Unnecessary Motor Driving . . .

There has been talk around the town of unnecessary motor driving along the new highway for purely pleasure purposes. Some of the talk may, of course, be quite unjustified but, nevertheless, it might be rightly enough suggested that now is no time to waste gasoline or use it unnecessarily even if what is used may come within the ration limits. And, of course, it is quite unjustifiable and rightly enough a matter for prosecution if motor fuel obtained ostensibly for legitimately essential purposes is converted to merely pleasure use. Although the spirit of the ration is to bring about an equitable distribution of available supplies rather than to authorize a maximum amount for individual consumption, there can be no particular criticism of those who use up to the limit but there is no excuse for fuel that is issued for necessary essential or military purposes being used for any other purpose—more especially for joyriders who happen to have it available and do not, apparently, have to answer for it.

Dominion - Provincial Conference . .

The forthcoming Ottawa conference on Dominion-Provincial relations will deal with some stiff problems which must somehow be resolved before the provinces can do very much about postwar plans. Every province has attempted to plot its course for the era immediately following the war. Each has come up against the fact that it will have more plans and ambitions than money, unless the Federal Government backs out of certain fields of revenue or divides with it from what is collected.

Because we are in the midst of a war, and because maximum employment has eased the more urgent demands on the treasuries of provinces and municipalities, the relations between Federal Government and provincial governments have been reasonably good.

Time and events since the last meeting was held have by no means diminished the need for the ten governments of Canada to get together on a feasible and acceptable division of financial and social responsibility—particularly in view of the spate of new social measures in the offing for this country.

The Experts Say - - -

"NO LIMIT" to the tempting dishes you can make with dried eggs" was the heading on a recent British Ministry of Food press release. The English housewife had to get along with one egg per person per month for so long that it must have been a relief to be able to get a supply of dehydrated eggs, and to be able to vary her limited wartime menus with the occasional egg dish.

We in Canada are most fortunate to be able to serve egg dishes as often as we wish. Canada's Official Food Rules say eggs should be included in our menus at least four times a week, for eggs are a valuable protein food and also a good source of certain minerals and vitamins.

Eggs are a perishable food, and the Agriculture Department Consumer Section has a word of advice on the subject. They say, "Keep them cool"—particularly with warmer weather in the offing. This rule applies also to egg dishes which are not eaten immediately, such as custards, cream fillings and puddings. Don't let them stand on the kitchen table or shelf. Cool them rapidly and pop them into the refrigerator or other cool place as soon as possible.

SPRING IS, by all odds, the most welcome season of the year in that fresh spring vegetables bring to meals. Dr. L. B. Pett, head of Nutrition Services, stresses the importance to health of fresh vegetables at this time of the year. Root vegetables stored last fall, have lost much of their vitamins and mineral content by now, but fresh garden products have plenty.

BUYING FISH: The Fisheries Department gives these tips to keep in mind when you are buying fish.

Choose thick plump fish in preference to long slender ones of the same variety for quality and economy; when buying fish choose fish with firm flesh, no strong odor, bright gills and eyes, and to be able to vary her limited wartime menus with the occasional egg dish.

SALAD SUGGESTIONS. Here are some delicious recipes from the Nutrition Bureau for spring salads—those tempting green tossed salads that taste so good and give so much added zest.

BASIC SALAD BOWL: 1 head of lettuce, 3 tomatoes, 1 medium onion, 2 hard-cooked eggs, Roquefort French dressing. Wash lettuce, separate, leaves and drain. Wash tomatoes and slice thin. Slice onion; separate into rings. Slice eggs. Line salad bowl with lettuce. Combine to-

Kitwanga Has Active Easter

Festival Season Was Fully Observed in Interior Village

KITWANGA, April 28 — This village was the centre of native Easter celebrations in this district and a large number of visitors attended from nearby points. In honor of their arrival a reception service was held in the church hall, with speeches of welcome by Charles Smith, George Moore and Mrs. Simdeeks, honorary president of Kitwanga's Church-Sisters. Captain Edward Benson and Captain Mathers were in charge of the ceremonies and Walter Sinclair was chairman.

Holy Communion was held on the morning of Good Friday by the Rev. E. W. Slater of Terrace, assisted by Rev. J. Hayhurst, Kitwanga missionary. Two other services were held later in the day, one in the Church Army hall led by Alfred McDames, who spoke on the Crucifixion, and the other in the United Church, led by the Rev. Argus of Kitwanga.

On Saturday a banquet was held by the Kitwanga chiefs and the members of the Church Army. The table was laid out to represent the Cross. Chief speakers were Mark McKay of Kitselas, Alfred McDames of Skeena Crossing, Walter Douse of Kitwanganool and Chiefs Robert Harris, Mathias Bright, and W. B. Morgan of Kitwanga.

The banquet was followed by a lantern lecture by Adjutant McKay and a service by the Salvation Army, at which the speaker was Harold Sinclair, whose subject was "The Living Soul."

At dawn on Easter morning ladies of the Church Army paraded through the village singing "He Arose From the Grave," and the day was given over to a number of services and a banquet by Mrs. Harold Sinclair, in the afternoon.

Morning service was directed by Rev. J. Hayhurst and choir, conducted by Field Captain Bryant rendered several Easter anthems.

At the banquet Mr. expressed his thanks for taking of another Easter. Malkin and Joshua H. Skeena Crossing also of the banquet. The choir sang two anthems at the banquet table.

Mrs. Alvin Johnson of Seattle to Ketchikan, been called north on account of the injury of her husband sustained electric burns in the hospital at Ketchikan. Both Mr. and Mrs. are former well known residents of Prince Rupert.

Will You Help PASS THE AMMUNITION?

ATTACK! ATTACK! ATTACK! That is the keynote of Canada's armies this year. And every attack uses up fabulous quantities of war equipment—machine guns, mortars and tanks—bullets, bombs and shells—vehicles, radios and medical supplies. That means a steady flow from Canada to overseas divisions—so that our fighting men may have an abundance of what they need to achieve Victory. Our role at home is to produce—and to pay for what we make and ship. With our dollars, we can help pass the ammunition to our boys on every forward line. It is not enough to convert our savings into Victory Bonds. We can do more—we must do more. By confining our purchases to strict necessities, we can buy an extra bond and pay for it by instalments every pay day. Right now—let us save more—lend more; let us really put Victory first!

Good news for concert fans. Chester Le Marstre has just told me that there is to be a USO concert at the Capitol Theatre this Sunday. Better get your tickets early. This concert party has been in the north for the past nine months so they are experts in knowing just what the troops want.

Tonight is the big Naval Victory Loan Dance at the Drill Hall. Buy your tickets, take the girl friend and go all out for a grand time.

There's a tremendous sound of sawing and hammering and filing going on and I find that it's Stoker Jimmie McPatrie busy making dummy bombs into cigarette ash stands. Chester says that they get filled with sand

Fit and fine for his headline bout on the Boltermakers' boxing card here tomorrow night, Phil Palmer, welterweight champion of Canada, arrived in the city this morning from Vancouver. His opponent will be the much-touted Urban Hernandez of Hollywood.

There's a price tag on VICTORY

The closer we get to victory the better we see the price to be paid in "blood, sweat, tears" and money. No early victory without more of all four!

The cost of preparing the enemies' death blow has been tremendous. But the cost of delivering it will be greater still. Invasion comes high. The real job lies ahead!

The job of our fighting men is to give everything—ours is to lend more, to put our bottom dollar into Victory Bonds.

Don't tell our boys on the beachheads that we've done all we can. The least we can do is to lend more—to shorten the war.

Get behind the Sixth Victory Loan. It may mean more self-denial—but what is that compared with the sacrifices our boys are making? To them victory is worth everything. How much is it worth to you?

Discuss Game Infractions

A meeting of the Rupert Rod and Gun Club, called to consider infractions of the game and fisheries regulations which were said to have been occurring frequently of late, was attended by a large number of local sportsmen on Tuesday night. The meeting was held in the Canadian Legion rooms with President B. J. Bacon in the chair.

There was a thorough discussion of a suggestion that lakes and streams in the area be closed to fishermen because of the number of infractions of the regulations but the suggestion was vetoed after Provincial Game Warden Edward Martin and Fisheries Adviser James Boyd had informed the meeting that these matters had been taken up with those responsible and they had received assurance that there would be no

League of 'Aions

FOUR 'Aions are leagued together to make Irradiated Carnation Milk a preferred milk for your bottle-fed baby. Evaporation removes part of the natural water, for convenience and economy. Irradiation enriches the milk with extra "sunshine" vitamin D. Homogenization breaks up the butterfat globules and distributes them evenly, for uniformity in feedings. Sterilization insures safety and a readily digestible soft curd. And they all add up to give you Carnation.

Ask your doctor about a Carnation Milk formula for your baby. Write for free book, "Your Contented Baby." Carnation Co., Ltd., 470 Granville St., Vanc.

Lines to an American Officer

(By Noel Coward)

These lines are dedicated to a man I met in Glasgow, an American, He was an army officer, not old, In the late twenties. If the truth were told, A great deal younger than he thought he was. I mention this ironically because After we'd had a drink or two he said Something so naive, so foolish, that I fled. This was December, nineteen forty-two. He said, "We're here to win the war for you!"

Now listen—I'm a Britisher, I love America and know it well. I know its fine tradition, much of its land From California to Maine. I know the grand sweep of the Colorado Mountains, the sweet smell of lilac in Connecticut; I close my eyes And see the glittering pageant of New York blazing against the sky; I walk in memory, along Park Avenue, over the rise Before Grand Central Station; then Broadway. Seared by the hard uncompromising glare Of noon, the crowded sidewalks of Times Square So disenchanted by the light of day, With all the sky-signs dark, before the night Brings back the magic. Or I can wait High on a hill before the Golden Gate To see a ship pass through. I could recite all the States of the Union,

Or at least I think I could. I've seen the autumn flame Along the upper Hudson. I could reclaim So many memories. I know the East, The West, the Middle West, the North, the wide Flat plains of Iowa; the South in Spring. The patented streets of Charleston echoing Past elegance. I know with pride The friendship of Americans, that clear, kind, Motiveless hospitality; the warm, Always surprising, always beguiling charm Of being made to feel at home; I find, And have found, all the times that I've returned The heartening friendliness. Now comes the war.

Not such a simple issue as before, More than our patriotism is concerned. In this grim chaos. Everything we believe, Everything we inherit, all our past Yesterdays, todays, tomorrows, cast Into the holocaust. Do not deceive Yourself. This is no opportunity For showing off; no moment to behave arrogantly. Remember, all are brave Who fight for truth. Our hope is unity; Do not destroy this hope with shallow words. The future of the world is in our hands If we remain together. All the lands That long for freedom; all the starving hordes Of tortured Europe look to us to raise them From their slavery. Don't undermine The values of our conflicts with a line, An irritating, silly, boastful phrase!

Remember—I'm a Britisher. I know my country's faults. It's rather slow, Superior assumptions, its aloof Conviction of our destiny. The proof Of its true quality also I know, This lies much deeper. When we stood alone, Besieged for one long agonizing year, The only bulwark in our hemisphere, Defying tyranny. In this was shown The temper of our people. Don't forget That lonely year. It isn't lease or lend, Or armaments or speeches that defend The principles of living. There's no debt Between your land and mine except that year. All our past errors, all our omisive sins Must be wiped clean. This war no nation wins. Remember that when you are over here. Also remember that the future peace For which we're fighting cannot be maintained By wasting time contesting who has gained Which Victory. When all the battles cease, Then, if we've learned by mutual endurance, By dangers shared, by fighting side by side, To understand each other, then we'll forget a pride, Not in ourselves, but in our joint assurance To the whole world, when all the carnage ends, That men can still be free and still be friends.
