BATTLE OF EUROPE MOUNTING

Hot Weather Causes Train Derailment Near Pr. George

Exceptionally warm weather in the interior was the cause of a train derailment east of Prince George yesterday afternoon and the consequent interruption of traffic until the line can be cleared. Tonight's train from the east, due at 10:45, is five hours late and would bring it in at 3:45 a.m.

The accident was at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon that a heavy work train was passing about five miles east of Hansard, about 50 miles east of Prince George, when a "sun kink" caused by the expansion of rails due to sudden heat, occurred underneath the gravel cars, six of which were derailed. The engine was clear and there were no injuries. Considerable damage was done to the track.

Wrecking equipment was moved to the scene from Jasper and Smithers and it was expected the line would be clear again by this afternoon. Transfer of passengers, baggage, express and mail was effected from the train which left here for the East Thursday evening and that which left Jasper for here yesterday. It was expected that traffic would be moving normally over the line again today.

It is 'some time since there has been a "sun kink" on this line of the Canadian National Railways.

Prince George yesterday reported a maximum temperature of 88 with minimum of 42.

URGING CONTROL

Patullo Forecasts Some Missions Needed After War

There were many centralized missions which during the war remain but some might be very detrimental to the peace if they were permitted to continue unduly long, said T. Patullo, M.L.A., for Prince Rupert in addressing the Junior Chamber of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce Thursday night.

There would, no doubt, be efforts made to continue centralized control at Ottawa but these should have to be guarded against and a close watch maintained on provincial interests. Patullo emphasized the importance of the province retaining and never surrendering its right to the income tax base.

Patullo's exclusive as well as collaborative jurisdiction should be clearly defined as between the federal and provincial governments, Mr. Patullo said. He felt that the federal government should assume greater share of the responsibility for social services in the province of British Columbia had in the past led the way.

Speaking of public financial aid, Mr. Patullo declared that Eastern Canada at present is in a dictatorial position and was not to the best interest of British Columbia.

The former premier referred to the important part that men would of necessity play in the complex and difficult problem which would face the world after the war.

Mr. Patullo offered to come at any time the Junior Chamber might desire his assistance in dealing with public relations.

WHAT THE GERMANS SAW OFF THE FRENCH COAST—Nazi lookouts on the French coast and Nazi reconnaissance pilots saw this scene duplicated a hundred times in the early hours of June 6, as the Allied armies under General Eisenhower launched their long-awaited invasion of Europe. While destroyers stand guard, dozens of landing craft loaded with fighting men dash shoreward to take and hold a beachhead. This picture was taken during the last pre-invasion manoeuvres and shows Canadian troops making practice landings. They used the same technique when they hurled themselves on the beaches of Le Havre and Cherbourg.

Kitwanga Man Badly Wounded

Ward has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace B. Morgan of Kitwanga that their son, Pte. Ray Morgan, has been badly injured in action near Rome. Son of a chief of the Kitwanga native band, Pte. Morgan is well known along the Skeena River and in Prince Rupert.

He was reported to have been wounded on June 2.

Finishing Highway

Minister of Natural Resources Suggests Province Share in Cost

OTTAWA, June 10—An offer from the Dominion government to share with British Columbia the cost of improving the section of the Prince Rupert highway between Kitwanga and Hazelton was conditionally forecast in the House of Commons by Mines and Resources Minister T. A. Crerar.

The minister, speaking of the $3 million appropriation for completion and maintenance of the highway west of Kitwanga to Prince Rupert also indicated that the responsibility of keeping up the road would be turned over to the province when the war is over.

"Will the Dominion maintain the road until the conclusion of the war with Japan?" asked Howard Green (Progressive Conservative Vancouver South).

"I will not attempt to make any prediction now as to what may be done next year," the minister replied.

Concerning the section east of Kitwanga, which British Columbia members urged should be rebuilt by the Dominion government, Mr. Crerar said it was possible there would be a surplus in the portion of the appropriation allotted for maintenance work.

"If there is such a surplus," the minister declared, "then I am quite willing to say to the government of British Columbia that if they will duplicate what we provide for the measure of rehabilitation of the road from Kitwanga to Hazelton, we will be prepared to go ahead."

He reiterated his previous statement that the Dominion was committed only to build the highway from Kitwanga to Prince Rupert. The section east of Kitwanga to Hazelton, he said, had been previously constructed.

The House in committee approved the vote.

HER BROTHER NOW GENERAL

Mrs. Marion K. Bates Gets News of V.C. Winner in This War

SMITHERS, June 10—Mrs. Marion K. Bates of Smithers was the glad recipient of a letter from her brother, Major-General Villiers Samuel French, V.C., a few days ago. She had not heard from him for a long time and was surprised to know that he had been a prisoner of war in Italy for some time.

He wrote that the only thing that sustained them during incarceration in a prison camp was the Red Cross parcels which they received and the hope that they might escape some day from their captors.

Eventually General French was selected to accompany a peace emissary to the Allies and so was released from captivity and returned to England.

He wrote that he was amazed to find that the general public did not realize the work that the Red Cross was doing in this war but that to him it was a miracle.

Lord French, Commander-in-Chief of the British Armies in the last war, was the uncle of Mrs. Bates and her brother, General French.

Mrs. Bates had not known that her brother was a prisoner of war nor did she know that he was a major-general and had won the V.C., until she received the letter a few days ago.

Americans Only 15 Miles From Cherbourg After British and Canadians Also Take Towns—Heaviest Tank Fight

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS OF ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, June 10 (CP)—The British and Canadians today hammered at German armored divisions in the heaviest tank engagement since the Allied landings were made in the Caen sector. Vichy radio admitted that the Canadians "have made some slight advances" southwest of Bayeux.

The Americans battered their way towards Cherbourg and rammed another column southward in a squeeze attack on Carentan, key town guarding the neck of the peninsula at its narrowest point. They captured Treviers. The German radio said that the Nazis withdrew spearheads to shorten the defence line south of Montebourg after fresh Allied paratrooper landings. Montebourg is 15 miles southeast of Cherbourg.

Meanwhile delayed dispatches from the field listed two additional towns as being in Allied hands. They were Courseulles and Staubin on Seine Bay north and northwest of Caen. The Americans captured Isigny, seven miles northeast of Carentan, moving on today to take Treviers, midway between Isigny and Bayeux.

An Allied communique said that the British and Canadians in the Caen area repulsed heavy enemy attacks. German broadcasts said that 400,000 men were fighting in the Normandy Peninsula with about 200,000 on each side.

With improved weather, Allied sky fleets Friday night and Saturday ripped at Nazi railways, roads, troop and tank concentrations and positions behind the battle line. Up to 500 American heavy bombers attacked German air fields in Brittany and Normandy today.

The Allies have taken 5,000 prisoners. The Canadians took 600.

The figure of prisoners taken increased since yesterday when it was stated that 1600 prisoners had been taken since the invasion started.

Berlin claimed that the Nazis have taken 1500 prisoners and destroyed 175 Allied tanks.

The Americans have established advanced Air Force headquarters in France. The establishment of the headquarters is preliminary to getting advance air bases in operation.

All Canadian formations are now engaged on the eastern sector of the invasion area, Canadian senior officers announced today.

Headquarters disclosed yesterday that the Canadians took part in Allied airborne assaults in France.

Nazi Navy Frustrated

Enemy Vessels Unable to Get Into Invasion Waters—Four Trawlers are Sunk

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS OF ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, June 10—Royal Navy light coastal ships sank four heavily armed German trawlers today off the Dutch coast at a cost of one motor torpedo boat as first attempts by German naval craft to enter the invasion coast were frustrated.

The Allies blew up one Nazi destroyer, chased one aground in flames and scored hits on another two which escaped. The grounded vessel was attacked later by Royal Canadian Air Force Beaufighters which shot at least seventy rocket projectiles into it.

SUNBURN TOUCHY SUBJECT

"None but the brave deserve the fair—" a poet tells us, but he neglects to instruct on what happens when the fair become variously tanned as many did as a result of yesterday's spendthrift sunshine.

Being a poet he delicately ignores the rough fate of those who lay rough hands on another's sunburned anatomy. Possibly he was unfortunate enough to live in some place where it rained every day, and never had occasion to think of such things.

These matters are spoken of because Friday was the warmest day so far this year. The mercury rose to 72 degrees and the minimum during the 24-hour period was 63 degrees.

Not since September 8, 1943, has the temperature risen so high. Not since August 5, 1943, has the temperature been higher. On that date it rose to 77 degrees, the highest recorded in the last 18 months.

The fact that such a thing could happen once raises hopes in the breast that it might happen again—say tomorrow, in time to inspire delight in a number of would-be Sunday picnickers.

Campaign For Blood Bank

The Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce is interesting itself in the starting of another campaign here for donors of blood for a local blood bank so that there might be a supply on hand in the event of an emergency arising.

Dr. W. S. Kergin, who was a guest at the regular monthly dinner meeting of the Junior Chamber Thursday night, spoke of the possibilities of a local blood bank. All citizens were potential donors of blood and there could be no over supply.

Further arrangements will be made by the Junior Chamber.

DAILY EDITION Saturday, June 10, 1944

Our Personal Interest . . .

The invasion of France is our greatest and most ambitious undertaking of the present war. It is also the most fateful—the stake on which the whole outcome of the great struggle may turn. Those are sufficient reasons to make it the thing that has transcended all else in our interest since it started this week. Apart from all that, however, there is something that brings this great and culminating operation even more keenly home to us than these factors. That is because it has brought so many of our own boys right into battle, many of them who had waited impatiently in Britain for the past few years and some of whom had been spoiling for action.

We know that many of our boys — in navy, in army, in air force—are in the thick of things over there these days. We are keenly interested, we are very proud and, although few are admitting it, there are many of us who are anxious. The invasion of Europe is something that has brought a personal interest to more of us than ever before for we are wondering constantly how our boys are faring now that the struggle is here in all its grimness and in all its reality.

Prince Rupert's Needs . . .

After an era of rather concentrated attention, there are increasing instances of where we must keep busy to see that our requirements are properly met.

We see today the federal government, after having spent ten million dollars in building the highway from Prince Rupert to Kitwanga, quibbling about rebuilding the Kitwanga-Hazelton link without which the road would be somewhat ineffective as far as connecting with the outside highways are concerned—a completely ridiculous situation.

Then we have been told that there are no men and no money to build the airport at or near Prince Rupert which must be provided before the network of aviation facilities in this part of the country can be complete.

There is also the delay in the new fishing float facilities which are so badly needed.

Also something must be done to assist the municipality in connection with its roads and services which have been put in their present deplorable condition by the impact of national defence activities.

There is also the possibility that our shipyard may be in the position soon of not having its capacity put into full use. In spite of the great development which war has brought us, these are things we should keep pressing for.

Getting Information . . .

Where do people get most of their information? To find the answer, look about you . . . for it is everywhere.

Never have there been so many and varied sources of information. Yet never has there been so great a demand for newspapers as there is today . . . and never have people read their newspapers more eagerly or more thoroughly.

People live today in a world of problems . . . problems far too complex to solve with a smattering of information. That's why they're relying so universally on newspapers . . . not only for news that's full and clear as well as fast, but also for practical wartime guidance in a form that can be quickly understood and kept and referred to again and again.

That, in turn, is why the Government is depending so heavily on newspapers today to convey its urgent messages to the people.

All this is what gives the newspaper the unique and unprecedented values it offers advertisers right now. All this is what makes newspaper advertising an indispensable tool as you face the continuing problems of advertising in time of war.

Decorations Day Here

Sunday will be Decoration Day. During the month of June annually, the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire in Prince Rupert, with co-operation of the Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League, the military forces, also of the citizens of Prince Rupert, sets aside a day of remembrance and honor to our War Dead.

Formed in the year 1921 by Adair Cars, Chapter, of which Mrs. Charles Youngman was then regent, the soldiers' graves committee took upon themselves the sacred duty of caring for the graves of heroes of World War I, who had returned to die in their own land. Carrying on for some years, Adair Cars Chapter was disbanded and this work was taken up by Queen Mary Chapter, whose task it now is. The work consists of supplying military markers for the graves, as needed, arranging an annual Decoration Day and visiting the plot from time to time in co-operation with committee of Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L. to see that all is in order. Lately a visit has been made to the graves on November 11, when poppies are placed on each grave in token of Remembrance.

With the passing of years many of the boys who answered their country's call in 1914-1918 have heard the Last Reveille and now rest beneath the quiet sod. There are one hundred and two graves there now.

On Sunday Legion members, I.O.D.E. citizens and returned men will gather at the Legion Building to parade to the cenotaph where a wreath will be laid by Mrs. G. E. Moore, the Regent of Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E. Proceeding in cars loaned for the occasion to the cemetery and impressive service will be held at the Soldiers' Plot. A band and firing party will head the parade and the address at the Plot will be given by Capt. F. H. Joblin, chaplain of a unit stationed here. Mrs. D. C. Stuart, Regent of Queen Mary Chapter will lead the service.

IT'S THE ECONOMY ENGINE

RIGHT ON THE HEELS of our advancing troops a cable-laying truck speeds up the road, spewing out telephone cable as it goes. At a cross-roads the operators leap out and erect poles to carry the cable, or bury it for safety beneath the roadway. Soon the network of communications is bringing in reports and carrying orders to the various army units.

A storm strikes in Canada, telephone poles crash to the ground, and vital threads of communication are broken. But in a few minutes a service truck is at the scene of the damage, wires are connected up and vital messages of a nation at war are again speeding from city to city or across a continent.

A very large percentage of the trucks which serve the Allied Nations here in Canada and on the far-flung battlefronts are rugged, dependable Ford Trucks. The power plant which drives these trucks is the Ford V-8 Engine. This amazing piece of Ford engineering has been developed, improved, perfected through the years, and today it is setting new records of trouble-free performance. Above all it's the economy engine, easy on oil, and extremely saving of precious gasoline.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. (By Dorothy Garbutt)

The Y.W.C.A. Service Wives Club met Thursday afternoon in the ladies' lounge at the "Y" with a dozen ladies and seven children present. Mrs. Dunnington won the raffle which was donated by Mrs. Nelson. Tea was served by Mrs. Hepp and Mrs. Dunnington. Several new members were welcomed.

Next Tuesday night the Highway Regiment is holding its monthly dance and will welcome all junior hostesses. Transportation will be at the "Y" as usual. Mrs. Harold Crowe has come in from Terrace to join her husband who is Y.M.C.A. supervisor at Group Headquarters, R.C.A.F. Mrs. Crowe, while in Prince Rupert, will be on the staff of the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

In the last war it used to be all the style for small girls to have miniature nursing sisters' outfits to wear while 'navy and army suits. They had it all over their little sisters in dash and clan. But today I saw a little girl all togged out like a C.W.A. C. and looking very cute and pretty in her uniform. And didn't she know it too? As the English say—not 'arf she didn't!

Something I'd like to get straightened out in my somewhat limited gray matter and that is—was Thursday or Friday the King's birthday? Prince Rupert celebrated and the local papers said it was Thursday but my I.O.D.E. calendar has the Friday date in red. Besides everyone knows it's really December the 14 so what have you? At that rate it makes my birthday today as mine is two days after the King's. But that would give me two birthdays a year and one is getting to be quite enough thank you.

If you want chills, creeps and horrors go to "Gaslight" at the Navy Drill Hall tonight. I heard it over the BBC several years ago and my hair stood on end for a week. Most disturbing!

Mrs. Angus Currie and family arrived at Claxton Cannery from Vancouver last night to join Mr. Currie, cannery manager there, for the season.

Mrs. David Douglas, who has been paying a visit to Bella Coola, arrived in the city this morning to spend a week here with her husband before returning to her home in Vancouver.
