Settlement Of Woodworkers Strike Reached

Thirty-Six Day Walkout In Timber Industry Ends

Agreement Finally Made On Basis of Proposals of Chief Justice Sloan

VANCOUVER (CP)—Settlement of the woodworkers' strike was announced today after union leaders requested twenty-four hours postponement of the enforcement of orders to plants producing food containers to reopen. The 24-hour postponement was promptly granted by the controller. A union spokesman said the walk-out, now on for thirty-seven days, would end tomorrow, this being confirmed later.

Harold Pritchett of the International Woodworkers' Association emerged smiling from a meeting with Gordon Bell, box factory controller and said an important announcement might be made shortly. He immediately called the executive of the Union into session and the statement that the strike would end tomorrow following this meeting. It is announced that agreement on the basis of Chief Justice Sloan's proposals—15c per hour pay increase, 44-hour week and voluntary check-

TOURING CAMERA COUPLE TAKING LOCAL SHOTS FOR WESTERN MOVIE

HOLLYWOOD'S WM. DEMAREST VISITOR HERE

A veteran member of the Hollywood acting fraternity arrived in the city today in substantial form, and lacking the customary marquee notices that have advertised his earlier visits on the screen. He is William Demarest, Paramount character actor and feature player, who with his wife is a passenger on the steamer Prince Rupert. Mr. and Mrs. Demarest are making the round trip to Kelchikan on vacation; from the film capital. Mr. Demarest, 52, is well known for his blustery character roles in scores of pictures during his long Hollywood career.

It takes seven tons of raw materials to produce one ton of aluminum.

A world-travelling team of professional photographers who make their living displaying their scenic movies to American audiences, are casting broad hints at the local weatherman to give with the sunshine in order that Prince Rupert may have a sunny spot in their latest production.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredric Christian of Hollywood, and more lately of Jasper and Hazelton are including Prince Rupert in their 16 millimeter color film "Vacation in Western Canada," which is now about three-quarters finished.

They arrived in the city last night from Hazelton where, among scenic shots, they were fortunate enough to get pictures of an Indian totem raising at the village of Moricetown, a colorful ceremony which probably has never before been recorded on film.

"We were very fortunate to have learned that the natives were going to have a totem-raising," said Mrs. Christian, who with her husband, has been travelling the world with a movie camera for the last decade-and-a-half. "We followed the advice of a friendly native and pretended not to know that the ceremony was coming off. Finally they invited us to take pictures of it."

Prior to visiting Hazelton they were at Jasper at the same time Bing Crosby's movie-making group was at the vacation centre. However, they said, they were not a part of the Hollywood production group.

"We were busy shooting nature pictures while they are shooting romantic scenes," chuckled Mrs. Christian as her husband departed to climb on a boxcar near the C.N.R. wharf to get a shot of the steamer Prince Rupert making a landing.

This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Christian were taken on a tour of the city by the Prince Rupert Public Relations Council, given an opportunity to see the more spectacular views.

Mr. Christian expects to return to Jasper to get some more pictures of that country. Mrs. Christian may return to her home in Hollywood in the meantime.

"She's getting homesick," Mr. Christian remarked. They hope to have a chance to display their film in Prince Rupert later this year. They also plan to go to Hawaii to complete a film which they began on the Pacific Islands before the war.

ANOTHER ROUND IN COAL FIGHT—It looks as if they meant business here as Thomas J. Kennedy, secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers, peels off his jacket, and W. W. Inglis, president of the Glen Alden Coal Co., of Scranton, Pa., rolls up his sleeves. This was how union and operators resumed negotiations at the Waldorf Astoria in an effort to agree on a contract for the hard coal miners. Some 75,000 miners are on strike with the usual "No Contract, No Work" slogan. John L. Lewis, president of U.M.W., sat in on the negotiations later.

BOX FACTORIES RUNNING AGAIN

Operators and Seamen are Co-operating with Gordon Bell as Controller

VANCOUVER—Box factories in British Columbia commenced reopening today under a federal order-in-council by which they are taken over by the government with Gordon Bell of Vancouver as controller. Late yesterday afternoon Mr. Bell received confirmation of his appointment. The reopening of the box factories has been brought about chiefly for the purpose of making containers so that food may be saved. Four plants on the coast and 14 in the interior will resume work. It will be several days before all are running again.

Both operators and union are co-operating in connection with the reopening of the box factories. Wage scales are the same as prevailing when the I.W.A. strike interrupted the industry.

TIMBER STRIKE OVER

IT IS GOOD and welcome news that the paralyzing strike in British Columbia's timber industry is over. It lasted more than a month and that was a month too long. It was a ridiculous tie-up which did damage that it will take a long time for the industry and the postwar reconversion economy of the province to recover from.

There is no point in discussing who won or who lost in the dispute or the comparable measure of win or loss. In fact, like the most of strikes, it is questionable if anyone actually won. There was obviously a compromise—a compromise which could just as easily have been reached if both sides had been reasonable and tractable without letting the industry get tied up and the business of the country disrupted.

Meantime, as we have said, there is general gratification that the strike is over and the hope should be that it will be but the forerunner of composure of other industrial disputes which have already been precipitated upon or are threatening industries of the country.

POLITICAL SITUATION

AS LONG AS JOHN HART stays as Premier of British Columbia and leader of the Liberal party in this province there will be little danger of the coalition breaking up. However, it is difficult to foresee what might happen politically in British Columbia should Mr. Hart retire to the Senate as has been suggested.

The new Conservative leader, Herbert Anscomb, has said that he does not favor coalition although he is, no doubt, satisfied with the present government, in which he is first lieutenant to Mr. Hart. He admits that the people desire a continuation of coalition.

There might very well be some sort of a new line-up in provincial politics if Mr. Hart should retire. Even if Mr. Hart should quit, undoubtedly some other good leader would be found upon whom there could be agreement to head a stable, impartial and businesslike government.

LUCKY CANADA

FORTUNATE ARE WE in Canada that we have not been, so far at least, caught in the whirl of inflation which seems to be gaining momentum in the United States and, which if they are not careful over there, may reach or exceed World No. 1 proportions. For the time being, we would say, Canada should be very careful in any further releasing of controls. Fortunately, the present federal government is not one that is prone to unduly listen to irresponsible public clamor.

Let us not be fooled by assumptions that rising production and competition will keep an effective thumb in the inflation dike. While so many strategic raw materials are still in short supply, no amount of increased prices can promote sufficient increased production. Nor will competition count against the present powerful combination of accumulated consumer demand and savings.

GOD SAVE THE KING

WHERE EUROPEAN monarchies have meant tyranny, despotism, oppression, they have disappeared. In Scandinavian countries, Great Britain, and the Netherlands, where popular government holds the reins, royalty remains only as a respected and beloved symbol of authority.

And in those countries there is reason to suppose that it will long be a case of "God Save the King (or Queen)" as the case may be.

HEALTH IN THE OPEN

HEALTH AUTHORITIES urge the importance of getting out of doors early after supper in the summer. "Do anything you like—even if it's only exercising the dog around the block," says an authority. "Do some gardening, walk, play tennis, or anything which will keep you in the fresh air when the weather is fine." For those who are house-bound, sitting by an open window in summer, or on the porch, is also recommended.

RATIONING IN NEW ZEALAND

Plan to Lift Restrictions On Gasoline Supply

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (P)—One of New Zealand's remaining wartime rations is likely to be lifted at the end of June, when the restrictions on gasoline are expected to be raised. Private motorists at present receive only four gallons a month for small cars, and eight gallons for American type cars. Motorists who use their cars for business receive additional allowances. Gas prices are still very high—40 cents to the gallon.

The tire situation is much more serious than gasoline. Private motorists have not been able to buy new tires for five years and only those whose cars are essential for business have been able to get retreads. There is no early prospect of the supply improving.

The other wartime rations remaining in New Zealand are on food and clothing. Meat, butter, sugar and tea are rationed, but in every case the ration is ample for normal needs. The only item of clothing where rationing causes any hardship is silk stockings. No real silk or nylon stockings have been available since early in the war and the supply of artificial silk stockings of good quality is very small.

Many other goods, although not rationed, are still in very short supply. It is necessary to stand in long queues to buy cigarettes or tobacco, and whisky and other spirits are only available in very small quantities to favored customers.

Typical of the ingenuity of newspapermen, all four of the Wales daily newspapers, after they had been bombed out, contrived to publish all four editions on equipment built to handle only one.

DEFEAT GARDENS IN SHADOW OF REICHSTAG RUINS—Plowed up by British engines and turned over to Berliners to raise vegetables, this area in front of the Reichstag in Berlin is shared by many families who hope to raise enough food to fend off starvation. One of the problems after potato planting is to keep thieves from stealing the seed potatoes out of the ground.

JOE LOUIS IS FAVORED TO WIN BY FOURTH ROUND IN TONIGHT'S FIGHT

NEW YORK (CP)—Joe Louis and Billy Conn said today that they were in fine condition for the heavyweight battle tonight and were confident of the outcome. Louis said: "I am sure I'll knock him out. He got away from me in the second and fifth rounds of our last fight but he won't get away this time."

Conn said: "All I have to do is fight Joe. I'll either win or get killed trying."

Most experts pick Louis to win by the fourth round as he appears about as trim and fast as ever.

Louis weighed in at 207 pounds today, 7½ pounds more than when he last met Conn in 1941. Conn weighed 182 pounds—eight pounds more.

In the event of rain tonight Promoter Mike Jacobs will not refund the $2,000,000 said to be in his till but will shove the bout off to Thursday night. Predictions were for clear weather tonight.

(The fight will be broadcast at 6 p.m. Prince Rupert time).

SHORT SPORT

Philadelphia's Billy Conn, far ahead of Joe Louis on points, made the mistake of trying to slug it out with the Brown Bomber in the 13th round and wound up on the canvas five years ago tonight. Billy will have another shot at Joe's heavy-weight crown tonight.

KISPIOX SPORTS VETERAN RETIRES

KISPIOX (Special) — After three decades of more or less violent athletics, Walter Skulsh, prominent native Kispiox sportsman, has decided that 50 is retirement age. Mr. Skulsh will now take his sport from the bleachers and, in addition to other business, dispense guidance to young athletes.

On announcing that he has hung up his baseball glove, hockey stick and track shoes for good, Mr. Skulsh drew on his vast experience and deep love of sports to say: "I have always enjoyed games but I wish to tell young athletes of today that to play a game well is not always an easy matter. It requires preparation and good living. It isn't all fun."

Undoubtedly Mr. Skulsh should know. He started his athletic career in April, 1914, on Easter Monday, and the years between have seen him put on some outstanding performances in baseball, hockey and track. He has played at Kispiox, Hazelton, Smithers, Prince Rupert and Telkwa.

"Young players," said he, should remember that they owe something to the spectators too. The people who are watching the game expect to get some fun out of it. Therefore, the players should always do their best."

PREMIER WINS OVER STEWART

Shellacked Stewart 19 to 12 in Softball

STEWART Premier shellacked the Stewart softball team to the tune of 19 to 12 in a game Sunday. The Hillbillies were a little too much for the flatts. From the manner in which they kicked the ball around two of the Stewart boys should make good soccer players and a basket would be a decided asset.

Stewart started out with a 5 to 2 score in the opener, got 2 to 1 in the second, 3 to 0 in the third, and then the Premier boys came back strong with a 4 to 0 count in the fourth, then 3 to 2 in the fifth, Stewart making a feeble attempt at a comeback in the sixth. The Hillbillies really went to town for a score of 6 to 0 and in the last inning shut out Stewart again for 3 to 0. Final score was 19 to 12 in favor of Premier.

JOE SCOTT WINS LIGHT - LINE TUG-OF-WAR WITH 40-POUND SALMON

(By JACK McLEOD)

Well, there was Ajax and there was Hercules, and they wrought mighty deeds in their day but who among them captured a 40-pound spring salmon with light gear? Therefore, let us jump to a more recent generation among whom there is one who can boast of such accomplishment.

Namely, Joe Scott. It happened in Blind Channel, near the mouth of Gardner Canal. It is the chronicle of a wily mind in contest with the brute force of 40 pounds of fin and muscle. The wily mind conquered as Mr. Scott hopes soon to be able to prove with the aid of photographs.

These photographs will be developed in a day or two, at about the same time, one gathers, that Joe has recovered from the exertion of landing the marine monster and from the subsequent effort of telling the story with gestures.

They will, it is understood, show Mr. Scott standing proudly beside his defeated adversary. And it is only the most malleous mind that would think of comparing Joe's weight with that of the fish.

The contest was fought and won, Mr. Scott points out, with a light rod, with a 20-pound test nylon leader and a 21-pound test line from a light gas boat belonging to the cruiser Caribee. It climaxed what was for Joe almost a solid week of fishing, which included successful forays to Lake Lakelse and Wark Canal.

Smithers' 10. Smithers had 10 errors to Hazelton's 3.

The game was well attended by an enthusiastic crowd of Smithers fans with a truckload of fans coming from Hazelton.

The juniors on both teams are still a bit ragged but are improving with each game played.

Line-ups were: Hazelton—Reynolds cf., Kusik fb., Brown rf., p., Devlin p., rf., Wilson c., Lancaster and Martin lf., Moore and Whale sb., R. Martin 3b.

with the exception of the monsters, weighed from 10 to 15 pounds each.
This does not include the pounder which broke away. Bob Douglas' trolling line pulled it alongside the boat.

Clean Living Deciding Factor
From reports of Joe's duel the 40-pounder, the two pretty evenly matched, however, revealed that clean living had given Joe stamina that the fish could match. It eventually succumbed after an hour and 35 minutes unbroken effort.

Joe's rendition of the dr given gratuitously and especially in his Third Avenue fishing goods and hardware store indicates that when the sounded, as it did several times apparently got a good grip from the boat end of the could bring it up. The light during these periods of dead is reliably reported to be twanged high-C.

Needless to say, Joe is to make the acquaintance of kin-folk of his prize catch wish," he commented with Tuesday afternoon, "that I back in Devastation Camp now. I want to meet that of fish again."

Canada Can Ship More Meat to the Hungry If We Eat Only What We Need --- Turn In Coupons

Even under rationing Canadians are eating more meat than before the war. Less meat eaten by Canadians would mean more for children like these. Two are shown making a personal gift of meat by donating some of their own meat ration coupons. Valid meat ration coupons or tokens which the public turn in to Local Ration Boards or give to authorized custodians go to purchase extra meat for shipment abroad.

As long as valid coupons remain in the hands of consumers, meat has to be retained in Canada to honour them. When coupons are donated, an equivalent amount of meat is freed and added to overseas shipments. Careful cooking, smaller servings, the elimination of all waste will enable Canadians to contribute more valid meat coupons toward feeding the hungry people who face famine in Europe and the Far East.
