H.M.C.S. ATHABASCAN LOST OTTAWA-H.M.C.S. Athabascan, large Canadian destroyer of the new Tribal class, was sunk in a naval battle off the coast of France. Some of the crew were lost and some were rescued while others were made prisoners of war. In company with H.M.C.S. Haida, the Athabascan was patrolling near the French coast when two enemy destroyers were encountered. The battle ensued in the cours of which the Athabascan was sunk while one of the German destroyers was driven ashore and the other fled. The Athabascan was torpedoed. The Haida picked up some of the survivors. German sources claim that eighty-five

Air assault on Europe is being taken as the final signal for the opening of the Second Front. Soon the boys are holding a big regimen- Hall. This is their first unit amphibious forces may push off. For weeks the so- tal dance in the Navy Drill Hall. dance and once again girls, do called "invasion coast" has been pounded in every spare moment. And recently the pattern of bomb- to show their appreciation to all date but this was the only date ing has included railroads, bridges and airfields who supported them each week these boys could fit in with their which must be knocked out to cripple the Nazis and hold a really big spring schedules. The invitation reads: counterattacks when invasion begins. Many of these rail and air centres were in France and the Low Countries.

The intensity of the air invasion can be measured by the tons of bombs dropped - double what the Germans landed on Britain in the worst four months of the air blitz. Also by the R.A.F.'s blows at rail yards in France and Belguim-the heaviest "strikes" of the war. The scope of the attack can be measured by American bomber sorties all the way from Toulouse in southern France to Marienburg in East Prussia and to Posen in Poland, to say nothing of Italian-based raids on Austria, Hungary, Rumania, and Bulgaria.

The light or entirely lacking fighter-defenses against some of the long-range raids indicate either that the Luftwaffe is so stretched that it cannot defend everywhere or that the Nazis are husbanding their fighters and concentrating them near the invasion coasts. When D-day comes even the heavy bombers will be striking closer to the front, leaving production targes to hit at communications and supplies.

When the invasion comes there will also be clear patterns of concentration to blast open landing places or block the rail lines, roads and airfields the Germans must use to counter specific Allied landings. When General Eisenhower told a group of pilots that soon he would be driving them so hard they would not get proper food or sleep for weeks he was thinking of intensity in air attack. The Germans will have not merely their dreaded two-front war, but al multi-front war-with the Russians pushing from the east, the Allies from Italy and several beachheads, while navies of the air launch attacks from every side.

Victory will not fall into our hand like a ripe plum. Are we letting recent successes go to our heads -forgetting that the greatest battle has yet to be won? Here are recent statements by our leaders which show that they are not doing any wishful thinking:

RT. HON. WINSTON CHURCHILL-"This . . . is a time for preparation, effort and resolve. I have never taken the view that the end of the war in Europe is at hand . . . and I have certainly given no guarantee or even held out any expectation that the year 1944 will see the end of the European war, nor have I given any guarantee the other way."

RT. HON. W. L. MACKENZIE KING-"I wish to repeat that we are in times that are very grave indeed . . . and we are heading rapidly into a situation which will be the most desperate this world has known."

HON. J. L. RALSTON-"There is not much evidence that German military power has decreased . . . Germany has shown herself able to stand prodigious "I hope I can make this country realize just what we have ahead of us. It is true that good news has been coming, but remember that if that good news is to continue it can only be by continuous contribution of the matchless price which the men and women of the forces and the homes they come from pay, and only if we are willing to make our contribution in self-discipline and self-denial worthy of theirs."

> In these statements there is certainly no place for wishful thinking. They are a call to a greater effort to win that victory which must be won.

THE SOLID FUEL CREDIT PLAN

To help householders purchase coal now . . : well in advance of actual needs . . . the Government-sponsored Solid Fuel Credit Plan is being put into operation again this year.

FEATURES OF THE PLAN

- 1. You should order your next winter's coal from your dealer today.
- 2. You may pay for it in equal monthly instalments, over a period to be arranged with your dealer. All payments are to be completed by May 15th, 1945.
- 3. All arrangements are to be made with your dealer.
- 4. You simply fill in a Credit Application Form and sign a note for the value of your coal purchase. The note is financed by your dealer through his bank, under the Government-sponsored Solid Fuel Credit Plan.
- 5. You pay a regular interest charge on unpaid balances for this convenience. For example, on a purchase of $80 worth of coal to be paid for over a period of six months the interest charge - the only additional charge you pay - would amount to $1.44. 6. The value of the coal bought by any individual under this Plan must not bins not later than September 30th,

- be less than $50 and not more than $250. 7. All coal purchased under the Plan must be delivered into consumers'
- 8. Your dealer will make delivery to you during the coming months as and when he can.
