Americans Protest To Yugoslavia

Were Mistreated and Allowed To Die - - Said

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Charging that Americans had been allowed to die in Yugoslav prison camps because of neglect and ill-treatment and that Americans had been used as slave labor, the United States Department of State has sent a vigorous note to the Yugoslav government. The note expresses strong protest at the manner in which Americans, for no good reason, were mistreated.

LIQUOR RATION WILL CONTINUE

VICTORIA — Liquor rationing will continue in B.C. for some time yet, sources in the provincial capital indicate. A new liquor ration book, similar to that now in use, is being prepared for distribution in 1947. Liquor Commissioner Kennedy said that it is difficult to predict when rationing will end.

INCREASE TO RAILWAYMEN

Ten-Cent-an-Hour Pay Boost Retroactive to June 1 Is Granted

OTTAWA—Seventeen thousand railway trainmen in Canada are to receive a 10c-per-hour increase in wages, retroactive to June 1, under a decision of the National War Labor Board. Apart from the trainmen, such employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway as engineers, telegraphers and hotel employees will receive a similar increase which those of the Canadian National Railways had already been granted.

Widespread Search On

Scotland Yard Aces Combing British Isles and Europe For Windsor Jewel Thieves

LONDON — Ace investigators from Scotland Yard today stretched a dragnet across England and into Europe in search of thieves who stole part of the jewelry of the Duchess of Windsor from her temporary home at Sunningdale.

A military car, tentatively identified as Canadian, was described as a most important clue in the case. The police told of a large military-type car being seen in the vicinity of the lodge three times during the last week.

The Duke of Windsor, in England for a visit, valued the loot at not more than $80,000 and said he was annoyed at "exaggerated reports of the value of the stolen jewelry" which one British paper placed as high as $2,000,000.

Some of the jewels were found late Thursday scattered over a golf course adjoining the grounds at Sunningdale. The gems recovered were valued at $20,000. Some were still in a Gladstone bag and others were scattered on the grass, apparently dropped by the thieves in their hurried escape.

The investigation, it has become known, extends as far as Amsterdam, Buenos Aires and New York. International jewel thieves may be involved, it is believed.

The Duke of Windsor is reported to have offered $10,000 for information leading to the recovery of the stolen jewels.

HOW GOERING CAME TO END

No. 2 Nazi May Have Swallowed Potassium Cyanide While Seated On Toilet

NUERNBERG — The theory that Hermann Goering slipped a vial of deadly cyanide of potassium into his mouth while seated on a toilet in the corner of his cell Wednesday night was advanced by prison officials today.

The toilet was so located that the guard, peering constantly through the door, could not possibly see the upper part of the prisoner's body.

PROBE INTO BABE'S DEATH

VANCOUVER — Verdict of "unnatural death" as a result of injuries inflicted by unknown means was returned yesterday by a coroner's jury inquiring into the death of 4½-month-old Lonnie Dell Markel, found dead in his crib October 12. The jury found the child died from a fracture of the skull.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Markel, were termed "negligent in the care and supervision of children."

Police said Mrs. Markel had told them that the baby had suffered a fall last week.

London Overhauls "Speaking Clock"

LONDON — Tim, the "speaking clock" which has been in use in London for 10 years and gives the correct time to 500,000 telephone callers weekly, is being overhauled. It is composed of thousands of tiny phonograph records, some of which may be replaced. Meanwhile all Britain is being served by a duplicate installation in Liverpool.

OTTAWA AND PROVINCES

THE PREMIERS of Ontario and Quebec, in rather outspoken terms, have again criticized Prime Minister Mackenzie King and the federal government for delaying the calling of another conference to negotiate terms of taxation agreement between the Dominion and the provinces. Their attitude appears to be somewhat different than that which they exhibited at the time of the last conference. Maybe, behind the tone of their present talk, they might be more tractable but Mr. King, always deliberate, chooses to bide his time.

After all the Dominion did have proposals at the last conference which, while by no means meeting the demands of the provinces, did go to some length in the direction of at least a tentative settlement of the taxation issues involved. Rejection of the Dominion proposals by Ontario and Quebec simply means that these provinces were left, as they still are, in the unsatisfactory position of the past.

In justice to the Dominion, acceptance of the proposals of Ottawa would at least have made possible the conservation of natural resources and their development and would have removed the major share of cost of unemployment from the provinces and the municipalities.

While discussion continues as to where the blame should be placed for failure to reach an agreement here this, the fact remains that it is most desirable that another conference should be held with a view to getting the whole matter straightened out as a whole for, if a series of individual agreements (three provinces have already accepted the Dominion proposals) is all that is done, there shall continue to be in this country overlapping multiple taxation, overlapping three-way municipal, provincial and Dominion relief administration and overlapping two-way old age pension administration.

Not because of the threats and criticisms of Drew and Duplessis but in spite of them, the calling of another conference at an early date would appear to be advisable. The contending parties would probably be now in a better disposition to bargain in compromise towards success in reaching some sort of general accord, the lack of which continues to be one of the uncertain factors in Canada's economic affairs.

PUBLICIZING PR. RUPERT

A PRINCE RUPERT person visiting other parts of the country finds that a great deal of interest is being taken these days in Prince Rupert and how this city is faring now that the activity of war is over. There is no doubt that Prince Rupert is a much better known place than it was a year ago. There is still a greater demand for detailed information and it will be well for us all to embrace any opportunity we can in various ways to publicize the place. To do so we certainly must know about Prince Rupert ourselves.

Publicity we have been getting out ourselves during the past year has met with a very favorable response from all who have seen it. We should see that it has the widest distribution possible.

While we have had a considerable amount of success since we started our efforts in drawing attention to Prince Rupert, it would be well for us now to concentrate our efforts on internal organization for community improvement. It is easy to induce tourists to come here but what are we doing to entertain and impress them while they are here? What are they going to do once they are landed here for eight or twelve hours? To make Prince Rupert a spot of outstanding attractiveness and interest, intriguing to the point where those who come will want to come again and bring their friends and share the thrill of having been here, will be a public relations job of continuing importance next year and during the time between.

Some of the suggestions which might well be made would include the putting of sight-seeing on an organized basis, development of the fishing and hunting by making it available for those who are only too anxious to come and enjoy it, improvement of both public and private property, setting forth exhibits of particular local interest such as would be properly found in the museum, better accommodation and servicing arrangements for visitors coming here.

We have gone a long way of late in interesting people in Prince Rupert. Now it is up to Prince Rupert to justify the interest and make the place a pleasant and attractive spot rather than a untidy and tiresome village where the visitors are bored rather than delighted in their stay.

Advices On Expansion In Canada

Situated in key spots in Canada, the United States and England, Canadian National Railways' industrial development offices are centres of information and assistance for business firms wishing to establish or expand in Canada.

An outline of the work done by the railway company's industrial agents was given to the Prince Rupert Rotary Club Thursday afternoon by W. H. M. Johnston, C.N.R. industrial commissioner in New York.

TO LOCATE BUSINESS
"Our industrial organization is engaged in locating factories, warehouses and other business enterprises along the lines of our railways," he said. "We have our system headquarters at Montreal with industrial commissioners at various regional offices, such as Toronto, Moncton, Winnipeg and Detroit."

Mr. Johnston was in the city getting a first-hand view of facilities here so that he could pass the information along to American business men interested in expanding in Canada.

He sailed last night for Vancouver. "I think it can be appreciated that, when an American company decides to set up operations in the Dominion, there is a great deal of information required that is not usually needed by an American company."

ADVISES AMERICANS
"In dealing with American industrialists we have to be prepared to advise them on such subjects as Canadian incorporation regulations, customs rates water power and gas supply, in addition to the information the company requires on available buildings or industrial sites."

Mr. Johnston forecast a considerable increase in the expansion of American plants in Canada, although he said, much of it will be of a modest nature.

"United States industrialists will set up small operations here and expand as they get themselves established. That has been the case in the past and I believe it will be the case in the future," he declared.

TWO FACTORS
American industrial expansion policies, he said, will hinge on two factors—the labor problems in the United States, and the world tariff situation. When these are more clearly defined, expansion policies will be decided upon.

Depletion of American natural resources, notably timber, will be a factor in causing a movement of American industries to Canada, he told his audience.

"I want to assure you that the industrial development department of our railway is keenly interested in the healthy development of this section of the province and, if we can be of assistance, you should not hesitate to get in touch with us."

LAUDS LOCAL MAN
He paid tribute to local railway superintendent C. A. Berner whose "knowledge of local people and resources astounded me."

"It has been a pleasure to meet a number of your business men and I am carrying back to the United States with me the feeling that the people here are anxious to promote the development of this city and that they are willing to co-operate with anyone interested in coming here to set up industrial operations."

Mr. Johnston was thanked by Acting Chairman Lee Gordon, who also welcomed Steve Ferris of Ketchikan; Brig. R. A. Wyman, C.N.R. industrial agent, Vancouver, and T. W. Speers, of Prince Rupert, as guests.

SHARING THE SPOILS
The old New England expression "to talk turkey" was coined in the 1800's, when an Indian and a white man who had been hunting together met to divide the spoils—a crow and a turkey

DURBAN STOPS MONKEYSHINES

DURBAN, South Africa. — Durban city council has set aside $4,000 to trap all monkeys which are a danger or a nuisance to citizens.

In recent years Durban's monkey population has become so numerous and so bold that housewives in some suburbs complain that it is not safe to leave anything out of doors. Bands of monkeys raid gardens and verandahs, making off with anything they can carry, especially fruit or vegetables. There have also been cases when monkeys have come through an open door or window and raided the pantry.

Efforts by ratepayers to trap them in the past have failed for the animals are too clever and it now has been decided to pay an animal trapper to do the job and remove the monkeys to an estate well outside the city. The mayor, Senator S. J. Smith, said in council that the monkeys could not be shot as the public would never allow this.

Colonies of monkeys have for years lived in the bush bordering Durban's sea front and come up to people who have food for them. They can be seen climbing onto a visitor's shoulder, feeling in his pockets, and exploring his ear. The wise man empties his pockets of everything and locks his car before feeding the monkeys.

8 PERSPICACIOUS PEOPLE

* According to Webster, this five-dollar word means clear-sighted—of acute mental vision or discernment... which pretty well describes the "eight out of ten" who plan to invest in Canada Savings Bonds.

IN RECENT ADVERTISEMENTS we have been suggesting that the way to save money is to have a plan and stick to it. Now comes this Dominion Government savings plan, ready-made for your needs. It enables you to add to your present holdings of Victory Bonds by the same tried-and-true method you used during the war, paying for your purchase in cash, if you like; but better still by convenient instalments, as you earn. You found out for yourself, with every Victory Bond you bought, that this is a savings system that works... convincing proof that you can "save some for yourself."

Simply call at your Royal Bank branch, sign an application for one or more bonds, to be paid for by convenient instalments spread over a year if you wish. Keep up the war-time saving habit. Invest in Canada Savings Bonds.

"I'll do it...later!"

"No! I'll do it NOW!"

No doubt there are lots of things you intended to do in days gone by. But you just didn't get around to doing them. And now—how you wish you had done them!

This time it's going to be different. You're going to buy your Canada Savings Bonds—right away.

Most likely you've saved more money than you ever hoped to through Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates. During the war, of course, the salesman kept after you until you got the habit of saving regularly. This time there are fewer salesmen. They will not be able to call on everyone. So it's up to you to take advantage of this fine investment opportunity—without delay.

There's no question about wanting Canada Savings Bonds. They're the best investment you could possibly make.

But the things you put off are the things you never get done. Make up your mind that this is one thing you're not going to put off. You're going to get your Canada Savings Bonds right away.

8 out of 10 will buy again....

SUCCESS STORY
LINCOLN, Eng. — John Cochrane, whose first job was as grocery delivery boy, has become City Sheriff of Lincoln.

SHORT SPORT

Despite Jack Crawford's confident assertion Australia would beat the United States by 4-1 or 3-2 in the Davis Cup challenge, the controllers of Australian tennis are rushing elaborate preparations for the forthcoming practice match. Currently the selectors, Crawford, Sir Norman Brooks, Norman Strange and Gerald Patterson, are searching hard for a reserve doubles pair—a team that would give Australia a chance of winning the doubles if John Bromwich and Adrian Quist were unable to go on the court.

In addition to a strenuous practice program, Australia's Cup players are working out in gyms. They plan to be in top form for the U.S. challenge at Koo-Young courts, Melbourne, Dec. 26, 27 and 28. Presumably to keep the players' minds on tennis, the Lawn Tennis Association of Australia has banned members of the Davis Cup squad from writing for newspapers and from giving press interviews. Bromwich had been a regular contributor to a Sydney newspaper and Quist, Denny Pails and Geoff Brown all had written bylined tennis articles for other newspapers.

The squad at present comprises Bromwich, Quist, Pails, Brown, Lionel Brodie, Billy Sidwell and Jack Crawford. Sidwell is rated by many Australian critics one of the country's best doubles players. Brodie is a sound doubles man, but is at home on either court. Crawford has been added to the squad because of his experience and not as a possible Cup player.

Every variety of doubles combination has been tried in the search for an alternative to Bromwich-Quist, including the pairing of the two double-handlers, Bromwich and Brown. They won the Australian hard-court doubles title Sept. 7, but did not impress critics as a team. The big question for the selectors is Quist. He has not played in a tournament for months because of a left knee weakened by sciatica, and a "tennis elbow." If Quist is fit, he and Bromwich—rated by Crawford the best doubles pair in the world—are virtual certainties for the Davis Cup doubles. Bromwich has partnered every other cup possibility in some tournament or other, but they have not paired with anything like the perfection shown by the Bromwich-Quist combination. Playing in practice workouts in September, Quist made the selectors much happier about Australia's prospects. While he obviously was careful of his knee, there was nothing wrong with his stroking, and his volleying was as crisp and accurate as in pre-war days. Crawford, after watching Quist play five sets against Bromwich, remarked: "Only Quist knows how he feels, but he showed sufficient form to convince me that he will be fit and ready to play in the Davis Cup final."

"I thought I was WELL-INSULATED till polythene came along!"

Well may the thick-skinned rhinoceros grieve, for chemistry has produced an insulating material that puts even his tough hide to shame... It is called polythene—a new plastic that stands up to heat and cold and is unaffected by any known chemicals at ordinary temperature. Its unusual insulating qualities make it an indispensable factor in the vast, new field of radar and television while it gets back to earth again in the form of simple, resilient, waterproof refrigerator bowl covers that seem to last forever... polythene, in its scope of application, is another outstanding example of what Chemistry is contributing to our daily comfort and welfare.

Practical Ideas for Housekeepers

Some Answers To Questions As To Thickeners of Foods

During the past few months, Canadian homemakers have had to use different types of thickeners for sauces etc. Many inquiries have been received as to the relative thickening power of wheat, potato and rice flours, cornstarch and most recently wheat starch. After experimenting with these different flours and starches, experts have found that rice and potato flours and wheat starch have approximately the same thickening power as all purpose flour.

Eggs are also thickeners and when the supply is plentiful they can be used in place of starch or flour thickeners. Conversely, if they are scarce and consequently high priced, they may be replaced, at least in part, by other thickeners. One-half tablespoon of cornstarch or 1 tablespoon of all-purpose flour may be substituted for 1 egg and vice versa.

Comparative table for thickeners:

- Cornstarch—1½ tablespoons to 1 cup liquid.
 - White flour (all-purpose)—3 tablespoons to 1 cup liquid.
 - Wheat starch—1 tablespoon or 2 teaspoons to 1 cup liquid.
 - Rice flour—1 tablespoon or 2 teaspoons to 1 cup liquid.
 - Potato flour—1 tablespoon or 2 teaspoons to 1 cup liquid.
- Chocolate Cream
- 2 ounces unsweetened chocolate
 - 3 cups milk
 - 4 tablespoons cornstarch (¼ cup)
- OR 8 tablespoons white flour (½ cup)
- OR 4½ tablespoons of either wheat starch rice or potato flour
- ½ cup sugar
 - ¼ teaspoon salt
 - 1 egg
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla

Add chocolate to 2½ cups of the milk and heat in top of double boiler until chocolate is melted. Mix cornstarch or white flour or either of the other thickeners with sugar and salt and blend with the remaining half-cup of milk. Add slowly to hot mixture in top of double boiler and stir constantly until mixture thickens. Cook for 20 to 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add well beaten egg yolk and cook 3 minutes. Remove from heat, add flavoring and fold in the beaten egg white. Chill. Six servings.

- Lemon Snow
- 4 tablespoons cornstarch (¼ cup)
- OR 4½ tablespoons of either wheat starch, rice or potato flour
- ½ cup sugar
 - ¼ teaspoon salt
 - 2 cups boiling water
 - 1 lemon
 - 2 egg whites
- Mix cornstarch or either wheat starch, rice or potato flour with sugar and salt thoroughly together. Gradually add boiling water, stirring constantly. Cook over direct heat until thick and clear, about 5 minutes. Add grated lemon rind and juice (3 tablespoons) and pour the hot mixture slowly over the stiffly beaten egg whites, stirring until well blended. Pour into individual sherbets and chill. Serve with custard sauce using egg yolk. Six servings.

Modern Etiquette

BABY RHINO GIVEN HOME

PRETORIA.—The first white rhino to be seen in a zoo is now in the Pretoria National Zoological Gardens. It is a three-weeks old baby and it has been named "Zuluana" after its home in Zululand. "Zuluana" was found abandoned recently, it is thought its mother left it behind during one of the game drives taking place near Hluluwe Game Reserve. Since its arrival in Pretoria, the baby rhino has been the object of great attraction. White rhinos are only found in two parts of the world, Zululand and in the Upper Nile Valley.

ANGLICAN TEA BRIGHT AFFAIR

Attractively adorned with fall flowers and foliage, the spacious rooms of the home of Mrs. C. C. Mills, Musgrave Place, were the setting yesterday afternoon for a delightful tea and sale of home cooking and sewing by the Women's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral. Many ladies called during the afternoon to make the affair a complete success, both socially and financially. The guests were received by Mrs. A. L. Holtby, president of the Women's Auxiliary, with the hostesses assisting.

Mrs. W. J. Nelson and Mrs. J. L. McEwen were in general charge of the arrangements of the affair. Mrs. J. B. Gibson and Mrs. Basil S. Procter poured and served tea. Mrs. G. E. Moore and Mrs. J. H. Bulger, acting as cashier was Mrs. W. J. Greer. Mrs. George A. Hill and Mrs. J. T. Langridge were in charge of the home cooking table while Mrs. A. T. Parlin and Mrs. W. F. Eve directed the sale of sewing.

Air passengers for the Queen Charlotte Islands on the Haida Queen this morning were Mr. Perlstrom for Massett; Mr. Bates, C. Dicks, Mrs. W. A. White; for Cumshewa, A. O. Smith

Chief Big Bowlful Trapped a Grand Flavor

1. Into the Trading Post, round about 1900, strode Chief Big Bowlful, with a stack of mink pelts on his back. His eyes always sparkled as he looked over the merchandise. But over time something new caught his eye. "Gimme dat!" he roared as he laid down a pelt. "Gimme dat package of Grape-Nuts!"

2. That malty-rich, sweet-as-a-nut flavor that made such a sensation at the turn of the century, is yours today in two delicious cereals: Post's Grape-Nuts and that honey-golden flake cereal Post's GRAPE-NUTS FLAKES

3. You'll feel strong as an Indian chief yourself on a regular morning treat of Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes. You'll get carbohydrates for energy; proteins for muscle; phosphorus for teeth and bones; iron for the blood; other food essentials.

4. Two grains make 'em—wheat and malted barley. Your grocer has lip-smacking, nourishing Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes in regular size and big economy size packages. Get some next shopping trip.

SEEKING MORE PUBLICITY ON PAIGE TRIP

Methods of achieving more publicity for the medal-winning Halifax-to-Prince Rupert motor trip made by C.P.O. and Mrs. Leslie Paige last summer were discussed by the monthly meeting of the Public Relations Council in the City Hall last night.

Sponsors of the tour which already has won wide publicity for the city, the Public Relations Council plans to interest the Chrysler Corporation, Imperial Oil Co. and tire manufacturers in using the cross-country trip as the basis for advertising.

The council also will develop plans for erecting highway signs along the Prince Rupert-Prince George and Cariboo Highways showing mileages to Prince Rupert. These markers are notably lacking at present.

Signboards in the city indicating the distances to Vancouver and cities throughout the United States and Canada would awaken boat tourists to the realization that Prince Rupert has a highway connection with the rest of the continent, Secretary E. T. Applewhite pointed out.

The need for a central publicity office was expressed and the Civic Centre or museum were favored as sites, since they would be natural points of interest in the city. It was felt that such a location as the Civic Centre would be beneficial both to the Civic Centre and to the Public Relations Council.

Possibility of organizing city tours for summer visitors also was subject of discussion.

Net cost to the Public Relations Council of promoting the Roosevelt Park cairn dedication was $60. The council had authorized an expenditure of up to $100.

"If the people of Prince Rupert had taken anything like an interest in this thing, it would have been an unqualified success from a financial standpoint, just like it was from a publicity standpoint," Secretary Applewhite said.

Lloyd Morris moved that a vote of thanks be extended to Ralph Browne for his part in promoting the Roosevelt Park dedication. This the council approved.

CHAMPION IN ANGLING

Cincinnati Man Caught Biggest Fish at Jasper Lodge This Year

JASPER, Alta. — Henry T. Emerson Jr., of Drake Road, Indian Hill, Cincinnati, is the champion angler of the Maligne River Anglers' Club, according to John Stark, manager of Jasper Park Lodge, headquarters of the club. The 1946 championship brings to the winner a gold button and a permanent membership in the club. Second prize in the club championship was won by M. G. Magnuson, 805 Wilmot Road, Scarsdale, New York, who has been awarded a silver button.

The winning speckled trout weighed exactly three pounds and was 18 inches in length with a girth of 11½ inches. It was caught in fast water with a six-ounce fly rod, the heaviest allowed under the rules of the club. The fly used was a brown buck-tail streamer.

The opening of Jasper Park Lodge this summer marked a greatly increased interest in the Maligne River Anglers Club and throughout the season reports

YORKSHIRE SQUATTERS

SOUTH ELMSALL, Yorkshire, England — First squatters here were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wood and their 18-month-old daughter who moved into Upton Hall, 20-roomed 300-year-old mansion, came in that the fishing conditions were splendid.

Many outstanding fishermen visited the speckled trout stocked mountain lakes and streams in Jasper National Park during the season including such notables as Bing Crosby famous radio and screen crooner; Wally Westmore, Hollywood make-up king; C. Ritchie, one of Hollywood's outstanding photographers; Hon. Ray Atherton, United States ambassador to Canada; Dr. Harold Hooper, Grand Mere, Quebec, and many other well known anglers.

During the visit of Bing Crosby he accepted the honorary presidency of the club at a special meeting called by Robert Somerville, general manager of the C.N.R. hotel department.

Others to qualify for membership in the club, in addition to these were, W. R. Cross, 12 East 80th Street, New York; Rex Johnson, American Museum of Natural History, New York, and W. A. MacDonald, Ottawa.

BASIC ENGLISH GAINS GROUNDS AMONG INDIANS

REGINA: — The Indian trapper, who next year may no longer need an interpreter when he bargains with the itinerant fur buyer, will owe some gratitude to Florence Gaynor, young director of the Basic English and citizenship program of the Saskatchewan Department of Education.

This winter at seven communities in the sparsely settled northern half of Saskatchewan, classes of Metis and treaty Indians will gather twice a week to learn English and citizenship through the Basic English method.

Basic is the system of simplified English based on a vocabulary of 850 words and a minimum of grammatical rules. Keen foreign linguists can master it in two weeks of intensive study.

TAUGHT TEACHERS
Miss Gaynor, who taught in rural and town schools in southern Saskatchewan before taking over the Basic English directorate in 1944, knew nothing of the subject before then.

This summer she helped teach the first class of 29 Basic English teachers in Canada at a special four-week course here. The teachers have gone back to their schools throughout the province and many of them are teaching classes in Basic two evenings a week, in addition to their regular day classes.

The first experiment in Basic was conducted last winter at Wymark, Sask., 120 miles southeast of here, centre of a large Mennonite settlement. More than 75 adults, few of whom spoke English, enthusiastically took the course which is combined with a study of citizenship provided by the Canadian citizenship branch of the Secretary of State's Department.

Miss Gaynor, in charge of administrative details of the scheme, has travelled to several parts of the province gauging the necessity of further teachers and the demand for the course.

MORE TEACHERS NEEDED
The 34-year old director believes there should be more teachers equipped to teach Basic. However, some of those who took the course for teachers this summer are unable to use their knowledge, as they have positions in districts where there are no "new Canadians" or Indians.

In a class at Regina last winter, students of Polish, Hungarian, Ukrainian, Russian and Hebrew language backgrounds, who spoke English in varying degrees, were introduced to the novel "Black Beauty" in Basic English. Many of the best-known authors have been translated into Basic. Starting this week, they will be taught in Regina and Jaw. Forty-four classes in the winter course.

Miss Gaynor plans citizenship classes for the well as the advantage able to converse with neighbor.

She says, "In our world citizen you have on a community level."
