The GOVERNMENT and LABOR

Under the impact of war the Liberal Government has been forced to ask of Labor many things it would never contemplate in happier days.

Yet with all the restrictions, the Liberal Government never has jeoparidized the basic rights of Labor. Nor has it hampered organization of collective bargaining.

The proof: Membership in trade unions today totals some 750,000—more than double the 350,000 of 1929.

better future in a finer Canada.

Be Sure to Vote . . .

June 11 is the day when every duly qualified citizen of Canada will have his or her chance to have a private and untrammelled say in the affairs of the country by going to the polls to choose directly who is going to represent them in the councils of the nation and indirectly who will conduct their affairs through the process of government. Expressions of opinion are being heard on every hand and some of these expressions are enthuastic and even heated.

It is to be hoped that every one will vote on the appointed day and will not recklessly or carelessly neglect that democratic privilege of exercising the franchise free, unhampered and uncoerced.

We are glad to subscribe to the suggestion: "Vote as you like-but Advertising Is Ready . . .

It has been a long time since the consumer was allowed to relax in his armchair and scan his evening newspaper for new and interesting things to be purchased in the line of autos, radios, refrigerators, boats, fishing tackle and the like. But it won't be much longer before these items will be flowing from the plants again.

The quantities will be much greater than after World War I for the nation has grown in production and consumption capacity. During that time, too, some titans have developed in industry and certain names have become known as standard through advertising and excellent production.

Advertising has, as all citizens know, played a big part in the war in selling war bonds, explaining shortages and distributing goods throughout the country. It is in excellent position to do a similar job in bringing back peacetime commerce on which to build for tomorrow.

My Chevrolet Can't be Equalled for Smooth. Dependable Perhanman

"I've driven Chevrolets for a good many years, and frankly, I was always reluctant when it came time to turn in the car. As far as I'm concerned my 1940 Chevrolet can't be equalled for smooth, dependable performance, in spite of the none too favorable driving conditions of the past few years, and when doctors are busier than they've ever been before. Another pleasant feature is the low cost of gasoline, oil and repairs. In my essential driving about the city and to and from the hospital, I find gasoline consumption to be surprisingly little, and on the highway the car averages up to 26 miles to the gallon depending upon the driving speed. Incidentally, I have found that the car runs as smoothly at higher speeds as it does at 20 miles an hour. Because my Chevrolet continues to provide such dependable service, I give the car the benefit of regular check-ups. I am determined to keep it in the best possible condition until the new Chevrolets

. Alexander Davies, M.D.

THANK YOU Doctor Davies for a fine testimonial to the performance and dependability of Chevrolet! Thousands of Chevrolet owners, everywhere in Canada, will echo your statements about the honest-to-goodness service which this great car has rendered during the difficult war years. For Chevrolet, with its built-in staying power and reliability, its extra mileage and its thrifty operation, has proved itself the nation's No. 1 transportation unit - both in the hands of civilian and military drivers. Canada's most popular peacetime car, it has built up a record for wartime performance second-to-none.
