To Neutralize Japanese Base

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NEW GUINEA, May 6 (CP)—Allied planes have intensified their campaign to neutralize the Schouten Islands in Dutch New Guinea where Japanese are reported massing naval and air strength.

Mine Companies Purchase Bonds

Word was received in the local Victory Loan Headquarters today of purchases by two northern mining companies of Victory bonds totalling $250,000.

Silbak-Premier Mines Limited have purchased $150,000 worth of bonds and Premier Gold Mining Company Limited has bought $100,000 worth.

Word has also been received that Burns Lake has gone over the top. This is the second northern district to top their quota, Stewart-Premier being the first.

Settlement Of Dispute Requested

VANCOUVER, May 6 (CP)—The Aeronautical Mechanics Lodge of the American Federation of Labor has wired Minister of Fisheries Ernest Bertrand asking that immediate steps be taken to prevail on the United States Office of Production Administration to reach a settlement of the halibut dispute.

Public Invited To Soccer Game

The Acropolis Hill playing grounds will be open to the public Sunday afternoon when the Yanks and Reserves collide in an exhibition soccer game beginning at 3 o'clock.

The game promises to be a good one, for there seems to be some pretty good material on both sides. Numbered among the Yanks are several old timers at the game, including one who has played in Vancouver, and one from the Scottish junior league.

The Reserve players are local boys who have every reason to be considered effective at the game.

138,000 Airmen Are in Action Over Europe, British Secretary For Air Tells House Commons

NEW WORKER FOR RUPERT

Miss Cassie Porter Joins Social Service Staff Here.

Miss Cassie B. Porter, Vancouver, social service worker, has arrived to join the provincial field staff of the Social Assistance Branch of the Department of the Provincial Secretary at Prince Rupert.

The present staff of three members—Misses Bessie Snider, Alvina Brewster and Cassie Porter—do generalized social service work in an area extending north to Atlin and Telegraph Creek, south to Bella Bella, east to EnCako, and on the west to coastal points, and the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Since the outbreak of war the case load has more than trebled and the monthly intake is six or seven times greater. The total number of active cases now approximates 759.

Services are rendered to families and unemployable persons who are ill and in needy or other difficult circumstances, to widowed mothers with children, to unmarried mothers, to old age pensioners, to patients requiring institutional care, e.g. Provincial Infirmary, Home for the Aged, Nursing Home and Boarding Home care, Provincial Mental Hospital, Sanitariums, School for Deaf and Blind, Crippled Children's Hospital, Child Guidance Clinic and the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, etc. Also, in the Child Welfare Division, case work is extended to children who present behaviour problems which if not corrected at the onset develop into serious delinquencies. Adoptions and foster home placements are effected by the workers. Social histories of delinquents committed to Industrial Schools and other correctional institutions are compiled to enable more effective treatment in these institutions and to insure better programs of rehabilitation on discharge.

Reports are submitted to the Collector of Institutional Revenue, Inspector of Hospitals, the Provincial Mental Hospital, the Provincial Infirmary, the T.B. and V.D. Units as these divisions require them.

A large part of the many services to soldiers' families constitutes the investigations for the Dependents' Allowance Board, Dependents' Board of Trustees, and Auxiliary Services of the Armed Forces.

There are approximately 14 divisions of the Social Assistance Branch served by the Field Staff. Its members must familiarize themselves with 30 separate Provincial or Dominion Acts and Statutes. In short the social workers of this department are called upon to assist the governments, Dominion and Provincial, in meeting the social problems and ills of the general public which have been accentuated to a marked degree during the present crisis.

LONDON, May 6 (CP)—While the Under Secretary for Air, Lord Balfour, told the House of Commons today that, for all practical purposes, some 138,000 Allied airmen have already opened the main invasion battle, a large force of American bombers were dumping their loads on German installations in the Pas-De-Calais area of France in spite of miserable flying weather over the English Channel. This is the twenty-second continuous day of the Allied air offensive.

Lord Balfour said that the destruction executed during April by the airmen would make the invasion path to Berlin more direct.

Last night Royal Air Force and Royal Canadian Air Force planes laid mines in enemy waters without loss.

Canadian-manned Mosquito bombers damaged several enemy aircraft in northern France.

Flood Nazi Strongholds

Aerial Bombing of Pescara Threatens to be Serious for Enemy

NAPLES, May 6 (CP)—Allied dive bombers—British, Australian and American—cracking open the Pescara dam in Italy, released flood water which has threatened to engulf German strongholds near the Adriatic coast and sweep away bridges vital to Axis military traffic in support of enemy forces facing the Eighth Army.

Other bombers yesterday hit at the Ploesti oil fields and Turanu Severin in Rumania.

Auto Strike At Windsor Now Ended

WINDSOR, May 6 (CP)—Threat of a general strike in this area was averted temporarily at least when members of the United Automobile Workers local voted to delay action in connection with work stoppage at the Ford Motor Co. plant. National Labor Board mediators have arrived in connection with the dispute.

RIFLE MISHAP KILLS SOLDIER

A Canadian soldier at Terrace was accidentally killed when the rifle he was holding went off in a barracks hut yesterday afternoon.

No details of the accident, or the name of the soldier have reached the city.

Many Guests At Presbyterian Tea

A delightful spring tea was held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Arnold Flaten, under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society of First Presbyterian Church. Many guests called during the afternoon and were received by Mrs. Flaten and Mrs. H. Calderwood, president of the M.M.S., to be welcomed to rooms and tables tastefully decorated with spring flowers.

Mrs. L. W. Kergin and Mrs. James Simpson presided at the tea tables, while Mesdames Saunders, Neil MacDonald and C. C. Mitchell were the gracious servitors. The popular home cooking table was in charge of Mrs. A. McMullen.

The event was convened by Mrs. John Bremner, who was ably assisted by Mrs. Ormiston and Mrs. Simonsen in the kitchen. Hearty thanks are extended to all who assisted in making this delightful event such an outstanding success.

JAPS HAVE RAIL LINE

Weight of Attack in Honan Province is Shifted Against Loyang.

CHUNGKING, May 6 (CP)—With the Peiping-Hankow Railway virtually in their hands, the Japanese have shifted the main weight of their attack against Loyang in Honan Province.

JAPANESE DISCUSSED

Government Statement Due Session on Nipponese

OTTAWA, May 6—The Japanese question was discussed in Parliament last night.

Tom Reid, Liberal member for Westminister, said British Columbia members had urged the government to take action but nothing had been done until after the outbreak of war with Japan. The question had become a political matter as a result of C.C.F. determination to give the vote to the Japanese.

W. K. Esling, Progressive-Conservative, West Kootenay, asked the government not to permit the Japanese to go into business or take up land.

Acting Prime Minister J. L. Ralston, minister of national defence, announced that he believed the federal government would make a "full statement" in the House this session on how it plans to deal with the Japanese after the war.

FUR AUCTION PRICES DOWN

As a result of a recent American Office of Price Administration action which set a ceiling on the price of raw furs, volume of sales and prices at the recent Canadian raw fur sale held in Vancouver on May 4 went into a marked decline.

A similar decline was experienced at the New York fur auction held recently.

Volume of sales at the Vancouver auction were well under the available quantity, with prices down. Beaver took the heaviest drop with only 60 per cent sold, at prices 20 per cent under last year's level. Muskrat and mink sold only 25 per cent of the available furs at a decline of 10 per cent, and martin sold 30 per cent at a price 15 per cent under.

Due to restricted buying power all other items were mainly bought back or withdrawn. The fur market on the whole is considerably easier.

BOOST PRODUCTION

Canadian egg production objective for 1944 is 10 per cent higher than 1943; of the 1944 production, at least 10 per cent may be sent to the United Kingdom.

ALLIES ON OFFENSIVE IN INDIA

KANDY, May 6 (CP)—Allied forces have launched a general offensive in the Kottaya area of India and the Chinese in northern Burma have smashed through a village stronghold to trap a Japanese garrison by a flanking manoeuvre.

To Smash To Berlin

Germans Anticipate This Owing to Mass Mobilization of Reds in Prewar Poland.

LONDON, May 6 (CP)—Russian naval and air units sank five more Axis ships near Sevastopol in the Crimea and the Germans said that the Russians had deployed men and equipment on an enormous scale in prewar Poland for a new smash on the main invasion path to Berlin.

Tea-Sale Is Successful

A very successful tea and sale of home cooking was held in the church parlors by the Women's Association of the First United Church, Thursday.

The tea table was attractively arranged with spring flowers and presided over by Mrs. Meggs, Mrs. J. Gray and Mrs. R. G. Large. The tea room was in charge of Mrs. R. J. Macaulay with Mrs. Holt, Mrs. Caine and Miss Julia Brown assisting. Mesdames Kwan, Knipe, Hay, D. Gray, Miss Violet Mah and Miss Dorothy Stiles assisted with the serving.

Home cooking was convened by Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Webber. The fancy work booth was in charge of Mrs. B. Santerbarne with Mrs. Clapp and Mrs. Petroff assisting. Miss M. D. Sharp and Mrs. Eldon Smith had charge of the apron stall.

Re-dedication

Are we worthy of them, O Lord,
 Who have died through the weary years
 Who did not yield
 On a shell-torn field,
 Has their sacrifice died with our tears?

Are we worthy of them, O Lord,
 Who met death in the burning sky?
 They were young and strong
 They have sung their song,
 Must its echoes fade and die?

Are we worthy of them, O Lord,
 Who have died on the wind-swept seas
 In their sunken craft,
 On a broken raft,
 O Lord, are we worthy of these?

They were eager for Life and Love,
 Death has withered them, root and stem,
 Let us pray, O Lord,
 On a broken sword,
 Let us pray to be worthy of them.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.
 (By DOROTHY GARBUTT)

Well we open the nut for afternoon, that is definite. There are a few odds and ends to do but they can be finished. We open. There are flowers to paint, a few pieces of furniture to varnish and so on. We have to have something to do us busy once we are open.

Oh to hear once again the of the juke box, the pounding piano, the roar of the tramp of hob nailed pounders up the stairs, the cate delights of military talk—in short, the joys of soon, soon to be ours again.

Tonight's the night of the Elliott Barracks dance. The boys that the junior classes are really going to have this time, so remember the school tie, don't let our side and all that sort of thing. Transportation will be at the Y.

And Tuesday is another Ack dance, so come out for one.

A short while ago I was get hold of a mouth organ one of our local boys very remote ack-ack today received a very nice of thanks. It's from Ray B. well who says:

"I have received the organ you gave my mother to me. I want to thank you and all the trouble you were getting it as I know they be awfully hard to get now can't realize how much a music helps to pass away a low's spare hours out here there is no other music what you make yourself."

Thanks Ray for letting know you received it. Proud hard and who knows you become a second Larry Miller at any rate get on one of Y Sunday concerts when you home on furlough. I can "Long Long Ago," what a masterpiece, Ray?

LETTERBOX

WHITHER SOCIALISM?
 Recently the Daily News printed an article from the ancial Post which heralds capitalistic dream that has been abandoned by R and that consequently is a dead issue. That is a certain amount of truth in this writer does not doubt, ever, he takes exception to implication as to the Soviet ley and that the CCF is a chase headed by M. J. well.

What if Marxism has modified? Perhaps the intellectual socialists are right? Socialism can be attained peaceful means? This may be true but Stalin leaves it to intellectuals. He wants to rebuild the devastated parts of Europe with heavy machinery from America. He wants to trade with the world. Capitalistic allies want trade also. He wants capitalism to survive where it is.

That is why today the ex-socialists, the Labor Progressives, are all out for capitalism and against socialism. In broad back of the Soviet Friendship League, they have a media to work through. What Stalin wants them to or not, insist on acting as Soviet agents. In them is instilled an absolute spirit of discipline as the leader turns so do. It is so! Regardless of "democratic" conventions, et al.

Capitalism must fall because is a mathematical impossibility as a working economy for people. Cycles of wars, depressions and fake booms are inherent in its set-up.

That is why the CCF, Canada's only Socialist party, desists from lulling the masses with false aspirations. The CCF gives credit where credit is due but it has never been under the influence of Russia or any revolutionary government party. That is why it does not have to change its policy. It has at all times appealed to the common sense of the masses. It understands that in order to prevent repercussions, which made Russia so despised, we must educate the masses so as they could create a socialist state ourselves, democratically, without a dictator. The CCF has withstood the two pronged attack when the capitalists on one side and the Communists on the other tried to kill it and it now lead to the emancipation of the masses.

But one can hardly blame the highest organ of human exploitation, the Financial Post, from trying to keep the CCF away from power!

Round the Seven Seas . . .

Men who do business in great waters have always been a hardy folk. None of other kidney can face a casual glance and shrugged shoulders the white of a winter gale and all the other evils that back may hold in store. In the good old sailing of peace they would come ashore, perhaps after a stretch of 105 days or more from around the Horn, hearings on the solid and uninteresting earth, and themselves mightily and sign-on again for another hundred days or more of the fickle friend the grumpy enemy of man.

But how much greater their perils in war-time! Tankers on which the victualling of ships, aeroplanes and artillery depend are the special quarry of submarines and raiders all the world around. One who, even one shell, can set a fire furious beyond conception, destroy without trace the crew, leaving men dying in a sea of blazing oil. At best some survivors in open boats may drift for days and nights in an empty and hostile sea.

Yet such men when brought ashore, faint from hunger and thirst, are no sooner restored to their old well-being but they grin, spit brown, and sign on a tanker, travelling singly or in convoy to wherever the world around, fighting men are clamouring for supplies . . .

One does not look for a fine example of English from the annual report of a corporation. Most reports to shareholders are, in fact, so carefully written and revised that, the result, oftener than not, is a stodgy expression of managerial caution. But the foregoing is right out of the 1943 brochure prepared by Imperial Oil Limited for the financial and other information of all and sundry. It comes from the page opposite a copy of the auditors' comments, even without that contrast it would, or should, attract the attention of those who appreciate a good piece of writing. Moreover it pays yet another tribute to a beautiful one—to a group of hardy men without whom the war would have been lost.

McEwen Charges Govt. "Leniency"

Criticism of the recent action of the Department of Justice in releasing from internment Joseph Farr and John Lorimer, lieutenants of Adrian Arcand,
self-styled "fuhrer" of Canada, was expressed this morning by Tom McEwen, provincial organizer of the Labor-Progressive party, on his arrival in the city from Vancouver.

"There is no justification for the release of these men when Canadian boys are fighting to suppress the thing that they represent," he asserted.

He branded as "foolish leniency"
the Justice Minister's release of Farr and Lorimer and some 300 others of similar political leanings on the grounds that they were no longer harmful.

"In taking that attitude the department is guilty of the same complicity that the government is trying to eliminate throughout the country — the idea that the war is already won," he charged.

"Those men can still be dangerous."

The government's conscription policy was termed "vaccinating"
by Mr. McEwen.

"The government should enforce conscription to the fullest extent," he claimed. "There should be no distinction between men enlisted for overseas service and men conscripted to stay at home." There should be no need for individuals to make a choice in so serious a matter when the government is supposed to be committed to an all-out war effort.

Mr. McEwen will conduct a series of speeches in the city and district following the Labor Progressive federal nominations conference to be held on Sunday.

JIM CAGNEY IS STARRED

"Johnny Come Lately," Coming to Capitol, is Engaging Story.

Jimmy Cagney has one of the most engaging starring roles of his career in "Johnny Come Lately" which comes next Monday and Tuesday to the Capitol Theatre. It is a story about a frail widow who, ever since the death of her publisher husband, has made a gallant fight to carry on his newspaper and his home in the same manner as he did. The paper is slowly going to seed and she is being bullied into carrying out the editorial demands of a crooked promoter at the time Cagney comes along.
Arrested as a vagabond, he is balled out of jail by the widow and given a job as a reporter on her failing newspaper, as well as a room in her home.
In grateful appreciation, and because he wants to see her happy and prosperous again, Cagney completely metamorphosizes the paper and the town and falls in love with the publisher's niece to boot.

The niece, played by Marjorie Lord, has other ideas, however.
She is in love with the handsome young son of the town's promoter, from whom she is estranged because of his father's bulldozing treatment of her aunt.

Unlike most of his roles, Jimmy doesn't get the girl in "Johnny Come Lately." In the end, seeing her united with the boy she loves, and feeling that he has restored to his benefactress some of the glories that were once hers, he goes blithely on his way to find romance and adventure on whatever road he chooses.

Marjorie Main and Hattie McDaniel are important members of the cast.
