"At the very moment when our boys are going Vancouver, where she will take over the top, the C.C.F. publication, the Canadian up residence, next week. Forum, breaks into print with the following statements: 'The outstanding characteristic of this war is its reactionary character.' And also: 'By contrast, World War I was inspiring and revolutionary.'

"Further in this same article we are warned against a United Nations victory in this war. We are told: 'The signs are more and more ominous of, what a United Nations victory protends.'

"When we read of these statements, and when we also see the C.C.F. betrayal of the best interests | of the Canadian people in Quebec, that testing ground of political honesty, we must realize that it is more than about time for us to repudiate in unmistakable terms the Party which is prostituting the cause of Canadian labor."
