

BETTER SOCIAL SECURITY AND NATIONAL ECONOMY PRINCIPAL ARMS OF LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

new Departments of Government—Thirteen Principle Objectives Are Enunciated.

OTTAWA, Jan. 28 (CP)—The departments of the government have taken steps in the direction of so much maintenance and development of the economy after the war was forecast by the Throne read yesterday at the opening of parliament.

The principal proposals on which the government will seek the assent of parliament are:

- establishment of an development bank to credit for the conversion of industries to peace-
- to ensure guarantee credits to aid in export markets.
- creation of three departments for veterans' affairs rehabilitation of personnel and pensions, reorganization to promote planning, war employment and care to administer federal services in health and insurance.

Division of the Bank Act, provision for voting of men and women in the forces, a bill to extend the principle of aid to postwar relief to liberated countries.

Approval for Canadian participation in an international organization for the maintenance of peace.

A bill to provide war service allowances for persons who serve in the armed forces and other sources to supplement the existing rehabilitation program.

Expansion of research activities in housing legislation. After consultation and agreement with the provinces, initiation of a national insurance bill and proposal for an old age pension on a more generous scale to place a floor under prices of staple farm products.

Public Health Contest Here

The Prince Rupert District Unit Board of Health is fostering an entry by Prince Rupert in a National Health Honor Roll contest whereby a survey would be taken here of all aspects of public health for comparison with other cities of the Dominion, the general purpose to be to draw attention to local situations and what might be done to improve them.

A local evaluating committee has been authorized to proceed with the matter, this committee, so far, consisting of Very Rev. James B. Gibson, representative of the Prince Rupert Ministerial Association; Mrs. George Hills, Prince Rupert Parent Teachers' Association; Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire; Dr. R. C. Bamford, Canadian Legion, and C. F. McCarthy, Junior section of Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce.

The intensive venereal control program instituted by the Provincial Board of Health is negated in large measure by the prevalence of untreated venereal disease in Native women in Prince Rupert. It is hoped that this serious menace to public health will be arrested by prompt action of the Department of Indian Affairs, which has been asked to establish a hospital but which has not yet given an answer. The old quarantine doctor's residence on Digby Island, has been suggested as possible quarters.

Prince Rupert, until December 1941, tolerated an open "red light district." There have been no recognized houses of prostitution in Prince Rupert during 1943.

Plans for an intensive venereal disease education campaign were drawn up in December in co-operation with the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The high incidence of venereal disease in Prince Rupert is attributed to the shifting population.

WAR NEWS

REDS TAKE RAIL TOWNS

LONDON—The Russians on Thursday captured two more important railway junctions south of Leningrad and smashed to within 39 miles of Estonia. These junctions were Tosno and Volovo. The Russians are rapidly ousting the Germans from the last foothills on the Moscow-Leningrad railways.

YANKS BOMB PACIFIC ISLES

PEARL HARBOR—American planes destroyed 16 Japanese fighters and probably destroyed another six over the Marshall Islands Wednesday, Admiral Nimitz announced Thursday night. These were in fresh attacks on Japanese positions on the Marshalls. One hundred and twenty tons of bombs have been dropped on Japanese air fields in the Admiralty Islands.

ARGENTINA TAKES MEASURES

BUENOS AIRES—Following the break of Argentina with Germany and Japan, all Argentinean ships have been ordered to stay at home or in such foreign ports as they may be. All telephone communication between Argentina and Germany and Japan was ordered cut yesterday.

ALLIES BOMB MARSEILLES?

VICHY—British and American planes were reported to have attacked the French Mediterranean port of Marseilles yesterday. There was no immediate confirmation in Allied quarters.

NAZI FORCES ON MOVE

ALGIERS—German forces are still being hastily shifted from the central Italian front around Cassino to meet the new Allied invasion on the west coast north and south of Netturno. The roar of artillery is now heard in all parts of Rome and Allied aircraft are much in evidence over the Italian capital. All radio receivers in the Eternal City have been confiscated and special policing measures have been taken. A Stockholm report says that at least 2,800 Allied ships have been taking part in the latest invasion.

Again Chairman Of Health Board

Thorsteinsson Re-Elected — Ald. Arnold is Named Treasurer.

Inspector of schools B. Thorsteinsson was re-elected chairman of the Prince Rupert District Union Board of Health at the annual meeting last night. Ald. Nora Arnold was elected treasurer and Dr. R. G. Knipe continues as secretary. G. L. Rorie was again named auditor.

The next meeting of the board will be held the last week in March or the first week in April.

Ten Restaurants Out Of Bounds

The United States Army has declared ten restaurants in Prince Rupert out of bounds, it was stated last night at the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert District Board of Health by Dr. Roger G. Knipe, medical health officer.

Generally speaking, restaurants were in no too good shape from a sanitary standpoint although some were endeavouring to co-operate in bringing about satisfactory conditions.

Reference was made to a food handlers' educational program which was planned for here. Hygiene and sanitation would be stressed with instruction for waitresses and others engaged in the handling of food.

Stabbing Case Adjourned Again

An adjournment until February 4 was granted by Judge W. E. Fisher in County Court yesterday in the case of William Samuel Cooper, charged with wounding Patrick Keogh in the Knox Hotel on November 19.

The adjournment was granted at the request of Bruce Brown, on behalf of the prosecution and the defence, asking that the case be held over until the preliminary hearing of a second charge against Cooper, that of wounding Martin LaBell, is concluded in police court.

Defence counsel is W. O. Fulton and T. W. Brown is prosecuting.

Govt. Employees Elect Executive

The second executive council of the Provincial Government Employees' Association to be elected since the inception of the body a year ago was named at a meeting held Wednesday night in the Court House.

The structure of the association is similar to that of the Government Employees' Association in Victoria and calls for the election by the members of a seven man executive council which later, by unanimous vote, elects two more members. The councillors then chose their own officers.

Elected to the council Wednesday night were C. O. Rimmer, representing the Liquor Control Board employees; Sgt. O. L. Hall, representing the provincial police; R. A. McLeod, public works outside employees; and Andrew Thompson, Miss Sheila Stewart and R. C. St. Clair, representing the Court House employees.

The newly-elected council is meeting tonight to elect two more members. It is expected that they will choose their officers some time next week.

R. C. St. Clair is retiring president.

Coup de Grace Upon German Capital Last Night By Air Force

LONDON, Jan. 28 (CP)—Hundreds of Royal Air Force and Royal Canadian Air Force night bombers touched off huge flames in Berlin again last night in a possible coup de grace to the Nazi nerve centre previously described as three quarters destroyed. An Air Ministry announcement described the twelfth heavy assault of the obliteration campaign as "very strong." The statement was borne out in the loss of 34 aircraft, eight of them Canadian, in the night's operations.

GERMANS REPULSED

Great Air Defeat Also Inflicted On Nazis.

ALGIERS, January 28 (CP)—The German Tenth Army, backed by planes, struck with fury at the Allies' Netturno bridgehead but was repulsed by the British forces in battle near Carroceto on the Via Anzio, 10 miles north of Anzio, and 21 miles south of Rome. Allied headquarters announced today. At the same time the Germans suffered the greatest air defeat of the Italian campaign, losing at least 50 planes in the past 24 hours in sky battles over the Netturno beachhead and southern France, where heavy bombers struck at three airfields near Marseille and Montpellier, and crippled bases from which the Germans raid Allied shipping off the Italian coast.

Government Pays For Tuberculosis, V.D. Treatment

The entire cost of treatment of venereal disease and tuberculosis as far as the public health service in Prince Rupert is concerned is borne by the Provincial Board of Health, it was pointed out last night at the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert District Union Board of Health. This amounts to $3,000 per year in supplies alone.

Prairie Airman Drowning Victim

L.A.C. Mitchell of Tompkins, Saskatchewan, Loses His Life

Leading Aircraftsman William Alexander Mitchell of Tompkins, Saskatchewan, is the airman who lost his life by drowning when a small Royal Canadian Air Force supply ship broke down, ran on the rocks in a gale and sank on the Queen Charlotte Islands, it was announced at R.C.A.F. group headquarters here last night. Survivors were Leading Aircraftsman J. E. Jamieson and Corp. R. E. Selkirk.

Mitchell's next of kin is his mother at Tompkins.

The Royal Canadian Navy assisted in the rescue.

Ideals Must Be Made Real In Postwar Days

During the war, it was easy to think of ideals but, after the war, it would be necessary to get down to the realities of putting those ideals into effect, said Capt. W. D. Rowlands, United Army padre, in speaking before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at luncheon Wednesday. Democracy was not something that could be foisted upon a people. Even Adolf Hitler had recognized in Mein Kampf that, given the mind and the thinking of the people, he would have the political and military power and he had set his course on that principle. It was encouraging, Chaplain Rowlands commented, to see more and more peace societies springing up—organizations that were working hard to ensure permanent peace after this war.

Some current matters respecting public health were taken up at the meeting and officers were elected.

Those present at the meeting were E. Thorsteinsson, chairman, Mrs. Fred Hall, Terrace representative; Mrs. Louise Roper, representing the Prince Rupert School Board; Ald. N. E. Arnold, representing the Prince Rupert city council; Dr. Knipe, Mr. Stonehouse, sanitary inspector, and others of the public health unit on motion of Ald. N. E. Arnold, who said that it was a fine work that was being carried on by the unit which was a great asset to the community.

Official Announcement Made at Washington Reveals Savagery in Treatment of Prisoners on Philippine Islands.

BRITONS ALSO SUFFER

LONDON, Jan. 28 (CP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told the House of Commons today that thousands of British troops had died as prisoners of the Japanese after being compelled to live "under tropical jungle conditions without adequate shelter, clothing, food, or medical attention." Britain, he warned, will not forget Japan's misdeeds.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 28 (CP)—A story of how the Japanese starved, tortured and in some cases wantonly murdered American prisoners taken after Bataan and Corregidor was told Thursday night by the United States Army and Navy. Documented by sworn statements of officers who escaped from prison camps, there was joint announcement of the discovery of a camp of savagery for a week. Widely used torture was the "sun treatment." The captured were made to sit in the boiling sun all day without cover and with little water. Six men, three Americans and three Filipinos, ill from mistreatment, were burned while still alive.

Three officers who attempted to escape were tortured and periodically beaten for two days. Then one was beheaded and the other two shot.

Poland's Integrity . . .

The reaffirmation by Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden of the British government's policy not to recognize any territorial changes which have been effected in Poland since the outbreak of the war may or may not raise another inter-Allied diplomatic issue between Britain and Russia. Whether Russia likes it or not, Great Britain has no other choice of policy. Britain went in the war because Germany was violating Poland's territorial integrity. She could not now countenance any such violation by Russia. It is possibly just as well that there should be a forthright reaffirmation of policy now so there can be no misunderstandings later.

Meanwhile, until the war is over, Poland has choice of occupation either by Germany or Russia. Britain now serves notice to Russia that she will be expected to withdraw as far as permanent authority is concerned to the pre-war borders of Poland. Ultimately, of course, it is a question for Russia and Poland between themselves to settle by peaceful negotiation.

It is interesting to note that Russia, by its rejection of a negotiation assistance offer from the United States, chooses to do her own settling with Poland without any outside interference.

Our guess is that prominent among Americans who are wondering if President Roosevelt will offer for a fourth term is Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Cannot Go On Forever . . .

Being what we are, we tend to jump to the conclusion that any firmly-spoken statement is the truth, especially if it is in line with our hidden wishes.

For example we have often heard the statement that "we have been able to raise millions for war; why then cannot we raise millions to provide employment in peacetime?" At first glance the theory appears sound—then we begin to wonder.

True, by an all-out effort, we are raising the money to help fight this war, but can we continue to do so indefinitely? For comparison, let us assert that the people of Britain, because they endured the blitz so remarkably well, could go on enduring heavy bombing indefinitely. Let us try to prove that because we can endure two or three successive days of below zero temperatures we can go on enduring those temperatures forever.

It is only in emergencies that human beings call forth the stamina which makes them able to attain super-human peaks. War is an emergency, and we endure for the sake of winning the war what we could not endure forever.

REPORT OF LIBRARIAN

CASE FOR ARENA

Editor, Daily News.

There are several points in letters over the signatures of Dr Large and M. H. Watkins which should be answered.

In the final analysis of the whole discussion, the only difference between the two points of view is that some favor a civic centre with a swimming pool while others favor a civic centre with a skating arena.

Most of us who favor the arena project are eager to acknowledge that the Civic Centre Association has worked long and hard to accumulate the necessary funds for the construction of the Civic building. These men have given a great deal in time and labor. They have shown fine leadership and deserve a great deal of credit for a job well done.

But, as in all democratic countries, differences of opinion are bound to occur. We contend that a civic centre built to include an arena is a better scheme than a centre with a swimming pool. It is wrong to forego a good plan for a better?

The question, however, does not rest just with the problem of pool vs. arena. The whole thing goes much further than that. A swimming pool can never be anything more than a swimming pool. It is also a fact that most swimming pools do not pay for themselves. They do not tend to develop anything more than one's ability to remain alive in water. We already have certain facilities for this development, including a lavish climate! But an arena would open up a whole world of possibilities for the establishment of organized sport in this city. Hockey, basketball, lacrosse and badminton leagues could be established, and inter-city sport could be carried on with various communities in proximity to this city. And all this before a properly seated and undoubtedly enthusiastic audience. With the completion of the Skeena highway, Prince Rupert, with its fine civic centre and arena, would be the pre-eminent sporting city in northern British Columbia.

Thus an arena would serve a wonderful purpose and open up many new fields of activity that a swimming pool could not possibly do.

A properly managed arena would pay dividends that a swimming pool could not hope to pay. A few years successful operation would enable us to add a swimming pool and thereby complete the entire unit. Thus a really worthwhile centre would be at the disposition of the citizenry.

Could we hope to accomplish all this with a swimming pool? I think not.

This is a very important question. Surely the body of citizens, who for years have subscribed to the Associations fund, have the right to discuss the question and help in the final decision?

Lets build that which will give most to the most. Yours for a skating arena.

E. JOHN WILSON.

American Couple In Wedding Here

Activities of Local Institution for Year Reviewed by Mrs. Van-Cooten

"An item of foremost importance in my report for 1943 is the receipt of a fine collection of reference, technical and scientific books. These books were a gift from the Carnegie Fund which appropriated a sum of money to the American Library Association to be used for the provision of small collections of books to the civilian libraries in Alaska. Mr. Robinson, librarian of the Vancouver Public Library, who was appointed special representative, kindly arranged to have Prince Rupert included in the list of recipients. Mr. Robinson has always shown an interest in the welfare of our library as is evidenced by his many acts of kindness in the past and in this instance, for which we are indeed grateful."

The library circulation for the year 1943 showed an increase in the non-fiction section over the previous year. This was gratifying as the non-fiction section is very important and the increase shows that this department has received more books throughout the year. The pay section also showed an increase as usual but there was a marked decrease in the juvenile section.

Flower girl was Miss Judy Street who was dressed in pink taffeta and carried a posy from which hung blue and pink streamers. Sgt. Leonard Simundson was groomsman. During the ceremony Miss Elena McGlothlan sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Ushers were: Sgt. Leroy Vimerman, Sgt. Fred Lokowitz, Sgt. James Reilly, Sgt. Eugene Ults, Sgt. Henry Schuemann.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Street.

The bride who is from Missouri, has been working with the United States Engineering Department here. The groom is a native of New York.

During 1943 the library was in a position to spend a small amount of money out of its own fund for the reference section. Some valuable books on British Columbia and the Northwest were purchased through Mr. Robinson. The World Almanac and the B.C. Directory for 1943 were added as part of the gift of the Carnegie Fund.

It is hoped that our reading room may be enlarged this year as that section is very cramped for space. In fact, it has been impossible to set up the books purchased through Mr. Robinson but it is hoped to have a set of shelves erected for this purpose in the near future.

Part of the period in which the library closed last August was spent in renovating the shelves from which many old books were removed and destroyed. These books were not moving and were taking up valuable space, besides giving the library a shoddy appearance. The books removed included many from the children's section. In the past the old volumes had been left on the shelves in this section as there were no new ones to replace them. As many were in tatters it was necessary to take them off and, to date, the children's section was in a deplorable condition. This accounts for the decrease in circulation in that department. During 1944 efforts should be made to build it up or else do away with it altogether.

"I believe we shall be in a position to rebuild it" said the librarian, "and should do so as adult sections have been fairly well built up in the past two years and it was very important that our young borrowers should also have a chance to receive the benefits of the library."

In answer to a plea on two different occasions from the British Columbia Security Commission, the library was able to dispose some discards and duplicates for the use of Japanese children now located in the interior towns of this province. The books were much appreciated as the Japanese were practically without reading matter.

As has been our custom since the outbreak of war, the library sent all discarded magazines to be distributed among different

COMMITTEES OF CHAMBER

The wedding took place on Tuesday evening at 7:30 in First Presbyterian Church. Rev. A. F. MacSween officiating, of Miss Naomi Street and Sgt. Robert Marks of the American Army.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Charles Street, entered the church to the strains of the Wedding March from "Lohengrin," wearing a beautiful white satin gown with fitted bodice and full skirt. On her head she wore a Juliet cap with fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pink carnations tied with a large white bow.

Mrs. Louise Street, the matron-of-honor, wore a pale blue gown and carried a bouquet of large pink bows.

As has been our custom since the outbreak of war, the library sent all discarded magazines to be distributed among different military units. Some of our magazines went to isolated points, where the men were almost without reading material.

GRANTS AND DONATIONS

The library received an application of $340 from the city for the purchase of new books for the free section and to cover the cost of re-binding.

The library was the recipient of a gift of $10 from the Women's Canadian Club. This donation was acknowledged. The money is to be spent for the purchase of Canadian books. There have been gifts of books from the libraries of citizens who were leaving Prince Rupert and also from existing members. Special mention was made in the case of Dan Drummond of Remo, who had been a subscriber borrower of ours for many years and who, when sending his books by mail, very often sends a worthwhile book along from his own collection to be placed on the shelves.

Mention was also made of a drop box installed on the outer door of the library by Frank Murphy. This has proved a great convenience to the readers and had been effective in bringing in many books which might otherwise have been lost.

J. H. Comer and daughter left last night for a trip to Vancouver.

▲ Housewives League Whist and Social Evening, Fri., Jan. 28, 8 p.m. East End Hall. Everybody welcome. (28)

Rear Admiral Victor G. Brodeur, naval commanding officer on the Pacific Coast, left last night on his return to Victoria after a brief visit here on official duties.

▲ The Labor Progressive Club regrets to announce that the dance scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 29, in the East End Hall has been cancelled. (24)

A. G. Landels, local manager of W. H. Malkin Co., Ltd., left on last evening's train where he will attend a meeting of branch managers of Western Grocers Ltd. He expects to be away about ten days.

Jack Hunt, superintendent for the Carter-Halls-Aldinger Co. at Terrace, is paying a brief business visit to the city, having arrived from the interior yesterday morning.

The question of how the expenses involved in connection with the representation of Terrace at periodical meetings of the Prince Rupert District Union Board of Health came up at the annual meeting of the body here last night. It was decided that the expenses in the meantime should be borne by the unit with the expectation that the municipality of Terrace will be able to assume them later in the year.

Mrs. Fred Hall, secretary of the Terrace school board, arrived in the city yesterday to attend the annual meeting of the Union Board of Health. She is leaving this afternoon on her return to her home in the interior.

A new committee of the city council on post war rehabilitation will be getting down to business soon, among other things considering plans for what may be done from a municipal standpoint. The erection of a new city hall is one of the post-war projects which is being considered. The Prince Rupert District Union Board of Health has asked that provision be made for the public health centre in any new plans for a city hall.

George Armstrong Funeral Is Held

The funeral of the late George Armstrong, who passed away from Terrace and proceeded south last night with Mr. Kenney wife is on his way to Victoria to attend the session of the Legislature opening next week. After spending a time in Victoria, Mrs. Kenney will proceed to Ottawa to visit her eldest daughter who is living there.

A number of fellow workers of the deceased from the dry dock attended the service, the pallbearers being welders, with whom he had worked. They were Albert Palmer, Fred McDonald, Neil McDonald, Arthur Kruger, William Graham and William Matterson.

It is estimated that approximately 40,000,000 persons are in Axis labor gangs, prisons or concentration camps or have been driven from their homes by war.

To the Health Seeker

Perhaps, a "Belief" exists that "everything has been tried and failed"? Has "faith" subsided to the low ebb of accepting as a fact, the belief that a disease is incurable? Meanwhile, a vague misgiving persists that: Somehow, somewhere there must be an answer to incurability.

Chiropractically, the greatest handicap to health restoration is: So many cherish a traditional faith or belief to the bitter end. Meantime, a simple disease descends into an indefinite and complicated realm of incurABILITY. Thus faith and belief hinders, and denies, the natural self-curABILITY within themselves the rightful duty to remedy (meaning: to cure again).

Such statements, of disease, special or general are verified by an exhaustive survey. Over 93,000 persons turned, when disillusioned and disappointed, to Chiropractic (Nature) as a LAST resort.

Some 410 qualified Chiropractors raised no question as to the merits of faith, belief or the competency of any remedy, to cure again. Nature had preordained that everything was incorporated within. Nature's OWN Remedy substituted incurABILITY for cure or marked improvement in 79,000 cases; or, 85% of tiresome, intangible disease names.

A critical reader may question this astonishing record. For the needy there are two basic considerations: The belief that a condition is obstinately incurable as, against the Chiropractic record with thousands of varied, incurable cases. Both cannot be right.

When faith and belief fails to move mountains, Mahomet must go to the mountain. Possibly, the earnest Health Seeker discerns, by the mountainous record, that everything has not been tried; that, high odds yet remain in his favor.

As Mahomet would resolve: If Chiropractic eventually, why not . . . NOW!

ACTIVITIES
OF Y.M.C.A.
AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT

The Service Wives' Club met Thursday afternoon with an attendance of fourteen women and eight children. Backdrop curtains were finished for Prokey, one of our most enthusiastic naval amateur photographers. Prokey intends to go in for studio photography after the war and should do very well at it. Mrs. Brain finished the curtains while the other members did Red Cross knitting. The raffle donated by Mrs. Fosolan was won by Mrs. Webb. Mrs. Brain and Mrs. Flack served tea. Plans were made to hold an outing next Thursday evening so the afternoon meeting will be cancelled. The members will hold a dinner at the Y.M.C.A. Cafeteria, later attending one of the service shows. Regular members who plan to come must register with Mrs. Carl Strand.

Next Tuesday one of the smaller units on Eleventh Ave. (not the regular Eleventh Ave. camp) is holding a dance and would like as many junior hostesses and members of affiliated groups as possible to come out. The last dance this unit had was about two months ago and it was so successful that both of the chaperones for the evening took it upon themselves to phone me, praising it highly. And this dance is bound to be quite as nice so I want you girls to make every effort possible to turn out. Remember Tuesday next.

There is a little war bride in town who is anxious to get settled and learn the Canadian ways and very wisely she thinks the best way to do this is to help in someone's home. She only arrived yesterday and certainly does not believe in wasting time for which I admire her. If any one is interested or needs help with the housework will they give me a ring. Thanks!

I understand that the local Red Cross Corps girls are opening up a drive for increased membership and I would urge all girls who have a few evenings to spare to enlist in this splendid volunteer organization. At the Blood Donor's Clinic in Vancouver I saw all sorts of them in their familiar grey uniform, directing the people and taking the donations to the airport where they are flown to the eastern laboratories.

The death occurred in the Prince Rupert General Hospital Wednesday night of Mrs. Allan Kellogg, wife of Allan Kellogg, 1031 Seventh Avenue East. Funeral arrangements are in the hands of the B.C. Undertakers.

AIR FORCE

Gordou-Corbould Rites at No. 4 Group Last Night Unite Local Air Force Girl With Seal Cove Flying Officer.

Beneath a bridal arch prettily decorated with ferns and spring flowers a wedding of wide local and Air Force interest took place last night at 8 o'clock in the officers' mess at Group 4 Headquarters when Assistant Section Officer Iris Corbould, R.C.A.F., Women's Division, daughter of Mrs. Edith A. Corbould, Summit Avenue, became the bride of Flying Officer Colin Gordon, R.C.A.F., Seal Cove. Flight Lieutenant F. P. A. Springborne, area padre, officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Group Captain R. H. Foss, commanding officer,

"an attractive dress of pale blue Jersey print silk, touched with darker blue and white and had a corsage of multi-colored carnations centred with a gardenia.

Striking a pleasing contrast in color were bridesmaids, Miss Ruth Corbould, sister of the bride, who wore a dress of pale green wool with darker green accessories, and Assistant Section Officer Eunice A. Rixinger, in an attractive creation of autumn brown and white with a yellow corsage.

Present at the ceremony were the mothers of both the bride and bridegroom, Mrs. E. A. Corbould wearing an ensemble of autumn brown and rust, and Mrs. R. K. Gordon, mother of the bridegroom, attired in a sequin trimmed dress of sky blue with black accessories.

Groomsman was Flight Lieutenant George Cohoe, pilot of the air crew for which the groom is navigator.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the officers' mess, the central decoration of which was a table bearing the
