bottomed Trousers", "Brothers in Arms", "In Your Little Chapeau", "My Diary Knows", "Songs of Canada", "Remembrance", "In Your Sunday Best" and "Tell Me."

The film is made more thrilling with an added screen story that provides heart-warming romance to its already brilliant array of songs, dances and comedy.

purpose of calling a general meeting of all interested organizations and persons possibly next week.

The executive consists of T. E. Anfield, chairman, Col. Dixon, Earl Gordon, G. A. Hunter, J. S. Wilson, N. L. Jones and Robert Cameron to which it is proposed to add further names.

The two existing groups are Wartime Housing, with Robert Cameron as chairman, and Harry Quick as Scoutmaster, and St. Andrew's Cathedral, N. L. Jones, chairman, and Rev. Basil S. Prockter, Cubmaster.

Attending the organization meeting last night were T. E. Anfield, Col. Dixon, Earl Gordon, Maurice Brydges, Pat Forman, N. L. Jones, James Nicoll, G. S. Weatherly, T. G. Bateman, Robert Cameron, G. A. Hunter and Rev. B. S. Prockter.
