Night of Horror at Sea Claims Man's Life Despite Partner's Rescue Effort

Jack Balfour Succumbed After Hours In Disabled Boat—Victor Dell Swam Ashore Unsuccessful Attempt to Save Partner

A night of horror and death in the raging waters of Chatham Sound outside Prince Rupert harbor was recounted this morning by Victor Dell, local former Air Force officer, who spent almost 12 hours clinging to a disabled boat and saw his 24-year-old partner, overtaken by exhaustion, slip from sight in the frigid water and drown, despite his heroic attempt to save him.

Dell's partner, whose body he is seeking to find today, is Jack Balfour, recently discharged army veteran, whose boat was smashed by last night's storm off Port Edward when its engine broke down as the two men were travelling from Port Edward to Prince Rupert.

The two men spent the night clinging to the disabled boat, assisting each other to regain their tenuous holds until they finally made an attempt to swim ashore in the early hours this morning.

Despite Victor Dell's exhausted condition, he assisted Balfour as the two attempted to make shore, but Balfour slipped from his grasp and disappeared into the dark water. Dell managed to get ashore and walked back to Port Edward. He was taken to Prince Rupert this morning, arriving here shortly after 6 o'clock.

Today, in spite of the terrible experience which he underwent, Dell is aboard the police boat P.M.L. 15, trying to find the body of the partner he was unable to save.

"It was an awful experience," he told his mother this morning as he arrived at home cold and tired, but eager to find Balfour's body.

Dell and Balfour, both employees of Imperial Oil Co. left the city at 9:30 Wednesday morning for Port Edward, where Balfour had arranged to buy a small gillnet boat. They left Port Edward about 4 o'clock in the boat and shortly afterward experienced engine difficulty. At 6 o'clock they threw out an anchor, which held for a while, then let go when the line broke.

Whipped by a strong wind, great waves battered the anchored boat, cascading crests of water over it as the two men tried to hold on in the darkness. Several times they slipped

FISH TRAIN EVERY DAY

Traffic in frozen fish shipments from southeastern Alaska through Prince Rupert for consignment over Canadian National Railways have developed to such an extent that a special freight train of refrigerator cars is being dispatched almost every day, it was learned at railway offices this morning. On Tuesday a train of 16 cars was dispatched to the United States. Today four small boats were in port unloading frozen fish from Ketchikan for transshipment.

CO-OPS, UNION SIGN NEW FISH OIL CONTRACT

A new agreement covering wage increases and hours of work for members in the fish liver extraction plants of the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association and the United Fishermen's Co-operative Association, Vancouver, has been signed by the two co-operatives and officers of the United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union.

The agreement grants workers at the two plants wage increases of $15 a month, with work weeks averaging 42 hours throughout the year. The union has agreed that the plant employees will work 48 hours weekly during May, June and July, and 40 hours weekly during the other nine months.

The wage increase is retroactive to July 20, and the hours of work clauses become effective November 1. The hourly conditions apply also to laboratory and office workers in the two plants.

Included in the new contract are provisions for three weeks' holiday with pay for workers in the Prince Rupert plant and two weeks' holiday with pay for Vancouver employees. This clause was effective in earlier contracts.

Signing officers for the U.F.A.W.U. were William Rigby and Alex Gordon of Vancouver. T. H. Sorensen and Anton Martinsen signed for the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative. Negotiations for the new contract began September 20.

Arabs In Uprising

Situation Looks Ugly Again In Jerusalem Following New Outbreaks

JERUSALEM — Ugly talk of an Arab uprising spread through Jerusalem today in the wake of two attacks yesterday attributed by police to Jewish extremists in which four British soldiers were killed and at least twelve Britons and six Arabs were wounded.

Leaders of the Irtuwah, Palestine Arab army, have called for a parade and mass meeting tomorrow in the Arab city of Nablus as rumors of the uprising spread.

Palestine is quiet today with heavy police and troop patrols on duty.

Meantime the Arab High Command says it cannot agree to the latest request of President Truman of the United States that the admission of 100,000 Jews to the United States be consented to.

PRINCE RUPERT LOAN PURCHASES, EXCLUDING PAYROLL, ARE $170,000

Inconclusive figures for Prince Rupert, exclusive of payroll figures, show Prince Rupert people so far having taken out over $170,000 in Canada Savings Loan subscription. Subscriptions at a corresponding time in the Ninth Victory Loan last year were $839,000.

The provincial total is now $607,500.

The cumulative total for payroll returns in the province are $5,213,300.

The first firm of over 1,000 employees to reach eighty percent employee participation is the Pacific Mills Ltd. of Ocean Falls.

Canadian National Telegraph employees in Vancouver are over eighty percent participation.

University of British Columbia students have now reached $240,000 and the end is not in sight.

ASHORE ON COMOX BAR

Princess Norah is Stranded Overnight Down Coast

VANCOUVER — The steamer Princess Norah, while bound from Union Bay to Westview, went aground on Comox Bar yesterday and was not refloated until this morning. Passengers and crew remained aboard.

The 2,731-ton vessel, reported to be "in no danger," had an unknown number of passengers. She was expected to refloat herself at high tide this morning from the bar two miles off Comox harbor.

Safeguards Are Wanted

Mistake of Unilaterality Will Not Be Repeated

NEW YORK—Russia's proposals for world arms reduction were assured of full airing by the United Nations Assembly today when a fourteen-nation general committee decided to include the disarmament question in the Assembly's agenda. Russia's proposal met with a sympathetic response providing there are sufficient safeguards to ensure that disarmament is actually carried out by all nations undertaking to do so.

Warren R. Austin, chief United States delegate, last night told the General Assembly that his country accepted Russia's arms limitation proposal but only on conditions which would prevent a repetition of the last experiment in disarmament.

"After the last war," Mr. Austin said, "we made the mistake of disarming unilaterally. We should not repeat that mistake." He said that the United States was prepared to co-operate fully with all other members of the United Nations in disarmament.

The resolution that disarmament be included on the agenda was moved by the British delegate, Sir Phillip Noel-Baker. The matter now goes to the economic and security committee.

TAXATION MAN IS AMBASSADOR

OTTAWA—Appointment of C. Fraser Elliott, deputy minister for taxation in the Department of National Revenue, is to be the new Canadian ambassador to Chile, it is reported. Mr. Elliott, who comes from Winnipeg, takes over in Chile from W. F. Chipman who left a year ago to be ambassador to Argentina. It is understood official announcement of Mr. Fraser's appointment is to be made within a couple of days.

NO GRAIN IS ARRIVING YET

Should Start Arriving Some Time Next Week

Expected delivery of Alberta wheat to the Prince Rupert terminal elevator has been delayed and shipments of grain, expected to begin this week, probably will not start until some time in November, the Daily News was informed this morning.

Original information at the grain elevator here indicated that the shipments would start arriving about November 1. No information was available, however, on the details of shipping movements to export the grain, or the quantity in which it would be shipped.

Reason given for the delay in shipments is that bad weather on the prairies is holding up the harvest which ordinarily would have been garnered by this time.

BY-ELECTION DATE IS SET

OTTAWA—December 23 was yesterday announced as the date for the federal by-election in Richelieu-Vercheres, the Quebec seat made vacant by the death October 20 of the late Hon. J. P. A. Cardin, Independent. It is the only vacancy in the House at this time. The seat is traditionally Liberal. Prime Minister Mackenzie King last night announced passing of the order-in-council fixing the election date.

British Embassy in Rome Wrecked by Explosion

Perpetrators of Explosion Not Known— Ambassador's Apartment Badly Damaged

ROME (CP)—A bomb explosion, which shook the city, wrecked an entire wing of the British embassy early today and wounded an Italian passerby, perhaps mortally, two other persons being less seriously injured. Police and embassy officials were without a clue to identify the perpetrators. The apartment of Sir Noel Charles, ambassador, who is away on leave, was heavily damaged.

A gaping hole, reaching back for a depth of two rooms, was torn in the building by the blast, which resulted from two suitcase full of explosives being detonated by clockwork. Heavy masonry of the block-long structure cracked so deeply that police said part of the building might have to be pulled down.

Personnel of the embassy escaped injury.

A member of the staff said the blast sounded to him like a 500-pounder.

Windows throughout the building and in buildings across the street were shattered.

A police officer hazarded the theory that diehard fascists who strewed explosives around half a dozen Italian cities Monday, the twenty-fourth anniversary of Mussolini's march on Rome, might have been responsible.

Already a note of regret has been sent by the Italian to the British government.

MUCH LIQUOR IS INVOLVED

United Distillers Challenges Validity of Search Warrant

VANCOUVER — Export sale of liquor amounting to several million dollars are said to be involved in the investigation now under way here and as a result of which Robert Bracken and Oswald Thomas are charged with perjury in connection with the printing of export price lists submitted to the Office of Price Administration in the United States.

United Distillers challenges the scope of a search warrant under which its offices were searched.

Chief Justice Wendall Farris, who criticized the warrant, granted the application of F. A. Sheppard, company solicitor, for an order that it be brought into Supreme Court and the rights of the police to act under it will be argued in chambers November 8. The judge termed the scope of the warrant "startling to say the least."

Police search of the offices of United Distilleries Ltd. for documents, detectives said, might afford evidence in the perjury case which was halted yesterday by a court order challenging the validity of the warrant.

In Africa, Arab and Negro "sportsmen" once shot down, netted, decoyed, speared, bought or kidnapped Negroes for the slave trade.

LAST ONTARIO STRIKE SETTLED

Bush-Workers' and Electrical Workers' Tie-ups Are Concluded

TORONTO — Ontario's wave of strikes—which at their peak left close to 40,000 workers idle—was, virtually at an end today.

Striking northern Ontario bus workers—the Union said they numbered 10,000—will return to work, gaining union recognition and $5 per day minimum wage.

The Amalgamated Electric Co. strike in Toronto, involving 700 workers for 115 days, is also settled.

These were the last major strikes in the province.

THREE DEAD IN BOMBING

BALTIMORE — Police said today that three men were killed and seven injured when a homemade incendiary bomb was tossed into the living room of a seaman's rooming house here. Police said that the proprietor received a vague warning a week ago.

LONDON — Former Prime Minister Winston Churchill declared today that he hoped the United Nations would sweep away war talk by providing for an exchange of "actual military facts, supported by adequate reciprocal inspection."

OBSERVANCE OF EDUCATION WEEK

Parents Invited to "Open Day" At All City Schools

Next week, November 3 to 9 has been set aside throughout all of Canada as "Education Week" and in all provinces the attention of parents, and indeed all who are interested in education, is directed towards this most vital phase of our progressive civilization. In Prince Rupert the arrangements for the observance have been placed in the hands of the Public Relations Committee of the Prince Rupert and District Teachers' Association and this committee has now completed the organization for the week.

There will be short radio addresses, through the courtesy of C.F.R., each evening of the week. There will be articles in the newspapers. On Tuesday afternoon an "Open Day" will be held at the elementary schools.

On Wednesday afternoon the "Open Day" at the Booth Memorial High School will take place. This arrangement will enable parents who have children in the elementary and high schools to visit both schools.

On Thursday evening there will be a public meeting in the Civic Centre with short addresses and items from all schools of the city. Conrad Street School will stage an action song, King Edward School will put on a folk dance, Borden Street School choir will sing a group of numbers, the Annunciation School will sing two songs and there will be physical education displays by boys and girls of Booth Memorial High School.

In recent years the observance of Education Week has been appreciated more and more by the parents and it is hoped that this year there will be a large attendance of grown-ups at the schools on the afternoon of the "open days."

...the Matter of Policing

PROVINCIAL POLICE or city police, if it comes down to a choice between the two forms of maintaining law and order within the corporate limits, will raise a first class issue for local discussion. The question of cost may well be a decisive factor. The commissioner of British Columbia police has suggested to the city council that, in view of rising costs, it may be necessary to charge the city more for the service when the time for renewal of the present agreement expires. One answer to this, of course, would be to reduce the police service now being given and thus reduce the cost.

Whether or not the city, by embarking upon its own policing, would be able to give service comparable with that provided by the provincial police would be a matter of speculation into which many factors—some quite hypothetical—would enter. Whether the personnel could be obtained at all at a reasonable cost—the provincial police is not noted for the high wages it pays—is another question. There would also be the expenses incidental to setting up a complete new police organization. The city would be expected to take all these factors into consideration with the same attitude of meticulous economy which it exercises in other matters due to the fact that its financial resources are so limited.

There may be a more or less unreasoned feeling abroad that the form of city policing might well be due for a change. Against this should be fairly weighed consideration of whether, by and large over a period of some twenty-five years now, the city has not received good policing from the British Columbia force. The big argument in favor of city policing is the more direct control the municipality has over a department which none can deny it has every right to control. On the other hand, there is nothing to indicate that, if the city was not satisfied at any time with the way the provincial force was carrying on its duties, recourse would not be readily available and necessary changes made. Against any advantages that might accrue from straight city policing, it would be well not to forget that there would be certain problems, difficulties and possible distasteful unpleasanties at times.

It is easy to say that it is time for a change but it might not be so easy, even if we may not be altogether satisfied with what we are getting now, to establish without doubt that we would be any better off if the change were made. The Daily News makes that statement realizing that this paper itself has in the past, when the occasion appeared to justify it, criticized the policing of the city by the province.

About all we can suggest now is that the matter of policing be considered from a business-like and realistic standpoint. The service we will get is all a matter of conjecture. No one can say whether we would get better service by assuming the complete jurisdiction of policing in our own autonomy or continuing to let the contract for policing as we have been doing for so long now.

The issue involves to some extent the old question of whether it is more economical and efficient to do a job by day labor or contract. Much depends upon the kind of labor we are able to get or the kind of contractor. In policing, at least, we are fairly well acquainted with our contractor. If we made a change, we would have to take a chance on the kind of labor we would be able to employ. We might or might not be justified in taking the chance.

HALLOWE'EN

THE YOUNG PEOPLE of Prince Rupert may well be trusted to make tonight a happy and harmless celebration of Hallowe'en. At least two of the service clubs have taken active steps to provide recreation for the occasion. The Students' Council of the High School and the Teen Town organization have been leading in the movement to make it a safe and sane, yet enjoyable, evening. It is not likely, then, that there are any elements who would let down these people by indulging in unseemly or wanton acts.

If those who would play tricks would think about what they are doing and do as they would be done by there may be no fear of anything untoward happening. If every person, young and old, would be his own policeman for the night and no one sneaks around surreptitiously doing uncalled for or unpleasant acts out of sheer sneaky vandalism, it will be an evening of good-natured fun for all.

LETTERBOX

ANSWERS MR. TRAXLER Editor, Daily News:

I guess anybody's got a right to express an opinion but some folk's opinions are a bit queer. That Mr. Traxler now for instance, some of his ideas are a little odd, don't you think?

Mr. T's letter reminded me of something I read once. It went like this: (I think Milton wrote it).

"We can make a hell of a heaven.
A Heaven of hell.
But what matter where
If I be still the same?"

Do you s'pose, Mr. Editor, that maybe Mr. Traxler felt that way about the last place he was?

You know, I'm sorry about that boat incident. He should have asked the chap I asked. This chap not only knew the time of sailing, but he took my pal and me in his own car to the boat a half hour before sailing time and showed us through the whole beautiful little ship. I did enjoy that!

And Mr. T. should deal at the store I do. Boy, oh boy! Was I thrilled when the clerk handed me—well, I won't tell what it was, but I hadn't seen any for months, maybe years, back where I come from. No, I ain't got no kick coming! Maybe Mr. T. doesn't know about it being smiles that fetch out those things from under the counter.

I wish Mr. T. could meet some of the grand nice people that I've met in this grand little city. (What kind of company do you suppose he keeps, Mr. Editor?) I've only been here a couple of months but I'm right glad I came. I'm proud to call Prince Rupert "Home." I'll bet fifty years from now Mr. T. will be telling his friends with pride, "Yessir, I was in Prince Rupert once!"

And Mr. Editor, I hope we get the hockey broadcasts just so Mr. T. will know that a higher power loves us anyway.

Thank you, Mr. Editor, for letting me express my feelings. Joyfully yours, HAPPY HERE.

P.S.—If Mr. T. has any more chips to spare, I could use them to keep the fire burning on my cheery hearth.—H.

ALWAYS READY FOR HER MEALS

SCIENCE has proved there are certain food elements everyone needs for health. If there aren't enough of them in a child's food, serious things can happen—such as loss of appetite, stunted growth, soft bones, poor teeth, faulty nerves, defective eyesight.

Ovaltine supplements the diet with elements frequently deficient in ordinary foods. Three servings of Ovaltine furnish a significant portion of a child's daily requirements of Vitamins A, B, C, D, Riboflavin (B2), and Niacin and Minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron.

In addition it provides the basic food substances—complete proteins to build muscle, nerve and body cells—high-energy foods for vitality and endurance. It thus acts as an insurance against food deficiencies that retard normal growth.

So if your child eats poorly, is thin, underpar, perhaps nervous, why not try delicious Ovaltine for normal growth and better appetite.

Woman Rebuilds German Aircraft

WASHINGTON, @—The only American woman holding a mechanic's licence for both aircraft and motors is assembling a German Bucker "Jungmann" biplane which was brought from Berlin as a trophy by Col. Dallas E. Sherman of Clemson, S.C.

Mrs. Joane VanMaltzahn, wife of a United States Navy Lieutenant, is putting the former enemy training craft together without any engineering data to help her. Col. Sherman intends to use it as a sports plane.

Aided by six air force mechanics, Col. Sherman first assembled the trainer in Berlin, from abandoned German parts. He was attached to the Air Transport Command.

Later he flew the two-seater to Paris, had it crated and shipped at his own expense to the United States.

He believes the Jungmann was the first and last such "war trophy" authorized by the U.S. military authorities. Soon afterward, regulations ruled out aircraft, tanks and automobiles as souvenirs.

SHORT SPORT

The Illinois State Athletic Commission barred Harry Thomas, Tony Galento, Max Schmeling, Nate Lewis and Joe Jacobs from Illinois rings seven years ago today pending a complete hearing of "fixed fight" charges made by Thomas. Thomas, a heavyweight, charged that bouts he lost to Galento and Schmeling "had been decided weeks before" both fighters entered the ring.

Harvey Pulford, whose 25-year athletic career brought him fame in almost every field of Canadian sport, died in Ottawa six years ago. He starred in football, lacrosse, amateur boxing and aquatic sports but was best known for his outstanding play on defence with Ottawa's famous Silver Seven, world's hockey champions and Stanley Cup holders in 1903, 1904 and 1905.

KING EDWARD REVIEW IS OUT

Monthly Publication of School Makes Its Appearance

Under the editorship of Barbara Herget, the October issue of the King Edward Monthly Review, student publication of King Edward elementary school is now in circulation. Assistant editor is Barbara Hyndman and reporters are Joyce Strand, Melvin Moore, Beverly Calderoni, Andrea Veitch, Helen Olson, Ann Windle and Lloyd Mellor.

Leading article is an editorial outlining the background of Hallowe'en — "an interesting time to all children"—which adjures them to have fun—"clean fun, but remember—no damage."

Here are some of the contributions:

"Hallowe'en is an interesting time to all children. The ancient Druids of Britain lit bonfires to keep the spirits away. This custom has carried over to today. The ancient Romans held festivals after their harvests, in which they roasted nuts and apples around bonfires. This custom is also carried on today.

"Today we still celebrate Hallowe'en by bonfires, parties and eye black cats, lanterns and witches for a ghostly setting. This is what we should do—have fun—lots of clean fun—but remember, fellows, no damage."

—Your Editor.

Hallowe'en

"Funny faces everywhere, Witches flying in the air, Jack-o-Lanterns bright and gay, Because it's Hallowe'en tonight.

"Cats are meowing all around, Fire crackers on the ground, Stars are shining very bright, Because it's Hallowe'en tonight."

—Sonja Hansen
Grade 3.

A Visit To Totem Park

"On the day we went to Totem Park it was very nice. There were seven or eight totem poles. They are very grotesque looking. They are on cement bases. When we went up close we could see the marks of the axe. There are nails holding pieces on. On the back there were logs holding them up.

"There was a stone with all queer shapes on it. One was like a fish with about five faces on it. There was some printing on a brass sheet.

"There was a canoe. We could see the stitches of vine.

"We enjoyed our visit very much."

—George Henry.

Fire Prevention

"October 7 to 11 was Fire Prevention Week. Fire Chief Lock gave us a talk on this subject.

"People should be careful not to leave matches around where there are small children. Take the case of an 11-year old boy who stole his mother's matches. He got a pea-gun and when I was playing with my brother, the boy shot at us and burnt my brother's shirt and arm.

"Other people are careless

New Glove Factories Opened In Australia

SYDNEY, Australia. — One of Australia's outstanding women business executives, Miss Hazel Woodhouse has established two successful glove factories at Parkes and Wellington, provincial centres in New South Wales. Miss Woodhouse is associated with A. S. Horne Ltd. of Adelaide and Sydney. She is a trained nurse, but became a stenographer during the depression years of the early 1930's, and turned her business training to account when she opened a factory at Sydney four years ago.

with campfires and start forest fires.

"Keep matches in a metal box so that rats can't get at them either.

"Do not use gasoline for cleaning. Please heed this warning. Many people do not. This is sheer foolishness. Fire is very dangerous. Careless smokers cause fire too. Beware of fire."

—Leonard Leigh.

Barbara Hyndman

"Mr. Moore has given motion picture shows related to our work.

"Our first show was 'The Wonder of the World.' The next, in technicolor, was 'How Birds Feed Their Young.' Next was farm animals and the care Farmer Brown took of them.

"We saw one about children in Switzerland, which showed us how they live in the Alps: There was also a musical which everyone enjoyed.

"Our last show was 'Our Foster Mother—The Cow.' This showed the care of cows and milk.

"We hope to have many more shows in the future."

—Barbara Hyndman.

SEEK CLOTHES FOR PIONEERS

Lacking proper clothes, a number of Prince Rupert pioneers are unable to appear downtown and may even miss the annual Christmas banquet given for them by the Women's Co-ordinating Council in December.

An appeal for clothes for the elderly residents is being launched by Mrs. Ross Richardson, of the Women of the Moose, who describes the need in some cases as urgent.

"Some of the men, who have no sources of outside income, with the possible exception of a small pension, are badly in need of clothes and we would be grateful if the citizens could contribute men's garments for their assistance." Mrs. Richardson said.

Mrs. Richardson recalled that several of the men were unable to attend a dinner given for the pioneers early in September by the Moose ladies and she fears that the same situation may prevail at the annual Christmas dinner in September.

Specifically required are work and dress socks, sizes 11 and 11½, work and dress shirts, sizes 15, 15½, 16, 16½ and 17; overcoats, sizes 40, 42 and 44; trousers, sizes 32, 34 and 36, coats and vests, sizes 38, 40 and 42; work and dress shoes, sizes 8, 8½, 9 and 9½.

Mrs. Melbourne Bussey is sailing tonight on the Prince Rupert for Vancouver.

Mrs. T. H. Priest will sail on the Prince Rupert for a trip to Vancouver.

GREATLY INCREASED VITAMIN "D"

THE vitamin D content of Carnation Milk has been increased from the former 162 to 400 International units per reconstituted quart (half Carnation, half water) . . . nearly 2½ times as much as before.

This additional irradiation assures a margin of safety for the prevention of rickets in normal infants, and provides the vitamin D needed for good bone and tooth development and excellent growth.

So now, more than ever, Carnation Milk ranks as a preferred food for bottle-fed babies, for their growing brothers and sisters, and for grown-ups, who also need "sunshine" vitamin D. This greatly increased amount of essential vitamin D is provided at no extra cost.

GORDON & ANDERSON'S EXPANSION NEW MERCANTILE LANDMARK HERE

A landmark in the mercantile history of Prince Rupert will be observed tomorrow with the opening of the new multi-floor department store of Gordon & Anderson Ltd., whose 15,000 square feet of floor space comprise the largest store north of Vancouver and west of Edmonton.

The modern, three-floor establishment, the grand opening sale of which begins tomorrow, is stocked with what its owners believe is the widest variety of quality hardware, furniture, electrical appliances, draperies, and gift novelties obtainable at the present time. Completely rebuilt inside, the store is housed in the Federal Block, whose top two floors contain smart departments of tasteful furnishings have surprised homemakers used to restricted wartime sales shelves.

The growth and development of Gordon and Anderson Ltd. has resulted from the foresight and business ability of its partners, Lee Gordon and Gunnar Anderson, two local men who started the concern in 1938. Since that time, ownership and control have remained entirely with the two partners.

From its original beginning on the ground floor of the Federal Block, the business has now been expanded to embrace the two upper floors. The designing of both the original and new parts of the store present clever examples of good taste and smart merchandise presentation.

Lighted throughout with cold cathode ray-lighting, which casts no shadows, the upper floor is devoted to toys, juvenile furniture, unpainted furniture and a very smart gift department. This department is an object of pride to the owners, containing as it does, fine articles from all over the world. These include chinaware, plastic art goods and a score of other types which Mr. Gordon states, the wholesalers have saved for them in anticipation of their grand opening.
