City Probes Plane Base

Council Wants to Have Information About Insurance Costs at Seal Cove

How much does it cost to insure a $10,000,000 seaplane base? Mayor Daggett and his aldermen would like to know so they can make a decision about the Department of Transport's offer to allow the city the use of the Seal Cove base for civil aviation purposes.

At present they are somewhat in the dark and feel slightly crowded by aircraft operators who wish to use the base's facilities, on one side, and the federal government on the other. The government obviously wants a quick decision by the city lawmakers.

But the civic authorities do not feel like being crowded. Faced with the stipulation that they must bear the cost of paying insurance premiums on the buildings at the Seal Cove base if the city takes it over, the aldermen want to know just what the cost will be. So far no one has come forward with a figure.

Mayor Daggett told council last night that he had written to Ottawa to obtain information on the amount that the buildings would be insured for and that in reply he had received a form which, if filled out and signed, would commit the city to take over the base.

"They seem to be in a bit of a rush," he commented. "I suggest that we make no move until we find how much the buildings are worth."

Insurance of the buildings, according to Reconstruction Minister C. D. Howe, will be based on 25 per cent of the construction value of the buildings.

In the meantime, Mayor Daggett said, he has been in communication with a Vancouver aircraft operator who is desirous to make use of the Seal Cove air base.

Mayor Daggett said that he is investigating the possibility of the city taking over only a portion of the base and leaving the rest of the area available for industrial purposes.

The aldermen expressed agreement that if the city did take over the whole base it never could be put on a paying commercial basis as a terminus for water type aircraft.

Council authorized the Mayor to obtain information on possible revenues, expenses and the amount of waterfrontage needed by the city for seaplane base.

Downtown Business Block Purchased as New Home Prince Rupert Daily News

H. G. Perry, president and managing director of the Prince Rupert Daily News, announced today the purchase of the Brooksbank three storey and basement block with thirty-one feet frontage on Third Avenue across from First Street, to house the Daily News plant.

G. A. Hunter is secretary-treasurer and managing editor of the company. "This is the second stage in our planned post-war expansion program for the Daily News," said Mr. Perry. "We have already increased the size of the News to six pages daily and we intend as soon as paper is available to publish eight pages daily which we believe will be one of the best dailies in the province and a credit to the city of Prince Rupert." Mr. Perry stated that negotiations had broken down for the intended purchase of the building used at present and the erection of a new addition on the adjoining lot which the company owns.

"We shall not move into the Brooksbank block until after the New Year. In the meantime alterations will be made and a concrete addition constructed to house the press. We think the property will be one of the most attractive printing premises in this part of the province when completed enabling the Daily News to render the best possible service to the community it serves," he said.

Mr. Perry paid high tribute to the staff and printers all of whom are members of the Typographical Union. T. Fraser is foreman of the shop.

Chiang Lays Down Terms

With a View to Ending Civil War in Manchuria—Nationalists Must Be Recognized
NANKING—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, his position strengthened by government troop advances in Manchuria, was reported today to have laid down terms which Chinese communists must meet as a prerequisite to further talks on ending the civil war in the great northwest territory.

The extreme right-wing Kuang-tang (National Party) newspaper Takangpao said the generalissimo has advised General George Marshall, special American envoy to China, that the Communists must recognize the government.

Sovereignty in Manchuria and help to restore its communications are preconditions to new peace talks.

Loggers to Stage Demonstration of Solidarity in Seeking Government Action

PEARSON CRITICAL
VANCOUVER—Labor Minister George Pearson today criticized the projected "mass lobby" of the provincial government by striking woodworkers and asserted, if the government accepted the union's attitude, "we are heading for a state of anarchy in this country." Mr. Pearson reiterated that the strike is illegal, charged the union with taking the law into its own hands and declared that the tangled labor situation is one "the people of this country will not tolerate much longer." He said that today the union "is suggesting in effect that we take orders from them. No good can be accomplished by a mass trek on Victoria by strikers. If they are trying to force us into action in the field of the Dominion government's responsibility, they are wrong."

VANCOUVER—A march of striking loggers, possibly three thousand strong, on the Parliament buildings at Victoria is being planned for next Monday "to stir the government into action" in connection with the dispute of operators and workers. The march is also planned as a "demonstration of strength and solidarity." Meantime there is no change in the general strike situation. Chief Justice Gordon Sloan is still receiving representations from both sides and will need a day to make his report to Ottawa. The strike will be two weeks old tomorrow.

GETTING RID OF TYRANT FRANCO

Will Be Violence Unless United Nations Takes Action Says Republican Head
NEW YORK—The Spanish republican head is again demanding that the United Nations take steps to eliminate the Franco government of Spain. This could readily be done by economic measures, he declares, and, unless it is done, there will be violence within Spain to "get rid of the tyrant."

SPAIN HAS RIGHT TO ATOMIC WORK

MADRID—The Spanish foreign minister declares that Spain has a perfect right to conduct research into atomic energy. The United Nations has no authority to interfere with internal affairs of the country.

POWELL RIVER TO CLOSE DOWN

Cannot Operate After First Week in June if Loggers' Strike Continues
VANCOUVER—With the strike in the logging camps continuing and the dispute gone to non-binding government arbitration with no prediction as to the end of the strike possible, it appears under existing circumstances that the Powell River Co. will be able to operate its newsprint machines at Powell River full through the first week in June. A company statement, however, says that curtailment of production and shipments will undoubtedly be necessary at that time unless the strike ends suddenly.

The reserve pulpwood supply of the Powell River Co. is spread over a distance of 500 miles and conditions are such that it is impossible to determine the exact production or shipment figures beyond the first week in June. The company, in a statement to its newspaper customers, expresses appreciation of the steps being taken by them during a trying period and says it "cannot too strongly urge continued maximum possible conservation."

TRAGEDY IS INVESTIGATED

Brandon Police Endeavouring to Get at Bottom of Fatal Fireworks Display Victoria Day

BRANDON—Police are continuing their investigation of the cause of an explosion at the Victoria Day celebration here last Friday night when Rudy Brown, 21, aged 14, was trampled to death as a crowd watching a fireworks display stampeded. Panic started when spectators were showered with flaming fireworks.

The boy was buried yesterday. The condition of six persons in hospital with burns or injuries was reported improved.

DECLINE TO SUPPORT PRICE CEILING MOVE

City Council last night declined to endorse a resolution seeking maintenance of price controls on consumer goods submitted two weeks ago by the Prince Rupert Labor-Progressive Party on grounds that the aldermen "were not in possession of sufficient data" on the subject.

Council reverted from a secret committee of the whole session to deal with the matter which had been overlooked in the business of the previous open session.

The L.-P.P. resolution sought council's backing in urging the federal government "that ceilings be re-established on the bulk of the items on which they have recently been lifted and that no further concessions on prices be made until supply more nearly approximates demand."

The flood, caused by four days of heavy rains culminating in a cloudburst yesterday, reached 37½ feet this morning, five-and-a-half feet above the flood stage with a crest of 33 feet predicted. Other floods that inundated scores of towns in Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York left in their wake 200 dead and hundreds of homeless.

WINNINGTON-INGRAM

REV. A. F. WINNINGTON-INGRAM held the see of London, the third highest office in the Anglican hierarchy, ranking next after the Archbishoprics of Canterbury and York, for the longest time since the 17th century.

Although Bishop Ingram was an out-and-out High Churchman he endeavored always to be fair between different schools of thought in the bestowal of the considerable amount of patronage which his office yielded him.

Dr. Ingram made no pretension to erudition. This deficiency of high scholarship caused not a few churchmen of influence to view his appointment to the great see of London with some misgiving. Of his boundless feelings of charity towards men of all creeds and classes, however, there was never any doubt. Indeed, in his relations with certain of his clergy he was sometimes accused of being not merely charitable but altogether too easy-going, and the lack of discipline in the great unwieldy diocese of London often caused a wagging of heads.

On certain points, however, he was uncompromising. Despite his obvious leaning to the "Catholic" school of Anglicanism, his Lordship's addresses were generally of the simplest and most homely character.

APPRENTICESHIP

APPRENTICESHIP is education in a trade. The right of any boy or girl to learn or engage in any trade or profession for which he or she can qualify, is a fundamental right to education which must be ensured in any democracy.

Canadian boys and girls are being denied education in some trades by union agreements which prevent an employer from training more apprentices than the union restrictions permit. In some cases industry itself is not encouraging apprenticeship. Unions have monopoly of labor in the industry and the employers a monopoly of trade. Industrial peace has been purchased at the price of inalienable rights and progress.

Returning men and women are prohibited from learning trades by citizens who have assumed functions abdicated by the educational authorities.

There should be no permitting of conspiring to prevent others from learning, or engaging in, any trade. It is an offence for an employer to attempt to dissuade an employee from joining a union.

The only democratic test that can and willing to train as many apprentices as they can employ economically. Where industry cannot offer opportunity to learn, the schools should provide instruction.

Collective bargaining may be essential in modern industry but the collective suppression of educational rights is an intolerable privilege that should be removed at once, to permit Canadian youths to build futures of their choosing.

tice, is the value of the work produced. Employers should be free to be applied to the work of an apprentice.

SAVE THE CHILDREN

MATTHEW H. HALTON, Canadian journalist, in an impressive message from Germany prepared for the Save the Children Fund (Canadian Committee) writes: "Never before in Europe's long history of blood and tears have so many children been doomed and disinherited from love in the sun as there are today. Of the dead and murdered we need not speak—of the thousands killed by the bombs or exterminated by the Nazis in their mass exterminations—of the tens of thousands who died of starvation, and the scores of thousands who were born who never caught the first breath of life because of prenatal starvation—of these we need not speak. But—of another legion of children we do speak—and must act. The vast legion of children in Europe, who at this moment, now, are friendless, or orphans, or dispossessed, or disinherited or stateless, or homeless or diseased, or starving—and these are to be found in their several millions all the way from the Baltic to the Isles of Greece. For these children there is still hope—if the parents of more fortunate ones will act in time. That means today.

"Here in Germany I am among these children. I have visited many of them, and I say that pity herself could not measure a child's suffering in our time. The worst thing of course is hunger. Have you ever seen a starving child? The rickety legs and the bloated bellies are appalling enough, the pasty cadaverous faces and the burning eyes are worse still. But, there is something else—every so often there is a look of cunning which distorts the little faces more than hunger or pain. The starving child is the one who learns to lie and steal and betray—to do anything for a bite of food. Many European children have learned everything there is to learn in the lore of iniquity. From the child gangsters in the rubble of Warsaw and the Ruhr to the child prostitutes of fifty towns—yes hunger is the worst thing. In Vienna for example, of every thousand babies born, nearly three hundred die at birth, because their hungry mothers cannot nourish them in the womb. Thus Europe loses her future.

"Besides these, there are all the other children, homeless and parentless. In France alone, there are nearly half a million children whose parents went into German bondage and never came back. In a large camp in Germany, I was among imported women workers, who had born children to their German masters, children now without a father or a home. In Frankfurt I saw 400 motherless, fatherless, Jewish children in one party—to be taken to Palestine for adoption. They now had a hope after years of nameless terror—but others have nothing. Millions of children in this grim continent have been broken to every known misery."

TOTEMS WILL BE RESTORED

Charles Dudoward to Carry Out Work for City and Public Relations Council

The city's faded and decaying totem poles are to be restored to their original native coloration and physical soundness this summer by Charles Dudoward, Port Simpson native who has agreed to make the 11 totems "OK and in Indian fashion."

Speaking before city council last night, Mr. Dudoward said that he was still prepared to undertake an offer to replace decaying parts of the poles with sound wood, recarve damaged figures, and repaint the poles for $700. He stipulates that the city put up the scaffolding.

Major tourist attractions, even in their present dilapidated condition, the poles have been under the eye of city council for a recondition job for the last three years. Individuals and organizations have continually urged that they be restored.

A second offer by an unnamed native to recondition the poles at a cost of $25 each was turned down in favor of Mr. Dudoward's offer. Mr. Dudoward has agreed to finish the poles with a coat of boiled linseed oil and two coats of paint in colors similar to the original native dyes which colored them in their original Queen Charlotte Islands settings.

The work will begin "as soon as possible."

Mr. Dudoward recommended that all the poles should be covered at the back by thin sheet metal similar to that which covers two of the poles, to protect the backs from the ravages of weather. He also recommended that they be painted once every five or six years.

The poles are said to be among the last of the really magnificent Queen Charlotte Islands totems and have been a high point of tourist interest since they were installed in Fraser Park and near the city hall by Commissioner W. J. Alder more than 10 years ago.

Mayor Daggett told city council last night that the cost of restoring the totems would be considered the city's contribution to the Prince Rupert Publicity Council to which the city has pledged financial support.

What City Council Did

Council approved an application by Cambrai Chapter I.O. D.E. to hold a tag day on August 16.

Council approved the creation of a special committee consisting of the city engineer purchasing agent and the Mayor to make the necessary purchases for the Pioneers' Home.

An application by Fred Scadden to erect four billboard panels on vacant downtown lots was granted by city council. The aldermen, however expressed themselves as desiring to have it remembered that erection of such signs was subject to the approval of council and could not be done solely on the approval of the building inspector as is the case of other construction.

At Craigellachie, high in the Rockies, in 1885, Donald Alexander Smith drove home the golden spike to complete the Canadian Pacific Railway... and thus was Canada linked from coast to coast. Governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, Member of Parliament, Canadian High Commissioner, this great statesman dedicated his life to the cause of unity. Well may it be said... there was a man of vision, a clear-headed Canadian.

300 Years Ago CALVERT United Two Continents

IN 1622 CALVERT, famous English statesman and Secretary of State to King James I, helped to unite the Old World and the New. Founder of colonies in Newfoundland and Maryland, Calvert's ideals of unity did much to foster understanding and friendship between two great continents.

Man of Vision, Calvert, early in the 17th century, said, "Preserve unity... prepare for the future"... and he set the example by his own actions.

Calvert's ideals of unity have been shared by all men of vision since Calvert's time. Today... let each of us be a man of vision... let us work earnestly for a united Canada.

Upon unity of purpose depends the full measure of our stature as a nation. There is only one Canada for clear-headed Canadians.

BLACKHEADS
Go quickly by a simple method that dissolves them. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from your druggist, apply with a hot, wet cloth gently over the blackheads—and you will wonder where they have gone.

Sgt. William Scherk, son of Mrs. Bertha Scherk, Third Avenue East, arrived in the city Monday afternoon on the Princess Adelaide from Vancouver to spend 30 days embarkation leave at his home after three years overseas with the Canadian Scottish regiment.

REBEKAHS HOLD BIRTHDAY PARTY

In observance of the twenty-seventh anniversary of the lodge, members of the Rebekah lodge held a social gathering after their business meeting recently with the Oddfellows as guests. During the evening court whist was played and this was followed by refreshments during which the birthday cake was cut.

The cake, decorated with candles and icing and in a dainty floral setting, was cut by Mayor H. M. Daggett, after which several past officers of the lodge also wielded the knife. The cake was donated by Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Cox.

The evening was rounded out with dancing to music by Mrs. Margaret Love at the piano. Whist prize winners were Mrs. C. C. O'Neill and Margaret McGuire for the ladies, and Mayor Daggett and S. V. Cox for the men.

The committee in charge of the pleasant affair consisted of Noble Grand Miss Dorothy Johnson, Miss Betty Hood, Miss Margaret Colwell, Miss Molly Owens and Miss Aleida Johnson.

Are you really one of the best drivers in your community?

YOUR COMMUNITY?

Here's a way to rate yourself in the POLICE TRAFFIC SAFETY CHECK

Let's be honest, now . . . remember, your own safety and that of your family depend on the way you drive.

YES NO	1. Do you always signal before turning or coming to a stop (never play guessing games with the driver behind you)?	YES NO	4. Do you obey traffic lights—even when you're in a hurry?	YES NO	8. Do you know and observe the rules of the road in your community? (Frankly now, have you ever looked them up?)
<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>	2. Do you always come to a full stop at a stop sign (never coast through)?	<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>	5. Do you drive in and turn from the proper traffic lane?	<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>	9. Do you keep alert when driving—keep your mind on traffic?
<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>	3. Do you give the pedestrian a break even though he may not have the right of way? (Remember, you walk sometimes, too.)	<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>	6. Do you refuse to drink before driving? (Think, now, before answering.)	<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>	10. Do you drive within the speed limits—never yield to the temptation to do a little "low altitude flying"?
<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>

10 "YES" answers—Are you really that good?
8 to 10 "YES" answers—Good driving. We need more of you!
6 to 8 "YES" answers—Fair driving. You must improve.
Less than 6 "YES" answers—Poor driving. You're headed for trouble; possibly injury and serious financial loss!

P. S. Take another look at your score. Would your family and friends rate you the same?
Seriously, don't you wish when you and your family are on the streets that all drivers could truthfully answer Yes to all ten questions? Of course you do—and the next driver feels the same way about it. So start today to improve your score.

Check your DRIVING your CAR . . .

Check ACCIDENTS!

The Police Traffic Safety Check sponsored by International Association of Chiefs of Police.

CHECK YOUR CAR!
These are the mechanical features that will be examined in the Police Traffic Safety Check:

BRAKES — Do they need adjustment? How about the hand brake?
LIGHTS — Do any bulbs need replacing? Are headlights properly focused and aimed? Are tail and stop lights in good condition?
TIRES — Are they all in safe condition? (No cuts, fabric breaks, excessive wear?)
WINDSHIELD WIPERS — Do they operate satisfactorily? Do blades need replacing?
HORN — Does it operate easily and when you need it?

Are there any other safety items that need attention, such as steering, defects in glass, rear view mirror, muffler, etc? (Have these checked regularly.)

Activities of Rup-Rec

WORLD SERIES MOVIE—Tonight at the Centre auditorium, the long-awaited showing of the 1945 World Series games between Chicago Cubs and Detroit Tigers at Wrigley Field and Briggs Stadium will take place. The picture is next best to being in on the real game and should not be missed by any of Rupert's ball fans. Following the main World Series film, there is an amusing baseball cartoon. There will be no admission charged to see these pictures but a silver collection will be taken to help defray expense of bringing the film here. Immediately following the baseball pictures, the National Film Board movies will be shown. Mel Harper says that he has three excellent pictures for tonight's program.

SOFTBALL MEETING—Also, right after the World Series film, the organizational meeting for a Softball Association will take place. A one hundred per cent turnout of all players, coaches, fans, etc., is hoped for.

RUP-REC MEETING—Rup-Rec instructors and leaders will meet tonight to discuss plans for the leaders' party, to be held the following evening.

BOXING—Benny Winkle asks us to announce via the column that all boxers who are appearing on the fight card for June 13 are asked to be in attendance tonight at the Centre for training.

KHTADA GIRLS' PARTY—The Khtada Girls' Club held a very pleasant whist party for members and their friends in the ladies' lounge at the Centre last night. It is not widely known that the Khtada Girls' Club is the Junior Auxiliary organization to the Civic Centre and its members have taken on, as a regular project, the supplying of a receptionist for the "desk" at the Centre every evening from 7 to 10 p.m. In addition, the girls have helped out in all sorts of ways, acting as hostesses at dances in honor of visiting "firemen", as usherettes at the Rup-Rec shows, in the canteen—in short, wherever their assistance is needed.

Robin Hood Craze Hits Old London

LONDON, ©—Robin Hood and his merry men have stolen the thunder of the atom bomb. In every suburb in London, on the commons and in the parks, children are playing with bows and arrows.

Trees in gardens of bombed houses are being stripped of their branches for weapons. The craze may have been inspired by a recent film.

PUBLIC MEDAL
CAPETOWN ©—A peace medal, for sale to the public, has been struck by the South African Mint. Available in either gold, silver or bronze, the medal carries the Union coat of arms, and on the reverse a dove in flight with an olive branch in its beak.

SHORT SPORT

It is not often that the continent's oldest horse race has ever been won so easily as was the victory of the Parkwood Stables' grand colt Kingarvie in the historic King's Plate Saturday at the Woodbine race track at Toronto. Governor-General and Lady Alexander were among 23,000 persons who saw the eighty-seventh running of the race.

The $50,000 "Bunion Derby" ended in New York 18 years ago yesterday with Phil Granville of Hamilton finishing third behind Andrew Payne and John Salo. Nearly 200 runners started the race, organized by C. C. (Cash-and-Carry) Pyle and the survivors covered the 3,422.3 miles in 84 days. Few of the runners got more than their expenses.

Barney Ross and Jimmy McLarnin provided 31,000 New York boxing fans with one of the bitterest battles in years 11 years ago tonight. Defending title won from Ross eight months previously, the belting Vancouver Irishman went down to defeat after 15 rounds.

Australia Plans Permanent Forces

CANBERRA, ©—Australian service departments are considering proposals which will provide a permanent Australian Navy, Army and Air Force of 60,000 strength.

Figures under consideration provide for a standing army of 35,000, and air force of 15,000 to 20,000, and a navy of 9,000.

QUICK GROWING—In most parts of Canada, it must be admitted, it is often impossible to get much actual gardening done before early May, but we have a great advantage over our southern neighbors in the fact that once spring does start the long hours of sunshine bring growth along at a record rate. Indeed flowers and vegetables planted in northern gardens in June will often catch up, because of the longer days, with stuff set out weeks before farther south. There is a double advantage in this extra sunshine. First we can plant very late in the season and, secondly, because they grow more quickly, these late planted vegetables will be tender. The whole secret of vegetables is quick, unchecked growth, and that is exactly what we get with anything sown or set out after the weather has definitely turned warm. I is not a bit too late and it will not be until the end of June, for a whole lot of fine vegetables and annual flowers. Carrots, beets, beans, etc., can be sown at regular intervals right up to July in many parts of the country. It is good business even in the early sections to make several sowings, thus spreading out the harvest.

LAVOR SAVERS—Good sharp tools will save a lot of hard work. A dull spade or hoe never do the work efficiently. A few of the special tools, too, will prove helpful—things like Dutch hoes, hand cultivators and long-handled sowers to get out the weeds. Under the general heading of labor savers will be weed killers like the new 2-4-d and some of the DDT insect sprays or dust. These do the job with little effort.

STRATED PLANTS—It is not too late to set out started or bedding plants. Among the flowers will be petunias, cosmos, zinnias, calliopsis, phlox, and a score of other hardy annuals which stand transplanting well. In the vegetable line, in addition to the regulars like cabbage, peppers, tomatoes, celery, etc., there are also available in the larger cities such things as onions from seed (melons and cucumbers). Time can be saved now by using these started plants. Experienced gardeners will choose sturdy, dark green plants rather than the taller and possibly more advanced ones. In transplanting, which is best done on a cloudy day or in the evening, press soil closely about roots, water if possible and shade from the sun for a day or so. Set out in the evening after the sun has gone down.

Floating Airstrip Invented in India

NEW DELHI, India ©—The floating airstrip, a wartime discovery of great potential value to peace-time aviation, is the direct development of an experiment carried out 25 years ago by a young sapper officer in India. The test began at the headquarters of King George V's Own Bengal Sappers and Miners when Capt. D. W. R. Walker, designed a bridge of floating planks. Laid across a deep, swiftly-flowing canal, it was able to take the weight of a moving vehicle.

The "floating mat" principle was advanced a stage further in 1939 with the incorporation of canvass in its design. Vehicles could stop in midstream. By 1941 it had been adopted for use by the Indian Army. It was not until 1945 that the principle was successfully applied to aircraft. The young sapper, now Col. Walker, R.E., and his plans were rigorously tested by the Royal Engineers and the Royal Navy at Lamlash on the River Clyde, Scotland. Not only did "Clover," as the

MEET AND MIX FROM COAST TO COAST IN CANADA

Mt. Eisenhower, Alberta

WHEN CANADA renamed a mountain in honour of an illustrious general, famous, accessible old Mt. Castle in our neighbor province of Alberta was chosen.

Nowhere was the gesture understood and appreciated better than in British Columbia, where the grandeur of mighty mountains, great rivers and the fertility of fruit and farm lands makes this province of abundance the favorite of travellers from the world over.

British Columbia's tourist industry has a potential value to every citizen that is difficult to overestimate. Mr. E. G. Rowebottom, our Deputy Minister of Trade and Industry, states that it will grow to a $50,000,000.00 business in the next few years.

It is big business, good business and everybody's business. Everyone is asked to do their part in extending courtesy and friendship to these welcome guests within our borders.

This message is the fourth of a series supporting the efforts of our Government's Travel Bureau and Provincial Tourist Associations. Offered in the public service by . . .

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

A Meal in the Open: Some Ideas for a Family Picnic

The Experts Say...

By HELEN BANNERMAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

CEREALS ARE PRECIOUS

Many families who had acquired the habit of going on picnics and who had to devise new ways of amusement because of gas rationing, will be making plans to go on more picnics now. Victoria Day is usually the date fixed for the picnic and every member of the family looks forward with the hope that it will be a glorious day such as it was in Prince Rupert this year.

Onions, celery, cucumbers or tomatoes might well be tucked into every picnic basket. Whole wheat or bran muffins may be used instead of bread. These cereals contain parts of the grain removed in milling white flours. A more general use of them in Canada will help to save wheat for overseas. Rolled oats or 'fine' oatmeal used to partially replace flour in biscuits also serves this purpose.

Tomato Meat Spread

2 1/2 cups ground cooked meat
2 tablespoons grated onions
1/2 cup tomato juice
Few grains cayenne
1 tablespoon chili powder
Salt and pepper to taste
Combine ingredients and cook, stirring constantly until mixture is thoroughly blended and reaches the boiling point. Cool and store in covered container. Yields about 2 1/2 cups.
This filling keeps 2 or 3 weeks in the refrigerator.

Picnic Salad

1 teaspoon prepared mustard
1/4 cup salad dressing
1 cup sliced or diced ripe banana
2 cups shredded cabbage
1/2 cup chopped sweet or dill pickles
1/4 teaspoon salt
Combine prepared mustard with salad dressing. Slice or dice bananas into first mixture and blend only enough to coat fruit. Mix together the cabbage, sweet or dill pickle and salt. Add the first mixture and toss together lightly. Six servings.

Oatmeal Tea Biscuits

1 cup all-purpose flour (sifted)
OR 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons pastry flour (sifted)
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup fine oatmeal
3 tablespoons fat
2/3 cup milk
Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Add the oatmeal and cut in the fat. Add milk and let stand 2 minutes. Toss lightly on a floured board and pat out to 1/2-inch thickness.

Cereals are one of our most precious foods these days and the less bread and white flour used in our homes the more these will be to send to Europe. To help prevent waste we can purchase cereals in smaller quantities than formerly and take particular care to store it well in the hot summer months. Any cereal, especially those containing the germ of the grain, require good storage in hot weather. Weevils develop readily in warm weather unless the cereal is kept cold and dry. In those which contain the germ the oil may turn rancid.

The home economists of the Agriculture Department Consumer Section suggest a tin with closely fitting lid as an excellent container for cereals and it should be stored where it will be kept fairly cool.

To reduce the bread served, scones, biscuits and muffins made from bran or rolled oats make good substitutes. Those Honey Bran Muffins make an excellent accompaniment for salad or dessert or to take on a picnic.

The recipe for Honey Bran Muffins which yields a dozen medium-sized muffins requires 1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour; three teaspoons of baking powder; 3/4 teaspoon of baking soda; 3/4 teaspoon of salt; 1 1/2 cups of cooking bran; 1/4 cup of honey; one egg; 1 1/4 cups sour milk or buttermilk, and two tablespoons mild-flavored, melted fat.

Sift the flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. Add bran, mixing thoroughly. Mix honey, well-beaten egg and sour milk and add with melted fat to the dry ingredients, mixing quickly and lightly. Turn into well greased muffin pans, filling them 2/3 full, and bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees Fahrenheit, for 20 to 25 minutes.

Cut with biscuit cutter and bake on greased baking sheet in a very hot oven, 450 degrees F., for 15 minutes. Yield: 12 medium biscuits.

BETTER EATING HABITS

The Food Information Committee supplied these figures about how improvement in our eating habits can help the less fortunate parts of the world.

One slice of bread saved each day by each Canadian would release sufficient to increase the daily ration of 900,000 hungry people by 1,000 calories.

A single slice of bread wasted by each household in Canada adds up to more than 117,000 loaves, or 634 barrels of flour or 2,800 bushels of wheat.

A one-ounce reduction in the amount of meat you give your family would not be noticed either by you or them, if each family used just one ounce less of meat each day, the national saving would be more than 600 tons of meat in a week—meat that would find its way to people who live with hunger.

Do you know that you may throw away the equivalent of one egg white in every dozen if you don't thoroughly scrape out the shells?

The committee also contributes these bits of advice: Make clean plates the vogue of the day in your household; Become an accurate judge of appetites and don't cook for six when there are four to be fed; if you have left-overs make interesting use of them as promptly as you can; cooked foods particularly vegetables, rapidly lose attractiveness and nutritive value on standing.

SEEKS HOTEL SHARE STOCK

Dong Sing in Court Battle For Remembrance Request

A claim by Dong Sing for 100 shares of Prince Rupert Hotel stock, allegedly left him by the late J. C. K. Sealy of Smithers who died August 9, 1940, is being heard before Mr. Justice A. M. Harper in assize court today. Defendant in the civil action is the government agent at Smithers, administrator of the Sealy estate.

According to evidence Sealy died without leaving a properly attested will but had set the shares aside for Sing, who he "wanted to remember," a short time before he died at the age of 76.

Mrs. Marian Katharine Bates, Sealy's housekeeper, told the court how Sealy had instructed her to divide 500 shares of Prince Rupert Hotel stock, which she did, attaching notes indicating the name of the person for whom it was intended and the number of shares.

Sealy was a partner of the late H. B. Rochester in the hotel company.

In the division, according to the notes attached to the certificates presented in court, Dong Sing received 100 shares, Mrs. Agnes Rochester 25 shares, William J. Kurtin, Sealy's ranch manager, 64 shares; Mrs. Marian Bates, 100 shares; Mrs. Sealy, deceased's widow, 143 shares; Mrs. Lily Preece, a former housekeeper, 15 shares, and Robert Gerow of Burns Lake, 53 shares.

Mrs. Bates, under questioning by plaintiff's counsel, C. K. Guild, told how she had divided the shares in July, 1940, at the request of Mr. Sealy who had suffered a stroke the year before and who was in serious ill health.

"You folks should be satisfied now," Mrs. Sealy told Mrs. Bates after the shares had been divided. Mrs. Bates recounted to the court. She had been Sealy's housekeeper from December, 1919, until the time of his death. Mrs. Bates said that Sealy had

PRINCE GEORGE

After hearing an appeal by Miss Jessie Robertson, the lady superintendent, Prince George Hospital Society, at its meeting last week, went on record as viewing with sympathy the aim of Fort George Chapter, British Columbia Registered Nurses' Association, to obtain collective bargaining rights. Miss Robertson expressed hope that it would not be necessary for nurses to turn to labor unions for help. It was against their precepts to go on strike, said Miss Robertson, but it might be found necessary to do so.

The Prince George "Conquer Cancer" campaign, under the chairmanship of A. M. Patterson, had realized $1272 of the $1500 objective by the latter part of last week. Miss Mary Zimmaro was leading the district campaign workers.

John Corless has been recommended by the local Canadian Legion as commanding officer for a proposed new militia unit here.

Dr. L. T. Maxwell, recently discharged from the Royal Canadian Medical Corps with which he served in Prince George during the war, has taken over the medical practice of Dr. Carl Ewart who has retired and will reside in future in New Westminster.

told her that "he had always the greatest regard for Sing and wanted to remember him" when he allegedly named Dong Sing as beneficiary of the 100 shares.

The late Mr. Sealy left a 1,700-acre ranch at Smithers, Prince Rupert and Vancouver. The ranch was divided equally between Mrs. Bates and William J. Kurtin whom, Mrs. Bates said, Mr. Sealy had brought out from England as a young man in 1914.

Counsel for the defendant is J. T. Harvey.
