INDIANS FORM CONTINENTAL BROTHERHOOD

More than 200 Indians from all parts of the continent united in an organization called the Continental American Indian Brotherhood at a convention in Ottawa last week. Wilfred Grey, who has returned from the East, told the Daily News. Jeffrey attended the convention as representative of the Ottawa River Indians.

Paul, of the Squamish, North Vancouver, was president of the new organization. Other executives from Montreal, Sarnia, Ontario, and Niagara were also present.

The purpose of the organization is to keep Indian problems before the government.

The conference passed a resolution asking the removal of the name W. McGill from the name of the Department of Indian Affairs and Resources.

Resolutions were also presented asking the Indians' status in the military call-up and tax regulations. It was also asked that since Indians are citizens, they should have the same citizenship rights, the same military duty or tax laws, and the same residential school as the white man.

Resolutions were presented by the Hon. T. A. Crerar, Minister of Mines and Resources, asking that they would be studied and that an announcement would be made within a few weeks.

SMASHED INVASION

LONDON, June 22 (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill told the House of Commons that a German attempt to invade Britain in 1940 was smashed before heavy concentrations of ships and troops were able to leave continental ports.

OTTAWA, June 22 (CP)—Restrictions on the use of heavy fuel oil have been listed in all provinces but British Columbia. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of munitions and supply, told the House of Commons because heavier crudes are now being run to yield the largest quantities of heavy fuel oil.

OTTAWA, June 22 (CP)—Restrictions on the use of heavy fuel oil have been listed in all provinces but British Columbia. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of munitions and supply, told the House of Commons because heavier crudes are now being run to yield the largest quantities of heavy fuel oil.

Legion Greet New Veterans

The regular monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion (B.E.S.L.) No. 27 was held in the Legion Rooms last evening. Dr. R. C. Bamford being in the chair.

Regular routine business was disposed of and nine new members were admitted.

The report of the sick committee showed three members receiving treatment in the local hospital.

A request received by the Legion for support of efforts to have proper radio hook-up with the CBC established met with general approval and will be communicated to the proper authorities.

Dr. R. C. Bamford gave a very interesting report of the work accomplished at the recent Provincial and Dominion conventions at which he was a delegate. It was interesting to note that the men returning from overseas and who are generally referred to as the "New Vets." to distinguish them from the Old Brigade are joining up with the Legion whom they seem to realize have the general interests of the returned man as their first consideration. A new vice-presidency was created in both the provincial and Dominion commands, and this was reserved for a returned man of this war.

The Japanese losses are described as being heavy.

HOSPITAL EMERGENCY

Enlarged Staffs Inadequate For Increased Hospital Requirements In Face of Manpower Shortages

Written for the Canadian Press By VIRGINIA FOX

Canadian hospitals are faced with a grave emergency. Today accommodation is about 20 per cent overtaxed and unless the shortage of trained workers is remedied many hospitals may be forced to eliminate a number of beds and even close wards.

Wartime conditions have resulted in a great increase in the number of persons requiring hospital care. Dr. Harvey Agnew of Toronto, secretary of the Canadian Hospital Council, stated in an interview.

"There are more people away from home doing dangerous work," Dr. Agnew said. "Home conditions are crowded and offer inadequate facilities for care of the sick and, due to greater prosperity, many have more money to spend on hospital care."

"Also, the number of doctors has so decreased—40 per cent of them are in the army that the overworked medical men who remain frequently insist that their serious cases go to hospital."

Hospital staffs have actually increased since the beginning of the war. A survey made in March, 1943, showed an increase of 10.5 per cent in full time personnel, 35 per cent in part-time personnel and 52 per cent in paid ward aids. Despite these increases, however, Canadian hospitals are badly understaffed.

BIG DEMAND FOR NURSES

There is an increased demand for nursing care. British Columbia leads the provinces with three nurses to 1,000 population, Ontario follows with 2.79, while Saskatchewan is lowest with 1.39. But, the number of graduate nurses has decreased by about 2,500 owing to enlistments in the services and the employment of many in war industry to safeguard the health of industrial employees.

This loss of many of their most efficient workers has forced hospitals to accept untrained personnel. Hospital routine is further complicated by the necessary records which rationing forces them to keep.

An indication of this situation is the case of the Ottawa Civic Hospital whose superintendent says that help shortage, particularly in the kitchens, is worse than at any time since the war started. There is a 50 per cent shortage in kitchen and other maids.

To make up the shortage of resident doctors, many duties of internes have been taken over by graduate nurses. In turn, the nurses have had to shift responsibility on to student nurses, ward aids, volunteers, technicians and others.

"Those in responsible positions," said Dr. Agnew, "are making superhuman efforts. We cannot praise them too highly. They work hours overtime—in many cases doing twice the work expected of them—to make hospital service possible."

Many of the heavy hospital tasks are being handled by volunteer workers. In appreciation, the hospital council recommended to the federal government recently that "some badge or pin for civilians engaged in essential hospital work should be presented."

16 MILLION CASUALTIES

LONDON, June 22 (CP)—The Russians, on the third anniversary of the German attack on the Soviets, today announced an estimate that more than 7,800,000 Germans have been killed or captured in the three years of fighting. Russian losses during the same period totaled 5,300,000 men killed, missing or captured.

Green Blends Are Pacific Paradise

NISSAN, South Pacific (CP)—The Green Islands, after four months of Allied occupation, have become a south Pacific paradise despite the Japanese on islands encircling the group.

Day and night, combat and transport planes take off from the air strips dominating the centre of Nissan, largest of the seven islands in the group.

Record Raid On Truk Isles

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, IN NEW GUINEA, June 22 (CP)—Allied bombers made a record raid on Truk on Monday, co-ordinating it with the United States invasion of Saipan in the Marianas group. Bombers dropped 108 tons of explosives on Dublon and Deten Islands in the Truk group in their heaviest attack in a single day.

On Biak Island, off New Guinea the Allies are advancing along the southwest coast following the capture of three island airdromes.

FINAL PUSH ON FINLAND

LONDON, June 22 (CP)—The Russians have launched two new surprise offensives against Finland, driving from the northeast and southeast in an effort to knock the Baltic country out of the war.

A powerful thrust broke through the Finnish lines east of Medvez-Hegorsk, and also opened the way to a drive along the Svir River between Lakes Oneshkoe and Ladoga.

The new drives threaten seven German divisions in northern Finland protecting the vast mines there.

GIRL PILOT NOW DRIVER

Helen Harrison of Toronto Spent 24 Months With British A.T.A.

By ANITA FREEDMAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, June 22 (CP)—Her Air Transport Auxiliary sheet describes her as a "first class officer, keen, steady pilot and cheerful personality" but Helen Harrison feels there is nothing unusual about her abilities or glamorous about her work.

The first Canadian girl to ferry military aircraft in the British Isles for the A.T.A., Vancouver born Helen is at her parents' home here after 24 months' service overseas. During that time she came home once on a short leave, flying back in a bomber as co-pilot—probably the first Canadian girl to cross the Atlantic as air crew.

Helen came home because she was homesick for Canada and felt that with her experience she would be able to get a flying job here. Although she has had no luck so far and has decided to return to England in the fall, she has managed in rather oblique fashion to stay near flying fields and the air activity she loves. She now works as taxi-driver for a company transporting passengers to nearby Malton airport.

MANOEUVRING IN CHERBOURG

ALLIED SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, June 22 (CP)—The Americans fought from house to house in embattled Cherbourg today within rifle shot of the prized docks, while two columns darted toward the sea on the other side of the trapped port to chop off the tip of the Normandy Peninsula.

Headquarters reported that the American drive had made two or three miles along the coast, with advances of line.

In the British Tilly-sur-Seulles sector heavy enemy shell and mortar fire was the only activity reported.

Skeena Trapper Feared Missing

Anxiety is felt for the safety of Peter Wesley, Port Simpson native, who left his home to go on his trap line along the Extew River in March.

According to Herbert Bryant, of Port Simpson, who reported to the B.C. Police, Wesley was expected to return to his home in May, but has not yet been seen or heard of. Bryant said that he and another man had gone to Wesley's base camp where the Extew empties into the Skeena last week, but on account of high water were not able to penetrate to his line camp 12 miles up the river without a boat.

A search party, which will be led by B.C. Police Corporal T. D. Brunton, of Terrace, will leave the city this afternoon to make further investigation.

Enemy Flees in Dark After Engagement With U.S. Fleet in Pacific

Carrier, Three Tankers, and Possibly a Destroyer Sunk by Americans on Monday, 353 Jap Planes Downed. No Word That Battle Has Been Resumed.

PEARL HARBOR, June 22 (CP)—United States carrier planes attacked a powerful Japanese fleet between the Philippines and the Marianas about dusk on Monday in the opening phase of what may be developing into the decisive battle of the war in the Pacific. Striking forces of the American fleet, apparently all aircraft, sank four, and possibly five Japanese ships in a surprise attack.

Headquarters reported the Japanese losses to be one aircraft carrier, three tankers, and possibly a destroyer. The Americans suffered no ship losses.

In addition to their vessels the Japanese lost 353 planes in futile attempts to hit the American fleet on Sunday. Forty-nine American planes were lost, most of them forced to land in the water at nightfall.

Monday night's action, the biggest since the battle of Midway, ended with the Japanese fleet scurrying off into the darkness.

Although further manoeuvres by both fleets would determine whether a showdown between the two fleets is at hand, there was no indication that the battle had been resumed on Tuesday.

Secretary of the Navy, Henry L. Stimson, said today that the American naval victory added a "mighty impulse" to the task of carrying the war to the Japanese home areas.

A general feeling of regret prevailed in Washington that the United States surface vessels had not been able to contact the Japanese task force.

SUCCESS WAS HIS SUBJECT

G. R. S. Blackaby Gives Thoughtful Talk Before Prince Rupert Gyro Club

"Success is functioning properly and fully," asserted G. R. S. Blackaby in a thought-provoking address before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at luncheon yesterday. The flower, the bee, the river, the sun, the universe, all exemplify success because they function properly. It is not possible for them to fail. Only man can fail in achieving success because he is possessed of the will to succeed or fail.

Success came in the knowledge of living up to the fullest possible achievement in the physical, social, mental and spiritual spheres. Success was not constituted in wealth, health or happiness. Some people had these but yet were not successful.

There was no royal road to success, asserted the speaker. To achieve full success in the proper and full function of life there must be determination, self-study, sacrifice, perseverance and ambition and, finally, there could be no true success without God.

"Let us each and every one," charged Mr. Blackaby, "aim for the highest in life and, through determination, self-sacrifice, perseverance and ambition with God to help us, achieve success."

Appreciation to Mr. Blackaby for the address was expressed by President Frank Skinner who was in the chair. Guests at the luncheon included Capt. Andrew Johnstone, a member of the Nanaimo Gyro Club from which he brought greetings, and James Park of Prince Rupert.

Winner of the luncheon raffle of a war savings certificate was Amerigo Dominato.

The Experts Say - - -

CANADA-APPROVED BREAD AND FLOUR containing B vitamins, will help keep nerves steady for the job ahead, and this extra nutritional value is needed by everyone now as never before, says Dr. L. B. Pett, of nutrition services, Ottawa. "We Canadians would be foolish indeed not to make as good a selection of foods, in terms of their value for health, as we possibly can."

FOOD WASTE in the home is estimated by experts at 15 per cent, and they say some of it is inevitable. But much of the 15 per cent goes into the garbage in the form of thick peelings from fruit and vegetables, crusts cut from sandwiches or the last-dry heel of the loaf of bread.

Here are some suggestions for conserving food:

Watch markets and use foods in season when they are plentiful and reasonably priced.

Store properly. Some foods do not need refrigeration; others do.

Measure carefully and cook properly. Use reliable recipes and thereby eliminate failures. Check refrigerators every day and use left-overs. Don't make individual servings too large. Allow for second helping.

MORE CUPS for new homes. Increased supplies of cups are anticipated as Canadian potters catch up on large orders for the munitions department and prospects of having to take your beverage from bouillon cups became more remote.

VACATING YOUR living quarters? Rental officials of the prices board say that tenants who have been given notice to vacate by Sept. 30 next can leave any time before then give their landlords the notice required by the laws of the province in which they live. For example, monthly tenants who find new quarters in June and give their landlords notice July 1 then may leave at the end of July.

THE GREENS have "it," and so will you if you eat 'em. Rich in desirable food elements are lettuce, watercress, spinach, dandelion leaves and turnip and beat greens. They are delectable when young, tender and crisp.

KITCHEN LIFE lines—Start cooking frozen foods while they are still frozen; don't thaw them first. Wash leafy vegetables quickly. Don't soak them. Heat canned foods quickly, because they are already cooked, and be sure to use all the juices. Boil or bake potatoes in their skins—nature's jacket holds in the good stuff. Cook vegetables in boiling water—but no more than enough to prevent burning.

Rapid War and Sudden Peace...

Everywhere this great global war is rapidly taking on the full aspects of lightning conflict. By sea, by land, by air it is blizzarding battle with the full collision of all manner of powerful and ingenious mechanized fighting equipment. In every theatre of universal matching of arms for death and destruction, the struggle is mounting in gait and ferocity. Bloody decisions are being reached in France, in Finland, in Italy, in China, in the Balkans, in the Pacific islands. Only the blessed western hemisphere is still almost wholly free from physical battle although the sea war approaches close to our shores and who knows when an enemy, in desperation, may decide to strike us direct?

The fighting season is here and the tempo of battle has risen to a point never paralleled before. As the struggle proceeds at a more and more frantic pace, that much quicker may the ultimate issue be determined. Prime Minister Winston Churchill and others in a position to know are beginning to suggest that the successful culmination may not be far removed. In other words, they are hinting that the enemy may crack ere long. If he does, of course, he will endeavour to make the best terms possible for himself and that is where our leaders will have to be watchful. This time we are resolved on unconditional surrender and the imposition and respecting without equivocation of reservation of terms of our own making.

The cry of "Kamerad" fooled our side in the last war and our acceptance of it paved the way for this conflict. No doubt, our leaders will see to it that there will be an end and not a postponement. And, for us, we must not be impatient or yield to any attitude of war-weariness when the enemy calls for peace and compromise as he will do soon.

We all crave early peace but possibly many of us are not fully impressed that a sudden peace at this time might not bring victory but a defeat of which a quarter of a century later we might feel the full impact.

The Pioneers' Home...

The drive for $10,000 in public subscriptions to assist in the city in the establishment of a new Pioneers' Home to which to remove the elderly gentlemen now housed in the squalid old Eventide Home commences tomorrow.

The need for better accommodation for these aged old timers has been emphasized fully this week by the Daily News and to that need we here subscribe.

The point is that early action is needed to rectify a situation which has been rightly enough described as a civic disgrace.

It has been decided by the city council and representatives of the various organizations that interest themselves in matters pertaining to social betterment that this campaign is necessary.

Now that the campaign has been launched and the responsibility has been assumed, we must bespeak for it the most generous measure of support possible. Most of the people will not miss a few dollars, particularly in the satisfaction of knowing that it is going to a worthy and satisfactory cause.

SAY - this soup is Super-Duper

ONE DISH everybody likes to start a meal with—especially a cold meal—is good hot soup. One soup nearly everybody goes for is Campbell's Chicken Noodle.

This soup, you see, is made the old-fashioned way. It starts with plump chickens—and is slow-simmered to a rich golden broth—just like folks made chicken noodle soup in the good old days. Then in go delicious morsels of tender, tasty chicken meat—and plenty of grand egg noodles.

By its taste you'd think Campbell's Chicken Noodle Soup came right from the soup kettle in an old-fashioned kitchen. It has that old-time wholesomeness too. Yes, for folks who need extra energy to keep up the pace of war-time work, this hale-and hearty soup is just the thing.

Remember—this isn't just noodle soup—it's Chicken Noodle Soup—Look for the familiar Red-and-White Label.

Why the New Home is Needed

When the Prince Rupert Old Men's Home was organized five years ago its initial facilities were recognized as only a temporary measure to fill a growing need. It was begun out of the knowledge that, while in its first 30 years a new community merely begins to grow up, yet during the same 30 years the men who did the back-breaking ground work for its development, grow old.

There were no old men on Kaien Island in 1909. It was young men who felled the big trees and burrowed in muskeg to make streets. It was young men who blasted rock to let the railroad through and drove pilings to build wharves. It was young men who lived in tents and cabins while they built houses in this city, many of which still stand.

It was many of those same men who remained with the town, through the years, contributed to its development, participated in its life, and were part of it.

It is a few of those men who now require the city's help.

Somebody who felt that he was wise enough to know, once said that the extent of a community's civilization can be determined by the way it treats its dead. He might have gone further and included its aged and helpless.

Prince Rupert's first effort to assist its aged and helpless has played out. With the passing years the need for greater facilities has increased while the accommodation has remained static. Today the community looks after nine of its pioneers with the least possible consideration to their peace of mind and comfort.

Public awareness of the need to correct this state of affairs has resulted in a drive to raise funds by subscription to supplement a city appropriation to build a new pioneer home.

The building which houses the present Home was never meant for the purpose. The three rooms which constitute it are inadequate in size, and awkward in arrangement. In one of the rooms, which is a sleeping dormitory or a dining room, depending on the hour of the day, the whole life of the Home centres.

There is no infirmary or sick bay. There are no food storage facilities. In short, as many of Prince Rupert's elder citizens as it is possible to "accommodate" have been crowded into this backyard hostel and forgotten.

The community can feel proud that it has finally remembered these men and is taking action to help them and others in similar circumstances. The tentative plans which have been drawn up for a new home indicate public recognition of the fact that they will be at least allowed the dignity which their past service to the community dictates.

THE PRESENT HOME

Originally intended to accommodate eight men. There are nine men living in it now.

No provision for segregating ailing men from well men. Sickness and death occur in central room where the other inmates eat and sleep.

Situated in an extremely undesirable locality.

Sanitary facilities at minimum. No bath tub, only one shower. One toilet. Cramped laundry.

A civic disgrace.

THE FUTURE HOME

Five bedrooms to accommodate 20 men.

Planned infirmary.

Spacious cottage design. Secluded locality. Pleasant surroundings. Good view of the harbor.

Adequate wash room and laundry facilities.

Comfortable sitting room and separate visitors' parlor.

A well-spring of civic pride.

RATIONING OF CANNED FRUIT

Many Changes Are Announced Due to Varying Causes

Due to fluctuations in the supply of certain canned foods and the consumer demand for them, some items which during a temporary period could be purchased without benefit of ration coupons are now back on the rationed list and others, formerly rationed, can now be bought without restriction.

Solid pack apples, which contain little or no sugar, can now be bought without coupons.

Cranberry sauce, containing 50 per cent sugar, will be off the rationed list until August 31. An oversupply of this item, for canned rhubarb which was off the rationed list for several weeks in the spring, is now rationed again.

Canned blueberries and blueberry pie filler, removed from the rationed list in February, will be returned to it on July 1.

Sweetened and unsweetened canned crabapples, now unrationed, will be rationed again on July 1.

Maple syrup, which formerly had a value of one preserves coupon for 40 fluid ounces, was reduced to one coupon for 20 fluid ounces on June 1.

Prices in the list below are as representative of those in all local stores as it is possible to obtain. There may, however, be slight differences. In the meats list, the first figure represents the price of special quality meat and the second, commercial quality.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. (By Dorothy Garbutt)

Just one service baby to report this week so Mrs. Stuart, our hospital visitor, tells me. This is little Dorothy Lee Ringland who was born on June 16 and weighed exactly eight pounds when born. Dorothy is the small daughter of Sergeant and Mrs. Ringland. Well I don't need to look up our name book to see what Dorothy means because it's my own name and means "a gift of God" while Lee is in the boys' names section and means "a pasture, a meadow or a sheltered place."

I had an airmail letter from Cliff Perry today in reply to a letter I had sent with news of Prince Rupert people and events. He was a signman here but is now a full lieutenant overseas. He has done well and sounds the same old Cliff. I'll wager he looks pretty in his natty Navy uniform. He says:

"I was surprised and delighted to hear from you the day before yesterday. It was like a return visit to a period of time I rather enjoyed (Cliff would never break down and confess he liked Rupert) and a revival of names I had almost forgotten. Those were peculiar days, in a sense, but precious in another sense. However, it all sounds changed and a great improvement on our pioneer days! I am kept very busy these days. I am on a British ship and having lots of fun and excitement. If I ever get a snap I'll trot it along so that you can see I haven't changed a bit since I left. Give my regards to old Carl Clay and any others of the old gang still around. Once again, it was grand to hear from you. Do it again soon. All the best and God bless you—Cliff."

Well girls, did you look over your shoulder in a mirror and see your true love last night with its being Midsummer's Eve and all that? I did, and saw Yehudi, the little man who wasn't there. Hope you had better luck.

LONDON — A Royal Naval landing craft flotilla claims to have taken part in more combined operations than any other unit of the Royal Navy—Lofoten, Dieppe, Bologne, North Africa, Pantelleria, Sicily and Italy. Master-at-arms of this crew is Leslie Manns of Portsmouth.

Opens New Produce Store

Ross Ingram, well known local business man has bought the fruit and vegetable business operated for many years by Happy Wong, and has re-established it at 209 Third Avenue, in the premises formerly occupied by Don Wilson's barber shop. The name of the new business is the Fair Way Food Market.

Mr. Ingram says that he will carry a full line of fruits and vegetables, and will feature particularly produce from the Prince Rupert regional interior. Contacts with Skeena and Bulkley Valley farmers assure him a constant supply of interior produce, he explained.

The new business opened today.

roughly equivalent to a flight lieutenant, she flew single and twin engine aircraft including Spitfires, Mosquitos, Mustangs and Bostons from factory to base.

FAVORS MOSQUITOS

Her favorite aircraft is the Mosquito bomber. "It's smooth, light, easy to handle yet powerful," she explained.

Flying an old nose-heavy Lysander from which too much ballast had been removed, she had her only air accident when she was forced to crash-land. "I just saved them the job for it was about to be broken up," she smiled, "but I admit I was scared." Though bruised and shaken she was up in the air again the next day.

A tall, blond girl whose resemblance to Barbara Stanwyck has often been noted, Helen has 3,000 flying hours to her credit. She began flying in 1933, got her private licence in 1934 and commercial in 1936, flew in England, the United States, Canada and South Africa. Returning to Canada, she instructed at Toronto Island Airport and at London, Ont. At the outbreak of war, unable to get a flying job here, she joined the English A.T.A. and was Canada's sole woman representative in that service until recently when Violet Milstead and Marion Orr, Toronto, went over.

I ALWAYS GET CLEAN, QUICK SHAVES WITH BLUE GILLETTE BLADES

GLEN McCARTHY
— Ace Reporter on Gillette's "Cavalcade of Sports" — says

"A TRIP through the Gillette factory showed me why I always get clean, quick shaves with Blue Gillette Blades. I saw steel hardened in automatically-controlled electric furnaces... saw the blades sharpened in grinding machines weighing several tons—yet so precise that they are adjustable to 1/10,000 of an inch. So my advice to any man who wants to enjoy shaving is to use Blue Gillette Blades."

If your wheels are OUT OF LINE

Obtain a free copy of the "Automobile User's Guide"—a booklet which will prove a valuable aid in maintaining the efficiency of your car or truck—by writing to Service Department, General Motors of Canada, Limited, Oshawa.

you'll soon be OUT OF TIRES

CARE SAVES WEAR—but tire conservation doesn't stop there!

The mechanical condition of the chassis parts of your car or truck is most important.

—Wheels which are a 1/2" out of line cause the tires to "scuff" sideways approximately 87' in a mile.

—A few ounces out of balance multiply into many pounds of damaging force, even at normal driving speeds.

These elements actually tear the rubber off your tires.

You can safeguard against such damage by having—

—The mechanical parts of your vehicle inspected and adjusted periodically.

—Your tires and wheels checked regularly, particularly after the tires have been removed from the wheels for repairs.

Tire conservation service from a General Motors dealer will——Stretch your tire mileage.

—Assure your safety.

—Improve the steering, riding and braking qualities.

This information is made available to you, the owners of Canada's cars and trucks, to assist you to conserve your tires and vehicles, and so safeguard against a breakdown of the country's automotive transportation up to and even beyond the day of Victory!

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED

TORONTO, June 22 (P)—Volunteer workers have responded well to the call of hospitals throughout Canada for additional nursing help, but the need is still great according to hospital and Red Cross officials.

Although hospital staffs have been augmented the great increase in persons requiring hospital treatment has left the institutions actually understaffed. Various types of work are open to volunteers in both civilian and military hospitals.

Nurses' aids are in great demand by Canadian hospitals, most of which train their own helpers. These girls take over the heavy tasks and as Margaret Lumbers of the Toronto Red Cross put it: "do the slugging that relieves the nurses." This "slugging" involves making beds, washing and feeding patients, changing flowers and being generally useful.

Members of the Emergency Nursing Reserve of the Red Cross help in Mobile Blood Clinics and work as nurses' aids in hospitals.

Then there is the Voluntary Aid Detachment, V.A.D.'s take the St. John Ambulance First Aid and Home Nursing course, followed by an advanced seven-week nursing course given by the Red Cross. Lectures on military law, history of the Red Cross and drill twice a week are presented at the same time. Applicants are examined at the end of this course and, if competent, work a minimum of 12 hours a week.

"It's grand to have volunteers," Dr. Harvey Agnew, secretary of the Canadian Hospital Council stated. "We appreciate their spirit and they can feel that by keeping the hospitals operating they are making a definite contribution to national welfare at this time."

LONDON, June 22 (P)—For AW Mae Bowen it was a dream come true when she sat with the Queen and the Princesses at a symphony concert in Albert Hall.

The former Montreal girl, member of the R.C.A.F. Women's Division, was invited to share the Royal Box along with two Australian flight sergeants and a British wing commander.

AW. Bowen was given but an hour's warning after being selected for the honor from a list of R.C.A.F. airwomen. The occasion was the 75th anniversary performance of Sir Henry Wood Mrs. Vincent Massey was in the adjoining box and pointed out the celebrities to the thrilled Montreal girl. Later on, at the interval, the Queen spoke to her, asking where she was from and exchanging impressions on the concert.

"I nearly made a faux-pas by entering the box before Her Majesty after the interval," said AW. Bowen.

SOO-SUD NOTES

Mining activity in the Sault Ste. Marie area has shown a marked increase so far this year. About 100 claims have been recorded and 20 new mining licenses issued.

A newly published book, "Call it the North Country," by J. Barlow Martin, of Chicago, tells the story of northern Michigan and the Ontario Soo country. It is the most comprehensive book in years about the storied Lake Superior area.

Soo race horse owners and racing fans met recently to try and revive the sport which has been drooping locally. It was decided to enlist public support for reconditioning the race track and plans were made to enter local horses at the Manitoulin Island races.

GAY WESTERN COLOR FILM

"Riding High" is Feature This Friday and Saturday at Capitol Theatre

A musical in technicolor, co-starring Dorothy Lamour, Dick Powell and Victor Moore, comes to the Capitol Theatre this Friday and Saturday in "Riding High," a gay story in western style with music including seven hit tunes.

The yarn is that of a counterfeiter who tries to elude a sheriff and play cupid to Dorothy and Dick at the same time. Miss Lamour has the role of an exuberant queen who returns to Arizona because her father has become part owner of a silver mine. Dick is the other owner but the mine has not been able to operate without money and that is where the counterfeiter comes in and things commence to hum.

Seven hit tunes are featured in the film—"You're the Rainbow," "Whistling in the Light," "Injun Gal, Heep Hep," "He Loved Me Till the All Clear Came," "Get Your Man," "Willie, the Wolf of the West" and "I'm the Secretary to the Sultan."
