MOH. more than ever

When the going is tough - we can count on him - this gallant fighting man of ours!

And right now, he's counting on us. He's eager to hear that the 6th Victory Loan has topped its objective. Such news will be for him a symbol that the home-front is backing him to the limit.

It is so little we are asked to do

- to invest our present savings and a share of our future income - safely and profitably. So little-and yet, more than ever, so important. In this critical year, our fighting men must have ample quantities - and abundant reserves - of everything they need for the final break-through to Victory.

This Rooms Registry has me worried. There hasn't been a registry since a week today and that's not good enough, Hasn't anyone a spare room to rent? I'll guarantee it will be rented within two days-providing too much is not asked-the service men's salaries are limited to say the least-or too many restrictions are not put on in the way of children, cups of tea and so on. It works both ways you know. We ask the servicemen to behave quietly and decently in their rooms. They ask you to let then have just a few privileges to make it more homelike.

The curtains have come back from the dye vats and have taken a delightful pale turquoise They will add a great deal to the hut but, if we keep getting all this wonderful sunshine, they're bound to fade. Still, we can do with the sunshine, can't we?
