OTTAWA, Nov. 7. — Col. J. L. Ralston, former minister of national defence, would make a statement last night in connection with his resignation from the cabinet last week. Democratic Victory in United States Hoped For—Local C.C.F. "If we witness the downfall of the great principles which have brought the United Nations together, principles announced by the whole world by Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin at Teheran, then those boys of mine will be marching off to fight another war which will not determine anything we cannot determine today." Bruce Mickleburgh, in summarizing the discussion, expressed confidence that Roosevelt would beat Dewey. Chamber Valuable

Community Should Aid Its Member

Olof Hanson Gives Advice—Acknowledges Assistance A parliamentary representative can do much more effective work and achieve much better results when he has the energetic and active support of such bodies as chambers of commerce in putting forward sound and constructive ideas and occasionally sending delegations to the seat of government to assist the member and strengthen his hand. Olof Hanson, M.P. for Skeena, told the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night. "I advise you to always co-operate with, advise and assist your member. The views and representations of a chamber of commerce always carry weight with the authorities, sometimes more weight than the member himself who is at ways there." Mr. Hanson said that one of the greatest acts of assistance he had received at Ottawa had been when Ex-Mayor W. M. Watts had gone down to aid him in putting forward the city's representations. "Now we are getting things settled," Mr. Hanson remarked.

Refuses General McNaughton's Plea for Voluntary Enlistment

OTTAWA, Nov. 7 — Cries of protest greeted Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, the new minister of national defence, last night when he asked a Canadian Legion meeting to support the policy of voluntary enlistment for overseas service. In the course of his remarks, Gen. McNaughton used the word "compulsion" there was sustained applause and the chairman had to call for order. The new minister said he did not favor giving men of the Home Defence Army civilian jobs if he did not believe that they were fit for soldiers. Those who would be recalled to the army if fit. The general said men could be "driven" but they could be "encouraged" and "led." He had always advocated the possibility of voluntary enlistment. Gen. McNaughton deplored the voluntary policy in his own, said McNaughton, in adopting it. Premier King was following his advice. He asked if he considered the policy of voluntary enlistment popular in eight provinces. McNaughton replied that he would not make his decisions on the basis of popularity. The minister said his experience had made him favor the policy of voluntary enlistments. The Canadian Army had been raised in any other way than the voluntary system it had not have been worthy of the name. Gen. McNaughton disclosed that he was arranging home leave for overseas men who had been serving abroad for the past time. Canada's new defence minister announced his program in regard to army reinforcements.

London and Washington observers consider it possible that Russia may offer some aid in the war against Japan after Germany is defeated. Canadians Liberate Walcheren PARIS — Canadian First Army troops have captured the city of Middleburg on Walcheren Island in the Dutch Schelde estuary. The attack on the city almost involved an amphibious assault landing over the flooded fields. Canadian-command British troops were forced to use boats and amphibious vehicles to cross the stretches of water surrounding the city. Canadian troops have also captured Veere, thus completing the liberation of Walcheren. Japs Lose More Warships PEARL HARBOR — New Allied naval blows in the Pacific have sent six more Japanese warships onto the sunk-or-damaged list. The engagement took place near Manila, and the attack was carried out by carrier planes. The Japanese also lost nearly 200 aircraft in the fight. In the Philippines, meanwhile, the fight goes well for the Allies. Allied forces are advancing on the west coast port of Ormoc from two directions. The Japanese attempted three counter-attacks north of the port during the night, but all these attacks were thrown back. At one point, Russian forces are within two miles south of the big German-held airdrome near the fringe of Budapest. Chaotic conditions are said to exist in the city and refugees are fleeing the capital in increasing numbers. The Paris radio says Hungarian workers have gone on strike and have occupied an armament works in the capital. Meanwhile, Premier Stalin has issued an order of the day commemorating this twenty-seventh anniversary of the Russian revolution. The Russian leader declares that the Red Army and its western allies have taken up favorable positions for a decisive offensive against the vital centres of the Reich. At General McNaughton Taking Sides with Anti-Conscriptionists MONTREAL, Nov. 7 — The Montreal Gazette said Saturday in a dispatch from L. S. B. Shapiro, with the Canadian First Army in Holland, that the Canadians were shocked to hear that General A. G. L. McNaughton "appears at least from this distance to have thrown his influence and popularity to the side of the anti-conscriptionists." Shapiro said that Col. J. L. Ralston's decision to make an issue of the reinforcements situation in resigning as defence minister did not surprise the troops.

CITY COUNCIL

AMBULANCE ORPHANED AS COUNCIL RESCINDS PACT WITH HOSPITAL BD.

The new city ambulance became temporarily an orphan last night when city council in the course of a turbulent debate, rescinded its earlier adoption of the recommendations contained in the report of the joint ambulance committee.

After a debate, which tore the report apart but failed to reassemble it, council threw up its hands and referred it to a joint meeting of city council and the full hospital board which will be called in the near future.

Alderman Hills, chairman of city council's section of the ambulance committee, charged bluntly that "the hospital board doesn't want anything to do with the ambulance."

Chief objection to the report, which was passed with a few minor ruminations at a special council meeting Tuesday, was the alleged failure of the hospital board to honor its original agreement to share equally with the city the payment of the $200 a month salary of the ambulance driver.

Alderman Hills read minutes of an earlier meeting of the joint ambulance committee wherein it was agreed that both parties share payment of the $200 salary.

However, the report passed Tuesday and rescinded by council last night, contained a clause making the hospital board liable for half the driver's salary only if it did not exceed $150 a month. In order to reconsider this clause council was forced to rescind the whole report.

"The report appears ambiguous anyway," Alderman Arnold declared. "The ambulance committee recommended a $200 a month salary, then changed it to $150. They are apparently trying to tell us how much we should pay the driver for looking after the city rest room as well."

The clause recommending a flat $5 fee for use of the ambulance also underwent considerable mauling as council members struggled to redraft the report.

In spite of Alderman Hills' statement that the Compensation Board, insurance companies and industrial concerns expected to pay the $5 fee, Alderman Elliott maintained that a $3 fee for stretcher cases and a $2 fee for walking cases was sufficient.

"The public bought the ambulance so they shouldn't have to pay too much to use it," he asserted.

"The $2,800 subscribed by the citizens didn't cover the cost of buying it, so it won't pay the $3,000 a year required to operate it," Alderman Hills retorted.

Alderman Arnold moved that fees of $5 for stretcher cases and $3 for walking cases be charged. This was approved by council but was later nullified when they failed to redraft the report.

At the conclusion of the debate Alderman Rudderham moved that, since the joint ambulance committee was not a functioning body, the cost of bills already charged to it for the purchase of equipment should be paid by the city.

"It's a good thing I didn't meet with the hospital board earlier this week as I intended," Alderman Hills remarked. "Otherwise the agreement would have been signed and we would have been stuck with something we apparently don't want."

A court of revision consisting of Mayor H. M. Daggett and Aldermen Rudderham and Arnold will sit on November 15 to give final approval to the 1944 civic voters' list.

A motion by Alderman Arnold urging the renewal of the stairway from Third Ave. to Fourth Ave. below the Waldron Apartments was passed by city council and referred to the city engineer for action last night.

A request for a $10 donation by the Prince Rupert Rehabilitation Council of which the city is a member was approved by council last night.

The Klansmen's Club of Prince Rupert may erect a welcome sign along the highway at the city outskirts, council decided.

Permission has been granted by the provincial government for the city to take steps to finance the construction of a sewer on Ninth Ave.

Long Distance Phone Service

The British Columbia Telephone Co., in a communication last night, expressed the opinion to the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce that it was doubtful if a military wire on the telegraph system to Prince Rupert could be obtained for commercial long distance telephone use as long as the war was on but it was a matter which might be taken up with the federal government. It was possible that some of the existing military wires might become available for civilian use after the war was over. Congestion on long-distance telephone services has been general during the past year, the communication said. Such congestion was not peculiar to Prince Rupert.

WINNIPEG IS NON-COMMITTAL

Interested in Peace River Outlet But is making no Commitments

The Winnipeg Board of Trade is interested in the proposal for a railway line from Winnipeg through the Peace River district and on to Prince Rupert as the Pacific Coast outlet but is not prepared to make any commitment in regard to the project, the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce was advised last night in a letter from the Winnipeg Board. "We are vitally interested in the development of northwest Canada," said the communication "and we are keeping a close watch on all proposed developments in that area."

The Peace River outlet committee of the local chamber, of which Theo Collart is chairman, is keeping active in the general end of bringing the Peace River railway outlet to Prince Rupert.

Wartime Houses Now Available

Wartime Housing residences, not required for occupancy by dry dock workers, are now becoming available for wives and families of service men and certain civilians, the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce was advised last night by Olof Hanson M. P. A relaxation of Wartime Housing regulations was making this possible. Mr. Hanson made this statement to the Chamber following the reading of a letter from the Canadian Legion which sought co-operation in representations to Wartime Housing that such houses be made available to wives and families of service men stationed here.

LABOR PROGRESSIVES (Continued from Page 1)

Action Committee of the C.I.O. under the chairmanship of Sidney Hillman, has resulted in millions of Roosevelt supporters registering who might otherwise have failed to vote. The battle for Roosevelt has been essentially a battle for registration.

"The whole world is marching down the road of unity with Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin," Mickleburgh declared. "Without unity at home and abroad we should not be winning the war, nor could we win the peace."

"Yet the Tories and the C.C.F. leadership in Canada are striving might and main to disrupt this unity. In line with their reckless partisan policies C.C.F. leaders have been stumping the United States urging the workers to vote, not for Roosevelt but for Dewey's very good friend, the Split-Roosevelt - vote candidate, Norman Thomas, advocate of peace with Hitlerism."

Mickleburgh lashed local C. C. F. elements who openly hoped Roosevelt would be defeated so that the Americans through suffering would be convinced of the need for "what the C.C.F. calls Socialism."

"This 'worse the better' policy leads not to Socialism but to Fascism," he stated, "and present C.C.F. anti-unity policies in Canada if not thwarted will isolate the labor movement as a helpless parliamentary opposition in face of a reactionary coalition rather than lead labor forward to a position of partnership in the government."

"American workers are solid behind Roosevelt and I for one will fight to bring about a Liberal - Labor coalition in Canada."

Mrs. J. R. Blakey was in the chair and following the meeting coffee was served.

Postwar Publicity—

Encouraging Of Tourists

Fund May be Set up To Assist in Bringing This District To Fore

Desirability of publicizing Prince Rupert and district with a view to encouraging tourist traffic this way after the war was brought forward at the meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night. One suggestion was that now might be a good time to start building up a substantial fund that would be available for such publicity purposes when the proper time came. With Prince Rupert at last connected with the outside world by highway, it was felt that it was more important than ever now to capitalize on the tourist business.

The matter of tourist traffic came up with the reading of a letter from the Terrace Board of Trade which suggested that the time was now ripe to advertise the attractions of this district now that the highway was available. Co-operation in getting out a pamphlet was sought but first the name of the road should be settled upon. Arrangements should also be made, if possible, with the steamship companies to obtain favorable rates on the shipment of cars between Prince Rupert and Vancouver.

Arnold Platen read from an article which disclosed that the Pacific Northwest Trade Association was organizing a $1,500-

000 fund to develop tourist traffic to the Pacific Northwest and British Columbia. He suggested that a start might now be made in co-operation with the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce in organizing a publicity fund here for post-war advertising purposes.

W. M. Watts felt it might be advisable to become identified with the Pacific Northwest Trade Association through a revived Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia and with possible representation as well from southeastern Alaska which was much interested in Prince Rupert and its railway and highway in connection with tourist travel.

Arthur Brooksbank said that steps were being taken to revive the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia and that a convention would probably be held next summer.

Finally, it was left to the publicity committee to bring in a report.

We sit at home where it's nice and safe while our young men face death hourly. They fight with their blood, their lives, for every inch they gain in occupied countries. Not very fair, is it?

Canada's Navy... guardian of a vital chain

JUST as the steady flow of Canadian and American-made war materiel to Britain was indispensable to the successful invasion of the continent, so final Victory depends on the maintenance of this stream of supplies from America to Europe, from factory to firing line.

The protection of these convoys is the specialized job of Canada's Navy. History will record the magnificent manner in which it has been performed.

Indeed, in protecting convoy after convoy, Canada has forged another essential link between these two great comrades-in-arms, John Bull and Uncle Sam. And when tomorrow brings us Victory and Peace, surely Canada, of all nations, is best situated to further the continuation of goodwill between the British Commonwealth and the United States which is so necessary for a lasting World Peace.

In our hearts is the same concept of freedom!

CANADIANS, Americans and Englishmen share the same concept of freedom... share, too, one of the earliest defenders of freedom. He was a Calvert, a famous English statesman, Secretary of State to King James I.

In 1622 Calvert founded a colony in Newfoundland and, later, a colony in Maryland. Thus, over 300 years ago Calvert forged a link which has strengthened throughout the years... joining together the British Commonwealth and the United States.

In the new settlements the principle of self-government was inaugurated and religious toleration was fully enforced. Thus, in the early 1600's, a Calvert established in the New World many of the freedoms we are fighting for today.

QUEEN MARY CHAPTER IS IN SESSION

An address by Mrs. A. Noblston, area Y.W.C.A. hostess, was a feature of the regular monthly meeting of Queen Mary Chapter, I.O.D.E., at the week-end. In her talk, entitled "Behind the Scenes with a Hostess," Mrs. Noblston described her experiences in Hostess Houses across Canada, dwelling particularly on her service at Port Albert, on Georgian Bay where 350 British wives and several hundred children were stationed at an R.A.F. training centre. In spite of an extremely cold winter and a minimum of conveniences there was high spirit among them.

"Those British wives learned to love Canada, and are looking to the day when they will return," Mrs. Noblston concluded. Mrs. James Laurie, convener of refugee work reported that 173 articles of clothing had been sent to bombed areas of Britain, and that goods valued at $191.55 had been sent overseas for Polish relief. There has been an outstanding response to urgent pleas for warm clothing for victims of robot bombings in Britain.

It was also reported that Queen Mary Chapter has donated $50 to the local Sea Cadet Corps for the purchase of a typewriter and that $60 has been given to the Prisoner of War Fund. There have also been donations to the Camp Libraries Fund, Polish Relief, Sailors and Minesweeper Fund, British War Guests, and to the Mary Crot Memorial Hospital for crippled children.

NAME OF ROAD IS DISCUSSED

Suggestions Heard at Chamber of Commerce—interior to be Consulted

What to officially name in perpetuity the new highway from Prince Rupert eastward through the Skeena River valley and thence to the outside world again exercised the imaginative ingenuity of the members of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night. It was finally decided to leave the question over until interior boards of trade could be consulted with to obtain their views on the matter.

A communication from the Department of Mines and Resources which built the road, revealed that in official correspondence the title "Prince Rupert Highway" was being used. The letter said that experience had proven that it was usually difficult to attach a name to a road unless that name had some geographical connection. "Skeena River Highway" was another name that was being used in connection with the new road. Suggestions from the provincial public works department might be obtained.

There was some difference of opinion among the members of the Chamber as to whether it should be "Prince Rupert" or "Skeena River" Highway. Olof Hanson M. P. felt the title might well have broader significance than merely "Prince Rupert" or "Skeena" with the possible incorporation of "TransProvincial" or "TransCanada." Use of "Alaska" in the name also found favor with some.

"Floors have a lot to do with Morale"

"Transforming drab, shabby, depressing floors has been my life's mission for more years than I care to count. I was lucky to get off to a flying start with so fine a product as Congoleum and I've been at it ever since.
 "War has only intensified my effort. The need for the colourful beauty, cleaning ease, comfort and enduring quality always assured by Congoleum Gold Seal Rugs and Congoleum by the yard, is greater than ever and we at the Congoleum plant, besides devoting our entire machine-shop facilities to specialized war production, are going all-out to meet it, thus aiding morale and the will to victory."

HOW TO HELP MR. GOLD SEAL MAKE GOOD
 You can get added wear out of your Congoleum floors with very little effort. Brush and mop them regularly and renew the brightness of their surface with an occasional waxing. Make sure too, that the floor underneath is smooth and free from crevices or knobs. If it's a rug, move it every few months to "spread" the traffic. Yes, a little care will pay big dividends.

Benefit Hoop Game Scheduled For Friday

A benefit basketball game between American and Canadian All Stars will be held in the Navy Drill Hall Friday night and should turn out to be a delectable morsel of sports fare, Frank Watson, Y. M. C. A. area sports supervisor announces.

The money raised by the game will be turned over to the basketball league to help cover operating expenses.

"Last year the league was denied the right to raise money for its own use and consequently had hard sledding," Frank said. "Friday night's game should make it easier for us this year."

NO PLANS YET FOR NEW SHIPS

No plans have as yet been made for the replacement of the steamers Prince Rupert and Prince George in the British Columbia coast service, a letter from Canadian National Railways headquarters advised the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce at its meeting last night. A suggestion of the chamber that ships to replace these vessels be constructed at the company's own yard in Prince Rupert would, however, be kept in mind, the communication stated.

On recommendation of the health committee, city council last night approved the appointment of Malcolm James Harper as sanitary inspector, replacing C. R. Stonehouse, who resigned November 1.

Health committee recommended that Wartime Housing Limited and Canadian National Railways close and demolish the bunkhouses near Hays Cove Circle. Council approved the recommendation.

Mrs. Charles Cook of Bute-dale, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Moore for the last week, is leaving today to return home. Provincial Constable M. Stevens of North Vancouver arrived Monday to begin duty with the city detachment. He fills the position vacated by Constable Sam Ferguson who was recently transferred to Pouce Coupe.
