Big Four Parley Is Resumed In Paris Today

Foreign Ministers To Try Again to Settle Vexed Peace Problem

PARIS (CP)—Big Four foreign ministers met again today for another attempt to hammer their war-joined swords into machinery for world peace. Ernest Bevin of Great Britain, James Byrnes of United States, V. Molotov of Russia and George Bidault of France will attempt to break the impasse

TO CARRY ON FIGHT

Maritime Workers to Insist Upon International Shipping Authorities

SEATTLE (CP)—Spokesmen for the workers' group of the World Maritime Conference say that the fight for an international shipping authority will be carried to the conference floor regardless of the resolutions committee.

The workers are seeking creation of authority to regulate and allocate shipping tonnage among the nations.

The plan is opposed by government and employer delegates.

REACTION ON ATOMIC PLAN

British Foreign Office Describes American Proposal As "Admirable"

LONDON (CP)—There has been little expression as yet of official reaction of the nations to the proposal of the United States, through Bernard Baruch at the atomic energy control conference in New York yesterday, to destroy all her own atomic bombs and share atomic secrets under control of an international commission.

The British Foreign Office, in a statement, however, described the American proposal as "admirable."

In Ottawa, Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, Canadian minister of reconstruction, said that no one in Canada knew how to make atomic bombs, nor had Canada asked United States for the secret.

ITALY CRISIS IS NOW OVER

All Seems to Be Quiet on Political Front Following Humbert's Flight

ROME (CP)—Italy's political crisis had, apparently, blown over today with no new instances of disorder reported and the flight of King Humbert into exile had ceased even to be a subject of debate in the streets. There were no celebrations of the king's departure or of the de facto advent of the republic. Even the tone of the press was more moderate.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis

Cool and cloudy weather was general over British Columbia yesterday except over the coast. Rain and scattered thunderstorms were reported in the interior and continuous rain over southern Vancouver Island and the lower mainland brought the June rainfall well above average. Abbotsford with 1.77, Vancouver with 1.30, and Patricia Bay with 1.05 to 4.30 this morning were the wettest spots in the province although the coastal regions of Washington recorded over two inches. A northwesterly flow of cool and drier air is expected to bring better conditions to the coastal regions of the province this afternoon and evening.

Forecast

Prince Rupert, Queen Charlottes and North Coast—Overcast, becoming cloudy this afternoon. Widely scattered rain showers, cloudy on Sunday. Little change in temperature. Minimum tonight at Port Hardy 48, Massett 46, Prince Rupert 48. Maximum on Sunday, Port Hardy 60, Massett 60, Prince Rupert 63.

All these acts of violence occurred despite the fact there is no dispute whatever between Imperial Oil and its seamen who have indicated they are perfectly satisfied with working conditions and have no grievance. We have indicated our readiness that our seamen determine by free vote their choice of a bargaining agency and we will deal with any agency so chosen.

CHARGED WITH ILLEGAL FISHING

Charged with fishing halibut in Area Two after the close of the season as set by the International Fisheries Commission, Capt. Henry Doiron of the halibut boat Seamaid appeared in city police court Friday afternoon and was remanded until Monday for hearing after he entered a plea of not guilty. Doiron is alleged by Fisheries Inspector Capt. C. W. Earnshaw to have been fishing halibut off Marble Island on the west coast of the Queen Charlottes on June 12. Area Two closed to halibut fishing at midnight, June 11.

Mystery Ship At Port Said

Transport Devonshire Linked With Movements of Grand Mufti of Jerusalem

CAIRO (CP)—The British transport Devonshire today entered Port Said after being delayed 24 hours by an unexplained series of incidents. All troops on board wore life jackets. Numbers of military police were observed.

A senior naval officer declined to give information on the Devonshire, saying: "This is now a priority secret."

The Devonshire has been linked with the movements of the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem who secretly left Paris May 30 and has been reported in Damascus.

BIDAULT IS RE-ELECTED

PARIS (CP)—George Bidault is again the Premier of France, having been re-elected by the National Assembly yesterday. The new President of France will be elected next week.

Azerbaijan Is In With Iran Again

TEHRAN (CP)—The province of Azerbaijan has returned to the fold with Iran with a provisional although not separate government.

WAS KILLED ON HIGHWAY

ASHCROFT (CP)—Dr. F. A. Butler, dentist of Mission and famed New Westminster basketball player in the late twenties, was killed and F. A. Farr of Matsqui was injured when their car plunged over a cliff near here. Three other men escaped injury.

MIHALOVIC BROKEN MAN

Contradictory in Evidence—Denies Collaboration Was Organized

BELGRADE (CP)—The court trying General Draja Mihailovic, Chetnik leader, on charges of treason and collaboration, today refused to accede to defence request to call United States aviators as witnesses. The request was opposed not only by the prosecutor but by Mihailovic himself "on principle."

Mihailovic told the court that he had never collaborated with the enemy. Collaboration, he suggested, implied organization and there was no such organization.

Defendant admitted there were contradictions in his statements as a result of physical exhaustion and he was suffering from anaemia.

Mihailovic testified that he gave Great Britain information on German's V-1 jet-propelled flying bombs in 1943, the year before the robot attacks started.

TURN DOWN INDIA PLAN

Congress Opposes British Cabinet Committee Proposals

NEW DELHI—The All-India Congress last night finally rejected the British cabinet committee plan for independence of India. The principal objection of the Congress was that the Moslem League would be given equal representation.

In spite of the statement in reliable sources that the All-India Congress party had rejected the British plan for Hindu-Moslem parity in the proposed interim government the British cabinet mission is still hopeful of effecting a compromise.

The cabinet delegation conferred again today with Viceroy Wavell but subjects discussed were not disclosed. It is believed they include new supplementary proposals and that the conferees have been in contact with Premier Attlee in Britain.

Britain will announce her "last word" tomorrow in the deadlock, a highly-placed source said. The spokesman added that an "imposed peace" probably would usher in Indian independence.

NO WORD ON BUDGET

OTTAWA—Hon. J. L. Hsley, minister of finance, cannot say when the budget may be brought down.

Maritime Workers' Win Out

Settlement of Big Industrial Dispute in United States Came Even As Walk-Out Was Starting

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP)—Constituting a big victory for the workers, the maritime labor dispute was settled last night almost at the very moment when the nation-wide shipping strike was to begin. Granville Conway, war shipping administrator, told reporters that an agreement had been "signed and sealed."

Harry Bridges and William Curran announced that their own unions had reached agreements subject to ratification of the membership. They said the terms won by the Union included a forty-hour week for seamen, $17.50 monthly pay increase retroactive to April 1, all work performed on Sunday at sea to be paid on an overtime basis.

For longshoremen the pay increase is 22c per hour. Radio operators get a wage increase of $17.50 per month with overtime after a 48-hour week.

Bridges said the operators had agreed to pay by October 30, $8,000,000 to $10,000,000 retroactive increase to longshoremen.

A spokesman for snip operators said the terms of settlement of the strike involved a "staggering handicap" which might endanger the continuation of United States operated shipping.

The general maritime workers' strike in the United States was actually on for a time, having commenced at midnight last night when the deadline came without general announcement at that time that the union demands being met. How long it would take to get men back at work was rather confused at the start.

Earlier yesterday there had been word that the government was shoving ship operators aside in seeking to end the threat of the maritime strike on its own terms at the last minute. The government terms were expected then to "boil down" to about a 3 percent pay boost with no reduction in hours.

RELEASE IS DEMANDED

Durants Deny Any Criminal Act in Connection With Crown Jewels

WASHINGTON—Col. Jack Durant and Capt. Kathleen Nash Durant denied through counsel today that they had "admitted any act which they considered criminal" in connection with the Kranberg Castle jewel case.

Counsel for the Durants said he had demanded copies of charges, "if any," against the couple and that they be released from custody.

The Durants are held in connection with the removal of the Hesse royal jewels worth $1,500,000.

DANE'S IDEA — A Danish postmaster, Einer Holboll, conceived the idea of the Christmas tuberculosis seal.

Peace in Woods" — Strike May Be Settled

Lumber Workers May be Back to Work Again Next Week Following Latest Meetings in Victoria

VICTORIA (CP)—Hope that the lumber workers would be back to work early next week were expressed here following a meeting yesterday afternoon of an international Woodworkers' of America delegation with the Hon. George Pearson, minister of labor, said: "We are going to do all we possibly can bringing both parties together to keep them together until the matter is settled. I must be remembered that the government cannot force the parties together. Machinery for arbitration is set and ready to function. Chief Justice Sloan we have of the best men we can get. We will give the workers' delegates to give the fullest consideration to the Sloan recommendations. The dispute must be settled up."

The Union said: "We felt the door is open for progress." A statement of I. W. A. executive is held in Vancouver tomorrow to consider latest proposals from the conference with government. "We have stood for 30 days and, if necessary, we will stand solid for another 30 days," said Harold Bennett.

Commenting on the latest developments in the lumber strike, J. Stuart, for the operators, said: "The position of the operators was made abundantly clear to Mr. Pritchett Thursday when he accepts the Sloan plan and calls the men back to work. We will sign an agreement."

The "loggers' March," following arrival from up-island yesterday afternoon, paraded along Esplanade Street and into Government Street and on to the Parliament Buildings. The parade numbered about 3,000 instead of 7,000 which had been originally planned. There was a driving rain during the parade. The men were addressed by Harold Bennett at Macaulay Plains last night. The trek will break up today.

BRITAIN SEEKS EXTRA WHEAT

LONDON (CP)—The Ministry of Food announced yesterday that Sir Strachey, food minister, will fly to Ottawa Monday to discuss with the Canadian government an agreement for a supply of wheat for the United Kingdom.

The London Star said that Strachey would impress on the Canadian government officials the urgency of Britain receiving thousands of extra tons of wheat during the next few weeks. The newspaper added: "If he fails, the cabinet food committee will meet during the next few weeks to decide whether to put rationing machinery into operation."

Province Federation for Germany Favored

LONDON (CP)—In the matter of the future status of Germany, Great Britain and United States favor a federation of German provinces. France would absorb the Saar basin.

FOOD MUST BE MOVED

HALIFAX — Prime Minister Mackenzie King, returning today from Britain, said the food situation in Europe was "extremely serious." There would be repercussions in this country if strikes or other conditions would break down shipments of food abroad. He had cut short his visit abroad because of "pressing problems" at home.

MUST BE ENDED SOON

THE STRIKE SITUATION in the British Columbia timber industry, which has already done widespread damage in loss of business for the employers, loss of wages for the workers and, more serious than all, loss of progress in reconstruction and rehabilitation to say nothing of valuable natural products such as fruit and possibly other commodities, shows signs of an early settlement. It cannot come too soon for, if it does not come soon, the damage will not only have been serious but high irreparable.

There seems to be so little now between the disputant parties that it is almost criminal the tie-up should be allowed to continue—even if only a truce is called at this all-important season of the year.

The importance of work being resumed in woods and mills may not be so much in the way of stopping further loss for the operators and the workers but that much needed materials should become available for housing and construction generally and for the relief of other industries which are dependent more or less directly upon the maintenance of the supplies of forest products.

This is almost midsummer and public opinion is rising with mounting impatience at the continuance of an entirely nonsensical and unjustifiable situation.

A VITAL CONVENTION

OF THE MANY important international gatherings that are being held these days certainly none can be regarded as of more vital significance than the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission which is in inaugural session at New York.

Bernard Baruch put it well yesterday, as the commission opened, that the choice, insofar as reaching a fast agreement in regard to control of atomic energy from the destructive standpoint is concerned, was between the continuation of civilization or destruction of the world.

Horrible as they may have been, the incidents of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, which brought World War II to an end, we must believe were only the mildest indications of the potency of atomic destructive force. There can be no doubt that this is the instrument that has in the range of its possibility the destruction of every living thing—whether or not we have chosen to believe that fact.

We used atomic force to end one war. Its only justification was that it was used for that purpose. Now we must hope that the very terror, rather than the use of it, will prevent another war, the horror and destructiveness of which would be unspeakable, piling all heretofore used methods of attack or defence.

Yes, this atomic session at New York is a gathering of the most vital importance.

NO NURSING SCHOOL HERE THIS YEAR

Prince Rupert General Hospital will not have a nurses' training school this year, at least. The idea was suspended at a meeting of the hospital board last night after letters from city and district schools indicated a lack of prospective student nurses willing to enter Prince Rupert General Hospital.

A communication from Principal W. W. C. O'Neill of Booth Memorial High School informed the board that there are no prospective trainees this year but that there is a possibility that there might be two or three from the graduating class of 1947. No interest in entering training here was expressed by graduating students of the Smithers High School.

"We might as well close the discussion about a training school for the present, at least," said Arnold Flaten, chairman of the training school committee. "We have plain evidence there that we won't be able to get students."

The board followed a suggestion that the committee be discharged and that action in the matter be suspended until a more favorable date.

The nurse shortage at the hospital remains highly critical, according to its lady superintendent, Miss Phyllis Mooney R. N. Miss Mooney told the board that she recently had to recall two nurses from their holidays to take night duty.

"I haven't anyone for night duty," she said. Miss Mooney presented the board with a schedule for salary increases asked by the nursing staff, based on an increase of from $90 to $100 a month including full maintenance. The matter was referred to a special meeting which will be held in the near future to discuss wages, working conditions and proposals in that regard by the Graduate Nurses' Association of B.C.

Board members admitted the need to pay higher wages in Prince Rupert than in southern hospitals, but pointed out the fact that for taxation purposes, nurses at the Prince Rupert General Hospital are charged board and room rates of only $25 a month, which decreases

This is Mr. Wallis' first visit to Prince Rupert and he is favorably impressed. A visit to the great freezing plant of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage was a revelation to him. All good reports of Prince, he has heard before coming here were more than justified.

Five Hundred Delegates at Convention Opening Today

JASPER, Alta.—Jasper Park Lodge officially opened its twenty-fifth season here today with the arrival of the first delegates to the annual convention of the International Rotary District which starts today with 500 delegates present.

Unofficially the Lodge has been operating for several days as this world-known Canadian Rockies summer resort has been the headquarters for the Paramount movie party headed by Bing Crosby and Joan Fontaine doing mountain scenes for their forthcoming spectacular technicolor film "The Emperor Waltz." This party will continue their work for another 10 days at various selected locations throughout Jasper National Park.

During the war, when the Lodge was closed for four years, Jasper figured prominently in military operations when news was finally released. It was here that the famous Lord Lovatt scouts received their mountain training; it was also here on Lake Patricia at the foot of Pyramid Mountain that experiments were carried out on the fantastic "Habbakuk" ice battle ship operation, which was a brain child of the Quebec Conference. This was one of the prize "hush-hush" secrets of the war.

Bookings Are Very High

Bookings at Jasper are the heaviest in the history of the Lodge and these include a large number of prominent citizens of the United States and Canada. The Lodge is practically booked for the season. Len Hopkins and his Chateau Laurier Orchestra, well known on the CBC airwaves, will be here for the summer.

LOCAL PEOPLE INVITED TO KETCHIKAN

An invitation has been received by Mayor Daggett for the citizens of Prince Rupert to attend the July 4 celebration at Ketchikan which the people of the Alaska town plan to make the biggest event in years. Planned are colorful parades and a sports festival in which the Ketchikan committee hopes Prince Rupert will be represented. It is understood that a Prince Rupert baseball team will be represented and possibly some local boxers for a fight card in the evening.

W. D. Lambie, president of the Baseball Association, says that he plans to have the baseball team flown up in the Haida Queen.

Legion fight promoter Jimmy Nicoll has intimated that some local boxers may take advantage of the invitation by Ray Smith of Ketchikan to take part in a boxing card.

poured in, to such an extent that there are 600 applications for the 200 available places in the tourney. The golf course was completely reconducted during its idle war years under the supervision of the famous architect Stanley Thompson, assisted by the veteran greenskeeper Bill Brinkworth. With a few days of hot sun it will be in excellent shape and already low scoring has been done by Bing Crosby and members of his party.

John Stark after several years in military service overseas, who has been with the C.N.R. Hotel Department for many years, has returned to take over the management of the Lodge.

I know what a help it would have been to me if, when I was twenty-one, I had been given a life assurance policy that could be continued as Whole Life, Life Paid-up at 60, or Endowment at the same age, for as much as five times the original amount without increasing the premium. # CLOTHES DRIVE GOING AHEAD

Greater Impetus During Next Week Hoped For

Handles for the national clothes drive are coming in more satisfactorily but have not reached the peak anticipated by the volunteer committee in charge of the local campaign. According to Mrs. J. J. Gillis, committee chairman, three loads have been collected during the first week but she thinks that the campaign to assist the citizens of war ravaged countries will gain greater impetus during the next week.

"I realize that the city has a population which it had during the last clothing drive last year when six and a half loads were collected," she said. "I think that we should do as well in proportion as we did in the last drive."

Mrs. Gillis said that people should have large bundles of clothes to contribute can have it transported to a collection center by phoning herself or Mrs. C. A. Brind. A truck will be sent around.

Archdeacon Urges Utility Churches

LIVERPOOL, Eng. (AP)—A suggestion that "utility" churches be erected in new housing areas until materials are available for proper buildings was made by Ven. C. F. Twitchett, archdeacon of Liverpool. "I don't want to suggest putting up prefabricated churches which will last four years," he told the Liverpool diocesan conference. "But I am asking that we be provided with suitable materials which will not affect the housing program and will give a mission church or hall to serve until we can erect a new church."

CHURCH UNION NOT NEW HERE

Ontario Village Has Varied Congregation

SHANTY BAY, Ont. (AP)—The union of the Anglican and United Churches now being discussed in Canada is not new to this small parish, five miles east of Barrie, where for years all Protestants, whether Anglicans, Baptists, Presbyterians, or members of the United Church have tended the 108-year-old St. Thomas Anglican Church.

"There is a great communion of spirit here and union just developed," said Rev. George Lark, rector, who has just returned to his parish after service as a chaplain in the Canadian Army "Everyone works together when you have just one church like this... there is no division and no competition."

"In St. Thomas we conduct a 'low' Anglican service," he said. "And I make sure everyone can follow by calling out page numbers... we administer communion after the custom of the Anglican church but United Church people have accustomed themselves to it."

And all share in the administration of the church. The two wardens are Anglicans, but the organist is a Presbyterian and most of the sidemen are United Church members.

The home of Mrs. W. C. Peterson, 1408 Sixth Avenue East, was the scene Thursday night of a delightful miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Ethel Bury whose marriage to Jerry Vrebrosch will take place June 27. Servitors were Mrs. J. H. Owen, Miss Barbara Moran, Miss Joyce Peterson, Miss Ossie Holkestad and Miss Amie Montesano. Those present were Mrs. Ada Postuk, Mrs. Dot Vickerman, Mrs. Gladys Busch, Mrs. Phyllis Bury, Mrs. Alice Denton, Mrs. Nellie Weiss, Mrs. Ollie Maslenski, Mrs. Myrtle Kilborn, Mrs. Dot Keehan, Mrs. John O'Dowes, Mrs. Al Wasyk, Miss Barbara Postuk, Miss Rene Croxford, Miss Amie Montesano, Miss Betty Milton, Miss Mimmie Johnson, Miss Gwen Walker, Miss Ossie Holkestad, Miss Betty Blake, Miss Joyce Peterson.

Flower Ideas for the June Bride

Adorn—but do not conceal—the wedding gown, is the rule for 1946 bride's bouquets. This principle is illustrated with the crescent-shaped example at right—blending pink camellias, dwarf elf roses and traditional lily of the valley. Well balanced and easy to carry, note absence of ribbon streamers—just small loops at centre, enough to cover the bride's hands. At left, unusually colorful is this modern bride's bouquet of Gloriosa lilies, coral Gerba daisies and copper tulips.

SEA CADETS— "JOBES" WIN

Boys' Whaler Race and Girls' Cutter Sprint Prove Interesting

Honors for the local Sea Cadet Corps were able upheld on the westerly chopped waters of Prince Rupert harbor last evening when the local boys by a smart margin of at least four lengths outdistanced a crew of H.M.C.S. Charlottetown. The experience and superior co-ordination of the Cadets was clearly demonstrated in the control and handling of the craft. The local lads held their commanding lead over the entire course.

Equally interesting was the cutter race of girls in which Job's Daughters edged out the Wrenettes in a close contest. The Wrenettes started out in the lead but the Job's Daughters, with a longer and steadier stroke, pulled into the lead and finished a full length ahead.

The races attracted a considerable crowd of spectators to vantage points along the waterfront.

Commander John Wolfenden of H.M.C.S. Charlottetown was starter and Lieut. Cmdr. Eddy, naval officer in charge here, was judge.

After the race, the girls of Job's Daughters went through the amusing tradition of throwing the coxswain overboard.

With Frank James as coxswain, the Sea Cadet crew consisted of Bob McChesney, stroke, Stan Hemmons, Len Youngman, Charlie Currie and John Kennedy.

The H.M.C.S. Charlottetown crew comprised Lt. Tilley, coxswain, L/S Martin, O/D Denington, O/D Duguid, O/D Paliser and O/D Miller.

Crews for the girls' team were as follows:

Wrenettes—Joan Croxford and Ruth Walton (strokes), Ethel Hemmons, Lorraine Youngman,

SHORT SPORT

Gone over the horizon is Marse Joe and coming up the road is Arkansas Will. The few veterans left who covered the New York Yankees during all their championship seasons are still saying that it couldn't have happened to two finer guys. Joe McCarthy deserved the rest, for his gallstones by this time must be as big as his Irish heart. There was some speculation at first as to whether Joe was invited to quit by Larry MacPhail or resigned of his own free will. When he was in Brooklyn MacPhail used to fire and rehire Leo Durocher every other day. He never once did that with McCarthy. The old head had too much respect for Marse Joe, the little ex-minor leaguer from Louisville who won the National League pennant with the Chicago Cubs in 1929 and then piloted the Yanks to eight flags and seven world's championships all within 12 years—1922 to 1943.

It might be that Bill Dickey will make a good manager for the Yanks. He's a real student of the game and it should be pointed out that if he didn't care so much about playing with the Yanks after two seasons in the Navy, he might be managing the Newark Bears today. A few weeks before McCarthy resigned,

Nina Youngman, Edith Jordan, Yvonne Simonsen, Marissa Windle, Joyce MacDonald and Dorothy Hutchison.

Job's Daughters—Audrey Hunter and Dorothy Kergin (strokes), Marion Shenton, Lois Laskie, Mickey Murray, Yvonne Morin, Lorna Donaldson, Gwen McRae, Joyce Watts and Solveig Mork.

Frank James was coxswain for the Wrenettes and Bob McChesney for Job's Daughters.

St. Louis, New York, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia postponed, on account of rain.

ed, MacPhail was asked about Babe Ruth, the Babe's Mexican jaunt and the days Ruth spent as an $18,000 coach with the Brooklyn Dodgers when MacPhail was boss. "You know the Babe called me up and asked if we would consider him as our Newark manager," said Larry. "I told him I would but that we offered the job to three others ahead of him. They were Bill Diekey, Frank Crosetti and George Selkirk. Well, Diekey and Crosetti still thought they could play ball with the Yankees and Selkirk took the Newark job."

Thus, one of the greatest catchers of all time now steps in to prove what oldtimers always say: "Catchers make the best baseball managers." And they have a good selling point there because the catcher is the only player on the diamond who have all the players in front of and facing him. A little wave of the hand or a tip of his mitt and he has his fielders in position. Connie Mack still tips off his fielders with his scorecard. The manager of the Athletics was a catcher himself. And there are two other ex-catchers who aren't doing so bad in the American League. Luke Sewell led a weak St. Louis Brown team to the 1944 pennant and last year Steve O'Neill brought the world's championship to the Detroit Tigers. Both were catchers with long careers behind the bat.

Russian Banking

Soviet Financial Operations Explained by U.S. Newsmen After Five Years in Russia

By EDDY GILMORE

NEW YORK (AP)—The Soviet Union's vast economic setup is almost as complex and bewildering to foreigners as are the political alignments of the U.S.S.R. and sub-divisions of the land which occupies one-sixth of the earth's surface.

This correspondent—who has just returned from nearly five years' residence in Russia—herewith answers a few questions put to him concerning the Russian way of doing things in the realm of business and finance.

How does the banking system operate?

Russia has a state bank called the "Gosbank" which has more than 300 branches. Among its numerous functions, the "Gosbank":

Receives taxes and other revenues; prints the money and mints the coin, although but little of the latter is now being done; floats state loans; grants credits of a special nature; holds reserves of foreign currencies.

Half the profits of the "Gosbank" go into the bank and the other half goes directly to the government.

There is a sub-division of the "Gosbank" which operates checking and savings accounts for Russian citizens and corporations, makes loans to would-be home-owners and finances returning soldiers. Another important sub-division looks out for the financing of collective and state farms. There is no such thing as direct loans to individual farmers.

Are there any companies or corporations other than government agencies? Are small shops and department stores privately owned?

Generally speaking all companies or corporations are government-owned and operated for the "people."

There are some individual enterprises. The shoe-shining business for instance, is made up of

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it obligatory to send a gift upon receiving an announcement of a birth?

A. No.

Q. When giving a party for children, isn't it better to allow them to play their own games, rather than to arrange their entertainment?

A. No. Adults can always plan the games and entertainment much better than small children.

Q. What is the proper hour to leave after an informal dinner?

A. About 11 o'clock, unless, of course, there is some form of entertainment that lasts until a later hour.

Q. Is it customary to call on new neighbors in larger cities?

A. No.

DEALING WITH MOTHERS-IN-LAW

Should be Sent to School— One Way to Happy Marriage

SYDNEY, Australia. — A remedy for married bliss was offered recently by psychology professor W. M. O'Neill of Sydney University.

He maintains that while mothers-in-law are a factor in breaking up marriages, the problem could be solved by special classes and study groups to give advice to mothers-in-law, and help them to adjust themselves to the relationship with their married sons and daughters. "On weekdays, there are plenty of study groups in which it is possible to discuss problems of family and other relationships. The main aim of adult education is to help people in their personal adjustment."

Like the stepmother, the mother-in-law has been made, somewhat unfairly, the villain of the piece," said Prof. O'Neill. "The difficulties are not all her own, although her attitude and activities seem to be the focal point of the conflict. A little more intelligent insight into the necessary 'give and take' of the relationship would go a long way to prevent trouble arising."

The professor added that special study groups on the handling of children had already been of great assistance to mothers. He believed that the same methods should prove equally helpful to mothers-in-law.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove coffee stains from wash goods?

A. Rub the stain gently with a little glycerine. Then rinse in lukewarm water, lay a cloth over the dampened parts and press with a warm iron.

Q. What kind of soap should be used for dishwashing?

A. Use a good white soap for dishwashing. It not only benefits the hands, but is good for the fine china and glassware.

Q. How can I cut hot bread in even slices?

A. When the bread is hot try cutting with a piece of common twine instead of using a knife.

Q. How can I renew old silks?

A. Place the silks in a tub of cold water for an hour. Dip them up and down frequently, but do not wring them. Hang them up to drip, and iron while they are still wet.

Q. How can I bake better cakes?

A. Do not move a cake in the oven until it has risen to its full height. Cakes require a "moderate" oven. The larger the cake, the "slower" the oven should be.

Q. How can I remove egg stains from silver?

A. By rubbing them vigorously with common table salt; the stains will quickly disappear.

STEWART MAN WEDDED HERE

Miss Thelma Irene Bourk Becomes Bride of Earl Jenkins

In a quiet marriage ceremony at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral Miss Thelma Irene Bourk of Saskatoon became the bride of Earl Jenkins of Stewart. Rev. Basil Prockter officiated and the bridesmaid was Miss Vera Lawrence with Donald McEwen acting as groomsmen.

The couple will take up residence at Stewart where the groom is in the retail grocery business, having moved there recently from Prince Rupert. The bride arrived in the city on Tuesday night from Saskatoon.

ATTENDANCE BOOSTER

In the times of Henry VIII a person was liable to have his ears cut off for not attending church.

Grenville, Clark, Attorney of New York City, stated: "Freedom of speech and of the press was deemed so vital that by constitutional prohibition they have been placed beyond the infringement by any government even though chosen by a free majority of the people."

Five-Year-Old Girl Has Perfect Pitch

HAMILTON, Ont. — Although five-year-old Roselma Bunston may not be a musician when she grows up the little girl has a gift coveted by many musicians who do not possess it—a sense of absolute pitch. With her eyes closed and back to the piano, Roselma can name any note, natural, sharp or flat, in the four-octave range in which she has been playing the piano. And although she is not yet in school she has learned to read the notes of music. Roselma started piano lessons last September and since has played at several church concerts. When asked how she distinguished the different notes, her answer was, "Oh, they just say their names to me."

MINAKI LODGE OPENED TODAY

MINAKI, Ont.—Minaki Lodge in Ontario's Lake of the Woods district opened today with a booming tourist season ahead of it. Even before the lodge officially opened the Canadian Warehousemen's Association was there on a post-convention holiday. Four insurance company conventions are booked during the season. Accommodation for July and August is already taken to the resort's capacity. Recent rains have transformed the golf course into green velvet and the angling prospects are reported by game wardens to be excellent.

Ships Too Slow—Girls Try Planes

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (AP)—The brides-to-be of American servicemen formerly stationed in New Zealand are becoming desperate at the delay in granting them facilities to go to America to marry. Because they have been unable to get priorities on ships many now are saving money in the hope of securing an air passage on the service due to start this month. Some 1,000 girls have formed an American Finances Club to canvass their claims.

HORRORS OF BASUTO WARS

South African Centenarian Prizes 300-Year-Old Bible

JOHANNESBURG (AP)—Mrs. Hester Sophia van Wyk, of Ficksburg, Orange Free State, who remembers the terrorism of Moshesh in the Basuto Wars just celebrated her 100th birthday.

Mrs. van Wyk's father, Ludewick van Rensburg, trekked from the Cape before the Great Trek of 1838 started, and settled at Magaliesburg, in the Northern Transvaal where she was born. The family then moved to Bloemfontein, from there to Ladybrand, also in the Orange Free State, and at the time of the Basuto Wars to Ficksburg, where there were then only three houses.

When she was a child of 10 living at Ladybrand, the Basuto chief, Moshesh, came to the house and demanded entry and food for his followers. Fearing for their lives, the family admitted him, and Mrs. van Wyk, and her mother waited on the chiefs. When Moshesh left he carried off all her father's cattle.

On another occasion Mrs. van Wyk fled from the Basutos, taking a child with her to the banks of the Modder River, where she hid in a cave, filling the opening with rocks and stones. She remembers President Paul Kruger, President Steyn, General de Wet and President Brand.

Seven of her children are still alive. At present five generations of the family are living.

All her family records were lost in a fire during the South African war, but she still preserves a very tattered Bible, estimated to be 300 years old, which she can still read, and which she says is to be buried with her.

She is still remarkably active, and her grandchildren say that she climbed Stafford Hill (a koppie adjoining the town) when they refused to accompany her.

Record Halibut Landings — Novel Publicity Stunt — New Engine for "Full Moon"

The four-day interval since midnight on Tuesday when Area Two was closed to halibut fishing has seen almost a million pounds of halibut added to regular boat landing at Prince Rupert, bringing the total for the 42-day season to the record figure of 9,437,000 pounds. Never since quotas were put on by the International Fisheries Commission has such a catch been landed at this port. It is interesting to note that this year's landings at Prince Rupert came largely from Canadian boats. American landings constituted a much lower percentage of the total catch this year than ever before. Out of the 9,437,000 pounds brought here from the regular halibut fleet, 8,087,500 pounds came from Canadian vessels, while 1,423,500 was landed from American boats.

Bulk of the American-caught fish was landed at the Alaska ports for transport by packer to Seattle, or else shipped to Prince Rupert by packer for freezing or for rail shipment to the United States market. Thousands of pounds of American fish passed over the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. wharf in this way. A 200,000 pound shipment arrived here from Ketchikan on Friday by packer for that purpose. Fish handled that way, however, was not included in the halibut landings here.

The Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce is taking advantage of an opportunity for a novel type of publicity at the national conference of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Canada convention to be held in Edmonton next week. Being shipped to the Alberta capital, in charge of President Cliff Ham, who is the local delegate, are 200 pounds of fresh halibut, which will constitute the piece de resistance at a special banquet at the Macdonald Hotel. This, however, is not all. Also going east are two cases of specially packed salmon in tiny cans with special labels which will be placed as guest markers and souvenirs at the banquet table. The tiny tins of salmon were specially packed for the occasion by B. C. Packers, and arrived in Prince Rupert on the Cardena on Friday. The idea of a special Prince Rupert dinner was conceived by Gordon Durkin, a member of the local Junior Chamber, and was viewed with considerable warmth by both the membership and the management of the Macdonald Hotel. President Ham, who left the city today by car for Burns Lake after which he will continue by train to Edmonton, promises that he will wring the final ounce of publicity value out of the banquet. The canned salmon novelty was arranged by the Prince Rupert publicity council, and the labels printed locally.

One of the best known pleasure cruisers on the coast is having its third engine installed after 34 years of cruising and poking into inlets along the B. C. coastline. It is the Kergin family cruiser Full Moon, which is at present having a new, 140-h.p. gasoline engine installed in her valiant hull. Built at Vancouver in 1912 for Dr. W. T. Kergin, veteran physician of Prince Rupert and Port Simpson, Full

IS VERY BUSY

Jesse Bridden of Massett Tells of Activity on Queen Charlotte Islands

The co-operative clam cannery at Massett has been having a good season and is still busy putting up the popular shellfish, it is reported by Jesse Bridden, road foreman and farmer of Massett, who is a visitor in the city for a few days, having flown over earlier in the week. Eight hundred cases were put up in the last "dig."

Trollers have been having good salmon fishing around Massett, says Mr. Bridden.

Speaking of weather, Mr. Bridden says it has been the driest May and June so far he has ever experienced on the Islands where he has been a resident for many years.

RUM-SWIGGING DUCK

LONDON (AP)—A duck which lives on green peas and rum is the mascot of the 30th Field Battery, Royal Artillery, which recently celebrated its 150th anniversary. During the Burma campaign, "Donald" sat on the guntrails while firing was in progress.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. Alex McLennan, arrived in port at 5 o'clock this morning from the south, sailing at 10 a.m. on her return to Vancouver and way points.

Moon has long lived up to the claim of her owner as the fastest boat of her type on the coast. Her present operator, Dr. W. S. Kergin, still believes in her speed and claims that she will be even faster with her new engine. In her long life, Full Moon has had a number of interesting experiences and close calls, one of them being when she dropped her rudder along the dangerous west coast of Stephens Island two years ago. Dr. W. S. Kergin, who was in charge of the vessel which carried his family and other passengers, maneuvered his rudderless ship to sheltered water, then constructed a jury rudder out of poles. This cumbersome rig was successful in bringing Full Moon and her passengers back to Prince Rupert.

On her regular weekly voyage.
