Aerial Offensive Keeps Up

Allied Planes Pounding Enemy Everywhere in Nazi-Occupied Europe

LONDON, April 22 (CP) — The Allies' biggest aerial offensive plunged into its fifth day with waves of bombers and fighters winging across the Channel Saturday after a night in which Mosquitos struck Cologne and Royal Air Force and Royal Canadian Air Force planes sowed mines in enemy waters without loss. Many two-ton blockbusters were dropped on Cologne. Pilots reported one huge explosion during the attack.

Meanwhile heavy bombers of the Mediterranean Allied force struck prime rail targets in Bucharest and Turnu-Severin at the Yugo-Slav-Rumanian border Friday and, with fighter escorts, shot down thirty-five Nazi planes. Seventeen Allied planes were lost. Both Bucharest and Turnu-Severin are important junctions on the railway supplying the Nazis in Rumania and southwestern Russia.

The great air assault continued today with two thousand Allied bombers making a daylight bombing attack on the important German railway town of Ham.

"Are the prices charged by these vendors under the ceiling" is the question recently received by the services administration of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

The answer is "yes." The charges permitted are set by the regulations which became effective April 1. Here is a partial list which may come in useful the next time one takes a train trip.

Sandwiches, twenty cents each; gum, six cents a package; chocolate bars and candy bars, nine cents each, two for seventeen or three for a quarter; peanuts, five and ten cents a package; soft drinks, ten cents a bottle; tea and coffee, ten cents; hot dogs, ten cents; milk, plain or chocolate, ten cents a sealed container; ice cream cones, five cents each; apples, five cents each and oranges, ten cents each.

ROSEVILLE, Cal., April 22 — Traffic stopped in tribute, here, to the F. J. Bemkas—father, mother and 14-year old Barbara—in their burro-drawn covered wagon which carried them 900 miles in three months from Las Vegas, Nevada, to Gridley, California.

Driven to the covered wagon by gasoline rationing, the Bemkas mounted their "California-Bust" wagon on the wheels and frame of a Model T Ford but the horsepower came from three burros, Nonsense, Sugar and Jack. The whole outfit cost them $110.

"Fuel?" asks Bemka. "Look at all that grass along the roadside."

Except for one week when they were held up by a storm in the Mojave desert, the trek of the 1944 pioneers was uneventful. Two dogs and a cat rode inside with the family but a baby burro, Pete, tagged along by a tether attached to the rear of the wagon.

NO MORE BIG FIRES

Fire Service Girls Have Important Jobs in London's Anti-Incendiary Organization.

By MARGARET ECKER
 Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, April 22 — In spite of flaming incendiary bombs raining down on London, the last few raids have proved that Hitler's Jerries can't repeat the Great Fire of London. And it's a group of women who are responsible for keeping the conflagrations under control.

About 15 feet beneath Thames level, with 12 feet of solid concrete between them and the world outside where bombs crash and rocket guns frighten, six girls at a control switchboard are the nerve centre of the National Fire Service's new anti-incendiary setup.

At the height of a blitz they handle more than 300 calls an hour in three hour shifts at a 30 foot switchboard. Maps line the walls of their "dungeon," and at a glance the girls can watch the path of the raiding Germans, can see when and where incendiary bombs have fallen, where every piece of Fire Fighter Command's fire-fighting equipment is, and where water mains and static water tanks are.

The efficiency of the whole setup depends on the girls at the telephone switchboards, wireless controls and teleprinters. Shortwave wireless operators are there in case telephones are knocked out.

As soon as German planes cross the coast, a purple light moving across a huge map shows the raiders' route. Outside, men perched on towers and vantage points report fires when incendiaries commence to fall. These are marked on other huge maps, while a mobilizing officer dispatches fire fighting equipment that often arrives at the building before the people inside are aware it is on fire.

CANDIDATES IN QUEEN CONTEST

Two Organizations Are Already Entered—General Interest in Carnival

Much interest is already being shown in Civic Centre Carnival Queen Contest this year. Two local organizations have already picked candidates to enter the contest. Many more local organizations, both men's and women's, are taking an active part in the carnival and the response this year is very gratifying, the committee reports.

The carnival this year is to feature many new attractions and is going in very strongly for games of skill rather than those of chance. Arrangements are being made to get merry-go-round for the children.

Dates of the carnival have been definitely set for July 10-15.

The secretary will ask the city for permission to use the same grounds as last year on Seventh Street between Second and Third Avenues.

Local Officer Is Decorated

Capt. J. G. James, well-known officer of the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals here, has been awarded the Canadian Efficiency Decoration for long service. Capt. James has been with the Signals Corps since 1923 and was commissioned in 1930.

Public Launching of Victory Loan Campaign to Inaugurate Dry Dock

Standing among the inaugural events in connection with the commencement of the Sixth Victory Loan Campaign here on Monday and illustrative of Prince Rupert's major function in the war effort will be the launching of the Fort Aspin, latest of the 10,000-ton Victory ships to be built at the local Dry Dock.

Prince Rupert citizens are being invited to be the guests of the Prince Rupert Dry Dock and Shipyards and the local War Finance Committee for the occasion.

Mrs. Neil MacDonald, wife of one of the riggers who helped to build the ship, has been chosen as the sponsor. The officiating clergyman will be Rev. G. L. Douglas, naval chaplain. The ceremonies will commence at three o'clock in the afternoon with the naval band of H.M.C.S. Chatham and the Drydock male choir in attendance. Armed guards will patrol the area. To gain admittance the general public are requested to present themselves at the gate. Children under fifteen will not be permitted entrance into the yards.

This is the order of the program: The public will be welcomed by Bernard Allen, general superintendent of the shipyard, on behalf of the Drydock and the War Finance Committee. The chaplain will give the invocation prayer followed by the christening of the ship by Mrs. MacDonald and the vessel will slide down the ways. As it slips into the water the band will open with a naval hymn sung by the choir.

At the conclusion of the hymn, Mayor H. M. Daggett, will introduce the speakers, Col. J. H. Bricker and Harold Ponder. The former recently returned from active service overseas. Mr. Ponder is one of the workmen who worked on the construction of the S.S. Fort Aspin. He is a veteran of the last war, an officer of the Prince Rupert Machine Gun Regiment, and lost his son, Bud, on active service, early in this war.

The launching of the S.S. Fort Aspin, tenth of its size to slide down the ways from the local yards, is a timely and appropriate event for the opening of the Sixth Victory Loan campaign in this city.

During the launching proceedings a silver salver will be presented to Mrs. MacDonald on behalf of the dry dock management as a souvenir of the occasion. The rigger's union will present Mrs. MacDonald with a wrist watch.

Both Bucharest and Turnu-Severin are important junctions on the railway supplying the Nazis in Rumania and southwestern Russia.

The great air assault continued today with two thousand Allied bombers making a daylight bombing attack on the important German railway town of Ham.

Death removed another of Prince Rupert's esteemed pioneer citizens this afternoon at the Prince Rupert General Hospital when Henry Rivett, 444 Eighth Avenue East, passed away. He had been in hospital for the past three weeks.

Mr. Rivett was 68 years of age and was born in England. He served in the Boer War and came to Canada from South Africa. He had been in Prince Rupert since 1909.

Deceased is survived by his daughter, Miss Evy Rivett, Ald. Norah Arnold is a sister and Alf Rivett is a nephew. There are two brothers in Vancouver and one in England where there is also a sister.

General sympathy will be extended to the bereaved.

Fresh water fish contain less iodine than salt water fish.

The Prince Rupert Dry Dock and Shipyards and the National War Finance Committee Invite the General Public To the PUBLIC LAUNCHING of a 10,000-ton Victory Ship S. S. FORT ASPIN Monday, April 24, at 3 p.m. Admittance on presentation at gate. No children 15 or under permitted entrance.

Ed Collins Is Moving Out Of Bulkley Valley

SMITHERS, April 22—Ed Collins of the Telkwa district recently disposed of his farm to Mr. Menzies and will be leaving shortly to take up residence in the south, probably in the Fraser Valley. Mr. Collins is a veteran of the Great War, having served overseas with the 102nd, Northern B. C. Battalion soon after the war he settled near Telkwa and remained there during the last 25 years.

During the past five years he has been in very poor health and as both of his sons and also his daughter are now serving in the Canadian armed forces, Mr. Collins has not been able to carry on his farm work and will now seek an easier life in the south.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Collins have been very popular with all the people of the Telkwa area and their departure will be much regretted.

Mr. Menzies came some years ago from the Lloydminster district of Alberta and has been farming here since that time. He has been active in politics as well having been candidate for the C. C. F. party in the last provincial election.

SMITHERS

The members of this part of the Prince Rupert forestry district held their annual conference in Smithers during the past few days when forestry rangers from the area including Prince Rupert and Topley gathered to discuss improved methods of fire fighting, etc. Their conference culminated in a banquet at the Bulkley Hotel, served by the Women's Guild of the United Church. On Thursday they dispersed to their various homes.

It is reported that four "jeeps" made the trip from Terrace to Hazelton on Tuesday. These were the first light cars to come over the new Skeena Highway between these points and the harbingers of what will probably develop into a much travelled and very scenic piece of road. Although the road is not yet fully completed it will probably be ready for through traffic in another few weeks, thereby giving Terrace and intermediate points their first opportunity to reach the outside world in motor cars. There is no doubt that this will prove to be a great boon for all places concerned and will certainly mean much increased business all along that part of the road.

Smithers and the Bulkley Valley is enjoying fine spring weather with bright sunny days and occasional showers at night, all of which helps to gladden the hearts of the farmers who need the fine weather of the daytime in which to work and the fine showers of the night to help moisten the good earth. Spring work is now going on apace on the farms and, with a continuance of the same brand of weather, it should ensure an excellent start for the crops.

TREATMENT FOR LEPERS

LONDON 9.—The British Empire Leprosy Relief Association is doing valuable work in segregated settlements in Africa for treatment of leprosy. Apart from native administration funds, the sum of £26,027 has been provided for this vitally important work.

Diphtheria In Sandwiches at Terrace Party

VANCOUVER, April 22—Diphtheria was served with the sandwiches in a recent tea party in the town of Terrace. Dr. Stewart Murray, city health officer, told the Metropolitan Health Committee here. He related the party hostess had come in contact with a case of diphtheria in Winnipeg and had unknowingly become a passive carrier of the disease. Seven of her guests at the party contracted the malady and there was one fatality. Since then an intensive diphtheria immunization program has been carried out in Terrace.

The story was told at the recent Provincial Public Health officials conference in Victoria, Dr. Murray said.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. (By DOROTHY GARBUTT)

Next week two units who only give dances few and far between are each holding a dance. On Tuesday night the unit on Eleventh Avenue and McBride are holding a dance and on Friday the Highway boys are also having one. As there are no other big dances on the card for that evening I would like all the junior hostesses, Red Cross Corps Girls and Red Cross hostesses to give these boys support. I know it's easy just to pop down to the "Y" or the USO or the Navy for a dance because they are right in town but put yourselves out a bit on these nights and really make your hostess job what it's supposed to be—a war services job. I'm making this appeal because you didn't support these dances as well as you might a month or so back and the boys went to a lot of trouble. So let's see lots of you out on Tuesday and Friday. Transportation will be at the "Y." YWCA chaperones representing the Queen Mary Chapter of the IODE will attend.

Just one baby this week! On April 8 Master David Henry Wallace was born to Captain and Mrs. A. W. Wallace of the Field Ambulance Division at the Prince Rupert Hospital. David was born at 10 a.m. and weighed seven pounds twelve ounces. He has two good many names—sounds like he should belong to our Canadian navy with two of our biggest ships' names for his. David means "Beloved" (that's nice) and Henry means "Home Ruler" or from the Saxon "Brave; powerful lord; ever wealthy." Well he's got off to a good start, I must say.

I just heard, via my faithful spies, Gaspard and Desmond, that Eva La Pierre up at the USO has been awarded her senior secretary certificate in the National YMCA. Eva was YMCA junior secretary before she became USO hostess and in order to receive this award she had to submit a lengthy thesis on her "Philosophy of Life." The certificate was presented to her (in absentia) at the recent International Conference of Canadian and American YMCA's and forwarded to her by post. Well, well, congratulations dear colleague! And where does that leave me? Still the only YWCA worker in these here parts.

We Can't Stop Pumping Now . . .

At the beginning of the century, two persons were needed to play a pipe-organ. The organist was at the key-board and someone else was at the pump handle. And all the years of practise, all the skill of the musician's fingers came to naught when the man at the pump stopped pumping.

In Europe today thousands of Canadians are playing a different kind of music. They are playing it well with cannon and guns. Their performance is a thrill for a listening world, a display of masterful technique developed through years of hard practise. Just as the organist of olden days depended on the youth at the pump, our troops depend on us at home to keep them going.

Victory Loans, successfully conducted during the past three years, have been vital to the training of our armed forces. But they are not enough. One hour's pumping of the old organ could not keep the organist playing for one hour and a quarter. Similarly, just so long as the Canadian invasion forces are playing their part on European soil we must do ours here. We can't stop pumping now.

We should all be resolved to buy bonds to the limit in the campaign opening Monday.

Matching Victories . . .

With so many demands these days, from different groups for cut and dried postwar rehabilitation schemes, what Air Minister Power said in the House of Commons on demobilizing airmen came like a refreshing breeze. Major Power said, "The true glamour of peace must be made to replace the transient glamour of war . . . We have taught them how to destroy; let us teach them how to build. . . . We cannot and should not promise each individual that everything he desires will be handed to him on a silver platter."

This is realistic talking. Some people seem to think that realism means dealing only with dollars and cents, benefits and security schemes, but the experience of the last war should have proven to us that this is not realism. It is materialism. . . .

The Air Minister might, in fact, have gone on to suggest that, when the fellows get back, they will probably take their cue from what they see going on here at home. If they see that, matching their victories abroad against an outside enemy, there has been victory here on the home front against all the moral rot, self-interest and shady dealing, which were fundamentally the real causes of the tragic failure after the last war—if they see this spirit at home, there will be little doubt as to their response.

A Spiritual Renewal . . .

We are safe in saying that the life of the nation and of the church will not be the same after the war. The fierce disturbances through which we are passing, like a storm, will cause much dead timber to crash to the ground, and will so shake the roots of our civilization as to send a new strength into our life. The superficially prosperous conditions will probably be shattered and a deeper and richer life will result.

It is true we do not as yet see such evidences of spiritual renewal but we should not give up in despair. A spiritual renewal does not usually come in the midst of a war. At the present time we are forced to assert that the spiritual life of our people has slipped from its moorings. They have allowed too many vital things which they formerly loved to fall into neglect and disuse, and as a result the great sanctities of life have dropped into increasing neglect. When we say this we are not unmindful of the moral qualities revealed today which call forth our admiration and respect, and are often revealed by those who neither worship nor believe. Their virtues, though neutral, are more Christian than anything else, because of the indirect fruitage of the Christian faith, and if Christian beliefs ceased to exercise a vital influence over the hearts of men we would cut the very roots which make such fruitage possible.

Heaven and hell are not subjects to joke about, and are far too important to dismiss with a wisecrack, since they have to do with the eternal destiny of man.

We can never experience the spiritual renewal the world so sorely needs until people set their hearts on recovering so many of the values we have allowed to languish.

6th. VICTORY LOAN for $1,200,000,000 OPENS MONDAY

YOUR Victory Loan salesman will be calling on you on Monday, or during the next three weeks. Open your door wide and ask him in. He will show you how you can play your part in reaching the 6th Victory Loan objective of $1,200,000,000.

For every Canadian, the Sixth Victory Loan presents both a need and an opportunity. The need is that of our fighting men for a continuous flow of supplies of all kinds. The opportunity is for you to stand alongside your fighting men and to share as best you can the weight of conflict.

Our fighting men are storming the beaches—battering their way step by step to the citadels of our enemies. When our armies are on the attack, they use up ammunition, machines, clothing, great quantities of foodstuffs and every type of equipment at a terrific rate. These things must be replaced and a great reserve maintained to keep the attack moving and to ensure victory.

War supplies can only be maintained with the whole-hearted support of every Canadian. By putting victory first—by getting along with less to save more—by buying Victory Bonds, you help to see that our soldiers, sailors and airmen never have to do without—never have to worry about where the next round of ammunition or the next day's rations are coming from.

When you purchase Victory Bonds, you supply the means to help shorten the war and bring our Canadian men and women home sooner.

Welcome your Victory Loan salesman. Greet him cordially. Give him every co-operation. Be ready for him and help conserve his time. Buy all the Bonds you can for cash and on the monthly savings plan. Be proud to wear the new symbol, the "winged VI" on your lapel. Be eager to play your part and do your share to bring victory sooner.

When he's wet and homesick and cold, think how it will help him to know that the people at home are still back of him with every fighting dollar they can spare. ## WOMEN HELP CONTROLLING OF PRICES

By KATHLEEN REX
Canadian Press Staff Writer
VANCOUVER, April 22 9—

Throughout Canada housewives are faced with the same food and clothing problems, they're offering identical solutions, and with their questions, suggestions, and complaints they're pointing the best way for Prices Board control.

Byrne Hope Sanders, of Ottawa, director of the Consumer Branch of the Prices Board, feels women across the Dominion are doing a fine job in keeping down prices, assisting rationing and generally directing Canada's wartime policy.

British Columbia has one of the best Women's Regional Advisory Committee organizations in Canada, Miss Sanders said while on a visit here. From Fernie to Kamloops, Nanaimo to Alberni, every town has its committee of women which is doing its utmost to assist the Prices Board with Canadian food and clothing problems. And the troubles of British Columbia housewives are practically the same as those of women in the other provinces of the Dominion.

Jam Rationing
One of the biggest worries of Canadian women is jam rationing. Miss Sanders said generally they would prefer being allowed more sugar to make their own jam. Often when they see a dealer with jam on his shelves they think rationing is causing an accumulation. They do not understand that allotments are carefully supervised and no dealer ever has too much.

But this year more women are beginning to accept the sugar shortage and are trying honestly to do without. Miss Sanders said. They now know fruit will keep without sugar. Not a bit of fruit in Canada need be wasted because of the excuse there is no sugar—it can all be preserved.

"I have been told time and time again there is a shortage of children's underwear," she continued. "This is difficult to understand unless you realize people have more money to spend these days and they're buying clothes, not making their old garments do. During 1935-39, 657,900 dozen articles of children's underwear were manufactured in Canada. Consider the fact that for last winter alone 896,827 dozen were made—then ask yourself if you think there's a shortage."

Good Citizenship Is Aim of Girls

"Our chief aim is good citizenship and a spirit of international good-will and friendship for the girls of other countries" were the opening remarks of Miss Hannah in her address to the Girl Guides and mothers at the Cathedral Hall yesterday afternoon. "The Guide movement now has over a million Guides in every part of the world and it is an honor as well as a privilege to be part of such an excellent group of girls." Miss Ellingworth, provincial commissioner of Girl Guides, in introducing Miss Hannah, told briefly of their world tour in Guiding and of the excellent work being carried on in India, China, Africa and all the countries of Europe and the Americas, and of the joy of seeing girls of every class and creed and color working together under the one great movement.

Miss Ellingworth and Miss Hannah are holding training classes for Guides and patrol leaders on Monday 4:15 p.m. at Mrs. J. B. Gibson's, Tuesday 7 p.m. at Cathedral Hall and Wednesday 4:15 and 7 p.m. at Cathedral Hall.

A meeting of prospective Brownies was held this morning and Guides this afternoon.

LONDON 9.—British societies have established a $11,250 fund to help provide garden seeds and stools to people of the occupied countries after their liberation.

SPORTS

The guy with the white coat and the loud voice in a New York ball park won't be kidding this year when he hollers: "You can't tell the players without a score card." In fact, so many have been the changes that the printer will have to work fast some days so that the fans can tell 'em with a score card.

Capt. William H. Harridge, Jr., son of the American League president, is commander of a tank company at Camp Berkeley, Texas. A football and boxing fan, Captain Harridge never had any connection with baseball, but he recently took Will, Sr., for a rough ride in a tank—which sounds like he might be practicing to take over Judge Landis' job.

ADDRESSES ON THE MOVE...

This Mail has PRIORITY

WHEN a man is wounded in action or seriously ill, he is rushed through field and base hospitals with all possible speed, to the place where most effective treatment can be given. Because of this rapid movement, his mail may not "catch up" for some time, yet, if ever he longed for a letter from home, it is at such a time.

To offset possible delays, a new "Short-Cut" mail service has been put into effect. A Priority Casualty Card is filled in and rushed by Air Mail to his friends or relatives with instructions to add the words "In Hospital" to the unit address they usually use.

Letters mailed from Canada bearing the words "In Hospital" are routed direct to the records office in the United Kingdom or the Central Mediterranean Force, as the case may be. They are given preference in transport, whether sent by Air Mail or regular mail. Thus they will reach the addressee faster than ever before.

It is inevitable that in tracing men who have been moved, or wounded, some delays occur. But you can rest assured everything that can mean speedier deliveries of letters to your men is being well and thoroughly done—and will be done.

When you get a Priority Casualty Card be sure the words "In Hospital" are added to the regular unit address when writing overseas.

Fine Dance By Job's Daughters
 The banquet hall of the Mas-lone Temple was thronged to capacity last evening for the occasion of the Easter dance of the Order of Job's Daughters. It was a delightful sight to see fine young people enjoying themselves to the utmost.
 The dance program commenced after the Grand March, led by Miss Mona McRae, Honored Queen of the Bethel, followed by the Guardian, Mrs. Alex Mitchell, Associate Guardian George Dawes, Mr. and Mrs. William Slater, members and their guests.
 The hall was tastefully decorated in the Easter colors of yellow and purple. Those responsible for the decorating were Mrs. Alex Mitchell and Miss Dorothy Styles, both members of the Bethel Council.
 Alex Mitchell was a popular master of ceremonies and never once did he let a dull moment slip in. George Dawes was at the door assisted by William Slater. Refreshments were served at eleven o'clock in cafeteria style in the form of soft drinks and doughnuts which seemed to meet with everybody's approval. Those assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. Wm. Slater and George Murray.
 At midnight the drawing of the Job's Daughters raffle took place and attracted much interest.

'TARGET BERLIN' TO SHOW HERE

Will Be Another Event in Local Victory Loan Drive.

"Target-Berlin," National Film Board's current release for its Industrial Circuits, tells a dramatic story that is 100 percent Canadian. Thirty-eight thousand workers on the job in this province alone will see this powerful film, which is a special feature for the Victory Loan. It will be shown at the Prince Rupert Dry Dock between April 24 and 29.

It tells the story of one of Canada's greatest wartime triumphs—the building of the first Canadian Lancaster, world's largest night bomber. From the arrival in Canada of the precious blueprints on microfilm two years ago to the first dramatic raid of the plane over blacked-out Berlin, the film is tense with modern epic.

The Lancaster carries more bombs than any other plane. Its bomb bay alone would hold a whole Spitfire. Historic moments in this 100 percent Canadian film include the excitement in the Government-owned Ontario factory when the order for the giant first came through with its subsequent reorganizing of the whole plant and the gathering from all across the Dominion of thousands of workers and specialists; then, finally the checking of the last rivet as the mighty plane rolls off the final Assembly line 18 months later.

Then arrives by air from Britain a crew of six young men, specially picked Canadian veterans fresh from the skies over enemy-held Europe. Especially memorable is the scene outside the factory, as the overalled workers hand over their first Lancaster to the capable little crew, and watch the great plane rise from the yard, and sail off seawards over the farmlands of Ontario. Then, journey's end, after the long cold crossing of ice-berg dotted Atlantic, and the Canadian boys land their prize at its English airdrome.

Soon afterwards, the factory radio back home brings word of a new raid on Germany. This time the Canadian-built Lancaster; has taken part. Word goes from mouth to mouth among the workers, now busy on another mighty bomber: "Say, did you hear? Q-for-Queenie was raiding Berlin last night. That's our baby — our Lancaster. She got back safely too. Did a swell job."

FOUR YEARS AGO IN THIS WAR

April 22, 1940—Allied forces moved from Namsos and Andalsnes in Norway in effort to encircle Germans at Trondheim. Germans claimed their planes blasted Allied landing ports and positions in Norway. French repulsed German infantry raid on western front.

Gyro Club Stag Party Enjoyed

First of a series of stag parties which the Prince Rupert Gyro Club is planning for the entertainment of members and friends and also to raise funds for its supervised playground work took place Thursday night in the Eagles' Hall and drew a large crowd of men. Various games were played and excellent refreshments were served. W. F. Stone was in general charge of the affair.

This film documents a tremendous production job that made possible a tremendous fighting job—an all-Canadian show. This is a tribute to the workers who will see the film, and a tribute too to the brave young Canadians seen in living shots, taken in their own plane, as they release their bombs over the searchlight and ack-ack hell of their target—Berlin.
