Bulletins

END NOT SO CLOSE
PARIS—General Charles de Gaulle warned yesterday that the end of the war in Europe might not be so near as some expected. He thought it would not be over until next spring. "The hardest fighting is yet to come," DeGaulle said.

HITS REICHSCHANCELLERY
LISBON—Arrivals here from Berlin tell of the Reichschancellery having been directly hit and badly damaged by the Royal Air Force in a bombing attack September 15.

UNRRA SESSION ENDS
MONTREAL—The United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration meetings which have been in progress here for ten days closed with two plenary sessions today. The delegates representing 44 nations will commence leaving tonight.

Axis To Be Controlled

Both Germany and Japan to be Held Down After War

WASHINGTON, D.C., Sept. 26 (CP)—Control both in Germany and in former occupied countries of firms which collaborated with the Axis effort to gain world domination has been agreed upon by British and American governments, the Department of State announced last night.

Blacklists of individuals and firms which assisted the Axis will be continued as a means of furthering wartime economic strangulation of Japan.

A Canadian government official said that his Dominion will follow exactly the same course as Great Britain and the United States.

War In China—

BITTER BATTLE ON WHOLE FRONT

CHUNGKING, Sept. 26 (CP)—The Chinese are engaging two Japanese columns which are apparently attempting to envelop Kweilin in flanking movements and bitter fighting is reported at, along the Chinese battlefield.

The Japanese are moving on the Kwangsi Province city from positions east of Hunan-Kwangsi railroad.

The enemy have recaptured Taosien, northeast of Kweilin.

EQUINE PLANE SPOTTER
LONDON (CP)—A 33-year-old horse who gets skittish several minutes before flying bombs approach is champion "spotter" of a southern England town. During the blitz days, claims his driver, the horse could tell the difference between British and German planes.

Churchill's Statement—

To Address Parliament Thursday

British Policy On Post-war Germany Yet To Be Revealed

LONDON, Sept. 26 (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill, cheered from all quarters of the House of Commons as he took his seat following his return from the Quebec conference, omitted statements on major war questions today in preparation for a full dress statement Thursday. The debate may well bring disclosure of Britain's attitude on what to do with Germany after the war.

Mr. Churchill, in answer to a question, said that no commitments had yet been made at the Dumbarton Oaks conference.

The Prime Minister satisfied another questioner with the statement that Adolf Hitler and other war criminals would not be allowed sanctuary in neutral countries after the war.

Mr. Churchill, returning from the conference, arrived in London yesterday. Crowds assembled at the station cheered as the Prime Minister's party drove to 10 Downing Street. Churchill, wearing a Trinity House uniform and yachting cap, was in buoyant spirits.

MOB ATTACKS ONTARIO JAPS

INGERSOLL, Ont., Sept. 26 (CP)—Civic anger following reports that Japanese men employed by an Ingersoll manufacturer had mingled with girls in this district broke into open violence Sunday night when 300 men bearing clubs attempted to break into quarters occupied by the Japanese.

Police were called, and, swinging batons, broke up the mob before they could reach the Japanese. There were no arrests.

Machinery Of Voting In Motion

Local Federal Election Returning Officer Getting Ready

T. W. Brown, federal returning officer, on instructions from Ottawa, has started to set in motion the machinery for the holding of the federal election in Skeena riding. While the date of the election has not yet been set, it is now evident that dissolution of Parliament may come suddenly with the possibility of the election before the end of the year.

The work of organizing polling divisions and deputy returning officers is already under way.

Preliminaries with a view to preparing the required new voters' list have also been instituted.

TERRACE THEFT CASE DISMISSED

A charge of theft against Gordon L. Brooks of Terrace was dismissed by Judge W. E. Fisher in County Court Monday on the grounds that Brooks had reason to believe that the truck parts and equipment he was alleged to have stolen on July 3 were abandoned.

The equipment—a rear portion of a burned out truck and a hydraulic dump hoist—having stood along the highway east of Terrace for more than two years, gave indication of abandonment, his Lordship decided.

Brooks told the court that he had offered to purchase the equipment from the Terrace representative of the Finning Tractor Company Ltd., the owners. Later, on July 3, he had an extremely heavy load to haul and had used the parts in question because they were the only equipment in the district sturdy enough.

"In times like these, where there is a shortage of heavy equipment, there is no reason why it should be left to stand idle at a roadside," Judge Fisher said.

W. O. Fulton acted as counsel for the defence and T. W. Brown prosecuted.

Every Man, Woman and Child Is To Be Cared For - Cradle to the Grave

LONDON, Sept. 26 (CP)—The government made public last night a great social security plan which would affect every man, woman and child in Britain. It was the government's answer at least in part to the controversial Beveridge Plan. During the first year it is estimated the plan would cost nearly three billion dollars. It covers human needs from the cradle to the grave.

The plan would provide unemployment and sickness insurance, health service, widows' pensions, retirement pensions, family allowances, orphans' allowances, motherhood grants and death grants.

The government, it is said, hopes to make the plan effective in 1945.

HEAVY FIGHT ON PELELIU ISLAND

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (CP)—United States troops counted 8288 Japanese dead on Peleliu and Anguar Islands through yesterday and heavy fighting continues on Peleliu. United States forces made substantial progress northwards along the western end of Peleliu.

United States warships frustrated a Japanese attempt to reinforce beleaguered forces on Peleliu, destroying a convoy of 13 barges and one motor sampan carrying men and equipment. A United States cruiser bombarded two camouflaged Japanese ships on the same day in Malaki Harbor in the heart of the Palau.

Electric Power Bans Are Lifted

OTTAWA, Sept. 26 (CP)—Restrictions on the use of electric power in all provinces except British Columbia will be lifted October 1. Unprecedented drought in British Columbia is given as the reason for the bans remaining there. Only restrictions aimed at conserving power are lifted. Those imposed by defence authorities for security reasons are not affected by the announcement.

MANY ATTEND RUDDY RITES, BURNS LAKE

BURNS LAKE, Sept. 26—One of the largest attended funerals in the history of Burns Lake was that of the late Anthony M. Ruddy on Saturday afternoon. The service took place in the local Roman Catholic Church with Rev. Father M. Murie and Rev. Father W. O. O'Brien officiating. There were mourners from all parts of the district between Prince Rupert and Prince George who came to pay their final tributes of esteem and respect to the memory of one of the best known and highly esteemed pioneers.

Floral offerings overflowed the altar, banking the casket with a pyramid of beauty including gorgeous hot house wreaths and simple jackpine crosses studded with waxlike flowers from the bases of the glacier in the far Babines.

After the service, interment was made in Burns Lake Cemetery; a long concourse following the cortege to the final resting place.

Honorary pallbearers were Sam Marsh of Prince Rupert, Barney Mulvany, John Berg and J. S. Brown of Burns Lake and Tony Sartori and George Wall of Smithers. Active pallbearers were R. A. McLeod of Prince Rupert, J. Gould of Houston, A. M. Brown and J. W. McLennan of Burns Lake and John Keefe of Francois Lake.

His widow, the former Miss Bella Macleod, has received the sympathy and assistance of many friends.

Rubicon Crossing—
Eighth and Fifth Armies Follow Up After Breaking Gothic Line

ROME, Sept. 26 (CP)—The British Eighth Army has hammered across the Rubicon and the Allied commander in the Mediterranean expresses hope that the crossing today will lead to a decisive victory. The Rubicon flows into the Adriatic Sea just north of Rimini.

Tuesday's communique said that Dominion—probably Canadian—troops of the Eighth Army captured Bordonchia, six miles north of Rimini.

South of Bologna the Fifth Army, on the west, was driving along several valleys running in a northeasterly direction after breaking the Gothic Line.

CONTINUE SELECTIVE SERVICE

Labor Man Believes It Should Have Place In Post-war Plans

WINNIPEG, Sept. 22 (CP)—Continuation of National Selective Service in post-war years as a personnel labor relations unit to co-operate with employers in placing workers has been urged by Fred J. White of Winnipeg, veteran of labor affairs.

Unless there is a chart of production and a system of guiding people into jobs "we will be guaranteeing the new generation nothing more than the right to starve, steal or suicide," he said.

The post-war work of N.S.S. could be much greater than the restrictive functions during the war, Mr. White believes.

"We have about 200,000 children leaving school every year," he said. "Now, we are working out plans for vocational guidance that will amount to a bits and pieces program unless we also work out some way of fitting them into jobs for which they are best suited."

Noting there are two schools of thought regarding N.S.S. in post-war years, Mr. White said there are some who think it should be dropped the minute the war ends and others who are convinced N.S.S. should be retained for a very vital function.

Mr. White, who is regional superintendent of the Unemployment Insurance Commission, said there likely would be a call for unemployment insurance benefits during the post-war readjustment period. Such benefits should not be considered as something to take the place of employment as the unemployment insurance fund never was intended to carry a tremendous load, he said.

A more human basis of dealing with workers also was suggested. "We must emphasize the only difference between the man who is being interviewed and the man doing the interviewing is the width of the counter."

MANCHURIA IS UNDER ATTACK

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (CP)—Super-fortresses today attacked strategic military targets in Japanese-dominated Manchuria. The Tokyo radio claimed that Japanese fighters were waiting for the raiders and engaged them in heavy fighting.

Well known former Prince Rupert boy, Kenneth Schubert, who was reported missing during the summer while serving with the Royal Canadian Air Force, has now been announced safe in England. The good news was received a few days ago by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Schubert, formerly of Prince Rupert and now at Ashcroft where Mr. Schubert is district superintendent of Government Telegraphs. It is believed that "Ken" had been a prisoner of war in France.

Estonia Near Cleaned Up—Battle of Warsaw Continues

MOSCOW, Sept. 26 (CP)—The Russians hammered today at a final small pocket of German resistance in Estonia and began organizing an assault on two key islands guarding the Baltic Sea approaches to Riga, besieged capital of Latvia.

On the Estonian coast the Russians have captured all important ports except Virtsu.

A communique last night announced the fall of Haapsalu, Estonia's third port.

The Russians have captured eight communities east of Riga.

The Battle of Warsaw, now in its fifty-sixth day, brought no fresh news from Russian official sources but Poles just back from the Vistula lines declared that the Germans were being shoved back steadily.

The Russians have advanced in southern Poland, capturing Berehynure, three miles from the Czechoslovakia border.

CANADA YEAR BOOK . . .

Canada Year Book for 1943-44, published by the federal Department of Trade and Commerce, has made its appearance and is now available for distribution. This is the official statistical annual of the country and contains an up-to-date account of the natural resources of the Dominion and their development, the history of the country, its institutions, its demography, the different branches of production, trade, transportation, finance, education, etc. — in short a comprehensive study within the limits of a single volume of the social and economic conditions of the Dominion.

These are the general and routine features of "Canada Year Book." In addition the latest edition reviews the effect of war time production and war time controls on the national economic structure. There are full particulars of the physical accomplishments of the war effort and an entire chapter is devoted to the all important subject of public finance.

For those who want to keep up-to-date on Canada and its affairs we can once again recommend Canada Year Book.

PRAISE NEWSPAPER CARRIERS . . .

The President of the United States and General George C. Marshall, U.S. Army Chief of Staff, praise the work of newspaper carrier boys.

The President says: "The boys who deliver the newspapers to our homes throughout the country are doing two important jobs at once — first, in studying to prepare themselves for good citizenship in tomorrow's world, and second, in serving as a vital link in the process of world news gathering and reporting that makes our people the best informed people in the world."

General George C. Marshall adds: "No group of boys represent more truly the typical American qualities of alertness and initiative than the youngsters who serve the public and the press as newspaper carriers. Any boy who has mastered the many lessons to be learned in this teen-age career of newspaper route work is already started toward the full manhood which has always characterized the American soldier."

LAY PLANS FOR MASSES CHOIR

A massed choir which is in process of organization will give Prince Rupert music lovers a chance to hear choral music on a grand scale this winter.

According to Peter Lien, choir-master of St. Andrew's Cathedral, and leader of the Varden singers, three church choirs and the Varden singers, totalling over 60 voices, have already indicated their willingness to take part in the mass singing, and three other groups may enter.

The organization hopes to present public concerts at least twice during the winter season.

At an organizational meeting during the week-end, representatives of the Anglican, Presbyterian and United Church choirs and the Varden singers instituted a committee to supervise the project. It is understood that other groups which received invitations may respond later.

The combined choirs hope to have sufficient practice by V-day to take part in the thanksgiving celebration planned by the Ministerial Association.

A general meeting of members of all choirs has been called for Thursday night at St. Andrew's Cathedral hall to complete organizational plans and to elect officers.

Present at the meeting at the week-end were Peter Lien, and Mrs. A. Martin, of the Anglican church choir; Mrs. E. Smith and William Martin, of the Presbyterian church choir; M. Norgaard of the Varden singers; Mrs. N. Upper and J. S. Wilson, of the United Church choir.

FRED STEPKO BURIED MONDAY

Funeral of the late Fred Stepko who passed away at Dundas Island last week was held from B. C. Undertakers Monday. Rev. W. W. Silverthorne officiated.

Among the friends attending the service were fishermen who had worked with the deceased during his life in Prince Rupert. Pallbearers were Harry Paulsen, Charles Wallace, Jens Knutsen, Peter Jensen, Clarence Doane, and Haakon Sherberg.

NUTRITION PROBLEMS TO BE ATTACKED

Convinced that nutrition is one of Canada's biggest health problems, the nutrition committee of the Prince Rupert Union Board of Health has decided to concentrate its efforts on a continuous educational program this winter.

The program is being sponsored by the Cambrai Chapter, I.O. D.E., and will begin with a Nutrition Week, October 2-9.

Appointed to the board's nutrition committee at the first fall meeting at the week-end were representatives of several public spirited organizations. They are Mrs. C. H. Insulander, Valhalla Lodge; Mrs. B. Brenner, Presbyterian W. A.; Miss N. L. Bird, St. Andrew's W. A.; Mrs. A. J. Croxford, Canadian Legion W. A.; Mrs. W. J. Richards, L.O.B.A.; Mrs. S. R. Donaldson, P.T.A.; Mrs. Foster, Housewives' League; S. A. Cheeseman, W. W. C. O'Neill, Miss E. A. Mercer, Miss G. Cade and Miss E. Brammer of the Teachers' Association.

The Cambrai Chapter nutritional aid committee which is sponsoring the program consists of Mrs. Jens Munthe, regent, Mrs. C. H. Elkins and Mrs. R. G. Knipe.

NAVY LEAGUE SEA CADET SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

OTHER SUCCESSFUL SEA CADET CANDIDATES

Eighteen Navy League, Royal Canadian Sea Cadets passed the examinations for entrance to The Royal Canadian Naval College at Royal Roads, B.C., and of these 17 are now in attendance, the remaining cadet having decided to enter University. Six Sea Cadets were awarded a Navy League Scholarship. They include J. I. Manore, Fort Arthur; N. S. Norton, Vancouver; R. K. Odell, Ottawa; Bruce Wilson, Stratford; D. J. Price, Montreal; and R. A. Stewart, Fredericton.

The other 12 successful candidates were: G. W. Blackburn, Quebec; Peter Campbell, Victoria; J. T. des Brisay, Toronto; Chas. Hase, Vancouver; W. A. Hughes, Kingston; S. J. Kayell, Vancouver; K. D. Lewis, Ottawa; J. T. Martin, Woodstock; M. A. Martin, King; D. K. Mills, Ottawa; G. D. Pearce, Toronto and F. F. Wiley, Kitchener.

16-Year-Old Girl— Had Never Heard Of or Seen Bible

A sixteen-year-old girl, born and raised in Prince Rupert, on being shown a Bible recently, did not know what the Book was, having never in her life seen or heard of the sacred volume, Rev. A. F. MacSween, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, told his congregation at morning service yesterday. He was illustrating for a Rally Day sermon the deplorable lack of Christian training in some homes. It would be the children of today, Mr. MacSween said, who would have the task of bringing into being a world of better and nobler things than existed now. They should be imbued through the home and the church with faith in God and Christian principles without which there could

LOCAL LABOR MAN KILLED

Georgé Henderson Loses Life in Action in Italy

A brief memorial service was held last night in the Labor Progressive clubrooms for Georgé Henderson, former member of the Communist Party in Prince Rupert, who was recently killed in action in Italy.

"George Henderson was a child of the depression who spent his twenty-first birthday and a good many other days travelling on no lasting accomplishment of social and economic reforms in a better world of tomorrow—a world of peace, freedom and security.

boxcars," said Bruce Mickleburgh in the course of an address of tribute. "His great courage, his honesty, his devotion to the cause of the people made him an outstanding leader of the unemployed in the very front rank of the struggle to do away with the notorious 'slave camps'."

"The most fitting way of honoring his memory is to re-dedicate ourselves to doing our utmost towards bringing about all the things he believed in—a world cleansed of Fascism, a great trade movement, a Canada where all may live free and happy lives."

Georgé Henderson had been organizer for the Relief Project Workers' Union throughout British Columbia for the International Woodworkers of America on Vancouver Island and was financial secretary of Boiler-makers' and Iron Shipbuilders' Union, Local No. 4, in Prince Rupert.

LAUDS WORK OF RESERVE

Should Not Get Fed Up For It May Be Needed

"Don't get fed up and think what you are doing will be of no use," said Major General H. O. Alexander, inspector general of the Canadian Army for Western Canada, in speaking to the personnel of First (Reserve) Battalion, Prince Rupert Regiment, last night following his inspection of the unit. "As long as the war is on, anything might happen. True the probability of attack on this coast may seem to be diminished but anything is possible. Things are looking favorable in Europe but we are not yet in Germany to any extent and it will be there that the war will have to be finished. Then there is still Japan to be disposed of. My advice to you is to carry on the good work until the show is over. You may not hear it said to your faces but there is general admiration for the men of the reserve units who, busy as they may be, are finding the time to prepare themselves for defence of this country of ours should the necessity arise. And it is but right that we should all be giving some of our time in this way."

There was a good muster of men of the reserve for the inspection parade. General Alexander watched them receiving their instruction in anti-aircraft and machine gun work.

LIBERAL-LABOR REGIME URGED

Mrs. Doris Blakey Outlines Plans of L-P Club

"The fact that already in Canada's two largest provinces the minority reactionary governments of Drew and Duplessis hold power and are launching a full scale attack on Canadian unity and social progress should be sufficient warning that the same thing can happen at Ottawa" declared Doris Blakey, president of the Prince Rupert Labor-Progressive Club, in announcing plans of the club for the coming season last night at a regular membership meeting.

"Because we are determined not to see another depression in Canada we are fighting for the only practical policy to smash this threat," she continued, "namely the election of a big bloc of labor members to Ottawa who will hold partnership in the next government which must be a Liberal-Labor coalition of the majority rather than a minority regime as openly suggested by John Bracken during his visit to Prince Rupert."

Concrete plans to win the people of Prince Rupert for this policy were discussed with some enthusiasm, club secretary Alex Gillanders raising the suggestion the club should make use of the radio to outline its policy.

A social gathering was announced for this coming Saturday in the clubrooms.

Joseph Bradley Passes Away at Age of 97 Years

Port Simpson's oldest native and a well known link with the colorful past of the ancient neighboring village passed away last week when death claimed Joseph Bradley at the ripe age of ninety-seven years. He was well known and esteemed not only in his own village but among the natives all along the coast.

Joseph Bradley, during whose long span of life the native people emerged from their aboriginal heathenism to the mode of Christian civilization, took a leading part in public affairs including advocacy of the rights of the native people particularly in regard to the land question. As a young man he helped to lay the foundations of Port Simpson as its stands today. He was for years a member of the village council. He was also active in the affairs of the United Church. Grace United Church was crowded for the funeral.

Deceased is survived by his aged widow as well as one son, Henry Bradley of Prince Rupert, and a daughter, Mrs. Matilda Tait of Port Simpson.

Another of Popular Series Showing At Capitol Wednesday

More excitement and laughs are in store for the followers of the "Dr. Gillespie" series of pictures in "Three Men in White" which comes to the Capitol Theatre here on Wednesday only. There are the usual members of the cast—Lionel Barrymore, Van Johnson, Marilyn Maxwell, Key Luke, Alma Kruger and Walter Kingsford with two newcomers, Ava Gardner and "Rags" Ragland.

Miss Gardner plays the part of a young girl whose own health is threatened by her devotion to her chair-ridden mother. Ragland, veteran comedian, plays the part of an ambulance driver who is confused by having to act as a stogie for both Dr. Gillespie and the superintendent of nurses at the hospital.

In this picture, Dr. Gillespie, having to choose between Johnson and Luke as his future assistants, gives them each a difficult assignment and the two internes both get into dramatic and hilarious situations.
