Lloyd Whalen of Vancouver
spoke against an amendment
which would have placed res ponsibility to increase produ tion in the hands of labor. He said that responsibility for the present shortages of consumer goods belonged to capital.
Rigid price control of manu factured goods was a major point adopted by the resolution.

LABOR DISPUTE INJUNCTIONS ARE CONDEMNED

The regular business meeting of the Trades and Labour Coun cil was held last night with the President August Wallin in the

A good representation of dele gates from the various unions
in the city were in attendance.
All reported progress being made in organization and several ag reements had just been com pleted or were being negotia ted, several delegates expressing approval of the efficient man ner in which the Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union had con ducted their recent negotiations.
Letters from the United Tex tile Works of America giving the history of their seven-week old strike was considered and the delegates asked to give this appeal every support in their various unions.
The use of injunctions in la

the Council and a resolution ordered sent to Mr. Lalonde, K.C., chairman, Committee of Industrial Relations, Ottawa,

Propose New Bridge For Firth of Forth

EDINBURGH, O.—More than 3,000 vehicles daily would pass over a proposed road bridge over the Firth of Forth, said Sir Fred erick Cook, formerly chief engi neer of the transport ministry.
This traffic would come from adjacent districts and would not take into account long distance traffic.

BRITAIN DELIVERS THE GOODS—Evidence of the success of Britain's export drive is provided at Singapore docks as crated cars and trucks arrive from the leading British manufacturers. These vehicles will soon be put to good use on the streets of Singapore where the lamentable lack of transport is one of the outstanding shortages in this new colony. Above, Austin cars stacked at the Collyer Quay ready for sale to these fortunate citizens possessing the precious priority docket.

RESUMPTION OF IMMIGRATION POLICY URGED AT ASSOCIATED TRADE BOARDS

H. G. Perry Makes Eloquent Appeal For Admission Into Canada of People Associated With Country's War Effort

TERRACE (Special to the Daily News)—One of the highlight resolutions of the Associated Boards
of Trade of Central British Columbia convention here Thursday afternoon was a resolution, sponsored by the Prince George Board of Trade and supported by an eloquent address by H. G. Perry, former provincial minister of education, which recommended the early resump tion of an immigration policy with special consideration of the admittance to Canada of rela tives of Canadian citizens and those of people who were asso ciated with Canada in the war.
The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce was also associated with the resolution.

In offering the resolution to the convention, Mr. Perry ex pressed the opinion that the time had come for a vigorous development of latent resources of central and northern British Columbia. As matters stood at present the cost of governmen tal operations and services bore
too heavily upon the productive and consuming resources of the people but could be eased by the increased productivity necessitat ing greater efficiency, higher skills and more especially an in creased population which would also increase consumption.

International Business At Trade Meet

TERRACE — The Associated Boards of Trade convention set tled down to business again this morning, taking on a distinctly international aspect when Ket
chikan and Juneau delegates proposed that resolutions be put through suggesting closer ties of international transportation be tween Prince Rupert and South eastern Alaska by air, highway and ferry service co-ordination.
Conviviality and good cheer
permeated a beach party and bar becue last night at Lakelse Lake
when delegates visited the great hot spring site there.

PEARSON GETS NEW ASSISTANT

VICTORIA, O.—John De B. B.
Shaw, Victoria newspaperman,
has been appointed executive assistant to Labor Minister Pear son. It was announced Thursday night. "Shaw will relieve me of some of my duties," said Mr.
Pearson.

POLIO INCREASE ACROSS CANADA

TORONTO, O.—A survey show ed today that there are 215 in fantile paralysis cases in Canada at present. Hardest hit of all Canadian cities is Montreal which now has 121 polio cases.
There is an increase in the in cidence at Windsor, Ontario, Shawinigan Falls, Quebec, and throughout Alberta. There were 20 cases in Windsor, with four new cases Thursday. Shawinigan Falls had 10 cases. It was re ported that Alberta had a total of 20 cases.

"GOVERNMENT MUST CLARIFY LABOR STAND"

OTTAWA, O.—The federal gov ernment must clarify its position as a prelude to settlement of the steel strike, Pat Conroy, chair man of the Canadian Congress of Labor was committee said in evidence before the House of Commons industrial relations committee last night.
Commenting on the current strike, which is paralyzing one of Canada's basic industries, Con
roy said: "Up to now the govern ment has stuck its neck out, and if it has not jockeyed itself, it has been jockeyed into a position where it is fighting the battle for the employers."

Did Not Fight War To Be Dictated To, Byrnes Tells Parley

PARIS (CP)—The peace conference today defeated another Russian effort to apply the two-thirds majority vote rule, voting down by 15 to six a Soviet move for a two-thirds vote
for adoption of all conference recommendations.
The vote came after State Secretary Byrnes
of the United States had told the conference,
"We haven't fought the war in order to dictate to a free world, or to have one of our allies dic tate to us. We are not going to gang up against any nation. We will make concessions, but we will not make all the concessions."

URGING FERRY SERVICE PRINCE RUPERT TO HAINES, ALASKA

Resolutions to That Effect Approved At Associated Boards of Trade Convention This Morning

TERRACE (Special to the Daily News)—Pushing through more than a dozen resolutions with import ant bearing on the future of northern British Colum bia and Alaska, the Associated Boards of Trade con vention this morning cleaned up its resolution slate.
This afternoon the delegates heard a speech by E. T.

Appelwhite, secretary of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Com merce urging the extension of a rail link from the Peace River
to Prince Rupert.
Prominent among the resolu tions endorsed by the delegates
this morning was on proposed by William Baker of Ketchikan, which urged that the Alaska territorial government be asked to finance the installation and operation of a ferry service be tween Prince Rupert and Haines, Alaska. Mr. Baker suggested that the ferry service be equip ped to handle rail cars as well
as automobiles.
Strong support of this resolu tion was forthcoming from H. G.
Perry of Prince George, who ur ged that the close relations which the United States and Canada enjoyed during the war be main tained during the post war peri od.
A second Alaska resolution approved by the Boards suggest ed that the American Federal government be asked to take responsibility for the improve ment and maintenance of the Haines "cut-off" highway born in its 43-mile stretch through Alaska territory, and the 274
miles in which it traverses Yukon territory.
Other Alaska resolutions
urged:
1. That a 10-day tourist sys tem be instituted for travellers going through Canada from American territories, and that the permit system be reciprocal,
allowing Canadians the same privileges. Purpose of the idea would be to stimulate travel.
2. That the Canadian Depart ment of Revenue devise a plan whereby United States aircraft
flying between isolated airfields
in Canada could do so without

'General Strike' Seen As Wage Order Result

VANCOUVER, O.—Union lead ers here are talking of a "gen eral strike" following the an nouncement yesterday that the Regional War Labor Board will hold wage increases to 10 cents
an hour.
"There is a possibility of a general strike in this," said Wil liam L. White, president of the Boilermakers' Union. "It affects thousands of workers and they will not look kindly on the board that beats them out of five cents
an hour without justification."
Union and board members are meeting today to discuss the new order.

STILL OPEN SPACES

OPponents of a policy of expanding immigration for Canada make much of the fact that, even in years when immigrants were coming in plentifully, there was also an outflow of Canadian emigrants to the United States. From this fact they argue that there is little, if any, increase in population brought about by an immigration policy.

The argument is more plausible than convincing. Immigrants and emigrants alike are seeking to better their economic condition. The immigrants we received in the old days were largely of a class who were willing and able to do heavy manual work, while the emigrants we lost to the United States were largely of the professional, office-worker or skilled-mechanic class.

There is no relation between the arrival of a Hungarian ditch-digger in Quebec and the departure of a Canadian stenographer across the border at Windsor. What is sure is that, if enough immigrants come in, the country, with more people to share the tax load, more customers for local stores and industries, may become prosperous enough to induce Canadian emigrants to stay in Canada.

Those who think Canada is so crowded that a Canadian must leave the country for every immigrant that comes in have been doing too much driving in city traffic. They should get out into our open spaces.

WAR ECHO

NOT THE LEAST of the virtues of the Salvation Army is its ubiquity. The blue and red of the Army's adherents are accorded a never-failing respect wherever they may be.

The other Saturday a Salvationist lassie was making her way through the men's beverage room of a hotel, selling copies of the War Cry. In deference to the lady the sound of revelry decreased by several decibels. A young veteran of World War II handed the young lady a 50-cent piece and shrugged the magazine aside. "But your change, sir?" she asked. Pointing at his honorable discharge button the young man said quietly, "I've had my change from the Salvation Army."

HARNESS SELF-INTEREST

THE embarrassment occasioned by lack of knowledge as to current conditions along the sparsely settled stretches of our two main highway systems between Vancouver and Prince Rupert has led to accusations and fault-finding.

Reports are casually borne along by relays to the extent they oftentimes are not applicable to the current situation which can change most rapidly in this north country.

A solution is apparent in the Automobile Association of B.C. having accredited representatives in most communities along the route. They perforce pay a membership fee by virtue of being for the most part isolated, one from the other, but have rarely the occasion to assume the obligations which go with membership in any organization.

A system whereby factual information could be obtained on a daily or weekly basis from autoists they serve and in turn be passed on to Vancouver headquarters and to the nearest newspaper or radio station would pay individual garage owners dividends in the assurance provided the travelling public.

The routine form could apply to the area east or west, north or south, between respective communities, so providing an inter-locking report from which any great disparity could be instantly determined or, likewise, reports could be confirmed.

Such a voluntary system, entailing but a minor mailing charge, would go far toward eliminating well-established rumors of communities belittling roads "a little farther on," and should contribute to greater harmony between communities and provide a service creating such goodwill as to fully justify its maintenance on a year-round basis.

ARAB, JEWISH WALL, PERILS PALESTINE PLAN

LONDON—The depth and bitterness of both Jewish and Arab opposition to the British plan for splitting Palestine into three main divisions have caused informed officials to doubt if it actually can be put into effect.

This opinion was sustained Wednesday with announcement by Sir Alan Cunningham, High Commissioner for Palestine, that the Arabs had declined to sit in on a round table conference on the future of the Holy Land.

This doubt exists even in the face of a report that Prime Minister Clement Attlee has won United States Secretary of State James F. Byrnes' support. This report says that Mr. Byrnes will undertake to speak for the plan when he returns to Washington from the Paris peace conference.

If it is accurate that Mr. Byrnes has been won over to the proposal, this would mean a significant shift in American policy, since the British plan apparently makes future Jewish immigration into the Holy Land hang upon acceptance of the federalization scheme.

Meanwhile, operations on what might almost be called a wartime scale have been started by the British Army against Jewish terrorists in Palestine. One of the toughest divisions of the British Army, the Sixth Airborne, popularly known as the "Red Devils of Arnhem," has blanketed the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv and is combing the city streetmeat.

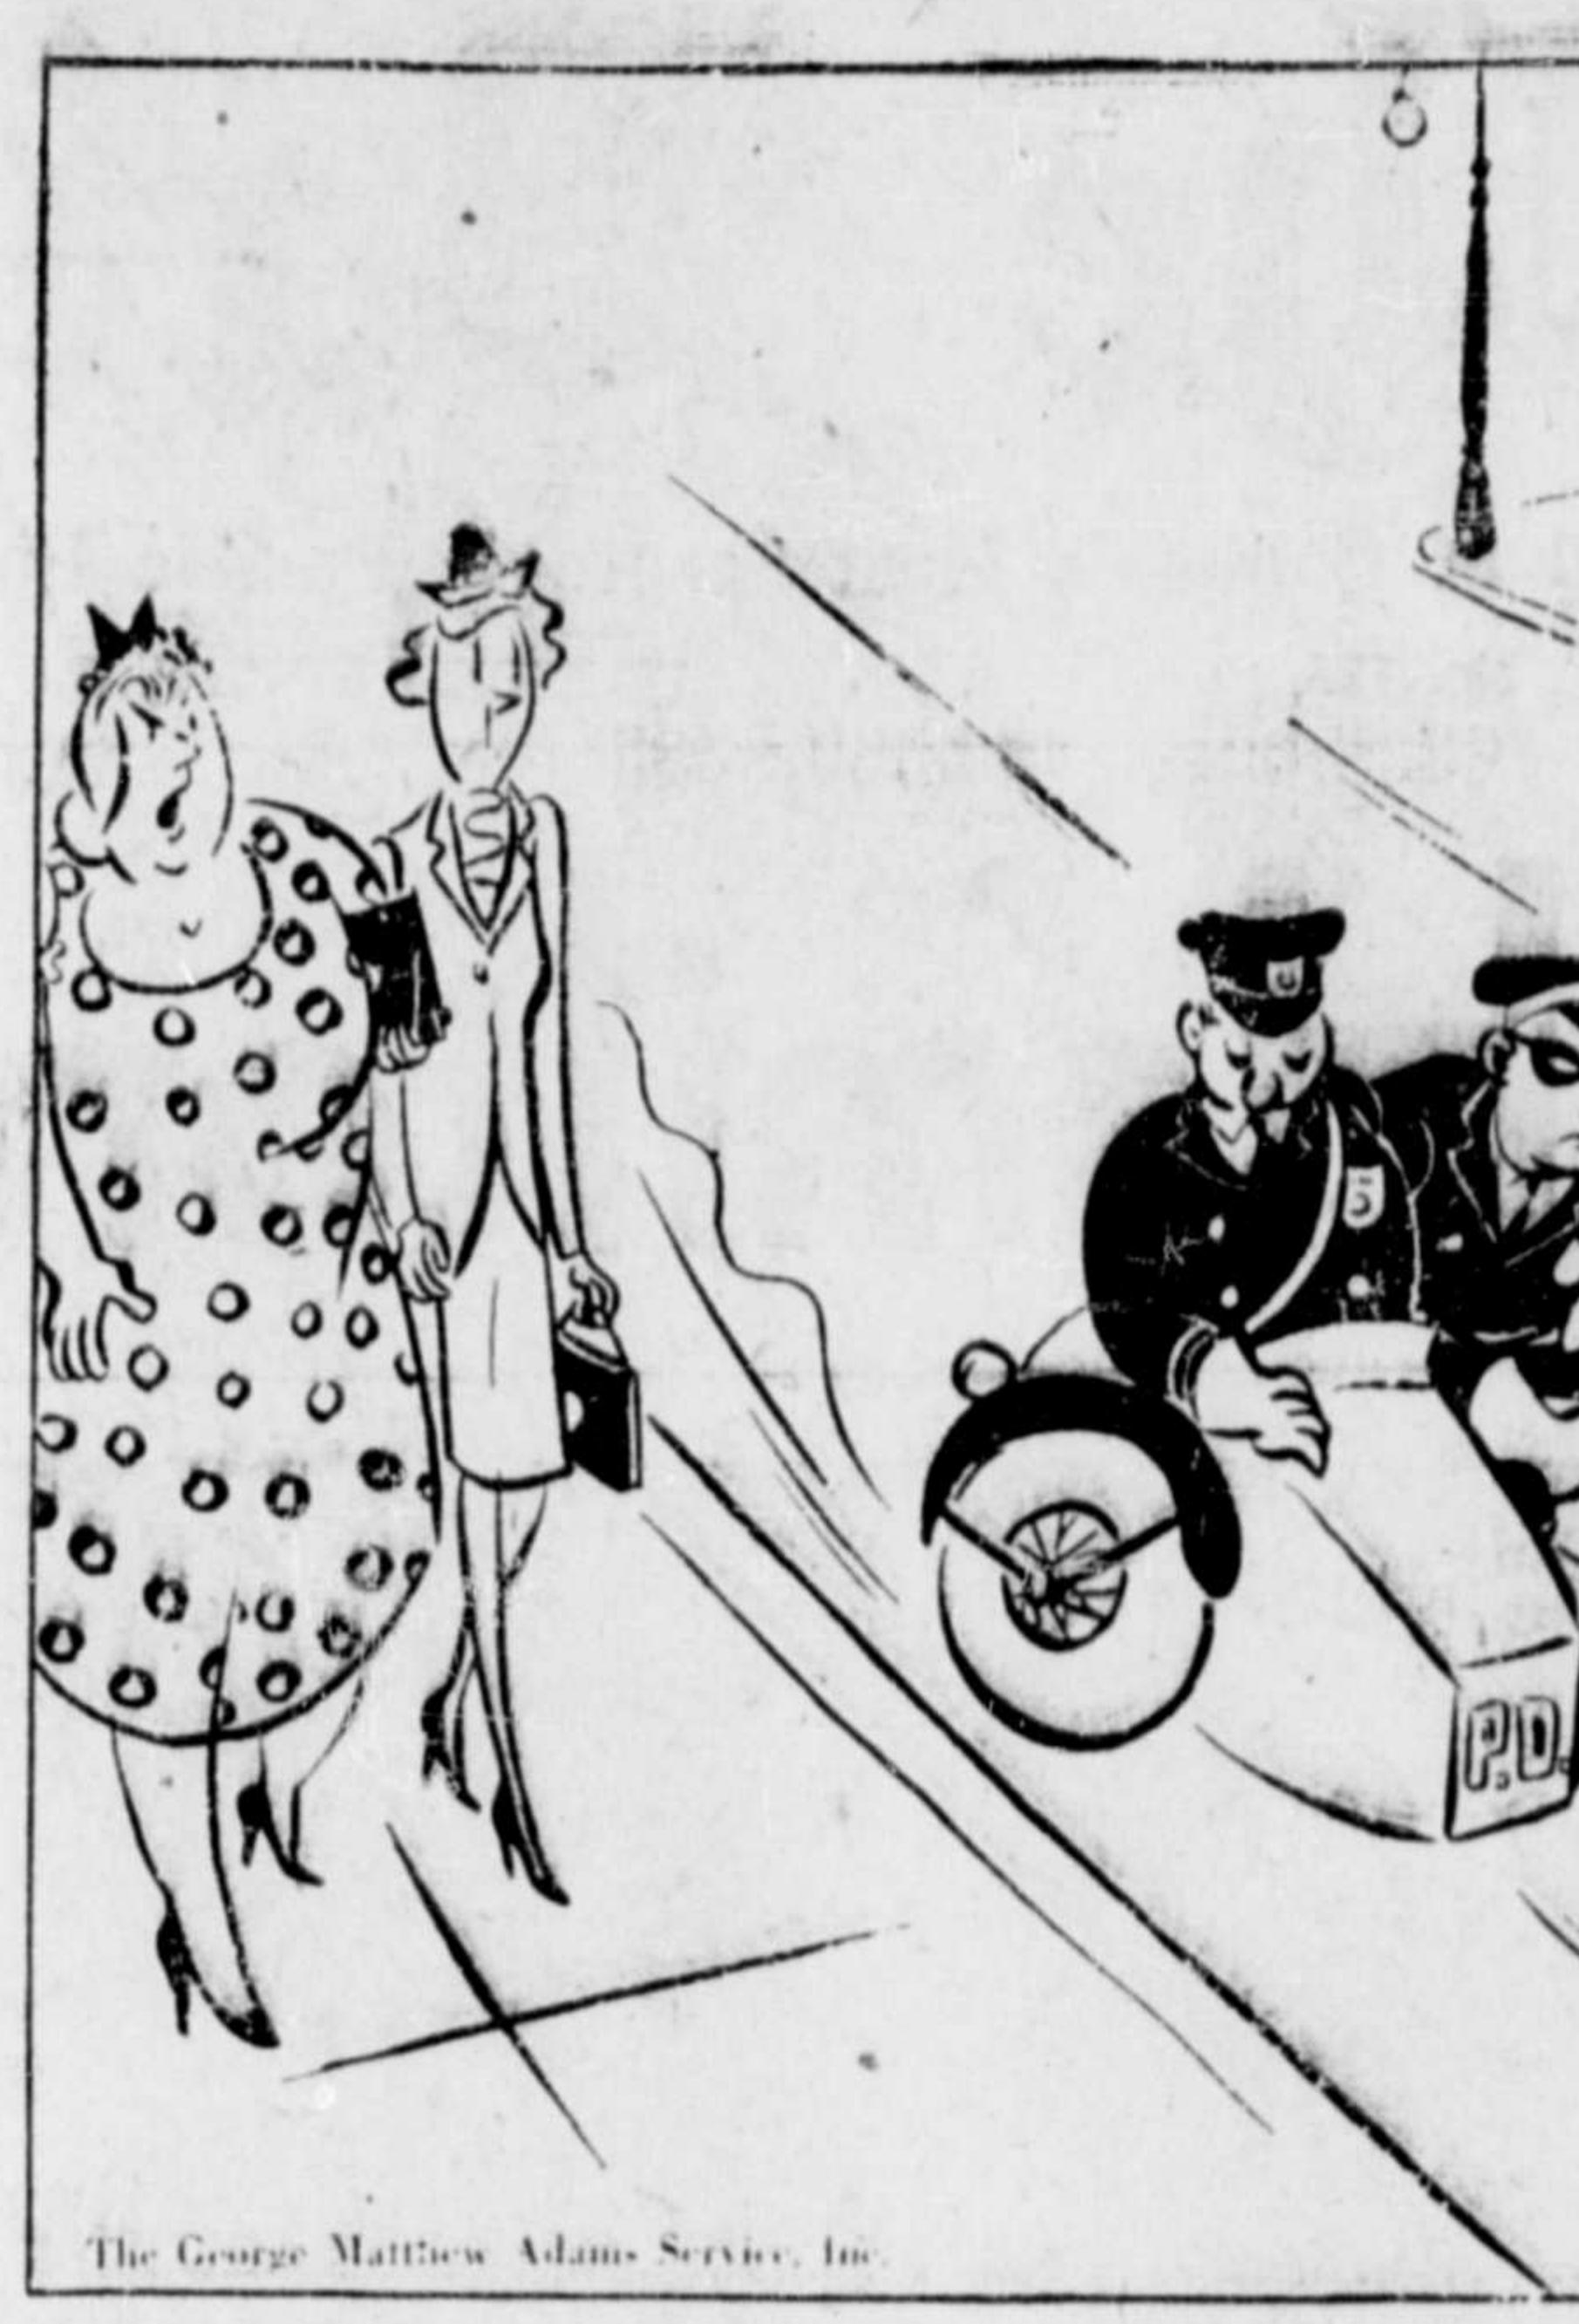

More than 15,000-strong, the division has clamped down what is said to be the tightest surfew ever imposed in Palestine. With the official order warning that "anyone breaking the curfew is liable to be shot on sight," the military will allow Jews to leave their homes only at intervals of two hours to find food.

Every single street corner and crossroad was occupied by armed troops who apparently are splitting up the city into tiny sections which will then be given a search, going into every nook and cranny. The search is designed mainly to flush all members of the Irgun Zvai Leumi and the Stern Gang, Palestine's two most dangerous terrorist organizations.

The city-wide hunt began following the discovery in Tel Aviv of the workshop in which it is believed the "milk-churn" bombs used in the King David Hotel blast were made. A number of persons have been held, and it is thought the police may now be well on the way toward uprooting part of the terrorist organization.

The chances for the foundable discussion which the British hope may end in a Jewish-Arab compromise on Palestine have not brightened during the past 24 hours.

UNDERSTANDING IS OBJECT OF WORLD TRAVEL

LONDON—The hope that the current visit of postgraduate students from Columbia University to Britain will become the first of a series which will make travel a "very much more educational experience," was expressed by Dr. Goodwin Watson in connection with the welcome to the 25 Americans who are to study social changes under the Labor government.

"There will be an immense amount of travel in the next 13 years or so," Dr. Watson continued. World study tours, of which he is the director, hopes it has discovered a way to harness this travel to international understanding.

Travel, Dr. Watson said, should bring the traveller closely in touch with the lives and policies of the country visited. "The old business of running into a cathedral with a Baedeker doesn't contribute very much to good relations," he said.

World Study Tours, an organization connected with Columbia University, New York, has arranged the present trip, in which 25 men and women are on a two and a half month study tour of Britain, France, Sweden and Poland. They stopped in Ireland on their way here.

While in England, they have been given every opportunity to talk to those who are doing reconstruction jobs in housing, trade, education, and other key fields.

BLACK DANCER FROM TOUR

Health Completes Tour of Entertainment Station

REAL — Despite hardships undergone on a Pacific tour—poor food, no milk, no vegetables, uncomfortable accommodations—the entertainment gets from the enlisted stationed there makes a tour seem worth while.

were the sentiments of Barbara "Babs" Heath on her Montreal recently after a tour of U.S. stations in the Pacific Islands and Japan.

that the war is over, the soldier has only one ambition to get back home as soon as possible, said Miss Heath, who is a prima ballerina of the musical play "Rosalinda," the largest production to tour the continent.

operetta was given full scenic and was performed before audiences numbering from mere handfuls to as many as 5,000.

places to which transportation of props and scenery was made, members of the cast were a variety show. Such a place was a variety show where Ernie Pyle killed. The 65 men stationed there are the only inhabitants of the island and no natives are allowed to land.

Heath left San Francisco in January for Manila, where the show had its headquarters for three months. From there following a visit to Subic Bay, she went to Okinawa for a trip and then to Tokyo where she played two weeks at the Pyle Theatre. A trip to southern Japan and to Kobe, Nagoya, Osaka and Kyushu completed the tour.

ing a spectator at the trial of General Homma, Japanese commander in the Philippines, an unforgettable experience, Miss Heath.

well-known ballerina, who had in Seattle from Yokohama a few weeks ago, said she was looking forward to a much needed rest in the Laurentian mountains, after which she may go for a European U.S.O. tour.

Models Publicize Airman's Flights

Designs Recalling Feats of Kingsford Smith May Go to Australian Museum

By WILLIAM STEWART
Canadian Press Staff Writer
SYDNEY, Australia — Australian Byrnes, Australian railway employee and admirer of Sir Charles Kingsford Smith, has made a modest career of publicizing the feats of the airman who disappeared in 1935 on a flight from England to Australia.

Byrnes has spent the past 18 years, first building an elaborate scale-model of the "Southern Cross," Kingsford Smith's famous plane and a globe-mounted portable shrine commemorating his flights, and then travelling to put them on exhibition. A few weeks ago Byrnes returned with his models that weight 3,000 pounds, from the United States where during the war years he estimates they helped to raise $4,000,000 in bonds and savings stamps.

Byrnes was an employee of the New South Wales State Railways when he decided to build his model of the "Southern Cross" after Kingsford Smith made his pioneering flight across the Pacific from California to Brisbane, Australia, in 1928.

It took his spare time for eight years to make and put together the 2,000 parts of the model.

When Kingsford Smith was lost in 1935, Byrnes started to work on his portable shrine featuring a four-foot globe with land areas shown in gold-plated brass criss-crossed with the routes of Kingsford Smith's flights. Byrnes printed by hand a volume bound with kangaroo hide containing tributes to the Australian flier from other world-famous airmen.

Byrnes' models were first put on display at Parliament House in Wellington, N.Z., and the New Zealand government assisted his passage to the United States where he did odd jobs to finance their transport about the country for war exhibitions.

Byrnes, who says he turned down offers of as much as $50,000 for his models in the United States, brought them back to Australia on a five year-old steamship ticket given him by the New Zealand government in 1941.

His home now is that Australian authorities will find the models acceptable for the National Museum.

THIS AND THAT

"Always clowning! Raymond can't even take the Atlantic Ocean seriously!"

WOMAN COBBLER LIKES HER JOB

VANCOUVER — Pretty Frances Chambers is a skilful cobbler and cannot understand why anyone should consider shoe-making an unusual occupation for women.

"I wouldn't change with any stenographer," she told an interviewer. "I like cobbling because it requires more talent than other occupations open to women and it enables me to meet so many people."

Mrs. Chambers started in the trade seven years ago and liked the work so well that she learned every phase of the craft. She said that she had never gouged her finger with an awl and has come to enjoy the acrid odor of hot rubber.

Her husband, whom she said she "almost married over a mended boot," is also a cobbler.

GLITTERING EXCHANGE

The early Britons and Gauls were practical about the business of jewelry; they used rings as currency.

LONDON — More than 400,000 blood donors were registered in England and Wales in 1945, and gave 393,677 donations.

Delegates' Ladies Are Entertained

TERRACE—The home of Mrs. James Smith, wife of the president of the Terrace Board of Trade, was the scene Thursday afternoon of a delightful tea in honor of the wives of the visiting delegates to the convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia. The rooms were beautifully decorated with baby royals from the garden of Mrs. Harry King. Mrs. Smith was assisted by Mrs. Harry King and Mrs. D. G. Little.

This afternoon Mrs. Nigel Sherwood is hostess to the ladies at a garden party at her beautifully situated home on the bank of the Skeena River.

FISH LANDINGS UP THIS YEAR

The record of the International Fisheries Commission show that for the period from May 1 to July 31, 1945, the following total amounts of halibut have been landed in Pacific Coast ports from Area 3:

U.S. Fleet	19,301,000
Canadian Fleet	2,360,000
Total	22,161,000

Landings for the same period in 1945 were as follows:

U.S. Fleet	17,721,000
Canadian Fleet	1,571,000
Total	19,292,000

Landings from the closed Area 2 during July were restricted to that halibut caught incidentally while fishing with set lines for other species under permit and amounted to 269,000 pounds in 1946 compared to 237,000 pounds for the same month in 1945.

All figures are preliminary and subject to amendment.

SYMBOLIC CHOICE

June became popular as a wedding month because it gets its name from Juno, the faithful wife of Jupiter and the goddess of marriage.

India to Improve Civil Milk Supply

NEW DELHI — To improve the milk supply of India's civil population, the quartermaster-general in India has offered to place the resources of the Military Farms Directorate at the disposal of civil administration in this country.

He has also expressed his willingness to implement such of the dairy farm schemes of the provincial governments as they may wish him to undertake on their behalf. In addition he is prepared to establish milk production units, each of which will be handed over, when running smoothly, to the governments concerned.

Drought Lowers Crop Prospects

WINNIPEG—Another week of extremely high temperatures and little rain other than scattered showers has further decreased crop prospects on the prairies, according to the weekly crop report of the Department of Agriculture of the Canadian National Railways. All grain is maturing too rapidly and the later sown crops are suffering particularly. The full extent of the loss of yield and grade will probably not be realized until more of the crop has been threshed.

A rain would still be of benefit to the later sown crops but early sown grain has reached the point where little would be gained by general rains now.

Okanagan Valley reports a hot dry week but prospects are still for a good crop of fruits.

CHURCH HOLDS INDIAN STATES FOR PORTUGAL

Native Catholics Respect Nationalist Movement But Hold Old-World Tie

Portugals has had Indian Colonies since 1510. Today the state of Portuguese India takes in the coastal territories of Goa and Damao, and the Island of Diu, altogether 1,537 square miles up and down the western or Arabian Sea coast from Bombay, with a population of about 601,000. It is largely Catholic.

"The maintenance of the state of Portuguese India, as hitherto, as a source of religious and spiritual contact with the western world may be desired and to everybody's advantage," said D. Jose Valia Alvernaz, Portuguese bishop of Cochín, British India, stopping in Lisbon on the way to visit two brothers in San Leandro, California.

The bishop added that Europeanized Portuguese Indians of these colonies "apparently heartily cherish this home," though Indian Catholics did not oppose the Nationalist movement and were not alarmed over its possible consequences.

Religious Status

"They trust that their religious status will be respected by all Indians when they have their own government," he said.

Goa, where Christian missionaries were at work early in the 16th century, is a centre of Indian Catholicism. St. Francis Xavier is buried in a convent in Old Goa, the capital up to 1903. Only about 350 Europeans live in the Portuguese territories. The rest of the people are of Indian, Portuguese or Indian-Portuguese descent. Early Portuguese settlers intermarried widely among the Indians, especially the nobility. Portuguese Indians have spread over Asia and Africa and even to Europe. In Portugal, they have been ministers of foreign affairs and subtle works and supreme court judges.

SHAW PUSHES ANTI-DOCTOR CRUSADE

LONDON — George Bernard Shaw continued his lifetime crusade against the authority of doctors today, asserting that Britain's socialized medicine bill would give them power to poison us or mutilate us professionally with virtually complete impunity and considerable pecuniary gain.

Mr. Shaw, who celebrated his 90th birthday last week, vented his criticism in a letter to the Times, of London, in which he admitted that "I am too old to keep hammering in the case which I started in my preface to 'The Doctor's Delimma.'"

The playwright, long a Socialist, asserted that the bill leaves control of medical methods with a body dominated by doctors, including the President of the General Medical Council, ruling body of the British Medical Association.

The National Medical Service bill, he asserted, gives physicians and surgeons "powers which our monarchs have not possessed" since Charles I was beheaded.

ROTARY HONORS NEW GOVERNOR

In honor of Rotary District Governor Roy S. Fletcher of Centralia, Washington, who arrived in the city last night on the Prince Rupert, the Prince Rupert Rotary Club held an evening dinner meeting and reception at the Commodore Cafe, which was attended by Rotary wives and guests. The dinner was followed by dancing to music by Andy McNaughton at the piano.

In his address to the gathering, Mr. Fletcher emphasized the ideals of Rotary, which give it universal appeal as an agency for friendship and service. Mr. Fletcher said that today, the world-wide service organization continues to grow in strength, and that during the last year, 404 new Rotary clubs were organized in 12 countries.

"Wherever Rotary Clubs are located, their activities are similar to those of Prince Rupert, because they are based on the same general objectives — the promotion of better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, community betterment, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of goodwill, and understanding among all the people of the world."

Mr. Fletcher was introduced by club President Dr. L. W. Kerigin. After visiting clubs throughout Alaska, during which he travelled mainly by aircraft, he leaves tonight to visit the Prince George Rotary Club. Mr. Fletcher, now retired, was president of the Centralia Business College for more than 30 years.

COYOTES, WOLVES ARE THREAT TO B.C. FARMERS

TERRACE — Depredations of coyotes and wolves in the interior of central British Columbia are becoming so great that residents of the area are urging the restoration of the 1945 bounty schedule to encourage the killing of these animals for the protection of cattle and wild life.

A delegate of the Associated Boards of Trade convention, speaking to a Burns Lake resolution to that effect here yesterday, said that one interior resident had shot 39 coyotes and 16 wolves in a single year. The resolution was approved by the convention.

A large scale electrification scheme for the central interior, proposed by Smithers, was also approved, as was a Hazelton resolution calling for rehabilitation of the old Yukon trail north through Telegraph Creek as an aid to prospectors.

Speaking to a Prince Rupert resolution urging the setting up of navigation aids in Heate Strait, particularly at Bonilla Island, Frank Dockrill of Telkwa said that it would "more than double the population of central B.C. within two years."

Reg. Rose, executive secretary of the Vancouver Board of Trade, flew north to attend the convention.
