Armed With Ample Money
Then one day last spring he took time out for that long-awaited visit. With $40,000 in Chinese currency jammed into every pocket, only a fur flying jacket disguising his American-style khaki uniform, and unable to speak a word of Central Chinese, he started for China.

He flew from Kuming to Chungking and then to Kweilin. From there he went by rail to a coastal river, floated down the river for six days in a junk, then by sampan for a day until he got close to the Japanese lines.

"I couldn't speak the dialect, and no interpreter was willing to make the trip with me, so I had to do it alone most of the way," the soft-spoken Chinese related. "Finally, with some of the $40,000 I had with me, I managed with sign language to get some coolies to carry me in a sedan chair through the Jap lines. Then I walked through rice fields and over rocky trails for several days. In one village I got hold of a bicycle and rode the rest of the way to the village where my mother and sister were.

"As I rode into the village, I saw this girl on the street and I recognized my sister, Bernice.
She took me home. No, there wasn't any joyous scene or anything like that. As a matter of fact, I was amazed at the unconcerned way the meeting between my mother and I took place. All she said was 'this must be Albert. Come in and have some tea.'"

Were Caught
In China
Capt. Mah, his mother and sister, had gone to China from Prince Rupert 10 years before when Mr. Mah died. Capt. Mah returned to go to school in the U.S. but the war trapped his mother and sister in China. Then came the Japs and years of hardship.

Famine had killed off 40 percent of the villagers in which Capt. Mah's mother lived. Most of the people there depended on remittances from overseas and, when these stopped with the war, things got really tough.

"An example of this," Capt.
Mah tells, "is the fact that my little mother, who wouldn't harm a soul, and never knew what a gun was before, now has a long-barrelled .44 under her pillow for protection. She told me the people are so desperate they will do anything for money and food. Murder

ALLIED BRAIN "TRUST TRUST" MEETS ON WESTERN FRONT—These six men make up one large headache for the Nazi. They are the brain trust of the Allied forces now fighting their way into Germany on the road to Berlin. This picture was taken recently when these British, Canadian, and American commanders met in Holland to confer decorations on senior officers. They are, front row, left to right: Field Marshal Montgomery; General Eisenhower; Lieut-General Omar Bradley, who read the citations, and back row, left to right: General H. D. G. Crerar; Lieut-General William H. Simpson and Lieut-General Sir Miles C. Dempsey. At this meeting, General Crerar was decorated with the American Legion of Merit by General Eisenhower. War News Highlights

Germany Pummelled Again

LONDON—German war industry underwent another pummeling at the hands of the R.A.F. during the night. A powerful force of heavy R.A.F. bombers struck at oil plants and other targets in western Germany. While the Lancasters and Halifaxes concentrated in the west, fleets of speedy Mosquito bombers ripped into Berlin for the twenty-ninth consecutive night attack. The two major targets of the night bombers were the oil plants at Bothem and Hemmingstadt. Hemmingstadt was a target for more than five thousand Allied planes which were out during the day in widespread attacks all over German-held territory. Canadian Typhoon fighter bombers made six cuts in rail lines north of Coesfeld yesterday, and another four west of Fulmen.

More Russian Gains

MOSCOW—Russian troops have scored gains of up to five miles to compress the German pocket in East Prussia to less than sixty square miles. They have seized the stronghold of Braunsberg, and are within two miles of the Nazi fortress of Heiligenbeil. More than nine thousand German troops have been knocked out of action in one day's fighting in this sector. Other Soviet forces have smashed the German bridgehead on the east bank of the Oder opposite Stettin. Altdamm, the last outpost before Stettin, now is in Russian hands. The Nazis tell of a Russian drive into Czechoslovakia, but Moscow has remained silent on that area. The bitter street-by-street fight for Breslau goes on.

On Philippine Islands

MANILA—American troops in the Philippines have crashed into the capital city of Panay Island—Hilo. The Japanese have set fires in the city which has a population of 90,000 in an obvious effort to burn it out the way they destroyed Manila.

BULL DOG OF THE EMPIRE—Prime Minister Churchill, as he looked when he visited a Scottish armoured unit fighting with the First Canadian Army.

CANUCK PLANE LOST IN SOUTH

R.C.A.F. Machine Missing Between El Paso and Sacramento

EL PASO, Texas, March 21 (CP)—An R.C.A.F. air transport command C-47 plane has been missing on a flight from El Paso to Sacramento, California, since March 13.

The lost plane's home base is Montreal. It took off from the El Paso municipal airport on the morning of the thirteenth and last reported its position as being over Riverside, California.

Aboard the plane were four members of the R.C.A.F. and one passenger, a United States Army Air Force cadet.

Canada Must Participate

Opposition Leaders Agree With Prime Minister Regarding International Relations

OTTAWA, March 21 (CP)—Prime Minister King opened debate in the House of Commons yesterday. The Prime Minister told the House that, next to winning the war, the supreme end to be achieved is the winning of the peace. Mr. King urged full participation by Canada in the San Francisco Security Conference. He said, if another Great War should break out in twenty or thirty years, it is certain that Canada would not escape its fury. He pointed to the robot bomb as an example of a weapon that makes it impossible for any country to claim immunity from sudden aggression.

Two Opposition sources in the House of Commons supported the plan to have Canada participate in the establishment of a World Security Organization. The support came from C.C.F. Leader M. J. Coldwell and the Progressive—Conservative member for York-Sudbury, R. B. Hanson.

The Independent member for Laval-Two Mountains, Liguori Lacombe, voiced the first opposition to the government's plan to send a delegation to the forthcoming San Francisco conference.

American Armies Take Saarbruecken and Zweibruecken Huge Bag of Prisoners

ANOTHER OFFENSIVE—ENTER LUDWIGSHAFEN

LONDON, March 21 (CP)—Allied forces started a new offensive from the Remagen bridgehead today, advancing 3 1/2 miles into open tank country to within six miles of the Ruhr Basin. United States troops entered Ludwigshafen today and are five miles from Mannheim. Other Allied forces are standing opposite Duisberg and Duesseldorf. The Saar debacle appears likely to cause Hitler 100,000 casualties.

PARIS, March 21 (CP)—The Saarland has been wrested from the Germans by the fast-moving drive of two American armies. The Third and the Seventh have formed a great arc around the Saar by a junction twelve miles west of Kaiserslautern. The Seventh occupied the Saar's two principal cities—Saarbruecken and Zweibruecken.

The Third Army dashed to the Rhine at another point, and captured the city of Worms between Mains and Mannheim.

The eight-day drive has all but crushed remnants of two German armies which managed to escape a trap set at the Falaise Gap in France.

American Army troops had driven two-and-one-half miles east of the Cologne-Frankfurt highway and captured a German airfield southeast of Eudenberg, front line dispatches said yesterday.

The American Third Army had completely flanked both the Siegfried Line and the secondary Hunsbrueck switch line in the Saar and Palatinate, moving swiftly to effect juncture with the Seventh Army somewhere near the Rhine. In seven days the Third Army has inflicted at least 45,000 casualties on the original 80,000 Germans in the Rhine-Moselle-Saar pocket. Prisoners alone have totalled 20,000.

The Third Army crashed to within four miles of the major road centre of Kaiserslautern and captured Alzey, 23 miles from Mannheim and Ludwigshafen.

The Third Army captured 8355 prisoners Monday for a record day's take by any Allied Army in the west. One division alone took over 6700.

Allied planes were so thick over the front yesterday that they had to queue up for attacks on the Germans streaming along the super-highway from Kaiserslautern to the Rhine.

PLANNING FOR VICTORY LOAN

WINNIPEG, Man., March 21—Plans for the Eighth Victory Loan campaign of the western region of the Canadian National Railways were laid at a meeting of the regional war loan committee in Winnipeg yesterday with representatives from British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. Subjects discussed included internal sales organization, an agenda for district meetings, prospectus and application forms and literature.

BREADNER MADE CHIEF MARSHAL

OTTAWA, March 21 (CP)—When Air Marshal L. S. Breadner retires from his overseas command April 1, he will be given the rank of Air Chief Marshal. He is believed to be the first Canadian to hold this high rank. In making the announcement, Air Minister Gibson declared that, contrary to some reports, there has been no friction between himself and Marshal Breadner or between members of the Air Staff and the Marshal.

Nipponese Lose Almost Five Hundred Planes in Frantic Effort to Save Fleet

HEAVY ATTACKS TODAY
LONDON, March 21 (CP)—A force of two thousand American bombers and fighters attacked nine air fields in northwestern Germany and a tank factory at Plauen, ten miles from the Czechoslovakian border while another large fleet of British planes blasted a large oil refinery at Bremen today. Berlin said that American bombers from Italy were over Austria continuing blows which yesterday knocked out all through railway lines between Vienna and Munich. One Canadian bomber was missing from overnight raids which struck enemy oil refineries and Berlin.

LONDON, March 21 (CP)—Berlin was bombed for the twenty-ninth straight night after British heavy bombers attacked Germany's largest freight yards at Hamm and another railway junction at Recklinghausen on the northern fringe of the Ruhr in continuing devastation of the enemy's communications system yesterday.

Hundreds of other planes raked enemy positions close to the front, resuming a pounding which cost the Germans nearly 5,000 vehicles on Monday.

American planes flew more than 1,000 sorties before noon Tuesday.

Good Premier, Good Government

John Hart, business man in politics, budgeteer extraordinary, purposeful in his policies, shrewd in his knowledge of men and life, is the nearest thing to a senior statesman to be seen anywhere in provincial politics in Canada of our times, says Western Business.

Not many business men make good in politics. Not many politicians make good finance ministers. Not many finance ministers invariably have good results to report. And no finance ministers at all, excepting Honorable John Hart of British Columbia, can say they've brought down nineteen annual budgets.

The fact that John Hart is premier of British Columbia is almost incidental to his being minister of finance. He had been in the house so long, he had handled his department so well, he was so universally trusted that when the coalition's top job went looking for an occupant in 1941, John Hart's name was so far ahead on the list that Abou-Ben Adhem wouldn't have had a chance.

Many an opposition leader or financial expert of the speaker's left has tried to analyze a Hart budget and make political capital by discovering legerdemain. Often they've been mortally certain that the whole picture was not exactly so good as it was claimed to be by the cheerful, quick-witted John Hart. But the efforts have invariably ended in the discomfort of the critic, for the Hart budgets have stood the test of time and the year's end so often found the minister reporting the results a little better than he had anticipated that a man's assignment to the task of slamming the budget became something to be dreaded.

The Hart method—one shouldn't call it technique, for that implies that it is studied, and Hart is naturally friendly and courteous—is to disarm his critics with evidence of genuine interest in them as human beings and in what they are doing or where they're trying to go. It's impossible to get bitter with a man like that.

Press gallery men notice that in the parliament building cafeteria, at session time, the premier is as likely as not to drop into a seat with some C.C. Effers and lunch amiably with them, with never a suggestion that he might think they were a parcel of will-o'-the-wisp hunters. They like him. And yet they know that at this session of the house John Hart and his government have put it all over them, and that the word goes around British Columbia that this is the best government—this coalition of Liberals and Conservatives—that the province has ever had.

Talking of Dogs and Cats . . .

Since the war brought us our new prosperity and our greater population we have come to experience many types of nocturnal disturbances in addition to the old noises of the early morning canines carrying on their responsive howls and barks and the old tom cat calling with his pleading wail to tabby who in turn spits out her affection with wierd outcry.

In the old quiet days in Prince Rupert when there was nothing else to disturb our slumbers people used to write letters to the papers about the howling dogs and the yowling cats. We even used to write editorials about it once in a while.

It just occurred to us that, when the city council was talking about dogs the other night, some alderman might have said a word of sympathy for the poor folk who have to suffer the torment of the braying dog or the moaning cat. There are still some of us who think there ought to be a law against such things. It might even bring in a few dollars in revenue from citizens who do not appreciate what a nuisance their night meandering pets can be to quiet, law-abiding citizens frustrated in their wonted rendezvous with Morpheus.

for food has become a common thing.

"Some times she would hear footsteps on her roof and dogs howling. Then out would come that 44 and she would shove it aimlessly out the window, and 'boom.' Then everything would be quiet again. While I was there, some men were caught stealing turnips and the local magistrate had them beaten to death.

Japs Killed 700 Chinese

"Mother told me the Japs used to be right in the village but they had become too busy elsewhere to bother any more. They found out they couldn't subdue the villagers with patrols, so they sent over planes once to strafe the area. They killed 700 persons that way in a nearby village.

"After nine days I had to leave. Mother didn't want to come with me, but she asked me to take Bernice. So we left, coming out by another route from that I used going in. Bernice had never been on a bicycle before and kept falling off. She was getting tired and sore, so I finally managed to hire a tandem and two coolies to pedal for us. That was an expensive trip. It cost me $2,000 a day for each of those coolies. Food also cost $2,000 a day. The trip out was uneventful," Capt. Mah reported.

His trip into China wasn't, and looking back on the whole thing, the Chinese pilot realizes he did some foolhardy things. His friends warned him he was crazy to go into China with $40,000 and in uniform.

"You're just inviting robbery, and if the Japs get you, they'll shoot you sure, especially if they find out you are flying for the Chinese government and the Americans," they told him.

Is Warned by Guerrilla Leader

Feeling sorry for the starving people he met, Capt. Mah spread his money around freely in tips. Too freely, according to a Chinese guerrilla leader who cornered him in his hotel one day to give him some advice. That advice was to stop flashing his money and to stay away from the girls in the next village. They were desperate and might easily inform on him to the Japs. Mah took the advice.

At one stage of the journey, Mah had the scare of a lifetime. He ran almost smack into a Japanese sentry. Should he run and take a chance on getting away? The Jap was carrying a wicked-looking rifle and giving this stranger in uniform a quizzical look. Mah took his life in his hands, walked calmly by the sentry and, as he passed, dropped a $20 bill to the ground. The sentry stooped, looked at Mah again, then stooped to retrieve the bill. Capt. Mah rounded a bend and ran like a scared rabbit.

Mah now is on furlough for several months before returning to new duties. He arrived in Edmonton after flying from Calcutta to Casablanca in easy stages, then by ship to New York. He visited his sister, Mrs. Daisy Lee, in Toronto before coming west.

Last time he was in Edmonton was when he was a civilian instructor at No. 2 A.O.S. back in 1941. He held his commercial pilot's license in the United States before the war. He says he never knew what flying was until he got on the run from India to China across the Himalayas. The "Hump" is described by the Flying Tigers as being worse than combat, Capt. Mah said.

Cedris Mah, also of the China National Air corporation, into flying the "Hump" in India just when ready to come home. "I showed him the 'Hump' and his work," Capt. Mah said.

REGISTRATION FOR FAMILY ALLOWANCES

Starts on MARCH 22nd, 1945

TO OBTAIN THESE ALLOWANCES
every child under 16
must be registered

PARENTS: Through the mail, shortly after March 22nd, all families will receive a Family Allowances Registration Form. Fill in this form as soon as it is received and mail it back in the envelope in which it came. Please do this promptly—it is in the interests of your children.

The form you will receive is very simple. There are only seven questions and only a few minutes need be required to complete the form, but be sure to answer every question.

Family Allowances are being provided to assist parents in the raising of their children. This monthly allowance is to be used for health protection, for doctors, dentists and nurses; to provide better food, adequate clothing and shelter, and to help equalize opportunities for all children.

INCOME TAX: No one will benefit from both Family Allowances and a full income tax deduction for their children. Parents have the choice of applying for their Family Allowances or not claiming the allowance and claiming the full deduction for their children under Income Tax. If they claim the Family Allowance, the amount of deduction from tax allowed for children under the Income Tax Act will be reduced by the amount of any Family Allowance received. Anyone who is uncertain whether or not he or she will benefit from Family Allowances more than from Tax Deduction should register for the Family Allowance and in this way be on the safe side. Incomes may change during the course of a year.

UNITY BEGINS WITH "U"

We all realize, now, that we must have unity between the United Nations if we are to win this war and prevent another.

But do we realize that we cannot have unity between the nations without unity within them?

Unity does not mean that we must all think alike. It does mean that we must respect the thoughts and rights of others, and that we must be prepared to stick together.

Unity, like charity, begins at home!

What you and I say over the back fence multiplied by what all Canadians like us are saying—that is public opinion.

Are we personally building or breaking down unity? Do we like to pick holes in our fellow citizens who go to different churches, belong to different races, believe in different political creeds?

Do we like to repeat funny (but malicious) stories about the British, the Americans, the Russians and our other allies?

Ottawa, Washington, London, Moscow cannot make us united unless we truly want to be. Nations are groups of people—you and me multiplied. We are a democracy. It's up to us. Unity begins with "U."

PORT SIMPSON, March 21 (Special to the Daily News)—The village of Port Simpson has set its sights on a new town hall and although preliminary planning has just begun, it is likely that the building will become a reality in the near future.

When within the cheerless confines of enemy prison camps our men break forth and sing of home... it may well be due to the fires of hope kept burning by the Red Cross.

Millions of Red Cross food parcels reached our boys in captivity last year!

But the 900,000 members of the Junior Red Cross have determined that Canadian prisoners shall not live by bread alone. They shall have music!

Accordingly thousands of musical instruments have passed enemy guards and barbed wire to inspire songs in the night.

Besides this work for prisoners, the Junior Red Cross war effort has also sent out millions of knitted articles and blankets to the fighting forces; thousands of splints for broken limbs; mobile kitchens, canteens and ambulances; maintenance of 14 war nurseries in Britain; relief for the war-stricken children of China, Greece, Russia, Poland and France.

Is any service more deserving of your help? Dig deep! Give generously to the Red Cross.

BOY WHO MADE GOOD IN AIR FORCE, HOME; KENNEY BUSINESS IS SOLD

Flight Lieutenant Bill Cooper, accompanied by his wife, arrived in Terrace on Sunday night's train. Bill is a local boy, was brought up in Terrace and received his education here. He has made good progress since joining the airforce. In June, 1941, he enlisted as a student pilot at Vancouver and trained at Brandon, Calgary, Edmonton and Boundary Bay. Bill graduated as a Pilot Officer at Claresholm, Alberta, in July 1942. He completed his Flying Instructor's course at Vulcan, Alberta, in October, 1942. A week later, he commenced his duties as Flying Instructor at Number Four Service Flying Training School in Saskatoon. Here he remained until October, 1944 when he became a Flight Lieutenant. In March of this year, he was posted to the R.C.A.F. Aircrew Reserve. On March 7, Flight Lieutenant Cooper and his wife left Saskatoon and drove to Hazelton by way of Swift Current, Lethbridge, Cranbrook, Spokane, Seattle, Vancouver and Prince George. The trip took eleven days altogether and ended at Hazelton rather than at Terrace owing to the fact that the new road has not been open. Flight Lieutenant Cooper has made no definite plans for the immediate future. If at all possible, he intends to stay in the flying business after the war, preferably in Northern British Columbia.

The members of St. Matthew's Junior Women's Auxiliary, under the guidance of Miss Dorothy Hills, were hostesses to a number of their friends at a party held in the Anglican Church Hall on Saturday evening. HOUSTON MAN FIRE VICTIM

Herbert Silverthorne Fatally Burned When Kerosene Explodes

SMITHERS, March 21—Herbert Silverthorne of Houston was fatally burned there on Sunday evening when using coal oil to light a fire in the cooking stove at the home of his son, Harold H. Silverthorne.

Mr. Silverthorne who was 82 years of age was alone in the house at the time. Apparently there was some live coals in the stove and the coal oil exploded igniting the oil in the two-gallon tin which was being used. As the elderly gentleman rushed for the door with the can of burning oil it also exploded covering him with burning oil. A neighbor seeing the flames through his window rushed to the scene and met Mr. Silverthorne coming from the house. He threw himself into a snow bank and was covered with snow by Mr. Lund, the neighbor. A call was sent to Smithers immediately for a doctor and Doctor Green proceeded with all haste but the victim was very badly burned and succumbed to his injuries early Monday morning.

There was practically no damage to the dwelling.

Mr. Silverthorne was one of the earliest settlers in the Bulkley Valley, coming in some time before the building of the railway. In the early days he had the contract for carrying the mail from Hazelton to Aldermere. He is survived by his son Harold H. Silverthorne of Houston, a daughter who lives at Dawson City, and several grandchildren.

Deceased was very well known throughout the district and the family have the deepest sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement.

Tokyo Believes Many Warships Are Supporting Carrier-Borne Attack

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21 (AP)—An enemy broadcast claims that American raiding planes which have been attacking the Japanese home islands are part of a task force made of up five groups of warships with a nucleus of 15 aircraft carriers. The Japanese place the strength of the carrier aircraft at 1400 planes.

There was no immediate Allied confirmation of a third straight assault on Japan by naval aircraft. Admiral Nimitz' latest communique announced that the enemy's leading shipbuilding city of Kobe, the major naval base of Kure and installations around the inland sea were pounded Monday (Tokyo Time) by American carrier planes.

ALBERT AND McCAFFERY

MARRIED BY CANDLELIGHT

An interesting candlelight wedding took place at 7 o'clock Saturday evening in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Rev. M. B. Anderson officiating, when Miss Ellen Lewendyn, second daughter of Mrs. W. L. Goodlet of Vancouver, became the bride of Sven Jerstad, well known local boy and eldest son of Mrs. Hans Peterson, 801 Borden Street.

The bride, pretty in long white chiffon wedding dress with conventional veil and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations and rosebuds, was attended by the groom's sister, Mrs. Judith Morgan, as matron-of-honor, the latter wearing blue taffeta and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations.

The groomsmen were Hans Peterson, Jack Ritchie and Lawrence Olsen were ushers. There was suitable organ music.

Following the ceremony, one hundred guests attended a reception at the home of the groom's mother. There was a beautiful wedding cake which was duly cut by the bride. The toast to the bride was proposed by Hans Peterson and responded to by the groom. The groomsmen proposed a toast to the bridesmaid. The speeches were recorded. Delicious refreshments were served and the evening was enjoyably spent in dancing and music.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerstad will reside at 801 Borden Street. The groom is engaged in fishing here. The bride recently arrived from Vancouver.

LETTERBOX

RACIAL DISCRIMINATION

Editor, Daily News: Relative to racial discrimination by Prince Rupert restaurants, I believe that, if you can call it discrimination it is not against Chinese cooks but against white cooks. There are offhand, 25 restaurants and cafes in Prince Rupert. Twenty-two employ Chinese cooks.

As for the local Labor Progressive Club taking an active fight against racial discrimination, there are local Indian boys, fighting side by side with our own white boys. So why not help the Indians get a better deal?

The local Chinese do quite well and are able to look after themselves.

FAIR DEAL.

Prince Rupert Corps of Sea Cadets "Captain Cook" was described as "one of the smartest Sea Cadet Corps in the province" following their inspection by Captain Frederick R. Hart, R.C.N.R., senior naval staff officer, Pacific Coast, in the drill hall of H.M.C.S. Chatham last night. The boys lined up at the Court House square at 8 o'clock and marched smartly to the drill hall behind their bugle band. LADIES! Whenever your recipe calls for milk, use double-rich, creamy, Borden's Evaporated Milk. You'll be amazed at the improvement its extra creaminess makes in soups, sauces, desserts and other favorite foods. Grand in tea and coffee, too!

Borden's Evaporated Milk is concentrated from purest, finest, farm-fresh milk. Evaporation of part of milk's natural moisture only makes it richer and creamier. Retains all the nutritive value of fresh milk—with vitamin D added by irradiation.

A welcome visitor to Prince Rupert and the Red Triangle Club is Mrs. Gordon Miller, western supervisor of the YWCA War Services, who arrived this week from Edmonton and is spending a few days on an official visit. In charge of all YWCA War Service work from Winnipeg to the Pacific Coast, Mrs. Miller has her headquarters in Edmonton but spends much of her time travelling through the area. She will leave on Thursday for Vancouver.

Bingo will be played tonight in the Writing Room.

Variety was the keynote of the evening of recorded music presented last night at the music appreciation meeting. The program was arranged by Bob Fleming and was designed to suit all tastes. These informal musical evenings are for the enjoyment of all and requests for future programs are welcomed.

Cribbage was played last night in the Writing Room. These tournaments are a weekly affair and are fast becoming very popular. Winners this week were C. D. Smith and A. E. Drinkwater.

Air Force defeated 29th 9-2 in last night's Floor Hockey League fixture at the "Y". It was the sixth straight win for the airmen and no losses to give them a five-point lead over the second place Navy team. Regiment played a fine game but just didn't seem to be able to get around the R.C.A.F. defence of Court and Winger.

In the only other game played last night at the Navy Gym, Navy defeated Fortress 6-3. This game broke the second place tie between the two teams and put Navy two points ahead of Fortress. Both teams played a hard, close checking game in the first period with the score tied 1-1 at the end of the period. The Fortress had a temporary lapse during the second period and Navy slammed in five fast goals. Fortress scored twice in the last period and the whistle sounded with the Navy goal being stormed by Fortress players.

Soo Suds meet R.C.A.F. tonight at the "Y" in the Hockey League. This is a postponed game from last week. Soo Suds have a number of new reinforcements and are hoping to stop the R.C.A.F. winning streak and also lift themselves out of cellar position in the league. Referee Golding and Fraser will handle tonight's game.

CURLING IS NOW ENDED

Successful Season at Smithers Comes to Close

SMITHERS, March 21—Curling for the current season came to a close here on Sunday evening when the finals of an impromptu bonspiel were played on excellent ice, the result of several nights of fairly cold weather. The bonspiel was won by Len Evans and his rink when they defeated the Dalage rink in a closely-contested game.

At the same time the O'Neill rink, skipped by the veteran "Wiggs" O'Neill, was being defeated by the rink skipped by L. H. Kenney in the consolation contest of the same bonspiel.

The Club has had a very successful season, the biggest regret being that, when the big event of the bonspiel at which several outside rinks attended was being played, the weather was very mild and the play was made on the poorest ice that was experienced all winter.

THE CHICAGO MOTOR CLUB recently conducted a survey of motorists on this continent and came up with a set of figures which should prove interesting to the Canadian Northwest. The survey showed that 91% of the motorists of the U.S., 16% of Mexico, and 15% of Canada had already planned a post-war trip over the Alcan Highway. Though this figure represents more than 500,000 motorists, it is only a portion of the tourist traffic that will eventually be coming north. Through an efficient publicity program a large number of these tourists could be directed through Prince Rupert. So, let's get ready to lay out the Welcome mat!

THEY SHALL NOT WANT

RED CROSS LODGES

Bring Them Together

The first Red Cross Lodge was constructed twenty-five years ago by the Canadian Red Cross, adjacent to one of our military hospitals, to provide a home away from home where convalescent patients may meet socially with their relatives and friends. It has been found that these frequent, happy visits considerably aid the convalescence and rehabilitation of our wounded servicemen. To provide for the convalescent patients of this war, a Red Cross Lodge will be built where needed. New Lodges already under construction are modern, equipped with spacious lounge and games rooms, canteens, snack bars and various other comforts—with Red Cross Hostesses in attendance to see to the comfort of the men.

Some of the Lodges have the added feature of serving as hostels to provide much needed overnight accommodation for needy kin visitors, especially women and children.

Every Red Cross Lodge that is constructed for our wounded men is an expression of deep appreciation of all Canadians for those who have bravely fought and sacrificed for freedom. The need for more Red Cross Lodges is great, as more and more of our wounded are returned to Canada for convalescence. To carry on with this vitally important war work, the Red Cross calls upon every loyal Canadian for support. Let your response be immediate and generous. Help your Red Cross to meet its largest mercy task in its history.
