DEBATE OVER BRITISH LOAN

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Outspoken debate with wide differences of opinion and sentiment mark the debate in House of Representatives over the question of approving the $3,750,000,000 loan to Great Britain. One member declared that Great Britain had done nothing for the United States while United States had come to her rescue twice. Had Great Britain not stood in the breach against Nazi aggression, many more Americans would have lost their lives, said another congressman.

Vancouver Province Commission Agrees There Is No Dispute Between Paper and Printers

VANCOUVER, B.C. — Public hearing into the causes of the printers' strike at the Vancouver Daily Province concluded last night. The commission hearing arguments met later to discuss points and begin preparation of recommendations.

Both parties agreed that there is no dispute between the Province and the Union. The Union asked that the commission recommend the Southam Company be required to negotiate a master contract covering all its newspapers. The province is a Southam newspaper.

R. H. Neelands of the International Typographical Union said he hoped the Commission would require the Southam Publishing Co. to negotiate a master agreement with the Union covering all its newspapers. Leigh Spencer, managing director of the Province, said he has no authority to negotiate a master agreement for the whole Southam group. If he tried to do so, it would only be repudiated.

Sherwood Lett, chairman of the commission, is reported to have expressed doubt if the commission had jurisdiction in relation to papers other than the Province. At Toronto Harry Finch, speaking for the I.T.U., said the union was prepared to "fight to the finish" for unionization of all Southam newspapers.

STREET REPAIR WORK "STOP-GAP" POLICY, ENGINEER TELLS COUNCIL

City Engineer Tells Council a Street in City Ready for Permanent Paving, He Says
 SUGGESTING that its engineering policies of a quarter of a century ago are out of date, City Engineer E. A. Phillips told the council last night that it is not a road that is ready for paving next year unless we have a lot more equipment or spend a lot more money," City Engineer E. A. Phillips told the council last night.

In a verbal statement to council, supplementing a written report on his road maintenance policy, City Engineer Phillips told the aldermen that "the city hasn't a nickle to spend on paving until the streets are ready—all I have been trying to do is stop-gap so that I can get other badly-needed work done."

Mr. Phillips spoke prior to council's acceptance of his written report which showed that for the first five months of this year almost $8,000 has been spent on the city's streets, the larger part of it for patching, grading, re-surfacing and sealing.

A large part of the present work has been the re-establishment of grades, drainage and consolidation of sub-grades for later paving programs, Mr. Phillips declared. He added that, as a result of the road-building methods of 20 and 25 years ago, soft spots are continually appearing in the streets because of rotting timber mattresses.

He asserted that the city could have "50 per cent of its streets good earth roads, with the downtown and busy traffic arteries paved."

Launching into an over-all discourse on the city's engineering plight, Mr. Phillips asserted that "roads are not the most important problem from an engineering standpoint. We have a very dangerous and unhealthy sewer problem here. It should never be lost sight of that, just because poor sewers are not so noticeable as poor streets, they are not important. To go ahead and put a permanent surface on the downtown streets would mean that we should have to tear it up later to replace the sewers."

In answer to a question by Alderman Arnold, Mr. Phillips said that to spray the streets with lubricating or diesel oil to lay the dust would be detrimental to the later application of paving material and that to use a "cut-back" paving emulsion would be highly expensive.

Delegation Present But Says Nothing

Mr. Phillips' statements were followed with keen interest by a group of citizens, whom, Alderman Youngs said, he understood had come as a delegation to speak on the street problem. However, given an opportunity to present their views to council, none responded.

Getting down to matters of cost, the City Engineer declared that a good paving job would cost $10,000 a mile. "I have between $700 and $800 a mile to spend," he added.

"Sixth Avenue East is held up as a good road," he said. "I don't think that it is a particularly good road. It is too narrow, lacks drainage and has an uneven surface. Yet that street cost the Air Force in excess of $20,000 a mile."

In answer to a query by Alderman Hills, the City Engineer informed council that he has so far spent about half of his annual street maintenance budget.

AUSTRALIAN PREMIER—J. B. Chifley, prime minister of Australia, is of Irish descent. He was born in Bathurst, New South Wales, on September 22, 1885, son of a blacksmith. Working on the N.S.W. government railways, he became one of the drivers of the famous Melbourne-Sydney Express. In his free time he studied finance and industrial law. Later he turned to journalism and for a time directed his local newspaper "The Bathurst Advocate," of which he is still part owner. In 1925, he entered the House of Representatives as Labor Member for Macquarie, of which constituency Bathurst is the principal town. Mr. Curtin was returned in the same election, and it was while the two sat together on the back benches that their life-long close friendship began. Mr. Chifley was Member for Defence from 1929-31, and was also a member of the Communications Sub-Committee (under the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs) appointed to meet the British mission of Empire Communications, which arrived in Canberra on January 31, 1945. Forthright, modest, homely, friendly, are words always applied to him. He still lives very simply in the home in Bathurst to which he took his wife, Elizabeth Mackenzie, in 1914. His friends have given him the nickname of "Hamlet" because of his brooding way of staking through the Parliamentary corridors when deep in thought.

VANCOUVER — Speaking before the British Columbia Law Society here yesterday, Chief Justice Wendell Farris advocated a permanent Assize Court for Vancouver Island instead of the three sessions per year as at present. UGLY NATIONALISM

INTENSE NATIONALISM — one nation's self-centred and exclusive consideration of its own interests and aggrandizement to the utter disregard of all others — the element that has been a major contributory factor to all wars of the past through the aggression that has grown out of the satisfaction of uncontrolled and undenied nationalism — is stalking the world again today, notwithstanding the lesson which, twice in the course of a generation, has been taught to one great nation and so recently to another, leading to the utter subjection and ruin of both.

No sane observer of the international scene cannot but become more satisfied as one day follows another that we have another great nation that is practising unbridled nationalism, a nationalism that is beginning to manifest internationally illegal tactics just as surely as did Nazi Germany in her worst days. In security council proceedings in New York, in foreign ministers' parley at Paris day after day it is being displayed with no attempt to justify it unless it be mildly condoned on occasion in the defensive with a sort of "two wrongs make a right" argument.

That it will lead to another and early world war we, of course, all hate to think but can hardly help from fearing. Compromise appears to be rapidly stretched to the breaking point. Then there will be nothing left but recourse to appeasement, the bitter fruits of which we have already tasted, or a determined stand backed with the means and will to enforce it.

Who can say that international affairs are not rapidly speeding on to a crisis? We would be blind indeed if we should ignore the fact.

HOW WILL IT END?

THE PRESENT developing inflationary cycle will end like the last one, in 1920, ended. On one day, the supply of goods at a given price will not be enough to meet the demand. A few days later, at the same price, sellers will not be able to dispose of all they have. The price boom will be over and inflated prices will go down like a punctured balloon.

How can such a drastic change occur so rapidly? It can happen overnight, literally, simply because this change comes from a reversal in mass psychology.

Granted that real scarcities exist today in many markets. Buyers know this, and are doubly anxious to purchase; sellers know it and take advantage of it. But even today, supplies of most items are increasing.

This gain in supplies is not yet impressive. It may be interrupted from time to time by strikes. Costs may rise further. Shipments are sometimes delayed or held back. Sellers naturally continue to emphasize the difficulties and the problems.

Many buyers lack information about the true level of production and believe everything they are told. By shopping here and there for wanted items, they give sellers an inflated idea of what the true demand is. But all the time the supply keeps gaining.

One day some buyer, who is more far-sighted or more intelligent or better informed than the rest, decides the time has come to be cautious. He quietly cuts down his buying or perhaps cancels a few orders. A few more buyers follow him. Or there may be a spontaneous buyers' strike at the consumer level. Or perhaps a few sellers, seeing the end of a one-way street, make some sort of concession. The news spreads. Within a day or two everyone has heard it. Practically overnight it is realized that the scarcities that were so real a few months ago have suddenly become fictitious. The boom is over—the bust is on.

JUDGE ON STRIKES

THE Vancouver News-Herald thinks that Mr. Justice A. M. Manson, in an address on "Canadian Citizenship" before the Kiwanis Club, deserves the thanks of the community for his forthright remarks about the disrespect now being shown to laws of the land.

The jurist saw this disregard for the law, trespass on private property, and assumption of legal powers by boards and officials, bringing this country near to anarchy.

He was particularly outspoken with regard to labor strikes, by means of which certain labor elements were superseding the laws of the country. There have been a series of such illegal strikes shaking the basis of our economy, and no government has moved to enforce the laws regarding illegal strikes. Even now there are at least three such strikes in progress here in B.C.

Mr. Justice Manson is right. He is only throwing the public spotlight upon the concern which has been in the minds of many people for a long time.

A strike is a form of warfare. It is a warfare in which the general public are the sufferers—the great losers. Strikes of the present type are not liberty but license. Liberty is the right of everyone to live in a community with respect to the rights of others.

Labor unions should be required to incorporate, to hold straightforward elections, and to account for their funds.

One of the best suggestions to end the present unhappy strike situation is the proposal to set up judicial courts which would be arbitrators in all labor disputes. They would be impartial courts to which labor and industry could resort just as easily as citizens now appeal to civil courts for the redress of grievances and settlement of disputes. This would be infinitely preferable to the present procedure of taking the law violently into their own hands. It might even be possible to have a supreme labor court to which appeals could be made.

Both sides should be bound by the decision of the courts. Then strikes could be completely outlawed.

Some such solution is vitally essential. There must be a stop to the trend, which Judge Manson has deplored, away from the proper regard and respect for the democratic laws of Canada.

CONSIDERING
RE-ASSESSMENT

City council is considering an offer from George Lafleche of Vancouver to make a complete re-assessment of property in Prince Rupert. The offer followed council's plan to have city property re-assessed for the first time since its original assessment when the townsite was laid out almost 40 years ago. Lafleche is asking remuneration based on $500 for his first ten days of work and $35 per day thereafter, plus all expenses. The amount,
council felt, would be considerably less than the $5,000 set aside for the job two years ago.

FRIENDS ON RETIREMENT

Thirty-four years on the provincial police force was climaxed for former Constable Conrad P.
Oland Monday afternoon when more than a score of his friends in the police and provincial civil service gathered in the government court room to make him a presentation following his retirement from the force on July 1.

In presenting Mr. Oland with a large, engraved silver tray, on behalf of the court house and local police staffs, Provincial Police Inspector H. H. Mansell dwelt on the human qualities which had made "Con" a popular figure during his years of service.

"He is one of the very few of us who are left whose force number is under 50," Inspector Mansell said.

In behalf of the court house
staff, Government Agent Gordon Forbes spoke in appreciative terms of the friendliness which had characterized Mr. Oland and made him popular with all who

SHORT SPORT

First tournament of the season on the Canadian National Railways' Recreation Association Tennis Club courts, on which informal play has been active since early spring under the ideal weather conditions, is booked for the coming Sunday. It will be an American mixed doubles' tourney on the turnout at which will be based the forthcoming annual club trophy tournament.

As a result of an injury when sliding into base Sunday Joe DiMaggio will be out of the game for a week at least. It is hoped that the injury to his knee will not aggravate an old injury received when he played on the Pacific Coast. While Joe has not been hitting as of old yet he does still lead in the number of runs batted in and any lengthy absence from the line-up will be a serious handicap to his team.

Hal Newhouser marked up his sixteenth victory of the season Sunday.

Hank Greenberg scored his twenty-second home run of the season Sunday in addition to one other hit.

In the national clay court tennis championships on Sunday Frankie Parker won over W. Talbert by 6-4, 6-4, 6-2. In the whole competition Parker has not lost a set.

In the middle states professional tennis championship Don

General Motors Win From Grotto While 99 Taxi Swamps Reserves Squad

In the first of the two fast-ball league games last evening at Gyro Ball Park, 99 Taxi team overwhelmed the Reserve by 20 to 0. In the second game the powerful General Motors hit on all cylinders to defeat the Grotto nine by 8 to 1.

The Reserve never gave up but they just had not the talent. Pallister pitched a good game but fielding errors and inexperience gave him no support. The worst innings were the fourth and fifth. In the fourth the entire 99 team batted around while Dominato scored twice, the second being an unearned home run. Four players scored three runs each, these being Dominato, Montesano, Calderoni and Ratchford. Glen Smith, Gurvich and Wendle scored twice each while Postuk and Houston scored once each.

Pallester and Warren were the battery for the Army men. Pallister struck out two. Boyo Gurvich pitched for the taxi men and was never in trouble. Sonny Beynon relieved him in the last two innings and showed lots of speed. Each struck out one. Postuk was a good catcher.

What more delectable eating for a summer Sunday than chicken done the family's favored way. Billed for Monday is a pot roast, succulent and savoury and surrounded with the season's new vegetables. Fish forms the focal point of meatless Tuesday's dinner. On Wednesday the pot roast reappears, sliced cold and enlivened with colorful vegetables and a twangy relish. With dried beans again market available, the odds and ends of the roast can add flavour and nutriment to Thursday's chili con carne. From the array of fresh vegetables can be chosen an eye-appealing and palate pleasing vegetable plate for Friday, proteinized with an egg or cheese sauce. Stewing veal is a good choice for making a jellied mould for Saturday, with something for Sunday Supper too, augmented if numbers indicate the need, by unrationed tongue. To your credit from the week's eating is one coupon.

Guns Will Arrive Soon For Local Corps—Anti-Aircraft and 12-Pounders

Word has just been received from the Department of National Defence Naval Service that two guns are to be shipped to the local Captain Cook Corps of the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets.

Gun and mounting. This is the famous anti-aircraft weapon that played such a prominent part in bringing down enemy aircraft in the recent war. The other gun to be delivered is one 12-pounder with mounting. The addition of these weapons will undoubtedly add much to the interest of the local cadets in their training.

Precedent and Pants Balanced By Aldermen

C. Anderson's torn trousers waved figuratively before the city council last night but it was not out of delicacy or out of disregard for Mr. Anderson's plight that council decided to ignore the damaged garment. It was a matter of policy.

Mr. Anderson did not present the trousers angrily or wave them in the manner of a tattered battle flag. He merely suggested, civilly that, since they had been torn and himself bruised when he fell into a cavity left by a collapsed sewer, that the city might go so far as to compensate him for his ruined pants. The sewer collapsed under him as he was walking on First Street in the dark of night, he said.

His estimate of a three-foot drop was modified by City Engineer Phillips who said that the hole in the street was about 20 inches deep.

"But it's an indication of the terrible condition of our sewers," the City Engineer added pointedly.

City Clerk H. D. Thain told council that, under law, the city could not be held liable for Mr. Anderson's mishap unless it could be proven that the original installation of the sewer was faulty. However, he suggested, it might be a kindly gesture to allow Mr. Anderson $12.50 for a new pair of trousers.

"And what about precedent?" countered Alderman Youngs. "Suppose a truck fell into one of those holes. We might find ourselves stuck with a bill for $3,000 just because we admitted liability for Mr. Anderson's pants."

Council forthwith adopted a motion by Alderman Ham that Mr. Anderson's letter be acknowledged with expressions of regret.

RECALLS EARLY RUPERT HISTORY

Highlights of the early history of Prince Rupert, in which he took an active part, were recalled yesterday by C. S. Wormald of Galiano Island, who, with Mrs. Wormald, was a visitor here. They sailed for the south today on the Catala.

A resident here from 1910 to 1920, Mr. Wormald took part in the construction of many of the buildings which are still standing. He worked as a carpenter on construction of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. plant, the dry dock, and many downtown buildings.

Although he believes the climate in the Gulf Islands is the "best in the world," Mr. Wormald had a good word to say about Prince Rupert's fruitfulness. Wandering about the city, he and Mrs. Wormald were impressed to see raspberries growing wild in vacant lots.

"We have to struggle to make them grow in our garden in the south," he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Wormald arrived in the city Sunday on the Cassiar from Masset where he lived after leaving Prince Rupert a quarter of a century ago. The Islands, he said, seem to have progressed very little during that interval.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I get a uniform color when dyeing?

A. Before adding dye to the large vessel into which the goods are placed, always be sure that the powder is thoroughly dissolved in boiling water. Then strain it into the dyeing vessel. If this is not done, blotches of color are liable to appear in the goods.

Q. How can I dye a straw hat red?

A. Boil ground Brazil-wood in a lye of potash, and boil the hat in it.

Q. How can I clean and whiten the piano keys?

A. By rubbing rather hard with equal parts of alcohol and peroxide of hydrogen. This also removes any stains that are on the keys.

LIFE WORK

It is estimated that a pound of honey represents the life work of about 1,000 bees.

now than they had when I was there," he commented.

Mr. Wormald reminisced about the Battle of Kelly's Cut, the old Ark, which stood on McBride Street, and such personalities as Fred Stork, the city's first mayor, T. D. Pattullo, Fred Mobley, S. M. Newton, Peter Black, and others. At present, he and Mrs. Wormald are building a number of tourist cabins on their property on Galiano Island.

DEDICATION OF ROOSEVELT PARK

Governor General and United States General May Take Part—City to Spend $500

Possibility that Canada's Governor General, Field Marshal Sir Harold Alexander, may take a leading part in the proposed dedication of Frank D. Roosevelt Park during his scheduled visit here on August 21 is being reported by city council which last night authorized the expenditure of up to $500 for the erection of a commemorative cairn and plaque on what was formerly Acropolis Hill.

Plans laid down tentatively by a special committee of the Public Relations Council call also for the presence of Major General C. P. Hays, officer commanding the American Sixth Army, who has been authorized by General Eisenhower to attend the ceremony as official representative of the American War Department.

Last night city council heard the plan outlined by Ralph Browne, who has been in touch with the American Chief of Staff concerning such a dedication ceremony. Mr. Browne told council that General Eisenhower had authorized him by letter that Major General Hays would be available for the occasion any time in August or September.

The visit of Canada's Governor General on August 21 opens an opportunity to make the dedication an international affair involving major personalities of both countries, Mr. Browne said.

However, information received by city council indicates that Governor General Alexander's visit will be an unofficial one and council is endeavoring to persuade him to act in an official capacity at the dedication.

Site of the stone cairn on which will be mounted a plaque which will be the goodwill between the two countries, cemented during the American army's occupation of Prince Rupert, will be commemorated, was chosen Monday afternoon by members of the Public Relations Council committee. It is to be placed near the entrance to Roosevelt Park.

Should Field Marshal Alexander agree to take part in the dedication, plans for a gala day will be laid. This probably will be in conjunction with the Civic Centre carnival which will be on at the same time.

TAXI CONTROL BYLAW IS READ

"Pirate" Cab Driver to Be Eliminated

City council's answer to the appeals of taxi operators whose protests against their less scrupulous cab-driving competitors have echoed piteously through the City Hall chambers for weeks was brought down last night in the form of a bylaw to put all taxi-men under rigid city control.

Primarily, it will eliminate the "pirate" cab driver who in the past has allegedly been using his competitors' recognized taxi stands as a source of fares, thus undermining the business of men having recognized taxi businesses.

Despite the fact that these "pirates" had only a car, they could operate a taxi business, whole or part-time, merely by paying the city $5 for a trade license. The new bylaw makes some changes.

With the exception of Third Avenue it allows taxi-men to claim exclusive parking rights in front of their stands, and forbids any driver or operator to use any public place within the city as a stand other than that expressly designated on his license.

While the bylaw does not allow exclusive parking rights on Third Avenue, it does protect the taxi operators with stands on that street by forbidding other drivers to park only at their own recognized parking places. Thus it eliminates the possibility of a continuance of "piracy."

The bylaw also makes it compulsory for taxi operators to carry public liability insurance of $5,000 for one passenger and $10,000 for two passengers. While most responsible taximen already carry such insurance, some do not.

Cancellation of revocation of such an insurance policy automatically suspends the license of the vehicle which will not be renewed until the insurance is put back into effect.

City taxi operators, many of whom viewed the bylaw prior to its first reading in council last night, expressed themselves as favoring its regulations. The bylaw becomes effective July 15. A special meeting of city council has been called for Wednesday to give final reading to the legislation.

LEN HOPKINS FROM JASPER

JASPER, Alta.—Arrangements have been made with the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation for carrying every Thursday evening the program of Len Hopkins and his Jasper Park Lodge Orchestra. The program will be carried over the Dominion network from 8 to 8:30 p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

Len Hopkins Orchestra is an old favorite with Canadian radio listeners as they have been broadcasting twice a week for several years from the Chateau Laurier. Hopkins is noted for his dance music timing and his band of 11 pieces is made up of specialists from various parts of Canada.

The broadcasts will consist of ballroom music from the Lodge. Mr. Hopkins organized this band in 1938 and has played regularly at the Chateau Laurier ever since. This is their first year at Jasper and they will return to the Chateau this fall.

The subjects of British government advertising in local daily newspapers, varying from blood transfusions, rationing, gardening, etc. to fuel saving, is evidence of the comprehensive coverage of daily newspapers.

The Vancouver gas boat Arranmore was seized and relieved of 100 cases of liquor and 146 sacks of beet. The boat had cleared from Vancouver giving Banks Island as her destination when she was seized by the provincial police.

A concentrating mill at the Toric mine at Alice Arm was about to be completed and it was expected that the mine would be shipping gold and silver bullion by fall. Ore values ranged from $12 to $22 per ton.

Fred Stork, M.P., expressed the opinion that the Liberals would win the forthcoming election. He said, with satisfaction, that "Mackenzie King has not only the right side of the argument but he has the backing of the people."

ATLIN FISH HAS PICNIC

Highly Enjoyable Outing at Tugwell Island Sunday

On Sunday Tugwell Island was the scene of a highly enjoyable picnic outing for the employees of Atlin Fisheries, accompanied by their families and friends, number about 190. Leaving Atlin Bay the boats Harriet E., Burnaby M. and Arrandale arrived at Tugwell Island at 10 o'clock.

The events of the day included children's races, softball, tag-war and a pie eating contest. The tug-of-war contest between housewives defeated the men from the plant while the first team won the cup when they were victorious over the other team and the crews from Harriet E. and Burnaby M. The event that gave much enjoyment was the pie eating contest. Cream, soft drinks, hot dogs, coffee and tea were served during the day.
