OMAN DIES AFTER FALL ET FROM STAFF HOUSE PL

Mrs. R. H. Adcock died in the Prince Rup Hospital this morning following an accid ich she fell 35 feet to the ground from an ou e ir landing at Number One Wartime staff house. s. Adcock slipped on the icy stair landing and ched over the guard rail while shaking out a rug during her morning's work there.

The accident occurred at 9:40 this morning Mrs. Adcock passed away some time later before doctors at the hospital could ascertain the extent of her injuries. She was reported to have struck the ground with the upper part of her body after the fall.

She was taken to hospital immediately, and died about 15 minutes later.

Mrs. Adcock was the wife of Richard H. Adcock, well known shipyard plater. She is survived also by two daughters, Mary and Joan.

According to Alex Muheim, staff house supervisor, Mrs. Adcock had been going about work of tidying the rooms on the second floor of the staff house when she stepped onto the outside landing to shake the dust from a rug. Apparently losing her footing on the glaze of ice which covered the platform, she pitched over the guard rail to the ground.

She was seen lying on the ground at the east end of the staff house by a small boy named McIntosh who notified Alex Muheim, supervisor of Number One staff house. Mr. Muheim called Dr. L. W. Kergin and the city ambulance.

"I don't think she had been lying on the ground for more than two or three minutes when I got to her," Mr. Muheim said.

Dr. Kergin arrived a few minutes later and then the ambulance.

Mrs. Adcock was taken to hospital where she passed away about 15 minutes later.

Mrs. Adcock had lived in the city for a number of years. She was employed at the staff house as a chambermaid since last June.

An inquest will be held.

Chinese Civil War Ends Today As Halt Called To All Hostilities

Joint Truce Order Made At Capital

CHUNGKING (CP)—The China civil war has ended. A formal, joint announcement from the Nationalist government in Chungking and the Communist regime in Yennan has directed the end of all hostilities. The order was issued in Chungking today at the conclusion of a further meeting between Nationalist representative — General Chang Chun — Communist delegate — General Chou En-Lai—and the American ambassador, General George C. Marshall.

All field commanders have been ordered to cease movements of their forces with the exception of government troops in Manchuria who will be permitted to carry on their occupation operations.

Loan Report— New System For Forests

VICTORIA (CP)—A new system for control of British Columbia's forest resources—a commission with jurisdiction "over all aspects of forestry as well as direct provincial forest industry revenue"—was recommended in the report of a special commission of Mr. Justice Gordon Sloan which was released today.

A commission designed to provide long-range planning to make possible a change from the present system of forest liquidation and depletion to one of sustained yield management" would supercede the present Forest Branch as a provincial authority on forest affairs. It would also control marketing.

The report calls for greatly increased forest protection, a faculty of forestry at the University and sawmill licencing.

SERVICEMEN ARE POPULAR

Best Ambassadors of Goodwill Canada Has, Declares General Keefler

OTTAWA—The former commander of the Canadian Third Division, Major-General R. H. Keefler, says the finest ambassadors Canada ever had are her servicemen and servicewomen. Gen. Keefler says Canadian service personnel made friends everywhere they went, adding that the Dominion's industrial prestige has been greatly enhanced by the country's war effort and by the favorable impression created overseas by the servicemen.

Weather Forecast

Prince Rupert—Strong northwest winds, decreasing to fresh tonight and Friday. Partly cloudy and cool, generally fair tonight.

LOCAL COMPANY STARTS INITIAL SOUTH CONTRACTS

Preliminary work by Northwest Construction Co. Ltd. on contracts at Ocean Falls will begin next week, James Hutchison, company president, said today. The Prince Rupert company was recently awarded contracts of about $100,000 for construction of a dormitory, theatre and laundry building at the paper company town.

George Martin, in charge of the company's projects at Ocean Falls, will leave the city on Monday with 12 men to begin preliminary work on the construction of the dormitories and later in the month the balance of the 60 men who will be employed will leave the city.

Work on the girls' dormitory will be started first, Mr. Hutchison said.

In addition to the contracts already let to Northwest Construction, Pacific Mills is seeking tenders for construction of several duplex residences and repair work on docks, it is understood.

Mr. Hutchison said that he also has contracts, or opportunities for contracts here in Prince Rupert.

"We are definitely a Prince Rupert firm and intend to remain so," he declared.

He added that, owing to inability to obtain sufficient shop space in the city, he is considering sub-letting a contract for sash-and-door work connected with the Ocean Falls construction.

GREECE TENSE POLITICALLY

Liberal Party Forms Coalition With Right Wing Populists

ATHENS—The political situation in Greece is tense today. The Liberal party, apparently working without the knowledge of its leader, Premier Themistokles Sophoulis, has formed a coalition with the right-wing populists. Sophoulis is said to have been surprised and deeply concerned when learning of the move. He stated that the coalition may mean the end of the present Greek government.

EISENHOWER IN ADDRESS

Urges International Co-operation—Pays Tribute to Canadians—Receives Geographic Honor

OTTAWA (CP)—General Dwight P. Eisenhower, under whom the western Allies combined their might to defeat Germany, appealed today for the same kind of unselfish co-operation to maintain peace and save the world from chaos. Such co-operation was necessary, Gen. Eisenhower said, to assure success of the United Nations organization, which success could only be achieved if every nation realized its very survival may be at stake.

Gen. Eisenhower, speaking in a radio address broadcast to Canada and the United States, paid tribute to Canadian fighting men. The United States chief of army staff said that no man who had Canadians under his command could help but feel deep humility and lasting pride when thinking of them.

Mihailovich is the YugoSlav leader who fought Marshal Tito during the German occupation. Mihailovich was last reported commanding a force protecting the withdrawal of German forces from YugoSlavia. However, the American Army newspaper, Stars and Stripes, says the General is in the hills collecting a force to attempt to overthrow the Tito regime.

MAY BE MORE GIN

VICTORIA—Liquor Commissioner Kennedy said yesterday he hoped to lift restrictions on sale of gin "in a few weeks" but declined to give a definite date. TANKER IS OFF SOUTH

Believed Permanent Repairs Will be Carried Out at Seattle

Refloated Tuesday night after receiving temporary repairs to her damaged hull at the Prince Rupert Dry Dock, the 3,980-ton Texas Oil Co's tanker Illinois sailed this morning for Seattle where, it is understood, permanent repairs to the vessel will be completed.

The Illinois arrived here on December 1 under tow of the the U.S. Army tug Discoverer after she had torn her bottom on Morris Reef in Chatham Sound several days earlier. Since that time she has been on the pontoons at the dry dock here.

The 38 crewmen of the damaged vessel had the hazardous experience of being surrounded by a sea of high octane gasoline which escaped from her torn tanks as she was battered on the reef by rough seas. More than 10,000 barrels of high octane aviation fuel either escaped or was pumped from her tanks to lighten her for salvage.

The Illinois was carrying the gasoline to Skagway for the U.S. Army air field at Whitehorse.

The ill luck which resulted in the Illinois being damaged continued to dog her even after she was in dry dock here. After preliminary work had begun, dry dock workmen were taken away from the job because of a reimposition of a pre-war United States tariff law which would have charged an additional 50 per cent tariff to the cost of repairs done to American ships in Canadian shipyards.

Fate of the tanker remained uncertain thereafter until unofficial word was received here that she was to be scrapped. However, it was decided to repair the ship temporarily instead and the work was carried out here in the last two weeks.

JERUSALEM—Arab leaders in Palestine, both Christian and Moslem, have rejected a British proposal that Jewish immigration be continued at a set rate during the next four months. Meantime, three Winnipeg packinghouse locals and one in Vancouver have called strike votes for next week. A third Vancouver local has reached no decision as yet.

The flare-up in trouble between the union and the big packinghouse companies revolves around a disagreement over interpretation of an agreement signed by union and company late last year.

LARGER GRANT FOR RUP-REC RECOMMENDED

A "substantial increase" in the provincial government's contribution to the Prince Rupert Recreational Council has been recommenced by Provincial Pro-Rec Director Jerry Mathisen, according to George McGregor, Rup-Rec director, who returned to the city on the Prince Rupert Wednesday after spending the holidays in Vancouver.

Mr. McGregor admitted that he could not say just how large the increase would be but he felt that it would be a substantial one in the light of the assurances Mr. Mathisen had given him. The present contribution by the government is $50 a month.

The Rup-Rec director said that Prince Rupert is being used as a model for the establishment of recreational centres in other towns in the province and the work of the local council has been highly recommended by recreational and educational leaders in B.C.

"The work of the Rec council in Prince Rupert has put the city in the spotlight. It is being watched closely by other towns which are developing recreational activities," Mr. McGregor said. "The Rec council here is unique in that it is purely a citizens' program and is recognized as such."

Mr. McGregor's enthusiasm for his work when he spoke of it to a reporter was really something to behold. He plans a greatly broadened program for the coming year.

Part of his mission in the south was to interview Dr. Gordon Shrum, head of the extension department of the University of British Columbia, to obtain literature and material for a broad program of cultural activities which will work in with the athletic side of the program.

"I found Dr. Shrum very co-operative," he said, and listed music, drama, adult education, the material on handicrafts, and films which he received.

"I brought back a whole suitcase full," he grinned, "and there is more to come."

CENTRE PRICE TO BE NEGOTIATED

Board of Arbitration to be Appointed on Civic Centre Property—Y.M.C.A. Stays on Until February 28

Mayor H. M. Daggett was advised yesterday that a board of arbitration is to be appointed to settle a purchase price in connection with the taking over of the Y.M.C.A. War Services building on Second Ave. and McBride St. which is to become the long-projected civic centre. It is supposed that the board will consist of one member each representing the government and the community and a chairman to be named by them.

Meanwhile the local recreational council received notification yesterday that the building will continue to be operated as a war service centre until February 28 instead of only until the end of January. A move has been under way to arrange for the local recreational and civic centre organization to take over the building temporarily pending the closing down by the Y.M.C.A. and the final negotiation of the transfer to the community.

Information that the Department of National Defence would continue operating the Y.M.C.A. War Services centre here until the end of February and, after that time disposition of the building would be subject to the decision of a board of arbitration, came to Mayor H. M. Daggett from George Pifher, secretary and liaison officer of the Department of National War Services in reply to a telegram sent by City Council endorsing the desire of the Civic Centre Association to take over the building temporarily for community use pending its permanent disposal.

"I understand the Y.M.C.A. is withdrawing its services on February 28 in favor of the Civic Centre Association," Mr. Pifher's telegram stated. "In the meantime the joint arrangement effected November 13 will operate. Ultimate disposal of the building and equipment will be subject to a board of arbitration which is now being created by the Department of National Defence."

The "joint agreement" mentioned in the telegram refers to the agreement now in effect under which 'teen age youths in the city are allowed limited use of the "Y" facilities.

The Late Norman Watt

The civil service of this country stands on a high plane today as far as the quality and integrity of its personnel is concerned. If there was ever an individual member of the civil service of British Columbia who could be held up as a shining example of its all-round worthiness we can say that the late Norman A. Watt was such a man.

Mr. Watt was introduced to the civil service of this province as a result of his early day associations in the Yukon with Former Prime Minister T. D. Pattullo who realized his qualities. For a few years he was Mr. Pattullo's private secretary and from that position was appointed to the government agentship at Prince Rupert. It was not long before any idea that Mr. Watt might carry into his official duties here any political sympathies was dispelled. To the contrary he soon became known as a fearless, tactful and meticulously fair official who treated all those with whom he came in contact in official business justly and alike. He feared and favored none and was always exactingly careful that every person with whom he came in contact should be served justly and equitably. He was as careful about the government's business as he would be his own and won the approbation of all with whom he came in contact for his efficiency and square dealing.

In Norman Watt's passing, Prince Rupert loses a fine citizen and the government an outstandingly able official. Here in the Daily News office we had done business with him in one way or another for many years and we can sincerely share with the public and the many personal friends of deceased the feelings of regret at his sudden passing and the sympathy which will be widely extended to those who are left to mourn.

Hirohito Steps Down

The spectacular aspects of Hirohito's descent from a mystical and mythical elevation have caught the world's attention. His renunciation of the legend of the Emperor's divinity writes itself in blazing rays in one of the most astonishing pages of history.

But when we have stopped blinking we may turn our thoughts to that event's less dazzling aspects. One of these is the question whether Hirohito's move is not a quietly and shrewdly calculated manoeuvre amounting not so much to a renunciation as a reclamation project. The object of such a move could be to save as much of the power of the Japanese throne as is now salvageable.

Hirohito has provided a smashing first act for a great political drama. But if the drama is to have substance, the following acts will have to disclose as deep reforms in Japanese political thinking as are now forecast in popular religious thinking. Such reforms must certainly result from basic changes in spiritual concepts. But how swiftly they come will depend in part on how much aid or hindrance they receive from those classes of Japanese who have in the past benefited from what the Emperor now admits was a "false concept."

If the Emperor is no longer a god, is he still the repository of sovereignty of the Japanese nation? Or do the people become sovereign? And through what methods and when? The Japanese Emperor has attracted world attention not only to his more or less graceful descent from cerulean realms but by the political potentialities that his move opens up. From here on we shall be watching for these.

BUILD UP FISHERIES

A program designed to conserve and build up the salmon resources of this coast and at the same time assist in the rehabilitation of a large number of returned veterans has been sent by the Canadian Legion of Port Alberni to the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce with a view to obtaining its endorsation. The matter came before the Chamber at its meeting Monday night and was passed on to the fisheries committee.

The program would provide for the establishment of schools wherein war veterans would be taught practical and scientific fish husbandry, a scientific survey of all potential salmon bearing streams in the province, establishment of salmon hatcheries in necessary areas, establishment of propagation areas for sporting fish, destruction of non-commercial predatory fish in commercial areas, removal of predatory game fish to areas where they will not conflict with propagation of commercial fish, planting of forests adjacent to salmon streams, installation of structures in streams to facilitate the migration of fish and installation of fish ladders to assist parent salmon to reach the spawning grounds.

The Port Alberni resolution further asks that, if the federal Department of Fisheries cannot see fit to inaugurate such a program, it turn over the control of salmon fisheries in British Columbia to the provincial Department of Fisheries.

Plenty of bad weather and an unusual scarcity of winged game marked a week-end hunting trip of Elmer Clausen, Jack Lindsay, Amerigo Dominato, Roy Nichols and Joe Scott to Kwinimass aboard the good Clausen ship Rap I. When a party of such doughty huntsmen hie forth to such a usually prolific game resort as this and bags only one skinny honker which is not good enough to keep it is to be conceded that there is really something wrong with the bird population. Running into the big gale which swept Chatham Sound and Dixon's Entrance Sunday night, the Rap I put into Port Simpson and remained there for a little over 24 hours, returning home early Tuesday morning.

KEEP ON SAVING — During the last few years we've learned a lot about saving . . . saving sugar, saving butter, saving and stretching meat and all the other foods that are either rationed or scarce.

All this, and many other war-acquired food skills, have led to considerable money saving too and here's a thought for the new year: continue to save money on food bills to help feed Europe's peoples to whom our somewhat restricted diet looks like a feast.

To help along this saving campaign the following are suggested ways to make a little food go a long way:

First of all, saving by not buying too much—that is, too much of certain foods which are perishable. These include lettuce, celery and other salad makings which will wilt if you haven't proper storage space, and root vegetables and fruits which will shrivel for the same reason.

Then there's the saving of flavor in spices. Yes, pure natural spices have been hard to get but any spice, whether pure or synthetic, will lose its flavor if exposed to the air too long. Be sure always to close the opening of your spice tin and if you have the shaker type of container, keep a little round of waxed paper over the shaker opening.

PRECIOUS APPLES — Having mentioned the question of fruits, let's go back and see what we can do about those precious apples. There are many ways of stretching the apple flavor in salads and desserts. This may be done by reducing the usual amount of apple in a cabbage and apple salad, in gelatine desserts, in Apple Betty, in Dutch Apple Cake . . . in fact in any recipe using apples.

Dutch Apple Cake requires two cups of flour, three teaspoons of baking powder, one egg, one large or two medium apples, ½ teaspoon of salt, ¼ cup of butter, 2/3 cup of milk, two tablespoons of sugar, ¼ teaspoon of cinnamon.

Mix and sift the dry ingredients except the sugar and cinnamon. Cut or rub in the butter, add the milk and beaten egg gradually. Spread ½ inch thick on a shallow buttered pan. Pare, cut the apples in sections lengthwise, and set in dough; sprinkle the top with sugar and cinnamon, bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees fahrenheit, 25 to 30 minutes. Serve with cream.

If you peeled your apples, save the parings and cores, cook them in about two cups of water until they are well broken down, strain through a sieve or damp cheese cloth, and use the liquid lemon, sugar, a pinch of salt and thicken to a desired consistency.

MOOSE PLANNING ENTERTAINMENT

Announcement of plans for a joint entertainment for the Moose Lodge and the Women of the Moose was made by the entertainment committee at the regular meeting of the Loyal Order of Moose held in the I.C.D.E. Hall Tuesday night. The entertainment, to take the form of a dance and social is scheduled to be held on January 22. There was a good attendance of members at the meeting, Governor D. G. Wood was chairman. The meeting also heard plans to hold an entertainment period at the conclusion of each business meeting. The idea was warmly received by the members. A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Fred Grimble for the work she has done for the Children's Christmas tree concerts put on annually for children of members of the Moose Lodge and Women of the Moose.

Germans Orphan Polish Children

NEW YORK, (AP)—More than a million and a half Polish children were orphaned during the German occupation of Poland, according to the Polish Press Agency. The tuberculosis rate among Polish children, the agency said, is more than 80 per cent, or more than double the pre-war rate of 35-40 per cent. In almost totally destroyed Warsaw, there are 70,000 children among the present population of 450,978, living among the ruins, and lacking medical and nursery care. The average weight of Warsaw's babies today is 30 per cent below normal. During the occupation all milk, butter and fruit were prohibited to Polish children and, in an effort to destroy Polish culture, the Germans closed all Polish schools, museums, libraries and cultural institutes and killed more than 40 per cent of the primary school teachers.

Women Are Going Real Feminine This Year

By DOROTHY ROE

NEW YORK, (AP) — Women are going feminine with a bang after the severe silhouette of the war years. Real hoop skirts are in the fashion lineup for spring, 1946, along with padded hips, sloping shoulders, accentuated bustlings and corsets worn in bathing suits.

After every war there is a change in the fashionable silhouette. The changes in store as the aftermath of World War II are predicted by leading American designers as follows:

Omar Kiam—Women are relaxing mentally after the tense war years. It will be a dressy year—Clothes will be designed to sit and look pretty in.

Adele Simpson—An era of vanity is beginning—the fashion accent will be on bosoms, in drapery and revealing cut.

Nettie Rosenstein—Accentuate the bosom, minimize the waistline.

Samuel Kass—Very full skirts and exaggerated fullness throughout.

Valentina — We are entering the most honest period of fashion since Greek times. A women's clothes will tell the truth about her figure with the result if it is too bad she will do something about it.

Sophie—Soft, fragile draperies—laces and chiffons.

Fira Benenson—Women who love sweets will get a break this year. The hips and torso can look round, but the waist must look tinier than ever.

Lily Dache—Heads will look romantic and in the clouds in pretty colored, high-riding hats. All will be off-the-face and jutting forward.

Emily Wilkens—The debutante of 1946 will look like her great-grandmother with a bustle and a handspan waistline.

Jo Copeland—With men back to stay, women have begun to turn on the charm.

Adrian—Don't look like a belted barrel in your suit!

DAILY DOUBLE IS RULED OUT

Will be Prohibited at New York Race Tracks Henceforth

LONDON, (CP) — A New York newspaper, the Daily Mirror, states that daily double wagering will be outlawed henceforth at New York race tracks. The paper says an announcement to this effect is expected from the New York State Racing Commission shortly.

The Mirror claims that the racing associations have been cool toward the daily double betting because they find it keeps patrons from betting on the first two races as separate entities. Then too, extra bookkeeping trouble is said to be caused in the pari-mutuel department.

Hamilton Honors Football Players

HAMILTON, (CP)—The Ontario Rugby Football Union junior champs, the Mahony Bears, received special tribute in Hamilton last night at a banquet for Hamilton's senior Wildcats and the four teams in a junior city league sponsored by the Wildcats. Ontario's new health minister, R. T. Kelley, presented the McCready trophy during the evening to Dave Rozumick, ranked as Mahony's most valuable player.

BOB FELLER IS SIGNED AGAIN

CLEVELAND — Moundsman Bob Feller says he signed the best contract of his Major League pitching career for hurling duty this year with Cleveland Indians. The terms of the contract, which contains no bonus stipulation, have not been disclosed.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

January 10, 1921

The Prince Rupert Board of Trade received a communication from A. Sherman, president of the U.S. Aerial Transportation Club, Seattle, saying that the company planned a year-round air service from Seattle to Fairbanks and Nome and asked for a report on the landing field situation at Prince Rupert.

In the midst of a hot civic election campaign, Prince Rupert citizens attended meetings sponsored by the mayoralty, aldermanic, school board and police commission candiates. G. W. Nickerson and H. B. Rochester are competing for mayor.

R. H. Holmes, principal in a shooting case at Thurston Harbor, was brought to Prince Rupert on the steamship Prince John from Queen Charlotte Islands to await trial on a charge of manslaughter. He had previously been committeed for trial at Queen Charlotte City.

The two men who are variously recognized as world lightweight champions may meet on March 22 in a bout to settle just who is king. National Boxing Association champ Ike Williams of Trenton, New Jersey, signed for the fight Tuesday night with Promoter Mike Jacobs. The new York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey champion, Bob Montgomery, of Pennsylvania, has not yet signed. The title has been in contention since Champion Sammy Angott decided to retire in the winter of 1943-44. By the time he got around to changing his mind the New York State Athletic Commission had named Beau Jack the champ, and Montgomery subsequently took the title from Jack. At the same time, the National Boxing Association had named Juan Zurita the king after Zurita defeated Angott. Williams later won this title from Zurita. Thus a match between Montgomery and Williams will untangle the dual recognition, it says here.

Walter "The Turk" Broda is through. The goalie for the National Hockey League Toronto Maple Leafs for five years before entering the army says he 's finished with the game. Broda is at present awaiting repatriation from England to Canada. Apparently Broda's decision results from an incident which took place recently in Amsterdam. The Brandon, Manitoba, netminder was hit in the face on that occasion with a puck fired from three feet out in a practice with a Canadian forces in the Netherlands all-star team. The result—he lost six teeth. It burns him up, too. "Can you imagine," he says, "getting it from some joker after catching the best from the best of them?"

The doctors have pretty bitter news for Defenceman Eddie Brown of the St. Louis club in the American Hockey League. Brown spent five years in the Royal Canadian Air Force and came out unscratched. Then in a game in New Haven, Connecticut, last Sunday night, he suffered an injury. Now the medicos say Brown will lose the sight of his right eye.

Sideliners attending the twentieth annual Los Angeles open golf tournament Monday glanced at the final score card and yawned. The winner? Just who they knew would win it all the time—Byron Nelson, the old shotmaker himself. Yes, Lord Byron did it again. This time winning by five strokers. He shot an unspectacular 72 on the final round for a total of 284. In second slot was little Ben Hogan, with 289, and tied for next money spots were Jim Demarest, Chandler Harper and Jim Ferrier, all with 290. There was one interesting angle to the match, however. It was the first time that Nelson had won the Los Angeles open. It was also his first major victory in 1946. And if one must consider that evil stuff, money, it must be noted for the records that the victory netted the Toledean $2,666.67 in Victory Bonds. You got us — what the sixty-seven cents was for.

Hockey Getting No Reinstatement

LOS ANGELES—The California Horse Racing Board has denied Jackie Westrope's petition for reinstatement. Westrope was barred from riding on tracks in California, or any other state, on charges that he deliberately fouled another horse at Del Mar last August.

CONTRACT FOR CARL HUBBELL

NEW YORK— Another sports veteran, Carl Hubbell, hurler for the New York Giants for 16 seasons, is in the headlines. Hubbell, who has served as director of the club's farm system for the last two years, yesterday signed a new five-year contract as farm director. Carl apparently considers the job a permanent one and will move from Oklahoma City to New York with his family.

EARL SIEBERT TO BE MANAGER

INDIANAPOLIS—Veteran National Hockey League star Earl Siebert is taking on a new job. General Manager Dick Miller of the American League Indianapolis Capitals has announced that Siebert will leave Detroit Red Wings to become playing coach of the Caps. Johnny Sorrel will continue as bench manager for the Indianapolis club.

Bomb Craters to be Filled and Grandstand Repaired

LONDON, (CP)—Word from the British capital indicates that it is almost a certainty that the Wimbledon lawn tennis championships will be held this year from June 24 to July 6. The British Ministry of Works has granted two licences to the All-England Club for safety repairs—the filling in of bomb craters—and for what are described as first aid repairs to the centre court grandstand.

BYRON NELSON IS IN ACTION

SAN FRANCISCO—Shotmaster Byron Nelson swings into action again today. This time in the fifteenth annual San Francisco open golf tournament. The 72-hole event is the richest of the P. G. A. winter tourneys, with $15,000 dollars in Victory Bonds being distributed to the 20 winners of the match. In addition, $10,000 will go as gate prizes to spectators.

Nelson will be trying for his third successive San Francisco open victory. Par on the course is 71.

FEED PINE NEEDLES

MELBOURNE, Australia (CP)—During Australia's recent severe drought pine needles were used as an emergency feed for stock. It was found that sheep would eat them readily at first but within a few days they would refuse them. However, by alternating pine needles and chaff, sheep were fed up to four pounds of pine needles every alternate day without any apparent ill effects.

New Manager For Montreal Indians

MONTREAL—The big four's Montreal Indians will meet next Wednesday and it will be announced at that time whether Toronto Indians coach Lew Hayman will take over the Montreal Club.

The statement issued last night said no decision had yet been made but that officers of the Montreal club would discuss Hayman's proposals with the team's patrons this week. A spokesman for the squad said Hayman's proposals had the approval of the directors, and it seemed certain that the patrons would endorse them. If the okay is given to Hayman's proposals, he will take over the post of managing director of the club.

Kinsmen's Club—

Officers Installed

Bright and Snappy Party Last Night Featured by 1947 Inaugural Proceedings

Bright and snappy was the installation dinner and dancing party last night at Reid's Cafe when the Kinsmen's Club of Prince Rupert inducted into office for 1946 their new president, William Jarmson, and other executive members for the ensuing year. Retiring President Norman Carter directed the proceedings which moved along merrily from cocktails at 7 o'clock until 2 a.m. after several hours of dancing had been thoroughly enjoyed by the carefree members and guests.

The formalities of installation were carried out by Mr. Carter with precise and effective comment, the new officers being as follows:

President, William Jarmson.
Secretary, Harold Muncey.
Treasurer, M. G. Irving.
Recorder, Dr. A. D. Galbraith.
Directors — Alex Armstrong and Allan Morgan.

With opening comment appropriate to the general atmosphere of levity and smart repartee, the president-elect turned to more serious vein and announced that the keynote of his policy for the year would be to co-operate with all the ability, energy and enthusiasm of himself and his organization with all movements directed towards making Prince Rupert a better community in which to live, particularly for the young people.

The dinner proceedings were opened with the saying of Grace by Dr. A. D. Galbraith and the toast to the King was duly honored.

Greetings were brought to the club with brief remarks by Mayor H. M. Daggett; W. F. Stone, president of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce; Ald. C. G. Ham, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and W. D. Lambie, president of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club.

Another interesting incident of the evening was the initiation of new members in the persons of Pierre LeRoss and Dan McDonald.

Music for dancing was provided by Andy McNaughton in usual fine style.

Those present were Mayor and Mrs. H. M. Daggett, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stone, Ald. and Mrs. C. G. Ham, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lambie, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carter, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Montador, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Muncey, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Irving, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Galbraith, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre LeRoss, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Bolam, Mr. and Mrs. James Bremner, Mr. and Mrs. James Cusack, Mr. and Mrs. George Dibb, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Saville, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thomson, Miss Mary Armstrong, Miss Audrey Wrathall, Miss Ila Ramsden, Dan McDonald, Ed. Garner and Bruce Stevens.

A telegram from Gordon Bryant, founder and first president of the club, now residing at Prince George, expressed regret at inability to be present.

● Do you sleep soundly and wake up refreshed, clear-eyed and buoyant, ready for the day's work? Or are your nights restless and disturbed, your mornings spoiled by fatigue and exhaustion?

If you've been waking tired and listless, why not do as thousands today are doing—simply drink a cup of Ovaltine warm at bedtime. For Ovaltine does three things to bring vigorous morning freshness.

(1) Taken warm at bedtime, it relieves that feeling of nervous tension—helps the body relax for sleep without drugs. (2) Processed for easy digestion, it supplies light nourishment to prevent restless tossing and turning due to digestive unrest. (3) It supplies a variety and wealth of important food elements to rebuild body and nerve cells, replenish vitality to meet the morning.

Ovaltine furnishes not only essential vitamins, but also a combination of minerals, high-quality proteins and quick energy food elements which authorities agree are necessary for health and top vitality.

So if you sleep poorly—waken tired and listless—why not turn to Ovaltine as an aid to refreshing sleep and clear-eyed, radiant morning freshness. See if you don't begin to wake up each morning brighter, and more buoyant—ready to greet the day with a smile. 163

YOUNG VETS ARE ACTIVE

Taking Increasingly Important Part in Canadian Legion Affairs

Routine business was transacted in speedy manner while several knotty problems were thoroughly thrashed out by the members present when the Canadian Legion held its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday evening, vice-president W. F. Robertson being in the chair.

The attendance was good with increasing numbers of the younger element who are taking a keen interest in the management of affairs.

Twenty new applications were accepted and several of the applicants initiated by vice-president Robertson.

The various committees reported that matters were moving along smoothly in their departments, the entertainment committee being especially well pleased with the very successful dance they had put on on New Year's Eve in conjunction with the local reserve unit.

RUP-REC FITNESS FIRST

WHATS DOING AT PRINCE RUPERT RECREATION COUNCIL GYMS.

BY JIM NAST

Now that most of our New Year's resolutions have been shattered, let us muster our collective forces with one significant objective in view. Let us resolve in 1946, with the utmost fortitude and determination, to develop to the fullest the cultural - social - recreational possibilities of Prince Rupert. With the ending of World War II, community recreational programs and community centres are springing up throughout the whole of Canada. In fact, a famous authority stated recently that "community centres in Canada are developing at an alarming rate." "Alarming" because these recreational-minded towns have not found a model community program on which to pattern their own and are, unintentionally, going astray. Already, other towns in British Columbia are studying the procedure followed in Prince Rupert in setting up a Recreational Council, in training leaders and in organizing a program and are using it as a standard. It is our duty and our privilege to fulfil the expectations of the communities that are following our lead and set an example worthy of emulation. Let us, therefore, not only create a model community recreational program in 1946 but a model community centre as well. In other words, let us make this city a more wholesome place for our wives, our children, our neighbors, and ourselves.

Junior Girls at the "Y"—The first open Rup-Rec class of 1946 got underway last evening with loads of enthusiasm and activity. Even though the attendance was lower on this initial class, Instructress E. Yelland anticipates a capacity crowd for the next class and she and assistants L. Patrick, A. Hamilton and J. Faught are well prepared.

Junior Boys at the "Y"—Instructor E. Freeman reported an orderly class of half a hundred junior gymnasts last evening.

Intermediate Boys at the "Y"—"It is better to have a small, orderly and well behaved group, who are keenly interested, than a large disorderly one," says Instructor Freeman. Experimental evidence from the once difficult intermediate boys' class seems to bear this statement out. The boys are progressing remarkably well.

Ladies' Gymnastic Class — Someone forgot to heat the I.O.D.E. Hall last evening so the group was moved, lock, stock and barrel t othe "Y" building, where the class was held. Instructresses M. Gogal and M. Jackson conducted a smoothly operating class in recreative gymnastics. On Friday the class will return again to its usual locale.

Lost and Found Dept.—Glenna Widdoes, member of the Junior Girls' Class, reported the loss of a pair of black gloves.

An assortment of sweaters, shirts, scarves, and paper bags has been found. Unless the owners reclaim promptly they will be confiscated.
