First aid organization is but one of the voluntary civilian functions which seem to have fallen upon elethargic days.

It might be said for this as well as other activities of a like nature that there are many new citizens in Prince Rupert these days who are as much interested and concerned as the residents of longer standing and they should be according a better response to civilian protection organization.

At the forthcoming adjourned annual meeting, it is to be hoped there will be a more adequate attendance to formulate plans for carrying on the work.

Promptly Helps Relieve Coughing Spasms, Muscular Soreness or Tightness, Congestion and Irritation in Bronchial Tubes

It's really dangerous to neglect a child's cold! Most modern mothers know this.

That's why they turn to the time-tested home remedy for relieving miseries of children's colds -Vicks VapoRub. Experience has taught them what to expect when they rub VapoRub on throat, chest and back at bedtime.

Almost at once-in 3 minutes or less-the penetrating-stimulating action of VapoRub (explained above) starts bringing relief.

For hours this grand double-action keeps on working. Invites restful, refreshing, strengthening sleep. And often by morning most of the misery of the cold is gone.

Now when anyone in your family-child or grown-up-catches a grown-up—catches a cold, do what most modern mothers do, and use dependable VAPORUB

Dual romance, collegiate antics and the comical attempts of a pair of 'teen-age youngsters to break up their mother's second marriage provide hilarity in "Young Ideas," a story of youth and college, coming Wednesday and Thursday to the Capitol Theatre. It provides Susan Peters with her first starring role, appearing with Herbert Marshall and Mary Astor.

Reid) disapprove the marriage of their mother (Miss Astor) to a tweedy chemistry professor (Marshall). So they plot to break up the match, and set the entire college in a furore in the process. They noise it about that a spicy book written by their mother, who is a noted novelist, was based on her own experiences. Thus they hope to scandalize the faculty. They really start a sensation when they inveigle their dignified stepfather into a shady night club and get him into a jitterbug contest. Then, through a dram atic twist, everything straight-
