ALASKA MILITARY HIGHWAY

The Alaska Military Highway, completed in November, 1943, one month ahead of schedule with the exception of certain permanent bridge construction, was developed from the pioneer road stage of a highway designed to meet the standard requirements of a major artery and is capable of handling a flow of vehicular traffic from Fairbanks to Dawson Creek to Fairbanks with no interruption. While sea-ice and flood conditions present periodic problems it is anticipated that the construction work of the highway will have eliminated the serious hold-ups of the summer.

On the Leningrad front the Soviets killed more than 2,300 Germans yesterday and swept through 40 towns and villages.

Incinerator Is Up Again

DECISION REVERSED--

At the instance of Mayor H. M. Dagget who referred the matter back for reconsideration, the city council last night rescinded a resolution of a week ago whereby it had decided to use for the disposal of municipal garbage the new United States Army incinerator on the Kalen Island Highway for three months on an experimental basis.

The action of the council, in reversing its decision to utilize the incinerator, came after the mayor had presented a report that the military and other services were not using the incinerator themselves for consumption of all their garbage, a major portion of which was also being put over the open dump. The mayor recommended that, until the military and other services ceased to deposit their garbage on the open dump, the city should not take any action to use the incinerator. There should also be a definite understanding as to the personnel which the city should have to provide and an estimate of the cost of the fuel, gasoline and water. The city engineer and the utilities committee should also first present a report on the increased cost, if any, of the proposed operation and whether a different method of collection of garbage and trade waste would be involved. There should also be a report to the city on the cost of a proposed ramp.

The mayor also reported on visits which had been paid to the incinerator when it was found that trucks of the services were dumping the most of their garbage instead of putting it through the incinerator. Within one hour's time, 18 truckloads of garbage had arrived and only three put their contents into the incinerator, the rest being dumped.

A report from the city engineer suggested that the incinerator was not capable of handling all the garbage and also said that the city would need four trucks if it was to use it. Ald. Rudderham felt that the incinerator was "entirely inadequate." He was in favor, however, of incineration of garbage as a principle.

Dr. R. G. Knipe, medical health officer, expressed the belief that the incinerator, when functioning properly on a 24-hour basis, was capable of handling all the available garbage but he agreed that the council might well wait to be shown before making its final decision.

French Coast Hammered

Allied Bombers Out in Strength Again After Being Held Up by Gale.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—Thundering out across the English Channel for the third successive day strong formations of Allied bombers hammered the French coast from Dunkerque to Boulogne today as fine flying weather succeeded a turbulent night. Observers reported large groups of both bombers and fighters had launched new assaults shortly after dawn and soon raiders were shuttling back and forth across the channel.

Twenty-one German planes were shot down in air battles yesterday as American bombers attacked unspecified targets in western Germany.

There were Axis reports of Allied planes over Berlin last night but these were without confirmation.

PRINCE RUPERT, BRITISH COLUMBIA

DAILY EDITION Tuesday, January 25, 1944

British Naval Losses . . .

British naval losses so far in this war, as reviewed in the Daily News on Saturday on the basis of detailed information sent by the British Information Bureau, constitute a stunning record. Possibly few of us had realized just how serious our naval losses had been. From various quarters we are beginning to learn now how grave our position must have been even as late as a year ago at this time. This is but one of many stories that can be told which, had we been given the information at the time, might have been too great a shock for our courage and our morale and even our faith and hope.

It has become evident now that there was a time in this war when the balance of fighting power on land, on the sea and in the air was overwhelmingly against us. Now, as we gradually learn the truth in regard to what our position was in those dark days, we can but marvel at what we have been able to accomplish in the organization and production which was required to restore and reverse the status quo. Now it is for us to keep unflagging in our effort to bring closer the happy day when the struggle will be over and the way clear for the restoration of those things for which we fight and strive.

Roosevelt Cannot Retire . . .

With the Democratic national convention set for Chicago, there appears to be no question but that President Franklin D. Roosevelt will receive re-nomination for a fourth term providing he is willing to accept it. There is no indication that he has any intention of stepping down at this critical time in international affairs.

Apart from the general fact that it would be a poor time for United States to change presidents, the retirement of Roosevelt would precipitate first an undesirable fight within the Democratic party for the nomination and this would be followed probably by a hard and bitter election for the chief executiveship.

The President, undoubtedly, as much as any one else realizes the undesirability of his dropping out at this stage of affairs and will govern himself accordingly.

Were he able to sincerely follow his own inclinations, Roosevelt would undoubtedly choose not to run. Already his tenure has been the most arduous of any President in the history of the nation and history will record him as one of the greatest if not the greatest.

The Northward Highway . . .

The announcement of Premier John Hart, as contained in a letter to Walter Wilson of Burns Lake, that the provincial government has given up the idea of a highway link to connect the central interior with the Alaska Highway unless a Peace River outlet from Dawson Creek can be regarded as such a link cannot be regarded as very helpful to the campaign in support of the Hazelton-Telegraph Creek-Whitehorse project which Mr. Wilson has been promoting under the active sponsorship of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce.

While Prince George and the eastern route now appear to have the advantage as far as the junction is concerned, there is no reason why the Hazelton route should not be kept to the fore. There is a great country north of there which must one day be opened up for development and exploitation as northern and central British Columbia becomes more and more an important factor in providing natural resources for British Columbia and Canada. Eventually there will be highways, no doubt, northward from both Prince George and Hazelton. The more that can be done to speed them both the better.

LETTERBOX

HELP NORWAY COMMITTEE

Editor, Daily News.
Once again it is our duty as a committee, representing the Vinland Lodge, No. 28, the Valhalla Lodge, No. 67, and the Varden Singers, to report to you what we have been able to do during the year 1943.

We began the year with cash on hand of $221.56 and increased this amount during the month of February to $311.16, the difference being the proceeds from a dance held January 29.

During the month of March preparations were made for a play to be held April 9, and a telephone bridge drive to last for three weeks. These two affairs netted up $146.29, further increasing our balance to $457.45 for the month of April.

The organizing work never stopped. The amount of $60.75 was gratefully received from the Vinland Lodge No. 28, proceeds from a dance and, together with the proceeds from the May 17 Commemoration Program and donations from I. Feness, L. Petersen, T. Eidsvik and Mayor W. M. Watts, netted us $152.30. With a few bills still to pay we now have on hand the gratifying amount of $670.50.

Through the Norwegian Branch of the Canadian Red Cross the amount of $300 was sent to be used for hospitalization and needy seamen of the Norwegian Merchant Marine.

The books now show a balance for the month of May of $336.14.

The fine co-operative spirit of the different lodges and organizations again gave us a helping hand. The Valhalla Lodge donated the proceeds from a dance the sum of $73, and this increased our June balance to $499.04. In the meantime the committee arranged a dance of their own, which was held on July 9. This dance, together with a donation of $5 from J. Rognan, Port Edward, increased our cash balance to $459.34.

Our books do not show any activities from the month of July until last part of October but, nevertheless, a raffle was organized early in the year. Tickets were distributed among the members of the different organizations and climaxed with a raffle dance October 31, when the drawing took place. When music and different other expenses had been deducted the neat sum of $343.69 was added to our balance of July, leaving us a balance of $803.03 for the month of October. The magnificent amount of $115 was donated by the Varden Singers, proceeds from a Centennial Grief Concert.

Cash balance November 31 was $918.03.

Again it was time to remember the Norwegian fighting forces in Canada. The following sums were sent:

Norwegian Merchant Marine $250
Little Norway $200
Royal Norwegian Naval Service $250

In order that our forces would be able also this year to be well taken care of during Christmas, $115 was sent through the Norwegian Branch of the Canadian Red Cross to be handed over by them to the Norwegian Lutheran Church in Montreal, which so faithfully all through the year and during Christmas so well takes care of our sailors.

The new year of 1944 will now

BROTHERHOOD IS ORGANIZED

KINCOLITH, Jan. 25.—Organizing a local branch of the Native Brotherhood of British Columbia, members of the Nishga Fishermen's Association here voted the following members into office:

President: W. G. Barton.
Vice-president: H. S. Doolan, sr.
Chairman: F. R. Watts.
Secretary: H. S. Doolan, jr.
Clerk: R. B. Clayton.
Treasurer: Edward Robinson.

The following are members of the Finance Committee: W. H. Stevens, Richard Watts, Robert Stewart, J. C. Benson, P. F. Alexander, Paul Clayton, David Venn, Mathew Gurney, Samuel Lincoln, Geo. Bolton, Herbert Hall-dane, Mathew Stewart, C. J. Burton, Rufus Watts, William Smith, Alfred Stewart, Sam Stewart, George L. Stewart, W. F. Stewart, Arthur Nelson, sr., Luke Nelson, Bertie Barton and Ernest Angus.

begin with a cash balance of $103.03.

For the year of 1942, the Help Norway Committee's first year, $455 was distributed among the Norwegian forces. In its second year $1115 was distributed. All told $1570 is by no means enough, but, considering that this amount has been met possible only through entertainments, we feel that we have, at least, tried our best.

Let us not sit down and pat our selves on the back. We will have to work even harder in 1944. The committee alone cannot do much unless it has the co-operation of the different organizations and last but not least, the co-operation from each individual born in Norway or of Norwegian descent.

The memories of April 9, will always bring poignant sorrow when viewed by Norwegians and Canadian history will recall the march of the oppressors in many countries and not least will the name of Norway stand out clearly because of the heroic resistance by a peaceful people.

What can we do to help our mothers and fathers, our dear friends in Norway? This is the serious consideration of all friends of Norwegian relief. What are we doing to alleviate the distress in that future day when Norway will again be free? Now is the time to gather a respectable sum of money—clothing and medical supplies—because, as soon as the enemy is driven out of Norway, no time should be lost in sending over shipload after shipload. Why should not you and I make this possible, because it can be done and should be done. It would only be a poor reward to our dear ones at home, compared to what they have had to go through since April 1939, in order to keep the home front strong and unbroken.

Norsemen, how about pledging yourselves to a dollar per month as a Norway's relief tax, the money to be deposited in a bank and not to be touched, before we know the church bells of Norway have chimed in the Victory. Let us live up to our motto: "United we stand, until Dovre falls," so that 100 per cent help and support will be given to a liberated Norway in 1944.

RUDOLPH OLSEN,
Chairman.

PARKS BOARD—

IS NAMED BY MAYOR

Body Appointed to Supervise Restoration of Old Playgrounds and Establishment of New Ones.

Prince Rupert is once again to have a parks board to supervise the management of parks and pleasure grounds in the city. After the city council, in special session last night, had authorized the appointment of such a board, Mayor H. M. Daggett named the committee to consist of Ald. J. S. Black, Ald. G. W. Rudderham and Ald. T. H. Sorensen, who are members of the board of works committee of the council, together with Ex-Mayor W. M. Watts, John R. Mitchell and William Murphy, representing property-owning citizens.

In proposing the appointment of the new parks board, Mayor Daggett informed the council that it was his plan that such a committee should superintend the restoration of existing playgrounds and the possible establishment of new ones. The primary intention was to provide more adequate outdoor recreational facilities for children and grownups as well. The mayor referred to authority

Ald. Rudderham, who moved that the mayor's suggestion of appointing a parks board be adopted, referred to the great increase of population and the growing need of recreational facilities. The first thing, he thought, was to get grounds in shape and then call in interested organizations and persons to plan for their effective utilization.

The new parks board, as appointed, will be for the year 1944. In its appointment, the mayor pointed out that he had endeavoured to make it representative of the various sections of the city—Mr. Mitchell, representing the west end and Mr. Murphy, the east end.

CANADA'S DEFENCE MINISTER RETURNS TO BRITAIN — Senior Canadian officers and government officials were on hand at a British airport to greet Canada's Minister of National Defence, Col. the Hon. J. L. Ralston, when he returned recently from a three-week visit to Canadians in North Africa, Sicily and the Italian front. In this group, left to right, are Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth Stuart, Chief of the Canadian General Staff, who accompanied the Minister to the Mediterranean; Col. Ralston; Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, High Commissioner to the United Kingdom, and Group Captain G. M. J. Stanley-Turner, R.A.F. On the extreme right are members of the crew of Col. Ralston's plane.

INCOME TAX RETURNS

We hate to remind you but—Income Tax returns still have to be prepared!

Did you take credit for all that you were entitled to in 1942?

We have a simple record form in respect to 1943 which will assist you in preparing these complicated forms and in recording your post war refunds or deferred tax.

In addition, there is a filing envelope for receipts for donations and medical expenses and for wage and dividend deductions slips, etc., all of which have a bearing on the tax you will pay in 1944.

This record system was devised by a chartered accountant for the use of personal taxpayers.

Price 25c for envelope and account cards.

Employers! We have a limited number of these envelopes and suggest that you order a supply for your employees.
