Fishermen's Union Wants Labor Candidates; Favorable to Daggett

Like In Local Fish Handling Plant Perturbed By Decision of Employees

The local union of the Civic Labor Federation to produce a "major engagement" in the forthcoming civic election was cause for appointment and serious discussion at the meeting of the United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union. The local went on record as supporting only those candidates who were willing to accept the program of the Federation and is urging that body to place candidates in the field in opposition to all Independents. The local felt that Mayor Daggett could no longer command the support of organized labor since he declined nomination on its slate. J. Taylor was nominated to replace D. Gomez in the aldermanic nominations of the Civic Labor Federation. D. Gomez has been ruled ineligible by property technicalities.

Threat of a tie-up of the local Edmunds and Walker clam operation was averted when the general membership upheld a decision of the plant employees. The employees involved had previously voted to accept an amended wage scale which had been negotiated by the Union and the B.C. Packers in Vancouver. Wages and conditions in this operation are now more in line with those won by the fresh fish workers this summer.

T. Smith, Union representative on the Leonard Campbell case reported that several large donations had been received with Co-op Union employees contributing over $100.00. A donation sheet is being circulated throughout the rest of the plants.

President D. MacGillivray was in the chair and there was a good attendance.

Lightning Drive For Terrace Civic Centre Going Over Big

Already $3,000 Raised—To Purchase Drill Hall and Officers' Mess

TERRACE (Special to Daily News)—At a well attended meeting of the ratepayers held Tuesday evening in the Oddfellows' Hall ways and means for purchasing the army drill hall and officers' mess adjoining were up for discussion as a result of which a lightning fund raising drive started with $3,200 already raised.

The committees immediate objective is to raise $6,000 to cover the cost of the drill hall and equipment.

The project of the purchase of the officers' mess was referred to the commissioners by the meeting with a request that a plebiscite be taken on this item at the municipal election on December 12.

A large barometer has been posted that will show the standing of the campaign from hour to hour.

So far there have been eleven subscriptions of $200 each.

Canvass of the business community not completed and general canvass is not started.

The committee expects to have funds so the municipality can send a cheque to War Assets tomorrow night and will go on to the objective of $6,000 to supply funds for equipment.

Publicity for the scheme has been offered by C. M. Adam through the medium of the screen of the picture show on Friday and Saturday evenings. The committee also have plans for a celebration in the drill hall in the near future.

FRENCH POLITICAL SITUATION—This latest photograph of Georges Bidault, provisional president of France, shows him at a meeting of the national press club in Paris. As a result of the national elections Bidault's premiership must now be offered to Communist Leader Maurice Thorez, whose party won 168 seats in the elections. Whether Thorez will get the vote of confidence necessary to carry on, is still a matter of conjecture. Premier Bidault resigned today.

Mrs. West, South Hazelton, Is Hunting Fatality Victim

Fatally Shot Near Seaton In Bulkley Valley Wednesday Afternoon—Police Investigating Circumstances

Constable W. A. West of Hazelton has proceeded to Seaton, 25 miles east of Hazelton in the Bulkley Valley, to investigate the circumstances of a hunting fatality in which the victim was Mrs. Leslie H. West of South Hazelton. Mrs. West was hunting with her husband and Fred Spitzl and the latter is reported to have fired the fatal shot which, it appears from early indications, was accidental. The tragedy occurred at 4:30 Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. West, and Spitzl, all of South Hazelton, were hunting deer along the New Hazelton-Smithers road. Mr. and Mrs. West were coming out of the bush together. Spitzl, also still in the bush, is believed to have mistaken them for a moose and fired. Mrs. West, apparently, died almost instantly.

The body of the unfortunate woman was taken to hospital at Hazelton but life had been extinct for some time.

An inquest is being held this afternoon at Hazelton.

Mrs. West, whose husband is a sawmill operator at South Hazelton, leaves, besides her husband, a family of two children.

FOREIGN MINISTERS' COMPROMISE TO SETTLE EUROPE PEACE PACTS

NEW YORK (Special to Daily News)—In a sweeping series of compromises, the foreign ministers council of the United Nations last night smashed the deadlock over Trieste and made the greatest progress to date in drafting peace pacts for Axis satellites. Persons present at the council deliberations said the ministers reached agreement on all questions relating to Trieste and moved on to settle some of the problems of Italy.

Action followed a private discussion between Secretary of State James F. Byrnes and Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov on Monday when both made concessions.

Immediate Outlawing of Atomic Bomb Demanded

United States Should Dispose of Stock Pile, Russian Foreign Commissar Feels

LAKE SUCCESS, New York (CP)—Russian Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov, in opening the United Nations debate on world armament reduction, today called on member countries "to put an end to the arms race which has begun." While calling for immediate reduction of all armaments, he stressed particularly the atomic bomb and demanded that this weapon be outlawed immediately by international convention. He noted that the atomic question had already been under study since June 14 by the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission. Mr. Molotov then expressed regret that the commission had not accepted Soviet proposal for disposal of a stock pile of bombs secreted by the United States.

"Refusal to reach an agreement is violation of what the world wants," Molotov said. "It is wrong to postpone a decision."

The Russian foreign commissar offered a resolution proposing creation of two commissions as enforcement agencies to see that any arms reduction agreements are not violated.

Denise Murphy Quits As U.B.C. Governor

VANCOUVER (Special to Daily News)—Retirement of Hon. Mr. Justice Denise Murphy, former British Columbia Supreme Court Justice, from the board of governors of the University of British Columbia on which he served almost continuously for 25 years, was announced last night.

MUST RETAIN VETO POWER

Otherwise United Nations Organization Would Fall

NEW YORK—M. J. Coldwell, C.F. leader speaking last night after attending United Nations in New York, said any attempt to abolish or seriously curtail the veto would wreck the United Nations organization. He, himself, was opposed to the veto.

There could be no disarmament until all the nations consented to inspection of munition factories.

The Canadian delegation to the general assembly of the United Nations is unanimous on the importance of international disarmament and even a measure of success will improve living standards throughout the world. Mr. Coldwell, who is a member of the Canadian delegation, said in a broadcast over the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation network.

A cold air mass lies over central and northern British Columbia and temperatures in these areas are somewhat below seasonal averages.

ELECTIONS IN NEW ZEALAND

Standing, on Basis of Latest Returns, 43 to 37 for Labor

AUCKLAND—Latest count from the New Zealand general elections yesterday gives the Labor party, which now holds the government, 43 seats with 37 for the National party. With returns still incomplete, the result is close in 11 seats but no important change in the general standing is expected.

In the cities the trend of voting was for the Labor party and in the farming areas for the National party.

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (Special to Daily News)—Ten per cent of Northern Ireland's 1946 crop was lost because of bad weather.

EUROPEAN PEACE

THINGS ARE LOOKING BETTER than ever before at the current United Nations and foreign ministers' deliberations at New York. The spirit of compromise between the major powers, particularly Russia, which had to come before anything could be accomplished, has been definitely on the make the last few days. The bickerings, which had worried the world and made us fear that nothing would be done over Europe's grieved problems, appear to be coming to an end in a real spirit of give and take and mutual understanding.

Despair, with which the most of observers appeared to have been permeated even though they would not have admitted it, is giving way to real hope. Of course, more difficulties may come up and there may be more clashes but it is now being shown that, if there is the will on all sides, the way can be found to settle serious problems. This is being shown in regard to the disposal of the peace settlement for Italy and the Axis satellites. Next on the list will be the major question of Germany.

MUNICIPAL POLITICS

WITH A CONTEST for the mayoralty now assured and several candidates already in the field to fill the aldermanic and school board contests, interest in the forthcoming civic election is looking up and that is a good thing. It is gratifying to see that a few good citizens at least are assuming the responsibilities of citizenship, if not the realization of the fact that they should be doing something to protect their own interests, by getting in the field themselves. Unfortunately, on the part of many, there is still very much of an attitude of "Let George Do It." Those who would take that stand should not be too critical after if George fails to do it. There are serious problems immediately ahead for this city and good talent is needed to meet them. It is time for progressive and forward looking thought and action. The days of merely carrying on are over. Possibly they have lasted too long already.

BUILDING REGULATIONS

MODIFICATION of the city building regulations as now being considered by the council is long since overdue and will be welcomed in building quarters. The present unwieldy and inappropriate regulations have hampered and even prevented the carrying out of reasonable extensions and improvements to existing structures. They have been a factor contributing in no small degree to the present deteriorated condition of many of the older frame buildings, owners having been practically prohibited from spending reasonable amounts in such work because of the extra costs involved in complying with the extraneous requirements of the regulations. Now, if something can also be done to relieve certain other regulations such as those applying to electric wiring, which are said to come largely within the provincial purview of the fire marshal's department, it will open the way for improvement of many of the older downtown buildings which are now anything but a credit but which might be made much more presentable and comfortable if changes were made in the regulations so as to permit the making of modest improvements.

THE BOY SCOUTS

WITH THE ORGANIZATION of the Prince Rupert Boy Scouts' Association, the way is clear for another means of guidance along worthy lines of boys of the community. The intriguing activity of Scouting starts with the Cub movement which takes the boys at a very young age, carrying them along into the Scouts and through the teens. Scouting principles are high and activities useful and interesting. It is one of the youth activities which develops the proper attitude and training for responsible citizenship.

The movement is worthy of every support and, now that it is launched here again, the hope might well be that full advantage is taken of it and that not only one or two but several large and active groups may be formed.

Sea Cadets have long been an influence for good development of the boys of Prince Rupert. There is also room for a strong Boy Scout organization and the sooner it comes into being and function the better.

According to a survey by the Psychological Corporation in the United States, 85% of the people read one or more newspapers every day. This figure is considerably higher than that for magazines or books, movie attendance or radio listeners.

Tired of Talking to Friends? Why Not Dial Marie in France?

Do you get tired of talking to your wife or gossiping with your friends about town? Then why not try talking with someone in France . . . or Belgium . . . or England? Others have done it at a cost of only about $15 plus tax.

Just what one would say to a person in France that would be worth $15 was subject of deep contemplation on the part of a Daily News reporter after a curiosity call at the city telephone office where he learned that such things actually are done. It stirred up visions of high romance. It might go like this:

At the other end of the line a receiver lifts. It is in Marseilles, of course. Marie answers, "allo." You reply, "Hello." Between you and Marie there is 6,000 miles of wire and a moment of expensive silence. You met Marie, maybe, when you were in France some years ago. Talking to her was much easier then.

Behind Marie, probably gleaming over her shoulder, is Marseilles harbor, shining blue under a warm, Mediterranean sun. Romantic spot, but far away. Marie's voice is warm, too, as she asks about the cigarette situation in Canada. You tell her all about it.

Suddenly, you begin to feel a pain in the region of your pocketbook. Geography is wonderful but expensive. Then the operator tells you your time is up. Do you wish to continue? Your pocketbook says "no" and you echo the syllable, gratefully. A bit of a foolish thrill but nothing like the feeling that, say, a Frenchman would get out of talking to his transatlantic relatives, which was probably the story behind the real call. One can only guess. The telephone people do not reveal such things.

However, they do say that in recent weeks they have had one call put through to France, and two to England, Bournemouth, to be exact. Reception, according to Superintendent Bruce Love, has been good on all occasions.

Somebody in Belgium is going to get a real Christmas thrill on December 24, when a Prince Rupert resident puts through a call to that small country on December 24. So far, it is the only transatlantic Christmas call booked ahead.

Calls of this nature have cost from $15 to $16 plus tax, which in the case of a call to France, amounted to 75 cents. Looking the matter over candidly, it seems rather cheap.

The long distance telephone record shows that calls are frequently made to practically every other city on the continent. The telephone staff anticipate a considerable increase in traffic between now and Christmas.

20 YEARS AGO

November 28, 1926

At a dinner given in his honor in the Commodore Cafe, Sir Henry Thornton, C.N.R. president, confirmed the 20 year lease on property which would, he said, be the site of a 140 room hotel here.

Members of the Prince Rupert Players' Club were busy rehearsing for the play "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" which they planned to present two nights in the Westholme Theatre.

Failure of the Board of Trade to provide seats of honor for the mayor and council members at the banquet for Sir Henry Thornton drew a resolution of censure from the aldermen at the "insult."

FORM ECONOMIC SOCIETY GEORGETOWN, British Guiana 1—A group of Georgetown women have formed a political and economic society to educate women in civic and political responsibilities, to run a magazine devoted to better womanhood and to educate the housewives in demanding better class goods from the merchant community.

LETTERBOX

FIREMEN AND FIRST AID Editor, Daily News:

In regard to the issue between the city council and the fire department regarding the requirement for First Aid qualifications. For the enlightenment of those to whom the matter might not be clear, I would like to define briefly the attitude of the Firemen's Association regarding this question.

1. This association recognizes the desirability of all firemen having a knowledge of elementary first aid and this knowledge is part of a fireman's curriculum.

2. This local has six members (three of whom have held industrial certificates in the past) who are anxious to take the course on a basis of extra compensation for the extra effort involved.

3. Delegates from this association are negotiating with the utilities committee to get an agreement of a permanent nature that will serve the interests of all concerned.

CHILDREN LIKE THEIR VITAMINS THIS WAY

SCIENCE has proved there are certain food elements everyone needs for health. If there aren't enough of them in a child's food, serious things can happen—such as stunted growth, soft bones, poor teeth, faulty nerves, loss of appetite, defective eyesight.

Ovaltine supplements the diet with elements frequently deficient in ordinary foods. Three servings of Ovaltine furnish a significant portion of a child's daily requirements of Vitamins A, B₁, C, D, Riboflavin (B₂), and Niacin and Minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron.

In addition it provides the basic food substances—complete proteins to build muscle, nerve and body cells—high-energy foods for vitality and endurance. It thus acts as an insurance against food deficiencies that retard normal growth.

So if your child eats poorly, is thin, underpar, perhaps nervous, why not try delicious Ovaltine for normal growth and better appetite.

MARRIED AT ST. ANDREW'S

At a wedding ceremony Wednesday evening attended by about 50 friends of the bride's family, Miss Pauline Ohnesorg, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ohnesorg of Prince Rupert, became the bride of Edward Hicks of Vancouver. The vows were exchanged in St. Andrew's Cathedral before Rev. Basil S. Prockter.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a green suit with brown accessories, with a bouquet of yellow roses. She was attended by Miss Hilda Hodgkinson, wearing a black and red sequin-trimmed suit with corsage of white carnations.

Groomsman was Neil Stromdahl, and Peter Lien was organist.

A reception followed the ceremony in the ladies' lounge at the Civic Centre, at which the congratulations of their many friends were received by the newly married couple. Rev. Mr. Prockter was a speaker during the evening. Toast to the bride was proposed by Gillis Royer and responded to by the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks plan to sail Friday on the Catala for Vancouver, where they will make their home.

MRS. POTTERTON FAREWELL GUEST

SMITHERS—Mrs. L. A. N. Potterton was pleasantly surprised when members of St. James Women's Auxiliary gathered at the Anglican rectory to extend their best wishes and bid her farewell. Mrs. Potterton was the president of the auxiliary and a very faithful and valuable member of the church. She has been very active in many affairs of the church during her stay in Smithers and will be greatly missed. She was presented with a gift of needlework from her friends. Sergeant and Mrs. Potterton and daughter, Hilda, left Smithers yesterday to make their home in Prince Rupert where Sergeant Potterton will take over the duties of police chief.

GREATLY INCREASED VITAMIN "D"

THE vitamin D content of Carnation Milk has been increased from the former 162 to 400 International units per reconstituted quart (half Carnation, half water) . . . nearly 2½ times as much as before.

This additional irradiation assures a margin of safety for the prevention of rickets in normal infants, and provides the vitamin D needed for good bone and tooth development and excellent growth.

So now, more than ever, Carnation Milk ranks as a preferred food for bottle-fed babies, for their growing brothers and sisters, and for grown-ups, who also need "sunshine" vitamin D. This greatly increased amount of essential vitamin D is provided at no extra cost.

STEVE BRIGHT TO MINGLE IN FIGHT CARD

The hump of native tom-toms beating out a warlike rhythm is pulsing through the eager mentality of Canadian Legion fight promoter Jim Nicholl since his recent coup in which he signed up Chief Steve Bright of Port Edward to mingle in the ring with a 160-pound opponent of unknown talent.

Involved in the forthcoming flurry with Chief Steve is Gus Gustavson, whose performance prospects so far have not been classified but whose supporters show no lack of confidence.

Chief Steve Bright cannot be called exactly an unknown quality in local fight circles since his past performances have marked him as something pretty substantial to contend with.

"Steve used to be a bit of fighting in the old days and he was known as a handy character," Mr. Nicholl expanded. "I saw him in a card a while back and he was good."

Jim is also showing interest in developing something from a dispute which arose between members of 99 Taxi and Savoy's basketball teams on the floor Tuesday night. A couple of the more prominent members mixed it up a bit. "A difference like that should be made formal," he contended. "I plan to offer the best hat in town to the winner of a bout between those two—if they can rouse themselves to fight in the ring."

Painted for Calvert by Adam Sherriff Scott, R.C.A.

In 1907 SAUNDERS said:
"Be Men of Faith and Progress"

In 1622 CALVERT said:
"Contribute to the Planting"

OVER THREE CENTURIES ago, Calvert said to his settlers: "I came to sow... and cause these countries to be cultivated." Founder of historic colonies in the New World and famous Secretary of State to King James the First, Calvert may well have foreseen Canada's agricultural progress when he said: "The land will yield us many things if our endeavours are not wanting." Man of Vision of the 17th century and pioneer of unity, Calvert's ideals have inspired men of vision through the generations since Calvert's time 300 years ago. The full measure of our stature as a nation depends upon unity of purpose. There is only one Canada for clear-headed Canadians.

Francois Lake News

The dance here on Saturday in aid of the Burns Lake Hospital went off well with a real crowd. A beautiful quilt made by Miss Allin, matron of the hospital, was raffled off. The winner was Bruce Kert of Burns Lake. The orchestra (Mrs. Reg. Partington, Mrs. E. Deeder and Jim Beatty), donated their services and lunch was provided by the Burns Lake ladies. The Francois Lake Farmers' Institute loaned the hall so that there was no expense and $92.30 was realized.

WOMAN MAKES FLYING TRIP

SYDNEY, Australia, (C)—A Sydney woman has flown to Vancouver, spent nearly a fortnight there with her mother, and flown home again in about the same time. FASHION FAVORS LEOPARD SKINS

South African Native Trappers Making Small Fortune

JOHANNESBURG, (C)—There is a bit of a boom in leopard skins according to a leading Johannesburg furrier and natives who are fortunate enough to catch one of the animals in a trap are getting nearly 10 times the price they got before the war from traders and furriers.

Furriers say native trappers are making small fortunes and that "there are 10 buyers for every skin. There are plenty of leopards still at large that could be made into fur coats—but too many women are waiting for them."

Before the war a good leopard-skin coat cost $480. Today the same coat costs about three times as much. The skins are used not only for coats, but widely for hats, bags, capes and so on. The best variety of leopard skin comes from Italian Somaliland, but the South African variety stands high on the list. From six to eight skins are needed for a full-sized coat.

South Africa makes her own coats from leopards trapped in Bechuanaland and Rhodesia, and also from the skins of the leopard cat, a wild-cat whose markings are very similar to the larger animal. The leopard-cat makes a better, softer coat than the leopard itself.

South African women are also wearing coats made from the skins of jackal—the South African fox. The skins are rather coarser than the European variety, but the silver jackal, attractively marked with black streaks, and with a broad silver stripe down the centre of the back, makes one of the most attractive coats.

"That one-and-only flavor cuts a lot of ice with me!"
— LITTLE JIMMY

Yummy Gum

1. Uncle Joe was just back from the Boer War and we were celebrating with a day on the pond, when somebody mentioned that new cereal with the wonderfully different flavor—malty-rich, sweet-as-a-nut Grape-Nuts. Jimmy couldn't resist running home for a dishful.

2. Two grains—wheat and malted barley—specially blended, baked and toasted, achieved that one and only flavor Jimmy and all of us were so crazy about. Today you find it also in that honey-golden flake cereal Post's GRAPE-NUTS FLAKES.

3. Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes have that up-and-at-'em nourishment, too. Carbohydrates for energy; proteins for muscle; phosphorus for teeth and bones; iron for the blood; other food essentials.

The Hen

They Worship parrots, cats and dogs,
They ration mutton, beef and hogs,
But what about the Hen?

She lays an egg near every day,
The devil says she's got to pay,
She never has a word to say,
The Hen.

They eat her eggs boiled soft and hard,
They're poached and fried in butter and lard,
She never sees a ration card,
The Hen.

Her eggs are in the cake and pie,
In gin, in rum and even rye,
She labors hard and wonders why,
The Hen.

They throw her fruit in noodles hot,
You find them in the coffee pot,
They rob her of every egg she's got,
The Hen.

You find her eggs in sauce and salad,
There are eggs for every taste and palat,
I wonder who should have the ballot,
The Hen.

There are eggs in every meal you eat,
There are eggs where'er you chance to meet,
And who's the one gives us the treat?
The Hen.

She cackles when she goes to lay,
She cackles when she goes away,
She's honest, lets you know the day,
The Hen.

If she should cease to lay her eggs,
Off comes her head, off comes her legs,
Regardless of how loud she begs,
The Hen.

There's chicken fried and chicken roast,
There's chicken and gravy on the toast,
I wonder what bird suffers most,
The Hen.

There's chicken boiled and chicken stew,
For chicken hawks like me and you,
Even the bones the dog will chew,
The Hen.

They tell us that the war is won,
But who's the one that just begun,
To lay, that we might live, By Gum,
The Hen.

If there's a prize now who should win?
The hair or feather, wool or fin,
The rooster crows and throws a grin,
At the Hen.

—E. E. YAGER.
