The Allied infantry had penetrated to the outskirts of Myitkyina, it was announced today.

The Allied forces appeared unexpectedly out of the jungle and took the enemy completely by surprise. There was little resistance and, a few hours after it was taken, the air field was being used by Allied planes.

Wadke Has Been Taken

Allies Making Real Headway in Campaign to Regain Lost Indies Territory

ADVANCED ALLIED HEAD-QUARTERS IN NEW GUINEA, May 19 (CP)—The bulk of Wadke Island with its air bases and beachhead on Netherlands New Guinea has been seized by the Allied forces leap-frogging 120 miles beyond Hollandia in twin amphibious operations covered by warships and planes. The early fall of remaining Netherlands New Guinea territory is forecast.

The drive moves the Allies 110 miles nearer the Philippines, opening up further possibilities in the advance upon Tokyo.

Meantime the Japanese have been pushed back 1000 miles from their deepest southwest Pacific advance point at Milne Bay, New Guinea.

The Japanese-controlled Batavia radio reported today that Soerabaja, Japan's main base in the Netherlands East Indies and former headquarters of the Dutch Eastern fleet was bombed heavily.

EPIDEMIC EMERGENCY

Canadian Medical Association Urges Advisability of Communities Being Organized in Advance

The Canadian Medical Association is urging all communities in Canada to organize emergency medical and hospital treatment services against the possibility of sudden and extensive epidemics breaking out in the country due to war conditions. A lengthy communication outlining procedure for such organization was read at last night's meeting of the board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

In this connection it was pointed out at the outset that voluntary assistance of the civilian population would be a prime factor. Early organization of resources and personnel to cope with emergency epidemic conditions was advised. Co-operation of existing institutions, active and inactive members of the medical and nursing professions, women's organizations, service clubs etc., was suggested.

It was further suggested that medical services of the Navy, Army and Air Force should be made available for civilian needs in the event of such an emergency. Lists of all retired doctors and nurses should be available for call and first aid, Red Cross, transportation and other workers should be organized. Further there should be a survey of buildings which might be available should the need for emergency hospitalization arise. Co-operation of the civilian defence organizations and military and police personnel should also be enlisted. Publicity was another important factor. The importance of research and precautionary work was also emphasized.

After hearing the correspondence, the hospital board was disposed to take the stand that the matter was really out of its province so no action was taken.

GIRLS KNOW WAR SECRETS

Auxiliary Territorial Service "Owks" Control Wireless Links With Battle Areas

LONDON, May 19 (CP)—Auxiliary Territorial Service girls, working 30 feet below a busy London street, know more about the Second Front than anyone else in Britain, except the highest ranking generals. And they will be the first to know when Allied troops step onto European soil.

The girls are "Owks"—Operators Wireless and Keyboard Signal and they control the terminals of the automatic high speed wireless links to every theatre of war and every part of the world.

When the invasion is launched flash news of every action from General Montgomery's "Golden Arrow" radio car will be handed by them. Every day a quarter of a million words of military orders and information squirm from the paper tape on the machines. Most of it is in cipher which the A's decode.

The girls are ex-typists, shop-girls, school teachers and hair-dressers, chosen for efficiency and dependability, and not even their own parents know what job they do.

Only two or three people know the names of these girls which will not be revealed till the war is over.

RECORD IN BOND SALE

Canadian National Railways Made Large Showing in Sixth Victory Loan Campaign

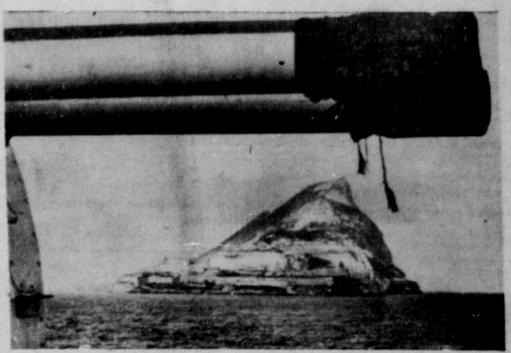

MONTREAL, May 19—A new high record in subscriptions to Victory Loans has been established by the Canadian National Railways and its airlines and munitions subsidiaries. The total of Sixth Victory Loan purchases by employees and management amounted to $29,546,400, it was announced today by D. C. Grant, vice-president in charge of canvassing throughout the system. During the campaign just terminated, from the employees of the railways, Trans-Atlantic Airlines and National Railways Munitions Limited, 81,720 individuals made bond purchases valued at $9,003,400, representing an average subscription of $110.07.

The management of the National Railways subscribed for a total of $20,543,000. The employees' figures represent a participation of 86.9 per cent with an increase of 1,559 subscribers over the total subscribed during the Fifth Victory Loan and an increase of $403,000 in the dollar amount over their previous high record of $8,599,600.

Subscriptions from all sources in the Canadian National Railways during the six Victory Loans have now reached the overall total of $118,106,500. To the six Victory Loan purchases made directly by the individual employees amount to $35,928,000. A total of $9,003,400 was subscribed by employees for the Sixth Victory Loan. ALLIES EXTEND FRONT IN ITALY-- NAZIS RETREATING EVERYWHERE

Hospital Here Well Equipped

Case Room Department Gets New Fittings—Oxygen Tent and Portable X-ray Considered

Further additions made recently to the equipment of the Prince Rupert General Hospital make the local institution today one of the best equipped in the province, it was pointed out to the board at its regular monthly meeting last night. The latest new equipment includes a new case room table and other fittings in that department of the hospital.

Purchase of an oxygen tent is now being considered by the house committee as well as a tank conveyor.

At last night's meeting of the board there was a communication from Lieut. Col. F. E. Coy, area medical officer of the Army here, suggesting the advantage of mobile x-ray equipment to supplement the present x-ray equipment. It would be an advantage, Col. Coy pointed out, to have this available for patients whose condition made it difficult to move them and would be ready in the event of the stationary equipment being out of order. The board decided to consult with the Prince Rupert Medical Association on the matter. An estimated cost of $1400 was mentioned.

Canadian Infantry in Action— Big Guns of Two German Divisions are Captured

NAPLES, May 19 (CP)—The Nazis are in disorderly retreat on all parts of the Italian front and the Allies are smashing into the Hitler Line at many points. Canadian and British troops, with tank support drove up the Liri Valley, extending their front line generally south of Aquino airport.

Polish troops of the British Eighth Army, fighting on the extreme right flank of the offensive, drove to within one and a half miles of Piedimonte, a mountain town four miles west of captured Cassino.

French troops, after capturing Monticelli, advanced toward Santolira, generally regarded as one of the strong points of the Adolf Hitler line.

The Americans at the Tyrrhenian Sea end of the front, battled into Itri, Applan highway junction, four miles northwest of captured Formia. Big guns of two entire German divisions have been taken.

Halibutters Are Leaving

Vancouver Fleet Getting Away Tonight, Ending Coastal Tie-up

Regardless of what the American halibut men do, Vancouver halibut boats will sail tonight for the fishing grounds fishermen and vessel owners decided at a meeting there yesterday. The Prince Rupert operators are meeting this afternoon when it is expected they will also decide to go out. A to L boats leaving first and M to Z five days later.

At Seattle Harold Lokken predicted an end of the tie-up for United States fishermen within a day or so. He said there would be a meeting there today to decide when Seattle men will leave for the halibut banks. "As long as Vancouver has decided to go fishing, it would manifestly be foolish for any fleets to stay in port," Lokken said.

NORWAY IN DOMINATION

Local Norwegians Hear Escaped Newspaperwoman Speak in Their Own Language

The grim story of oppression and hardship to which Norwegian people were being subjected under Nazi occupation was told graphically in the Norwegian language last night by Else Margrete Roed, escaped newspaperwoman, to a large gathering of her country folk by origin in St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Miss Roed told how the Germans brutally and cold-bloodedly took the best of the land of Norway had to offer, leaving the native Norwegians in virtual starvation, throwing many into dark concentration camps while others met even more drastic fate. The story of Miss Roed's escape was also a narration of much interest to all.

The meeting was held in connection with the local observance of the Norwegian independence anniversary. The church was full to capacity. Rudolph Olsen acted as chairman and Dr. Jens Munthe, local Norwegian vice-consul, introduced the speaker. The evening's program was rounded out with acceptable selections by the Varden Singers. Miss Roed will speak at another meeting tonight in English.

Invasion Nearing . . .

Signs multiply that the Allied invasion of Europe is at hand. Many regard it as being actually under way in view of the great air raids over enemy territory that are being kept up with only such limitations as the weather occasions. There is an ominous lull on the Russian front. The campaign in Italy has sprung into action again with spectacular advances by the fighters of various nations on our side.

The people of the subjugated nations are becoming bolder in their uprising and revolts as witness the latest ultimatum of Antonescu to Hitler that Rumania must have reinforcements or quit the war. There may be much hard fighting still but we are undoubtedly in the ascendant now and there is every indication that the enemy is on the run.

Rural School Organizing . . .

Previous articles in this paper have discussed the direction in which educational planning is proceeding in the British Isles, in other Canadian provinces and in the United States. Some of the ideas expressed in the Interim Report of the Postwar Rehabilitation Committee have been referred to briefly. While these ideas can be carried out to greatest advantage in the more populous and wealthier parts of British Columbia, there will be more difficulty in giving expression to them in the northern, or, more properly, north central region because of the scattered distribution of the population and difficulties of transportation and communication, to say nothing of the pioneer stage of the region in respect of economic development.

The end of the war, however, is not unlikely to see an inflow of new population and a development of our natural resources. This will make necessary additional provision of facilities for education. Happily at the same time it will increase the financial resources necessary for their provision.

The first step should be the organizing of existing school districts into larger administrative units under school boards administering the enlarged areas. We may speak of this as administrative consolidation. This will bring many advantages, even in the conditions which now prevail.

It should bring a new interest in education, which at present is not very keen in this part of British Columbia. This is evidenced by the fact that in one school inspectorial area along the Canadian National Railway there are thirty-eight school districts under official trustees. In Alberta, which is divided into large administrative areas, official trustees do not seem to be necessary.

Administrative consolidation would facilitate actual physical school consolidation, where this is desirable, while maintaining separate individual one-room schools.

Consolidation, whether administrative only or physical (that is to say, bringing the pupils of several adjoining schools into one school) will mean better business administration. The schools will be better equipped. All will be brought up to the same physical standard. They will be better supplied with library books, with materials for instruction in science and agriculture. It is not too much to hope that something may be done in manual training and home economics.

The same money in this kind of organization will actually save money and at the same time give better service. Thus articles of school equipment—library books, science equipment—can be circulated throughout the schools of a consolidated area as required, without duplication.

AUXILIARY IN SESSION

Annual Session Here of Anglican Diocesan Women

The thirty-third annual meeting of the Caledonia Diocesan Board of the Women's Auxiliary was held at St. Andrew's Cathedral yesterday afternoon when officers were elected and satisfactory reports for the past year presented.

Rev. G. A. Rix celebrated at the opening Holy Communion service assisted by Very Rev. J. B. Gibson.

Mrs. C. V. Eviatt welcomed the delegates and this was replied to by Mrs. E. Bird who was representing Hazelton. She thanked the Board on behalf of the visitors for their hospitality and stressed the value of sending a delegate.

Miss West from Terrace and Mrs. Raabe from Smithers and many ladies from St. Peter's W.A. branches and from St. Andrew's branches attended and helped to make the meeting a success.

Greetings were received from Mrs. R. L. McIntosh and Mrs. G. P. Tinker who were not able to be present.

After the preliminary business the president, Mrs. J. B. Gibson, gave an inspiring address. She spoke of a spiritual re-awakening today in the Church and especially in the W.A. Trained leadership and the effort of every individual in every walk of life would be needed in the future.

Satisfactory reports from various diocesan officers were presented.

Rev. Gordon Smith, skipper of the Northern Cross, was the guest speaker at the sandwich luncheon. He spoke of the need of religious education in the child's life and of the advantage of getting it in the home as a protection against juvenile delinquency. Here the W.A. could be a great help. Mr. Smith stressed the point of interesting the children and older boys and girls in the proceedings of their church and of allowing them to hold their own services and, in general, encouraging them to nourish their religion. Home training and religious training must be combined but that combination must not be pressed or forced upon the child. Rather it should be taught just as the other necessities of life. Mr. Smith maintained that the young people must be given a chance to offer suggestions and to help in their own particular communities. During the afternoon reports were given on the younger branches of the W.A. and reports on the dominion conferences on girls and juniors from Miss N. L. Bird who attended these meetings last October. The new ways of helping girls to develop character and personality were of interest. The sum of $22 in the Stella du Vernet fund was divided equally between the Diocesan Automobile fund and the new church at Fort St. James. The latter appeal received another $25 from life membership fees and another $25 was voted to the Northern Cross.

OFFICERS FOR YEAR ELECTED

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President: Mrs. J. B. Gibson. First Vice-president: Mrs. C. J. Norrington.

Second Vice-president: Miss N. L. Bird.

Secretary: Mrs. G. P. Tinker. Dorcas Secretary: Mrs. Helen Henderson.

Girls' Secretary: Mrs. L. Holtby.

Juniors and C.B.L.—Mrs. W. Smith. Little Helpers: Mrs. C. J. Currie.

Living Message: Mrs. K. Greer. At the close of business the combined girls' branches of St. Andrew's and St. Peter's and St. Peter's Juniors pleased the audience by their singing and speeches.

A beautiful quilt was handed to Miss Bird, a gift from St. Peter's Girls, for the Ridley Home. Miss Bird expressed her gratitude for the gift.

Bishop Rix presented the girls with the new G.A. badges and expressed the hope that they would remain faithful to the badge and continue as members of the W.A.

His Lordship then pronounced the Benediction and tea was served by the ladies of St. Andrew's.

Miss Marion Head acted as recorder.

AUSSIE BETTING BOOM

SYDNEY, Australia.—A race betting boom, general throughout Australia, reached a new peak during the Easter holiday week-end when approximately $15,759,909 was placed either with bookmakers or totalisators. The turnover is nearly five times that of normal per-war aggregates. The betting surge, with $1,000 wagers common, is attributed to high wages and reduced spending opportunities in other spheres.

On Parade . . .

1st (Reserve) Bn. Prince Rupert Regt. (M.G.)

The battalion is settling down to the final stretch of training before the annual camp at Gordon Head to which every member of the unit is looking forward with keen anticipation. With the long summer evenings approaching, there may be a temptation to stay in the garden. However, we are never so well trained that we can afford to miss that parade period.

No parades will be held on Victoria Day, Wednesday, "C" Coy. parade is changed to Thursday, 7:30 p.m.

We are glad to have a letter from Bill Manson, our former hard-working adjutant. Bill is now stationed in Edmonton with the R.C.A.F. and likes it immensely.

Our commanding officer, Lt.-Col. G. C. Oswald, E.D., is away for a short trip south on duty.

Cpl. C. H. Wanamaker, looking very fit, is being welcomed back from a course at Nanaimo. As the only A1 with the unit for the time being, Cliff is kept very busy.

Heard during the battalion parade last week, as Capt. Large was swinging along in a very soldierly manner:

Bright Young Thing: "Boy, he looks well fed, anyway."

We trust this is a tribute to the philosophy of life as practised by our genial M. O. rather than a reflection on the other members of the unit.

Sports:

Football—The football team won their game against the R.C.A.F. last Friday. Tonight's game is against the Signals.

Softball—A practice is called for the softball team tonight, at the usual place, weather permitting.

In the written exams held during March, the following officers have been successful in passing the examination indicated:

Mowgli The Lion Upsets Old Idea

CHESTER, May 19.—Mowgli, three-year old lion in the zoo here, has disproved that a tame lion becomes wild when he tastes blood. Mowgli's companion since he was a cub has been Peter, a white Sealym who completely bosses the large lion.

In a frolic Mowgli accidentally tore Peter's paw, and the keepers expected the lion to turn on the dog. But not Mowgli. He lifted the terrier between his paws, cuddled him and licked the wound clean. He mounted guard over his friend, moving only to dress the wound in his own way.

Masons Attend Anderson Rites

With many of his old friends and fellow Masons attending, funeral services for the late Charles Gustaf Rupert Anderson, early resident of the city, who passed away on Sunday, were held this afternoon from St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Chaplain Miller, Army Lutheran padre, officiated.

Members of Tsimpsean Lodge, A. F. & M., of which the deceased had long been a member, were in strong attendance in the well-filled church. The hymns were accompanied and incidental music played by Peter Lien, organist.

Masonic burial rites were observed in a graveside ceremony directed by Worshipful Master W. L. Coates and Master of Ceremonies William McLeod. The service was led by Chaplain Sam

▲ General meeting of the Navy League of Canada, Prince Rupert Branch, in Legion Rooms, May 22, at 8 p.m., for election of officers and general business. (120)

Col. S. D. Johnston, area commandant here, has returned to the city from a brief trip to Vancouver.

Hazen Hankinson and Roy Crandall, local boys serving in the Navy have recently been in St. John's, Newfoundland. Bill Hunter has been stationed there for some time.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital was held in the hospital last night, the session being largely of a routine nature and lasting about an hour. President G. P. Tinker was in the chair and in attendance were Robert Gordon, Aid. George Hills, Arnold Flaten, Thomas B. Black and Mrs. S. A. Kieback, directors; Miss Tamblin, lady superintendent, and H. W. Birch, managing secretary.

Percy Ward, inspector of hospitals, advised the board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital at its meeting last night that it would be unusual and an innovation for nurses to be represented on a hospital board. Reference had been made to Mr. Ward following request of the local Registered Nurses' Association to be represented on the board. Decision as to whether or not such representation should be granted has not yet been reached by the board.

Fire conditions in Prince Rupert General Hospital and Nurses' Home, including fire alarm systems and housekeeping arrangements, continue satisfactory, stated the monthly report of Fire Chief H. T. Lock presented at the monthly meeting of the hospital board last night.

Dr. Roger G. Knipe, medical health officer, advised the board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital last night that it was obligatory to apply silver nitrate to the eyes of all newborn babies on delivery and, if the hospital permitted anything else to be used, it might be held responsible for ill effects to the eyes. Since this advice was received from Dr. Knipe, doctors using the hospital case room have been required to use silver nitrate the board was advised.

The board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital was advised by the Regional War Labor Board in a letter read at last night's board meeting that it was not obligatory for a hospital to pay cost of living bonus to its employees. However, the information came too late as the hospital started paying the cost of living bonus some time ago under the assumption that it was necessary for it to do so.

Apart from the fact that the institution continues busy as ever, Miss Tamblin, R.N., lady superintendent, had nothing of an especial nature to report for the month at last night's meeting of the board of trustees. There promised to be a shortage of nurses in June with relief of the situation in that regard by July.

▲ Whist Drive at L.P.P. Headquarters tomorrow evening at 8:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Carrigan returned this morning from a holiday trip to Vancouver.

The Prince Rupert Medical Association has agreed to carry out medical examinations of the members of the hospital staff free of charge, the hospital board was advised at its meeting last night in a letter from Dr. John Gibson, secretary of the Medical Association.

Mrs. S. A. Kieback, reporting for the Women's Auxiliary at last night's meeting of the board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital, told of a successful tea that had been held yesterday afternoon in the Nurses' Home and also mentioned a tag day which was planned for the near future.

A communication from the British Columbia Hospital Association, read at last night's meeting of the local hospital board, gave particulars of a course of lectures and demonstrations on hospital administration which will be held in connection with the annual convention of the British Columbia Hospital Association in Vancouver in October. Mrs. Edith Pringle, R.N., a former lady superintendent of the Prince Rupert General Hospital, will be one of the lecturers.

Sees Electricity Boon to Britain

LONDON, May 19 — Lord Woolton, minister of reconstruction, is dreaming of an England with electricity in every house and every farm, he told the Electric Lamp Manufacturers' Association meeting here.
"I hope your trade will adopt a national standard in domestic electrical equipment and standardize voltage," he said.
"Light is the enemy of dirt, electricity is the killer of drudgery. Electricity has a great contribution to make to a fuller, safer life."

Concert Parties For Second Front

LONDON, May 19 — More than 150 of London's loveliest showgirls, and not one over 23, have been chosen as casts for concert parties, revues, variety shows and musical comedies to be "produced on the invasion front. They will operate from motor caravans that will provide living quarters as well as stage.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. (By Dorothy Garbutt)

The Service Wives' Club met Thursday afternoon in the ladies' lounge at the Y. There was a large attendance, old, new, and regular members being out in full force. Sixteen women and ten children were present. Mrs.
Young, whose husband is in the Navy communications branch, came to say good-bye before leaving for her home in Ste.
Hyacinthe. Mrs. Girardi and Mrs.
Tritschler served refreshments and the raffle, donated by Mrs.
Enyur, was won by Mrs. Toogood.

After the Service Wives' Club meeting, I went back to Mrs.
Tritschler's home for a while and saw the most interesting piano.
The only metal parts on it are the tuning screws—I think that is what they are called. The pedals are of wood and all the rest of the frame is wood. The first date it was tuned was September 2, 1862—and so it must be a few years older than that again. We were trying to visualize the things it had seen since it came from England so very many years ago. The Civil War in the States was only half over, there were hoop skirts, bustles and things called dol-mans and equally queer pelisses, and tippets, hobble skirts, fascinators, Empress Eugenie hats, fair Isle sweaters, peg-topped trousers, ox blood oxfords—so many styles clustered around its keys. And so many songs sung to its tinkling melody—"When Johnny Comes Marching Home,"
"The Girl I Left Behind Me,"
"Alexander's Rag Time Band,"
"Moonlight Bay" and because it came over from England there would be "Pop Goes the Weasel,"
"The Old Bull and Bush," and
"The Soldiers of the Queen."

Tonight is Navy night for the big Massey Harris show "Combines of 1944." The company is playing until Monday so all the service personnel in the district should be able to enjoy it. I hear our old favorites "The Joe Boys," Fraser Lister's R.C.A.F. troupe, are coming. We are well served these days.

Insect Bombs Being Used From Planes

LONDON, May 19 —A new kind of bomb is now being manufactured for the R.A.F., the chief ingredient of which is pyrethrum, the insecticide made from the daisy like flower grown in East Africa.
The new bombs are used for disinfecting aircraft employed on tropical routes, to prevent mosquitoes and vermin being transferred from one place to another. A disinfectant bomb is thrown in the aircraft when it lands, and no insect can survive.
