Serious Labor Tie-up, Involving Workers to 700,000 Number, Ended

Reconversion Band Wagon Will Be Able to Get Back Into Motion Again

WASHINGTON (CP)—Final settlement of one of the troublesome United States steel strike has jarred the nation's stalled reconversion band wagon back into motion again. The log-jam in the steel industry broke when "Big Steel" as the U.S. corporation is known, made a deal with the C.I.O. steel workers, setting the broad pattern for the rest of the industry to settle with the union thus ending a strike which has tied up 700,000 workers.

The settlement includes an 18% increase in pay as from January 21 with 9 1/2% from January 1. United States is allowed to increase the ceiling on steel products by $5.

The men will return to work on Monday but it will be some time before conditions are back to normal and stood goods controls will be continued in this country and Canada indefinitely owing to short supplies.

CANADIAN NATIONAL OFFICES ARE PICKETTED IN CAMPAIGN FOR ACTION IN SHIPBUILDING AT LOCAL YARD

"Mystery! Why Doesn't the C.N.R. Want Contracts?"

"No Ghost Town For Us!"

"Please, Mr. Vaughan, Take Us Into Your Confidence!"

Six members and sympathizers of the Prince Rupert "Jobs-For-All" Association carried these proclamations before the eyes of a somewhat startled citizenry this morning as they carried out their threat, made a week ago, to picket the Canadian National Railway downtown office for two hours today.

They say they want "contracts, not rumors" to replace the diminishing activity at the Prince Rupert Dry Dock and Shipyard and they threaten to keep up their picketing sessions, with strategic timing of course, until they get results.

"As punctually as if they had to punch a time clock, the six picketers showed up on front of the C.N.R. Third Avenue offices at 10 o'clock this morning after marching up the street from the Boiler-makers' Hall in the Metropole Building where the picket line formed. There was no interference although police watched the demonstration.

"Citizens who had learned earlier through the Daily News that the "Jobs-For-All" Association planned to take spectacular action today seemed somewhat startled when they saw the thing actually begin and the reactions of passersby ranged from downright derogatory condemnation to enthusiastic commendation.

Miss J. R. Blakey, who is acting secretary of the "Jobs-For-All" Association, and who is "captain" of the picket line," assured the Daily News that the line would remain in front of the railway offices for two hours today and that the intermittent picketing will continue "until we get results."

"I don't know how long that will be but we plan to keep it up until these rumors are replaced by definite information of contracts at the dry dock," she said.

Arrival and departure of the Canadian National steamer Prince Rupert next week will see the picketers on the waterfront proclaiming their placard slogans to travellers.

Four of today's picketers were jobless. The other two were Mrs. Blakey, whose husband, J. R. Blakey is a shipyard worker, and Bruce Mickleburgh, perennial Labor-Progressive candidate and teacher at the King Edward elementary school.

Later in the morning, Mrs. Mickleburgh, who teaches at Booth Memorial High School, entered the picket line as "relief" taking over while the others went for coffee.

Mrs. Blakey, who acted as spokesman for the group, carried a slogan "Wartime Housing Won't Take Rumors For Rent." She said: "You get rumors from the dry dock, and rumors from Selective Service. Selective Service told one man to stick around because there might be something doing at the dry dock."

The latter was vehemently denied by Unemployment Insurance Officer E. V. Whiting when he was buttonholed by a Daily News reporter on the street.

Mr. Whiting exploded: "That is not true. I have repeatedly urged everybody who is seeking a job to take work where they can get it, and not stick around in the hope of the dry dock getting more contracts. I certainly never have offered false hope to any jobless man."

Citizens' Reactions

W. M. Watts, secretary of the Prince Rupert Industrial Development Committee, walked to the doorway of his clothing store and looked up the street where the picketers were walking back and forth in front of the railway offices.

He declined to comment.

A businessman who operates an institution a couple of doors away was less restrained. It was he who vowed, an outrage and should be stopped.

Several other citizens went to bat for the picketers, feeling that the publicity would be of great value to the city. None, however, volunteered to join the picket line.

Other slogans carried by the picketers were "Contracts—Not Rumors," and one showing a blank square with the legend "In This Square Is the Government's Post-War Plan."

The picketers were Mrs. J. R. Blakey, Jack Parker, president of the "Jobs-For-All" Association, Bill Greenwood, Alex McCuish, Fred Vickery, Norman Ricord, Bruce Mickleburgh and Mrs. Bruce Mickleburgh.

The Trans-Pacific service from Vancouver was suspended early in the war and the company lost heavily of the ships which it formerly had in that run.

After Start of Jamaica Mental Hospital Goes on Strike

KINGSTON, Jamaica—More than 100 inmates of the Kingston mental hospital escaped yesterday during a strike of the institution's attendants and nurses. Late last night, police had captured all but 15 of the inmates. The inmates of the mental hospital roamed the Kingston streets and robbed stores and private homes before their capture.

The strike was in-demand for the removal of the medical superintendent.

LONDON (CP)—Reuters said today that the Vatican has announced that Cardinal-Designate Josef Mindszenty, Archbishop of Strigonia and Primate of Hungary, had been refused Russian permission to leave Hungary to attend consistories in Rome. All but three of 32 cardinals-designate already have arrived in Rome for ceremonies this week-end in connection with their elevation. The other two were unable to attend because of sickness.

Rome sources said Friday night that Archbishop Mindszenty, who had signified his intention of attending the consistories, had taken a stand against the Hungarian coalition government during recent months. After he had preached in one of Budapest's churches last Sunday, crowds leaving the church cheered him and then cheered two Hungarians who had recently been sentenced to death as war criminals.

One alarming report in Rome was that the cardinal-designate had been sentenced to death.

Government Officials Involved in Charges; Commission to Probe

OTTAWA (CP)—The Associated Press reported today that twenty-two men were retained by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in their dramatic round-up of suspects in connection with a newly-launched government investigation of espionage activities in the capital. The information is said authoritatively to have been connected with production of atomic energy and is said to have gone to the Russian embassy. No comment is forthcoming from the Russian mission.

DETAILS OF INJURIES OF LOCAL FLIERS

Further report received today by local relatives reveals that Capt. Albert Mah sustained a fracture of the right femur and Kan Lee a fracture of the left knee cap and bad lacerations of the left ankle in a plane crash near Montreal in which they were involved on Thursday. Both are doing well in Montreal Victoria Hospital and it was suggested they might be out in a couple of weeks' time. The two well known local fliers were forced to land in fog while on the way from North Bay to Three Rivers with a twin-motored plane. A tone of their message suggested that they might have been fortunate that the accident was not even more serious.

Pioneer Rupert Fisherman Dies

John Daniel O'Neill, a resident of Prince Rupert for the last 33 years, died in Prince Rupert General Hospital this morning after a lengthy illness. He was 68 years old. CHARGE BRITISH-LED POLES ARE PEACE DANGER

LONDON—Russia told the United Nations today that 120,000 Polish troops under British command remain in Italy and they constitute "a possible threat to the peace, calm and order of the Yugoslav-Italian frontier."

The memorandum did not request action by the security council but it came a day after Britain had received from Poland a demand that Polish troops in Italy and Britain be returned to their homeland.

The British foreign office had estimated at 107,000 the number of Poles in Italy.

Meanwhile, the United States asked the council to settle the dispute over the Levant with a declaration expressing confidence that it would be negotiated promptly and that British and French troops would be withdrawn as soon as practicable. Syria and Lebanon have changed that these troops endanger the peace and, therefore, are subject to council action.

JAPS MOVE TO CURB INFLATION

TOKYO—The Japanese government took its first major steps today to control the shaky economy of the beaten country ravaged by inflation and black markets. Three Imperial ordinances virtually froze bank accounts and required conversion of currency into new bank notes by March 7. It also restricted distribution of foodstuffs, to authorized channels. Individual Japanese will have limited salaries and restricted bank withdrawals as their only currency.

CLOSED SHOP IS STUMBLING BLOCK

Explanation in Connection With Interpretation of Trades and Labor Report

A report of Thursday night's Trades and Labor Council meeting in the Daily News last night was interpreted to indicate that the unions in the current dispute with the local cold storage plants were out for conciliation of the whole existing agreement. As a matter of fact, it is explained, all that the union is asking is conciliation of the "closed shop" phase of the dispute which was the stumbling block of negotiations, the companies, rather than the union, insisting on conciliation in connection with the whole agreement.

This source said it was possible an interim report would be made soon by the commissioners to clear the air of a welter of rumors that sprang up in the wake of Mr. King's announcement.

The investigation has been under way for some time and Friday's arrests were "just the start" of a climax.

The original source said that the suspects were not arrested but "detained for questioning."

There was no resistance from any of those taken into custody. At least the majority were Canadian and "not all of them" were employees of the Canadian government.

It was reported that at least one high official was involved with "big and little" civil servants.

At Toronto it was learned the investigation has been extended to that city.

At Washington State Department officials said they were aware in advance of mass arrests but would not say anything further.

Wages, Prices, Strikes

Announcement of President Truman's new wage-price formula providing for the facilitating of wage increases and raising of price ceilings to make such increases possible was soon followed by announcement of the settlement of the big United States steel strike dispute. The same formula may be expected to result in the settlement of other labor-management disputes in the United States.

It is gratifying, of course, to see the strikes being settled but it is, on the other hand, obvious enough that the prescription of settlement cannot mean continued and permanent health on the economic front in the nation which is already beset by the ills of inflation.

In this case, the workers have their increase. The steel company gets permission to increase the prices so that the higher wages may be paid. The consumers, who are to large extent the wage earners, will have to pay the shot. So, when one comes to think of it, it is difficult to see where anyone is ahead of the game.

Depot Facilities

The Junior Chamber of Commerce is modest in its request of the railway company that something be done about improving the waiting rooms in the local railway station. They have long been a drab and ill-appointed shelter for the public.

The Junior Chamber would have been warranted, as a matter of fact, in asking for a much more extensive improvement of depot facilities here. The scruffy little old building is certainly not much in keeping with what might be expected at an important port and terminus of a transcontinental railroad.

This is one of the things that the people of Prince Rupert themselves do not notice for it is seldom they personally need the facilities of a railway station. A stuffy and dilapidated railway station, without even the convenience of a light eating place, leaves its impression of an unfavorable kind on people who are strangers and have nowhere to go when awaiting arriving or departing trains.

And, while we are on the subject of an improved railway station, we might also consider the utter lack of waiting facilities here for the people who travel by the sea and have to wait on the docks for their ships. There is absolutely nothing to provide them with a little comfort or convenience and something really ought to be done about it.

What a Lovely Day!

As a service club leader from Portland, Oregon, who visited the city this week, said, people of Prince Rupert are not appreciative of the blessings—even the gentle and refreshing rain—with which Nature has imbued Prince Rupert.

We think sometimes about Vancouver people unduly knocking Prince Rupert weather and talk over much about the rain here. As a matter of fact, probably there are no worse knockers and complainers about Prince Rupert weather than the people of Prince Rupert themselves. We as newspaper folk who get around a bit know of many occasions where visitors have been revelling in our fresh, bracing air and blessing rain when the local people at the very same time have been going around with long faces complaining about and apologizing for the "terrible" weather.

Boosting should, of course, commence at home and, when a lot of us do so much grousing about the weather, what can we expect from people who do not know anything about it except what they hear from us ourselves?

How many of us this very day, for instance, thought how "fine" rather than how "bad" the weather was? How many of us think on the "bright" rather than the "cloudy" side? After all, the weather, like other things, is often how we take it. It is rare enough in Prince Rupert, indeed, on which we really have anything much to complain about.

Radio Advertising Nuisance

In newspapers, people read the advertisements because they want to read them, because they are interested in what the ads have to say. Surveys have shown that people would rather have their newspapers with ads than without ads. On the radio, however, the advertiser's message is usually an intrusion and an annoyance. Few people want to listen to it. Here is new proof:

According to results of a recent radio audience survey roughly half of 6,429 men and women who answered the question "Do any announcements you hear on the radio particularly annoy you?" expressed themselves as being annoyed by commercials.

While the survey can by no means be used as an infallible yardstick for the country as a whole, it may be indicative of how radio listeners in general feel about radio commercials.

More and more manufacturers are advertising their products in the daily newspapers of Canada. The increase in this national advertising in 1945 over 1944 was over 8 percent.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS HONOR GUARDIAN

Delightful Surprise Party Last Night on Mrs. Alex Mitchell's Birthday

Esteem and affection for their guardian and mentor was happily exemplified last night when forty or so members of the local Bethel of Job's Daughters gathered at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Kergin in a delightful surprise party for Mrs. Alex Mitchell. It was the occasion of the ever popular "Laura's" birthday.

The evening was gaily spent in playing of bingo and other games, community singing and other diversions and the highlight of the proceedings was the making of a novel gift to Mrs. Mitchell by Miss Dot Kergin. A gift was also made to Mrs. Kergin by Miss Ruth Walton.

Feature of the refreshments was a handsome birthday cake, replete with candles, which were blown out in the customary manner by the evening's guest of honor.

LEGION LADIES GREETED 200 VETS

Welcome Hut Busy Spot Since Last September

The pleasure of returning home has been enhanced for almost 200 of Prince Rupert's war veterans by the warm welcome extended by the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion since last September 7 when they took over the Welcome Hut on the C.N.R. wharf.

How many gallons of coffee have been served to the returning warriors, the Legion ladies do not know, but during their six months of meeting boats and trains 190 packages of cigarettes have been given away free.

Names of more than 180 soldiers, sailors and airmen and women have been recorded in the register book kept in the hut, but Mrs. Rothwell, who, with Mrs. Henry Smith jr., does "welcome" duty on Wednesdays, says that some have arrived who have not had their names recorded.

"Some of the boys are met by their parents at the gangplank or train and are whisked off home without stopping at the hut," says Mrs. Rothwell, whose rosette welcome button is a familiar sight on the wharf when the Prince Rupert docks on Wednesdays.

As the service men and women come off the boats and trains they are taken to the Welcome Hut where they are fed lunch and coffee and given cigarettes. Often they use the telephone in the hut to call taxis.

The ladies feel amply repaid for their work by the expressions of gratitude which the veterans are insired to express.

Sometimes service at the Welcome Hut becomes almost a family affair as in the case of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Parent who have come down together. Mr. Parent and Mr. Robertson extend welcomes on behalf of the Legion. Mrs. Rothwell is often assisted by her two sons who help in preparing lunches.

Among those who have taken part in the welcome program are Mr. and Mrs. Dan Parent, Mrs. W. Rothwell and sons, Mrs. Henry Smith jr., Mrs. G. V.

Kitsilano Boys' Band May Hold Concerts Here

The prospect of inviting the famed Kitsilano Boys' Band to play a series of concerts in Prince Rupert is being investigated by the Canadian Legion here which hopes that the plan can be arranged some time this spring. A suggestion has been put forward that the Vancouver band hold concerts in Ocean Falls and Ketchikan as well while on the proposed northern tour.

SURPRISE PARTY ON ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Blakely Are Honored by Friends

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Blakely, Ninth Avenue East, were honored on Wednesday evening by a large number of friends who came to congratulate them on the occasion of their tenth anniversary. In presenting them with the gift of a plant, Bruce Mickle expressed the esteem of the present and wished them many more years of happiness. Present also were Mr. Henderson and Jim Taylor were welcomed back to Prince Rupert after having just returned from active service at sea.

Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. Miss Ann Zarko entertained the company with humorous anecdotes and Bud Taft offered numbers. The evening closed with the singing of "For Are Jolly Good Fellows" and "Auld Lang Syne."

COME TO Church

Saturday Sermon
ORDINARY CHRISTIANITY

REV. BASIL PROCKTER, Rector, St. Andrew's Cathedral
There is a story told of a man well advanced in the third or fourth stage of intoxication who knocked on the door of the parsonage and said: "Reverend, I want to talk about religion." "You had better come back when you are sober," replied the padre. "No," the man said, "that's no good. When I'm sober I'm not interested."
During the war years a sort of hysteria swept over our country and most other countries which can be likened to the intoxication of the man in the story. The prime minister gets on the national network and tells us all to go to church. Newspapers and business houses buy and give feet of space to tell us to go to church. Both privately owned and nationally owned radio donates hours of time to religious broadcasts. We have National Days of Prayer and Victory Loan Sundays to say nothing of the people paid by the Wartime Information Board to supply literature to the clergy absolutely free so that they won't even have to go to the trouble of writing their own sermons.
Now, presumably, we return to days of the peace which the world can give and I wouldn't be surprised if the sobering process does not bring with it an acknowledgment on the part of many of these hysterical elements that in ordinary times they are not particularly interested.

Let me say that I welcome a return to what might be called ordinary Christianity. I cannot help feeling that a great deal of this religious propaganda carried on by secular agencies is or will be in the long run more harmful than helpful.
There was a time when a great many people were in the habit of attending church regardless of the subject of the sermon, who was preaching, who was doing the solo, what the anthem was, or whether it was Easter Day, Mother's Day, Victory Loan Sunday or a National Day of Prayer. Now, by these means, the emphasis has been shifted and a great many people regard the special day as the day to go to church almost simply and solely for sentimental rather than dogmatic reasons with the result that a great deal of that kind of church attendance has no significance at all. It doesn't signify if people go or if they stay away on a Victory Loan Sunday, from the standpoint of true religion. Nor, for that matter, on Easter Day when that is regarded as the special time to go... as if forsooth, the fourth commandment had been altered to read one day in seventy!

What we need today is a return to ordinary Christianity which worships and prays and receives the Sacraments Sunday by Sunday through sunshine and shower regardless of what Sunday it is. This, of course, can only be done for dogmatic reasons. It can only be done by people who are staking their lives on the conviction that what the Apostles' Creed says is the simple truth and the only truth supremely worth knowing. And here is where churchgoing begins to count as a force in everyday life... a regular return to the Fountain of the Water of Life.
That kind of religion is so ordinary that it never gets into the newspapers any more than our private devotions or our daily Bible reading will. But that is the kind of religious we need more of.

UNITED CHURCH JUNIOR WOMEN'S AUXILIARY TEA
The spacious home of Mrs. C. H. Hankinson was the setting Thursday afternoon for a successful Valentine tea sponsored by the Junior Women's Auxiliary of the First United Church. The weather was auspicious and almost two hundred ladies called during the afternoon.
The pouring table was covered with a beautiful cut work cloth, centred with a silver bowl of white carnations and narcissi surrounded by tall red tapers. Colorful spring flowers throughout the rooms added to the beauty of the setting.
The home-cooking and candy tables were gay with Valentine motifs.
Receiving the guests were Mrs. C. H. Hankinson and Mrs. R. A. Wilson. Convener of the tea room was Mrs. Crawford Moore. Mrs. R. G. Large, Mrs. Andrew Thompson, Mrs. G. A. Johnson and Mrs. T. H. Payne poured, and servers were Mrs. Jack Finley, Mrs. Thornton Hay, Mrs. David Al-

AN EXPLANATION To Our Customers Re Nylon Hosiery
Considerable publicity has been given to the fact that Nylon hosiery will go on sale across Canada on February 19. The initial quota allowed each retailer, however, is so insignificant as to create a ridiculous situation when any attempt at an equitable distribution is made.
With the kind co-operation of Mr. Black and the Capitol Theatre, we are distributing our entire initial quota of Orient Nylon stockings to the public free of charge. On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week the winners of the nightly drawings will be presented with a card which, when redeemed at our store, will entitle bearer to a pair of Nylon stockings free of charge.
We are sure you all hope that further deliveries may be regulated so that a fair distribution to all may be made.

CADET INSPECTOR AT SCHOOL LAKELSE BUS GOES TO RUPERT

Sergeant Hill of Victoria was at the Terrace School on Wednesday afternoon to make a routine cadet inspection. He displayed to the cadets and explained a few light modern weapons—the sten gun, grenade, and a very modern type of pistol. By Wednesday night's train, Sgt. Hill proceeded to Telkwa and Smithers. He will then return to Prince Rupert.

Mrs. Floyd Frank and daughter returned on Wednesday night's train from Prince Rupert.

Mrs. A. Beaudin was taken ill suddenly and left on Tuesday night's train for the Prince Rupert Hospital. Her many friends are hoping for a rapid recovery.

Wednesday night's freight carried with it to Prince Rupert the Skeena Motor Transport bus which has been sold to Art Murray of 99 Taxi. This vehicle had enabled local people to enjoy the beauties of Lakelse Lake and other scenic spots.

Lieutenant R. J. Lajeunesse, son of Mrs. Dave Jordan, having returned from overseas service early in December, is now continuing with a course in mining engineering at the University of Toronto. He expects to graduate this summer and will then take post graduate work at the University of Mexico.

John Desjardins is seriously ill at the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

NAMED MANAGER OF JASPER LODGE

British Columbia Man Is Taking Over at Mountain Resort

MONTREAL—Capt. John P. Stark, University of British Columbia graduate and former Victoria resident, has been appointed manager of Jasper Park Lodge, Canadian Rockies resort hotel, which re-opens June 15 after being closed during the war years. The announcement was made in Montreal today by Robert Somerville, general manager Canadian National Railways Hotels.

Just repatriated, Capt. Stark saw service with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps in England and Holland. Prior to enlistment he was manager of Minaki Lodge, C.N.R. Lake of the Woods resort, and assistant manager of the Fort Garry Hotel, Winnipeg.

Capt. Stark began his hotel career at Jasper Park Lodge while attending U.B.C. He was a summer employee there during his undergraduate years. He entered the C.N.R. hotel service shortly after his graduation in 1936.

More Survivors of Yukon Here—
Man and Wife Lost $2500—Crab Fishing On — Engine Deliveries Slow.

Prince Rupert was host briefly yesterday to two more survivors of the steamer Yukon, the wreck of which in Johnstone Bay near Seward on February 3 made world-wide news as Coast Guard boats made heroic rescue of her 400-odd passengers in storm-swept seas. The visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cook of New York who arrived here from Ketchikan Friday afternoon on an Ellis Air Lines Bianca plane piloted by Wes Sande, veteran Alaska pilot. Mr. and Mrs. Cook left on last night's train for New York. Like the other passengers they were heavy losers when the after section of the Yukon broke away from the grounded forward part and sank. In addition to all their effects, they lost $2,500 in cash which was their accumulated savings.

The picture of crewmen of the U.S. Coast Guard rescue ship Onondaga pacing the deck, all night with infants in their arms while other bluejackets heated milk to feed children separated from their parents during the Yukon rescue is one that stands out clearly for Miss Irene Leposky of Pittsburgh, Pa., who passed through Prince Rupert yesterday. The Coast Guardsmen, she said, took delight in referring to each other as "mother" during the long night, while the Onondaga stood by the Yukon before taking the first load of passengers to Seward.

Announcement by Hon. H. F. G. Bridges, federal Minister of Fisheries, this week that fisheries patrols and services on this coast are to be strengthened appears to meet the approval of local fishermen who appreciate the need for conservation of the fishery. Halibut men see the proposed aircraft patrol as means of stopping alleged poaching in other types of fishery, while several salmon fishermen have lauded the intensive salmon study program as a means of restoring the salmon fishery on the Skeena. Particularly in the last two years, salmon productivity in the Skeena has fallen off badly.

Labor strikes in the United States steel and automotive industries are having an effect here among fishermen who have had orders for new boat engine; placed for some time. Several report inability to get engines that were ordered weeks, and even months ago. They say that they have been advised that they can be given no positive assurance of delivery time.

Crab fishing is thriving in the harbor and near Port Edward, the city market reportedly being able to absorb all the catches of the various crab fishermen.

Planing of a 39-foot troller built at the Cow Bay Boat Works for James Nelson of Kitkatla, is being completed. The vessel has an 11-foot beam.

Played Six Games in Prince George and Vanderhoof Without Loss

SMITHERS—Smithers senior hockey team made a five-day trip to Prince George, playing three games in Prince George and three in Vanderhoof for a clean sweep throughout the tour. The first game played Saturday night with Prince George ended in a 5-0 tie which was not broken by ten minutes overtime. The second game played Sunday afternoon resulted in a 3-1 win for Smithers, the third game played Sunday night in a 2-0 victory for Smithers.

The games at Vanderhoof resulted in 7-4, 7-3 and 8-4 scores, all victories for Smithers.

The Smithers lineup was the same as played in Prince George recently. This was: J. Trew (captain), P. Raymond, W. Watson, T. Jones, K. Warner, B. Leach, A. Leach, J. Chapman, R. Arnold, B. Dunlop.

There were three casualties to the Smithers team when Raymond got two cuts on the face requiring stitches. Trew had his mouth cut and Arnold received a nasty cut on the top of his head.

The games were very well patronized, there being around 600 spectators at the Prince George games and about 300 at the Vanderhoof games.

Prince George players were: Strabek, Pascoe, Gabriel, Barrie, Henderson, McIntyre, Williams, Crownchuk, Beech, Reisman, Anderson, Tingley, Suden, Corliss (used part time).

Vanderhoof players were: Borsak, C. Steele, G. Steele, Finley, Silver, Mitchell, Wall, D. Steele, Stokes, Smithers, Lee, Holmes, Price.

APPEALING TO "FITNESS" HEAD FOR SKI CABINS

An appeal to Major Ian Eisenhart, national "Fitness First" director of the Department of Health and Welfare, is being made by the Mount Blain Ski Club in its effort to take over the army cabins on Mount Hays following correspondence with War Assets Corporation which indicates that the buildings are not yet up for formal disposal.

Ski Club Secretary Allan Armstrong feels that the "Fitness First" director should be a strong ally in the move to make the army cabins a community outdoor centre.

According to War Assets Corporation, Montreal, disposal of the cabins will be subject to priorities by the federal, provincial and municipal governments and will then be held open for public tender, which is the usual disposal method.

The ski club is seeking faster action and greater assurance of getting the buildings than the War Assets Corporation now offers.

WHAT'S DOING AT PRINCE RUPERT RECREATION COUNCIL GYMS

BY JIM NAST

RUP-REC SHOW—Last fall—September 19, to be exact—the following Rup-Rec news appeared in the local press, being part of an article on the training of leaders: "As well as being instructors, the trained leaders will be called on to put on gymnastic displays for the benefit of the citizens. . . . These displays have proven popular both with the gymnasts and audiences in other cities."

In November, big plans were laid to hold the display and practices were under way. Then these plans had to be cancelled on account of temporary banishment from, and then curtailed use of, the "Y" gym. This was a big disappointment to the boys and girls who were working hard towards putting on the show, especially as there seemed no possibility, at that time, that there would be a large enough gym available for such display in the future.

However, all that is forgotten now for it looks as though the long-awaited Rup-Rec display, bigger and better than previously planned, is going to become a reality, and in the near future, too. March 8 is the date set and the place will be the new Civic Centre gymnasium.

We have been privileged with a preview of what is to come, and we can promise you that you will be surprised and thrilled at the demonstration of talent-on-parade on the 8th.

The program includes parallel bars, mat acrobatics, mat tumbling, springboard tumbling, pyramids, fundamental gymnastics, singing, dancing and various other interesting events.

It is impossible, in this column, to do justice to the smooth performance these young people put on. In addition to being a good show, this will also be a free one and it is suggested that people come early in order to get a seat.

All Prince Rupert will be proud and perhaps a little amazed at the skill shown by their Rup-Rec friends but it is felt that parents will be especially interested in seeing this display as it not only demonstrates the type of activities to be taught to the children but gives an opportunity to meet the people who will be instructing the boys and girls.

Remember:
The time—8:00 p.m.
The date—March 8.
The place—Civic Centre gymnasium.

LEGION MEMBERS ENJOY SMOKER

Two Generations of Canada's Ex-service Men Get Together

The spirits of two generations of Canada's ex-servicemen were joined in good fellowship last night and the Canadian Legion Hall took on the gay atmosphere of an English music hall as more than 200 gathered to enjoy one of the Legion's smokers.

Running for nearly three hours, the evening provided a continuous variety of entertaining stage talent interspersed with community singing which made the room echo with classics of both the First and Second World Wars.

High on the list of popularity were four songs by Capt. J. A. Teng of the Prince Rupert Machine Gun Regiment, who sang "I Shall Meet You," "Drink to Me Only," "In Flanders Fields," and "Boys of the Old Brigade."

The evening began with an address of welcome by Legion President Hugh Killin. His promise of first-rate entertainment was sustained by the artists.

Andy McNaughton was accompanist for the singers and led the community singing, joined several times by an instrumental quartette composed of Charles Mundy, David Jones, Lorne Stevens and Bill Duffus. Dave Jones's virtuosity on the harmonica received solid applause.

Reg Kings came through nobly with several monologues and Leslie Parkes, a level-headed gentleman, repeated his act of balancing a glass of brown, foaming fluid on his head while he went through a dance and aerobic routine.

Four songs by Sam McPherson received the undivided attention of the audience.

Master of ceremonies was Walter Smith, and special guests included Mayor H. M. Daggett, H. G. Archibald, M.P., City Clerk H. D. Thain, Col. Hamilton Grant, Capt. S. Burrell and J. Scott.

"It's all your fault! You would give that tramp yesterday a bowlful of crunchy, delicious Grape-Nuts Flakes!"

"Sorry, Dear—I should have guessed that he would tell his pals about that malty-rich, sweet-as-a-nut Grape-Nuts Flakes nourishment, too. Why Grape-Nuts Flakes supply carbohydrates for energy, proteins for muscle, phosphorus for teeth and bones, iron for the blood, and other food essentials."

"He never realized that two grains—wheat and malted barley—could be so skillfully blended, baked and toasted to make one grand cereal. And he found Grape-Nuts Flakes so easy to digest."

"Let 'em in. I'll hike over to the grocery store for a few giant economy size packages!"

"BLONDE FEVER" IS LAUGH TREAT

Mary Astor and Philip Dorn Starred in First-of-Week Picture

"Blonde Fever," a sophisticated comedy with Mary Astor and Philip Dorn in the leading roles, comes to the Capitol Theatre this Sunday and Monday as the featured picture.

The screen comedy, based on the play, "Delilah," tells of the story of Peter Donay (Philip Dorn), successful restaurant owner at Lake Tahoe, happily married to Delilah (Mary Astor) until he becomes the victim of "blonde fever" and falls in love with a very young, very flirtatious waitress, Sally (Gloria Graham). Through Delilah's tolerantly amused machinations, the young girl's fickle affections eventually return to the adoring, juvenile filling station attendant, Freddie (Marshall Thompson).

Felix Bressart, veteran character actor, has the important role of bartender Johnny, who also assists in curing the Donays' marital ills, and young Arthur Walsh appears as a slap-happy, grinning busboy. Nana Bryant and Curt Bois complete the cast of featured players.
