Seal Cove School Will be Scene of Boxing and Gymnastic Classes This Winter

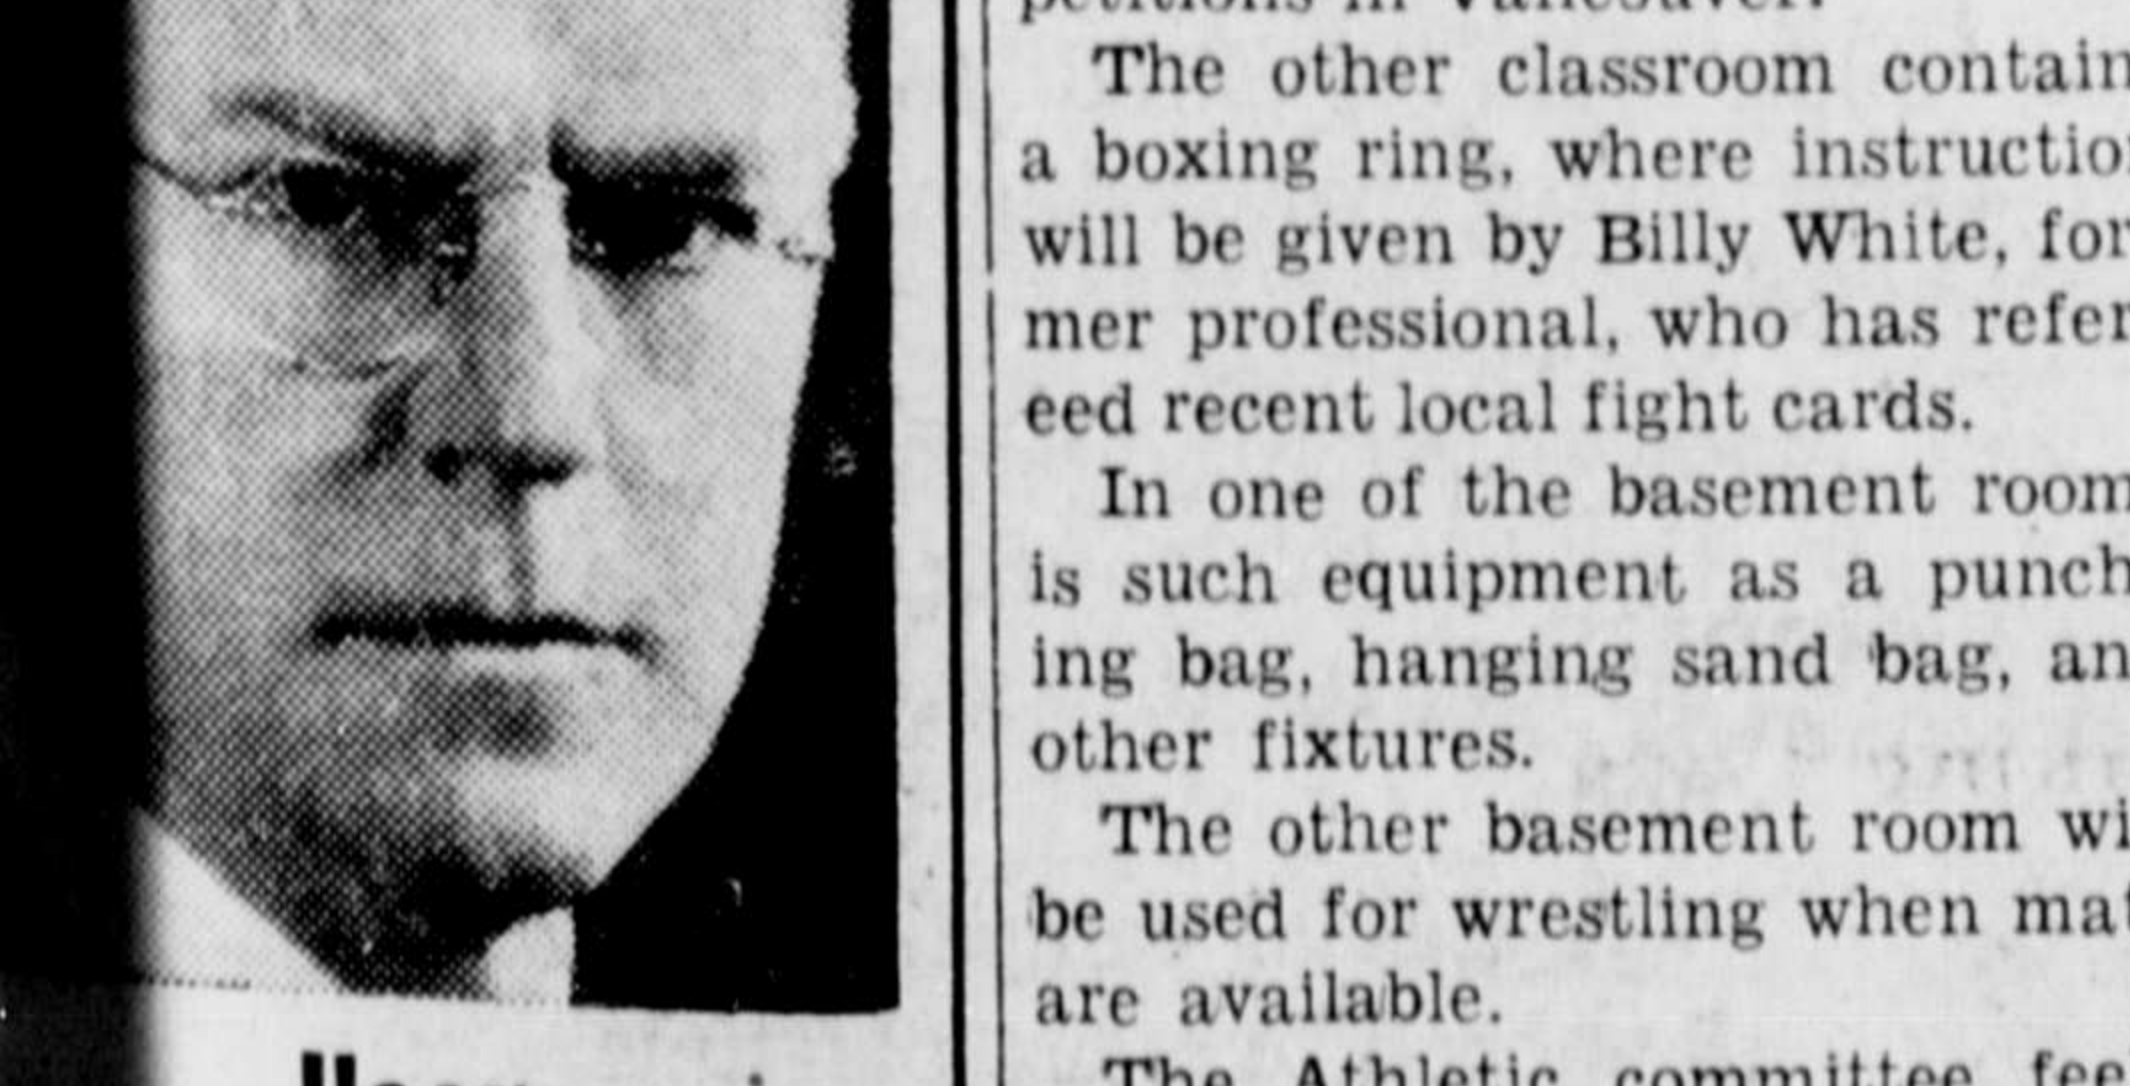

Seal Cove School, which is not being put to academic use this year, has been taken over by the Boilermakers Athletic Club as a gymnasium and sports training centre, and evening classes will be held during the coming months.

The atmosphere of the two classrooms, once lined with rows of students' desks and decorated with children's handiwork, now lacks only the odor of liniment to make the change from school to gymnasium complete. Much of the equipment has been already installed.

Col. Martyn Transferred

Exchange of Prince Rupert, Vancouver Area Commanders

Transfer of Col. D. B. Martyn, D.S.O., M.C., V.D., for the last two years in command of the Prince Rupert defence area, to a similar position in the Vancouver defence area, was officially announced today.

Actually, the transfer is part of an exchange of commanding officers, for Col. Martyn is being replaced by Col. Colin Ferrie, officer commanding the Vancouver defence area. Col. Ferrie will arrive with officers of his staff on Friday.

Col. and Mrs. Martyn are leaving for Vancouver on September 19.

"I like Prince Rupert and am sorry to leave it," Col. Martyn told The News.

Col. Ferrie, who has been in command of Vancouver defences for the last 18 months, went overseas as second in command of the Seaford Highlanders early in the war. He assumed command of the regiment when Col. J. B. Stevenson was promoted to Brigadier.

Returning to Canada, he assumed command of the Gordon Head training centre, a post which he held until the training centre was closed.

The validity date for coupons 80 and 81 has been extended from October 5 to October 12 and coupons 88 and 89 to December 14.

There is 11,500,000 pounds less butter in Canada now than there was a year ago.

The sugar administrator says the supply of that commodity is also low but there will be no reduction in the ration this year.

Status of Skeena Highway Question

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce has been in touch with the Canadian National Railways and the Department of Natural Resources in regard to the actual status of the new Skeena River Highway as a public thoroughfare. The matter is under consideration and, meantime, the situation is a little obscure. The question of use of the Canadian National Railways right-of-way is one of the factors and there is also the question of public safety measures including railroad crossings and curbs.

Fearful of Allied Victory— Must Fight to Bitter End, Berlin Tells Nazi People

Six Allied Armies Are Ready For Great Push Into Germany

PUBLICITY IS NEEDED

To Focus Attention Upon Prince Rupert as Centre of Canadian Northwest

The importance of organizing widespread and sustained publicity for Prince Rupert setting forth its strategic advantages as a centre in the new era of development which it is conceded the post-war period will bring to the northwestern part of Canada, Alaska and the Pacific theatre was emphasized at Monday night's meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce by G. A. Hunter of the Daily News. He proposed a publicity campaign along more extensive lines than had been heretofore undertaken here and suggested that it be made a community effort as considerable expenditure might eventually be involved.

The local newspaperman mentioned that, on a recent trip East he had found the people keenly interested in northwest Canada and appreciative of its war-focused importance. However, possibly due to the widespread publicity that the Alaska Highway had received and the virtual censorship blackout which had enveloped the port since Pearl Harbor, little was known of new developments at Prince Rupert and, indeed, there were some unfortunate misapprehensions in regard to the place.

One of the first things that would have to be done would be to obtain an amelioration of the censorship regulations which at present made it difficult to effectively publicize Prince Rupert.

Local Reserve Is Getting Busy

Following the recent summer camp at Gordon Head near Victoria, First Reserve Battalion, Prince Rupert Regiment, is resuming local headquarters training activity again this week, company parades being scheduled for tonight and tomorrow. Next Monday there will be a general inspection of the unit by Major General H. O. Alexander, inspector-general. Another event next week will be a smoker Friday night, organization of which is in the hands of Lieut. R. E. Montador and Sgt. W. F. Stone.

Prisoners In Canada

Three Thousand Germans from Caen Detained at Medicine Hat

LETHBRIDGE, Sept. 13—Three thousand German prisoners of war, most of them captured during fighting around Caen in France, are now detained in the prisoner of war camp at Medicine Hat, it was learned today.

Should Thank God Instead Of Celebrating

Commenting that victory is in sight, Commander C. M. Cree, R.C.N., naval officer-in-charge, Prince Rupert, states in the latest issue of "Chatham Chatter," Navy publication, that the enemy is groggy and now is the time to finish him off.

"The mightier the blows we strike now, the quicker will come the victory and the quicker victory is achieved the quicker sorrow and sufferings of peoples will be alleviated," declared Commander Cree.

The war efforts of Britain, Russia and the United States came in for praise from the naval officer-in-charge.

In closing Commander Cree remarked that victory celebrations were nice to contemplate but his own first reaction to final victory would be "to thank God in deep sincerity that He had brought us safely through the Valley of the Shadow and given us a happy issue from our afflictions."

OTTAWA, Sept. 13—Federal Aircraft Ltd. of Montreal, a crown company, is taking over production, overhaul, repairs and other administrative functions of the aircraft production branch of the Department of Munitions and Supply which is being disbanded.

Canadians Mopping Up After Taking of LeHavre But Enemy Still Holding at Brest, Boulogne, Calais, Dunkerque

LONDON, Sept. 13 (CP)—The German radio said tonight that "Americans have captured an outpost of the West Wall" but did not specify where the Siegfried Line had been dented. The dispatch suggested that the action might have been east of Verviers-Eupen sector in Belgium where the American First Army was reported about 10 miles south of Aachen, German communications centre. This is the second point at which the Americans have penetrated into German territory.

Meanwhile Allied Supreme Headquarters announced today that the Germans had counter-attacked against the flank of the Americans who plunged into the Reich six miles beyond Eupen, Belgian border city, but it was repulsed.

Gen. Dwight P. Eisenhower now has six armies ready for a big push against the Siegfried Line—four American, one Canadian and one British.

The Canadians have reached Leopold Canal and are seeking to cross it and enter the Netherlands.

Polish elements of the Canadian Army advanced 20 miles from Ghent to St. Nicholas.

The Canadians reached the canal after capturing Bruges and advancing eastward 10 miles.

The Canadians are also mopping up on the North Sea coast following the taking of Le Havre by a British division.

The British Army, along the northern flank of the Allied line, won new ground beyond Albert Canal and sent one spearhead well into the Netherlands.

American First Army columns are probing the Siegfried Line defences at two points in the Aachen area.

The American Third Army, in the Metz and Nancy areas, has poured armor and artillery across the Moselle on a 15-mile front in a build-up for a sweep on Saarbrücken and Strasbourg.

Headquarters has not disclosed the whereabouts of a new American army, the Ninth.

The American Seventh Army is in the Belfort Gap region near Switzerland.

Along the Channel coast, a German pocket still holds out at Brest while Boulogne, Calais and Dunkerque seem determined to hold until blasted out.

The Canadians are squeezing a Nazi pocket on the Schelde estuary to a thin strip between Zeebrugge and Antwerp.

The French radio at Versailles said today that French forces of the interior have liberated LaRochele, U-boat base 95 miles north of Bordeaux.

Driving Upon Gothic Line

ROME, Sept. 13—Allied Fifth Army forces, driving against the central sector of the Gothic Line northeast of Florence, are within a mile of Futa Pass, one of the main avenues through the German defence line barring the path to Northern Italy, it was announced Wednesday.

The British Eighth Army remained stalemated near the Adriatic where the fiercest fighting of the Italian campaign continued.

A GOOD OFFICER GOES . . .

Col. D. B. Martyn, whose transfer from Prince Rupert to Vancouver we announce today, will be remembered in Prince Rupert as the area commandant during really anxious days of this war for Prince Rupert—days when we were under the direct threat of enemy attack and when we thought for a good long time that the Japanese were almost sure to give us a bombing if they did not actually attempt a landing. Happily, the event never happened and, now that it probably never will, there may be no harm in revealing that, under Col. Martyn's energetic and dynamic military leadership here, an organization and establishment was developed which, had it ever needed to have been put to the test, would have undoubtedly given a good account of itself.

Col. Martyn's drive and determination in building up and maintaining the defences of Prince Rupert in the days when it appeared they might be vitally needed may have engendered the resentment of some people. However, a good soldier cannot always be thinking about the popular reaction to his policies—particularly in critical times, and there were some of us who came to know that, behind Col. Martyn's broad engaging smile, there was a will of iron.

The colonel departs as victory pervades the war picture and as the local anxiety diminishes. We can say that he leaves many friends who will wish him the best of fortune in his new command.

As long as the war lasts, Prince Rupert will be a vital point in the scheme of military things and, even if the possibility of its being a point of combat may have been reduced, it will still be an important administrative centre in the Pacific theatre and there will be continuing responsibilities for Col. Martyn's successor as area commandant.

NO FIT CARGO BEING REFUSED

Canadian National Steamships and Union Steamships had letters before the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce in answer to a recent complaint of J. H. Carson Co. of refusal to handle drums of dogfish livers. The two companies emphasized that thousands of pounds of this product were being handled and, where there were proper containers, there had never been refusal to accept them. However, cargo which might prove offensive to passengers or detrimental to other freight could not be taken.

Another well known and popular young man of Central British Columbia, Lieut. John Alexander Aitken, has been officially reported killed in action. ## about the things you buy in wartime

THE STORY OF CHILDREN'S UNDERWEAR

OBVIOUSLY babies and children must have underwear. So—the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has given special attention to the production of these garments.

The problem has not been so much one of a lack of raw materials, but of getting the raw materials (wool, cotton, rayon), spun into yarns—and then knit into garments. Canada has never produced all the wool, cotton and rayon yarn she requires. We have always had to get a substantial part of our requirements from other countries, even in peacetime. But since the war, there has been an acute shortage of underwear yarns everywhere.

There has been a greatly increased demand in addition to production difficulties. The efforts of the Board to meet the problem are given below.

THE INCREASED DEMAND RESULTED FROM:

- More babies . . . It's apparently always the way in wartime.
- Reduced use of second-hand or "hand-me-down" garments.
- Extra buying . . . Perhaps too many people wanted to be "on the safe side."
- Increased consumer buying . . . More people with more money.
- Less home sewing . . . Mothers have been working outside the home.
- Huge demand for underwear by Armed Forces.

MORE UNDERWEAR: but still not enough!

The reason is that it just has not been possible to produce with the skilled workers and machines available to the United Nations enough yarn and garments to meet the increased demands all over the world.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE ABOUT IT

- ✓First of all the Board found out the kind and quantity of garments Canadian children must have.
- ✓This showed that the public is asking for more than is actually needed.
- ✓So plans were made to see, by directing production all down the line, if we could meet the swollen demand as nearly as possible.
- ✓Each manufacturer was told to produce an increased number of garments.
- ✓A constant check is kept on mills to see that they are producing the required number.
- ✓Manufacturers not previously making children's underwear were induced to go into its production. An - additional 600,000 garments will be provided this year from these sources.
- ✓Negotiations were conducted with production authorities in other countries for supplies of yarn to Canadian knitters for use in children's underwear.
- ✓Primary cotton mills were required to divert spinning facilities from fabric manufacture to the spinning of underwear yarns.
- ✓Arrangements were made through National Selective Service to direct more labour to the underwear mills.
- ✓A special campaign was launched to enlist parttime workers.
- ✓Distribution to retail stores was organized to ensure equitable supply to all areas.

The greatly increased supply of children's underwear resulting from these efforts is shown by the relative sizes of the figures below.

Home Recipe

Apple, Grape, Quince, Crab-apple and Sour Plum Jelly

- 1 Wash and cut apples, crab-apples, plums, and quinces in pieces; do not peel or core. Wash grapes and remove stems.
- 2 Place fruit in preserving kettle and add enough water to be seen through the top layer of fruit.
- 3 Cook slowly until fruit is soft and mushy and juice is drawn out. Crush with a potato masher.
- 4 Drain several hours or overnight through a moist jelly bag. Squeezing the bag increases the yield of juice and gives a more pronounced flavor but a less clear jelly.
- 5 Measure juice. Do not make up more than eight cups of juice at one time.
- 6 Measure ¾ cup sugar for each cup of juice and put sugar to warm.
- 7 Boil juice gently for three minutes. Test for pectin.
- 8 When pectin test is obtained, add the heated sugar. Boil rapidly, three to ten minutes, testing repeatedly until jelly sheets from the spoon, 222 deg. F.
- 9 Remove from fire at once and skim. Pour into hot, sterilized glasses. Let stand, undisturbed, until set.
- 10 Pour a thin layer of melted paraffin wax over the jelly and allow to harden. Add a second thin layer of melted wax, rotating the jar so that wax will adhere to the side of the glass, forming a close seal. Cover with brown paper or metal cover.
- 11 Label and store in a cool, dark, dry place.

Cambrai Chapter Planning Active Winter Program

The regular monthly meeting of Cambrai Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, was held Tuesday night at the home of Miss Eileen Gibson. Mrs. Jens Munthe, regent, was in the chair.

The chapter decided to fill forty personal comfort bags to be sent overseas for Christmas. Some will be filled for the servicewomen, some for civilian women and the remainder for the children in nurseries.

Mrs. George Mitchell, war service convener, reported that two large shipments of knitted goods and refugee comforts were made in July.

Arrangements were completed for the holding of a tag day on September 30. Proceeds will be for the furtherance of the chapter's war work.

It was decided to hold a tea and raffle on November 23.

Two new members were welcomed to the meeting. The next meeting will be held October 10 at the home of Mrs. Syd Elkins.

Repairs Dominate Building Scene

Alterations and repairs continue to dominate the domestic construction scene, according to the monthly report on building permits issued by the city engineer's office. Only two permits were issued for new buildings.

A stringency on building materials forces citizens to get along with what they have, rather than try to erect new structures. Value of permits issued last month was $4,400, as against the July issue of $7,150. Total value of permits issued so far this year is $187,650.

Last year, permits valued at $8,315 were issued in August, and the eight month total was $337,245.

Following is a list of permits issued last month:

- T. F. Dahl, 7th ave. E., general repairs, $300.
R. E. Mortimer, 2nd. ave W., alterations, $350.
Stephen Dumas, 7th ave., alterations, $50.
Louis Wide, 9th ave. W., frame bldg. (addition), $400.
Wilfred McLean, 7th ave. E., concrete foundation, $350.
Long Motors, 3rd ave. W., alterations, $150.
Mitchell Gay, 6th ave. E., general repairs, $140.
F. J. Fuller, 1st ave. W., alterations, roof repairs, $250.
V. Preston, Park ave., small frame dwelling, $700.
C. J. Ashbury, Hays Cove ave., addition, $500.
Mrs. A. Pavkulis, Park ave., frame dwelling, $1000.
J. R. Slaggard, 3rd ave., roof repairs, $150.
