Shrouded Peaks Puzzle Noted U.S. Author

Relaxing after five years of "working for the government" during the war, Christopher Morley, noted American author, passed through the city Wednesday afternoon returning south after an Alaska cruise on the Princess Louise.

"This is a wonderfully picturesque country," commented the bearded writer. "It is a real vacation land. However, I have been wondering if these mountains really have tops. The clouds haven't broken long enough for me to find out."

A resident of Long Island, New York, Mr. Morley is making his first trip through western Canada.

"I have been intending to take the trip for years. I have a brother who worked on one of your coastwise boats years ago, and he gave me a real sales talk on the beauties of this country. I am inclined to agree with him."

Mr. Morley would not elaborate on the type of work he was doing for the government during the war, but said that he did get time to do some miscellaneous writing. He plans to continue work on a novel which he put away when he started his war work.

He expressed himself as greatly shocked to learn of the death of H. G. Wells, the British author, with whom he had a friendship. "He was a great man, and I have deeply regretted that he made his recent remarks about the British Royal family. I have known him for many years. He was a fine man and a great writer."

Gov't Drops Priorities For Sale of New Cars, Trucks

OTTAWA (CP)—Reconstruction Minister Howe announced in Commons today that regulations governing the sale of new passenger cars and trucks has been rescinded.

The Minister said that the sale of cars to priority holders had not worked successfully, so that the plan was stopped recently.

The sale of new cars and trucks, Howe said, can be best handled by normal trade channels, but, he added, this does not affect the price ceiling on the vehicles.

Since July 1, priority certificates for the purchase of new cars have been issued only in exceptional cases, but the sale or delivery of cars has been restricted to persons already holding priorities.

With the action announced today, dealers will be free to sell and deliver cars to any person.

TROOPS READY FOR REVOLT

JERUSALEM (CP)—Armed British forces, variously estimated at 50,000 to 200,000 men today were held ready for possible trouble following a broadcast by the Jewish underground organization calling up on Palestine's Jews to revolt against Britain.

New Zealand Wives Would Stop Divorce

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (CP)—New Zealand wives of United States servicemen whose husbands are seeking divorces in America have made representations to President Truman and to Prime Minister Fraser of New Zealand for facilities to defend the actions. In reply to a deputation of wives which put their case up to him, the prime minister expressed deep concern and sympathy. He gave an assurance that the government would do everything possible to assist and would consider means of providing legal aid in the United States. It would also make further strong representation for shipping facilities for those who could not get permission to land in the United States.

Naval Couple Roll Up 4,913 Miles in Two-Week Cross-Country Trip Over Canadian Highway System

Marked with the dust and mud of eight of Canada's nine provinces, a car bearing Chief Petty Officer Leslie A. C. Paige and Mrs. Paige of Halifax rolled into Prince Rupert at 6:10 last night after tallying a transCanada total of 4,913 miles to win the Manson Gold Medal, awarded by the Prince Rupert Public Relations Council to the first motorists to drive from Halifax to Prince Rupert by Canadian highways.

The maroon colored 1935 sedan made the journey from Canada's eastern seaport in just two weeks to the day, and according to its friendly drivers, might have arrived here two weeks to the hour after leaving Halifax had not car trouble delayed them slightly at Terrace yesterday.

Homeless Britons Enter Army Camps

LONDON (CP)—Driven to desperation by their housing problems, hundreds of families throughout Britain have moved into deserted army camps and set up housekeeping in abandoned huts and mess halls.

The "squatters," as they are called, have been filtering into the camps for several weeks. In camp Chalfont near St. Giles, there are 70 families, including 135 children, ensconced in prefabricated huts.

No government department wants to take responsibility for ordering these people out, but the health department may be forced to intervene for sanitary reasons. In most camps light and water services do not function.

Travel Under "Lucky Star"

"We were travelling under a lucky star which shone straight down all the way," he said. "We had only two flat tires and one blowout. We did have a minor accident at Regina, and broke our front bumper at Golden, but actually, we had no major trouble at all."

Leaving Halifax at 8:45 on the morning of July 31 with their car's mileage tally recording 80,028.2 miles, the couple arrived at Prince Rupert at 6:10 last night after increasing the tally reading to 84,941.7 miles, making their recorded mileage for the trip 4,913.5 miles.

Mr. Paige drove practically all the way, with a few relief periods by Mrs. Paige, who said that she hadn't done much driving since 1939.

"Those periods were really welcome, though," Mr. Paige said. "Driving really got tiresome."

However, Mrs. Paige did not just sit idly while her husband drove. She kept a detailed journal of the trip which now almost fills two notebooks, and which she wrote in longhand as the car rolled along.

HALIFAX TO PRINCE RUPERT—Chief Petty Officer Leslie A. C. Paige of Vancouver and Mrs. Paige of Cumberland, Vancouver Island, who arrived here last night to complete the first all-Canada motor trip from Halifax to Prince Rupert. They will be here until Monday when they will leave by motor for Vancouver and the Islands. The presentation to the couple of the handsome Manson Medal will be made at the opening of the Civic Centre Carnival Saturday night by Mayor H. M. Dagggett on behalf of the Prince Rupert Public Relations Council. Mr. and Mrs. Paige are making a flight today aboard the Queen Charlotte Airlines flying boat Haida Queen to Stewart, Anox and Alice Arm.

"IT'S A DUD", PEARSON SAYS ABOUT RUMOR

VICTORIA (CP)—"If it is a kite, you can cut the string right now," Labor Minister George S. Pearson told newsmen in commenting on a report that he would succeed Hon. John Hart as Premier of British Columbia.

"It's a dud," he added. Political circles have been buzzing with reports that Premier Hart will go to the Senate, but he has maintained silence on the rumor.

BRITAIN MUST ACT ALONE IN HOLY LAND

LONDON (CP)—Authoritative British government sources said today that the United States has refused to participate in a plan for dividing Palestine, as recommended by the committee experts, leaving Britain to cope with the problem by herself.

It was reported that President Truman said that he could neither accept nor reject the plan without the support of the American people, but advised Britain that as mandatory power for Palestine, she should go ahead with any action she deems wise under the circumstances.

TREATIES MEAN "ENSLAVEMENT"

PARIS (CP)—United States Secretary of State Byrnes said today in an address which was patently aimed at Russia that economic treaties concluded in contradiction to the Potsdam agreement would lead to "enslavement and exploitation."

Byrnes denied Russian allegations that certain countries had enriched themselves during the war. "I certainly know of none," he declared.

DESERTERS ARE WRITTEN OFF

OTTAWA (CP)—Defence Minister Abbott announced today that Canada's 14,000 absentees and deserters will be written off the service books without entitlement to rights, privileges or benefits normally accorded to members of the armed services.

A source other than M. Abbott described the move as a "partial general amnesty." He said that complete forgiveness was withheld, though the stipulated personnel would receive no benefits.

GENERAL STRIKE LOOMS IN SOUTH

PENICTON (CP)—An ultimatum demanding immediate settlement of the municipal employees strike here as an alternative to a general sympathy strike of Okanagan C.C.L. unions has been sent to Labor Minister Pearson by representatives of the unions.

Penicton garbage collectors have been on strike to enforce their demands that the City Council accept conciliation board recommendations for improved conditions and union maintenance.

COMMON LABOR SHORT HERE

Contractors on Wartime Demolition Having Difficulty in Holding Crews

Shortage of common labor is prevalent in Prince Rupert and contracting firms engaged in demolition of wartime installations at Acropolis Hill and Port Edward are having difficulty in keeping crews up to strength. National Employment Service also reports a continued heavy demand for carpenters. The office help situation has eased somewhat and there are a few men now seeking clerical work.

MISS CANADA AND HIS HONOR—Mayor William O'Dwyer takes time out from his official duties of running the world's biggest city to point out some of its wonders to Miss Marion Saver, who was recently chosen "Miss Canada of 1946." RAILWAY VS. HIGHWAY

ONE of the dominant fears that hung over the Terrace convention of 12 Central British Columbia Boards of Trade, with delegates from Juneau, Ketchikan and Haines, Alaska Chambers of Commerce, was that the Canadian National Railways, a branch of the Canadian government, some way would close the new Skeena River Highway which may become tomorrow's main highway for tourists bound for Alaska, writes Editor William Baker in the Ketchikan Chronicle. Other fears of the railroad, based on bitter experience, cropped up during the two-day assembly in this beautiful little town. It was noticeable too, that the C.N. had several of its officials on hand and that they toned down and pooh-poohed most of the hints that they were to be feared. It was, however, not unlike the fight of half dozen years ago between truckers using the Richardson Highway to supply Fairbanks from the seaport of Valdez and the mighty U.S. government in the person of Harold L. Ickes, secretary of interior. The Alaska Railroad tried to collect a $9 per ton levy on all goods being trucked over the highway—to protect his railroad. When the truckers balked at paying, the U.S. marshal took them into court but found that no Alaska grand jury would indict them. There was, to their way of thinking, no crime. We told the B.C. gentlemen about that fight and how the people won it. Nevertheless they said part of the Skeena Highway is built along the C.N. right-of-way and that if the chips were down and a competing truck line threatened to steal much C.N. business, the road probably would be closed to all travel. Thus the beautiful new highway, opened to pleasure travel for only two summers, might be destroyed. One delegate told us hopefully that he had noticed part of the roadway was over the Skeena River itself and that no railroad could have title to river bed, thus the railroad could not close the highway. We kept insisting that since the C.N. is a corporation licensed by and responsible to the dominion government, it should be forced at once by the Canadian parliament to dispense with the land on which the roadway was built. This perplexing problem is holding back the development of a tourist-catering business in central B.C. Only E. T. Kenney, member of parliament from Terrace and minister of lands and forests, put the railroad in its place. He said simply that its job is to forget the highway and help develop new freight for its trains by assisting new industries.

Halifax-Prince Rupert Motorists Arrive Here

Mrs. Paige recalled. "Some of it is not too complimentary to Canadian highways."

After having the first blow-out of their trip just east of Terrace, they arrived at Campbell's tourist cabins near the interior town at 3:30 Tuesday evening. They stopped there until yesterday afternoon while the tire was fixed and adjustments made to the car.

Tribute to the tourist camp operated by Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Campbell of Terrace was voiced by both Mr. and Mrs. Paige, who termed it "the cleanest and finest place we stopped."

"We couldn't hope to find finer hospitality than we received there," Mrs. Paige said. "There are more modern places in Canada, but there certainly are not any tourist camps where the hospitality is more sincere."

On her arrival here last night, Mrs. Paige carried a bouquet of sweet peas presented to her by Mrs. Campbell as the couple left Terrace.

To prove that they made their journey by all-Canadian highway system, Mr. Paige has a stack of gasoline receipts from service stations where he used his Imperial Oil Co. credit card to purchase fuel along the way.

The back seat of the car was loaded with camping gear which the couple made use of on the journey. Except for three nights which they spent in tourist camps, they slept in their car, which can be made into a bed by adjusting the seat cushions. They slept in tourist camps at Pembroke, Ontario, Swift Current, Sask., and at Terrace.

Motoring Back Through States

Not crowded for time—C.P.O. Paige is on 83 days leave—they intend to motor back to Halifax after they visit Mrs. Paige's home at Cumberland, Vancouver Island.

"When we go back we intend to travel through the United States," Mr. Paige said. "I've seen enough of Canadian highways for a while."

Nevertheless, they intend to motor from Prince Rupert to Vancouver, and on to Cumberland, where Mrs. Paige's parents live.

"British Columbia highways are all too narrow," Mr. Paige said in commenting on highway conditions during the journey. "There are a few places where new roads have been put through and these are well laid out, and

Finds Road Here In Best of Shape

"Everybody who drives over the Prince Rupert Highway into this city is surprised at its excellent condition because there are such persistent reports in the south that it is in bad shape," said George Smith, district investigator of the National Employment Service, who started out yesterday on his return to Vancouver by car after spending a few days here on official business. "To me it seems a wonderful road in comparison with some others in the province," said Mr. Smith, who arrived here at the end of last week, after having been met and accompanied in from Burns Lake.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR CARNIVAL

Topnotch Performers to Show Here Next Week

Highlighting entertainment at the Civic Centre Carnival this year will be an imported troupe of top-notch international acts from Canadian and American floor shows, all outstanding stars of screen, stage and radio, carnival officials have announced. The stage shows will play two performances nightly — 8 and 10:30 p.m. from Monday through Saturday in the auditorium of the Civic Centre building.

Heading the bill is the Del Rays, an adagio and acrobatic team known throughout the North American show world for their versatile performances. During the war the Del Rays devoted their talents exclusively to the United Services Organizations.

Also appearing in the show are Mary Mack, singer and comedienne, who made a big hit in this city a year ago when she toured northern Canadian Army and Air Force stations, and agile, attractive Marguerite Hewson, billed as a tap dancer extraordinary, another veteran Y.M.C.A. war services performer.

Andy McNaughton, well known Prince Rupert pianist, will provide the piano accompaniment for all performances.

Prior to coming to Prince Rupert the troupe will play an engagement at Alert Bay. On their return trip to Vancouver a show has been booked at Ocean Falls.

"We hope this stage show will be only the forerunner of many similar events which can be held in the Civic Centre during the coming winter," declared director Don Forward.

CANNING AND JAM MAKING
HINTS AIMED TO SAVE SUGAR

The canning season has been in full swing now for some weeks and there are still plenty of fruits to come. Homemakers looking at their sugar bin or at their sugar coupons may find that their supply is disappearing very fast so they would be well advised to plan canning some fruits without sugar. The amount of sugar now at their disposal may be stretched to cover a lot of fruits yet, if some sugarless canning is done, say the home economists of the Consumer Section of the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

Blueberries are one of the fruits which are easily canned without sugar. They may be canned in their own juice or in a very thin syrup. To can blueberries in their own juice, the berries should be washed and part of them crushed in the bottom of the preserving kettle. The remainder of the fruit is then added and the whole heated for a few minutes or until the juice just starts to flow. If the fruit has a tendency to scorch, a little water may be added to prevent that. The fruit is then packed solidly in the hot sealers, crushed down slightly so that the juice covers it. The lids and rubber rings are then adjusted and the filled sealers processed. If the processing is done in the boiling water bath, pint sealers and 20-oz. tin cans are processed for 15 minutes, counting the time from the moment the water comes to a full rolling boil. Quart sealers and 28-oz. tin cans are processed 20 minutes in the boiling water bath. Should the oven be thermostatically controlled, the glass sealers only may be processed in it. The degree of temperature recommended is 275 degrees F. and the time, 25 minutes for pint sealers and 30 minutes for quart sealers.

Blueberries canned by this method and sweetened to taste are excellent for pies and desserts.

Blueberries being very sweet don't require much sugar, so a very thin syrup in the proportions of 1 cup of sugar to 3 cups of water is recommended if the berries are to be canned in syrup. The processing times are the same as for the other method.

Most homemakers like to make

BANANA FLAKES ARE IN DEMAND

Such will be the demand of young and old alike in every kitchen in the country now that banana flakes are back to stay. Just imagine a rich, creamy, milkshake that tastes just like fresh bananas and cream, only more so. And served up right in your own kitchen, too!

Not only is a banana milkshake made with these flakes tops in fresh banana flavor, but it's nutritious as well. Tetts prove that banana flakes are rich in vitamin A, B, C and G. content, with a high caloric value of almost 600 in each 5½ oz. tin. Actually the flakes are tree-ripened bananas with the moisture removed by a special dehydration process that does not destroy the live fruit cells or lessen the abundant food value of the fruit.

Banana flakes are a time-saver, too, when they are being used in a milkshake. "There's no more fuss or bother in making a banana milkshake than there is in concocting a malted or strawberry milkshake at the local soda fountain. No sugar needs to be added because the flakes themselves are so rich in natural sugar. Banana flakes just seem to melt right into the milk, and there's no trace of lumps.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

CANNING AND JAM MAKING HINTS AIMED TO SAVE SUGAR

at least a few jars of jam from their sugar quota even if it takes more of this precious commodity than for canning. But they want to be sure the results will be good. After repeated experiments the home economists of the consumer section have come to the conclusion that a better jam, both in color, texture and yield, is obtained when the fruits are simmered, uncovered, until tender and some of the moisture is evaporated before adding the sugar. This precook varies from 5 to 15 minutes, depending on the tenderness of the fruits and of the skins and the amount of moisture present. The sugar is then added and the cooking (timed from the moment the jar comes to a full rolling boil. To prevent sticking, jam should be stirred frequently. When testing for consistency, the saucepan is removed from heat, a tablespoon of jam is placed on a cold saucer and chilled quickly. If jam does not set to proper thickness, it should be cooked a few minutes longer and heated again.

GROTTO, 99 TAXI TIE IN EIGHTH INNING OF FASTBALL SEMI-FINAL

In as exciting a game as one could hope for, 99 Taxi and Grotto played to a 10-all tie in the first of a two-out-of-three semi-final play-off series in the City Fastball League to determine who is to meet the General Motors in the final.

In the first inning 99 Taxi scored when Calderoni came home on Dominato's single. Grotto got to Gurvich in their half of the inning for 6 hits and one run to equalize. 99 Taxi went one up when Windle hit a two-bagger and came home on Ratchford's single. But Grotto went one ahead when Kerr's 2-bagger brought in Simundson and Carl Smith. Gurvich was replaced by Dominato who struck out Moxley with two men on bases. Pustak equalized on Dominato's single but Grotto went one ahead when Gillis scored. In the first of the fourth for 99 Taxi Beynon scored when Pustak was walked with the bases full. Dell kept Grotto one run ahead when he scored on Moxley's sacrifice. Both teams went scoreless in the fifth. 99 Taxi scored in the first of the sixth when Calderoni who had been walked came home on Pustak's two-bagger but Grotto got the run back when Simundson scored on Dell's two-bagger.

Then came the lucky (?) seventh. Montasano flew out. Windle was walked and came home on Gurvich's two-bagger. Gurvich came home on Beynon's two-bagger. Houston hit and he and Beynon came home on Calderoni's two-bagger. Then Calderoni came home on Pustak's two-bagger. 99 Taxi was now leading 10-6. Ralph Smith hit a two-bagger for Grotto; Gillis was walked; Holkestad hit and Smith scored. Duncan hit a two-bagger but Gillis was out at the plate. Simundson hit and Holkestad scored. Carl Smith hit and Duncan came home. Dell hit a two-bagger and Simundson scored. Dominato was on the spot but forced to fly Kerr out to Windle, and Moxley was out pitcher to Ratchford. Four runs were in and the score tied. In the first of the eighth Montasano was out. Simundson to Ratchford, Windle flew out to Ratchford and Gurvich flew out to Duncan. For Grotto in their half of the eighth, R. Smith was out, catcher to Dell, Gillis was out to Beynon to Dell, Holkestad hit a three-bagger but Duncan struck out to retire the side. And so the score was tied. The light was bad now and umpire Wally Landin called the game.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR RECTOR

On Tuesday evening members of St. Peter's congregation and friends held a surprise birthday party for Canon W. F. Rushbrook, missionary and ex-rector of St. Peter's Church, Seal Cove. He was sitting in his home expecting two visitors, when he was suddenly invaded by a household of well-wishers who took him entirely by surprise, but who were welcomed with his usual hospitality and good fellowship.

The proceedings were given a start by a short address and a toast, proposed by Mrs. Helen Henderson, which extended to the honored guest good wishes for good health, long life and happiness. The toast and good wishes were replied to by Canon Rushbrook, who with his usual kindness and appreciation thanked the assembly for their visit and gifts. Other short addresses were given by Mr. W. B. Skinner, an old and valued friend, Mrs. W. Davidson, on behalf of St. Peter's Women's Auxiliary, and George Johnston, who has been leading services at St. Peter's in the absence of a permanent rector.

This inaugural part of the program ended with the singing of the "Doxology" and "God Save the King." The ladies then got busy and produced refreshments during which period the Canon opened the many presents which had been brought.

The proceedings then took on a more jovial atmosphere and the highlight of the evening was produced by the appearance of a birthday cake lighted with 77 candles. This surprise was borne into the room by Miss May Skinner, who had made and decorated the cake, which was duly cut by the guest of honor and handed round and eaten with all good wishes. The proceedings closed with the singing of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow", and "Auld Lang Syne."

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Skinner, Mrs. Kelsey, Mrs. Hill-Tout, Mrs. Deny Allen, Mrs. W. Davidson, Mrs. W. G. Smith, Mrs. H. B. Tattersal, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dalzell, Mrs. H. Capstick, Mrs. Helen Henderson, Mrs. Helen Marchildon, Miss Jean Smith, Miss May Skinner, Miss E. Beagley, George Johnston and Mrs. H. Walker.

Beside carrying on miraculously under wartime difficulties occasioned by the blitz and not missing a single issue, the Coventry Evening Telegraph raised $80,100 for three Spitfires, and $152,288 for a parcel fund for local servicemen.
