Chief Justice Sloan Is Named Mediator In B.C. Timber Strike

VANCOUVER (CP)—Appointment of Chief Justice Gordon Sloan by Ottawa to mediate the seven-day-old strike of 37,000 British Columbia loggers and sawmill workers was welcomed today by representatives of employees and managements. Union officials and R. V. Stuart, representative of the operators, both said they will co-operate fully to settle issues in dispute.

There was no indication immediately of any order to have men return to jobs pending settlement or of when representatives might confer.

RED ARMY ENTERS CZECHOSLOVAKIA

Prague (CP)—An official announcement today said that German troops, bound for Germany, had begun moving across Czechoslovakia from the south in connection with "reorganization of the Russian occupation forces in Germany." The announcement indicated that the movement would continue through May 26, date of the Czechoslovakian general election.

The main body of Russian troops was withdrawn from Germany early this year. The statement from the office of Prime Minister Fierlinger said that the movement was planned in consultation with the Czechoslovak general staff which had approved the plan.

There was widespread speculation whether the presence of Russian troops would have any effect on the forthcoming parliamentary elections.

TUG BOAT IS SUNK BY LINER

SEATTLE (CP)—The veteran tugboat Martha Foss sank in the Strait of Juan de Fuca early today after collision in dense fog with the steamer Iroquois but all six members of the crew were rescued.

Local sources state that four carloads of halibut were turned back at the border transfer point south of Montreal Saturday afternoon but were permitted to cross the border Sunday morning after a 12-hour delay.

Reports from the Prince Rupert Fish Exchange indicate that buyers of American fish are nervous about the possibility of the embargo being resumed later this week but a local express company spokesman discounted the danger.

Taking Over Coal Mines

WASHINGTON, D.C.—President Truman today ordered the Secretary of the Interior to seize the soft coal mines of the nation tomorrow and take over their operation so as to preserve the national economy. The mines are at present operating on a two weeks' truce which ends Saturday.

The President has denied a statement of the unions that, when asking for the truce, he had promised any concessions in a final settlement.

MURDER IN WINNIPEG

Man Dead in Hatchet Slaying—Poisoned Man Confesses

WINNIPEG (CP)—Police were tonight guarding a hospital ward where Abraham Goodman, 65-year-old baker, who had confessed to the hatchet slaying of Mrs. Herman, 60-year-old friend, and Chief George Smith says Goodman will be charged with murder.

Mrs. Herman was slashed with a hatchet at 7 a.m. and died in hospital two hours later. Goodman was found on the street near the scene of the crime suffering from the effects of poison. Condition is favorable and he is expected to recover.

Goodman says the motive for the attack was Mrs. Goodman's refusal to marry him.

TWO MINISTERS ARE RULED OUT

The court also found that Frank was the person chiefly responsible for the massacre and destruction of the village of Zubri.

EMBARGO ON S. HALIBUT CANCELLED

VANCOUVER (CP)—An embargo placed on ship-fresh halibut consigned to American markets from Prince Rupert Saturday morning was lifted on Monday after United States railway workers halted their monetary strike movement, accepting refrigerator cars consigned to the United States.

The embargo caused warnings to be issued to American halibut fishermen not to land their catches here but had no great effect on the Prince Rupert Exchange before it was lifted. There were no offerings of American fish here on Saturday but those which were landed later were frozen in local plants to avoid the need for direct shipment to the U.S.

Temporary refusal of American railway workers to accept cars consigned from Canada to the United States caused the Canadian National Railway to issue a general order authorizing its agents to decline to accept shipments of perishables or livestock for transit to the United States. The order, however, was rescinded at 9:30 Monday morning. Eight cars of fresh halibut were shipped from Prince Rupert to the United States last night.

Local sources state that four carloads of halibut were turned back at the border transfer point south of Montreal Saturday afternoon but were permitted to cross the border Sunday morning after a 12-hour delay.

Reports from the Prince Rupert Fish Exchange indicate that buyers of American fish are nervous about the possibility of the embargo being resumed later this week but a local express company spokesman discounted the danger.

LOGGER STRIKE HITS TUG BOATS

VANCOUVER (CP)—A large part of the B.C. log-towing fleet may be forced into idleness as a result of the seven-day-old strike of 37,000 loggers which is continuing to spread.

However, moves to settle the strike were expected in union and company circles today. The strike was called after failure of the I.W.A. to obtain a satisfactory 1946 working agreement.

One company's entire towing fleet is tied up and others will be affected when the last logs from the strikebound logging camps have reached Vancouver.

However, there have been no layoffs, the towing operators said that they are hopeful of finding other work during the next week.

LEGION SEEKS HOUSING ACT

QUEBEC (CP)—The Canadian Legion national convention, overriding the solid Quebec bloc today, accepted the housing clause of the rehabilitation committee report which called for a veterans' housing act and a national program for homes for men earning $100 monthly. The committee's views are now Legion policy and will be placed before the federal government. The Quebec delegates wanted more specific detail than the committee report contained.

ALL-LAND LONG DISTANCE 'PHONE TALK TO VANCOUVER INAUGURATED

Mayors of Prince Rupert and Vancouver, presidents of Boards of Trade and newspapermen exchanged greetings this morning and a novel touch to prove the versatility of the new communication system was a conversation between a fishing vessel at sea out of Prince Rupert and a newspaper reporter in Vancouver when official inauguration took place of the new all-land long distance telephone service between Vancouver and Prince Rupert. The new service follows recent taking over of Army Pacific Communications System by B.C. Telephone Co. and Government Telegraphs.

The conversations were to large extent clear and came through well although busy lines and certain local hook-ups and appointments at either end caused some minor hitches.

It was evidently a busy morning for Mayor J. W. Cornett of Vancouver for whom Mayor Daggett of Prince Rupert had to wait for a few seconds but finally they got through and both extolled their respective climates and fine weather. Cornett of Vancouver expressed hope that he would see Daggett of Prince Rupert at the convention of Canadian Mayors and Municipalities in Vancouver next month and at the Diamond Jubilee Celebration. The chief magistrate of Vancouver, in turn, assured the Prince Rupert mayor that he hoped to come to Prince Rupert for a visit as soon as civic duties would permit. Regards to all the citizens of Prince Rupert were extended by Mr. Cornett who mentioned that he had seen Ex-Mayor C. H. Orme of Prince Rupert a few days ago.

President W. F. Stone of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce and President William Gorrrie of the Vancouver Board of Trade had an informal chat about the weather and other things. The timber workers' strike was getting the people of Vancouver down somewhat, said Mr. Gorrrie, but they were hoping for an early settlement. Vancouver Board of Trade members were coming north this summer for a brief trip but would not be able to get as far as Prince Rupert. However, the Pacific Northwest Trade Association hoped to have a meeting in Prince Rupert this year. F. M. Dockrill had been doing a good job in representing this area at recent meetings of this body.

G. A. Hunter of the Prince Rupert Daily News conversed with Harold Macdonald of the Vancouver Sun. Appreciation was expressed of the epochal occasion in communication services between the two cities and of the courtesy of the officials of the B.C. Telephone Co. and the Prince Rupert telephone service in making the conversations possible.

Bruce Stevens of the Evening Empire spoke with Al Sessup of the Vancouver Province. Neither could they get away from the topic of the superb weather at both ends of the line. They also acknowledged the value of the new service.

Later connection was made by radiophone to Prince Rupert with the beam trawler, Phyllis Carlisle, fishing for sole and codfish in sun-glinted seas of the choppy north end of Hecate Straits, and an exceptionally clear conversation was relayed on over the new land line from Capt. Jimmy Wingate of the Carlisle to Reporter Al Jessup.

Arrangements for the conversation were in the hands of George Cousins of the B.C. Telephone Co. and F. M. Kempton of the Prince Rupert municipal telephone system.

The inter-city inaugural call program was arranged by N. F. Pullen, public relations manager for B.C. Telephone Co. and was broadcast over station CFPR of Prince Rupert.

Tonight's train, due from the East at 10:45, was reported this afternoon to be on time.

ENTERTAIN NEWSPAPER VISITORS

Prince Rupert made a warm, hands-across-the-border gesture to seven western United States newspapermen and their ladies during their six-hour stop in the city Monday afternoon. The visiting party, which arrived and departed on the Princess Adelaide, were guests of the city, the Public Relations Council and the Chamber of Commerce on a tour of the city during the late afternoon, then were guests at a reception and banquet in the Commodore Cafe in the evening.

A highly effective element in the city's entertainment plans was the fact that the travellers were caught by surprise at the display of hospitality. During their brief speeches following the dinner they warmly acknowledged the kindness of their reception.

Mayor H. M. Daggett, who acted as master of ceremonies, welcomed the visiting party and then introduced the local citizens to the visitors. A reply to Mayor Daggett's welcome was delivered by John Van Bentham, who as vice-president of the western conference, was spokesman for the party. Other speakers were J. Harry Black, J. B. Cassidy, W. H. Brett M.L.A., F. Stone, E. R. Winchester, G. A. Hunter, R. E. Montador and Patricia Canady.

International theme and the close ties between Canada and the United States pervaded the speeches and the beauties of Prince Rupert, matched only by its spontaneous hospitality, was extolled by the visitors.

Present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bentham, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Don W. Farmer of San Jose; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lattanner of Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Winchester of San Francisco; J. R. Cassidy and daughter, Pat, San Francisco; E. C. Gilroy, San Francisco; Robert W. Boyd, Denver; Frank McGary, San Francisco; Mayor and Mrs. H. M. Daggett, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Black, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Montador, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Browne, W. H. Brett M.L.A.; George Murray, Bruce Stevens and Douglas Frizzell.

Prior to the dinner, the visitors, in cars provided by the Prince Rupert Automobile Association, were taken on a caravan drive about the city. They saw various stages and processes of fish packing and shipping at the plant of the Canadian Fish &

LIGHT BOMBER HITS BANK OF MANHATTAN

Five Persons Killed in Holocaust Commemorative of Empire State Building Tragedy Few Months Ago

NEW YORK (CP)—A United States Army Air Force light bomber crashed into the 72-storey Bank of Manhattan building last night killing its five passengers. The crash recalled a similar occurrence a few months ago when a B-25 bomber flew into the seventy-ninth floor of the Empire State Building, killing 14 persons.

Monday night's crash was believed due to the plane overshooting Newark airport in an overcast. No one apart from the plane's passengers was injured in the virtually deserted building located in the heart of Manhattan's financial district.

The plane struck the building 900 feet above the ground at the rear of the Wall Street building, exploded and fell in pieces. Among the plane's five occupants was a WAC lieutenant. Damage to the building is estimated at $75,000.

Striking between the fifty-eighth floors, a large section of the engine fell to the sidewalk on Pine Street. The building was shrouded in moderate fog with half-mile visibility and a ceiling of 400 feet over lower Manhattan.

YELLOWKNIFE

YELLOWKNIFE! The name already conjures in the mind of the public scenes reminiscent of the great gold rushes to California and the Klondyke. Gold rush it may be styled, but in what different manner in this day and age of modern inventions, high-speed transportation and scientific exploration methods.

Visualize what was only a few short years ago a barren wasteland, inhabited mainly by Indians and Eskimos. Far from civilization, the district was merely regarded as a part of that trackless wilderness which was believed to make up Canada's North Country.

What a transformation today, however. The little town of Yellowknife, from a population of a few hundred souls in 1942, has metamorphosed itself into a thriving community of some three thousand ambitious, optimistic Canadians who feel that in their town has been laid the foundation for the gold metropolis of the country. Far and wide across this erstwhile barren wasteland, the song of the diamond drill rings out in ever-increasing crescendo, probing, ever probing into the bosom of Mother Earth in the search for gold.

Admittedly, Northwest Territories has no place for the weakling. With winter temperatures dipping into the sixties below zero for weeks on end, the breed of men who are busily wrestling the hoard of wealth from the depths of the earth have been faced with hardship and privation. Food was, at times, scarce, and mining equipment and supplies conspicuous by their absence.

Undaunted, however, the search for gold proceeded. New air services came into being, other transportation facilities improved until today, Yellowknife may look with pride on its achievements. Planes land and take off in a never-ending stream, "cat" trains bring welcome supplies via the overland route, maintaining their schedules throughout the long and arduous winter. What a change from '98!

UNIQUE ENTERTAINER

UNIQUE among entertainers is Bill ("Bojangles") Robinson. After 60 years before the public he can have a Broadway engagement, it can truly be said, whenever he chooses. His smile has captivated millions ever since the days in Washington when he displayed his self-taught steps on the capital's sidewalks to appreciative onlookers. The pennies they tossed the boy of eight helped him to support himself, and so adept did he become that he decided those nimble feet could pay his keep, and perhaps more.

And so it proved, for he went on to an ever-widening public in vaudeville, night clubs and travelling shows that were open to Negro performers. Then came the prestige of appearances as a "single" entertainer and recognition as one of the world's greatest tap dancers.

He taught Shirley Temple the cute steps she did with him in films as a child, coached Fred Stone and his daughter, Dorothy, in the brilliant star dance (Bill's invention) they did in one of their most successful musical comedies. Many others went to him for instruction between his studio and stage engagements. Today he still does his stair dance, with its ingenious orchestration of stepping, nimble variations and piquant hesitations, that enthusiastic admirers have compared to the form of a Bach fugue visualized.

Bill doesn't smoke or drink. His favorite nourishment is ice cream—two or three quarts a day. His many benefactions include a series of four street-traffic lights in his home town, Richmond, Virginia, which, he has been officially informed, have been the means of insuring the safety of thousands of youngsters. That, he will tell you, is one of the reasons he smiles when he dances.

Gov't Agent Passes Away

H. A. Bryant Dies at Smithers Monday Afternoon

SMITHERS, (Special to Daily News)—Hezekiah Arthur Bryant, provincial government agent at Smithers, died shortly after noon yesterday. Mr. Bryant had been in ill health for some time and recently went to Vancouver to consult physicians there. Since his return he had been sinking rapidly and passed away quietly at his home.

Mr. Bryant was born in Tredegar, Wales, on March 30, 1888 and came to Canada when he was about 17 and worked for a time at Coal Creek, B.C.

During World War I he enlisted and went overseas with the 13th Battalion, Canadian Highlanders. He was severely wounded at the second battle of Ypres in April 1915 and was invalided home where he was discharged as medically unfit. However he again enlisted in 1917, this time with the South British Columbia Forestry Corps and went overseas again with the 41st Company, C.F.C.

After the war Mr. Bryant returned to Canada and made his home in Fernie, B.C. In 1920 he was elected president of the Fernie branch of the G.W.V.A. and served in that capacity for some time. Besides medals for war service he was awarded the Coronation and Jubilee Service medals. He was a life member of the Canadian Legion, Fernie branch, awarded for outstanding work in the Legion.

In 1923 Mr. Bryant married Miss Helen Jones of Cranbrook. He entered the provincial government service in 1933 in Fernie and advanced to government agent. He was transferred to Barkerville and then in 1943 came to Smithers where he was government agent up to the time of his death. Mr. Bryant was a highly respected citizen and took an active part in many local functions. The whole district will feel that it has lost a friend with Mr. Bryant's passing.

He leaves to mourn his passing his wife and one son, William, both of Smithers, two brothers, Tom and Bert, and one sister, Ethel, all in Wales. His son, William, was in active service overseas with the R.C.A.F. and has just recently been discharged.

The funeral service will be conducted from the United Church at Smithers Wednesday afternoon under the auspices of the Canadian Legion with Canon Hinchliffe of St. James Anglican Church, Smithers, officiating. Interment will be in the veterans' plot at Smithers

Activities of Rup-Rec

CALLING BASEBALL FANS—On Wednesday night in the Centre auditorium there will be a special film showing the World Series baseball games of 1945. This movie is put on under the auspices of the Civic Centre Association and the Prince Rupert Baseball Association and is an opportunity for sport fans to see baseball history in the making.

TONIGHT'S MOVIES—The N. F.B. film fare for tonight is an excellent one. The first picture, which takes about 30 minutes to show, is called "Fur Country" and is the story of a trapper's life in the north. There are beautiful shots of the woods and of the many fur-bearing animals that inhabit them. "Sand and Flame" is the title of the second movie and shows how the machine age has revolutionized the glass industry. Glass making in ancient times is compared with present day methods and many lovely pieces of glassware are pictured. These two films will be shown in the meeting room at 8 p.m. and are open to adults and intermediates.

NEW FEATURE IN JUNIOR GIRLS' CLASS—Something new was added to the Junior Girls' Class last evening as the youngsters took part in a "round the block" team race in the fresh air. Ethel Calder was the winner.

BOUQUETS FOR "CENTRE"—Guest newspapermen from "South of the Border" visited Prince Rupert's Civic Centre yesterday afternoon and were loud in their praise of the fine building and the facilities it offers towards better community life.

SOFTBALL MEETING—Organizational meeting for Softball Association was cancelled last night and, instead, will be held next Monday evening at the Centre.

MISCHIEF-MAKER—The word panic is derived from Pan, the name of a mischievous pagan nature god who inspired terror in humans.

BLACKHEADS—Simply dissolve and disappear by this one simple, safe and sure method. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from any drug store, sprinkle on a hot, wet cloth, and apply gently—every blackhead will be gone.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

GREEN ONIONS, RADISHES AND LETTUCE POPULAR THESE DAYS

Green onions, radishes and lettuce are the fresh vegetables most plentiful these days in the backyard garden and on the market. People who are lucky enough to have a garden, even a small one, are anxiously watching for the first vegetables which will reward their efforts.

The patriotic homemaker wants to use all food, whether bought or grown, in a way that will reduce waste to a minimum. The world need for food is great and Canadians are asked to avoid waste by all possible means. Green onions for instance are good all the way up, the white and green parts are both edible. They can be used in salads, soups, etc., just like other varieties of onions. Instead of serving the green onions with all the green part and having most of it left in the plate, the green portion may be cut off and used to give a delicate flavor of onion to a soup, salad, cream sauce or gravy. Besides adding flavor it gives a gay colorful touch.

A salad dressing to which chopped green onions and sliced radishes are added, served on plain lettuce leaves makes a very attractive and quickly prepared salad. Green onions may also be cooked whole and served like asparagus with a cheese or tangy sauce. Radishes need not be used only as a garnish to be eaten raw, they are delicious when cooked and served as creamed radishes or in soup.

Home economists offer recipes which will prevent unnecessary waste of these vegetables. A recipe uses macaroni but with it there will be no need to serve bread.

Macaroni Spring Salad
2 cups cooked cooled elbow macaroni
½ cup chopped green onions
1 cup sliced or shredded raw carrots
1 bunch radishes, about ¾ c. sliced
2 cups lettuce cut in pieces
½ cup boiled dressing

To cooked macaroni add green onions and boiled dressing and mix thoroughly. Cool and chill for at least ½ hour. Add carrots, radishes and lettuce. Toss lightly but thoroughly. Serve on whole lettuce leaves. Six servings.

Savory Greens
3 cups cooked greens (about 2 lbs. beet tops, lettuce, Swiss chard, spinach, etc.)
3 strips bacon, chopped
¼ cup chopped green onions
Salt and pepper

Mash and cook greens. Meanwhile partially fry out bacon add green onions and cook 2 to 3 minutes. Add to hot cooked greens, season with salt and pepper and serve at once. Six servings.

Green and Red Salad
1 tablespoon gelatine
¼ cup cold water
1 cup boiling water
¼ cup sugar
½ teaspoonful salt
¼ cup mild vinegar
3 cups finely shredded leaf lettuce
½ cup sliced radishes
½ cup chopped green onions

Soak gelatine in cold water. Add boiling water, sugar, salt and vinegar. Bring to a boil. Pour over lettuce and radishes. Chill for 15 minutes. Add green onions. Chill again for 15 minutes. Serve on lettuce leaves.

and vinegar. Stir until gelatine is dissolved. Lightly grease six individual moulds and pour a little of the mixture into each. Combine lettuce, radishes and green onions and arrange on mixture; cover with remaining liquid. Chill until firm. Unmould on whole lettuce leaves and serve with boiled dressing. Six servings.

NEW WATCH TESTING DEVICE IN RUPERT

John Bulger Ltd. have just purchased one of the new electronic watch testing machines developed by the Bell Telephone Co. of New York and made by the Western Electric Co. This is the second instrument of this kind to come to B. C., the other being in Victoria.

Designed to take the guesswork out of the watch business, it operates by amplifying the beats or ticks of a watch until they are strong enough to print a record. Each variation in performance makes a different picture on a chart, making it a simple matter to know when a watch is perfect.

It is expected this will be a great help to customers in buying a new watch as all new watches are to be tested before going out.

The Experts Say - -

FOOD CONSERVATION
—There is a general desire among Canadians to supply food to those in need. Many homemakers who want to make their contribution have found it difficult to buy food and plan meals under wartime conditions and can see no way to adapt their menus to the present situation which requires reduced consumption of wheat products, meat, eggs and cheese.

Home economists say that if every homemaker would appoint herself a committee of one to make the most of food in her own home it would be of considerable assistance to the authorities in conserving the required food.

One good way to make these foods available for shipment is to use up supplies on hand before buying more. Sealers and cans of fruit and vegetables from last year, whether packed at home or in a canning factory—should be off the pantry or cellar shelves before the new crop is ready for canning.

With generous helpings of fresh vegetables coming along from the plot in the back yard and the few root vegetables still stored, less bread will be needed. Vegetable plates for dinner and one-dish meals and green salads for luncheon or supper are excellent meat and bread savers.

Here is a recipe for one of these good vegetable meals:

Potato creole requires four tablespoons of fat, four cups of sliced raw potatoes, one sliced onion, two cups of canned tomatoes or tomato juice, 1½ teaspoons of salt, ¼ teaspoon of pepper.

Melt the fat in a frying pan. Add the potatoes and onion and cook for 10 minutes. Add the tomatoes, salt and pepper. Cover and simmer for 30 minutes, or until the potatoes are tender and the tomato juice has become thickened by the starchy potatoes. This makes six servings.

HEFTY SALADS—Not so long ago salads were considered food for dainty ladies but now a salad meal is relished by real he-men—but it takes a hefty salad to be the mainstay of a meal.

The basis is a green leafy vegetable like lettuce, endive, cress or spinach and the best salads are the simplest.

Home economists suggest these rules for good salad making: Have everything well-chilled and the greens crisp. Have a good contrast of color and texture of ingredients. Be sure that the first appearance is attractive and lastly use an appetizing dressing which complements and accents the flavor of the salad.

With a pint of cooked, basic salad dressing on hand, one can make many variations to suit different salad combinations.

A tablespoon of chili sauce, catsup, chopped pickle, grated sharp cheese, or a pinch of curry powder, a dash of horse-radish, a few chopped green onion tops or chives added to ½ cup of thinned dressing will be sufficient for a green salad for six.

3 coupons	2 coupons	1 coupon	1 coupon	1 coupon

Sunday dinner with a maximum of taste appeal and a minimum amount of kitchen drudgery can be provided by veal cutlets, breaded and baked to a succulent state in a slow oven. Two coupons are billed as exchange for a pot roast. Aside from Monday and Wednesday dinners, it should also yield some fixings for lunches. Meatless Tuesday's puffy omelet can be made with fresh mushrooms or canned soup. Thursday is chop day, and Friday spins the eating wheel round to fish. Liver helps you to smuggle extra nutrition into Saturday's meat patties at no ration expense. Left-over are four tokens for future reference, or if available, ½ lb. bacon.

Planned buying is the housewife's duty if she is to keep her family happy now that the sugar and preserves ration is combined so that fewer coupons are used. Aside from the first canning sugar allotment made in May (S9, S9, S10, S11 and S12) which it is assumed you have already earmarked for preserving your family's favorites, two regular sugar-preserves coupons, S13 and S14, become valid on May 16th. Accordingly, a family of four will have a total of eight coupons. The purchase pattern allows for a reasonable amount of sugar for everyday use; some bread spreads; fruit to augment fresh supplies now that simple desserts are recommended substitutes for pies and cakes so that more wheat may be freed for shipment to the hungry abroad; and your last opportunity to get a ration bargain on maple syrup before its coupon value reverts to 48 fluid ounces on May 31st.

Modern Etiquette
By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Would it be permissible for a man to pass in front of a woman, in order to get out of an automobile on the curb side?
A. Yes, it is also safer than getting out on the traffic side. If course it would be more convenient for the driver to get out on the left side.

Q. When giving a luncheon, when should the bread and butter plates be put on the table?
A. Before the guests enter the dining room.

Q. What should a hostess do if the caller refuses a cup of tea or coffee?
A. The hostess should accept the refusal and not make the offer a second time.

SHORTAGE OF NURSES BAD

TORONTO, (C)—Shortage of trained nurses in Canadian hospitals may result in a national calamity should epidemic break out in any section of the country, says Dr. Harvey Agnew, secretary of the Canadian Hospital Council. If the situation becomes worse, several hospitals may have to close some of their wards.

Better hours and wages for nurses now being offered by the federal government Department of Veterans' Affairs, industrial plants and sales agencies are given by hospital superintendents as the chief reason of the present shortage.

BUGS AND DISEASE—It is fortunate for mankind that science has kept pace with the spread of garden pests. In pioneer gardens there were no potato bugs, no cut worms and little disease. Today, unfortunately, there is a special pest for almost every flower and vegetable and more seem to appear each year. However, also appearing are better sprays, dusts and other control measures, some of them like the new DDT and 2, 4-D being revolutionary in results.

As insect or disease usually strike suddenly and in force capable of destroying the whole garden in a few days, experts advise being continually on the alert and also having a supply of defensive material on hand. The best protection is a healthy garden, grown from good disease-resistant seed, well cultivated and free of weeds. The latter is important as bugs harbor among weed growth waiting until the garden stuff is big enough for a raid.

Generally speaking there are three methods of attack and all are easily recognized. There are bugs that eat holes in the foliage. Poison will get there. There are bugs that suck out the juices and the plant will wither. These must be attacked with a spray that will burn. Disease usually hits the plant cells and causes withering or rot in blackish spots. Chemicals like sulphur are used in this case.

Usually it is possible to get ready-mixed powders or spray concentrates that contain a combination of chemicals that will control both kinds of bugs and most diseases. Often one good treatment will be enough, but with things like leaf hoppers and potato bugs which lay eggs, two or three successive treatments to get the young ones will be needed. A cheap sprayer or a porous sack for the dust will be all that the average gardener requires. Most chemicals lose their potency in time so a fresh supply each season is necessary. Above all, the important thing is to be ready for immediate counter-attack before the enemy gets out of control.

AVOID THESE MISTAKES—Two of the commonest mistakes of the average gardener, especially the one of limited experience, are planting far too much too soon and not planting enough in late May and June. During the first warm weeks of spring practically every human being has the urge to get out and dig. He rushes to the nearest seed store, gets supplies and is liable to put in a whole lot of things which should never be planted until the soil and air warm up permanently.

Such a course usually results in loss and discouragement. Peas, grass seed and a few hardier flowers and vegetables don't mind quite a lot of cold and wet, but the great majority of plants do. This too-early planting, also, has another disadvantage. Usually all seed or space is used up too soon and even if weather is favorable the result is too many vegetables ready for the table in July, not enough coming along in August and September. The experienced gardener will always divide his seed into at least three parts, risking the first a little ahead of the regular planting time, putting in the second about the normal time, and saving the last until at least two to three weeks after that. This gives him a continuous supply of the very freshest vegetables right through the season.

GUN CLUB TO INAUGURATE FISH DERBY

Sports fishermen in the Prince Rupert district are going to have a real target to shoot at this summer with the proposed inauguration by the Rod and Gun Club of a fish derby. Plans for the competition were discussed at a meeting of the club in the Civic Centre last night and were turned over to a committee to formulate rules and program.

However, while details of the derby have not yet been worked out, it was agreed by the 25 members present that the competition should be open to all sports fishermen and not just Rod and Gun Club members.

Seeking to promote better conditions for sport fishing in the region, the club will prepare briefs which will be presented to Minister of Lands and Forests Hon. E. T. Kenney on his forthcoming visit to the city. The briefs will deal with proposals to have maps made of the sporting areas, and trails constructed.

Secretary Fred Grimble read a letter from the controller of the National Parks Bureau, Ottawa, outlining the bureau's plans for a shorter season and smaller bag limits for migratory game birds. These changes, the letter stated, were also being applied in the United States and were made necessary by the growing scarcity of game birds.

The meeting learned that the club's proposal that unused contractors' buildings along the Rupert Highway be converted to fishermen's shelters on nearby streams is receiving favorable consideration by the authorities and is being pursued further.

Members agreed that meetings of the club should be held quarterly. President James Bacon was chairman.

FLIER URGES FOOD SUPPORT

Canadians Should Do Everything Possible to Help Starving People Abroad

WINNIPEG—Canadians might well support every movement to increase food shipments overseas in the opinion of Gordon R. McGregor, general traffic manager, TransCanada Air Lines, who has just returned here after a three-week business trip in England, France and Belgium.

The former Canadian fighter pilot, who rose from second in command of Number 1 Squadron during the Battle of Britain to command of No. 126 Wing by the time of the invasion of Europe, was full of praise for the British people in their effort to pair the physical and economic ravages of war. "They are doing a magnificent job under extremely difficult circumstances in England," he said, "and anything we can do to lighten the burden of the austerity program which must prevail for some time, will be of tremendous help."

The TCA traffic head there was a huge volume of travel awaiting westbound ships by air and water. Much of it was extremely urgent and tied with Britain's bid for export markets to bolster her international trade positions.
