Russia and Iran Heal Differences

Agreement Reached On Troop Withdrawal, Oil And Azerbaijan Region

All Outstanding Questions Between Two Countries Settled Informally On Basis of "Reciprocity and Goodwill"

TEHRAN (CP)—The Iranian government today announced agreement with Russia on the withdrawal of Russian troops, oil and Azerbaijan. The agreement provides that Russian troops will evacuate Iran unconditionally within six weeks from March 24. A proposal for oil concessions to Russia will be presented to the Iranian Parliament within seven months and the Azerbaijan problem will be recognized as a "purely internal affair."

Cabinet To Be Enlarged

Two New Conservatives to be Appointed, Premier Announces After Some Criticism Voiced

VICTORIA—After Progressive-Conservative supporters of the Coalition had announced they had protested at the appointment of Hon. Gordon Wismer, a Liberal, as attorney-general, Premier John Hart announced that it was his intention to enlarge the cabinet in a week or 10 days to 10 members consisting of six Liberals and four Conservatives. This would involve the naming of two new Progressive-Conservative members in order to keep a reasonable representation in the executive council for the two parties forming the government.

It was revealed that Progressive-Conservative members, through Minister of Public Works Herbert Anscumb, had requested that the appointment of an attorney-general to succeed the late Hon. R. L. Maitland be deferred until a convention could be held to elect a new leader.

Mr. Hart replied it was impossible for him to defer the appointment since he needed an attorney-general in connection with the preparation of legislation and in readiness for the forthcoming Dominion-provincial conference. He wished, however, to co-operate to the fullest for the preservation of the coalition. He then announced his cabinet reorganization plans in order to preserve the status quo in relation to the House membership which includes 22 Liberals and 14 Conservatives.

Harold Winch, C.C.F. leader, felt that the immediate appointment of an attorney-general had been necessary and that Premier Hart could not have done better. Progressive-Conservative members Welch of Comox and Coates of North Vancouver—in a statement made it clear that they had been elected as coalitionists and that they were not in accord with any protest at Mr. Wismer's appointment as attorney-general.

Hunt Started For Washington Killer

Dr. G. M. Weir, minister of education, conceding that the knowledge of students of Canadian history was slight announced that a special committee was now working on the subject in conjunction with social studies.

Would Defer Peace Parley

PARIS—Russia has proposed a postponement of the European Peace Conference scheduled to open in Paris on May 1. Soviet diplomats have told France that Russia believes the peace meeting should be delayed until a Big Three agreement is reached on treaties.

Britain and the United States are in favor of holding the conference on schedule—even if the Foreign Ministers' Conference in London has not yet agreed by then on treaties for Italy, the Balkans and Finland.

COL. MELDRUM RETIRES
VICTORIA—Col. Donald W. Meldrum, well known Canadian Army officer, is retiring.

CHURCHILL IS PICKETED DURING WELCOME TO NEW YORK—Some of the hundreds who gathered in city hall plaza, New York, to picket Winston Churchill, wartime prime minister of Britain who was within the building receiving the official welcome to New York City. Picket signs protested Churchill's anti-Soviet speech delivered in Fulton, Missouri. Meanwhile Winnipeg, well-guarded by police, rode up Broadway to the plaudits of those who were out in the rain.

Paris Bluebeard Death Sentenced

PARIS—The Paris bluebeard, Doctor Marcel Petiot, has been found guilty and condemned to death. Petiot had claimed during his trial that the killings he admitted were carried out for patriotic purposes during the German occupation of France.

Body of Battered Movie Worker Found After Muni's 'Hell' Party

HOLLYWOOD (CP)—Authorities leaned today toward the theory of accident in the death of a 31-year-old studio set worker whose battered body was found below a movie lot backdrop after a party on a set representing hell in papier-mache. The victim was Edward Gray, father of three.

Gray's body was found on a set where Paul Muni and played host Wednesday night to workers on the picture "Angel on My Shoulder," a film about a crook who goes to hell.

The backdrop beneath which Gray was found was 65 feet high.

Condition Of Highway

Latest road reports to reach the city from various sections of the Prince Rupert Highway indicate that it may not be very long now until the only major obstruction to highway connection of this city with the outside world will be the big snowslide just west of Kwinitza on the Skeena River about four miles from here. When the highway will be open for through traffic will evidently depend on the expedition with which that slide is cleared up.

The road from Terrace eastward to Hazelton, which has been blocked by heavy snows pretty near all winter, will be reopened to traffic next week following recent plowing operations, according to Douglas Frizzell, Prince Rupert Automobile Association representative, who returned last week from a trip to the interior.

This side of Terrace replacement of the Shames bridge, which had been badly damaged and carried out of place by flood waters months ago, has been completed and snow having been plowed, can now be reached from Terrace.

Between Shames and Kwinitza heavy snow still lies on the road. From this end, the summit at Rainbow Lake is now accessible but for about a mile and a half

"CANADA DAY" BILL PASSES

OTTAWA—The House of Commons is finished with the bill which would change the name of Dominion Day—July 1—to Canada Day. The House gave third reading last night to the bill—but only after one of the most heated and noisiest debates of this session.

The bill was sponsored by a Liberal member—Phileas Cote of Matapedia-Matane. It drew statements from Progressive-Conservative members that it was a political bill and even the ranks of the Liberal party split on the issue.

The bill now goes to the Senate.

Condition Of Highway

Latest road reports to reach the city from various sections of the Prince Rupert Highway indicate that it may not be very long now until the only major obstruction to highway connection of this city with the outside world will be the big snowslide just west of Kwinitza on the Skeena River about four miles from here. ### Miller Bay Hospital Will Be Major Health Factor In North

A major health factor in the northern-central B.C. area is ready to open its doors within a few miles of Prince Rupert as soon as a staff is available to operate it. It is the new 150-bed Miller Bay Indian hospital, reconverted from an air force casualty hospital at a cost of many thousands of dollars.

Physical arrangements for the hospital, which was converted into a post-war centre for the treatment of tuberculous patients from about 10,000 of the province's 26,000 Indians at least partly because of agitation by the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce, are in their final stages.

A trip through the new hospital gives convincing evidence that it will play a full part in the treatment of many native people ravaged by the dread scourge of tuberculosis.

Dr. J. D. Galbraith, director of the Miller Bay Hospital, and the man who for almost a year has been struggling to see it opened, says that it will bring to about 400 the number of hospital beds available in the province for the treatment of T.B. among natives.

Only a shortage of nurses, he says, will keep it from receiving its first patients within the next month. That difficulty, he is confident, will be solved, too.

He promises that, when the hospital is officially opened, there will be some sort of a "do"—probably a formal reception—for the people of nearby Prince Rupert.

PRINCE RUPERT SPEAKERS BOARD TRADE AT TERRACE; ROAD TALK

TERRACE—Guest speakers at the regular monthly meeting of the Terrace and District Board of Trade on Tuesday evening were Douglas Frizzell and H. Young of Prince Rupert who came as representatives of the British Columbia Automobile Association. Mr. Frizzell was the first speaker and, in an interesting manner, he outlined the scope of the organization and the great benefits to be derived by being a member. It was his hope that an early branch would soon be organized in Terrace to work in cooperation with Prince Rupert and other northern branches on matters of mutual concern. Mr.

Young spoke on the same topic and both speakers were heartily applauded.

A discussion of motoring led to some spirited remarks and speeches on the vexing matter of roads. The general feeling here is one of indignation and impatience. C. M. Adam, in a strong address, reminded the people present that roads are absolutely vital to Terrace. Its industries and its hopes of getting tourists to come this way depended absolutely on good roads. He was convinced the snowslide at Kwinitza could be overcome if government would tackle the job. He had seen worse obstructions to traffic overcome during his residence at Stewart where the snowfall is extremely heavy.

C. E. McAdams gave an interesting report on his recent interview with members of the government. Although he was well received in Victoria, he had come away with the feeling that the officials there did not sufficiently realize the vital need to this part of B.C. is the re-opening of the highway. They made much of the legal tangle consequent on the overlapping of titles to the road. One or two speakers pointed out that the railway is supposed to be a government-owned affair and there should not be any insurmountable reason why the highway should not be cleared at once and made passable to traffic. The matter could be discussed more fully with Hon. E. T. Kenney when he came up from Victoria this summer.

A telegram from the Hon. E. T. Kenney stated that there had been no repudiation of the Skeena Highway by the provincial government and stated that the best interests of the people of the north were in his mind with regard to this matter.

R. G. Bishop, divisional superintendent of the Dominion Telegraph Service, wrote stating that long distance telephone facilities could be expected in Terrace within the near future, probably through the Canadian National Railways.

A letter from M. Sutherland of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation at Revelstoke stated that the CBC broadcasting programs were now coming through by way of Prince George (Continued on Page 6)

UNITED STATES AND ARGENTINA

Relations May Be Affected by New Latin-American Deal
WASHINGTON—Some changes may be made in the United States policy toward Argentina. No specific points were outlined last night by a member of the American Senate foreign relations committee.

The United States will re-examine its intention of holding itself aloof from Latin-American domestic political affairs.

The United States will support a "truly collective handling of international affairs" leading the American republics.

From now on, State Secretary Acheson is said to have declared, America will seek a new era of neighbor understanding with the other Americas.

CAMPAIGN FOR PLAN ELECTION

TEHRAN—Leftist party candidates began yesterday campaigning for the next Parliamentary elections as Russian troops were reported moving out of Iran in a manner which a government spokesman described as satisfactory. Under Iranian law elections cannot be held as long as foreign troops remain on Iranian soil.

STRIKE BY NOT LAST WHICH LONGER

NEW YORK—Government officials are looking forward fully toward an end of the country's major labor dispute—work stoppage of 400,000 American Federation of Labor soft coal miners.

Greek Regent Has Resigned

ATHENS—Archbishop Damaskinos, regent of Greece, has cabled his resignation to King George II of Greece who is at present in exile in Britain. The resignation was in accordance with an earlier pledge by the regent that he would resign immediately after the elections held last Sunday.

Damaskinos stayed in office long enough to swear in a new coalition cabinet of Royalist "Populists" and the centre bloc under Panayotis, a non-party man, as the new Prime Minister.

U.N.O.'s New Lease On Life

The Iranian crisis in the United Nations Security Council has been at least temporarily hurdled with Russia's pledge to remove her troops from Iran and adjust other matters in dispute to the satisfaction of the time being at least of the Iranian government. The breach in the Council's ranks, which opened a week ago with the walkout of Soviet Ambassador Andrei Gromyko, may not be completely healed but the World Peace Organization has at least a new lease of life. However, the case shall remain one of international concern for some time, it is expected. Gromyko's letter to the Council yesterday, giving assurance that all Soviet troops will be evacuated from Iran by May 6 and that the removal is not connected in any way with negotiations between the two countries on oil or any other subjects, at least puts the Soviet on definite record.

Winch and Women's Institutes

Harold Winch, C.C.F. Leader of the Opposition in the provincial legislature, has seen fit to criticize the Women's Institutes of British Columbia as being the disseminators of anti-C.C.F. propaganda, suggesting that, if they and the Farmers' Institutes are to be given increased grants, there should be assurance that they should not be permitted to engage in political activity. When Mr. Winch speaks along this line, it is to be supposed that somewhere in this province, although we do not believe it is in this part of the country, there has been something said or done in a Women's Institute that has not suited the C.C.F. The only government-sponsored organizations which we know much of right here in Prince Rupert are the co-operatives and, if there is anything anti-C.C.F. about them, it is, to say the least of it, very difficult to discern.

If Mr. Winch is really sincere in his opposition to such government-sponsored organizations as the Women's Institutes being used as instruments for political promotion including, of course, the C.C.F., there will be little quarrel about the matter.

Welcome Relief Coming

It is very satisfactory to hear both from the mayor and Ald. Robert McKay that we may expect some real work to be done this season in Prince Rupert in the way of street improvements, both indicating that the organization and equipment are now such that much-needed attention may be effectively given. The street users of Prince Rupert—both motor and pedestrian—although sorely tried, have been exceedingly patient for there is no doubt that Prince Rupert's streets and sidewalks have during the past few years deteriorated until they are about the "world's worst." Now it is gratifying indeed to be assured that, before many more months elapse, there will be some real relief for our poor shattered nerves, our shaken vehicles and our tortured feet.

We Have Some Ideas

"What Prince Rupert Needs" series of competition letters which the Daily News has been presenting has, we believe, caused a lot of people to think along useful lines and express through our paper some thoughts which may prove of use in developing new community ideas, some of which may result in directly or indirectly action along desired lines. This sign of community thinking is a healthy one, indeed, and something which cannot but help having a cumulatively beneficial effect.

Here at the Daily News office we had begun to think there were very few people who had a thought or a care for anything else but their own little businesses and affairs. The response to the "What Prince Rupert Needs" contest has now convinced us that there are quite a few who are really giving serious thought to ways and means of community advancement along a diversity of lines.

Incidentally, the judges will soon be getting together to make their choices of the winners in the contest.

POLICIES OF MINES DEP'T

Smithers Does Not See Eye to Eye with Stewart—Coal Bunkers Discussed

SMITHERS—At a recent meeting of the Smithers District Chamber of Commerce considerable discussion took place over a request of the Stewart Board of Trade that the Deputy Minister of Mines, Dr. Walker, be asked to resign his position. This was investigated thoroughly by the Bureau of Mines of the organization and it was the decision that the Stewart Board of Trade was after the wrong man. The responsibility for the policy rested with the Department of Mines and Dr. Walker was only responsible for carrying out instructions issued by this department. However the chamber wrote the Premier asking that the Coal and Petroleum Act of 1944 be revised so as to enable small operators to open operations instead of having the Act read so that the cost would be prohibitive to them.

In view of the lack of facilities for handling coal at Prince Rupert, the meeting decided that they would table the request from the Associated Boards of Trade that the Ground Hog Coal area be developed. It was felt by the meeting that there was sufficient coal in sight in the Telkwa area without going to further fields to develop new mines until such time as bunkering facilities were installed to handle the output of the presently developed mines.

C. P. Bussinger at Telkwa reported that he had attended a meeting of the highway committee of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce which had been addressed by George McAdam vice-President of the Associated Boards, on the subject of the Prince Rupert Highway. Mr. Bussinger informed the meeting that Mr. McAdams had received a promise from the Hon. Herbert Anscomb, Minister of Public Works, that the highway would be maintained by the provincial government so that it would be passable but the province would not undertake to maintain it as a first class highway until such time as its ownership was clarified.

WHAT
Prince Rupert Needs
(Being one of a series of suggestions by readers of the Daily News for the betterment of this city).

May I take this opportunity to congratulate the Daily News on this splendid contest by which the minds of the public are directed to think constructively about Prince Rupert.

Of the many excellent suggestions already received, I should like to enlarge upon one, namely the tourist trade.

During the war years Prince Rupert has made good friends among the troops and civilian personnel from all over the world. These emissaries of goodwill are going forth to sing the praises of "The Garden City by the Sea." We must expect tourists by water, rail, road and eventually by air. We must be ready to strike while the iron is hot. Steamship and train services must be adequate. The roads must be maintained in good condition. Hotel, restroom, tourist park, station accommodation must be commodious and modern.

In the days before the war a large sign greeted the passenger from the boats—"Where to Go and What to See in Prince Rupert." To this may be added a welcome arch, souvenir pamphlets and folders, taxis and sight-seeing buses to meet the visitors.

Our beautiful parks with their totem poles right in the heart of the city are a constant delight to visitors. The parks need attention after six years of war. The totem poles need repairing and painting. One pole must be replaced on the crest of the hill. Two carved sea gulls are missing from the crown of one of the poles and a lace has been gouged out of another. Corresponding legends should be attached to each pole.

The Museum of Northern British Columbia should be re-opened to the public. It was indeed a great disappointment to many of the Americans stationed here during the war that they were unable to see the treasures of the north. Now that the war is over and material is again available, we must either find a suitable building or repair the present building which is both central to town and convenient to tourists from the boat. A museum commentator is an asset.

Our former "Port Day" could be resumed and expanded into the "Prince Rupert Sports Day." We should advertise well in advance and expect visitors from points as far distant as Prince George and Ketchikan, Alaska. The basketball and boxing championships could be won here, also baseball as well as the traditional water sports and boat racing with a large dance in the evening. The colorful native bands would be in attendance throughout the day.

We would do well to emulate the smaller towns in planning some celebration at least for the children on holidays such as May 24 and July 1. Prince Rupert needs more public spirited citizens like the Kin-men who made such a contribution to the happiness of the little folk last July 1.

Prince Rupert needs more holiday fun for the children—a safe bathing beach, water taxis or barges to ferry picnic parties to the Salt Lakes, Digby Island or Tagwell.

These suggestions are offered in a spirit of helpfulness, with pride in the past and faith in the future of Prince Rupert.

E. MORTIMER.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

April 4, 1921

The Canadian Scottish, first vessel to be launched by Wallace Shipyards Ltd. at the Prince Rupert dry dock, was scheduled to slide into the water some time in May. About 450 men were employed at the dry dock.

The C.P.R. took an option on the Mackenzie and Mann short line running out of Stewart with the intention of extending it to the Groundhog coal fields.

Col. Cy Peck, M.P., informed the Board of Trade in a letter that he had asked the minister of public works to make a survey of Cow Bay with a view to having it deepened and had also requested the opinion of the provincial government on the matter.

LEGION LADIES MAKE PLANS FOR "WELCOME" FETE

Preliminary plans for the veterans' "Welcome" celebration were laid last night at the regular meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion with the appointment of a catering committee for the function which will be held sometime this month.

The committee consists of Mrs. A. Guyan, Mrs. H. Smith, sr., Mrs. F. Gomez, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. H. Smith, jr., and Mrs. Miller. Mrs. Guyan and Mrs. Dan Parent, Auxiliary president, were appointed to interview the men's organization to co-ordinate arrangements.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

A. How can I destroy any taste of baking powder when making biscuits?

A. Add a teaspoonful of sugar and it will destroy any taste of baking powder. Buttermilk is always a good substitute for fresh milk when making biscuits.

Q. How can I whiten the teeth?

A. Apply peroxide of hydrogen, diluted with one-half water. Or clean with prepared chalk and orris root every morning and night.

Q. Can I use laundry starch that is left over?

A. Yes, by allowing it to settle and dry, and then putting back in the package to use again.

Coming here to open the Bay Hospital last year. As well as re-designing the interior of the building, Dr. Galbraith was responsible for equipment with all the varied paraphernalia necessary to a modern institution. This included everything from a huge machine which gives films three dimensional effect, to kitchen utensils and dining tables. An emergency power plant as it already has done. The regular power source was carried out during the period when equipment was made even the high-priorities seem useless at the time, and consequently made the hospital an endless job. In addition, staff quarters for 80 people had to be arranged for a trip to Eastern Canada last summer for the purpose of acquiring equipment. Galbraith visited some of the most modern sanitariums, and he believes that for equipment and arrangement, the new Miller Bay Hospital is favorably with them.

criticism of the hospital's position in regard to climate will find support in medical circles. Dr. Galbraith says, because modern treatment of tuberculosis is surgical and medical—eliminating the old belief that so-called "healthy" climates can release lungs.

Wards of physical structure, the hospital is divided into five main serving men, women, boys and girls, with a special ward for patients requiring treatment of special nature. The rooms have capacity from two to 12 beds.

of both the boys' and girls' wards are rooms that can be used as classrooms for children who are well enough to take lessons. The beds can be rolled into the "classroom" and the nearby wards.

the kitchen, which is equipped with shining stainless steel and heavy aluminum equipment. It has two huge walk-in refrigerators, one of which was installed when the air force built the hospital. The second was put in by Dr. Galbraith.

Special dishwashers and sterilizers are used for the patients' dishes. Food is taken to the patients in "food wagons" which can be taken to the ward kitchens from the main kitchen, or right to the wards.

The staff quarters are sufficient to house more than a dozen nurses as well as maids, nurses aids and other assistants. These were all re-converted from their original Air Force layout and show the result of clever planning.

In addition to Dr. Galbraith there will be two resident doctors plus an administrative staff. The hospital is operated by the Department of National Health and Welfare, which took over responsibility for Indian health on April 1. The hospital will serve the northern part of the province as far east as Prince George.

TAKING HER CARGO BACK

Princess Norah Unable to Discharge at Juneau Owing to Longshoremen's Strike

Undelayed after all by the C.I.O. longshoremen's strike at Juneau and Ketchikan, C.P.R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. P. L. Leslie, was in port yesterday afternoon southbound from Skagway to Vancouver. She still had on board cargo destined for Juneau which the longshoremen there would not handle. Cargo for Ketchikan had been unloaded Sunday night northbound as the strike had not started until Monday. Skagway longshoremen being A.F.L.-affiliated and not on strike, the Norah's cargo for that port was handled normally.

The Norah reported two American steamers tied up at Ketchikan because of the strike and one at Juneau.

HOW AIRMEN WERE KILLED

AURICH, Germany— One of the three former German soldiers facing a murder charge before a Royal Canadian Air Force tribunal in Aurich, Germany, has testified that, although he was present at the shooting of an R.C.A.F. prisoner of war, he deliberately fired his weapon wide of the mark.

The statement was made in court yesterday by Walter Weigel accused jointly with Robert Holzer and Wilhelm Ossenbach of killing an unnamed Canadian airman captured in Opladen in the Rhur in March, 1945.

Weigel said there was a general rumor at Opladen, where he had been stationed as a first aid worker, that three Canadian fliers who had bailed out of their planes were to be killed on the orders of an officer named Schaefer. Weigel described how Schaefer ordered him, Holzer and Ossenbach to take the last of the trio to the woods outside of town. Weigel said he drew his pistol and fired wide. Having missed the airman, Schaefer then told Weigel to shoot and after that had been done, drew his own

TERRACE BOARD OF TRADE

rather than along the coast and that she would try to get booster equipment installed along this line. While in Ottawa, she would see about it.

A letter from Victoria with regard to a recent request to have the Kalum Road be made into a number two highway stated the government has no control over the territory beyond 30 feet on either side of the road. The suggestion was being made to the Public Works Department that this area be cleared immediately so that the part adjacent to the road could dry out.

Letters were received from the Smithers Chamber of Commerce and the Burns Lake Board of Trade. The Terrace Board of Trade is to stand back of these bodies in their desire to have the proposed highway to Alaska go north through Hazelton.

A letter from W. H. Currie, assistant commissioner of the Government Travel Bureau in Victoria asking what special exhibitions, etc., Terrace would be featuring this summer. The list is to be put in various publications for the benefit of tourists and in this way Terrace will receive valuable publicity.

A letter from Jerry Matheson, director of Pro-Rec for B.C., in which he stated that he would not be able to come to Terrace before April 10 but was sending some literature dealing with the formation of a Pro-Rec centre. C. W. Michiel, Dr. S. Mills, A. Yoxall and Mrs. C. J. Norrington were appointed as a committee to deal with this matter.

Harry King is Honored

Mirthsome Musical Showing
This Week-end at Capitol Theatre

With Ed (Archie) Gardner of radio fame as the central figure hobnobbing with Hollywood greats, "Duffy's Tavern," converted into a highly entertaining musical screen comedy, is being featured this week-end at the Capitol Theatre here and is to be recommended for all those who may be seeking a couple of hours of really mirthful relaxation.

The story, embellished with plenty of comedy and music, revolves around the peculiar misadventures of the good-hearted Archie who uses Duffy's Tavern to feed 14 unemployed ex-servicemen. The result is a $1200 deficit and how a big benefit show is staged to square the debt provides the vehicle for much novel entertainment involving many of the famous moving picture stars.

Besides Gardner's own popular radio party — Charlie Cantor (Finnegan), Ann Thomas (Miss Duffy) and Eddie Green (the waiter), the movie stars taking part include Bing Crosby, Betty Hutton, Paulette Goddard, Alan Ladd, Dorothy Lamour, Eddie
