MISSING MONEY CASE SOLVED; NO CHARGE LAID

The case of the missing $1,000 at the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. plant at Seal Cove has reportedly been solved. The money, mislaid at the plant on Thursday afternoon by a B.C. Packers employee, is back in the hands of its rightful owners and a Cold Storage fish floor worker has been discharged for allegedly hiding the money in the plant.

Following his discharge on Friday, the man is said to have left the city. No charges will be laid.

City police and Cold Storage Co. officers scoured the huge plant Thursday evening in an effort to find the money which they believed had been hidden by someone who had picked up the bank currency bag in which it was carried. It had been laid down on a packing box on the fish floor by a B.C. Packers office worker during a visit to the Cold Storage Co. plant.

Following the money cached, the police were reported to have taken it from the bag and substituted valueless papers to make a dummy parcel which they returned to the hiding place. Then they waited vigilantly for someone to claim the package.

The money was discovered on Thursday night, only a few hours after its disappearance. Friday, a man went to the hiding place and took the bag out. He opened the package in view of a hidden observer and, finding it was a dummy, he dropped it. His discovery, apparently, left him badly shaken.

Shortly afterward, he was discharged by the company. It is said to be a Vancouver man who has worked as a fish floor laborer at the Cold Storage Co. here for the last 18 months. He has left the city.

GERMANY'S ECONOMICS

Something Must Be Done at Once to Stop Paralysis, Says Gen. McNarney

BERLIN—General Joseph McNarney, United States Army commander-in-chief in Germany, told the Allied Control Commission bluntly today that something must be done at once to stop the sweep of economic paralysis in Germany. The country, now occupied, cannot be administered successfully in four economic compartments, he declared, pointing out that the Potsdam agreement called for treatment of Germany as an economic whole.

Gen. McNarney offered immediate co-operation by the United States with the three other occupying powers—Great Britain, Russia and France. Discussions between the United States and Great Britain are expected to commence soon.

BREAD RATION MAY BE BRIEF

So Says Food Minister—Churchill Urges Bakers to Facilitate Law

LONDON (CP)—Former Prime Minister Winston Churchill characterizes the government's bread rationing plan, due to commence tomorrow, as an "unnecessary and galling burden" but admonishes the bakers to "do their best to make whatever scheme is thrust upon them by the government work as well as possible."

Food Minister John Strachey told the House of Commons that revised crop estimates indicated rationing would need at a much earlier date than had seemed likely a few days ago.

Meanwhile British housewives besieged bakeries and rushed delivery trucks today in a last-minute mad scramble to buy bread before it became rationed Monday. In some bakeries loaves were sold before they left the ovens and supplies were quickly exhausted. Some women bought as many as ten loaves and piled market baskets high with cakes and cookies. Sales of flour, also to be rationed, were more than trebled.

BRITISH PROTEST

Pr. Rupert Is Aroused

Showdown to be Sought From Chevrier and Vaughan on Dry Dock Policy

Aroused by a statement made in Parliament by Hon. Lionel Chevrier that the Prince Rupert dry dock has now been reduced to a position where it is no longer economical to carry on major shipbuilding, this being given as the reason why the yard will not be used for the construction of a new three million dollar ship Canadian National Steamships is to have built for British Columbia coast service, the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce and the Prince Rupert Industrial Development Committee yesterday afternoon decided to have a showdown with the federal department of transport and the railway company as to just what may be the company's intentions in regard to the yard.

It was decided to transmit a strongly written protest to the minister of transport on the policy in regard to the yard coupled with request for a definite statement as to what intentions, if any, there may be as to the future operation of the yard.

In the event of an unsatisfactory answer being received, the campaign will be carried on with a view to the property being released from the railway company control.

Representations along similar lines will be made personally to R. C. Vaughan, president of the Canadian National Railway, who is to visit Prince Rupert next week in the course of a Pacific Coast tour.

A committee consisting of J. T. Harvey, president of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia, Mayor H. M. Daggert, W. M. Watts and E. T. Applewhite was appointed to prepare and present the representations to be made to Mr. Chevrier and Mr. Vaughan.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP)—United States labor leaders laid aside the strike weapon yesterday for the time being in favor of trying other means to push prices down and wages up.

DEMOCRACY IN TURKEY

A FULL-BLOWN political fight is raging in Turkey, a harbinger that this old land which threw aside her sultans two decades ago is coming of age, democratically. The election takes place on the coming Sunday.

While there were infrequent inter-party battles in Turkey's earlier bloody and fantastic history, opposition was crushed promptly. But this time the opposition apparently is here to stay, and the citizens have been getting their first look at how a real campaign, with all its name-calling and mud-slinging, operates.

They have been startled by some of this name-calling, particularly that directed against President Ismet Inonu himself, a personage who heretofore was criticized only in guarded whispers.

Two profoundly important decisions form the background of this development in self-government. First was abolition of all bans against any political group other than the reigning Republican Peoples party; second was a ruling by the court of appeals reversing the conviction of four newspaper writers sentenced to prison for "offending the dignity" of the government.

While Turkey proclaimed herself a republic after overthrow of the decadent Ottoman empire in the revolution 23 years ago, there were many who scoffed at the designation and contended that no sultan ever held a firmer grip on his people than did iron-man Ataturk and his successor, Inonu.

Public meetings were banned. Newspapers were suspended for criticisms the government disliked. The political police—as efficient as any in the world—had little idle time.

While government supporters said the lowering of the ban last December against political parties was a natural evolution in a growing democracy, opponents contended it was a step made necessary by internal pressure and external frowns. Immediately after the ban was eliminated, four parties sprang up but of these only the Democrat party headed by the old revolutionary and one-time prime minister Celal Bayar assumed stature sufficient really to frighten the Inonu government.

Bayar, long a hard-boiled critic of Inonu and his government, said he would refrain from participating in the national election on grounds that Inonu broke his pledge to the nation not to hold elections until the press and police laws had been eliminated.

Inonu replied that Bayar's withdrawal from the elections was not unlike tactics used by parties in certain lands where failure to participate was designed to "accuse the government in the eyes of other states."

But no effort was made to stem the growing political battle. The official paper Ulus announced that newspapers could support or condemn any party they wished without fear of reprisals.

Then, in the heat of the growing campaign, the court of appeals handed down what governmental students consider one of the most important decisions in the history of the republic. It held that four newspaper writers, given prison sentences in the wake of the violent riots last December 4, which wrecked two newspaper plants, should be released from jail and given new trials.

Turkey's adolescence in self-rule appears to be about over.

BUDGET AND PROVINCE

IN THE DOMINION BUDGET, final proposals appear to be made to the provinces to relinquish their right to impose income taxes.

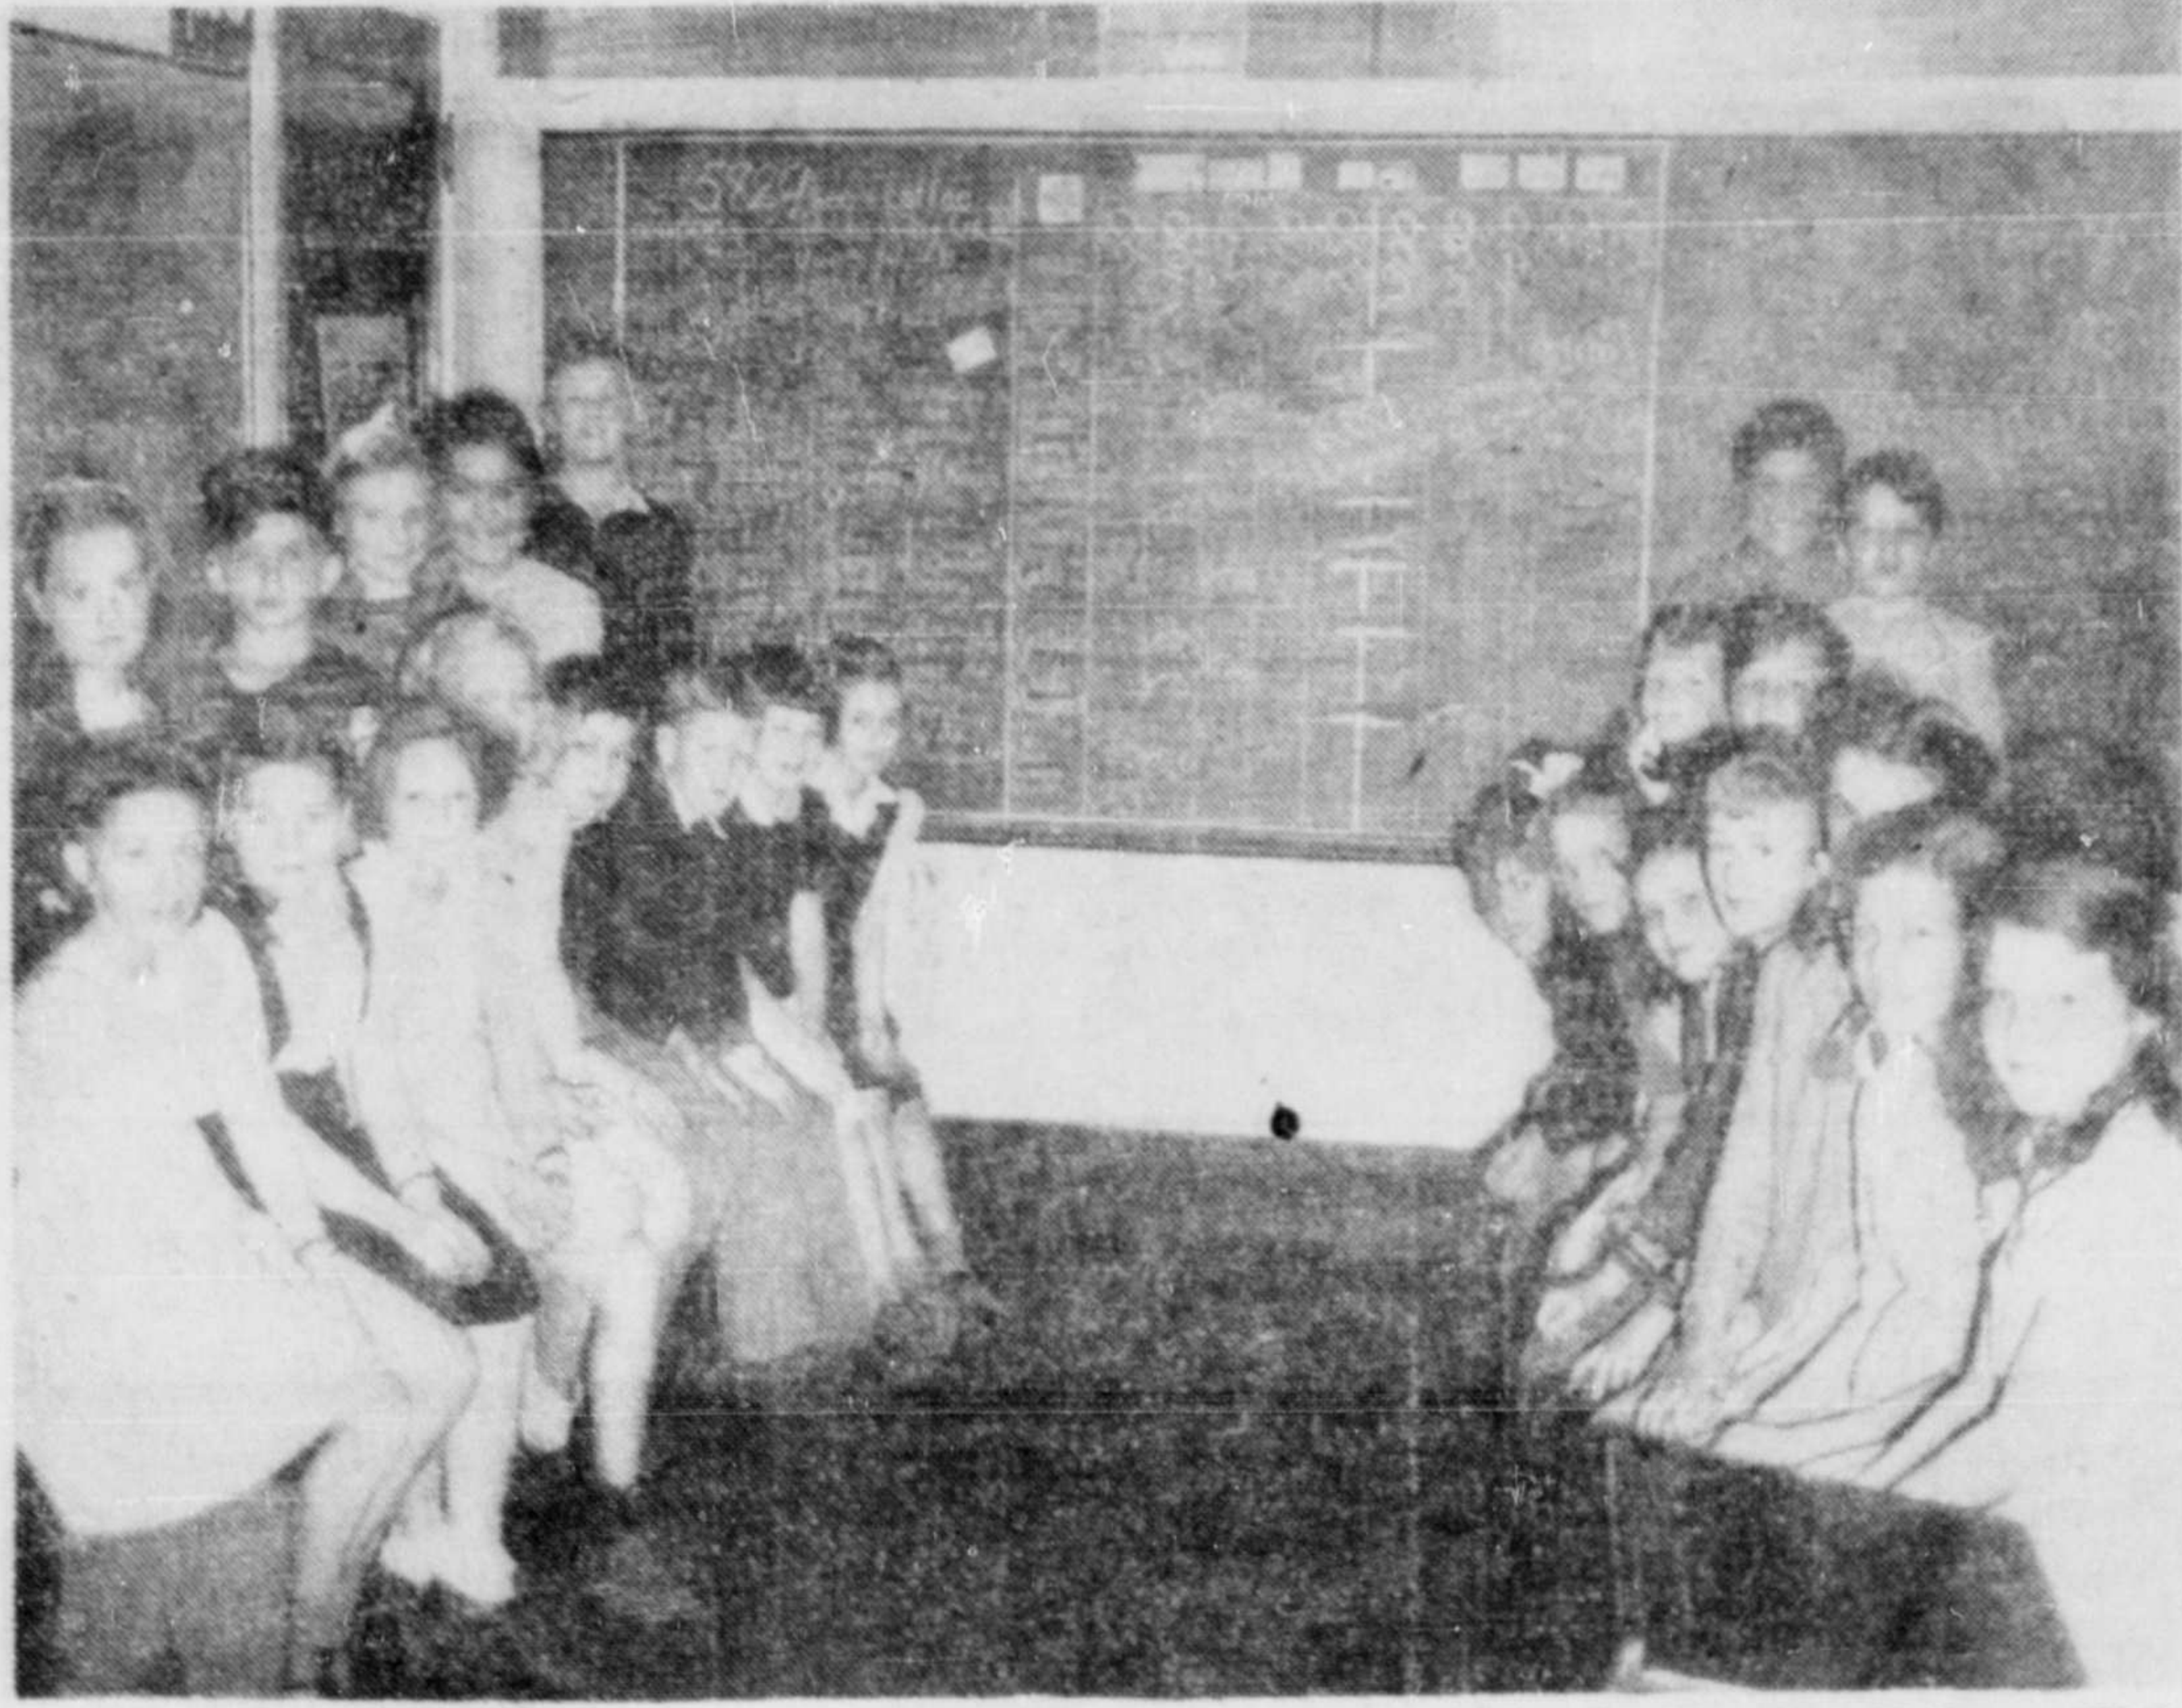

In return for relinquishing income tax rights for five years the Dominion offers annual per capita payments of $15.

It is further provided that in no case shall the Dominion payment be less than 150 per cent of the sum received by the province under the Wartime Tax Agreement.

That means for British Columbia a payment of around $18,000,000 instead of $12,000,000 received under the Wartime Agreement.

British Columbia should not hesitate to accept this offer which guarantees an increased income of $6,000,000; ensures there will be no duplicate tax collecting agency which the people will abhor; removes the fear of reduced tax income to the province should a recession set in, which is a possibility that cannot be ignored in view of strikes and rising costs that will cause our export trade to be on a highly competitive basis at some time within the next five years; and finally the acceptance would demonstrate a co-operative spirit with the Dominion and give leadership to a new unity so sadly lacking at the moment.

No matter what other provinces may do there is every justification for British Columbia's immediate acceptance of the offer which guarantees 150 per cent of the present grant.

Arrangements are now being completed by representatives of Queen Charlotte Airlines and War Assets Corporation to permit attendance of the general public to Seal Cove Airbase, presently being guarded by War Assets, to witness the ceremony. As yet final details of the christening have not been completed.

"We feel proud that our company has been honored and recognized in this manner by the native populace of the district," said airline officials when the acceptance of the christening by Mrs. Leask was confirmed by Indian Agent A. E. Anfield. "In renaming our aircraft after coastal tribes we are endeavouring to perpetuate their traditions as well as symbolize coastal transportation from the days of the war canoes to this modern age of air transportation," declared Bill Wood, operations manager of Queen Charlotte Airlines, who is presently visiting Prince Rupert. The two aircraft presently serving Prince Rupert are the "Haida Queen" and "Skeena Queen."

Newspapermen and camera men from Vancouver will come here for the christening.

Pioneer Girl is Beautiful Bride

Miss Alma Dybhavn, Prince Rupert-Born Girl, and Winnipeg Man Are United

One of the best known and most popular Prince Rupert-born girls and member of an esteemed pioneer family became the bride of a young Winnipeg railwayman, who served in the Navy with H.M.C.S. Chatham during the war, at a highly interesting marriage ceremony late Friday afternoon. The bride was Alma Helene Dybhavn, only daughter of Mrs. John Dybhavn, 2104 Atlin Avenue, and the groom William Michalozuk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michalozuk of Winnipeg.

The wedding took place quietly in the chapel of the Pro-Cathedral of the Annunciation with Rev. Father Carroll officiating with only the bridal party and immediate relatives present. A reception was later held at the home of the bride's mother where many friends gathered to extend their best wishes and congratulations before the couple left by the evening train for Winnipeg where they will make their home.

The bride wore a beautiful wedding costume of white silk jersey, princess style, long torso waistline, with lace inserts at the neckline, the headpiece being of the Mary, Queen of Scots, style. The shower bouquet consisted of pink rapture roses.

The charming bridesmaid Miss Helen Brown, wore pink taffeta, eyelet lace at the neckline, with bouquet of pink gladioli.

The groomsmen were George Dybhavn, brother of the bride. The spacious living room of the bride's mother in Westview was the scene of the reception. Rooms were attractively decorated with midsummer flowers, featuring many lovely roses, by Mrs. Laura Mitchell. The couple received felicitations before an elaborate bank of honeysuckles and foliage at one end of the long room. The guests were received by the bride's mother, handsomely gowned in black with sequin trimmings.

The bride's table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake which was cut with the usual ceremony. The serving table was covered with a beautiful cutwork cloth centred with a huge bowl of delicate pink roses and cornered with four pink tapers. Fittingly proposed by Peter Lakie was the toast to the bride, the groom responding. The toast to the bridesmaid was proposed by Alex Mitchell and responded to by the groomsmen.
Rev. A. O. Aasen, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, was also called upon and, in a brief address, paid high tribute to the qualities of the bride's father, the late John Dybhavn, sterling pioneer citizen and "God's gentleman."
Mrs. J. R. Elfert and Mrs. W. M. Brown presided at the pouring table and the serveurs were Mrs. Joseph Naylor Jr., Miss Florence Parker, Mrs. F. Stone, Miss Joan Taylor and Mrs. George Dybhavn. The punch bowl was in charge of Alex Mitchell, James Bremner and George Murray.
The evening concluded with dancing to piano music by Andy McNaughton.

GUIDES BACK FROM CAMPING

Fresh from the first Girl Guide camp in this area in many years, eleven Prince Rupert Guides with Guide Lieutenant Miss Honora Silversides returned last night from ten days under canvas at the Blackaby summer home at Lake Kathlyn. Although many of the girls had never been away from home before, all enjoyed the camp, where they worked hard toward achieving their second class Guide badges. A thunder and lightning storm during the week added a touch of excitement to the girls living in tents.

To Spray Forests Of This Province

TORONTO — Ontario government officials said today that a giant Canso aircraft is enroute to British Columbia to spray forests being ravaged by hemlock loopers described as the most serious insect plague to the forests in a generation.
The plane has been combating spruce budworm plague in Ontario but it is felt that there is greater need for it in British Columbia.

UGANDA ACCEPTS BID TO SOCCER

Go-ahead Signal for Whole Sports Program Expected Next Monday

The Canadian Legion yesterday received a message from the Sports Officer of H.M.C.S. Uganda accepting Prince Rupert's challenge to play the ship at football, baseball, softball and basketball and arrangements for all these games are going ahead in accordance with schedule. The basketball game will probably be arranged for Wednesday night at the Roosevelt Park gym after the softball game is over.

The Uganda has issued a challenge to "all comers" in a whaler race and it is hoped that volunteers for this event will get in touch with the Legion Sports Committee without delay so that practices can be arranged. The Commanding Officer Sea Cadets has placed boats at the committee's disposal.

The ship has promised a "little talent" for the "floor show" at the Legion smoker. Local performers will be welcomed to complete the program.

Good progress is being made in getting local footballers in line for the Hanson Cup event and it is expected that the team selected will be announced on Monday.

The Uganda has good boxing talent on board. Their weights are one at 163 pounds, one at 164 pounds, one at 160 pounds, one at 147 pounds and probably one each for the 142 and 138-pound class.

The program of entertainment has been mailed to the Sports Officer of H.M.C.S. at Alert Bay and a signal approving same is expected from the ship late on Monday.

Was the base-runner out?

Section 19, rule 38 of the official fastball rules adopted by the British Columbia Fastball Association and District Associations as of Jan. 18, 1944, reads as follows:

Section 19. The base-runner to first base may overrun said base after touching it in passing without incurring liability to be put out for being off said base, provided he return at once and retouch the base, after which he may be put out as at any other base. If, after overrunning first base, he attempt to run to second base, before returning to first base, he shall forfeit such exemption from liability to be put out.

NOTE: A base-runner in returning to first base must turn out from field of play. If base-runner turns inward he forfeits exemption from liability to be put out.

The executive of the local Fastball Association should impress upon teams and team managers the necessity of starting games on time. The first game last evening did not get under way until after 7 o'clock. Yet the rules say that the team not being ready to start at 6:45 shall forfeit the game. The other drawback is that the teams playing the second game have poor light to finish their match.

It is also up to the executive and the teams to make sure that score cards and qualified scorers are on hand. Failure to provide these hurts the games and tends to make the spectators dissatisfied.

Games are also being delayed by lack of balls. Is this due to a shortage of supply or are the balls not brought to the grounds?

LEGION FIGHTERS ARE LINED UP

Five of the six local fighters who will appear on the Legion fight card at Roosevelt Park gym next Saturday night have been lined up by the committee, chairman Jimmy Nicoll announces. The boys will fight men from H.M.C.S. Uganda during the ship's visit here. They are Len Hitchens, welterweight, Terry McCarthy, light heavy, Leo Adolph, Billy Anderson and Billy McDougall. The sixth, Mr. Nicoll says mysteriously, is a dark horse who will be brought to light next week.

Reserve Army team started off with their first three batters all scoring. They maintained a lead and should have won save for two lapses by their own players. A careless throw by the third baseman to first let in two runs.

By ROBERTA LEE

Is it necessary to write or telephone for reservations of hotel rooms?

While it isn't exactly necessary it is advisable. One should also specify the size of the room desired, double or single with or without bath, and any other details desired.

If a man is calling on a girl and another man arrives, which one should be the first to leave?

The man who called first should be the first to leave.

THE BIBLE TRUTH

(By THE CARPENTER)

Can one be a Christian and an evolutionist? Let us see. First what is a "Christian"? About 45 A.D. "the disciples were called Christians first at Antioch." A "disciple" is a "follower" of any leader of thought, etc.; under 'discipline,' control, obedience to his teacher. Then King Agrippa said: "Almost thou Second, Jesus, in his teaching, at no time spoke of or implied evolution. He taught Creation. Listen! "He that made them (mankind) in the beginning, made them male and female." The evolutionist, therefore, rejects the Christ of God.

Is he a Christian? "Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven" ("All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable—for instruction in righteousness"). "Many will say unto me in that day, Lord, Lord have we not prophesied (spoken) in Thy name?—and in Thy name done many wonderful works? Then will I profess unto them I never knew you; Depart from me ye that work iniquity."

"Professing themselves to be wise they became fools—who changed the truth of God into a lie and worshipped the creature ancestors of geological time, more than the Creator." Hath translated us (Christians) into the kingdom of his dear

LETTERBOX

NO LONGER DELUDED
Editor, Daily News:
The most hidebound supporters of the outdated and wasteful Liberal government must now have a faint understanding of how entirely unprincipled and unpatriotic the whole outfit is.

The latest hypocritical move of the government in calling for tenders from private shipyards to build a government-owned ship when our government-owned shipyard is standing idle should be most convincing proof to indicate how entirely unprincipledly they are to lead the country out of postwar difficulties.

Like millions of others I was fooled for 24 years by the party name "Liberal" until, from sad experience, I was forced to admit they did not stand for honest and sound government for Canada.

When we consider that the government entered into an agreement with the Americans employing Canadian laborers to reduce their wages to 95c per hour for the same work for which they paid $1.50 to Americans working beside them and forbade the Americans to sell them anything from the canteens to their Canadian workers, it plainly shows the unfriendly attitude of our government toward their own citizens. While our sons suffered and died on the battlefields of Europe these mischievous men did all they could to reduce our wages and made arrangements with the Americans to discriminate against us.

Seeing those men raise and double their own salaries without anyone being able or willing to prevent it, we might wonder why they should find pleasure in sabotaging the Prince Rupert shipyard. The cause is sinister and deep-rooted. Those men have been in office for a long time. They are used to milking the federal treasury to the limit. They and their political heelers have invested their earnings in private shipyards, mines and the lumbering industry. They are, apparently, out to choke the activity of government-owned enterprises.

The Election Act should be altered so that people with ambition to enter the political field cannot hold shares in companies competing with government owned enterprises.

Relief and the breadlines, trademarks of the Liberal administration, should soon be in operation again. They were working very satisfactorily to them until another heartless schemer, Hitler, indicated a more direct way to bring suffering to the world. Now Hitler has had his turn and our sons have suffered and died to check him, our government can resume its interrupted policy of introducing misery in a more refined form.

Of course we are getting what we deserve. We are not compelled to keep the Liberal gang in office. They have not yet got so far as ruling by blood-purges as Hitler first and Stalin now do.

We can only hope that the day will dawn when the common voter will wake up to his responsibility so these men can devote their entire time to the private enterprises they are now favoring at the expense of us all.

TERRACE MAN IS MARRIED

Swift Current Girl Is Bride Of Hilaire Lips

The Sacred Heart Church in Swift Current, Saskatchewan, was the scene of a very pretty wedding recently when Rev. Father Mondor united in marriage Justine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dantzer, and Hilaire Lips, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lips of Terrace.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of white French lace over satin with a floor-length veil gathered on a lace Juliet cap. She wore lace gloves and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and fern. Her only ornaments were a diamond pendant, her father's wedding gift to her mother, and a bracelet of spun Peruvian silver, a gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by Miss Maude L'Ami, Saskatoon, who was gowned in mauve nylonette, and Miss Olive Hengel, Regina, gowned in yellow nylonette, both carrying bouquets of sweet peas. The groom was attended by Vince Dantzer, Ushers were Grant Maxwell, Saskatoon, and Fred Polley. Soloist Mrs. C. Smith rendered Schubert's "Ave Marie" during the ceremony.

A reception for 100 guests was held in the parish hall following the ceremony. Receiving with the bridal couple were the parents of the bride. The bride's mother chose for the occasion a delphinium blue silk crepe Deja gown with French white embroidered bodice. A smart white Maybrook flowered hat with a corsage of pink roses completed her accessories.

The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake banked with pink tulle and white lighted tapers. The hall was decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. Pouring tea were Mrs. J. A. Healy and Mrs. J. P. Rooney. Mrs. W. Cockell, Medicine Hat, and Mrs. G. Haney, Carmichael, cut the ices. Tea arrangements were in charge of Mrs. D. Campbell of Rush Lake. Seating to the pleasure of the guests were the Misses Margaret Mahoney, Ruth Fleming, Teresa Connolly, all of Saskatoon, and Eileen Kopperud, Cadillac; Mary Casagner, Betty Campbell and Helen Dowling, all of whom wore floor-length gowns of rainbow hues. In charge of the register were Mrs. D. Robertson and Mrs. S. Polley. The toast to the bride was proposed by James Donnelly with the groom responding. The bridesmaids were toasted by Grant Maxwell with a response by Vincent Dantzer.

ROBERT GAMMON BURIED FRIDAY

Fellow Masons and railway workers gathered at St. Andrew's Cathedral at 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon to pay final respects to the late Robert Herneil Gammon. The quiet service was led by Rev. Basil S. Procter, rector of St. Andrew's. Interment took place in Fairview Cemetery with B.C. Undertakers in charge of arrangements. The late Mr. Gammon, a railway employee here for the last 20 years, was a member of Prairie Masonic Lodge at Wilkie, Sask. Pallbearers were C. H. Elkins, Ralph Morin, Tom Spencer, Ernest Unwin, Harry Long and Fred Barber.

The bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to the Muskoka Lakes in Ontario. For travelling the bride chose a suit of delf blue gabardine with pink accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. The young couple will take up residence in Ottawa.

Fish Handlers Strike Threat— Halibut Landings Somewhat Lighter

Prince Rupert fishing company operators Friday issued a statement listing their counter-proposals to the demands of the United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union whose strike threat over wage increases hangs over the local waterfront like a pall. The fishing workers, demanding recognition of Saturday afternoon as an over-time period and a scale of wage increases ranging from 14 cents an hour, are meeting in the Civic Centre auditorium this afternoon to decide their course of action in the light of the proposals made by the operators.

A strike at this period of the fishing season would deal a paralyzing blow to the economic life of Prince Rupert, paralyzing the waterfront by placing upwards of 350 men in idleness, observers say. Although the nine fishing companies' offer does not meet the wage scale demanded by the union, it does make the offered increases retroactive to January 15, 1946, and carries lump sum "back payments" for the workers ranging from $82.20 for class "A" graders to $56.20 for class "B" experienced cold storage workers.

Here are the union's wage demands:
Experienced fish shed workers (male) 98 cents an hour.
Inexperienced fish shed workers (male) 84 cents an hour with a qualifying period of six months.
Experienced cold storage workers (male) $1.00 an hour.
Inexperienced cold storage workers (male) 86 cents an hour with a qualifying period of three months.

For women fishworkers, the union proposes 70 cents an hour for beginners, with 75 cents after three months' experience and from 84 to 98 cents an hour after another three months. The operators in their statement issued the following counter proposals for wage scales:
Graders, 91 cents an hour.
Experienced general fishworkers, 87 cents.
Semiqualfied fishworkers (male and female) 75 cents.
Inexperienced general fishworkers (male and female) 70 to 75 cents an hour.

Qualified cold storage workers 89 cents.
Inexperienced cold storage workers 75 cents.

The companies declare themselves agreeable to reducing the qualifying period from one year to six months and agree to pay time-and-a-half for all hours worked over 44 each week, with time-and-a-half for Sundays and statutory holidays, but apparently do not agree with the union's demand that overtime should be paid for Saturday afternoons whether the worker has worked 44 hours in the current week or not.

The operators charge that the union's policy in Prince Rupert is "entirely contrary" to its policy in other branches of the industry where the union negotiates and signs "identical" wage agreements with its members on a coast-wide basis.

"In Vancouver and Victoria the union negotiated and signed an agreement approximately six weeks ago providing a premium rate of 10 cents an hour for employees loading boats. This premium was added to the employees regular rate. Six weeks later the same union demanded 50 cents per hour premium for the same work—five times the rate agreed upon in Vancouver and Victoria," the operators' statement charges.

sengers, the steamer Princess Louise, Capt. P. L. Leslie, was in port, northbound Friday morning. She sailed at noon for Alaska ports.

Halibut landings at Prince Rupert this week dropped to the lowest so far this season with the arrival of only 249,000 pounds. Black cod landing during the same period totalled 65,000. Three American vessels, Spray, Ethel and Constitution, brought in 144,000 of halibut. The Spray and Ethel got the advantage in a sharp jump in price, selling for 27 and 23 cents. Constitution sold for 23.3 and 21.3. Four Canadian boats brought in 115,000, Margaret I, 47,000, Gulvik 20,000, P. Doreen 13,000, and Parma 35,000. Black cod landings, totalling 65,000 pounds, came from Gony, 19,000, Domino II, 15,000, Cape Spear, 14,000, Neptune II, 17,000.

No boats being in with catches, there was no sale of halibut on the local Fish Exchange this morning.

Looking Ahead
TOM McKEOWN

It is not easy for anyone to make a fortune, and even if it were, as an inheritance it might prove disastrous. But an income is another matter. Paid regularly month after month without variation, it is a fortune which can never be dissipated, never lost in hazardous ventures. These plain facts cannot be overlooked by the man who wants security for his family in the event of his death. He knows he must leave a minimum income for his wife until the children are self-supporting, there must be provision for rent, food, clothes and schooling, and there must be freedom from anxiety for the mother, especially when her care and influence are so necessary in the formative years of childhood. Fortunately, all these benefits are possible through the Sun Life Family Income Plan, an economical scheme of protection that all may enjoy. This comprehensive Plan leaves no doubts in the mind, no fears as to loss of capital, no administration cares and no delays. Let me show you how easily the Sun Life Family Income Plan can be adapted to meet your requirements. Just call or write:
