German Oil Production Is Hard Hit

ALLIED SUPREME HEAD-QUARTERS, July 12 (CP)— American air attacks on sixty-four German oil installations have curtailed the Nazi petroleum production to a point where shortage is having an important effect on the mo-

ENGLISH LORD AMNESIA CASE

Canadian Nerve Specialist Aids Young Seaman of Merchant Navy by Hypnotic Treatment

A ST. LAWRENCE RIVER
PORT, July 12 (CP)—The doctor of the Canadian Manning Pool for the Merchant Navy eased back in his office chair and lit a cigar.

"You know," he said, "a doctor runs into some interesting fellows here and some odd cases.
It's bound to be that way for the seamen passing in and out of the Pool come from the four corners of the earth. One of the most baffling cases we've ever had was the case of a young English lord, a good-looking, fair-haired chap of 22 or 23."

The doctor's story, as related by Lt.-Cmdr. Walter Gilhooly of the R.C.N.V.R., told of the efforts made to diagnose the illness of the young merchant seaman who appeared to be heavily doped, but medical examination showed that he had no drugs in his system. The man was able to tell his name but was unable to say where he had come from.

Finally he was taken under the care of a nerve specialist who declared the case was one of amnesia. Hypnotized by the specialist, the seaman told his story bit by bit.

"He had been at Dunquerque, an artillery officer, and afterwards had been discharged," the doctor said. "He returned home and had felt well enough but couldn't remember what had happened at Dunquerque. The young men about his father's place criticized him for not being in uniform so he slipped off to Liverpool with a chum and joined a ship as an ordinary seaman. The ship landed at Halifax and he had come on to this port."

TOLD ABOUT DUNKERQUE

Finally the specialist decided to find out what had deranged him and to cure him. There were about 25 doctors and 50 nurses in the operating theatre when he was put to sleep.

"The specialist carefully, quietly and persistently questioned him as to what had happened to him on the beach at Dun-querque," the doctor said. "The man moaned and groaned and then we heard him say, 'I've lost my gun; I can't get my gun away!'"

"Do you know he came out of that sleep a different man.
He was bright, happy and had a young eager look on his face." The seaman was subsequently identified as the son of an English earl. He asked that his identity be kept secret and his wishes had been respected.

"I recommended to the British Ministry and the director of merchant seamen that he be given his discharge from the merchant service as unfit for sea duty," the doctor said. "His illness could come back on him, and the chances were too great to take."

"I hear from him occasionally.
He's back now farming on his father's estate and is quite happy."

ANKARA—Turkish participation in the war before the end of the summer may develop from conversations here between representatives of Turkey, Russia and Great Britain.

MUNICH BOMBED AGAIN

LONDON—One thousand American bombers attacked German communications and other objectives in the Munich area today in the second attack in two days on Germany's fourth largest city and railway bottleneck for traffic into Italy and France. On the Normandy front yesterday Allied fighter-bombers and rocket planes destroyed twenty-eight tanks and damaged sixteen more. Weather continued bad Tuesday night when mosquitos attacked industrial targets in the Ruhr Valley without loss.

ROBOTS STILL COMING

LONDON—For the second successive night no flying bombs fell on London Tuesday night but the Germans resumed their robot attacks Wednesday. Forty thousand more women and children have left the city.

NAZIS ARE SLOWING UP

SUPREME ALLIED HEADQUARTERS—Marshal Edwin Rommel's counter-attack against the Canadians and British at Caen appeared today to have spent its fury after heavy losses in some cases. The British are holding a solid line in the trans-Odon salient after a quiet night along the whole front. British field headquarters officers said that about fifty German tanks were believed knocked out or destroyed in a two-day battle up to dusk Tuesday night and virtually one entire German panzer grenadier regiment was wiped out in bitter fighting that flamed around Hill 112, Maltot and Louigny. A third of the regiment was captured alive.

RUSSIANS PLUNGING FORWARD

LONDON—The Russians plunged steadily toward East Prussia and the Baltic tonight continuing to bowl over all Nazi efforts to organize effective opposition while a German broadcast cried "The enemy are at the gates of Germany." Daugav-pils, rail centre in southern Latvia, is being rapidly outflanked from the south and advances of up to twenty miles have been registered by the Soviet force on some sections of the 250-mile front.

BIG CARNIVAL SPORT EVENT— John Collingwood Winner of Carnival Marathon; Runs Five- Mile Course in 31 Minutes

Five miles in 31 minutes. That was the distance of the Civic Centre Carnival's marathon race and that was the time that it took young John Colling-wood, the winner, to cover it last night. He trotted to the finish line at the Third Avenue gate of the Carnival grounds at 7:39, the leader of a field of 12 runners. He was running strong when he hit the finish line.
The race began at 7:08.

Second in the race was Bill Porayko, he of boxing fame.
Both are members of the Boilermakers' Athletic Club and of the Reserve Army. Floyd Gage, a United States Army man, running with the Reserve-Boilermakers' team crossed the finish line in third place.

To be strictly accurate, the course was 500 yards less than five miles as measured by Carnival officials. The route extended from the Carnival grounds on Third Avenue to McBride Street, south on McBride to Eleventh Avenue, then east on Eleventh Avenue to the new armories. The return was made along the same course.

The runners were divided into two teams, one team being claimed jointly by the Reserve Regiment and the Boilermakers, which included Gage, of the U.S.
Army, and the other put in the field by the Navy.

Navy man Harry Curtis came in fourth, the only Navy runner to cross the line among the first six. Two of the Navy team dropped out on the return trip and crossed the finish line in an automobile.

EXAMPLE OF TEAM WORK

Winner John Collingwood, who said that he had done considerable training in the past three weeks, told the Daily News that he had matched his winning time in the final stages of his training. He and Bill Porayko ran companion-ably in the lead until they reached the post office, then Collingwood put on an extra drive which sent him across the line a clear hundred yards ahead of Porayko.

Collingwood received an individual prize of $25, as well as a portion of the $100 prize to be divided among members of the winning team.

Following is the order in which the contestants crossed the finish line: John Collingwood, Bill Porayko, Floyd Gage, Harry Curtis (Navy), E. S. Roper (Reserve), Emil Porayko (Reserve), Ray Rann (Navy), Fred Falkner

Faure, secretary of the fund raising drive, revealed to the committee in charge at a meeting last night in the city council chamber.

However, since only part of the city has been canvassed, the campaign will remain open until the $5,000 figure has been reached. This is well in sight, the committee feels certain. The campaign was due to close on July 8.

Even after the fund campaign is closed, the committee will remain active, functioning in an advisory capacity on plans, the committee decided.

There was a full attendance of committee members at the meeting.

(Reserve), Harry Coppin (Navy), and Don Mason, (Navy).

Clearing Out Japs

Enemy Being Dispersed Both in Northeastern India and Burma

KANDY, July 12 (CP)—British troops in pursuit of the Japanese pushed on from Ukhral today, reaching Ongshim, nine miles to the southeast. The advance followed final dispersal of enemy forces threatening Kohima and Impahli Plain of northeast India.

In Burma organized enemy resistance was cleared from the Kamaing-Mogaung road by Chinese forces. One force of Chinese moving down the road from Ka-maing contacted another moving up from Mogaung, seven miles from the latter city, and the Chinese moved to Pyindaw, eight miles west of Mogaung.

More Tanks Are Needed

OTTAWA, July 12—Canada is expected to participate in the urgent invasion demand for tanks.
It is understood that Montreal Locomotive—Canada's big tank arsenal—has received a substantial initial order to modernize and rehabilitate a large number of U.S. tanks in order to speed the flow of this type of armament to Europe.

One of the most dramatic production changes in the entire war program has been the sudden imperative call from the invasion beachhead for more tanks.
These are needed, according to Washington reports, to fill gaps by a loss ratio three times that which the strategists had anticipated.

CHANGE QUICKER THAN EXPECTED

While it was known that invasion experience was likely to cause important changes in the production pattern, it was not expected that the changes would come so quickly. According to Washington advices, three major supply facts came back from the beachhead within a very short time after the invasion was under way. These three were:

1. The need for a greater flow of tanks.
2. The need for maintaining, at present high rates, the production of heavy artillery and heavy shells to accompany the artillery.
3. The pressing need for additional heavy trucks.

So far, only the tank program change has had any important repercussions in Canada.

This country does not manufacture heavy trucks. So far as heavy artillery shells are concerned, Canada is already engaged in a country-wide speedup program to supply a heavy order which came through some months ago. It is possible that further orders for artillery and guns may be placed after there has been further chance to see how the offensive develops.

BIG FIGHT PROCEEDING

SHAFF, July 12—There is exceptionally heavy fighting southwest of Caen between British and Canadians on the one side and the Nazis on the other. The battle is between the Odon and Orne Rivers. Northwest of Caen a bitter battle is also on, the British having opened a new attack.

The Germans have also mas-sed in strength on Cherbourg Peninsula and are engaged in a heavy tank battle with the Americans.

Mosquito Lost In Berlin Raid

LONDON, July 12 (CP)—One Mosquito bomber was lost in the Royal Air Force raid on Berlin Monday night. This was the same night that two thousand American bombers attacked Munich.

TO KEEP FIT MEN

Minister of National Defence Still Expresses Confidence in Voluntary Recruiting

OTTAWA, July 12 (CP)—Hon.
J. L. Ralston, minister of national defence, made it clear to Parliament that there was no intention of releasing fit men from the army while great battles were in prospect. He also affirmed confidence in the system of voluntary recruiting for overseas service.

The minister quoted figures to show recent speed-up in recruiting and the disposition troops who were not "sitting around doing nothing" but were engaged in essential tasks.

The minister said there were enough voluntary reinforcements on hand to meet requirements of overseas forces to the end of the calendar year.

Allied Bombing Is Far and Wide

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NEW GUINEA, July 12 (CP)—It is reported today that heavy Allied bombers struck at Sarong on the tip of Netherlands New Guinea in addition to ranging far to the north to hit important Japanese island bases at Palau and Yap.

(By Dorothy Garbutt)

Mrs. Morin has received a letter from Bob Terry who used to be with the Scotties here back in 1941. He and Woody decorated the Presbyterian Church, remember? Well Bob's been in the invasion and tells us all about it. He says:

"Just a few lines to say 'hello' to you all and the folks up in Rupert and also to send you my new address for a little while. Yes, I got a blighty on the big invasion but not serious glad to say. A sniper got my two fingers on my left hand, just the tips. I had an operation on them the other day. But so far the doctor has not told me how much he had to take off. Well my company of the Scottish had the honor of being the first company to make the assault on the beach. Everything was fine until we blew the wire and then all hell broke loose. One of the boys laying at my heels got wounded between us. I walked away without a scratch as we moved forward under a very heavy fire by the enemy. Another one came over the two feet away and got the other fellow on my left and once more I was lucky. A few hours later I was shooting at a sniper and just fired when I was hit by another sniper off to the side. If I had not been holding and firing my rifle at the time I would not be able to tell this tale today. They say it was a surprise but Jerry seemed well prepared for it. He didn't know the day but he was sure well fixed in there. I managed to keep going for the rest of the day. I took stretcher bearers out after I had my wounds dressed and believe me they have a job because Jerry will shoot anybody even though he does carry a Red Cross flag. He's a tough guy while you're a long way off but get close and his hands go up and he starts to yell at the top of his voice: 'Kamerad.' I got a few souvenirs and, believe it or not, one of the Jerries I got had a British made watch on his wrist and also Sweet Cap cigarettes in his cigarette case. I guess he got them from prisoners. But he won't need them anymore. Well I hope it won't be long now before it's all over. I still hope to get another chance at him again as I still have some scores to settle with those over here has been pretty good guys personally. Well, weather these days and, of course, Jerry's planes are coming over all the time. But, as usual, nobody takes any notice of them. Well I guess I'll close, hoping this finds you all in the best of spirits. Say hello to all my friends in Rupert for me and say I'm doing fine. Write soon. All the mail is hay-wire over here so it may be a long time before I get your letters. Cheerio, as always—Bob."

Have a Coca-Cola—Tell us all about it

... or a friendly way to greet an ace pilot

There's a thrill connected with showing a trophy from a Nazi plane. And along with renewal of home ties comes the revival of an old custom. Have a "Coke", says the proud father, and the family reunion is complete over frosty Coca-Cola. From the fighting fronts to the home fireside, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes—the symbol that helps bring folks closer together.

"FIGHTING GASOLINE"

... where it comes from... and where it goes!

THERE are three basic reasons why a real and critical shortage of gasoline exists in Canada today:

- (1) The insatiable demands of modern war.
- (2) The inadequacy of existing supply for both military and civilian needs and the difficulty of discovering and developing new sources of supply — in time.
- (3) The grave shortage of oil transportation facilities.

Petroleum needs of the forces in this war are 80 times greater than in the last war. It is four or five times as difficult and costly to find new oil reserves today as it was in the pre-war period. And supplies have to be shipped vast distances, in ocean tankers compelled to travel slowly in convoy and by circuitous routes.

Look at this map. It shows how the oil resources of this hemisphere must be poured out across dangerous seas, to battle areas 4,000, 5,000, 6,000, 7,000 miles away. It shows how oil fields as far away as Colombia, Ecuador, and Peru are being pressed into service to satisfy demand. As much as 67 per cent. of the total tonnage of overseas shipping for war consists of petroleum products — more than twice the tonnage of all the men, food, planes, guns, tanks, ammunition and all such material combined!

Canada's gasoline needs add but an extra burden. We, in this country, produce only 15 per cent. of our own petroleum supplies. The rest must be shipped here from abroad. It must be taken from the common pool of the United Nations. More than 60 per cent. of it must be delivered by ocean-going tankers. Ships and men — needed to serve the fighting areas — must be risked to provide our home front gasoline.

Your ration of gasoline is an "issue" of ammunition — entrusted to you to help keep vital civilian transportation rolling. To squander it thoughtlessly, needlessly, frivolously, is to rob our fighting men.

YOUR QUESTIONS about the
GASOLINE SHORTAGE

How many miles a year are travelled by tankers bringing petroleum to Canada? ... Over 2,000,000 miles. How much longer does it take a tanker to make each trip under today's war conditions? ... Double the time—because of submarines and more circuitous routes. Why do we speak of vast distances? ... Because a delivery of gasoline or fuel oil to the Pacific war zone 7,000 miles away requires a return trip of 7,000 miles for the next load. How long does it take to build a new tanker? ... Up to eight months, depending on size.

A quarter to six IS IMPORTANT...

They know I'll be home every night at a quarter to six. If I'm delayed, they depend on me to telephone. They depend on me for a lot of things. If the day should come when I don't come home... ## "Here are 8 Ways to help make your ELECTRIC WASHER last longer!"

Says REDDY KILOWATT

1. Immediately after washing—drain tub and rinse thoroughly. Remove agitator and also rinse.
2. Remove with soft cloth or sponge any soap curd or lint that may have remained. Hard water deposits may be removed with vinegar water on cloth.
3. Take particular care of rubber wringer rolls—wipe dry and release pressure on rolls when not in use. Make sure no grease is left on rolls.
4. Leave lid off tub until thoroughly dry, then protect washer from dirt and dust with an overall covering.
5. Never let connecting electric cord lie on floor. After using wipe dry, coil carefully on hooks provided. Tape any worn insulation temporarily until new cord is secured.
6. Follow manufacturer's lubricating instructions to prevent wear.
7. Avoid running washer longer than necessary—7 to 12 minutes is usually enough.
8. Do not overload washer. It increases Electric consumption, increases wear on clothes and decreases efficiency.

Under government restrictions, your Electric washer has become extremely valuable property, demanding the best care available. Electric washers help to improve health and conserve strength, time and money.

FARM GOODS ARE NEEDED

Britain Likely to Remain Important Market for Dominion's Output

LONDON, July 12 — Despite the wartime increase in British farm production Britain will remain an important market for Canadian farm products after the war. This assurance comes from high officials of the National Farmers' Union, the body which speaks for the farmers.

British agriculture does not expect to be able to feed the people of Britain although it hopes to do much better than it did before the war. It hopes also that the British people will eat a lot more and a lot better and so the assumption upon which planners are working is that Britain will need to import more food after than before the war as well as produce more.

The chief trend in wartime production has been increased acreage in wheat and potatoes. This has been accompanied by increased milk production and decreased hog, beef and egg production.

Informed quarters expect British wheat production to drop back to the point where wheat is grown on good wheat lands which can compete with the Canadian prairies. They expect milk production to increase further and bacon and beef production to return to about pre-war levels. The conclusion to be drawn, they say, is that Canadian wheat will be wanted and probably many other farm products from Canada.

Golden rule when talking about military matters where you may be overheard: "Think twice before you say anything, then keep your mouth shut."

AGRICULTURAL DISPLAY AND FLOWER SHOW

will be held in the former Post Office Building adjoining the Carnival Grounds on 2nd Avenue. Entries must be placed before 12 noon, Thursday. Prizes will be awarded the winners from the Carnival stage at 7:30 when the Show will be open to the public. Exhibitors must not remove their exhibits before 10 p.m. Friday.

Street Car Girls Keep Up Service

Women Drivers and Conductors Do Efficient Job in Toronto

TORONTO, July 12 (C) — For almost a year now some 47 women have been driving Toronto's street cars and the public, officials of the Toronto Transportation Commission and even male motormen still on the job have to admit the girls are doing all right.

The public has paid the compliment of taking them for granted—a sure sign that they are handling their jobs efficiently. Officials say the way feminine workers handle in many cases the duties of both motormen and conductors and the way they keep the cars rolling with Toronto's rush-hour crowds leaves little to be desired.

That the T.T.C. is pleased is shown by the fact the women are paid as much as their men counterparts. "They earn it—they do the same work and just as good a job as the men," was the official comment.

Besides the 47 women drivers now handling Toronto cars, there are 12 more in training, also employed are 53 women conductors and 50 bus drivers. The company's garage department employs 28 women as bus cleaners, 16 others as laborers and four "handywomen" who take care of maintenance and repair of buses.

Other recent feminine additions to the T.T.C. staff are 26 women guides who sell tickets rain or shine at Toronto's busy intersections. Their work has been a big help in relieving congestion on street cars.

A total of 581 of the pre-war male staff of the T.T.C. has enlisted but company officials say employment of women has enabled them to maintain an efficient service in Canada's second largest city.

Let's be willing to sacrifice some part of our proverbial 100 per cent of free speech to assure our future 100 per cent of freedom. Remember Security!

REALISTIC, FANTASTIC

Spencer Tracy and Irene Dunne Featured in "A Guy Named Joe"

Spencer Tracy and Irene Dunne, two of the screen's most popular and talented stars, head the cast of "A Guy Named Joe," picture combining realism and fantasy, which is the feature for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week at the Capitol Theatre.

It is an Air Force picture in which both Tracy and Miss Dunne appear as pilots—Tracy a foolhardy daredevil and Miss Dunne an adorable Perry Command flier who loves him. She begs him to return to the United States with her as an instructor and he accedes but in a last reckless fling he is killed bombing an enemy carrier. Then he finds himself in "pilot's heaven" and it is here that the fantasy begins. Lionel Barrymore plays the part of the "General" from whom he learns that fliers never lie. The story takes a strange turn with a romance between Van Johnson, a young flier for whom Tracy is the unseen mentor, and Miss Dunne. A thrilling climax brings the picture to a happy ending.
