Would Clear Japanese Out . . .

In a lengthy editorial the influential Montreal Star urges complete uprooting of the Japanese from Canada. Entitled "Clear the Japanese out of Canada" it says:

"For years the Japanese problem has been a con-effect we would prefer to hold tinual thorn in the side of the people of British Col-linint discussions with local CCF alds, Wilson, Evans, Parkhouse, umbia. From the first admission of Japanese into members speaking for their McCulloch, Rivers, Davis, Har-Canada there has been a very strong body of public opinion in the Pacific coast province convinced that feet and wanted to speak from land, Anger, MacLean, Kuhn, their continued presence in this country was a men- the floor at Tim Buck's meeting Thomas, Griffin, Johnson, Goace to the security of the Dominion. "We know, now, however, how clear was the vis- peared an immense letter from ion of those who warned against the danger. We Mr. Worsley in the press, full know now that the Japanese in British Columbia of misrepresentations of the have from the very beginning been secret agents for Tokyo. We know that they settled in communities along the coast in order that they might spy on defences and make maps for the information of the Japanese Navy - maps which experts have testified were better than our own. We know that they concentrated on strategic points along the coas

"It took the World War, however, to awaken Canadians generally to the danger. Then the government took action. Japanese fishing fleets were seized, as was Japanese property, and the Japanese themselves were moved out of the protected areas on the coast and distributed elsewhere.

"This dispersal was made with the consent of the solely for himself and represent. Watson Kirkconnell? Are the with any representatives of the bate and we will make our club-Japanese to be taken back to British Columbia, or are they to be sent to Japan?

"Sentiment in the coast province is overwhelm- bating with Mr. Worsley whose have learned in the course of ingly in favor of clearing them out lock, stock and barrel, and shipping them back to Japan.

"British Columbia has, it seems to us, a most convincing case in favor of such action. The fact that 18,000 Japanese were born here does not mean that these men are loyal to Canada. On the contrary, the Labor-Progressive Party. there is overwhelming evidence that their loyalty is wholly to the Emperor. In other words, we have upwards of 18,000 people born here of foreign ex- a black eye. traction and in this country today who openly boast of devotion to the Mikado. The balance who were not born in Canada are equally outspoken in their devotion to the Emperor of Japan.

"There can be no such thing as divided loyalty. Such people are not assimilable into the Canadian scene. They cannot be absorbed into it safely; they will always remain a potential menace, a source of disturbance, distrust and bitterness. There is no room for them in British Columbia, no room for them in any province of this dominion.

"We should profit from the experience of Brazil. Three hundred thousand Japanese settled in that republic in a period of 10 years, after they had been shut out of the United States. At the end of that time they claimed the Amazon zone as their moral property, because they had spent 10 years reclaiming it from the jungle. They said they regarded it as a province of Japan. Fortunately, the Brazilian government had the courage to tackle the problem at the root, and promptly prohibited the entry of any more Japanese.

"One British Columbia member, Mr. Neill, speaking in the Commons, stated what seems to be the almost universal attitude of British Columbians when he said:

"I have never in all the many years that I have represented my riding seen such a unanimity of purpose, such a grim, black determination along the lines that we have advocated here this afternoon, of removing the Japs from Canada at the close of the war. Almost every public body has expressed itself, and in no measured terms, and without qualifications, that they want the Japs removed from Canada. They want that, and they want nothing less.'

"We believe the future interests of Canada will best be served by rooting out entirely from the Canadian scene this definite and dangerous menace. Recompense the Japanese for losses in property when the war is over, and ship them back to Dai Nippon. If President Roosevelt was sincere in what he promised the Japs-and there is no doubt that he wasthere will be a dire need in Japan after the war of every Japanese man and woman in this country. We can well spare them."

"EXTRA ICE TODAY LADY

If you want extra ice cubes for that hot-weather party, or for kids thirsty from playing in the summer heat, here's what to do: Empty your trays of cubes into the pan immediately underneath, where the cubes will-stay frozen. Then refill the trays. Do this well in advance so it will not be necessary for you to use the "fast freezing" in order to have a double supply of cubes when you want them.

And for particularly delicious iced tea or coffee freeze the clear beverage in your ice trays instead of water. Then serve in the usual way. Be sure, though, that you allow the beverage to cool before putting it in the trays - this will avoid wasting power.

CELLIST

Wendy Wearne of Victoria Would Form String Trio or Quartette

By C. W. CARNEY, R.C.N.V.R. (This is the first of a series of articles on people in Prince Rupert who have become proficient on uncommon musical instruments.)

Service now stationed in Prince James Black opposed the rec- Rupert is Leading Wren Wendy ommendation, feeling that the Wearne, former 'cellist with the expense of obtaining such ad- Victoria Symphony Orchestra, who is interested in forming a string trio or quartet and is seeking people who play violin

While violinists are rather scarce in this vicinity, Leading Wren Wearne is hopeful that such musicians will be located and that the group will be able to enhance the cultural standling of this city.

Far from being a stranger to this area, Leading Wren Wearne was born near Smithers and her family still lives in that locality.

However, it was while she was attending school near London, England, that she took lessons on the 'cello for three years. Before she began studying the 'cello she had taken piano instruction for some time but it was the baritone-voiced string instrument that caught her

During the 15 months she has been in the W.R.C.N.S. Leading Wren Wearne has found that she and her 'cello have often been in demand for entertainment purposes. Playing the instrument is just a hobby, of course, since her main duties are performed in the communications branch of the Navy.

Talent along musical lines seems to run in the Wearne family for her mother is an accomplished pianist and her sister plays the violin.

This modest Wren "killick" has always been fond of classical compositions and joined a music appreciation group soon after arriving here. Although she enjoys dancing she does not favor jazz. Unlike some string instrument players, however, she has no contempt at all for brass bands and, in fact, says that they have some admirable qual-

Cupid Awaits The Invasion

LONDON, June 21 ()-The invasion may be a wedding march for Tienne, a 26-year-old Belgian marine serving on an Allied merchant ship. In a village church near Brussels, the beauteous Irene is waiting anxiously for him. The two were getting ready to be married when the Germans marched into Belgium. Tienne who was in the Belgium army was captured and interned. In 1942 he escaped, made his way periously to see his sweetheart, then stole away to England to continue the fight. He has date now to get married as soon as Belgium is freed. FIRST AID AT SEA
