Royal Canadian Air Force Bombers From Annette Island Thought Their Target Had Been Whale

OTTAWA (CP)—Partial credit for the sinking of the only Japanese submarine destroyed off the British Columbia coast during the recent war came as a surprise to the crew of the Royal Canadian Air Force bomber, headquarters of the Royal Canadian Air Force announced today. The crew was on a routine shipping patrol from Annette Island station some four years ago and dropped a 500-pound bomb on a grey shape in the ocean and left the scene, thinking that the target might have been a whale. Later evidence showed it had been a submarine. No British Columbia men were among the crew of the Canadian bomber. The bag was made off the Queen Charlotte Islands.

POLES STAGE JEWISH RIOTS

WARSAW @—At least 34 persons were reported today to have been killed and 42 wounded at Kielce in Poland's bloodiest post-war program which was finally suppressed by government forces in armored cars. Reinforced military units and security police patrolled Kielce's streets after anti-Jewish rumors apparently touched off the riots on Thursday. One rumor was that a Polish boy had been kidnapped and held in a cellar for two days by a Jew. About 800 of Kielce's population are Jews.

SNEAD GARNERS BRITISH OPEN

ST. ANDREW'S, Scotland — Sam Snead, long-driving American professional, won the British open golf championship today with a 72-hole total of 290. Snead scored 75 on the final round. Johnny Bulla, another American, and Bobby Locke, South African champion, were tied in second place with 294.

Ketchikan Is Completely In Grip of Inflation

Prices Have Reached Fantastic Levels—Food Rots in Ships While Longshoremen Are On Strike

An inflationary boost is hurling Alaska's commodity prices, already far higher than those of Prince Rupert, up to a level equal to the height of the territory's famed snow-capped mountain peaks. It costs real money to live in Ketchikan.

Withdrawal of the Office of Price Administration's control of prices on July 1 saw an almost instantaneous hoisting of prices in the Alaska city, something which seemed to concern Ketchikan residents very little but which had a painful effect on Canadian visitors.

For instance, the players on the Prince Rupert All-Star baseball team which invaded Ketchikan on Tuesday found food prices which doubled and often tripled those of Prince Rupert. This was only one expression of the feverish and unabashed pursuit of money which has Ketchikan's citizens in its grip.

Nazi Rats Trying Out

NUERNBERG @—Hermann Goering was pictured by defence counsel today as a victim of loyalty to Adolf Hitler and Germany, aware of mistakes but refusing to flee the sinking ship he helped to fashion.

In this vein the defence of 22 Nazi leaders opened a final plea for acquittal before the international military tribunal, laying the entire guilt for German aggression on Hitler.

Continuing today, Goering's doctor endeavoured to place the blame for the war on Britain which he said had convinced Poland of her strength, causing her to refuse to negotiate with Germany on Danzig.

United States Watches Prices

Just What Final Effect of Lifting of O.P.A. Will Be Still Uncertain
NEW YORK @—Uncertainty as to whether the next few days will bring about runaway prices, small increases or a return to government control was the keynote yesterday as United States took time out for its traditional Independence Day observance. All indications point to at least some boost in the general cost of living over Office of Price Administration levels but what the ultimate figure may be is anybody's guess.

COMPENSATION OF COAL MINES

First Step Taken in Great Britain in Nationalization of Industry

LONDON @—A three-man government tribunal has begun to determine compensation value of 1700 coal mines. This is the next step in Labor's plans to nationalize the mining industry. The tribunal will spend perhaps a month taking evidence from government and the Mining Association of Great Britain. Then it will announce the figure to be paid the mine owners.

Fire In Teck-Hughes Mine

All-Night Conflagration Brought Under Control—No Miners Are Hurt

KIRKLAND LAKE, Ont. @—Fire fighters, called in from all mines in the district in the fight to extinguish the blaze, succeeded yesterday in bringing under control a fire which raged throughout the night at the 3600-foot level in the Teck-Hughes mine. All miners underground had been safely brought to the top without suffering any ill-effects. The fire is believed to have been started by a spark from a welding torch.

He is shown answering the greetings of the populace of Bayeux. De Gaulle, centre, is waving to some of his greeters.

STEP TOWARDS PEACE

IT WAS A GOOD day's business that the Big Four foreign ministers' conference finally accomplished yesterday when agreement came to call the general peace conference for July 29. The decision was as sudden as it was gratifying and the fact that it was made after all is a reassuring indication of ability to compromise and agree on general principles, something that we had been commencing to despair about altogether.

After all the bickerings of the Big Four conferences over Trieste, the Italian reparations to Russia and such matters, it is to be hoped that differences have been composed to sufficient extent that the larger conference to deal with the general bringing about of world peace will be able to get on with the business of really ending the war which we must remember is still only suspended by armistice.

SENIOR MATRICULATION

IT IS NOT a very creditable state of affairs that a centre of the importance which Prince Rupert professes, it having been even suggested at times that this might be made the seat of some sort of an advanced educational centre, is having difficulty in getting even a senior matriculation class established in connection with its High School.

However, after a lapse of two years, the situation may be rectified now that the board of school trustees has signified its readiness to offer the first-year university course here for a fee of $100 providing sufficient pupils come forward, the minimum number of ten having been suggested.

Fortunately, a large number of Prince Rupert people have been affluent enough to be able to send their elder children away for the first academic year. It might not be so easy, however, for some deserving students who simply have not the means. It seems a pity that they should be denied this extra year of education in a supposedly up-to-date and progressive city.

Senior matriculation should be a matter of course in a community of the size, importance and position of Prince Rupert. It is to be hoped that it will now be re-established and maintained here.

SENATE APPOINTMENT

THE PRINCE RUPERT Chamber of Commerce takes timely and justified action in urging upon Prime Minister Mackenzie King that the claim of the northern part of the province to representation in the Senate be recognized in connection with the filling of three vacancies for British Columbia which now exist. There is worthy material in this part of the country which would adorn and enhance the councils of the Upper Chamber, material which is well deserving from the standpoint of public service for elevation thereto.

This district is sadly lacking in the councils of government at the present time and it would be an appropriate and graceful gesture by Mr. King if he would act upon the suggestion of the Chamber in the making of the senatorial appointments which will probably be forthcoming soon.

LOG OUTPUT DOWN IN JUNE

Strike Affected Production in This Area During June, 1946

With logging activity paralyzed for part of the month by the lumbermen's strike, the log scale for June in the Prince Rupert forestry district was only about one-third of that for the same month last year and down an equal amount from the scale for May of this year.

Figures issued by District Forester J. E. Matheson show that the sawlog scale for June totalled 15,958,883 board feet as against 21,073,836 board feet for June, 1945, and 21,802,248 board feet for May, 1946.

Total sawlog cut for the first six months of this year stands at 54,000,591 board feet as compared with 74,592,900 board feet for the first half of 1945.

Pole and piling scale in June was 327,153 lineal feet, bringing the total so far this year to 1,825,423 feet. This was a great increase over the six months total for 1945, which was 127,848 lineal feet. Pole and piling scale for June, 1945, was 25,719 feet, and that of May, 1946, was 92,048 feet.

There were 7,637 ties cut during June in the Prince Rupert district, an increase of 5,000 over May, but more than 7,000 below June of 1945. Cordwood production totalled 384 cords.

Major varieties of sawlogs cut during the month were spruce and hemlock, both slightly more than 3,000,000 board feet, cedar production was 1,909,920 board feet and jackpine 409,953.

NEW ZEALAND SOCIALIZATION

WELLINGTON, N.Z., (C)—The latest step in the New Zealand Labor government's socialization program is the introduction of consumers' co-operative societies to control all shops and other business in the huge state housing settlements being built in the country.

The proposal is that there should be communal ownership and control of all groceries, bakeries, butchers, hotels, theatres, restaurants, boarding houses, garages, service stations, coal, wood and milk supplies, and any other consumer services required.

Government officers have been canvassing state house tenants in the new suburbs for support of the plan. It is proposed to use state-built buildings which would be rented to the societies. Any profits would be disbursed in consumers' dividends and rebates.

One society is already functioning at Naenae, near Wellington. No room for private enterprise remains in this suburb. All buildings are state-owned and are made available only to the society.

AS THREAT OF MARITIME STRIKE ENDS—Frank J. Taylor, left, of New York City, who represented the ship owners, and Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson (standing), who helped negotiate the settlement, look on as Joseph Curran, president of the U.S. National Maritime Union, signs the agreement in Washington, D.C., that prevented a national maritime strike. C.I.O. maritime leaders called off the strike of 200,000 longshoremen and seamen a single minute before the deadline at the great ports on the Atlantic coast.

VACCINE SAVED 2,000,000 LIVES

JOHANNESBURG, (C)—Vaccine sent to Russia during the war saved at least 2,000,000 Russian lives. This fact was revealed recently by Dr. E. H. Cluver, director of the South African Institute for Medical Research. In the early stages of the war, the Consul-General for Russia approached him and asked for 5,000,000 doses of anti-typhus vaccine. At that time South Africa had produced about five doses, on a merely experimental basis. Through a generous grant from the South African Medical Aid for Russia Fund, the Institute set up the necessary laboratories to produce the vaccine.

MR. O'NEILL'S POSITION
Editor, Daily News:

In order that your report in Thursday's issue of the Daily News regarding a senior matriculation class in the Booth Memorial High School may lead to no misunderstanding as to my attitude, I wish to make the following statement:

I am very pleased with the decision arrived at by the School Board for I have always advocated and encouraged the holding of senior matriculation classes in our High School. In oral reports to the secretary of the School Board and to the Inspector of Schools, I stated that we were not likely to have a special classroom to register a senior matriculation class as the small room formerly used for senior matriculation is now used as a drafting room. I pointed out, however, that this grade could be registered with another class and could circulate as a separate class from room to room. I also stated very definitely that we ought to have a senior matriculation class if at all possible, as such a class would add to the prestige of the school.

INFLATION IN KETCHIKAN

who returned today, took substantial jumps when price controls were dropped. One Ketchikan resident told of having her room rent hoisted from $30 to $60 a month on July 2 while another recounted, without much apparent concern, how his had been raised from $60 to $90 a month.

In Ketchikan the chicken's dignity reaches sublime heights and the lowly hot dog assumes a platinum-plated value. A fried egg costs 35 cents in all restaurants while the hot dog has a 25-cent price tag—and spread your own mustard.

A sirloin steak, which in Canada commands a top price of $1.25, sells for $2.50 and $2.75 in Ketchikan. Theatre prices are about 75 per cent higher than those of Prince Rupert.

Ketchikanites Not Worried

Apparently the danger of an endless flight into the realms of inflation doesn't bother the average Ketchikan resident. At least no apprehension in that regard was indicated in conversations with them. Wages and salaries prior to the dropping of price controls, it seems were sufficiently substantial to absorb a considerable rise in prices before wage earners begin to feel the pinch. So far they have not.

Money in Ketchikan flows with a free and fluid movement which is startling to the average Canadian. Liquor and luxury items are in great demand, particularly flows in quantity and great variety.

The Ketchikan longshoremen's strike, which has left the city without a vessel moored at one of its wharves. At another wharf a ship from Tampa, Fla., laden with hundreds of pounds of bananas, which are bad in the hold. The men have removed the hatch from the hold to let the generated by the decaying escape.

In several instances complaints about prices were voiced by visiting American tourists, who their way north had got used to Canadian prices. Many had to pay the price asked by Ketchikan merchants for some and tourist attractions which spent a few days in the city got used to local conditions.

Wage scales range from $1.00 a day for waitresses to $25 a day for cooks and $25 a day for experienced bar keepers.

TO THOSE WHO NEED MONEY... for a useful purpose

For many a Borrower SAVING is still No. 1...

For many of our borrowing customers, saving is still the prime consideration. For them, the time to borrow is equally the time to save . . . borrowing and saving go hand in hand.

Thousands of our borrowers have sizable Holdings of Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates, which they leave with us for safekeeping. Indeed, a good many have substantial cash reserves in their savings accounts.

Why, then, do they borrow from the Bank? Simply because they want to keep their savings intact and undisturbed—as a bulwark of security.

These people are performing a real service not only to themselves, but to their fellow citizens and to the country at large . . .

By maintaining their programme of regular saving, they are guarding against inflation. How? . . . By conservation.

Conservation in personal financing is practised by a large proportion of our customers. By borrowing for some useful purpose, and by making regular repayments on their loan, they are—in reality—saving for a useful purpose, and increasing profitable production for the community. Meanwhile, they are keeping their savings intact.

This is wise spending, wise borrowing and wise saving.

These people are good customers, they are good citizens and their personal financing is sound.

This is conservation—the first requisite for personal security—the first attribute of good citizenship . . .

LONDON TIMES IN RUPERT IN THREE DAYS

The London Times, semi-authoritative newspaper organ of the Empire's capital, can now be placed in Prince Rupert mail boxes almost as soon after publication as can the Vancouver newspapers. A copy of "The Thunderer" dated Monday, July 1, arrived at the Prince Rupert Daily News office last night, three days after publication.

This shrinkage of global space and time was effected through air express. A special ten-page air edition of The Times was placed aboard a TransCanada Airlines transatlantic plane and flown to Canada, then across the continent to Edmonton where it was placed on a train.

Printed on a high grade light paper, the July 1 issue carried as its leading article the dropping of the atom bomb at Bikini aton. As usual, its front page was devoted to classified advertising and the back page to classifieds and stock exchange quotations.

TransCanada Airlines, which carried the copy of the paper, now operates six scheduled flights a week between Montreal and London. The planes are four-motored Lancasters, the peacetime versions of the famous Lancaster bombers which pummeled Germany to ruin. They carry ten passengers and a huge cargo of mail and express.

Weatherman Stops Celebration

Fourth of July Was Completely Rained Out in Ketchikan

Frustrated by two days of almost continuous rain during which they had almost no opportunity to perform, Prince Rupert's All Star baseball team returned on the flying boat Haida Queen this morning from Ketchikan's watery Fourth of July celebration. They were preceded last night by the local contingent of boxers who returned on the Prince Rupert after having been unable to put on their outdoor exhibition fights.

On Wednesday the ball players did manage to get in four innings which ended with a score tied at 6-6 and an impartial drenching for themselves, the Ketchikan players and the few hardy fans who spotted the open bleachers. The fourth game of the international series was never played.

Lacking an auditorium, the Ketchikan celebration committee had planned to sponsor several open air boxing bouts and had invited Len Hitchens, Terry McCarthy, and other local fighters to take part. The boys stayed in Ketchikan from Monday until last night and never got a bout.

With grim desperation some of the features of the celebration were displayed yesterday, the main one being a parade, which showed a good deal of imagination and effort but which drooped sadly as it passed through the town's business district at 1:30 in a torrential downpour.

There were also log bucking, chopping, canoe racing and swimming contests but none brought out the large crowds which might have been expected had the weatherman showed any mercy.

Ball Team Back From Ketchikan

After a special charter trip in which it brought back the Prince Rupert baseball team from Ketchikan at 7:15 this morning, Queen Charlotte Airlines flying boat Haida Queen left for Vancouver at 8:30, carrying one through passenger and seven passengers for Island points. Destined for Vancouver was G. D. Mead, provincial police senior clerk, while Island passengers were E. R. Barr and F. A. Large of War Assets, E. Lindseth of Edward Lipsett Ltd., H. McDonald and C. Chisholm, all for Allford Bay and Norman Tarbuck and A. Carlson of B.C. Packers for Pacofi.

Local baseball players and others who returned this morning from Ketchikan were: W. G. Murray, W. D. Lambie, R. Bury, Don MacDonald, J. Beruschi, Benny Windle, J. H. Black, Walter Johnson, Jack Lindsay, Douglas Kerr, A. Simundson, Albert Stiles and Ted Arney.

LATE SPORT

If the legend that the leaders of the major baseball leagues as of July 4 prove to be the ultimate winners is true, then Boston will win the American and Brooklyn the National League this year.

In yesterday's baseball games Ted Williams knocked out his 21st and 22nd home runs of the year. He had four tallies and so far this year has 69 runs batted in to his credit.

In the British Open golf championship two Americans are tied with a Welshman at the three-quarter mark. Sammy Snead and Bulova, both Americans, are in a three-way tie with the Welshman, Dai Rees.

The final of the women's Wimbledon tennis championship was an all-American affair with Louise Brough winning from Eileen Betts.

In the men's singles at Wimbledon the Frenchman, Yvon Petra, won from Geoffrey Brown.

No games were played in the local fastball series owing to rain and wet grounds. Games scheduled for tonight are Grotto vs. Co-op and Bo-Me-Hi vs. General Motors in the men's senior league.

Fishing for spring salmon off the waterfront still brings rewards. A 40-pounder was landed by a youngster but for a time it was a question as to whether the lad would land the fish or the fish would pull the lad into the water. Tony Crawley came to the boy's assistance and the fish lost out.

SHORT SPORT

The cricket advisory board's suggestion to county clubs before the season started in Britain that the game should be "brightened" has produced unexpected results—and a spot of criticism by the board for what it termed "freak declarations" by Glamorgan and Somerset in a recent game. The board took the view that rain prevented play on the first day and most of the second, and Captains J. C. Clay of Glamorgan and C. J. P. Barnwell of Somerset decided to turn an "otherwise dull game into an exciting game." It was agreed Somerset should declare at their previous day's score of 51 runs for one wicket and Glamorgan would declare at the same total. Glamorgan made the required runs after 20 minutes of farcical cricket and the players then played seriously. Somerset was all out for 53 and Glamorgan, batting again, won by a comfortable margin of eight wickets. The ruling body thought the clubs' actions were "against the spirit of the championship." But the spectators didn't kick—they enjoyed this novel departure.

GOOD TURF ON BOWLING GREEN

Federal Expert Gives Timely Advice—Care About Rolling

In the establishment and maintenance of turf on bowling and putting greens, excess rolling is frequently practised to the detriment of the turf, particularly on bowling greens, says J. H. Boyce, Division of Forage Plants, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. Frequent heavy rolling causes compaction of the soil, creating unsatisfactory conditions for root growth. The damage is especially severe if the soil be wet at the time of rolling. Normally one rolling is necessary during the year and then it is given in the spring. The purpose of this rolling is to counteract the heaving caused by freezing and thawing. Rolling is not necessary in those regions where heaving does not occur.

Rolling should never be resorted to with a view of leveling the green. The only satisfactory way of filling small depressions in the green's surface is by top dressing. In the case of large depressions or mounds which may occur on putting greens, the proper method of counteracting them is to remove the turf and bring the soil to the desired level by filling, or removal as the case may be, and then replace the soil. Contrary to the opinion of many green keepers, constant rolling is not necessary to maintain a desirable playing surface. The surface may be kept true and firm by following a proper top-dressing program which is beneficial to the grass and avoids the difficulties which may be encountered as a result of frequent rolling. If the use of a roller during the playing season is considered necessary, it should be very light.

But rolling is a comparatively simple matter in the thousand and one things that have to be known in establishing and maintaining turf on bowling and putting greens. In the construction of new greens, there is the question of the best species of grass to be used, and expert knowledge is required in drainage, soil and soil preparation, time of planting, seeding, sodding, and vegetable planting. In maintenance, besides rolling, there are the correct methods to be considered in fertilization, liming, top dressing, mowing, watering, raking, soil aeration, and the control of weeds, pests, disorders, and diseases, while knowledge of how to renovate poor turf is an asset.

Timely Topics from Terrace

Harry Walland, who has been holidaying at Lakelse Lake with Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Cole, left for his home in Dayton, Ohio, on Wednesday evening.

Harold Lynum of Western Plywood Ltd., arrived in town on Thursday evening.

Mrs. E. T. Kenney and son, Edward, arrived from Victoria on Wednesday. They were met at Prince Rupert by Lloyd Johnstone, who brought them to Terrace by car.

Walter Warner has bought Gunner Engstrom's property, south of town.

Mr. Kennedy, Public Works superintendent, left for the south on Thursday. He will return at once with his family. They will occupy the Arnold Crellman house.

W. H. Willisroft and daughter, Kathleen, left on Tuesday to spend a few days in Prince Rupert.

Harold Whalen has opened his lunch counter and small grocery store at Lakelse Lake to accommodate summer campers.

A spot was found on the second even and he promptly scored 51 runs and took two wickets. The club was impressed and he was promoted to the first team. He took six wickets for five runs against a United Services team just to show his tryout performance wasn't a fluke. Now he has been signed by Burnley Football Club. It appears Peter is a better than average centre-forward.

The Osborne clan from Leigh-on-Sea, Essex, are a chummy bunch. W. H. Osborne already has applied for 1921 season tickets for Southend United's football club's home games next season. He has paid $470 for them. Of the 21 tickets, 19 were for Osbornes. W. H. has eight brothers, two of his brothers' wives and their sons and daughters. The odd two were for friends. He made one stipulation. The seats must be together in a block.

Suzanne Lenglen, who carried off all the gold medals for tennis at the Antwerp Olympic Games in 1920, died in Paris of pernicious anemia five years ago. The great French star faded rapidly from the tennis spotlight after turning professional in 1926.

Jack Guest of Toronto's Don Rowing Club sculled his way to victory in the Diamond Sculls at Henley-on-Thames 16 years ago today. It was the third time in the competition's 64-year history that Canada had won the event. Lou Scholes winning in 1904 and Joe Wright Jr., in 1922.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

CHERRY TIME—VARIOUS METHODS PUTTING UP POPULAR FRUIT

This year's crop of cherries is very promising," say the authorities, and everybody is happy. Last year many people were disappointed in the crop and decided that if there were no cherries this year, they would make up for the loss and eat fresh fruit. This year, however, they should make a good quantity of preserves and also use their sugar ration to their advantage.

Cherries are easily canned, without the pits, and without sugar. The way to be used next winter is the deciding factor.

The fruit should be well formed and mature. Under-ripe fruit is of poor flavor and texture. Over-ripe fruit will be soft and unattractive. Cherries should be washed before canning or pitting. Only the fruit that are not bruised or damaged should be canned. A six-pound box of cherries, weighing eight pounds will yield approximately five quarts of canneries. A small box weighing four pounds will yield approximately three quarts of canneries.

The syrup used will vary according to the variety of cherry. A thin syrup will be quite enough for sweet cherries. A medium syrup is recommended for sour cherries. A thin syrup is referred to as a 1 to 2. A medium syrup as a 1 to 1. Vary often people are misled by this use of numbers and wonder what is meant and how they should be interpreted. It is easy, once it is understood that the first number, which is one, does not vary and always means 1 cup of sugar. The number which varies is the proportion of water to the cup of sugar. For instance, a 1 to 2 syrup means a syrup made with one cup of sugar to 2 cups of water, and so on. To make syrup, add water to sugar, bring to a boil, skim if necessary and keep hot.

Cherries may be canned either by the cold pack method or the hot pack method. For the cold pack method, pack the cold cherries into the clean, hot containers. Cover with hot syrup, leaving a headspace of one-quarter of an inch. Partially seal spring top and screw top sealers. Completely seal vacuum type sealers and tin cans. Process in a boiling water bath or in a thermostatically controlled oven. Processing time in boiling water bath: 20 minutes for pint sealers and 20 oz. cans; 25 minutes for quart sealers and 28-oz. cans. Processing in the oven at 275 degrees F: 35 minutes for pint sealers and 45 minutes for quart sealers. Do not process tin cans in oven. For cherries use enamel tin cans.

For the hot pack method, simmer the cherries 5 minutes in syrup. Fill containers and cover with hot syrup, leaving the same headspace as for cold pack. Processing boiling water bath, 15 minutes for pint and quart sealers, and 20-oz. and 28-oz. tin cans. Process glass sealers in even; pints 25 minutes, quarts 30 minutes.

When using the boiling water bath it is important to remember that there must be two inches of water over the tops of the containers, which means that the kettle must be deep enough to hold the containers in an upright position on a rack to allow for circulation of water under the sealers, while having enough space left on top to have two inches of water above the containers. When processing time is over, remove containers, seal the partially sealed ones and let cool, away from drafts. Label and store in a dark, cool place.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Which one should go first when a man and a woman are leaving a public dining room?

A. The woman should go first. If they must pass through a closed door she should stand aside and allow her escort to open it.

Q. Is it proper to refer to curtains or draperies as "drapes"?

A. No. Say "curtains" or "draperies." This expression is in the same category as "gents" for "gentlemen."

Q. Is it ever permissible for a man to open his wife's personal letters?

A. No; nor should the wife ever be guilty of this offence.
