The Prime Minister gave notice of motion that the House aid the government in maintaining a vigorous war policy.

Progressive Conservative House Leader Gordon Graydon announced that his party plans to introduce a motion calling for the formation of a new government under the leadership of a man who has the confidence of Parliament and favors imposition of total conscription.

Mackenzie King told Commons he will do all in his power to prevent dissolution of the House while Canadians are still at the front.

A burst of applause rose from some government supporters following the reading of the order-in-council but others remained silent.

Charges Coalition Government With Not Accepting Responsibilities

VANCOUVER, Nov. 23 (P) -Harold Winch, Co-operative Commonwealth Federation leader in the British Columbia Legislature, said in a transcribed broadcast that the British Columbia coalition government has completely ignored the necessity of doing something tangible to ployment. In the latest of a series of talks by political party leaders on free time provided by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, Mr. Winch said that the Hart-Maitland government had failed dismally to accept the responsibilities of office in critical times.

It would be necessary, Winch said, to find jobs for 135,000 employable persons in British Columbia after the war.

WHY LOAN WAS HIGH

$20 More Per Subscriber Put It Over the Top

OTTAWA, Nov. 23—Canada's Seventh and greatest victory loan went soaring over the top because Canadians, on average, chipped in about $20 more per person than in the previous Sixth loan.

This seems to be the only to a loan success which almost literally swept them off their feet. Final figures for the loan cash applications (exclusive of special names). In the special names category the total ran up to $760 millions.

Looking behind the scenes at The permits will be similar this newest loan achievement, the island-hopping campaign officials found themselves worried because there were no worries. They could not figure why there wasn't any "grief" or why Asia. things were'nt going "sour" as is usual about the middle of the loan.

> They attribute the succes largely to the two factorsrealization on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Average Canadian that the war was far from won; secondly, the tremendous cum-ulative effort of systematic FOUR CASUALTIES saving on the rank and file of Canadian people.

And one very important fact: Victory loan campaigns have been kept scrupulously away from politics. The cabinet crisis didn't seem to "phiz" on could be determined. Perhaps didn't seem to matter.
