PRINCE RUPERT OUTLET ADVOCATED

NEW LOGGERS NEAR RUPERT

Effect of Big Strike Not Immediately Felt Here
The strike of British Columbia organized loggers probably will have little effect in the Prince Rupert district where only a handful of union men are employed in a few small operations. However, the strike, which began at 11 o'clock this morning, is expected to make the lumber supply already precarious, practically non-existent here, thus paralyzing the restricted amount of logging that is going on.

No reserves of lumber exist in the province, and when the present supply of logs is exhausted, no more lumber will be available. Larger mills which employ union labor have ceased production, since the men went out with the loggers.

Lumber is coming direct from the mills for immediate use at present time.

Exact number of loggers on small operations around Prince Rupert who have stopped work could not be ascertained this morning, but it is expected they will number less than 500 in the area, the George Box and Lumber Mill and a number of smaller ones, will not be affected because of the walkout, it was learned, because most of the loggers do not belong to the logging union.

In the Terrace district the work probably will shut down logging operations in which the loggers and mill workers are members of the I. W. A.

STRANRAER DUE IN PORT TODAY

William Peters, chief pilot for the line, was at the controls of the plane.

Peace Pact For Germany

Byrnes Proposes That One be Made Ready for Conference in November

PARIS, (P)—United States Secretary of State James Byrnes proposed to the foreign ministers' council today that a peace conference be called November 12 to draft a peace treaty for Germany, an American informant said.

In a session, which was completely taken up with discussion of critical German problems, Byrnes proposed that representatives of Britain, Russia, France and the United States start meeting immediately to draw up a draft of a treaty for Germany which the foreign ministers could present to a peace conference, the informant said.

Byrnes was reported to have proposed that foreign ministers' representatives first report on the economic status of Germany to the foreign ministers' council at its next meeting, possibly June 15.

Meantime sources close to the Russian delegation predicted that Foreign Commissar Molotov would agree to a proposal to summon a 21 power peace conference in July following another four-power conference next month.

In a telegram to Mayor H. M. VANCOUVER BY LAND 'PHONES

B.C. Telephone Co. Construction Men Here in Connection With Transfer From Radio-phone
Carrying out switchboard changes in connection with the transfer of the long distance service between Prince Rupert and Vancouver from the present circuitous partial radiophone route to the newly acquired land line of the Pacific Communications System, George Cousins and Ray Cherry of the British Columbia Telephone Co. switchboard construction department are in Prince Rupert. Part of their work is at the city telephone exchange and part of it at the Pacific Communications establishment. By the scheduled date of May 21, it is expected the service will be operating on the land circuit on a sixteen-hour daily basis.

Under the new set-up there will be long distance service between Prince Rupert and various intermediate points soon after the Vancouver service is established.

J. T. Harvey is leaving on this evening's train for Terrace where he will act as defence counsel in an assault case involving two youths. He expects to be back on tomorrow night's train.

TIMBER WORKERS' STRIKE ON— 37,000 MEN IN B.C. INDUSTRY STRIKE

Within Week Eighty Thousand May Be Off Jobs—Last-Minute Settlement Efforts Fail

VANCOUVER (CP)—Some 37,000 British Columbia logging and sawmill workers went on strike at 11 o'clock this morning Pacific Daylight Time in protest against failure to obtain a satisfactory working agreement. The strike was called by the American C.I.O. and C.C.L. It is estimated that, within a week or ten days, eighty thousand workers, or about one-third of the province's 250,000 employees, will be off their jobs as a result of the walk-out.

Last-minute efforts to avert a shut-down in the industry, the province's largest, failed when representatives of the union and lumber operators conferred with Chief Justice Gordon Sloan.

Commenting on the discussion, the chief justice said: "I was unable to find common ground to bring them together." The union had agreed to call off the strike on condition that the operators agreed to an 18c hourly wage increase and a forty-hour week.

The operators would not accept these demands and refused to enter into negotiations while a strike was pending. One small operation at Gibsons Landing, operated by war veterans, was not affected by the strike as it had already accepted union terms.

The operators declare the strike "illegal."

WOMAN IS ACQUITTED

Winnipeg Judge Hopes That Troubles For Mrs. Margaret Knight Are Now Over

WINNIPEG, (P)—Mrs. Margaret Knight, 33, mother of five children, was acquitted by King's Bench court jury yesterday on a charge of murdering her husband, Henry Knight, 42. Knight was fatally stabbed in a scuffle with his wife after coming home drunk March 31.

Evidence showed that Mrs. Knight had suffered great brutality at the hands of her husband. The jury deliberated but 13 minutes.

The presiding judge, in releasing the woman, said she had suffered much and expressed the hope that her troubles were over.

Should Serve Peace River And Interior

Its Use Would Enliven All of Central British Columbia

PRINCE GEORGE — Development of the "Sunset Port" of Prince Rupert as an outlet for produce of basic industries within Central British Columbia and the Peace River Block was advocated here on Wednesday at a clinic of Boards of Trade and Junior Chambers of Commerce.

Delegates from Prince Rupert, Terrace, Burns Lake, Prince George, McBride and Blue River evolved discussion about membership and an over-all work program.

Alex G. Bowie, businessman of Prince George and Burns Lake, advocated Trade Boards and Jay-Cee's aims at developing Prince Rupert as an export centre.

"It is logical to believe," he said, "that, with the potential market in the Orient and the fine railway grades on Smithers division, we could develop Prince Rupert to where all our other needs, hydro power and population, would fall into line behind the progress we make."

In keeping with the theme of the conference that private enterprise must meet the challenge of its traducers, Mr. Bowie urged a more lively awareness to other than personal business problems.

He quoted Chevrier of Ottawa as saying there are but twenty million tons of shipping in the Peace River.

"Why," he exclaimed, "right now in the Peace River there is two hundred and forty-five million tons of shipping up there, according to figures compiled at Grand Prairie."

He submitted that, were this volume of traffic diverted through Prince Rupert, every community between Blue River and the Pacific port would sustain a life-giving injection of energy.

UNFORTUNATE STRIKE

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S most serious industrial tie-up in many years commenced today—the strike of 37,000 timber workers—unfortunate culmination of failure to compose the dispute between the International Woodworkers of America Union and the operators. Until the eleventh hour there had still been hope that the strike might have been averted but both sides remained obdurate on points which were actually technical and beside the major issue. There had seemingly been the willingness on either side to compromise but the concessions did not reach far enough so the strike is on.

It is bad enough to have the timber workers in their thousands idle in all parts of the province and there will be few parts of British Columbia where the strike will not be immediately felt. Allowed to continue it will not be long before other fields of industrial activity will be hard hit and probably paralyzed, notably the construction line at a time when it is most important that it should be maintained in the fullest activity possible.

Unfortunately, the workers themselves and people who are not directly involved in the dispute will be the ones to suffer the most and the longer it lasts the worse their plight will be. The operators stand to lose little except the inconvenience of the disruption and disorganization. They are, of course, in a much better position than the workers to tough out a long tie-up which, in due course, will come to an end through force of public opinion if nothing else—and everybody will probably be worse off in the end.

In the United States, the newspapers paid the highest hourly wage in 1945, nearly 42 cents above average, of any of the 70 durable goods industries, according to the U.S. Bureau of Statistics.

STRONG DEMOCRACY

MARSHAL STALIN and his Soviet Russia, which he rules with rod of iron, can be given credit for one thing—the ability to make decisions and stand unwaveringly behind them. The decisiveness of the Soviet in matters of foreign policy, and that decisiveness is to be felt in many parts of the world these days, is something that might be emulated by other of the big powers—notably Great Britain and the United States. It would tend to better understandings and more effective treatment of the world's problems if there were such decisiveness on our part.

Too many extraneous considerations are allowed to influence action in questions of universal moment in the world. We bicker at home on matters of deep and crucial moment that should be settled with the utmost expedition. In our temporizing we develop characteristics of vacillation, indecision and "diplomacy" to an absurd degree.

There comes a time when commonsense and strength of character must be exerted, public opinion notwithstanding, if there is conviction that ultimate results justify the course. The dalliance of the democracies is possibly one of their greatest weaknesses today. Nothing that is weak survives in the law of nature. We must make our democracy strong.

A lot of Misses haven't missed as much as you think they have.

THE PROBLEM OF PEACE

EVEN NOW, in the most enlightened and the most peace-loving nations of the world, it is sought to prevent future wars by providing sufficient collective armed strength to deter the vindictive, the ambitious, and the greedily aggressive from attempting what it is sought to make appear impossible, writes Frank Perrin in Christian Science Monitor. If no other method can be discovered or agreed upon, this may be commended. But, after all, it may prove, as similar methods have proved in the past, only a deterrent. Wars can never be banished until the cause of war has been discovered and removed. None of the good qualities which we of the great homogeneous family possess and seek to reflect have ever incited human warfare. With few, if any, exceptions, it will be found that human greed and human selfishness have always been the aggressors. The actuating cause of war is a desire either to possess something enjoyed by another, or to destroy it, that it may not be enjoyed by anyone.

In the thought of many wise and serious-minded men and women today, we stand at the crossroads of a world in which a great decision must be reached. It is agreed, it may be assumed, that another and more terrible war cannot be endured with hope of human survival. What is the alternative?

It avails little if anything, to call out peace, peace, when there is no peace. It does little good to preach the doctrine of the good-neighbor philosophy to those who have no comprehension of neighborliness. The message falls on deaf ears if those whom it is desired to awaken do not understand. And yet there are millions of honest and earnest men and women in the world today who would be glad to sacrifice all to carry the message. How can we, by understandable human methods and means, implement good as we seem to have so ingeniously and cunningly implemented the forces of destruction? It is the answer to this pertinent and pressing query that we must seek and find, and finding, go forward hopefully, and courageously into a battle that is not alone ours.

PREMIER STRIKE VOTE

Editor, Daily News:
Contradictory to the statement in a recent edition of the Vancouver Sun that 20 Premier employees voted for strike, we submit the following report:

On April 12 a mandate strike vote was taken by the employees of Silbak Premier Mines Ltd., Local 694, the result being 129 for and 37 against. The reason for the vote was to get behind the eight point program of the national wage policy of the entire mining industry of Canada.

The program being a basis for negotiations, the following is a brief of our eight point program:
Twenty-nine cents an hour over-all wage increase.
A forty hour week.
Overtime pay at the rate of time and one-half for other than eight hours.

Full pay for statutory holidays not worked, double time if worked.
Off shift differential rate for all work in second shift of five cents per hour, for all work on third shift of ten cents per hour, and for all work on the second shift of a two shift operation of seven and one-half cents per hour.

Vacations with pay.
Sick leave pay.
Severance pay.
Guaranteed annual work or wage equivalent, sufficient to maintain an adequate standard of living.

This is why members of Premier Local 694 say we must have a 29 cent an hour wage increase now:
Our members of parliament gave themselves a $2000 wage increase (tax free). No doubt they need it but so do the miners.

Mr. Sinclair was well pleased with the pictures he obtained and is confident they will be of considerable interest to the devotees of movie news reels. He also took pictures around Myder and along the Premier Mine tramline.

He flew in to Stewart about ten days ago.

But not a word from Mackenzie King about ordering a raise in wages for the workers to take care of the increased prices.

Wage increases, shorter hours, union security and price control are what every Canadian worker is fighting for from coast to coast. All the unions across Canada are united in this important fight.

We feel that the only way the prosperity of the Stewart district this summer would be interfered with is by the refusal of mine operators to negotiate an increased wage to its employees.

MRS. GILLIS IS DRIVE CHAIRMAN

The national used clothing drive to assist the distressed people of Europe will begin a week earlier in Prince Rupert than in other parts of Canada. Chairman of this year's campaign will be Mrs. J. J. Gillis, who was chosen at an organizing meeting in the city hall last night.

While the drive throughout the rest of Canada is scheduled to run from June 17 to June 29, in Prince Rupert it will begin on June 10 and end on June 24. Mrs. Gillis accepted the chairmanship of the committee on those terms, explaining that she was leaving the city on June 27 and could not take leadership of the drive if it terminated after her departure.

Assistance of all organizations and individuals in the city will be sought this year in a manner similar to the 1945 drive, which, under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. A. Tenz, far exceeded the quota for the city.

Mayor Daggert, who was chairman of last night's meeting, stressed to the small number of people present that the need for used clothing in Europe this year is very great. He urged that the citizens of Prince Rupert support the drive with contributions of used clothing and assistance in collecting and shipping the bundles.

News of Smithers

While working on the electric saw in the woodworking room of the Smithers School, the principal, R. J. Downey, suffered a severe injury to one eye. As it was necessary to have an eye specialist's care, Mr. Downey left yesterday morning for Vancouver.

Mrs. A. C. Stewart has opened for business in the store formerly occupied by Mrs. M. E. Dunlop. The store handles ladies ready-to-wear garments and also children's clothes. Mrs. Stewart was assisted in the opening by Mrs. R. Cheater and Mrs. P. Berg, and tea was served during the afternoon. The store has been completely redecorated in an attractive color scheme of cream and brown with fluorescent lighting. Mrs. Stewart is well known in Smithers and district, as she was in the restaurant business here for some 20 years, having come to this district from Kamsack, Sask.

Need For Base Here
Mr. Archibald's activities in regard to having the wartime Seal Cove seaplane base made available for civilian air traffic are inspired by representations on the part of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce and City Council which see the facility as a vital necessity to the peacetime future of the city.

Already the base has been used by a commercial firm, which has made occasional landings on sufferance of the Royal Canadian Air Force, which still operates the installation. Queen Charlotte Air Lines is operating a weekly air service to Vancouver via the Islands as an initial step toward a scheduled service to Prince Rupert.

Possibility also exists that an air connection between Prince Rupert and Ketchikan may materialize soon.

A prominent aviation expert, E. R. Carswell of the Standard Oil Co.'s aviation service, said in a recent memorandum:

"Prince Rupert, with the best seaplane base on the coast and on-shore facilities is in an excellent position to take advantage of the cascade of aviation advancement."

The Seal Cove seaplane base was built in the early days of the war at a cost of approximately $10,000,000, and during the war was operating centre of scores of seaplanes which patrolled the north coast. More than 1,000 R.C.A.F. personnel were stationed there during the height of its operation.

To Be Placed Before Council

Commenting on the proposal to take over the air base, Mayor Daggett said this morning that he could see no way in which action could be taken by the city until the cost of insurance premiums be ascertained. He felt that the insurance costs would probably be considerable.

"It all depends on the cost, of course," he said. "If satisfactory arrangements can be made to acquire a portion of the air base, I think we might be able to arrange that. I shall put it before the city council to consider the whole proposition with the suggestion that it be discussed with the Chamber of Commerce and business men of the city."

CONGESTION TO BE RELIEVED

SYDNEY, Australia. — Experts estimate that the great new subway railway track here will provide a rail service for the 500,000 Sydneysiders living in the eastern, southeastern and southern suburbs, who now are dependent on bus and tram transport.

They point out that it will do much to relieve the serious congestion of surface transport, particularly in areas near the city where the density of population is greater than that in central New York.

Construction of the system will begin the end of this year, and is expected to be complete in seven years. It will be undertaken by the railway department, a state government concern, which already has plans laid for the survey work and land resumption required.

One section of the new service will provide train travel to sports grounds, beaches and a racecourse, which will relieve surface transport during carnivals at those places.

WORK STARTS ON GOLD DROP MINE; M.L.A. PAYS VISIT TO CONSTITUENTS

STEWART—J. O. LeFrancois of Montreal arrived from the East last week to prosecute development work on the Gold Drop mine on the Marmot River Section. Results on this property, so far, have been very encouraging and, with the continuation of results obtained, it is anticipated that there will be development on a much larger scale.

The softball season began with a pick-up game between Premier and Stewart on Sunday. Stewart winning 12 to 8. The battery for Premier was Ditto, pitcher, and Teed, catcher, and for Stewart, Lawrence, pitcher, and Hector Stewart, catcher. The Stewart boys trailed for the first four innings with Premier in the lead with a 6 to 0 score. However, once the Stewart team connected, they went to town and the Hillbillies went back badly beaten. The final score 12 to 8 in favor of Stewart. Regular games are looked for during the season.

The finish of the badminton season was celebrated by the members demurely indulging a cup of tea and a few cakes and sandwiches. The season has been very successful and the exercise has had a decided tendency to ward off the bulging waistline.

The sponsors of the Queen Alexander Solarium Drive have had the satisfaction of adding to the amount collected. The total now stands at $125.

Miss Jean Munro arrived here after an absence of several years and has announced her intention of going into business shortly. Mrs. Petch of Vancouver accompanied Miss Munro and they have rented the Anglican Rectory on Ninth Street.

Robert Newell, of North Battleford, Saskatchewan, left Monday night for home. He had been here since January visiting his brothers, William, Village Commissioner and Tom, lessee of the Marmot Hotel.

William Duncan Smith, M.L.A. for the Atlin riding has been in town for the past week renewing old acquaintances and gathering data on the needs of the district. Mr. Smith is bending every effort to secure the much needed appropriations for roads and trails in the Atlin district and seems confident that his efforts will be rewarded with success. If his optimism is any criterion he should succeed. He will be leaving for Atlin and T elegraph in the next few weeks. As representative of the

SHORT SPORT

International women's basketball supremacy was retained by Percy Page's Edmonton Grads when they won their third straight game over Wichita Thurstons at Edmonton ten years ago today. Holders of the Underwood Challenge Trophy since 1923, Grads settled the issue with a 46-25 rout in the final game. Their championship record was unmarred when they disbanded after the start of the war.

Brooklyn Dodgers held Cincinnati Reds to a scoreless tie for 12 innings in a National League game 27 years ago before falling apart to give the Rhinelanders a 10-0 victory in the 13th on eight hits, two errors and a walk.

BASEBALL IS ORGANIZING

Not since the exciting night now almost lost to memory, when the old Pinochle, Poker and Social Club was raided by the rigid arm of the law, has Prince Rupert's city police court been so well attended as it was last night. Only last night it was a bit different. The boys, many of whom allegedly never saw a poker chip or heard the slap of a card, gathered happily and of their own free will.

Seated on the right side of the bar of justice, about 75 of them congregated to organize the Prince Rupert Baseball Association. The magistrate's court room was chosen because the council chamber, site of many a similar earnest meeting, had been previously spoken for.

The magisterial atmosphere was maintained, however, when the swat fans elected Police Magistrate Walter D. Vance as president of the organization. The full slate of officers elected was:

Honorary President, Mayor H. M. Daggett.
President, Walter D. Vance.
Vice-President, George Murray.
Secretary-Treasurer, Alex Armstrong.
Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Don Forward.

The executive committee will consist of the officers and managers of the teams which compose the association.

Still in a highly tentative state, arrangements call for at least three teams, with games and practices to be held on the Roosevelt Park field. Teams which have definitely found sponsors so far are Bayov, Moose and Watts & Nickerson. Team rosters or organizational set-ups have not yet been clarified.

Suggestions were received for the creation of a constitution, salient points of which are:

Each team shall have a maximum of 18 members, each of which must be registered with the association. No new players may be added to any team after the playing schedule has reached the half-way mark.

Games will be played at Roosevelt Park on Tuesday and Thursday nights and Sunday afternoons.

Protests against the umpire's decision in a game must be accompanied by a $5 deposit which must be paid to the executive as an indication of the good faith of the protest. If the protest is sustained, the deposit will be returned. If it is lost, the money will be retained for league purposes by the executive.

The league will be conducted on national baseball rules, with local ground rules set by association.

Unlike most organizations, Baseball Association came to the world with money in pocket. Civic Centre Director D. Forward informed the magisterial that he possessed $13 which belonged to the pre-war baseball association and which, after nurturing through the years, would put in the coffers of a post-war organization.

Henry Stewart of Stewart a passenger aboard the Cal yesterday going through to Vancouver to receive treatment Shaughnessy Military Hospital. He served with the Royal Canadian Engineers during the war.
