Faulty Heart Caused Death

Death from natural causes was the finding of a coroner's jury which met yesterday afternoon to inquire into the cause of death of Joseph Oswald, Raynor construction company employee, who died on a train Friday evening while enroute to medical attention in Prince Rupert. Dr. J. A. McDonald, who performed the autopsy, told the jury that Oswald had died of coronary thrombosis, a blood clot in the coronary artery. Edward Jennings, cook at the Raynor camp at Salvus, said that Oswald had been helping him in the kitchen before his collapse. Just before supper time, Jennings said, he had left Oswald alone in the kitchen while he went to his bunkhouse. He had not been gone for more than five minutes. When he returned, he found Oswald stretched out on the floor, unconscious. Oswald had later been put aboard a passenger train for Prince Rupert. Charles Henderson, camp foreman, was also a witness. Jury foreman was Stanley Seville.

OPENING OF NEW HOSTEL

Major John Steele, Area Supervisor of War Services, is Here

Major John Steele, area supervisor of Salvation Army War Services on the Pacific coast, is visiting the city in connection with the opening of the new Red Shield Service centre here.

On Thursday afternoon Colonel D. B. Martyn, area commandant, will officiate at the opening of the new centre which is next to the Prince Rupert Hotel. Representatives of the city and various branches of the armed forces will take part. It was in this building where war services work first began during the early days of the present conflict. Rev. (Major) Roy Durnford, assisted by a number of local service organizations, formed the United Services Hut. As the troops were brought into the city greater accommodation was required and in December 1940, with the assistance of the city commissioner the Salvation Army—then under the command of Captain Ivan Halsey, was able to open a small hostel in the Grattan building adjoining the present centre. Here as many as 19 men could spend the night when on leave. The following fall another section of the Grattan building was taken over by the Salvation Army to accommodate the troops and double bunks installed. Overcrowded conditions still prevailed until the Department of National Defence purchased and completely renovated the Stork building. In this building 142 men can now be comfortably accommodated. Ten showers are at their disposal and also adequate other washing facilities. A lunch room, where the servicemen can get breakfast to order and which remains open until nearly midnight daily for light lunches, is also situated on the premises. Free coat and baggage checking service is also provided. A reading and writing room with a homey atmosphere is situated on the first floor where many of the boys spend long hours writing home or reading their favorite magazines.

The former building is often used on week-ends to accommodate an extra 40 men and even this accommodation has been used to full capacity at times. This building is also used as a recreation centre with games of various kinds being provided. An auditorium has been made in one section where entertainments will be provided. The public is being invited to attend the opening ceremonies

TOMMY IS KIND MAN

Humanity of British Soldier in Italy is Praised.

WITH THE 8TH ARMY IN ITALY, March 14.—A German officer now safe in British hands has written home to say that he owed his capture to the humanity of the British soldier. "You don't need to worry about me because we have all been treated well," he said. "I would never have believed we would get such good food. You could say that the whole group command is to blame for our bad luck. In two days the entire division was split in two. I believe the whole regiment was captured."

"Our leaders wanted to pull out but the Tommies were too quick for them. We were bombed so much that we couldn't even fire. Then massed tanks rolled over our guns and ground them to pieces. "All that saved us from death was good dugouts and the humanity of the Tommies. We got cigarettes and chocolate right away, so we are in good hands. If it goes on like this we'll all come home again fit and well."

SPORTS

Pete Muldoon, Pacific Coast sportsman, died suddenly near Seattle 16 years ago yesterday. The Ontario-born hockey mentor was 47 years old and had been a member of the New Westminster squad that won the first championship of the old Pacific Coast Hockey Association. In 1928 he headed Chicago Black Hawks in the National Hockey League.

Hamilton Tigers went on strike after winning the National Hockey League championship 19 years ago today. The club executive refused a bonus to players who were to meet Victoria Cougars in the Stanley Cup final series. Toronto St. Pats and Montreal Canadiens, second and third-place teams in the N.H.L., respectively, for the championship with Canadiens winning. Canadiens then lost to Cougars in the Stanley Cup series.

Twins of Necessity . . .

There are many among us who must figure closely in order to make their earnings meet the bare necessities for the family. For them, an unanticipated income tax balance of $20, $40 or $60 becomes a problem and in a few cases makes the purchase of a $50 Victory Bond a doubtful possibility.

There are large numbers of these, however, who spend their income as fast as it comes in and who will also find the income tax balance due for the year 1943 difficult to finance. That is, they will not have reserve funds on which to draw and they will be forced to scrape up the required amounts out of current income.

Thanks to the monthly savings plan of the National War Finance Committee, this latter group will be able to join their fellow citizens in the patriotic job of supporting our armed forces engaged in battle. If they begin to save now, they will be able to meet the income tax payment before the loan campaign is finished, and will be able to buy bonds through a plan that does not call for the first payment until the month of May.

The Finnish Dilemma . . .

The Finns do not like Russia's terms of peace which would return the two countries to their pre-war status, subject to later negotiation.

Helsinki, however, had probably better make up its mind soon for the Russians now hold the hole cards. It might not hurt to ask the French how they are enjoying the peace imposed on them by Finland's ally, Germany, or to inquire of the Italians, Greeks, YugoSlavs, Norwegians and Danes—fellow Scandinavians—as to their enjoyment of the "new order."

The peace cannot be any more disgraceful or unbearable than it would be for the Finnish people to tag along with Germany.

1922-6

THE Miracle of Radio TOOK FORM

ABOUT 1922 came the dawn of a great new era in communications and entertainment. Suddenly the public awakened to the great new possibilities of radio. In just a few months, radio became a part of everyday life.

The Canadian Nickel industry, with its mines and plants still partially idle because of loss of wartime markets in 1918, saw an opportunity to find new markets for Canadian Nickel in the growing radio industry.

Soon Canadian Nickel was playing an unseen but vital part in millions of radio tubes and other parts of broadcasting and receiving sets throughout the world. Another step had been taken in rebuilding the markets for Canadian Nickel beyond their wartime peaks.

Today Canadian Nickel is again devoted to war purposes and again the industry looks to the future with confidence. Plans are ready to develop and expand old and new peacetime markets, so that the Nickel industry may continue, through its own initiative and enterprise, to make still greater contributions to Canada's welfare.

MARRIED SATURDAY

Miss Theida McEwen is Bride of Corporal Galbencea at Pretty Ceremony.

First United Church was the scene of a lovely wedding on Saturday at 8 p.m. when Theida Joyce, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McEwen, became the bride of Cpl. George Galbencea, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Galbencea of Warren, Ohio. Chaplain Capt. Wm. M. D. Rowlands read the marriage service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a floor length gown of white-embossed satin. Her flowing veil of silk net was caught in halo effect and she carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and fern.

Mrs. Ted Lewis, matron of honor, wore a gown of blue net over taffeta with a shoulder length veil of blue net.

Miss Donna McEwen, sister of the bride was bridesmaid and wore a pale pink sheer gown with shoulder length veil of pink net. Both carried bouquets of pink and rose carnations and fern.

Cpl. Fred Orley attended the groom.

Mrs. Clarence Taylor presided at the organ for the wedding music and was accompanist for Sgt. Harold Norman who sang "Because" during the signing of the register.

Under the supervision of Capt. L. Beck, company commander, eight members of the groom's company formed a guard of honor when the bride and groom descended the stairway of the church.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Red Cross Servicemen's Club in the post at Aeropolis Hill. Miss Marvel Parriott, director of recreation for the American Red Cross, was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. McEwen, who chose a black crepe gown with red Tra-punta embroidery, and black accessories, assisted in receiving the guests.

The bride cut the first slice of cake, which was then served by Mrs. Stan Saville, Mrs. Harley Lewis and Mrs. J. Silver of Smithers. Mrs. Ralph Bamford and Mrs. C. Oland were asked to preside at the urns, and servers were Mrs. Geo. Shenton, the Misses Vera Lewis, Hazel Hill, Lillian Hill and D'Green Caine. Stan Saville presided at the punch bowl.

During the evening Miss Polly Ann Cormack sang several solos and "The Yanks" nine piece orchestra kept the dancers happy until an early hour.

Cpl. and Mrs. Galbencea, who have the hearty felicitations of many friends, will reside in the city. The bride is well known and popular both here and at Smithers. She is in the service of the Northern B.C. Power Co.

CHOIR CONCERT— FINE MUSIC IS OFFERED

Musical Treat Staged Last Night in First Presbyterian Church.

It was a fine musical entertainment which was presented at First Presbyterian Church last night when the augmented church choir, under leadership of the organist, Mrs. E. J. Smith, offered a concert and organ recital.

The program consisted of choruses, organ solos, vocal duets, cello solos and some outstanding talent made its appearance in a selection of music which ranged from simple devotional numbers to classical selections, including ballads, folk songs and descriptive items both vocal and instrumental. The fact that many of them were familiar made the program even more appealing.

The concert was greatly enhanced by the use of the new church organ on which Mrs. E. J. Smith played several selections to the complete delight of all.

The individual artists included Christine and Alan Currie in vocal duets, Miss Margaret Johnson in cello solos and Mrs. William Martin and Sergeant Harold Normann in vocal solos, each of whom won the complete approbation of the large audience.

C. A. Davis and Cpl. Walter Roberts acted as piano accompanists.

Rev. A. F. MacSween, the pastor, acted as chairman and announced that the cost of the new church organ, for the benefit of which the concert was staged, had now been defrayed.

A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation to Mrs. Smith of a beautiful bouquet of flowers, this taking place just before the final chorus.

Those who took part in the program were entertained with the serving of refreshments by the Ladies' Aid following the program.

The program was as follows:
 Choruses—"Phyllis" (Brahms) and "Morning" (Speakes-Baldwin), The Choir.
 Organ solos—"Largo" (Handel) and "None but the Lonely Heart" (Tschalkowsky), Mrs. Smith.
 Vocal duet—"The Old Rugged Cross" Christine and Alan Currie.
 Cello solo—"Sonata in A Minor" (Marcello), Miss Margaret Johnson.
 Vocal solos—"The Sleep that Sits on Babies' Eyes" (Carpenter) and "Where'er You Walk" (Randel), Sgt. Harold Normann.
 Organ solos—"Less Than the Dust" (Woodward-Findon) and "Kashmiri Song" (Indian Love Lyric), Mrs. Smith.
 Choruses—"O Hush Thee, My Baby" (Sullivan) and "The Chase" (Edward German), The Choir.
 Organ solo—"The Lost Chord" (Sullivan), Mrs. Smith.
 Vocal solos—"Bird Songs at Eventide" (Coates) and "Little Bluebird of My Heart" (Frank Grey), Mrs. Wm. Martin.

FOR RED CROSS—

CARNIVAL AT FOUR GROUP

Highly Enjoyable and Successful
Affair Held Saturday Night

(By Dorothy Garbutt)

Group Headquarters came through with a laudable effort to help the Red Cross when last Saturday night they held a most successful "Frolic and Fun Fair." This was held in the Recreation Hall and there were rows of stalls in which attractive W.D.'s lured handsome airmen and willing guests into all sorts of games.

There was "Hermin the Vermin," the oracle of the East or the Punjab's "Mr. Anthony," who answered questions to the tunes of nickles and dimes. LAC. Hunt was responsible for this popular booth.

Going at top speed all the time was the hot dog stand under the management of Corporal Hayward. Next to this was the mystic fortune telling booth—and did the sailors throng to this one!

The three lady mystics of the evening were Cpl. Morrison, L.A.W. Fenwick and L.A.W. Loughran. Flying Officer Graham and I had ours told together—It seems we are both very healthy but far from wealthy, that our wealth depends on our health and that we have the usual run of secret sorrows and disappointments in love. In short it looks as though we're Miss and Mrs. Average.

The shooting gallery was under the direction of Cpl. Bissett and was a particular drawing card for the men. Here one threw ping pong balls into the eyes, nose or mouth of a huge wooden head or threw rings on top of prizes or pennies into saucers floating in pans of water and containing nickles or dimes. One particular prize raised a great cheer when it was won by a sailor who had been tossing for it with the Officer Commanding for half an hour or more.

Delicious milk shakes were served by Cpls. McFadyen and Murray assisted by AW1 Keen, AW1 O'Brien and AW1 Bolton.

There was also a stand for Red Cross donations.

All during the evening dancing was in progress, the music for

Altogether it was a very jolly evening and a splendid sum was realized for the Red Cross.

Carpenters' Social Night

A few members of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners' Union gathered in the Carpenters' Hall on Eighth Street on Saturday night to enjoy an all-male social gathering. Those in attendance had an enjoyable time with whist and other card games being the order of the evening. Refreshments were also enjoyed.

Isolation Ended Marital Harmony

DOUGLAS, Isle of Man, 14.—Off the southwest tip of the Isle of Man is a rocky island known as the Calf of Man, 800 acres large and mainly bird sanctuary.

To the Calf of Man five years ago went Robert B. Mitchell, warden of the National Bird Sanctuary. He liked the place. He wanted his wife follow him there. But the isolation was too great for her. Now Mitchell has been awarded a divorce decree on the ground of desertion.

LONDON.—In parts of London women fire guards outnumber men by three to one.
