LONDON, March 20 (CP)—The negotiations between Britain, the United States and Sweden for use by the United Nations of the Swedish merchant fleet are nearly completed. It is understood that the fleet will be used by the Allied shipping pool. It is expected that the fleet will be used for the purpose of meeting Sweden's import and export trade, as well as being used for getting vitally needed supplies to liberated Europe.

ROAD COVERED BY ROCKSLIDE

A rockslide at Kwintsa tunnel, 45 miles east of Prince Rupert, poured down the mountainside Monday covering the Skeena River highway but leaving the adjacent railway unobstructed. Motorists, confronted by the obstruction, are reported to be driving their cars through the 1,400-foot tunnel which parallels the road in order to by-pass the slide. Railway authorities, who point out the obvious dangers of such a detour have taken steps to have it stopped. The possibility of an automobile stalling in the tunnel and being struck by a train is a major danger to motorists driving along the track to by-pass the slide, they point out. Provincial police at Terrace were despatched to the scene of the slide today to erect warning signs against use of the tunnel. Railway traffic was not affected by the slide. It is not known when the debris will be cleared from the road. J. J. Little returned Monday from a trip to Vancouver.

Western Front—Saar Battle Nearly Over

Thousands of Germans Fighting Bitterly to Escape Entrapment
PARIS, March 20 (CP)—The battle of the Saar Basin is almost over. Thousands of Germans, although their encirclement is complete, still are fighting stubbornly along the Saar River. But these enemy forces gradually are being squeezed into an ever-narrowing pocket by elements of the American Third and Seventh Armies which are racing for a juncture and were only 20 miles apart today, one report being they had actually made contact. When the two American forces meet, the Basin's capital of Saarbrücken will be sealed off as well as most of the industrial area's steel mills.

COUNCIL FRAMES DESTINY OF STRAY CANINES

Dogs came under the official scrutiny of city council last night, inspiring legislation designed to change the course of their canine free roaming lives. Council adopted a recommendation of the board of works committee that a dog pound building be constructed at a cost of not more than $200. It passed a motion authorizing Poll Tax Collector Angus Gillis to act as poundkeeper. It enacted a bylaw reducing the period which dogs must be kept in pound, before they are disposed of, from 10 days to three days. The bylaw formerly in effect provided that dogs must be held for three days during which time their captivity must be advertised. At the end of that time the dogs could be sold at auction. Any dogs which were not disposed of in that way were required to be held for 10 days before they could legally be put out of the way. The bylaw enacted last night revised the former ordinance to provide that the latter period be reduced to three days.

GOVERNMENT VALUES LOTS AT $96,000

Three lots on Third Avenue, across the street from the Post Office, owned by the federal government are valued on government books at $96,000, Alderman Robert McKay informed the city council last night. He said that he had received the information unofficially. The alderman's statement came during discussion of an offer by the government to purchase three other lots, now occupied by a Navy garage on Second Ave., for their assessed value of $3,050. Faced with the alternative of the government expropriating the three lots if council declined to sell, Alderman McKay moved that the city yield gracefully and accept the government's offer. Council adopted the motion. Alderman Hills, chairman of the finance committee, proposed that the city should attempt to trade the three lots on Second Ave. for the three government owned lots on Third Ave. "I agree with Alderman Rüdgerham's statement that, if this business of the government taking over city property continues, there will be a shortage of taxable property in the city before very long," he declared. "I have learned that the government is carrying those Third Ave. lots on its books at a value of $96,000 so it isn't likely that it would trade them for other property valued at $3,050." Alderman McKay rejoined.

CWAC Officer May Return to Ballet

HALIFAX, March 20 (CP)—Diminutive Capt. Marial Mosher, officer commanding No. 106 Depot Company, Canadian Women's Army Corps, here, has trod a variety of interesting paths in her size 3½ shoes. A former ballet dancer who had tramped with Shubert musicals in New York, she was one of the first Nova Scotians to enlist in the C. W. A. C., and later one of the first C. W. A. C. officers to go to England on a course to study with the British Auxiliary Territorial Service. While in England she was presented to Queen Elizabeth. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Mosher, (5 Bloomingdale Terrace), Halifax, she says she is considering a return to the ballet in a choreography-production capacity as a post-war plan.

TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND NAZIS BEING TIED DOWN BY NORWEGIANS

LONDON, March 20 (CP)—Norwegian patriots have tied down more than 200,000 German troops in Norway. Underground forces have destroyed railway lines serving embarkation points and in that way have prevented the movement of Nazi units from Norway to the eastern and western fronts in Europe.

FINLAND HAS GONE TO LEFT

HELSINKI, March 20 (CP)—Extreme left wing factions have gained fifty seats in Finland's parliament while conservatives and social democrats have lost heavily. The result of Sunday's election is interpreted as a rebuke to those Finnish leaders who led the country into war on Germany's side.

Himmler's Conspiracy—Plotted To Kill Hitler

Reneged When Plan Failed and Said He Was Only Trying to Get Evidence
LONDON, March 20 (CP)—The former chief of the Associated Press Bureau in Berlin, Louis P. Lochner, has gathered information indicating that the German Gestapo chief, Heinrich Himmler, was a member of the group which attempted to overthrow Hitler on July 20 of last year. Lochner has been given this information by a man who now is a fugitive from German authority because he was implicated in the attempt on the Nazi leader's life. This informant, a man Lochner has known for years, says Himmler reneged when the plot failed to take Hitler's life. The Gestapo head swore he pretended to play along with the plotters just to get evidence.

No Respite For Berlin

Twenty-Eighth Straight Nocturnal Attack On Reich Capital—Industries Hit
LONDON, March 20 (CP)—The German radio says fast Allied bombers — probably R.A.F. Mosquito planes — struck at Berlin for the twenty-eighth straight nocturnal attack. A blackout of the entire German radio network for two hours after midnight also indicated that other R.A.F. bombers were hitting the Reich. Today American flying fortresses and Liberators attacked Hamburg and other targets. Huge fleets of Allied warplanes yesterday battered war plants deep inside Germany against aroused Luftwaffe opposition.

COUNCIL GRANTS OLIVER APPEAL

Allowed Right to Drive Taxi In City After Two Previous Refusals
City council, sitting in special session as Court of Appeal last night, reversed a decision rendered on two former occasions and decided to grant Thomas Murray Oliver the right to receive a permit to drive a taxi in the city. Oliver, a longshoreman, lost his permit in March, 1943, following his conviction in police court on a charge of keeping liquor for sale. His permit was withdrawn by provincial police Inspector Ernest Gammon whose subsequent refusal to issue another permit was twice upheld by city council. The appeal was granted in the face of an opinion by Inspector Gammon that council's original decision was final and, therefore, could not be reversed. "It seems to me that the issue here is whether I have the authority to issue this man a permit after one has already been cancelled," the police officer declared. "I haven't the authority and I doubt if this council has the authority under the Motor Vehicles Act to reverse its former decision." T. W. Brown, counsel for Oliver, presented testimony by Dr. J. J. Gibson that Oliver was under treatment for a leg ailment and foot injuries and was incapable of carrying on heavy stovering work. Oliver holds a grade "A" chauffeur's status. Defence counsel challenged the police inspector's interpretation of the clause of the act affecting the decision. "That phrase 'the appeal shall be final' means that the appeal simply cannot be carried to a higher court. It does not mean that one decision by this court ends the whole business — it merely ends that particular appeal."

Housing Comes in for Criticism in Session of Public Works Committee

OTTAWA, March 20 (CP)—Estimates for the public works department, railway department, and municipal affairs were passed yesterday in the House of Commons. The session in the afternoon began with a public works committee hearing on the estimates while in the afternoon session discussion was on the estimates of mining. Herbert Anscomb, minister of public works, piloted the bills through the House. The public works department estimates totalled $3,571,083 compared with $3,404,500 last year. A. Shepherd, C.C.F., urged abolition of tolls on the Pattullo-Hells Gate bridges. Mr. Anscomb said that tolls on the Hells Gate bridge went back into improvements and Pattullo tolls were inadequate to cover debt charges.

Service Deferred 56,000

OTTAWA, March 20 (CP)—The Service Bureau paid compensation costs for 56,055 Canadian workers transferred to employment in the past three months by the Department of Labor yesterday. The figures cover cases only where the Service paid the full cost. In addition, a large number of cases were moved at the expense of employees themselves.

Election In Early Summer . . .

"Shortly after the Parliamentary term expires April 17" which was given as the time for the general election in the Speech from the Throne, read at the opening of Parliament in Ottawa yesterday, will be taken to mean early summer since the time required between the issuance of the election writ and the actual date of polling will extend the possible date that long. In any case we are assured now that, war or no war, the election is not to be much further delayed.

It might have been desirable in some ways to have been able to defer the election campaign until at least the end of the European phase of the war, early victory in which seems assured, was over. However, the political situation, mainly due to the activities of the opposition, has become such that it is necessary to clear the atmosphere. The government, therefore, whatever its own prospects for a return to office may be, is amply justified in bringing on the campaign.

Hitler's Latest Duty . . .

There have been numerous rumors of the activities the past little while of the doomed Adolf Hitler. The latest that he is endeavouring to provide himself with an heir to carry on the battle in the next generation has as much claim to fact as any of the others, we suppose. It somehow or other may not seem to fit in with what we might have been expecting the great Fuehrer to be doing at this hour of his Reich's mortal crisis. But any strange thing from Hitler now may not be unexpected. He may be able to produce an heir but some one else will decide whether the heir carries on Hitlerism of the brand we are engaged in exterminating.

Outlook For Post-war . . .

Business may look forward to an era of record peacetime sales, profits and dividends in the post-war, is the considered opinion of one of the oldest investment advisory organizations. Re-conversion problems will be serious, but the business decline resulting will not snowball into a major depression according to its predictions. The organization believes it will be stopped and turned around by a number of recovery forces that will operate automatically such as:

1. Consumer buying to fill deferred wants;
2. Purchases by government and municipalities;
3. Accumulation of "peace inventories" by industrial corporations, and expansion of plant facilities for civilian production;
4. Formation of new enterprises;
5. Continued farm prosperity;
6. Revival of building activity;
7. Heavy exports.
8. And the exploitation of new products.

Combined, these factors are estimated to go a long way toward taking up the slack created by the prospective wide drop in government spending.

Courtesy in Business . . .

"The other lump is going to the boys, Sir," is the way a waiter on one train sweetened his explanation of the restriction on sugar. "Don't you know there's a war on?" was what another snapped out when meekly asked if a second pat of butter was available. Of course, the reaction to these replies would be a lasting impression. Even under the pressure of an all-out war effort which has been affecting everyone who waits on the public in any way, many business people are not overlooking the importance of continuing to extend courtesy to their customers even when they have been racked to provide them with goods and services. They realize that a wartime policy of courtesy and pleasantries will pay off in post-war dividends just as discourtesy and impatience at this time will mean loss of patronage and deficits after the war is over and it will be necessary to cultivate a clientele again. Some business people are already oiling their cash registers with courtesy.

TERRACE BOARD SCORES NEEDLESS BAKERY IMPORTS

TERRACE, March 20—A protest against the alleged inability of G. N. MacInnes, Terrace baker to get sufficient rationed goods to operate his bakery is being lodged with the Ration Administrator by the Terrace and District Board of Trade. Mr. MacInnes complained to the Board at a recent meeting that he was not allowed sufficient materials particularly sugar, on grounds that the administrator desired Terrace merchants to continue buying bakery products from Vancouver, Prince George and Edmonton, as they did before he opened his business. The complaint was lodged by George McAdams, who urged that the Board take action in behalf of a new business that is experiencing difficulty in increasing its volume of production.

Mail All Important

Mail is munitions of war, just as essential as tanks, guns and airplanes. Mrs. E. G. Weeks of Ottawa told the local Women's Canadian Club last evening in speaking on the subject of "The Fighting Man and His Mail." After describing graphically what mail meant in keeping up the spirits and morale of the men who were fighting overseas, Mrs. Weeks exhorted her listeners to keep writing and sending parcels until every Canadian fighting man was back home again. The importance of making the mail cheerful and the parcels secure and, above all, careful direction was emphasized by Mrs. Weeks. She advocated, as she has been doing elsewhere, the formation of a local volunteer overseas mail committee to encourage the sending of mail of better quality and greater quantity to the men overseas. Mrs. Weeks explained that she had been inspired to take up the campaign on behalf of the fighting man and his mail by having herself observed the deplorably great quantity of mail which failed to reach the men to whom it was destined because of wrong addressing and improper wrapping. The only link which the service man had with home was his mail. The Post Office department was doing a magnificent job, knowing what his letters and parcels meant to the fighting man. There were unavoidable delays and losses but the mailing public itself was responsible for many delays and losses which might with more thought and care be avoided.

"A vast quantity of mail fails to reach the men for whom it is intended owing to misdirection and it is up to the leaders in each community to do something about it," declared Mrs. Weeks, suggesting that the Canadian Clubs might take the lead in the better mail for the fighting man movement. Mrs. Weeks told of having seen 18,000 parcels of Christmas mail failing of delivery on account of faulty addressing and other avoidable causes. She spoke of some of the commodities which were sent in the mail such as perishable food commodities, syrups, jam, fruit, etc. which not only did not travel themselves but damaged other mail as well. "Use your head as well as your heart when sending mail overseas," she advised, emphasizing the importance of careful, solid packing and effective and accurate addressing. The men overseas needed mail from friends as well as fam-multiply by millions!

You've often watched the teller stamp your cheque. Every day, in every branch of every bank in Canada, cheques are being scrutinized, stamped and recorded. During the war years, this daily flow of cheques through your bank has swollen to a torrent. Deposit accounts are more numerous and active than ever before. This increase reflects the tremendous activity of Canadian life and business. Production, purchases and payrolls have all reached record levels.

In addition, three-quarters of a million men and women in the armed services must get their pay, and their dependents receive allowances regularly.

The handling of this wartime volume of cheques is quite apart from numerous special services which the banks have undertaken—the delivery of millions of Victory Bonds and the sale of countless War Savings Certificates; ration coupon banking; subsidy payments to producers; foreign exchange operations.

Yet all this extra work has been carried out at a time when new help has had to be trained to take the place of more than 8,500 bank workers now in uniform.

UNITY BEGINS WITH "U"

We all realize, now, that we must have unity between the United Nations if we are to win this war and prevent another.

But do we realize that we cannot have unity between the nations without unity within them?

Unity does not mean that we must all think alike. It does mean that we must respect the thoughts and rights of others, and that we must be prepared to stick together.

Unity, like charity, begins at home!

What you and I say over the back fence multiplied by what all Canadians like us are saying—that is public opinion.

Are we personally building or breaking down unity? Do we like to pick holes in our fellow citizens who go to different churches, belong to different races, believe in different political creeds?

Do we like to repeat funny (but malicious) stories about the British, the Americans, the Russians and our other allies?

Ottawa, Washington, London, Moscow cannot make us united unless we truly want to be. Nations are groups of people—you and me multiplied. We are a democracy. It's up to us. Unity begins with "U."

Old Favourites Yield To New Methods of Cooking

One wonders if a homemaker exists who doesn't become excited over new ideas and secrets in cooking. Most groups of women dearly love to exchange their findings on wartime cooking and hear how to "make do."

The home economists are continually experimenting with foods, developing new ways of preparing and serving them. Making do with available supplies is one of their specialties, and today they are sharing some of their secrets with Canadian housewives.

The Jenny Cake is a 1945 version of the old-fashioned Johnny Cake. Moreover, the mixture is equally good baked as muffins. The Budget Souffle is an example of top stove cooking. Custards and souffles are usually baked in the oven, but it has been found that results are equally satisfactory on top of the stove. The tops of the finished product, however, lack the crispness of the baked variety. The sponge cake is made without separating the eggs. Experiments have shown that if sufficiently beaten, a feathery sponge cake can be made by this method which will appeal particularly to owners of electric beaters.

Jenny Cake
¾ cup all purpose flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup sugar
1 cup farina, uncooked
2 eggs

Sponge Cake
4 eggs
¾ cup fine granulated or fruit sugar
1 cup less 2 tablespoons pastry flour
OR ¾ cup all purpose flour
Pinch of salt
1 teaspoon lemon juice
Beat eggs in electric mixer at high speed, until light and fluffy (about 5 minutes). Add sugar gradually, continuing to beat at high speed for 5 minutes. Sift together flour and salt, and fold into egg mixture. Add lemon juice. Bake in large tube cake pan in moderately slow oven, 325 degrees F., for 45 minutes.

1 cup milk
3 tablespoons mild flavored fat, melted
Mix and sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add farina and stir well. Add beaten eggs to milk. Add melted fat to liquid and quickly combine dry ingredients. Stir well and immediately pour into a well-greased 8 x 8 inch pan or muffin tins. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 375 degrees F. Allow 25 to 30 minutes for cake and 20 minutes for muffins. Serve hot with maple syrup. Eight servings.

Budget Souffle
1½ cups soft bread crumbs
1½ cups milk
6 egg yolks
Salt and pepper to taste
½ cup grated cheese
6 egg whites
Mix together crumbs and milk, soak 10 minutes then beat until smooth. Beat egg yolks, add salt and pepper, and combine with bread mixture. Add grated cheese. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold into mixture. Pour into greased casserole, cover, and cook over boiling water until firm (about 40 minutes). Do not remove cover during cooking period. Six servings.
For variety add 1 teaspoon chopped parsley, and 2 tablespoons grated raw carrot.

NOTE: The greased top of double boiler may be used in place of casserole.

When Memory Fails
... a shopping list helps. It's bound to be a nuisance, and these days perhaps it is a downright tragedy to get home with a wrong-sized garment. The best insurance is to keep in your purse a list of clothing sizes for the different members of your family.

Shattered and Scattered
Even a new broom would not sweep up all the fine splinters of glass that sometimes result from a dish-washing accident. A damp cloth, to be discarded afterwards, or a damp wad of absorbent cotton or tissue are the best things for this job.

WAISTLINES LIKE DOLLS

Surprises Due in Buying Easter Suits

NEW YORK, March 20 ©—Be prepared for surprises when you go to pick out your Easter suit. You'll find the classic tulleur has developed a lot of new tricks—so new, in fact, that you will hardly recognize the dear old girl.

You'll see suits with long tunic jackets, for instance, nipped in at the waistline and flared below worn over matchstick skirts. You'll see bolero suits in all versions, from fitted waist-length jackets of the bellhop variety to even shorter models which show a strip of blouse between jacket and skirt. You'll see suits that have gone utterly, irrevocably, feminine, with soft tailoring, fanciful closings, unexpected color combinations.

You'll be amazed at the new wrinkles in lapels, which sometimes disappear altogether, sometimes jut out like wings, coil like cornucopias or multiply in petal-like formations.

Checks are big news this Spring, and so is navy blue, as always. Grey flannel is one of the season's high notes, and then there are the tri-color suits, with jacket one color, skirt another and blouse a third tone. Blouses still go for the high, wrapped neckline, and jackets as a rule have high closings. It's a suit Spring, but this year you can be as feminine as you please, and still be suited.

Timely Tips

When Memory Fails
... a shopping list helps. It's bound to be a nuisance, and these days perhaps it is a downright tragedy to get home with a wrong-sized garment. The best insurance is to keep in your purse a list of clothing sizes for the different members of your family.

Of General Interest

Permits and Notices
Since February 1, landlords of commercial premises have been required to give their tenants notice to vacate, providing of course that they have secured a permit from the Prices Board to occupy the business premises themselves.

Syrup by Mail
Consumers are reminded to include ration vouchers and not loose preserves coupons when ordering maple syrup by mail. Gallon vouchers may be secured at any Local Ration Board in exchange for four valid preserves coupons.

Household Appliances
Included in the new pricing regulations governing the sale of used goods are the following household appliances: domestic sewing machines, washing machines, electric and gas-operated refrigerators, domestic stoves, ranges and other heating equipment, radio tubes and domestic electric vacuum cleaners, musical instruments.

Top Prices on Syrup
Maple syrup ceiling prices for 1945 are as follows: Canada Light Grade $3.15 a gallon; Canada Medium, $2.00 a gallon; Canada Dark, $2.65 a gallon and ungraded syrup $2.40. Syrup sold in bulk and not in a metal container is 25c a gallon less.

DUTCH ORPHAN IN ENGLAND

Airman Adopts Two-Year-Old Child Whose Parents Helped Him Escape

LONDON, March 20 ©—The little Dutch girl was only two years old and her only introduction to England was a piece of paper in her hand on which was scrawled the name and address of FO. Owen Pratt. But everything turned out all right for this orphaned waif, and this is why:

FO. Pratt was a navigator in a bomber shot down last autumn over Holland. He bailed out, was injured, but managed to elude the Germans.

A Dutchman and his wife took him into their home, gave him food and shelter and hid him from the searching Gestapo. There he made friends with the couple's baby girl.

Then came the day when, after careful preparation by his hosts through the Dutch underground, FO. Pratt left his hide-out and made a secret journey to England. Since reaching here he has been in hospital.

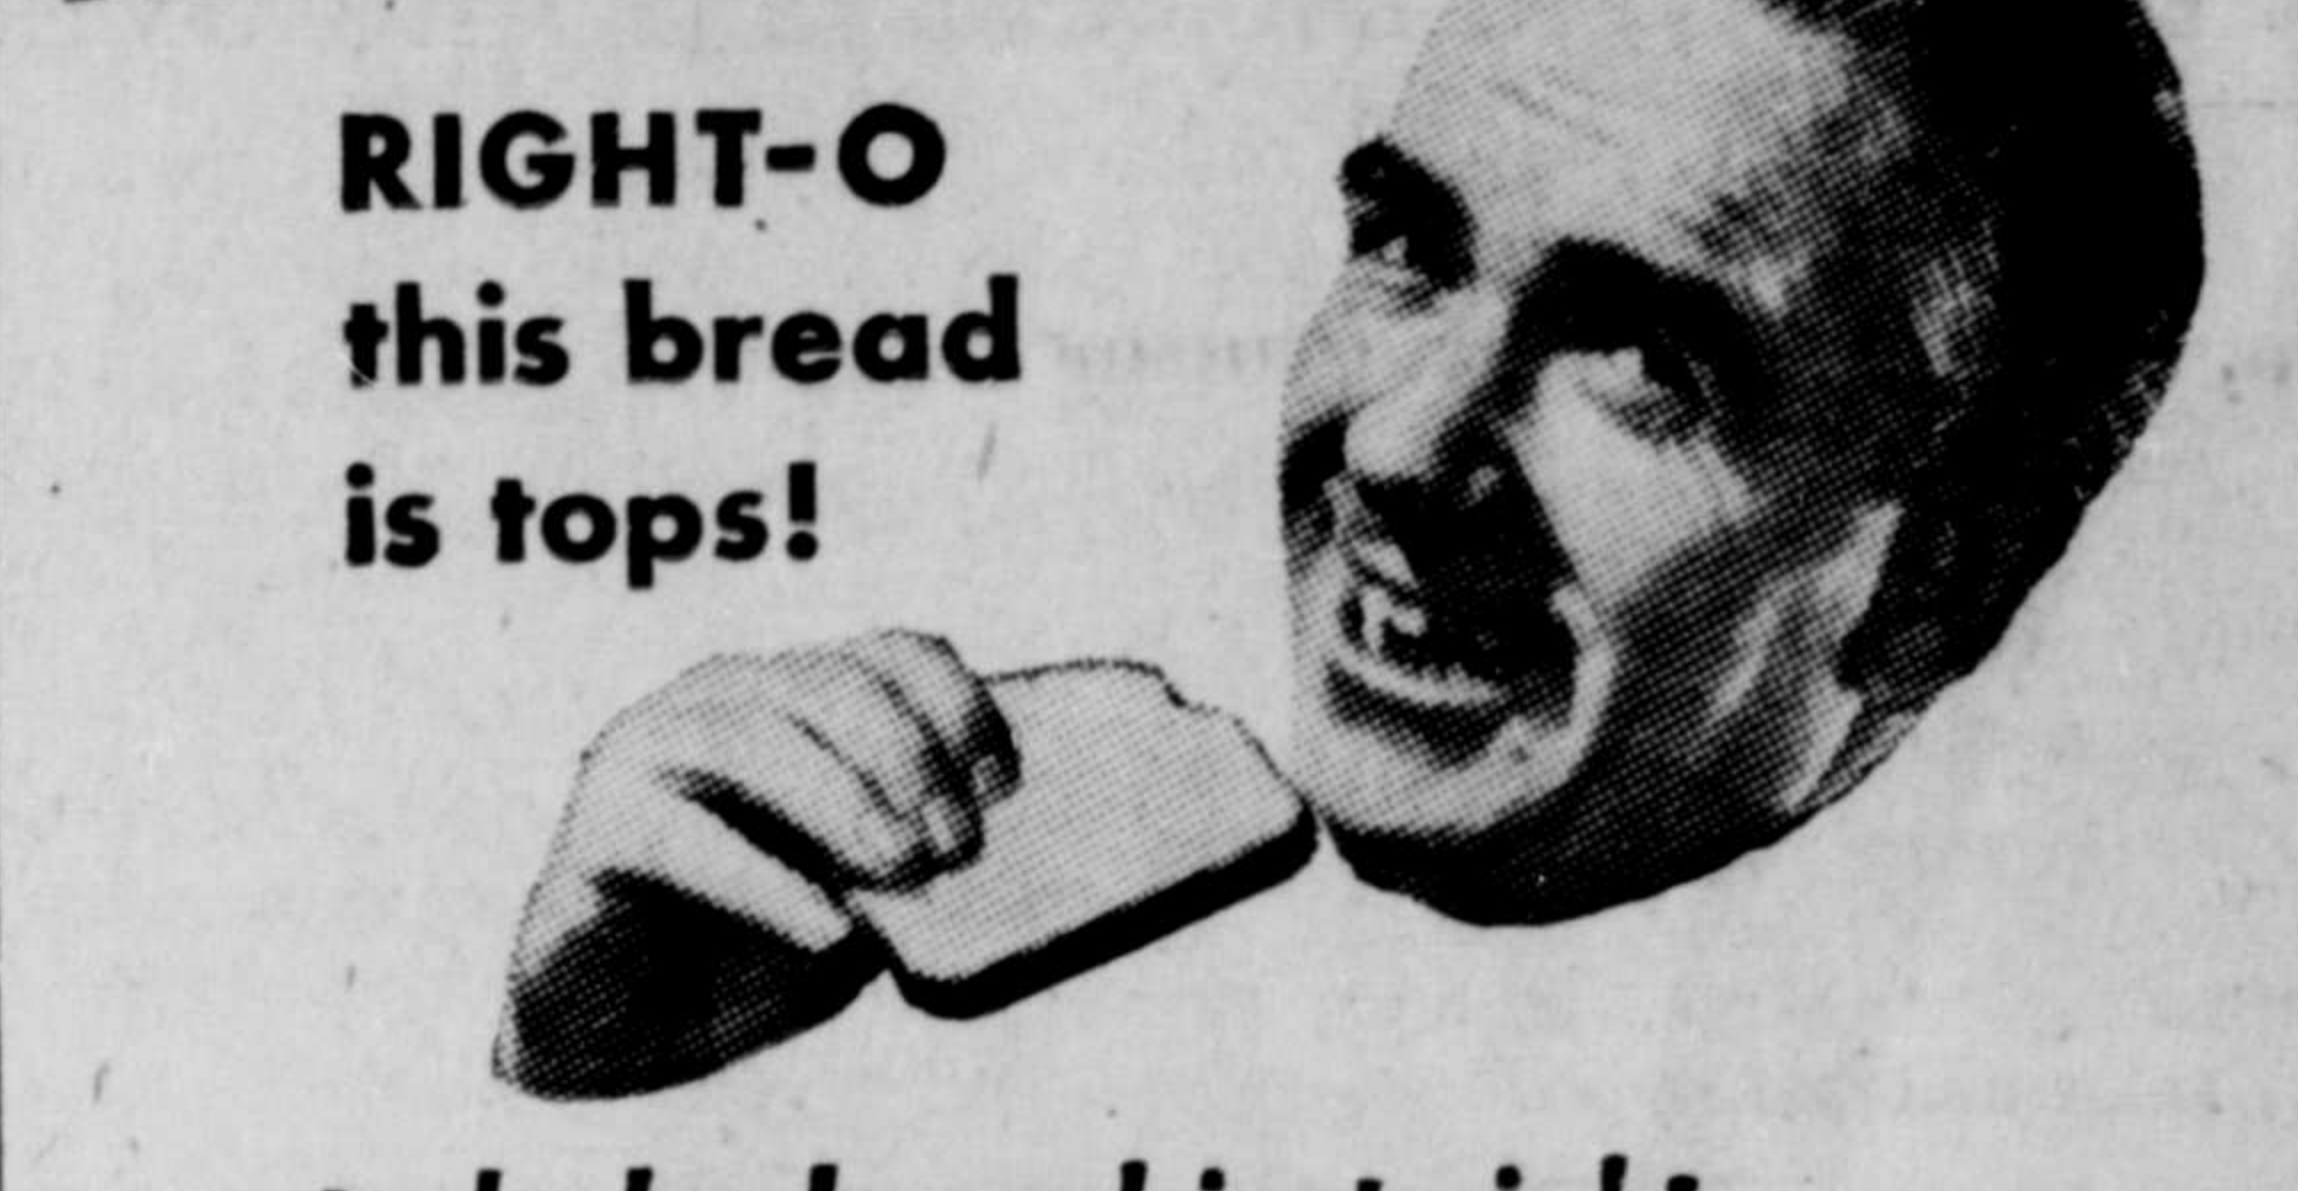

But when word came that a little girl with his name and address had come to England under a scheme which is bringing Netherlands children for rehabilitation holidays, he left hospital and hurried to London.

He found her to be the baby he had played with while hiding from the Gestapo . . . and he also found that her parents had been shot by the Nazis for harboring him. She had been taken in by another couple and finally sent to England.

The note the child brought ensured her future—FO. Pratt has adopted her and is sending her to his wife, also a Dutch girl, now in New Zealand.

Tends Optical Needs Of Canuck Soldiers

WITH THE C. W. A. C. OVERSEAS, March 20 ©—Handling over 1,000 orders a month for glass eyes and spectacles for soldiers of the Canadian Army Overseas, is the unusual job of L/Cpl. Frances Acheson of the C.W.A.C., of Vancouver. When a soldier in the field loses or breaks his glasses, his prescription formula is sent to her and she orders new ones from the optical branch of the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps. Orders for new glasses for the wounded personnel are sent to a British specialist who supplies and fits them, since the Canadian Army has not yet established its own centre for this work.

Mr. Gien is a retired forest ranger and bought the farm when he was on a visit here last fall. Thirty years ago he came up the Skeena in a river boat and is in a position to tell a great deal about Terrace in the early days.

Mrs. N. Sherwood arrived home on Saturday night for a short visit.

Mrs. Frank Gavin is back from Tranquille greatly improved in health. Her rapid recovery is gratifying and the people of Terrace are glad to hear she is back with her family again.

The Oddfellows held a very well-attended St. Patrick's Day dance on Friday evening. The party continued till the small hours of the morning and was enjoyed by all those present.

A very successful St. Patrick's Day party was held at the airport on Saturday evening.

Due to fire hazard, the very pretty decorations inside the Orange Hall had to be removed.

Terrace Students In Search of Magic Formula

TERRACE, March 20—Terrace school children are seeking a magic formula which will bring them financial reward totalling $30.

Actually, the formula is a six word slogan which will make an attractive eye-catcher at the top of Terrace Board of Trade letterheads and the rewards—a first prize of $15, second, $10, and third $5—have been put up by board members.

The idea of a slogan competition among school children was brought forward when Board members' imaginations failed to provide an attractive catch line for a new stock of official stationery which is to be ordered.

The competition closes March 31. Jeff Lambly is in charge.

lican Church on March 31.

As a climax to her Indian activity, Miss Denham, teacher of Grade II at the Terrace Elementary School, put on an Indian play which was very well received. The play was staged in the classroom and was repeated several times so that all the pupils in both the Elementary and High Schools could see it performed. A small admission fee was charged and proceeds are to be donated to the Junior Red Cross.

ST. PATRICK'S CELEBRATION

Afternoon and Evening Functions at K. of C. Hut

Last Saturday in the spacious and artistically decorated hall of the Knights of Columbus Hut the Catholic Women's League held their St. Patrick's Day celebration. Mrs. J. J. Gillis, president of the league, was general convener.

The beautiful hall, with its lights and walls draped in green and the shamrock holding a prominent place, spoke a "cead mile failte"—a thousand welcomes to all who came to honor the feast of the patron saint.

From 3 to 6 o'clock the big easy chairs around the beautifully decorated tables were in constant demand by those who came to sip tea in the good old Irish way.

In charge of the tea room was Mrs. Phil Lyons and presiding at the tables were Mrs. M. P. McCaffery and Mrs. A. Smith, Mrs. R. Rogerson, Mrs. Agnes Pierce, Mrs. E. Young, Mrs. R. DeJong, Miss Mary Astoria and May Murray were in charge of the serving. Mrs. R. E. Moore and Mrs. Cliff had charge of the refreshments. Mrs. Batagno acted as cashier.

The home cooking was presided over by Mrs. Leo Dorron, assisted by Mrs. Joe Garon, Mrs. J. Bouzek and Mrs. C. Schaeffer.

There was also a sale or apron-where Mrs. E. Fitzpatrick was assisted by Mrs. McArthur, Mrs. A. Turgeon and Mrs. F. Bilson.

In the evening the hall was again occupied by a very large gathering who came to enjoy an evening of playing whist, bridge and cribbage. On this occasion the hall took on a new aspect of beauty as the heavy decorations of green gave the effect to the lighting of a subdued green glow and, not only was the shamrock to the fore, but a great big Irish shillelagh at the door gave a peculiar Irish touch to the hall.

Mrs. Lahti presided at the door. Jean Demers was master of ceremonies for the bridge, F. Ethier for the whist and E. J. Fitzpatrick for the cribbage.

Prizewinners were:

Bridge—Ladies' first, Mrs. R. E. Moore; second, Mrs. Granam; men's first, Daird McLean; second, Gillis Royer.

Whist—Ladies' first, Mrs. Miller; second, Mrs. Borgman; men's first, O. Faught; second, Mrs. Julian.

Cribbage—Miss Frances Moore; second, Mrs. E. J. Fitzpatrick; men's first, Rex Bryant; second, C. Bilson.

The beautiful set of Silver Fox furs was won by Mrs. Deane, ticket 944. The three-tier fruit cake donated by Mrs. Bouzek and Mrs. Fitzpatrick was won by ticket 622 held by G. Sarivida.

A chesterfield set, donated by the Victory Circle was won by Mrs. J. Beruschi, ticket No. 9. The beautiful Irish shillelagh donated by O. Faught was won by Mrs. F. Bird.

At the conclusion of the car party delicious refreshments were served and Father Lantagne gave a fine rendering of a number of old Irish melodies. Accompanist was Miss Frances Moore A.T.C.M.

SO MANY NEED A HELPING HAND

You can ease their burden through your RED CROSS

• VICTORY for many of our wounded boys will only come at the end of a long road of pain. It will take months, maybe years to bring them back to health and peace.

We cannot share their pain or suffering. But to ease the burden of their confinement and speed their recovery, members of the Red Cross Corps are constantly making their rounds among the wounded men—spreading good cheer, bringing them aid and comfort, handing them cigarettes, fruits and books, reading to them, writing letters for them. Whatever their need, the Red Cross is there with a helping hand.

We cannot count our wounded in advance. But we do know that increasing numbers of returned wounded men are depending on your Red Cross in their hour of greatest need.

For those Canadians who have given so much of themselves for us, let us see to it that they shall not want. Let your response to the Red Cross appeal be more generous than ever before.

Notes and Views of the City Council

Utilities committee recommended that a previous motion appointing F. Kempton as wiring inspector and assistant telephone superintendent be rescinded in regard to its application to assistant superintendent on the grounds that the electrical code precludes an assistant superintendent from using tools, that Superintendent of Telephones S. Massey be superannuated effective March 31 and that A. B. Love be appointed telephone superintendent on the retirement of Mr. Massey.

Mayor Daggett last night asked for a motion by council authorizing him to send a message of condolence on behalf of the city to the widow and children of former Mayor Alfred Stork who died in Ontario last week. Council also endorsed the Mayor's action in sending a wreath on behalf of the city. The flag at the city hall has been at half mast during recent days out of respect to Mr. Stork's memory.

Licensing committee reported trade licenses have been granted to Lucien Rougeau as a mechanic and bodyman; Mike Postnik as an undertaker; C. S. Viers to rent machinery.

A request by the Prince Rupert Gyro Club that the city authorize the spending of $1,000 on city playgrounds was referred to the parks committee.

Finance committee recommended that an offer of Mrs. J. A. Smith to purchase lot 17 block 27, section 1 for $2,000, $200 cash and the balance at $50 a month be accepted.

Council last night endorsed a request by the Civic Centre Carnival committee that it be allowed to hold its annual carnival between August 20 and August 25 but left its decision open on that part of the request.

Grenville Court To Be Site of New Gymnasium

A new gymnasium is in the offing for Prince Rupert's athletically minded youngsters. Last night city council granted the Kinsmen's Club the right to build a temporary building on lots at Grenville Court. The application was made by Clarence B. Thomson in behalf of the Prince Rupert Athletic Club, which operates under the guidance of the Kinsmen. The building will stand on portions of four lots just east of the Salvation Army Citadel and will be 77 by 100 feet dimensions, Mr. Thomson told council. Council adopted a motion by Alderman Arnold that the application be granted and that the applicants pay a nominal revenue of $1 a year for lease of the property.

Sport Chat

The losing streaks that go with sport always seem to prompt rumors of consequent managerial retirement; and English football is no exception. Take Notts County of the League North. They lost a dozen successive matches and the whispering forced Maj. Frank Buckley, best-paid team manager in professional football, to deny he had resigned. "Things are certainly not going well from a playing point of view," said Buckley, whose team holds the cellar position in the 54-club league. "But I'm not worried. After all, I'm not an Aladdin. I can't rub a lamp and produce star players."

Perhaps the major has no magic lamp but his pre-war ability to discover stars and his unorthodox training methods labelled him something of an unpredictable genius. Just a year ago he created wartime soccer's biggest sensation by leaving the top-notch Wolverhampton Wanderers for the lowly Notts County club at a salary said to be around $18,000 a year. Certainly the County has been doing no better since, but the major is a non-worrying philosopher.

"Nothing in football disheartens me," he said. "And nothing surprises me. I haven't been here long enough to get a team together and I still have a lot of hard snide-work to put in. It's like going to a derelict farm. I've only reached the stage of trimming the hedges. Buckley, 62, was released from a contract which still had three years to run when he left the Wolves. At Wolverhampton he introduced gland therapy treatment and had a qualified chiropodist at the ground each week to attend to the feet of players. He found and sold stars to the extent of nearly $450,000, among them Welshman Bryn Jones who went to Arsenal for $61,000.

Sport in general, and football in particular, has taken a

Basketball—

Navy Wins Hoop Title

Defeated City by Score of 43 to 32 in Final Last Night

Last night in one of the most exciting basketball games of the season Navy defeated City by a score of 43-32. Both teams were in top form and it was a close game all through. At the end of the first half City was in the lead by a 19-17 count. In the last half Barker of Navy went wild and piled up 16 points for his team.

Dominato of City was barred from the game toward the end as a result of 5 personals. It was a tight and hard-fought game all through.

Outstanding for Navy were Sisler and Barker while Holkestad and Dominato were top scorers for City. Free shots for the Navy gave them 9 out of 15 tries but City made only 3 out of their 14 possibilities.

This was a sudden death game and gives the championship to Navy. Referee was Comadina with Woodside as scorer.

leap in France since the liberation. Many invitations have been extended to professional English teams to play there and there's a possibility Chelsea will be the first British club to visit the continent since the outbreak of war. Chelsea, League South club, has been invited to meet the French professionals, Red Star Olympic, at the Paris Stadium May 1. Chelsea will accept if government consent is obtained. The match would be part of the celebrations planned by France for Labor Day. Like other clubs, Chelsea made many overseas tours before the war, including a jaunt through South America.

Boston Bruins finished the greatest season of league hockey in modern times 16 years ago last night after winning 33 games out of 44. Cooney Weiland, star centre, set an all-time scoring record of 43 goals and 30 assists. Boston won the National League title but bowed to Montreal Canadiens in the Stanley cup series.

Nineteen years ago last night Johnny Risko, Cleveland's baker boy, defeated Paul Berlenbach, world light heavyweight champion, in a 10-round non-title bout in New York. Risko got no farther in the boxing hall of fame but he started Berlenbach downhill. Canada's Jack Delaney won the title from Berlenbach four months later.

MUSIC FILM IS SHOWING

"Music in Manhattan" Coming to Capitol Theatre Here Tomorrow

Laughter, romance and songs are blended in diverting fashion in the musical comedy "Music in Manhattan," featuring Anne Shirley, Dennis Day and Phillip Terry, which comes to the Capitol Theatre here for tomorrow only.

The girl and boy of the piece are principals in a struggling little musical revue which is in need of money to put it over. The girl flies to Washington in order to raise some money and, to get reservation on a crowded plane, she pretends to be the bride of the war's current hero. She gets publicity which is instrumental in putting the show over but the romance is temporarily interfered with. Riotous happenings ensue but eventually everything turns out well.

Other members of the cast include Raymond Walburn as a comedy musician, Patti Brill as the other girl in the show and Jane Darwell in an important maternal role. Hit tunes include "Did You Happen to Find a Heart This Morning?" and "When Romance Comes Along."

By MARGARET WOODWARD

Last night Frank Dutton and his Boys again played to a large crowd of dancers in the "Y" auditorium. Special feature of the evening was a jitterbug contest with Russ Bond, Lucky Stetten and Jimmie Helakus picking the winners. First choice was unanimous in favor of the fast stepping duo—Bertha Vuckovich and Frank Amato of the Army. Second choice was not so easy but the decision fell to Helga Watrin and Angus Smith of Navy. Next week Bob Wybrow and his Band will supply the music.

Tonight is Cribbage Night with play beginning in the Writing Room at 8 p.m.

Tuesday at the "Y" 29th and Air Force will meet in the Floor Hockey League.

B-29'S DROP TONS OF BOMBS OVER RANGOON, BURMA—Tons of bombs speckle the sky over Rangoon, Burma, as they spew from the yawning bomb bays of the 20th Bomber Command Superfortresses. The target of this daylight attack by Brig.-Gen. Roger M. Ramey's India-based airman was a large Jap supply depot near the Mingaladon air field near Rangoon. Returning fliers declared it a "perfect mission" from the standpoint of bombs observed on the target, and the weather.
