BOXING DAY AT CIVIC CENTRE

Nearly Two Thousand Persons Crowded Auditorium and Gymnasium

Feature events of the first hristmas season at Prince Rupert's Civic Centre were on Boxing Day when the Sons of Norway occupied the auditorium in the afternoon with their children's Christmas party and in the evening with their adults' dance. Simultaneously in the evening the first of the Kayhi-Bo-Me-Hi international High School basketball series was proceeding. Between the afternoon Yuletide colors. Such was the January 5 (midnight)— Boris and evening events it is estimated that some 1800 persons visited the centre.

The children's party of the Sons of Norway in the afternoon was featured by singing of carols in English and Norwegian and dancing around the Christmas tree with Santa Claus paying a visit to distribute gifts. There was a great crowd at the dance in the evening when national dances were interspersed with modern. Buffet refreshments were served. John Fredheim was chairman of the committee in
