House Burned Above Woman

"The whole top of the house and my ceiling were on fire before I knew it," Mrs. S. G. Rife told the Daily News, in describing the fire which largely destroyed a Seal Cove apartment Thursday evening. "My seven-year-old boy dashed in from playing outside and told me of the flames."

In answer to an alarm, the Seal Cove Air Force fire truck and many firemen arrived, and a few minutes later the city fire truck. Firemen had a stiff battle to save even the shell of the building.

Believed caused by an overheated chimney, the fire was well started and the upper part of the house was aflame before Mrs. Rife, who lived in a basement suite, and who with her children, was the only one in the building at the time, was aware of it. The flames had already started licking down through the ceiling of her suite, and she had little time to save her effects. Her husband, Corporal S. G. Rife, was on duty at the Seal Cove air base at the time.

The place where the chimney passed through a bedroom on the ground floor is thought to be where the fire started. Both the house and the furniture were insured by their respective owners but no estimate has yet been reached as to the extent of the losses.

Little Improvement In Manpower Situation Foreseen By Minister

OTTAWA, April 29 (CP) — Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, minister of labor, said in the House of Commons yesterday that the time was approaching when it would be necessary to rely more on men at present on deferment and those coming of age to meet Canada's mobilization requirements. Further draft deferments would have to be curtailed, Mr. Mitchell declared. The general shortage of manpower, he said, was expected to continue during the next year. The number of persons at work and in the armed forces had increased thirty-five per cent in the war period, the minister asserted.

KANDY, Ceylon, April 29 — Lord Louis Mountbatten's southern headquarters, replying to a series of questions submitted by the Associated Press declared that the Japanese drive into India had not dislocated the Allied strategic schedule or delayed completion of the Ledo Road to China, and that there was no justification for uneasiness.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. (By DOROTHY GARBUTT)

One of the young sailors, who shall be nameless, got a rude shock today when he enquired what the thirtieth wedding anniversary stood for, and found it was pearl. It seems he's invited to a thirtieth wedding anniversary party and wants to take a suitable gift. But pearls! "Gee, I ain't the admiral yet," he said in despair.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Woodside and I, deciding that the weather was too beautiful to waste, made an inspection tour of the docks and found everything to our satisfaction—all the minesweepers were in place, the fishing vessels neatly drawn up alongside and the patrol boats where they should be. It was then I had the idea about going as a stowaway on the island ferry boat. So I slipped on deck unbeknownst to anyone but the crew and the passengers and it was anchors a-weigh for Digby and points south. It was a delightful ride, all sunshine and glittering waves. Captain Calderwood and I swapped jokes. Says he, there was an old Irish carter caught violating the traffic regulations. So the cop comes up to him and says: "Now, me man, let me have your name." Says the Irishman: "Sure and me name's on the side o' me cart, as ye can see for yourself." The policeman looked and looked then said: "I can see your name's obliterated." At which Pat roared: "Make me out a liar, would ye? It's O'Brien, not O'Bliterated." Oh well, perhaps it was something in the air, but I laughed like crazy.

I'm busy like a little bee fixing up curtains for one of the forts. Thought I'd leave it for the Service Wives' Club but, ah, we shant be meeting until May 11. I decided I'd get on with it.

I'd like to thank those ladies of the Queen Mary IOOE who so kindly took over the chaperone duties for April. The Women of the Moose will be taking over for May.

Victory Bonds We Buy Have World-wide Impact

COMMANDERS OF THE INVASION FORCES look to Canada for a never-ending stream of munitions. We at home must first buy bonds. L to R:—(seated) Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Tedder, General Dwight D. Eisenhower, General Sir Bernard Montgomery, (standing) Lt. General Omar N. Bradley, Admiral Sir Bertram H. Ramsay, Air Chief Marshal Sir Trafford Leigh-Mallory, Lt. General Walter Bedell-Smith.

RUSSIA'S FEAT in turning back the Nazis was greatly aided by the tanks, guns, shells, planes and other supplies from Canada. Our bond-buyers made those shipments possible.

MADE IN CANADA for export to Germany. More bonds, more bombs.

MILLIONS of Canadian shells have been produced by Canadian men and women workers. Buying Victory Bonds will pass more ammunition along.

MIRACLES of manufacturing are being achieved in Canada. These guns are typical. We must all buy bonds to maintain Canadian production.

HISTORIC EVENT Sicily, first invasion point in Europe, was assailed by landing-barges built in Canada. Bonds paid for those barges.

COMING soon into the scene will be bases for bombing Tokio. Canadian-made planes and bombs will be there—bought by Victory Bonds.

Canada's War Achievements MUST GO ON!

THE PICTURES you see on this page give a glimpse of the tremendous part Canada is playing in this war.

Now comes the critical hour when we must make Canada's might resound in every theatre of war.

That calls for your money—money to provide materials, pay wages and finance an overwhelming programme of production.

"OKLAHOMA KID" HERE

The re-issued picture, "Oklahoma Kid," co-starring James Cagney and Humphrey Bogart, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here on Monday and Tuesday next.

Cagney plays the part of a young outlaw, a youthful Robin Hood who steals from the rich to give to the poor. He lives a happy-go-lucky existence until he is informed of the death of his father at the hands of a vicious gang headed by Humphrey Bogart, a notorious gambler. Intent upon revenge, he tracks down the culprits, shoots it out with Bogart and settles down to a respectable existence.

Rosemary Lane plays the romantic lead against Cagney. Donald Crisp has the part of Cagney's father. Others in the cast include Harvey Stephens, Hugh Southern, Charles Middleton, Edward Pawley, Ward Bond, and Lew Harvey.

Police Didn't See the Joke

When two city police constables brought in a man suspected of drunkenness at 3 o'clock Thursday morning, they left part of their evidence in the form of a bottle of ale in a door pocket of the police wagon in front of the station while they went inside to prepare their patron for a cell.

They had been inside only a few minutes when they heard the door of the police car slam and, rushing outside, they saw a man making off down Fulton Street. One of the constables pursued and arrested Raymond Davis. He was found to be in possession of the evidence and a flashlight belonging in the police wagon.

Davis told police that he had taken the objects as a joke.

Failing to see the joke, the police charged Davis with theft, and he appeared before Magistrate W. D. Vance Thursday morning when he pleaded guilty and was fined $25 or seven days.
