If Quid Pro Quo Not Adequate Impost

OTTAWA (CP)-Premier John Hart said today that his government is ready to give up the use of the personal income tax and corporation tax fields for a three-year period providing the Dominion assures the provinces sufficient compensation in return. The Ottawa Conference

With his promise that the personal income tax will be lowered and the corporate double income tax will be ameliorated so as to make it. worthwhile for the ordinary small busines is to carry on expanding, improving and providing employment which they have been limited in doing during recent years, Prime Minister Mackenzie King makes it hard for the provinces not to at least sympathetically consider adopting, if not accepting, the federal proposals.

Some sound effective way must eventually be devised by Ottawa to meet its huge financial obligations which are not ended just because the war is over. At the same time, the provinces have work to do and functions to carry out and they must have adequate means of financing

The problem which faces the conference is reaching some sort of a division of the fields of public revenue-raising that will provide the revenue needed by the Dominion and the provinces. At the same time, the system of taxation cannot be permitted to reach a point either on personal or business incomes where initiative and incentive is squelched such as is very nearly the case these days as a result of the double corporate income and excess profits

It is not an easy task to reconcile the needs of the Dominion on the one hand and those of the provinces on the other. While the governments try to make both ends meet, the public clamors for more servicing and more expenditure and at the same time demands amelioration of taxation which is the only way the governments have of raising the money to pay the costs. It is the same old story.

We do not think for a moment that, in order to meet the trying problems with which they are faced, the representatives of both the Dominion and the provinces will not go the limit in compromising and devising ways and means. There are none of them who want to possess themselves of the means of imposing taxation just for the sake of taxation. All they want is the possession of ability to raise the finances for their respective needs.

If there is a possible way of reaching a common basis of satisfying the various needs, the Ottawa conference should be competent of reaching and embracing it. We do not need to be too discouraged that some satisfactory settlement shall not be reached between the Dominion and the provinces. Indeed, sooner or later one will have to be reached. These are matters that cannot go indefinitely unsettled.

Why Beautification Campaign

The Junior Chamber of Commerce, this year with the co-operation of the Prince Rupert Public Relations Council, is to be congratulated on its perennial enterprise in conducting a campaign to remind citizens that homes need sprucing up, streets and lanes should be cleaned and well-kept, lawns and vacant lots cleared of litter, fences painted, etc. Particularly does this hold true in the spring of the year, when nature is bursting with new life and color.

Civic pride is a feeling that should be fostered by all organizations, and an appeal to civic consciousness by way of a Beautification Campaign is most effective.

The outward appearance of a community reflects the spirit of its citizens. How much more attractive for visitors and tourists to see clean, fresh-looking homes, stores and publie buildings, with flowers, grass and trees in profusion! How much finer for the morale of us all to have a city that sparkles, rather than one with dirty streets, ill-kept houses, drab-looking shops!

A Beautification Campaign is a worthwhile effort and might well be a highlight of the year's activity. In Prince Rupert the drive starts tomorrow and continues for ten days.

"We here in Canada have no realization of what conditions in of Imperial Oil Ltd., Vancouver, Europe are really like-of the uncertainty, the hopelessness, the suffering, the mistrust and suspicion all of which are the everyday things in Europe. We have no real conception of the lack of respect for human beings which has grown up—where men do not count for anything as 2:00-4:00 — Open to servicehumans. This so easily grows. Unless we here in Canada can protect this fundamental belief -that human beings are children of God and make this belief real in our relationships one with another in every walk of life then we are not on firm ground. Men and women, you and I, were so important in the eyes of God that he considered it worthwhile that Christ should die for us.

> "Jesus saw mankind as a unity and when one person or group mistreated another then it was like the hand of a body cutting off the feet. We need desperately to regain some conception like this so that we become concerned about the welfare of all men as children of God and cease to be complacent. This gives us a basis for acting and living at home and also in our relationships with people elsewhere.

NOW'S THE TIME TO PAINT UP-CLEAN UP-FIX UP-

Junior Chamber of Commerce Beautification Campaign

"Cleanliness is Next to Godliness" - WESLEY

For Mental, Physical and Spiritual Well-Being, We Should CLEAN UP and BEAUTIFY OUR HOMES

Make Your Contribution Today to Civic Improvement!

May 1st to 11th

"Make Prince Rupert Beautiful"

Rupert will join other cities of Canada in "National Beautification Campaign." Sponsored in this city by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, it will have as its object, the initiation of a "clean-up, paint-up, fix-up" drive which, it is hoped, will be maintained throughout the year for the continous benefit of the city.

For reasons of mental and physical, as well as spiritual wellbeing, the idea of "clean-up and beautify" is one that will appeal to every right-thinking citizen. Prince Rupert is badly in need of such a "lift."

Every community spends taxpayers' money each year in promoting public health measures. It is far better to prevent disease than cure it and what more effective measure can be found than the removal of dirt and grime?

Civic pride is a feeling that should be fostered by all organizations and individuals. An adequate and profitable way of expressing it in Prince Rupert is to make the city clean and tidy so that it will not only be clear of the danger of diseases but will present an attractive front to the tourists who will visit us this year—as well as to all of us who live here.

Get behind the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Prince Rupert Beautification Campaign.

Burn rubbish — repair fences, cut and trim the grass — clean out the basement and the attic — prevent possible fires — paint where possible.

WEAR AND WATER pressure would soon render your garden hose completely useless if the rubber were not reinforced with rugged tightly-woven cotton fabric.

This is just one example from thousands to show how the cotton fabrics produced by Dominion Textile workers serve Canada's neace-time needs. You walk on cotton in the linings of your shoes and rubbers, and in the backing of your carpets. You sleep on cotton in sheets, pillow cases, pajamas and mattress coverings. You ride on cotton in your auto tires. You dress in cotton in your shirts, coat linings, dresses, underwear.

It is a good thing for Canada that these textile goods so widely needed are made in this country wour own Canadian industry. We do not have to depend upon imports from foreign sources for these essentials of daily living.

Dominion Textile workers are now busy turning out the many things that are so badly needed for our peacetime living. As long as the present tremendous demands and relative shortages exist, we shall go on distributing our production on a quota basis, playing no favourites.

Canada's housing shortage, which is said to have reached an extreme pitch in southern B.C., will not hold any terrors for Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kobieski who, with their family of three are moving south to the booming town of Campbell River on Vancouver Island.

The Kobieski's, who formerly lived at Bilmor, sailed today for Campbell River on the Catala and they are taking their house with them. At least, it is going to follow them south very shortly.

Hearing of the difficulty of obtaining housing, Mr. Kobies-"Story With Two Endings." this ki, a mill worker, took his picture shows the ending of h house apart and made arrangements to have it shipped by Union Steamships, as lumber, to Campbell River. So now Mr. and Mrs. Kobieski and their children Neil, Betty and Pat are sure of a place to live in the south.

Stampeders Need a Rest so Will Not Meet Vancouver Canucks

VANCOUVER. (P) - All the speculation about the Allan Cup Pittsburg hockey kings playing a series Philadelphia with the Vancouver Canucks appears slated to remain in the rumor class. It is considered unlikely that the Calgary Stampeders, who dopped the Allan Cup Saturday night by defeating the Hamilton Tigers, will take on the Canucks. The Stampeders have played nearly 50 games this season and, as their coach, Jack Arbour, puts it-"They've had enough hockey for this year."

OTTAWA RACING DATES ARE SET
