Ingersoll Answered

General Eisenhower Pays Tribute to Montgomery and Great—Great Allied Coordination
WASHINGTON — General Dwight D. Eisenhower, in a statement regarded as a refutation of criticisms by Ingersoll of lack of Allied co-ordination and effectiveness of British assistance in the invasion of Europe, before the Rhine was crossed by "Allied teamwork and German mistakes." The great forces worked in the best of harmony.
Eisenhower pays tribute to General Montgomery's "masterful handling" of the Battle of Caen and gives great credit to the fighting of the Canadians at Caen and Falaise.
The services of General H. G. Crerar, Canadian commander-in-chief, are mentioned on several occasions.

ROBE NATIVE MAN'S DEATH

Investigation was conducted today by Coroner M. M. Louth into the death of Fair-weather of Ernest Louth, 23-year-old Metlakatla native, whose body was discovered in the harbor at Metlakatla several hours after he had disappeared from a small cannery boat moored there. The drowning was said to have been accidental. Louth's body was found in the harbor by Metlakatla villagers who got in touch with the provincial police in the city. Louth, apparently, had fallen from the boat several days before his body was found.

TRIBUTE PAID DECORATION CEREMONY

Tribute to the fallen of two world wars was renewed Sunday afternoon at the cenotaph of the veterans' plot at Fair-weather Cemetery when more than 200 members of the Imperial War, Daughters of the Empire, Canadian Legion, and Legion Women's Auxiliary, observed the Queen Mary Chapter's Decoration Day with simple, dignified ceremony.
At the cenotaph in Court Square, wreaths were laid by Mrs. D. C. Stuart, regent of Imperial Chapter, I.O.D.E., and Ralph Smith, Canadian Legion, in a brief ceremony of formation. They then motorized to Fairview Cemetery.
Standing on two sides of the veterans' plot, the memorial rite was continued with the singing of "O Canada," after which a prayer was delivered by Mrs. J. Teng, regent of Queen Mary Chapter. This was followed by the playing of the "Last Post" by Bugler James Hebb of Prince Rupert Corps of Sea Cadets.
Following two minutes of silence, "Reveille" was sounded by Hebb and Rev. A. F. MacSweeney delivered a Decoration Day address.
Rev. Mr. MacSweeney appealed for a sincere effort in behalf of world peace in order that countless more men and women should not have to sacrifice their lives in future wars.
Members of the I.O.D.E. and Legion Auxiliary then placed small flags on the veterans' graves while Legion members placed poppies at the headstones. The ceremony concluded with the singing of "O God, Our Father in Ages Past" and "God Save the King."

"SLASHER" HITS AGAIN IN EAST

WINDSOR, Ont. — Alexander H. G. Wainwright, 29, was critically stabbed in the back by an assailant who police believe is the same person sought for several fatal slayings last August. Search has been intensified for a man known as "the slasher," who terrorized the city last summer. An eight-year-old boy named Volney Davis was nearly hit as he sat on a park bench.

BUDDY OF JACK OSBORNE V.C. TELLS OF EXPERIENCES AFTER HONG KONG; STILL SUFFERING FROM BERI-BERI

Mess' buddy of Company Sergeant-Major Jack Osborne, who was posthumously awarded the Victoria Cross for gallantry at Hong Kong which cost him his own life but which saved many of his comrades on December 14, 1941, as the Winnipeg Grenadiers fought gallantly against great odds to save the crown colony from the Japanese onslaught, Company Sergeant-Major Frank Logan, still suffering from the effects of beri-beri developing during four years of imprisonment and mistreatment by the Japanese after the fall of Hong Kong, is a visitor in the city with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ashbury, 1136 Hays Cove Avenue. He arrived last Wednesday and will spend two weeks. Osborne served as sergeant-major of "A" Company at Hong Kong. Logan was sergeant-major of "C" Company.
C.S.M. Logan today weighs 138 pounds as he continues gradual recovery from the effects of those trying years of privation and abuse in the hands of the Nipponese. At one time, when occupying a dungeon under a guardroom at Stanley Prison, Hong Kong, where he had been thrown because some of the men of his company had made their escape, he went as low as 105 pounds while suffering from dysentery.

AUSTRIA PLAN IS REJECTED

Still Disagreement On Question of Trieste
PARIS — An American informant said today that the council of foreign ministers has rejected Austria's demand to take part of the southern Tyrol from Italy but was unable to agree on the Italian-French frontier issue.
The Austrian demand would have given the new republic control of the strategic Pusterthal railroad. The ministers plan to discuss the French-Italian border question later.
Foreign Commissar Molotov of Russia sought postponement of the French-Italian issue while American and British conferees insisted on an immediate decision.
Hope for solution of the troublesome Trieste question, key to the Italian peace treaty, mounted amid reports that British, United States and Russian delegates were considering a compromise plan put forward by France for a ten-year international government followed by a plebiscite to choose between Italy and Yugoslavia.

Vets, Leaving Wives, Going To Sweethearts

OTTAWA — Common's external affairs committee today considered a telegram from the Edmonton branch, Canadian Legion, claiming that veterans were deserting their wives and returning to sweethearts overseas.
The telegram said that this movement is being facilitated by the Canadian passport office which claimed that it could not interfere with the civil rights of individuals by refusing to issue passports.
The message added that the wives and children of veterans in Canada also had civil rights and that steps should be taken to prevent the issuance of such passports.

'Quake Stopped Hens Laying; Cows Bellow

NEW WESTMINSTER — Fraser Valley farmers say that yesterday's earthquake disturbed farm animals. Hens failed to lay eggs. Cattle began to bellow.

LAKE SHIPS ARE MOVING

TORONTO — Big freighters of Canada's inland waterways moved today through inter-lake canals and took up the job of handling vital cargoes of grain, coal and ore as Captain E. S. Brand, recently appointed federal controller, took command of the strikebound fleets. All the ships which had been tied up by the 26-day strike were on the move.

Builds Up Business In Aussie Textiles

SYDNEY, Australia — Mrs. John Granger, an attractive Irishwoman who settled in Sydney in 1938, recently opened a weaving school and textile business here. On Australian-built looms, designed by her husband, John, an English weaver, she makes tapestries, suit lengths, damasks and draperies to her own designs. Orders pour in from all parts of Australia and New Zealand for her pre-shrunk woolen textiles, and it is Mrs. Granger's ambition to export her clothes overseas. When the Grangers came to Australia, they realized the possibilities of soft, staple Australian marine wool for fabrics and draperies, and experimented with one loom. Now they have 10. Mrs. Granger takes classes of five people at a time for 10-week courses. Most of her pupils later buy a loom for themselves, and some of them have already started businesses of their own.

PASSING OF BILL HART

Wild West Star of Early Moving Pictures Dies at Advanced Age
LOS ANGELES — William S. Hart, steely-eyed "Wild West" movie actor, died last night. Hospital records gave his age as 63 but studio records say that he was 75.
At Hart's bedside was Hart's son, William S. Jr., who last Thursday was appointed co-guardian with George Frost of the actor's person. He had charged his father was being improperly cared for and incapable of managing his own affairs.
The Hart estate is valued at nearly $1,000,000.

MAY RETAIN COMMISSION

OTTAWA — Defence headquarters today announced that war veteran officers and non-commissioned officers could retain their rank in the reserve army. Pay of the rank will be granted for each day of training within limits prescribed for the reserve army. Overseas combat officers will be given the preference.

Practice Atomic Bomb Is Dropped

ABOARD USS MOUNT MCKINLEY — An atomic practice bomb was dropped on Bikini atoll Monday. A ball of flame bursting from the bomb close to the centre of the target fleet punctuated the final rehearsal for the real test scheduled for July 1.

SOVIET AFFIRMS RIGHT OF VETO

MOSCOW — The Soviet newspaper Pravda said today that Soviet Russia never will surrender its veto power in any atomic control plan and said that the United States proposal for control of the weapon "reflects an evident striving for world rule."
Pravda said that such striving could not succeed, adding that the essence of the Soviet proposal was "prohibition of production and use of atomic bombs."

RUBBER PLANTS STRIKE BOUND

TORONTO — A strike for higher wages, called by the United Rubber Workers of America, started today at three rubber plants in the Toronto area and two at Kitchener. It threatens to embrace 9,000 rubber workers in eleven Ontario factories.
The union has been negotiating for several months with the rubber industry, seeking a 40-hour week and 20 cents an hour increase in pay. Most of the companies affected produce tires.

SOUTH AFRICAN BIRTH RATE UP

CAPETOWN — For the year ended June 1945, the birth rate among Europeans in South Africa was the highest since 1923, according to the annual report of the department of public health. The birth rate among Europeans was 26.63 per 100 and the death rate of 9.33 per 1,000 is the lowest on record.
The infantile mortality rate of 42.53 per 1,000 live births and the maternal mortality rate of 2.20, were also the lowest on record.

PRINTERS WILL PUBLISH THEIR OWN NEWS SHEET

VANCOUVER — A spokesman for the striking composing room employees of the Vancouver Daily Province said that they expect to have the first edition of their own publication, the Typo Times, on the streets today.

THE WEATHER

Vancouver Island Town of Courtenay Suffers Heavily

Disturbance Felt at Terrace and Port Essington But Not in Prince Rupert—Rumbler Also Shook Vancouver, Victoria

ONE FREAK FATALITY

VANCOUVER (CP)—Daniel Fidler, 50, Vancouver fisherman was drowned off Vancouver Island Sunday as a result of the most serious earthquake in British Columbia in recent years. Fidler lost his life when his dinghy was overturned by a huge wave caused when the 'quake shook loose a land promontory which thundered into the sea. Fidler's companion, Robert Annal, also of Vancouver saved himself by grasping the rail of the boat which was towing the dinghy. A section of the promontory 250 by 200 feet slid into the sea near Campbell River.

There have been no reports of Prince Rupert having felt Sunday morning's earthquake shock which shook Vancouver Island and the southern mainland but Terrace, Port Essington and Courtenay are reported to have noticed a considerable damage was done in the south.

INDIA CONGRESS REJECTS PLAN

NEW DELHI — The All-India Congress party working committee today rejected a proposal for an interim government for India as proposed on June 16 by the British cabinet mission and Viceroy Lord Wavell. However, it is believed that the working committee is inclined to accept the mission's long term proposals issued last night which call for an independent union of all India.
While a wireless operator at Digby Island station was working Bull Harbor station at the north end of Vancouver Island, the Bull Harbor operator interrupted his transmission at 9:14 a.m. when his hand was shaken by the earthquake. He came back with the inquiry to Digby Island: "Did you feel that?" The local operator had perceived nothing but was thus advised by the Bull Harbor man of the disturbance.
Across a wide stretch of British Columbia the earthquake, the heaviest in years, rumbled, taking property toll at Courtenay, Vancouver Island, where walls of buildings collapsed, crashing into the streets. The tremor of thirty seconds duration extended from Olympia, Washington, to Kelowna, 200 miles east of Vancouver.

FEAR FISHERMAN FELL OVERBOARD

WEST VANCOUVER — Police said today that they believe P. R. Geddes, 68-year-old fisherman, was drowned after falling from his trolling boat Mickey Finn. The vessel was found around late Friday afternoon with the motor running.

PROVINCIAL POLITICS

NEITHER provincial Liberals nor provincial Progressive-Conservative organization of each party under its distinct identity—provided the influence of both is pooled in the interests of what now may be called the Hart-Ansecomb Coalition administration, comments Victoria Times. What course of action the two old-line parties pursue in the federal field is another matter altogether. One of these days there may be a general sorting out—an examination of partisan nomenclature to determine who is what. The final disposition might yield many surprises. Nothing in the foregoing is intended to discount the belief of Liberals and Progressive-Conservatives in the Dominion field that a clear line of demarcation distinguishes the competing political philosophies in certain basic particulars. We are merely emphasizing the fact that in purely British Columbia politics no such conflict exists between the followers of Mr. Hart and the followers of Mr. Ansecomb.

On the other hand, any concerted attempt to form a rigid Coalition Party would send the lukewarm adherents to the present effective arrangement back to their private tents, there to lay plans for the old-fashioned, time-wasting squabbles on the hustings and in the Legislature. That such a course would be repugnant to the majority of the people of British Columbia is obvious; at the general election last October they had their choice—Coalition versus the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation—and they elected two-thirds of the Legislature pledged to support the Hart-Maitland administration. The opposition party knows that public opinion has not changed in the meantime; but Mr. Winch and his supporters, in and out of the House, are hoping somebody will take the ball from Mr. Bennett and press for an unnecessary Coalition Party.

SWIMMING SAFELY

BRITISH COLUMBIA has a record of 125 or more deaths annually by drowning. Many of these occur in the course of bathing and, by taking simple and well known precautions, could be avoided. With the swimming season now on again in the current warm sunny days and those to come, some of these rules might bear repetition at this time:

1. Wait at least two hours after eating a regular meal before going swimming.
2. Stay out of water if you are over-heated.
3. Do not swim alone unless absolutely necessary.
4. Do not test your swimming ability by swimming far from shore unless accompanied by a boat; swim along the shoreline.
5. If you experience distress in the water, do not struggle frantically, use common sense; tread, float or swim on your back while signaling for help.
6. Never jokingly call for help from the water.
7. When attempting to make a water rescue use a boat, a pole, a rope or a ring buoy. Remember, a swimming rescue is a last resort even for trained life guards.
8. Learn how to perform artificial respiration and practice it regularly.

FAMILY TO CELEBRATE

Reunion to Mark Occasion of Birthday of A. E. Dickens on Thursday

Forty-three members of a well known and popular local family will foregather on Thursday of this week in a self-sufficient reunion when the seventieth birthday of Albert Edward Dickens Sr., 219 Ninth Avenue West, is observed. The gathering will include, besides Mr. and Mrs. Dickens, who were married 48 years ago come July 30 in Edmonton, (London), England, nine children, 21 grandchildren, one great grandchild and sundry "in-laws." All are permanent residents of Prince Rupert.

Mr. Dickens, who was born in London, England, and served in the Royal Air Force in World War I, came to Prince Rupert 22 years ago with his family. He has lived here continuously since and a few years ago was supernumerated from the mechanical department of the Canadian National Railways. More recently he was employed with the United States government during the war and is at present in the service of the War Assets Corporation. Bearing his years lightly, he is keen and active and is prominent still in athletic and Canadian Legion circles. Mrs. Dickens is 69 years old and matches her husband in sustained sprightliness and deferred youth.

Principals at the birthday party will include the children of Mr. and Mrs. Dickens—Mrs. S. E. (Elvina) Alexander, Mrs. William (Emily) Rothwell, Mrs. Edward (Rose) Morrow, Mrs. Jack (May) Bond, Albert (Sonny) Dickens, Sidney Dickens, Henry Dickens, Mrs. Percy (Edna) Bond and Mrs. Frank (Betty) Gomez. The great-grandchild is Dorothy Elliott, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott and grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bond.

until January 17, 1942. Then they were removed to Nagasaki and Yokohama in Japan to work in a shipyard until April 1945. Thence they went to the iron mines at Ohasi where the Japanese surrender and the end of the war found them, later going home by way of Guam and San Francisco.

The fact of being a sergeant-major, Logan explained in an interview with the Daily News, made him somewhat of a "goat" for the Japs would hold him responsible for the conduct of his men. It was for that reason, therefore, that, ill as he was, he was thrown into prison at Hong Kong for three months for "neglect of duty" in "permitting" the escape of some of his men. Incidentally, the escaped men were later picked up and shot summarily. The trial of Logan for allowing them to escape was an absentia affair and little more than a joke as far as fairness was concerned. Part of the time was served in the underground dungeon with two other N.C.O.'s—a warrant officer and a staff sergeant.

It was soon after the dysentery that Logan developed the beri-beri, the malady due to lack of food and malnutrition from which most of the Grenadiers suffered in greater or lesser degree, some succumbing to it. As for Logan his body would swell up with unvoiced water until it was impossible to lie down. His face puffed up at times until he was unable to see out his eyes. In spite of this they had to keep working at manual labor and suffer beatings. Morning, noon and night they were fed boiled barley with vegetable tops at times, the diet for 500 men being rounded out with 12½ pounds of beef every two weeks.

Logan admitted that it was a wonder how so many of them survived—600 of the 927 Grenadiers who went out from Vancouver on the Awatea in October, 1941, living to come back.

"Very few of us have been able to work since we came back," said Logan. "Practically all of us had beri-beri and it is still recurring with many of us. Some of the boys developed blindness and joint trouble is a general complaint." Logan himself is still under Army pay and allowances while receiving continuing treatment.

SPOIL SCENERY; ARE RULED OUT

LONDON — Government control of unsightly outdoor advertisements is planned in Britain in future, and legislation to that effect will be introduced, Lewis Silkin, minister of town and country planning, told the Incorporated Society of British Advertisers.

Outdoor advertising had served a good purpose, he said, and had a great influence on the public, but it must not be allowed to spoil the amenities in either town or country.

In writing controlling legislation, the government was considering how it could be administered without interfering with advertising activities, he said. In the meantime advertisers do what they could to prevent the spread of unsightly advertisements.

Calvert - 1622 MEN OF VISION McGee-1858

In 1858 McGEE said:
"I see One Great Nation"

In 1622 CALVERT said:
"Preserve Unity...I see the Future"

OVER THREE CENTURIES ago, Calvert, famous English statesman and Secretary of State to King James I, founded pioneer colonies in Newfoundland and Maryland. Man of vision, Calvert 300 years ago foresaw prosperity and growth through united effort. "Be partners and assist your neighbours," he wisely counselled his early settlers. "They are men of high esteem."
Far back in the 17th century Calvert may well have envisioned Canada's rich promise as a great nation when he said, "I see the future... it is a good country." Calvert's ideals of unity have been shared by all men of vision through the centuries since Calvert's time. Today... all Canadians can be men of vision... work earnestly together to make Canada "one great nation."
Upon unity of purpose depends the full measure of our stature as a nation. There is only one Canada for clear-headed Canadians.

Mrs. and Mrs. W. H. Pettman and Premier were passengers on the Catala last night returning north after a holiday trip to Vancouver.

Mrs. C. P. Balagno returned to the city on the Catala last evening from a visit to Seattle. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Helen Balagno, who has been attending High School in Seattle for the past year, and Mrs. Balagno's two young grandsons who will spend a couple of months here.

Edward D. Orchard, pioneer employee of the Granby Co., who was at Phoenix and Grand Forks in the early days of the company's operation around the turn of the century and later was at Ansox for several years, is a passenger making the round trip north on the steamer Catala this week. Mr. Orchard, who has been living in retirement at Victoria for some years, is the father of Mrs. B. Walker, who was for many years a school teacher in Prince Rupert and is now in Vancouver.

One thing that should be settled at once with respect to the fastball games being played at the Gyro Ball Park is the official ruling on hits. In the series of the last few seasons the ruling was definite. There is a broad white line painted on the front of the rock in the right field. Any hit to the right of that and on top of the bank was automatically a two-bagger, and nothing more. A bill hitting the front of the bluff was good for as many bases as the player could make. Any hit to the left of the white line, whether on the bank or against the bluff, was good for as many bases as the runners could make. A similar ruling might be made this year. But in any case an official ruling should be made and umpires, captains and all players advised to this effect.

What a shame it is that so many youngsters climb on top of the official scoring booth. Already they have torn down the protective wire screening. It would be but justice if the offenders did get hit by fall balls. Who are to blame, the boys or their parents? In any event it is too bad that already so early in the season destruction by these thoughtless youngsters is ruining the good work of the Gyros and Parks Board.

SHORT SPORT

One of the most surprising things in the recent final of the English Association Football Cup must have been the bursting of the ball. The centre forward was just waiting for the ball to drop as it came from the wing and he was in such a favorable position, about 10 yards from the goal, that he could hardly have failed to score, when the ball swerved crazily away. The next thing he saw was Bartram, the goalkeeper, picking up the deflated ball and throwing it away.

Would it not be possible to have a grader or scraper run over the surface and prevent minor holes and roughness from becoming major ones, and so spoiling the ground for good ball playing?

Club of Egypt are to play for Huddersfield. They are to attend Leeds University and will play as amateurs until they finish their studies.

J. C. Parke, British tennis star, defeated Big Bill Tilden in straight sets at Wimbledon 26 years ago today. No, it wasn't an upset—because the American ace hadn't reached his peak at that time. In later years he swept all before him in the tennis world.

Joe Louis, just out of amateur ranks a year, stepped into the vanguard of heavyweight boxing title contenders with a technical knockout over Primo Carnera 11 years ago. The Brown Bomber swarmed all over the former world champion, smashing him down for keeps in the sixth round.

GREAT FALLS, Mont. ☉—One pair of nylons, one pair of rayons, three slips and six items loosely catalogued as "unmentionables" disappeared from a clothes-line recently and a woman's footprints were found at the scene.

A MESSAGE FOR THOSE WHO NEED TRAINED WORKERS

I recommend to you CANADA'S VETERANS . . .

To take full advantage of the great future possible for Canada, Canadian business will need men of courage and initiative—purposeful men of sound judgment. I know where such men may be found for I have worked with them, lived with them and fought with them. They are Canada's veterans and I am confident that the loyalty, initiative and unflinching determination which made them the best troops in the world, will also be the qualities so essential in Canada's business life.

Many are already skilled tradesmen, and many have a sound foundation of skills on which wise employers may build. I know of no better man-power supply in the world than the men and women from Canada's armed forces.

H. D. G. Crerar,
General

CONSIDER THESE SERVICE SKILLS

ARMY TRADE FITTER
Only one of 216 army trades, the trade fitter was trained to make and fit new or reworked parts of guns, power trains, gearing units, valves and machine tools. He had to follow simple sketches and blueprints, and among other duties, make parts from metal castings, forgings and stock. A knowledge of the working properties of steel and non-ferrous metals was essential. He typifies thousands of veterans available to industry today.

ELECTRICAL ARTIFICER
In the navy, this man maintained electrical navigation equipment, lighting systems, telephone switches and was a specialist in many naval electrical installations. He was a skilled machinist, qualified for general machine work and for manufacturing and repairing electrical equipment. With on-the-job training he would be capable of house and industrial wiring.

STATIONARY ENGINEER—R.C.A.F.
His duties were the installation, operation, overhaul and repair of all heating equipment used by the R.C.A.F. He had a knowledge of steam fitting, valves, pumps of all types and underground and overhead distribution systems. He holds a current provincial first, second or third class certificate. This is only one of the many specialized trades in the R.C.A.F.

Employers—USE THESE BOOKLETS

Many Canadian employers have these booklets. The National Employment Service and Department of Veterans Affairs offices will interpret them, and assist you in choosing veterans for your post-war jobs.

Service Skills Make GOOD Civilian Workers!

BISHOP CONFIRMS CANDIDATES; FIREMEN'S BALL BIG SUCCESS

Before a large gathering in the St. Mathew's Anglican Church on Saturday, Bishop J. B. Gibson of Prince Rupert confirmed twelve candidates. They were Marie Linstrom, Isla McMillan, Marjory Honke, Allan Dubeau, Norman McNabb, George Charles, Denis De Kerrgammeaux, Douglas Kushman, Lloyd Honke, Lawrence Kirkaldy and Ray Clifford. The Bishop was assisted by Rev. R. Hills and Rev. C. Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Cole arrived Saturday evening from Dayton, Ohio, and will be taking up residence at their Lake-else Lake home which they purchased from the late Norman A. Watt last fall.

Miss Ann Molitor, who has just completed a business course in Prince Rupert, joined the staff of E. T. Kenney Ltd. today.

Frank Morris has purchased 30 acres fronting on Kalum Street from John Desjardins Jr.

Oscar Johnstone, who recently purchased the Ackroyd place on Brian's Island, returned from a trip to Burns Lake district Thursday evening.

Inspector Greenwood, with Judge W. E. Fisher as a passenger, passed through Terrace on Friday afternoon. The inspector was back in Terrace on Saturday afternoon on his return up-country.

The Firemen's Ball, held in Terrace on Friday night to raise funds to cover the insurance for the volunteer firemen, was a great success. An exceptionally large crowd was in attendance.

NEW HAZELTON

Mrs. S. Gummow, Women's Institute organizer, spent a few days here recently, and was pleasantly impressed with her first visit to central British Columbia. Her tour was scheduled to include Burns Lake, Francois Lake, Houston and Prince George.

Residents of the Hazelton district attended a stampede at Kisplox witnessing the wild west spectacles which are part of a rodeo.

Mrs. C. H. Sawle was hostess at a farewell party for Miss Richards, for the last three years teacher at Hazelton public school.

POPULAR LOCAL COUPLE ARE WED

St. Paul's Lutheran Church
Scene of Pretty Ceremony

Centre of wide interest throughout the city Saturday evening was the marriage in St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Miss Violet Wick, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Wick, to Henry Eystein Wahl, eldest son of Edward Wahl of Digby Island and the late Miss Wahl. The rite was performed by Rev. A. O. Aasen before a gathering of friends which filled the church.

Beautiful in a white satin period gown with tulle decollete, bustle, and net veil of train length, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She carried a bouquet of crimson roses lending a colorful touch to her white ensemble.

Maid of honor was Miss Edith Muvold of New Westminster, a cousin of the bride, who wore a gown of pale mauve with double puff sleeves with short matching veil with sequins. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and carnations.

Lovely indeed were the two bridesmaids, Miss Peggy Clee and Miss Mary Skog, who wore similarly designed gowns in pale blue and pink, respectively. Miss Clee's gown was of pale blue taffeta and net with sweetheart neckline and puffed sleeves, while Miss Skog's floor length creation was of pink taffeta and net, with puff sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Both wore short matching veils and carried bouquets of pink carnations.

The charming little flower girl was Myrna Knutsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Knutsen, who was dressed in a floor-length dress of pastel green with poke bonnet. She carried a basket of summer flowers.

Groomsman was Ivar Wahl, brother of the bridegroom, while the ushers were Peter Peterson and John Wick. During the signing of the register Dr. R. G. Laroc sang "The Lord's Prayer." Peter Lien was organist.

At a reception and dinner which followed in the Oddfellows' Hall, 175 guests congratulated the couple, then enjoyed a wedding dinner which was followed by a dance. The guests were received by the bride's mother, who wore a grey, street-length dress with contrasting fuchsia accessories. Many wedding gifts were on display on a dais at the end of the hall.

During the dinner, Rev. Mr. Aasen spoke briefly, after which toastmaster Peter Lien proposed a toast to the bride. The bridegroom responded. Toast to the maid of honor was proposed by Robert Houston with the groomsmen responding. The toast to the bridesmaids was offered by Jack McLeod and was responded to by Peter Peterson.

Dr. Jens Munthe spoke in praise of Myrna Knutsen, the flower girl.

Gifts to the wedding party by the bride included a set of gold earrings to the maid of honor, combs to each of the bridesmaids and a silver bracelet to the flower girl.

Following the dinner pianist Peter Lien and violinist Gunnar Varfelt played "Solveig's Song" and "Song of Love," after which the floor was cleared for dancing. Music was by Gunnar Varfelt's orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Wahl, who will reside at Digby Island, will leave tonight on a honeymoon trip to Vancouver.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I prevent linens from turning yellow?
A. An old sheet dipped in bluing water and laid over the linens will prevent them from turning yellow.

Q. How can I prevent steel knives or other steel implements from rusting when laying aside?
A. Oil them slightly and then wrap in tissue paper.

The first aluminum ingots made in Canada were cast in 1901 at Shawinigan Falls, Quebec.

Psychiatric Clinic Pays Visit to City

Paying a first visit to Prince Rupert, a child guidance clinic of the provincial government was in the city for two days last week and held consultations at the Civic Centre including a meeting with the local child study group. The clinic, which arrived Wednesday by boat from Vancouver and proceeded by train Friday evening to Prince George, consisted of Dr. V. P. Byrne of Vancouver, psychiatrist; Miss M. Munro, psychologist, and Miss J. D. Kilborn, supervisor of psychiatric social work for the government. Dr. Byrne was stationed in Prince Rupert for a while with the Canadian Army Medical Corps during the war. Miss Munro is no stranger to this district, having several years ago taught school at Terrace and more recently having had a professorship of psychology at the University of British Columbia.

Before the days of the thriller serial — we enjoyed this thriller cereal flavor!

- Yes, even before the first "nickelodeons" with their flickering silent films and piano accompaniment, that one-and-only Grape-Nuts flavor was a big favorite on breakfast tables all over Canada.
- Today that same glorious flavor is a "double feature"—you can enjoy it now in honey-golden, curly POST'S GRAPE-NUTS FLAKES as well as delicious, chewy Post's Grape-Nuts. And it's all goodness that comes from two golden grains—wheat and malted barley—specially blended, baked and toasted, for glorious flavor and easy digestion.
- Just look at the nourishment Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes give you! Carbohydrates for energy; proteins for muscle; phosphorus for bones and teeth; iron for the blood; and other food essentials! Surely here's a breakfast treat your family needs and will enjoy! Pick up a package of ready-to-eat, nourishing Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes today. You'll appreciate the economy of the giant size package. And recipes for cookies and other good things made with Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes are on every package.
