Britain On Move Ahead

Prime Minister Attlee
Herbert Morrison Are Optimistic About Economic Future

LONDON—Prime Minister Attlee is optimistic about Britain's move to a peacetime economy. He declares his war-battered country will be well on the way to recovery in a year, barring material difficulties at home and disturbances abroad. Mr. Attlee did not amplify his reference to possible disturbances.

President of Britain's Board of Trade, cheery little Herbert Morrison, declared last night that the people of Britain are going to raise their standard of living. But he said this may mean a deficit in trade this year. Mr. Morrison added that the £250,000,000 loan from Canada and the $375,000,000 loan from the United States—if approved—will help to offset the deficit.

Automobile Crazy" Youth's Wild Ride

VANCOUVER—The wild ride of an 18-year-old youth with a car in an ambulance ended suddenly on Pattullo Bridge at New Westminster Saturday night. The ambulance crashed into a cement barrier. The youth careened down city streets with sirens blaring and reaching a speed of 60 miles per hour. The driver of the ambulance said the youth had attempted to get a job as an ambulance helper.

Service Men's Dependents

HALIFAX—One of the largest groups of children to arrive in Canada with the wives of Canadian servicemen from overseas docked at Halifax today when the S.S. Seetha docked. There are 239 women and 193 children of which 32 wives and 10 children are dependents of members of the R.C.A.F. The children are all soldiers' dependents. A C.N.R. special train will be sent to almost every section of the Dominion.

BRITISH MISSION NOW IN INDIA

Accompanied With Promises of Co-operation and Threats of Civil War

NEW DELHI—The British mission charged with the task of negotiating self-government for India has arrived in New Delhi. Indian political leaders greeted the mission with a barrage of statements ranging from threats of civil war to promises of full cooperation.

Before the mission left London, Prime Minister Attlee told the House of Commons that India has the right to choose full independence. However, Mr. Attlee expressed a hope that India will remain within the British Commonwealth.

PROPOSED ELECTION DATE PROPOSED

Conservative Party
Could Have General Contest
Every Five Years

OTTAWA—The Progressive Conservative party, at a national convention to open this week, will ask that general elections be held on a fixed date every five years. Also to be suggested will be a special committee to study compulsory voting. Election expenses will also be proposed.

Victoria Willing to Take Highway says Delegate

However, Definite Settlement of Ownership Is First Required

Both Premier John Hart and Public Works Minister Herbert Ansonb are "definitely interested" in maintaining the Prince Rupert Highway but, until final settlement of ownership of the road is completed, the province cannot take responsibility for jurisdiction of it.

This was learned in an interview with the government leaders by George MacAdams of Terrace who arrived in the city this morning from Victoria after making representations on behalf of the Associated Boards of Trade of Northern B.C. in regard to a reported repudiation of responsibility for the road by Hon. Mr. Ansonb two weeks ago.

Mr. MacAdams will give a complete report on his interviews to the executive of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce late this afternoon.

Mr. MacAdams told the Daily News this morning that the provincial government, contrary to earlier reports, is willing to take over the federal sections of the highway and maintain them, according to information he had received in Victoria but, until clear title to the road was turned over to the province, the responsibility was still a matter for the federal government.

"I have a definite promise both from Mr. Hart and Mr. Ansonb that the provincial government is willing to take over the highway when they are given clear title to it by the federal authorities," he said. "Mr. Hart told me that he had taken the matter up with the federal government when he was in Ottawa for the Dominion-Provincial conference last fall but had got no satisfaction.

"Until the province is given clear title," Mr. MacAdams said. "Mr. Hart and Mr. Ansonb view the situation as one which purely involves the federal government."

He added that he had been informed that the attitude in the north, which resulted in a flood of telegrams to Victoria and Mr. MacAdams' visit, was based on a misunderstanding of the real situation.

Weather Forecast

Prince Rupert—Cloudy with showers of rain and occasional hail; south winds, 20 to 30 miles per hour. Tuesday—Cloudy, becoming clear after daybreak; northwesterly wind, 20 to 30 miles per hour, decreasing to 10 to 15 miles in the evening. Minimum temperature tonight, 35; maximum Tuesday, 43.

DEADLOCK OVER FEEDING WORLD

UNRRA Delegates Meeting
In Closed Session at Atlantic City

ATLANTIC CITY—United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration members, meeting in Atlantic City, are holding closed committee meetings in an effort to break a deadlock over how best to feed the hungry peoples of the world. The delegates are studying a proposal by Director General Herbert Lehman that they fix a program whereby all nations would share food in proportion to their rate of consumption in the period 1935-1939.

Espionage Testimony

Young Woman Takes Stand
Against Fred Rose—Gouzenko
Continues Evidence About Messages

MONTREAL—Miss Kathleen Wilsher, already faced with charges in connection with alleged espionage activities, testified today at the preliminary hearing of Fred Rose, M.P., that, as a stenographer in the British High Commissioner's office at Ottawa, she gave information obtained in her work to Rose early in 1939 and also to Eric Adam in 1942 or 1943.

Miss Wilsher said she was appointed to her position in 1930 and she first met Rose, Labor-Progressive member of Parliament for Montreal-Cartier, in 1935 in a study group on economics, socialism and communism. "He asked me to give him any information that might be helpful to the policies of the Communist Party in Canada," she testified.

Alleged activity of Rose as a recruiting agent for Russian espionage was mentioned in a telegram to intelligence headquarters in Moscow from the Soviet military attaché at Ottawa produced as evidence earlier at today's session of the preliminary hearing of Rose who is charged

Terrace Hemlock Exporters May Ship To China Market Thru Pt. Edward Dock

TERRACE—Sawmill operators of this district have definite offers of business to supply over a million board feet of hemlock per month to the Chinese market. The material will be railway ties, side lumber cut from these ties, etc.

The big obstacle to the mills taking the business has been the lack of assembly yard facilities on the coast. The local lumber men have been working on assembly yard projects for some months but have found lumber exporters in the south have practically refused to open facilities which would make the business available along this line.

Other interests are now considering the matter and it is understood that preliminary negotiations are under way which will make it possible to use the Port Edward wharf or some place close at hand for an assembly yard.

RUSSIAN - IRANIAN CRISIS HAS BEEN GREATLY EASED

More Is Due On Spy Case

Further Developments Are Expected This Week in Espionage Conspiracy

OTTAWA—Two developments are expected this week in Canada's espionage case. One is the issuance of the third interim report compiled by the royal commission investigating the activities of Soviet agents in Canada. This may be a round-up report of the entire investigation, revealing officially for the first time, the names of the five still detained in connection with the case and recommendations for future conduct of the case.

Although the second development is definitely on the books, what may stem from it is an unknown quantity at this moment. It all hinges on the opening in Ottawa Thursday of the preliminary hearing of Captain Gordon Lunan on seven charges of conspiracy to gather and communicate secret and confidential information to Moscow.

Documentary evidence from the Russian embassy shows that Moscow asked its Canadian agents to pick up information on subjects ranging from politics to the atomic bomb. Also asked for were data on Canadian explosives, radio and radar and the work of the National Research Council.

SENTENCED TO DEATH

Burgomaster of Oberweir
And His Confederate Are Condemned by R.C.A.F. Court

AURICH, Germany—A Royal Canadian Air Force war crimes court today sentenced both Wilhelm Junge and Johann Schumacher to death by shooting for the murder of an unnamed prisoner of war at Oberweir, Bavaria.

Sentence followed the conviction of Junge, former burgomaster and Nazi party leader of Oberweir, and Schumacher, policeman-soldier of the town, on charges of being concerned in the killing of the Canadian in July, 1944, after the flier had parachuted from his blazing bomber.

with unlawfully communicating information to Russia.

The telegram was described by Ivor Gouzenko in the witness box as a reply to a previous telegram to Col. Zaboutin, former military attaché of the Russian embassy in Ottawa, from an inspector of First Intelligence Headquarters in Moscow. The message requested information on method and "technological production of munitions and explosives."

A telegram from Moscow to Zaboutin dated August 22, 1945, read: "Take measures to organize the obtaining of documentary materials of the atomic bomb, the technological process, drawings, calculations."

Another telegram dated August 14, 1945, sought information about "method and technological processes of 'VV' (used in depth bombs) and powders."

MIHAILOVIC IS ARRESTED

Chetnik Leader in Yugoslavia
Taken After Two-Year Hunt

LONDON—The Belgrade radio announces that General Draja Mihailovic has been held for the past ten days by Yugoslav authorities. The Chetnik leader, accused as a collaborator with the Marshal Tito regime, has been hunted in the hills for nearly two years. Marshal Tito has said that he will be charged with treason.

Europe's Interest— Many Would Move Here

Immigration Office Among Notable Passengers Reaching
Montreal

MONTREAL—"Never has there been such interest shown in Canada as there is now by the European people," G. G. Congdon, commissioner of European immigration for Canada in London, told reporters on his arrival in Montreal yesterday. In England for more than five years, Mr. Congdon is going to Ottawa to discuss problems relating to the future policy and plans of the Canadian government with regard to immigration.

"Thousands of people in almost every country in Europe want to come to live in Canada," Mr. Congdon said. "Canadian servicemen have been Canada's best salesmen. It has been from them that the European people have come to know more about the Dominion, its beauty, how we live and the great opportunities there are here and now want to make their home here."

However, it would be years before immigrants would be able to come to Canada, Mr. Congdon stated. No general movement could take place until the transportation problem is eased and travel conditions return to normal.

Before all the Canadian servicemen and their dependents were brought to Canada it will be almost year-end. Then there are the thousands of Canadians in Great Britain and those who were stranded in a great many of the other European countries during the war still waiting to return home as well as thousands of industrialists and government officials who would also be coming to Canada.

"Still another problem and perhaps the greatest standing in way of immigrants coming to Canada," he added, "is that of financial exchange. No one is allowed to take money out of any of the European countries, until the normal prewar exchange of currency returns. No one will be able to go to another country unless he has a bank account or other assets already established in it."

Mr. Congdon, accompanied by Mrs. Congdon, arrived in Halifax on Friday on the Aquitania among more than 100 civilians, including empire notables, dignitaries, scientists, government officials and industrialists, and travelled to Montreal on a Canadian National Railways boat special.

Many Notables
Among Passengers

Among the other passengers who arrived at Montreal were Viscountess Boursdale, who will make a six-month visit to the United States; Ida Haendel, violinist, who will give concerts at Carnegie Hall during the next two months accompanied by her father, Nathan Haendel, an artist, descendant of the famous composer of the same name who was musical author of "Hansel and Gretel"; N. J. Grant, director of atomic research for the British government, and W. G. Klonok of the Scopony Television Company, London.

Soviet Has Started Complete Withdrawal from Persian Soil

Eleventh-Hour Break In Impasse On Eve of United Nations Security Council Session

NEW YORK (CP)—The Moscow radio has announced that Russian troops are withdrawing from Iran. The broadcast added that all Red Army forces would be out of Iran with five or six weeks if—in Moscow's words—nothing unforeseen happens. Just twenty-four hours earlier the Russians had stated that Red Army troops would leave Manchuria by April 30.

These Moscow statements came on the eve of the convening of the United Nations Security Council in New York. U.N.O. officials had been hoping for an eleventh-hour break in the dispute between Iran and Russia. At the first Security Council meeting in London, Russia succeeded in delaying prolonged discussion of the clash with Iran in order to carry on direct negotiations.

UNO Objectives Are Clarified

NEW YORK—The secretary-general of the U.N.O., Trygve Lie, has clarified the main objectives of the United Nations Organization. Lie asserts that the chief purpose of the U.N.O. is to prevent argument among the big powers from flaring into armed conflict.

ACCUSATION BY IRANIAN

LONDON—An Iranian official has published a book containing a strongly worded accusation against Russia. The book was written by an attaché of the Iranian embassy in London, Ah Hamzavi. It concerns Iran's diplomatic relations with the Allies since 1941 when British and Russian troops occupied Iran to prevent German sabotage and espionage. The author makes this charge: "Interferences by Soviet military and civilian authorities in northern Iran have been constant, methodical and deliberate since 1944 when Russia was refused oil concessions."

The Chinese believe playing cards were invented in the 12th century.

Tehran later today confirmed the Russian announcement that evacuation of Soviet forces from Iran had commenced.

Commencement of consideration of the Iranian situation, in view of these latest developments, was accordingly postponed as the U.N.O. security council session was opened today by Secretary of State James Byrnes who stated that it was desirable to settle disputes without resort to the security council but also warned that no nation had the right to take the law into its own hands.

Clearing international skies brought hope that the first North American meeting of the U.N.O. security council would not have to face the crisis threatened by the Iranian situation. The belated Russian reports of fulfillment of the pact with British and Americans to move out of Iran brought hope that council discussion of the situation might be averted or postponed.

President Truman expected to attend the opening of the council at 2:30 this afternoon but he was unable to do so on account of pressure of business at Washington and sent a message instead. The message was read by Secretary of State Byrnes. There was also a state welcome by Governor Thomas E. Dewey.

FIRE DESTROYS DUNCAN SCHOOL, $50,000 DAMAGE

DUNCAN, Vancouver Island—A $50,000 fire destroyed the Duncan Consolidated High School during the night. After firemen had fought the blaze for five hours all that remained of the building at 2 o'clock this morning were smouldering ruins. A high wind made fighting of the fire difficult. The school was built four years ago.

MEXICO BECKONS WAR CORRESPONDENTS — With Latin America beckoning, Margaret Ecker and Robert Francis, husband-and-wife team of war correspondents, have returned to Vancouver, B.C., after three years' duty overseas. For the time being they will have a rest, set up a "pied a terre" home in West Vancouver, study Spanish every morning at the University of British Columbia, and settle into a new career of radio commentaries and free-lance writing for eastern Canada and United States newspapers and magazines. After that, with their dog, Folly, they're off for Mexico and points south... Europe again, perhaps.

U.N.O. Security Council

With the question of Iran still on the list for consideration and promising to provide discussion in one way or another although developments of the last few hours would appear to indicate a satisfactory settlement might be in process of arrangement, the United Nations Organization security council session gets under way in New York today and it promises to be a momentous session although possibly not as critical as it at first appeared might have been.

In Tehran Premier Quavan states there have been no new Russian troops arriving in Tehran since March 2 and today Moscow announces that Russian troops which have been retained there in contravention of agreement that they should have been removed by that date will start evacuating at once. The security council may be justified in at least seeking a satisfactory explanation from Russia as to why those forces should have been kept even if there is an eleventh hour undertaking from Russia to withdraw them. Certainly an unequivocal assurance as to their speedy removal now will be required of Russia.

The question of Franco Spain is another matter that has been having considerable discussion in relation to this U.N.O. security council session. Great Britain and the United States have taken the view that the Spanish situation does not constitute a threat to peace and world security and that the removal of the objectionable Franco may be achieved more readily by persuasive means from within Spain rather than by coercive methods as would be implied by intervention by U.N.O.

Iran and Spain are only two of the situations which will command attention as this important international meeting opens today.

Food, Our Best Defence

Common sense tells us that the people of the world will keep fighting until they are fed. Of the two billion people in the world, two-thirds are hungry, half of these are starving.

The enemy they know is famine. The friend they seek is food. The quantity of food required to restore the minds and bodies of the hungry, and to bring order to the world, far exceeds any potential timely supply.

When the hungry are fed they may begin to pay us; in goods and services perhaps; in goodwill; in peace. In the name of peace we should produce food, without stint.

Reforming the Senate

The reform of the Senate is the hardest Canadian political perennial. Every political party has threatened to reform the Senate, when the majority of senators were the appointees of another political party.

In recent years the Senate has been reforming itself by doing important work it is well fitted to do, studying the basic problems of Canada. There is no limit to the useful extension of this function, except the ability of the Senate to perform it.

The most important duty of the Senate is the giving of second thought to the bills passed by the House of Commons, some of which are ill-considered and hastily drafted. There is always the danger that a government with a small majority may pass legislation designed to please or appease some element of the population, numerous enough to tip the balance toward victory in the next election. The Senate can defeat such tactics.

DR. CARTER FOR JAPAN

Former Prince Rupert Man to Join Commission Probing Fisheries There

Dr. Neal Carter, director of the Pacific Fisheries Experimental Station at Vancouver and formerly of Prince Rupert, may go to Japan shortly to represent the Fisheries Research Board of Canada and the Canadian fishing industry on a United States Commission now investigating fishing and canning operations of Japan. Dr. Carter has been nominated for the mission by the fishing industry and the nomination is expected to be confirmed by the Fisheries Research Board.

Scow Breaks Free In Gale, Rescue Boat Is Damaged

A Canadian Fishing Co. pile driver, tied up at the government wharf, broke its mooring lines during the heavy gale at 6 o'clock last night and drifted out into the harbor. It was retrieved and brought back to shore after a three-hour struggle by two small boats, one of which sustained some hull damage when it came alongside the drifting scow in mid-harbor. The Canadian Fishing Co. packer Hillsdale, Capt. Stan Veitch, and the hullbutter, Advance, Capt. Norman Rensford, put lines on to the scow and, after a three-hour pull into the face of a 35-mile an hour southwest gale, brought it alongside the wharf. The Advance received some damage to her hull as she was thrown against the scow when it was being pulled alongside in the rough sea.

PORT SIMPSON DOCTOR DIES

Apparent victim of an overdose of nebulator, Dr. Victor Franklin, former assistant medical superintendent of the Port Simpson General Hospital, was found dead last week in his room in a downtown hotel in Victoria. Dr. Franklin came from Ottawa where his parents reside. He had only recently left Port Simpson.

WHAT Prince Rupert Needs

For the post-war period of both upkeep and development, Prince Rupert needs, primarily, more money. To obtain this, more taxpayers are required for it is obviously too heavy a load for approximately 2,000 people to try to pay for the municipal needs of approximately 10,000.

How could we obtain these extra taxpayers? Here I must say that Col. Johnstone forestalled me in his suggestion to the city council the other evening. But I would go even further and suggest that city residential lots be sold to anyone at half the assessed price, or even less, and that this be done over a period of time, say for two, three or even five years, such a scheme to be advertised in a publicity campaign. Note, the taxes would remain the same, but the buying price, being much reduced, would be a greater inducement to buyers than the present prices of lots.

But, you say, people will not buy lots unless they can be sure of sufficient work to obtain the money to enable them to continue to pay their taxes and to build a home. How then can we assure work to such prospective citizens?

The answer seems to me to be in the present residents, whether taxpayers or not, co-operating in certain definite business ventures, certain businesses wherein residents could be reasonably induced to invest even a small amount of money, not less than $100 each.

There are three definite businesses in which I think the townspeople of Prince Rupert could be induced to co-operate for the further prosperity of all concerned and these are:

- 1—A first class hotel.
- 2—A lumber yard and planing mill combined; later, a cotton-wood veneer factory to be added.
- 3—A box factory.

In these three, the townspeople could lead the way, opening up opportunities for private business men to come in and start a nail and bolt factory, a rope and string factory and, perhaps, even a furniture factory. In the above businesses, technical men for managing would need to be brought in and here the Chamber of Commerce would be needed for they would know better than anyone else where such technical men, of sound business acumen, could be found. Also, each and all of these ventures should have employees who were also shareholders, all being responsible to the central co-operative organization.

The second great need of Prince Rupert has been mentioned before by several others but not half emphatically enough. It is civic pride. Good houses and nice gardens are a great asset but lanes and empty lots littered with old cans, ash heaps and empty bottles sadly detract from any garden. The health by-laws of the city ought to be far more strictly enforced than they are by punishing offenders where it hurts most—the pocketbook—and by public censure! Especially should this be done in connection with any repair business, which should never be allowed to pile their "spare parts" on any section of any sidewalk, street, lane or vacant lot. These repair businesses should always be required to hide their untidy, but no doubt necessary, conglomeration of things behind a decent barrier. Civic pride should also include an honest day's work for a day's honest pay to avoid criticism such as we had to endure over the loading of the tugs, grain boats in the fall.

Cultural facilities are another need in Prince Rupert but these, I feel sure, would naturally follow if we had a larger tax-paying population. Our recreational centre is already a great asset and various sports are well organized. We used to have a very fine philharmonic society, a choral society, an operatic society and a players' club, and no doubt these will operate again when the need becomes urgent enough.
None of the above business projects need any outside government help and, if we show that we can help ourselves that we will not sit back and keep still, who knows? The governments might begin to notice of Prince Rupert, and MRS. MARGARET J. RUTHERFORD

Happy days are here again...

(A SIMPLE TALE TO SHOW HOW BANK CREDIT WORKS)

MR. TWITCHETT wasn't so happy yesterday. He had a problem. He lacked ready cash for his business.

He makes small novelties—does a nice business in them, too. But he normally allows his customers thirty or even sixty days to pay. In the meantime he has to pay his workmen every week, meet his power bills every month... pay promptly for metal and wood and other raw materials to earn valuable discounts.

So, yesterday, like the sensible businessman he is, he borrowed enough from the Royal Bank for his current needs. When Twitchett's customers pay him, he'll pay off the bank.

This is a simple illustration of bank credit in action. It shows how bank credit, as an everyday tool of business, provides "working capital" to keep men working.

Daily News.—
I would like to write a few lines concerning an article in a local paper on March 20 which I think was about the slimmest piece of news I have read for quite a while, especially about our great allies after the war in which the Russians lost twelve million people fighting the Nazi hordes. Everyone I met was giving them credit then but it looks to me like the same people are down on the Russians now. Talking about "woolly-headed tribes," I don't know what kind of a head the man had that published that editorial but I guess it is a place at the top of his face and was meant to hold his hat.

It is too bad that some of the people who talk and act that way were not in Russia. Then they would know what it is to suffer misery. We were lucky here that we never knew what it was to be in the fighting line.
I do not think I am smart but I would be ashamed to run down people instead of giving credit where credit is due.
I think you should turn over the Book and read the Ten Commandments and you might change your ideas about people and war.
I have been a citizen of Canada for 39 years this spring. I always thought I was a good

THIRTY-FIVE HOUSES EMPTY

Principally in Rushbrook Heights of East End

Thirty-five Wartime Housing residences in Prince Rupert are at present vacant, inquiry by the Daily News has revealed. Indications are that more may become vacant as lay-offs at the local dock, for employees of which the houses were at first built, continue.

Priority on Wartime houses still goes to returning ex-service men although it has been possible to make a considerable number available to other citizens.

Most of the present vacant houses are situated in the Rushbrook Heights area or elsewhere in the east end. The most popular location is between Cove Circle and McBride Street.

Jobs Follow Organization—

But Employers and Workers Must Assist

Organization of Canada's manpower during the war was made possible through co-operation of employers and workers.

This co-operation is no less necessary to assist in organizing the employment market during the present critical period.

Some manpower controls still remain. These are still law. They are aimed at assisting in organizing the employment market.

Remaining controls are designed to help employers and workers—and actually require only minor assistance from the public.

YOU ARE URGED TO COMPLY WITH THE FOUR CONTROLS WHICH REMAIN:

1. Employers MUST notify the National Employment Office of any need for workers, as soon as that need is known—and before anyone is engaged to fill the employment vacancy.
2. Where employers engage workers outside the National Employment Service they MUST notify the nearest NES Office within three days, that an employee has been engaged. (Form NSS 312 is provided for this purpose.)
3. Unemployed workers seeking employment MUST register with the National Employment Office if unemployed for 7 consecutive days.
4. Generally speaking, any employer or employee MUST give 7 days' notice to the other party of any intention to terminate employment. (Form NSS 120 is still required.) Exceptions may be learned from the nearest NES Office.

The partners to industry—employers and employees—should help the National Employment Service to promote a high level of employment by complying with these simple rules.

Only with public support can an employment service give full assistance to the community.

Make full use of the Local Office of the National Employment Service. It is there to serve your needs, and those of the entire Community.

WANT ANSWER ON DRY DOCK

Urgency of Immediate Action Being Impressed Upon Prime Minister

The Prince Rupert "Jobs For All" Association, at a meeting last night, decided to wire Prime Minister Mackenzie King requesting a definite statement in regard to future policy respecting the local shipyard. The wire continued: "We would stress urgency of a speedy reply to the communication since final lay-off is imminent this week. All facts indicate that the Canadian National management is doing utmost to avoid continued operation. Such a situation would seem to render a government inquiry pertinent."

Should an unfavorable reply be forthcoming, it will be urged that all organizations wire the government protesting unitedly at the situation.

The association also requested the government to call a halt to the "smear campaign" at present being directed against the Labor-Progressive Party and the Canadian-Soviet Friendship Council and labor in general with the obvious aim of damaging beyond repair Canadian co-operation and friendship with the Union of Soviet Republics.

It is also being asked that the War Measures Act which, it was claimed, allows the traditions of British justice to be set aside, be immediately repealed and every effort be made to ensure continued friendly co-operation with the USSR.

The meeting, approving of a letter published on Saturday for the Plumbers' and Steamfitters' Union, urged that the city council take immediate action to provide improved quarters for Pioneers' Home. Staff houses, however, were not considered suitable in view of two-storey character.

"A Letter for Evie" Showing
 A First of Week at Capitol Theatre

The humorously dramatic possibilities ensuing when a girl writes a letter to an unknown soldier in an army camp in the hope of finding romance and it gets into the wrong hands form the basis of the story in "A Letter for Evie" which is the feature picture today and tomorrow at the Capitol Theatre here.

Marsha Hunt plays the title role. Home Cronyn is the shy lonely soldier who starts the correspondence. John Carr is the "wolf" who intercepts.

When Cronyn visits Evie and her roommate, Pamela Britton, and finds that Carroll has sent overseas, he finds himself in love with the girl of correspondence. The imperfection is discovered by Carroll who arrives on the scene to find just another conquest.

PATTULLO -- Covers the B.C. Legislature

(T. D. Pattullo, who started his career as a newspaperman back in Woodstock, Ontario, before he came west in the Gold Rush days to become for almost half a century one of British Columbia's most prominent figures, finally achieving to the Premiership of the province, is back in newspaper work again. The Daily News is pleased to announce that Mr. Pattullo has agreed to supply us with his commentary from the press gallery at the Legislature in Victoria. It will be presented daily as long as the session lasts.)

VICTORIA (By T. D. Pattullo) -- W. T. ("Lovable Bill") Straith, one of Victoria's members of the legislature, says the province should be prepared to assist municipalities in the construction of air fields.

Why should Air Lines hold up service to a community until the community provides it with an air strip?

It is about time that objection should be taken to a circle of hold-ups.

Ottawa holds up the provinces with a financial weapon. The province holds up the municipalities and the land-owners.

Capital holds up an inert and inarticulate public. Unions hold up capital.

And the public, forced to take medicine it does not like, absorbs prodigious quantities of soft soap prescribed by the quacks and available, notwithstanding the scarcity of fats yet, perhaps, understandable through the superfluity of fatheads.

VISITING MOOSE BANQUET GUESTS

Fellowship and Hospitality Combined at Affair Saturday Night

The fellowship of the Loyal Order of Moose was combined with Prince Rupert hospitality Saturday night when the local men's and women's lodges were hosts at a banquet and dance to 14 members of the Ketchikan lodge on a goodwill visit to the city. More than 300 were present at the function in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

The warm spirit of comradeship between all members of the Moose Order and between Prince Rupert and Ketchikan in particular was expressed in brief talks, following the delicious cold-plate dinner, by G. D. Wood, governor of the Prince Rupert men's lodge, and by M. M. Welch, past governor of the Ketchikan lodge and head of the visiting delegation.

Mrs. C. McIntyre, acting senior regent of the local chapter, Women of the Moose, extended warmest greetings to the visitors and Mrs. Anne Schrum brought greetings from chapter 769, Women of the Moose, at Ketchikan.

Acting Mayor Robert McKay and W. F. Stone, president of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, extended the visitors the full hospitality of the city in brief speeches.

The Ketchikan visitors, who sailed Sunday to return north in the packer Dart, which they had chartered for the trip, were Mrs. Augusta Turner, Miss Nancy Oaksmith, Mrs. Minerva Selig, Mrs. Anne Schrum, Mrs. Flora Nygaard, Mrs. Margaret Wickstrom, M. M. Welch, Alfred Schlais, Edgar Kerr, Stanley Carroll, George Selig, Barney Rogers, Elwood Cartwright and N. R. Drewes.

Of exceptional interest among the visitors was Edgar Kerr, Ketchikan's oldest member of the Moose lodge. A picturesque man wearing a beaded buckskin jacket and a white Van Dyke beard, he was 81 years old and hale and hearty. He entertained the gathering with a humorous anecdote for which he received an enthusiastic round of applause.

During the interval between the banquet and the dance, the gathering entertained itself with community singing. Andy McNaughton was pianist during the song period and for the dancing, when he was joined by Thomas Moran with his violin.

Arrangements for the banquet were directed by Terry MacNeice of the men's lodge with the assistance of the entertainment committee of the women's chapter, Mrs. Marvin Rowe, Mrs. Geg. Wilson, Mrs. Robert Murray, Mrs. H. Veruchi and Miss Jean Munroe, and many other ladies of the chapter.

Stewart Store To Be Re-opened

The old Roy Fox store at Stewart, vacant for a number of years, is to be re-opened this week and will be operated by Earl Jenkins who for the last two years has been connected with W. H. Malkin Co., wholesaler, Prince Rupert. Mr. Jenkins sailed for the Portland Canal town this morning on the Venture with a stock of groceries and produce. Mr. Jenkins, who returned from Stewart recently after making initial arrangements to open the store, is unqualified in hopes for the future of Stewart which, he feels, is due to make a notable come-back due to the mineral deposits which are under development in the region.

Funeral service for Charles Phillips, a picturesque member of this community for almost 40 years, will be held at 2:30 tomorrow under the joint auspices of the Canadian Legion and the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Mr. Phillips, commonly known as "Charlie the Barber," was 81 years old. His short figure and flowing white moustaches were familiar to everyone.

Born on the Channel Island of Sark in 1865, the late Mr. Phillips saw much of the world before settling in Prince Rupert and his tales of places and adventure were always interesting.

He opened a barber shop on Third Avenue in the early days, later moving his business to Second Avenue. He joined the Canadian Legion in the early 1920's and was extended the courtesies of the organization through the years, although it was not known if he was a veteran of any war. He had served in the French Navy.

During the latter years he lived in retirement at his home at 531 Seventh Avenue East.

Something new in advertising: A man who claimed he was innocent of incurring a knife attack advertised in the classified columns of the local paper for the guilty party to come forward.

CHICAGO—The Black Hawks, skating on their home ice at Chicago Stadium now, are faced with the necessity of making a complete about-face in form if they hope to stay in the running for the Stanley Cup. Losers of two straight to the pennant-winning Montreal Canadiens in Montreal, the fast-skating Hawks were unable to snap out of their slump at home last night and lost 3 to 2 in the third game of the best-of-seven series with the Canucks.

In the other semi-final game last night, the Boston Bruins beat Detroit Red Wings 5 to 2 to take a two-to-one lead in games as the scene of the struggle shifted to the motor city.

The big guns in Canadiens' win over the Hawks was Toe Blake and Buddy O'Connor. Both of them scored two goals. The other Canadian scorers were Kenny Mosdell, Murph Chamberlain, Bobby Pilon and Maurice Richard.

In the Boston-Detroit game, Milt Schmidt and Woody Dumart each scored twice for the Bruins. Their other counter was bagged by Pat Egan. The Detroit goal getters were Fernand Gauthier and Carl Liscombe.

BO-ME-HI RAID ON METLAKATLA NETS 68-47 WIN

The Intermediate League's Bo-Me-Hi team made a commando raid across the harbor Saturday night and, after a fast and furious struggle, captured victory from the Metlakatla hoopsters by a score of 68-47.

It was no grab-and-run invasion, however, for, following the game, the visitors were entertained with a dinner and dance arranged by the villagers. During the dinner, Coach Alex Bill of Bo-Me-Hi thanked the team's hosts and spoke briefly on the value of good sportsmanship.

The trip was made in the motor vessel Osuni, skippered by Pete Byrne jr. and Earl Batt.

Metlakatla drew first blood and at the end of the first quarter the score was 14-6 for the home team. The second quarter saw the students pick up and manage to tie the score at 30-30 at half time.

On entering the second half, the Metlakatla hoopsters again captured the lead until the Rainmakers, with a deluge of baskets, finally stepped out in front. Sparked by the sharp shooting of Reg Lavigne who netted himself 17 points, leading his team, the students led at the third quarter by a score 50-39.

In the final quarter, Bo-Me-Hi made their lead safe, emerging at game's end with a score 68-47.

Lavigne played his best game of the season and appeared to be unable to miss the basket. However, high scorer of the evening was Auckland, Metlakatla, who scored 20 points and was the students' No. 1 problem.

A return match—to be played in Prince Rupert—is being sought and it promises to be an interesting feature as the Metlakatla team has vowed to defeat the Rainmakers in the next game.

The scoring:

Bo-Me-Hi—J. Forman 13, F. James 10, D. Hartwig 10, M. Thompson 8, C. Ciccone 8, R. Lavigne 17, J. James 2, C. Metlakatla—Auckland, Leighton 7, Leask, Nelson 4, son 7, Robertson, E. Leighton Louch 3.

Innovation For Church

St. Paul's Farewells Fishermen at Gathering Last Night
Which Was Friendly Success

Something new in the way of fishermen's farewells took place last evening and it proved to be a highly successful innovation which will no doubt be repeated in succeeding years prior to the departure of the fleets for the grounds. In the friendly atmosphere of St. Paul's Lutheran Church took place a festival which consisted first of a program of speeches and music in the main auditorium and then a fine supper provided by the Ladies Aid of the church in the social hall. It was the first time that such an event had been held by any church in honor of the people of the primary industry which through the years has been the mainstay of the port.

Rev. A. O. Aasen, pastor of St. Paul's presided over both the preliminary meeting and the dinner. Mr. Aasen explained that this was but the first of what it was hoped would be annual events of the kind to "ennoble" the industry which was not only vital to the life of this community but, at this time, when food was so badly needed, was of the utmost importance to the world as a whole. He read from the Gospel of St. Luke and offered appropriate prayer.

Acting Mayor Robert McKay represented the city to express good wishes to the fishermen for fine weather, good catches and a safe return. The fishermen, he admitted, were the creators of the real primary wealth of Prince Rupert. For their economic existence most of the people of Prince Rupert depended upon them. There was much more the city would like to do for the fishermen but lack of finances made it impossible.

T. H. Sorensen, manager of the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association, felt that the fishermen had exemplified in Prince Rupert for all to see what could be done by getting together. By working together, they had been able to provide themselves with better boats and better homes, even through depression times, until now they controlled their own destiny. "As another season opens," he said, "let us keep working together for community, country and the world."

Mr. Aasen felt it was fitting to honor the fishermen. Mentioned in the Book of Genesis fishing was the first avocation God had given to man. Now the fishermen had been able to illustrate how wealth and income could be divided among the many instead of become concentrated with a few. The type of men in the fishing industry were the type of men the world needed — "fresh, free and frank, strong and stalwart."

Gus Mostad, emphasizing the important part the fishermen played in this community, urged support for the move to improve the Pioneers' Home here.

Capt. A. M. Martinusen spoke briefly to acknowledge for the fishermen the gesture of goodwill which had been extended through this function.

The musical part of the program included selections by the Varden Singers, under leadership of Peter Lien; by the Junior Choir of St. Paul's, directed by Obert Haugan, accompanied by Mrs. Haugan, and consisting of Mary Dybhavn, Irene Hansen, Clarice Johnson, Solveig Mork, Bernice Mostad, Clifford Knutson, John Currie, Fred Nordgaard and Richard Tweed, and by a quartet consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Erling Jacobsen and Mr. and Mrs. Kjeboten and accompanied by Mrs. Lars Olsen. There was also community singing of hymns.

Mrs. Thor Sollein was convener of the fine supper and her assistants were Mrs. Chris Johnson, Mrs. Bernhard Pedersen, Mrs. Hagbert Johansen, Mrs. Leonard Jensen, Mrs. C. Berg, Mrs. Anton Dybhavn, Mrs. Nels Luth, Mrs. H. Paulson, Mrs. Lars Nelson, Mrs. Gus Mostad, Mrs. Larsen, Miss Mary Dybhavn, Miss Irene Hansen, Miss Bernice Mostad, Miss Irene Mostad, Miss Tootsie Johnson, Miss Solveig Mork, Clifford Knutson, John Currie and Fred Nordgaard.
