

SERVICE SHOW WELL ENJOYED

"It's In The Groove" Provides Good Tonic For Troops.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT
"It's In The Groove," Vancouver's latest Service Shows offering, is strictly potato salad and it certainly pleased the audience Sunday night in the Capitol Theatre. What I mean is, for you uninitiated, it's one of the best variety shows to have come our way from the South. It has interest and balance almost all the way through.

As master of ceremonies, Ray Romaine first of all introduced Don Flynn, the accompanist to the party. Don has been up this way before and is a very able musician and, if I may say so, definitely decorative. Phyllis and Doreen, two pretty young brunettes of the Strand School of dancing which has sent so many lovely teams up here, came out in a smart military taps number. Later on in the program they did a South American Rumba and an Hawaiian hula dance, accompanied by a chorus of well meaning wolves.

Harry Booth was next in a varied program of songs, comic, ballad and blues and he put each one over excellently. Harry has infinite versatility and a rich voice which he lends with amazing variety to any type of song. He used to be in Prince Rupert and, while here, helped us out with a great many concerts. His heart was always in show business and, now that he has been discharged from the services for reasons of health, it is nice to see him doing the work he loves.

Although lovely Hilda McLennan played only concert and popular ballad numbers on her violin, she held her audience spellbound with her artistry on that instrument. And well she might for Hilda is a full time member of the famous Vancouver Symphony Orchestra and has had the privilege of being conducted by such well known maestros as Arthur Benjamin and Howard Barlow. Her first offering was "Frasquita" followed by "A Kiss in the Dark" and the popular "Tea for Two." For her second appearance later in the program she played a medley of Viator Heibent tunes, "Sleepy Lagoon," "When Day Is Done" and finally that popular tune of the last war "My Buddy." Hilda was most generous in her encores and her selections were well designed to appeal to everyone.

And then came Mary Mae! She is Vancouver's own Kate Smith and worth her poundage in personality. She's full of life and as jolly as all get out and gets her audience singing the words of the old favorites and enjoying doing so. For her first appearance she was dressed in a smart kiltie outfit and not only was she Lauder but also funnier than anything we've seen in a long while. All the beloved old songs were there—"Bonny Bonnie Lassie," "The Wiggle Waggle Waggle o' the Kilt," "Romin' in the Gloamin'," "A Wee Deoch 'n Doris" and a comical one about "MacPherson's Rehearsin' to swing wi' kilties on their chasis." For her next appearance she specialised in blues and modern songs. "Shoo Shoo Baby," "Mairzy Doats," "No Love, No Nothin'" and one song dedicated specially to Jerry Hutchison—with the kind permission of Mrs. Hutchison—"Some of These Days You're Gonna Miss Me Honey." Aye, Mary's a grand gur-r-r, and a tonic for the troops.

An acrobatic act of great merit is that of Ray Romaine and his pretty wife, Babette. Babette tells me that they have only been doing this act since they were married two years ago. They started preforming on the beaches and from there were engaged for night clubs and have just returned from a year's work in the States. Their timing is perfect and the ease with which they do their work belies the difficulties behind it. A charming couple and a clever team.

Of Harry Booth's next act, that of a female impersonator, I can only say that Harry has talent to waste—and it's a pity he does.

As an hilarious finale the girls come out on the stage and helped by Mary Mae's singing directions teach various members of the audience how to do the "Cokey-Okey."

A good show, and one which gives us an appetite for more where that comes from.

AIYANSH HAS GOOD EASTER

Religious and Athletic Observance at Naas River Village.

AIYANSH, April 18—With 200 people attending from the surrounding communities of Greenville, Kincolith, Port Simpson and Canyon City, the Easter season celebration here was a great success.

At a pre-Easter banquet given by the celebration committee, the Church Army, the Aiyansh Band, and various Women's Auxiliaries, speeches were made by Chief Councillor Walter McMillan, President T.

B. Tait, Chairman Titus Menesqu, Church Army Captains S. H. Ell and P. H. Mercer, Charles Morven and James Adams of Aiyansh, Simon Calder, Samuel Tait and James Lesson of Greenville, Samuel Doolan, Jeffrey Benson and Herbert Doolan of Kincolith, and Herbert Morrison and Henry Kelly of Port Simpson.

In Easter Monday's sports field day Kincolith won the Menesqu Gold Cup for Basketball. Scores of the series follow:

Kincolith 93, Port Simpson 40. Aiyansh 57, Kincolith 55. Aiyansh 58, Greenville 42. Kincolith was also the winner of an exhibition game. The only softball game of the day was won by Port Simpson. Tommy McKay of Port Simpson streaked through the 100-yard dash in ten seconds flat.

A farewell dance and party was held in the evening. Tentative arrangements have been made to have the next inter-community celebration at Port Simpson on May 24.

NEVER MIND THE BILLION

What's Your Share?

YES, billions will be needed to carry the battle into Germany.

The huge stock piles of materials will soon diminish when our troops move forward from the invasion beach-heads.

This will be a crucial year for Canada—a test of our man-power and money power—a trial of our valour, our endurance and our self-denial.

The call to full duty will come to every man and woman at home this year—the duty to share this great year of trial with those abroad.

If each of us shoulders his full share the needed billions will be raised—the needed support will be forthcoming for the knockout blow.

TERRACE AND VICTORY LOAN

Terrace and district are now
organized to handle the Victory Loan. In spite of somewhat reduced population, Terrace is confident that it will reach and exceed its quota. Victory Loan salesmen in Terrace will be Roy L. Fox and Mrs. Head, who have been assured of co-operation by the staff of Carter-Halls-Al-
dinger. In the Fifth Victory Loan sales at Terrace amounted to the splendid figure of $45,600.

The city council decided last
night to have a clean-up week,
the first week in May being designated for the purpose. The clean-up campaign was proposed by Mayor Daggett and a motion effecting it passed with Ald. Rudderham opposing in fear that use of city motor vehicles for hauling garbage at such a time might interfere with the public works program.

Of forty-one signatories to a petition which was presented to the city council last night
asking for the installation of a sewer line on Ninth Avenue in the vicinity of its junction with Eighth Avenue only nineteen
were found to be property owners. Accordingly the petition was sent back to C. E. Morrow, the organizer. There are fifty-
seven lots in the area affected
of which fifteen belong to the city.
