Five Members Of Cabinet Resign

Mackenzie King Appoints Seven New Ministers In Unexplained Shuffle

Crerar, Michaud, McLarty, Macdonald, and LaFleche Leave Cabinet Posts

OTTAWA, April 18 (CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced today the resignation of five members of his cabinet and the appointment of seven new members in a re-shuffle of government leaders which so far lacks explanation.

The resignations include cabinet members who have taken leading parts in the war government.

Resignations were handed in by Minister of Mines and Resources T. A. Crerar, Transport Minister J. E. Michaud, Secretary of State Norman McLarty, Navy Minister Angus L. Macdonald, and War Services Minister L. R. LaFleche.

Appointed to cabinet posts were Speaker James Glen, to be Resources Minister; Joseph Jean to be Solicitor General; Lionel Chevrier to be Transport Minister; Paul Marten, to be Secretary of State; Douglas Abbott, to be Navy Minister; J. J. McCann to be War Services Minister; and D. L. McLaren to be Revenue Minister.

NAZIS UNABLE TO EXCHANGE WAR PRISONERS

LONDON, April 18 (CP)—The German government admits it is no longer capable of even carrying out normal exchanges of war prisoners any more. This was disclosed in London by the British foreign office. The German government's admission was sent to the British government via neutral Switzerland. The Germans told London that no further exchanges of seriously sick and wounded prisoners of war under international conventions can take place until two months after the arrangements have been completed.

Huns Create Nine Zones Of Battle

PARIS, April 18 (CP)—The American Third Army bisected Germany today by invading Czechoslovakia against weak German resistance, while the First Army moved to within 4,000 yards of the centre of surrounding Leipzig. In the meantime, the Seventh Army cleared half of the Nazi shrine city of Nuremberg.

A Nazi radio commentator gave an indication of German strategy, suspected by Allied observers, today when he said that the German high command had divided the country into nine zones of resistance, each of which would struggle until its defenders were annihilated. Included in the zones were Norway, northern Italy, Bavaria, Brandenburg, Holland and the Ruhr.

The Brussels radio said today that Allied troops have captured Dusseldorf, the last major city in the Ruhr pocket remaining in German hands. The Ruhr triumph has assumed the proportions of the greatest victory of the war, even more costly to the Germans than their defeat at Stalingrad. Already 309,484 prisoners have been taken from the trap and another 50,000 were expected to surrender today. The U.S. Ninth Army captured Magdeburg, with a population of 334,358, securing a firm anchor on the Elbe River opposite Berlin. An industrial centre, Magdeburg was the twentieth largest city of Germany before bombs and shells reduced it to smoking ruins.

The halving of Germany was of more geographical than immediate military importance, because the enemy still has a circuitous contact between north and south Germany through Czechoslovakia.

The British Second Army fought through the Bremen suburbs and advanced to within 22 miles of the great port of Hamburg.

U-Boats Fail In St. Lawrence Raid

OTTAWA, April 18 (CP)—Navy Minister Macdonald discloses that enemy u-boats sneaked up the St. Lawrence last autumn to attack Canadian shipping, but this time, the enemy subs went home without sinking a single ship. The last time enemy u-boats attacked in the St. Lawrence, they sank 20 Canadian ships, including a corvette. This time, the enemy action resulted in damage to one corvette and one merchant ship.

Ernie Pyle, Beloved Reporter, Is Killed

WASHINGTON, April 18 (CP)—Ernie Pyle, a famous war correspondent, has been killed in the Pacific. News of his death became known today when President Truman issued a statement of condolence. The little reporter for the Scripps-Howard newspapers had been reporting the fighting on Okinawa.

Pyle was killed by a Japanese machine-gun ambush on a small island just west of Okinawa. He was killed instantly while standing behind the regimental commanding officer.

SIXTY HALIBUT BOATS TO FISH OUT OF HERE

About 60 regular halibut boats, the same number as last year, are expected to leave Prince Rupert for the fishing grounds after the opening of the season on May 1, and these will leave in two groups according to their regular custom, it was learned today. The vessels will be divided into two alphabetical name groups, one leaving a day or two before the other. This year the group whose ship's names begin with letters M to Z will leave first, followed by the A to L section.

Last year the A to L section left on May 21, followed by the M to Z group on May 24.

Details of the initial departure arrangements have not yet been worked out by fishermen and boat owners, it is understood. This is expected to be done at a joint meeting to be held shortly.

In Vancouver the fishing vessel owners' association announced last night that 127 halibut boats, nine less than last year, will fish out of Vancouver. The boats will sail on April 28, allowing time to arrive at the fishing grounds by May 1.

In addition to the 60-odd regular halibut boats which will use Prince Rupert as their home port this season, there are expected to be between 30 and 40 which will fish halibut for part of the season.

The word "electricity" comes from the Greek word for amber.

Allies Press Germans Into Hartz Pocket

PARIS, April 18 (CP)—On the western front, Allied forces squeezing against German forces caught in the Hartz mountains pocket have captured Wernigerode on the north, entered Braunlage on the south, and have pushed four miles northeast of Guntersberge.

In Holland, Canadian armored forces and infantry have reached a point within two miles of the Zuider Zee. Far to the northeast, the Germans have thrown strong counter-attacks against Canadian armored units, but the Canadians are holding their Kustken Canal bridgehead.

Elsewhere, the Allies are 40 miles from Dresden. General Patton's Third Army push opened an assault on Chemnitz after the Nazi garrison elected to fight it out rather than surrender and save the city of 334,000 population. Chemnitz is 38 miles from Dresden. Another fight to the finish is on in Nuernberg. It is falling block by block to the Seventh Army. The Nazi city is 75 percent surrounded. Leipzig, Germany's fifth city, also is being encircled.

On the front due west of Berlin, Ninth Army forces have burst into Magdeburg after having knocked back a fierce German counter-blow. American infantry also entered Duesseeldorf in the Ruhr but there is no confirmation of a Brussels radio assertion that Duesseeldorf has been captured.

INQUEST INTO MOEN DEATH BEGINS TODAY

While coroner M. M. Stephens today prepared to hold an inquest into the death of Mrs. Kitty Moen who was found stabbed on the bed of her home at 317 Comox Avenue Sunday, city police assisted by Detective Sergeant J. A. Young, of the B.C. Police, Victoria, continue their investigation into the woman's death.

Included in their investigation is a search for someone who might shed more light on the background of the woman who lived alone in the Comox Avenue house. Little is known of Mrs. Moen who lived for almost 20 years in the city, and police seek further knowledge of her acquaintances and friends.

Such information might lead to the discovery of who the person was who entered the house and wielded the sharp instrument which probably caused her death.

Absence of signs of a struggle in the house indicate that her visitor was someone who was known to her with whom she was apparently friendly. Nature of the weapon, nor if it is in their possession, was not revealed by the police.

Inspector R. Peachey, head of the Criminal Investigation Branch of the B.C. Police arrived in the city Tuesday afternoon by aircraft with Detective Sergeant J. A. Young, and left again for the south this morning.

Coroner M. M. Stephens said today that the inquest into the woman's death would begin at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when the jury would view the body and probably view the death scene. He said that testimony of Dr. R. E. Coleman, hospital pathologist, who performed an autopsy, would likely be delivered.

ADVANCING ON BOLOGNA
ROME—Polish troops of the British Eighth Army sweeping up the Po Valley, advanced today within ten miles of Bologna, the major German base in northern Italy. American Fifth Army troops also fought closer to Bologna.

Canadian Pilot Hops Atlantic Hundred Times

PRESTWICK, Scotland, April 18 (CP)—The first Canadian among some half dozen British Overseas Airways Corporation pilots to top the century mark in Atlantic flights in the North Atlantic ferry service is Captain William S. May of Madawaska, Ontario, and Winnipeg. In three and a half years of trans-oceanic flying, Captain May has travelled more than 330,000 miles, the equivalent of 13 times around the world.

MAY REACH POLISH AGREEMENT
WASHINGTON—Agreement between the western Allies and Russia on the Polish question may result from the forthcoming conference of Allied foreign ministers which will be attended by Foreign Commissar Molotov. It is predicted that the conference may result in Poland achieving a seat on the San Francisco conference.

CANUCK TANKS SLICE THROUGH WITH HOLLAND

WITH THE FIRST CANADIAN ARMY IN HOLLAND (By Ross Munro, CP correspondent), April 18—Canadian tanks slicing off the eastern end of the Holland pocket today had driven practically to the south shore of the Zuider Zee. Other columns were probing the outer defences of the Grebbe Line as they advanced toward Amerfoort.

Thrusting north of Barneveld, fourteen miles northwest of Arnhem, for twelve miles, tanks captured Putten on the coast road about two miles south of the Zuider Zee. Canadian infantry advancing west from captured Apeldoorn linked up with the tanks. In a swift clean-up of northeastern Holland, Canadian infantry captured the port of Harlingen, sixteen miles west of Leeuwarden.

TRANSPORT ECONOMIST SAYS RAILWAYS SUSTAIN TRUCKING INDUSTRY

BROCKVILLE, Ont., April 18—Canadian railways are moving freight traffic at an average cost of less than one cent per ton mile," stated Frank A. Gaffney, transport economist of the Canadian National Railways, to the Rotary Club here. "This low cost is approached by only one other country, the United States," he continued.

Mr. Gaffney said that users of the highways, particularly heavy commercial vehicles, were not fully paying for them. To substantiate this statement, he referred to the reports of two Royal Commissions in the provinces of Ontario and Nova Scotia which, after making thorough studies of costs and their allocation among vehicles, recommended an increase of at least 100 percent in license fees for the heavier class vehicles.

In general, he added, it cost four to five times as much to move traffic by truck as by rail and the fact that competition on a rate basis was possible was due entirely to the nature of the common belief that trucking is cheaper because on the rate charged the public is generally less than the rail rates for the same movement.

"This cutting of rail rates is made possible by the fact that trucks will only move traffic bearing high rail rates. They will not touch traffic which pays the railways only one-half cent to three cents a ton mile. But the movement of this cheaper traffic, such as wheat, to both head waters so that it can be sold in world competitive markets, the movement of Nova Scotia coal to Quebec and Ontario points, and newsprint from Quebec to the United States in competition with the local product and that of other countries, must be made in the national interest."

Mr. Gaffney pointed out that if the railways were to abandon their present rate principle of charging what the traffic can afford to pay and substitute a flat car rate of one cent a ton mile on all traffic, every over-the-road truck in the Dominion would go out of business. They could not exist on a revenue of one cent a ton mile.

"That the highway vehicle has a proper place in the country's economy no one can deny, that the railways are and must remain, the basic transportation machine is equally true. Therefore, it would seem reasonable that proper co-ordination of these two mediums to the end that each performs the service for which it is best fitted would be in the national interest."

"Co-ordination can only be accomplished by the creation of a federal control body with jurisdiction over rail and highway services. It cannot be done while railways are regulated by a federal agency and highway services in the hands of nine different provincial commissions," Mr. Gaffney said.

LOCAL MAN IS AWARDED D.F.C.

Pilot Officer Jaroslav Victor Bouzek, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bouzek, 328 Second Avenue, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, according to an announcement made in Ottawa last night. Pilot Officer Bouzek has been a navigator in an R.C.A.F. bomber squadron since he went overseas 18 months ago, and recently he was one of a crew which brought a badly damaged bomber back to its base after a flight over Germany. Word of the award won by her son had not reached Mrs. Bouzek when the Daily News telephoned her this morning.

"I haven't heard anything about it. It is certainly good news," Mrs. Bouzek exclaimed. "We are certainly proud of him."

Prior to enlisting in the R.C.A.F. three years ago, Pilot Officer Bouzek worked in the mine at Premier. He has two brothers in the air force, Joseph and Jack, both sergeants.

LEGLESS ACE RESCUED FROM NAZI PRISON

PARIS, April 18 (CP)—Wing Commander Douglas Bader, the famous legless R.A.F. fighter pilot, has been freed by American troops after three years in German prison camps, it was disclosed today. Bader won renown during the battle of Britain, escaping three times from German prison camps but was recaptured each time. His German captors finally took his artificial legs away from him.

Canadian Move Forces Germans To Flood Land

By ROSS MUNRO
Canadian Press War Correspondent
WITH THE FIRST CANADIAN ARMY, April 18, (CP)—As the Germans Tuesday began to flood the area south of the Zuider Zee between Utrecht and Amsterdam, Canadian armored units poured west toward the Grebbe Line and the Holland fortress area. By opening the sluice gates the enemy allowed the waters of the Zuider Zee to pour over a wide area in which their defences were upset by the north-west sweep of Canadian tank columns from Arnhem. The Nazi forces were forced to flood the area much earlier than they had intended.

Weather Forecast

Confirmation by Me... ed Onslaught on Be...

LONDON, April 18 (CP)—German broadcast today that the battle for the eastern approach to Berlin has reached its climax with the Russians closing the defence lines only eighteen miles from the city capital. The Soviets have launched a third offensive south of Stettin aimed at linking with the forces on the north German plain. Front dispatches show asserted that the Russians would see Berlin burning but did not yet specify any offensive as under way.

LONDON, April 18 (CP)—The Allied world confirmation of enemy statements that the battle has begun its final big battle for Berlin. The report that a massive Russian advance is being forward towards the German capital, while the Russian column probes its way along the last 75 miles separating the Soviet forces from the American Third Army. This lower drive is 48 miles from Dresden. The inevitable meeting of the two Allies will cut off the Germans committed to a defence of Berlin from any retreat southward into Hitler's Bavarian mountain fortress.

RAFT BAG... LS 4,000

NY, April 18 (CP)—British bombers were out over Germany during the night. R.A.F. made their customary raid on Berlin.

Yesterday's aerial action broke 440 more German bombers were destroyed. Four and three of the enemy were destroyed on the night of April 17. This brings to 4,129 the total number of German bombers destroyed since the start of the war. Monday's record-keeping has been raised to 4,129. Bombers destroyed, others damaged.

HOLLAND ATTACKED

LONDON—Canadian heavy bombers today attacked Heligoland, the German fortress in the North Sea guard approaches to Emden, and Hamburg.

Best Abandonment... keena Highway

Best against a reported decision of the Federal government to withdraw maintenance men and staff from the River Highway has been by the Prince Rupert Progressive club in telegram last night to Premier Hart of B.C. and Hon. T. A. Crerar, Federal Minister of Resources.

Telegram to Premier Hart that he "use all power to improve it" as it is to post-war development of B.C.

Abandoning of the Road . . .

The decision of the federal government to abandon the Skeena River highway, as revealed by Harry King, president of the Terrace and District Board of Trade at a recent meeting, is a blow that every community in central B.C. must prepare to resist. What justification the government offered for taking such an action, Mr. King apparently did not make known, and it is doubtful if any real justification can exist.

To withdraw all maintenance equipment and staff from the road means virtual abandonment of a project which cost at least $6,000,000 to put through, and which is one of the hopes of this part of the country. To abandon this useful artery without thought for the territory which it was built to nourish cannot be permitted.

We understand that the Terrace Board of Trade has urged the Boards of Trade at Prince Rupert and Prince George to join in protest to the Minister of Mines and Resources and to our private member, Mr. Hanson. No doubt this will be done, but it is also the duty of every other organization and individual to lodge a similar protest to Ottawa. The road which was built at such tremendous cost, and which means so much to central and northern B.C. cannot be allowed to fall into a neglected state.

What the government's reason is for such an announcement when, we understand, the provincial government was trying to negotiate a deal to share equally in the maintenance and improvement of the road, is hard to understand. True, the military necessity which caused the road to be constructed has apparently diminished, but we doubt if even military men would say that it had ceased to exist. However, when the government goes to the people in June, it will accent its suitability for post-war leadership. It will be hard for it to convince the people of north-central B.C. of that suitability if they see one of their greatest post-war assets consigned to neglect six months after it was created.

BUSY SERGEANT RUNS SUPPLIES INTO HOCHWALD

Stretcher Bearers Praised for Valor During Fight to Drive Germans From Hochwald Forest; Battle Sidelights
By DOUGLAS AMARON
Canadian Press War Correspondent

WITH THE CANADIAN ARMY IN GERMANY, April 18 (C)—A busy man during the fighting for the Hochwald was CSM Bill Ives, Toronto, who had the difficult job of keeping his company supplied with food and ammunition.

Commanded by Maj. Ben Dunkelmann, Toronto, the company fought for four days through the dense spruce woods. The only roads into the Hochwald were dirt tracks, which were passable until tanks moved over them, but then became so torn and rutted that even jeeps and carriers became bogged down.

"I've had just about no sleep at all during this time," the company commander said. "He wasn't always successful getting through but he was always trying. If he couldn't get up one road he would take another until he found some way of reaching us."

Another man Dunkelmann praised will have to go nameless for the time being because he was wounded. He was a stretcher bearer from Winnipeg who despite a serious wound stayed forward to care for casualties. The major eventually got him out of the fighting by sending him back with some wounded but as soon as he delivered them he came back again.

Marriage Guidance Subject of Course

LONDON, April 18 (C)—An experimental course in marriage guidance has been opened at Morley College here, first of its kind to be undertaken at an educational institution in this country.

The series of 10 lectures is being given by Dr. David Mace, secretary of the Marriage Guidance Council. In them he is dealing with such matters as wartime problems and personal adjustment to married life and parenthood.

Most of those attending the course are married but some are single social workers and persons thinking of getting married.

"Great interest has been shown in the course," Dr. Mace said. "People seem chiefly interested in the whole outlook for the institution of marriage, the education of children and how they can prepare themselves for it."

About two-thirds of the students are women.

ESSENTIAL BUT SCARCE
LONDON, (C)—A Corset Guild official said the Board of Trade has "at last realized how essential a good corset is to a woman," but held out no hope for additional supplies immediately because of material shortages.

said the situation was tense for a while as you couldn't be sure who was friend and who was foe. He was in a caravan and kept one hand on the lock, challenging every visitor before opening the door.

Maj. Tommy Murray, Port Arthur, Ont., a company commander in this unit, told of another strange experience in this area. He was with Capt. Tommy Henderson, Winnipeg, when they spotted two heads over the edge of a trench.

"We took it to be an outpost from one of our other companies but I was curious and went up to have a look," said Murray. "They let me get within 30 yards then shouted German and waved to me. I had a Sten and fired. They returned the fire. We got out of that and started sniping, killing one, wounding another and two got away."

Murray, incidentally, said that one of the prisoners his company took said his formation was pulled back to Xanten then sent back to the Hochwald with orders to fight until death.

"That's all right for the other fellows, but not for me," said the German who came in and surrendered.

PRIESTLY TAUGHT FILM STAR YORKSHIRE ACCENT

Michael Redgrave does not know J. B. Priestley, yet Priestley taught him the Yorkshire accent which he assumes for his part in "Jeannie," the film version of the famous play which is playing at the Capitol Theatre today only.

Redgrave has always been in the habit of listening to Priestley's Sunday evening broadcasts, and when he heard that he was to play the part of a Yorkshire man in "Jeannie," he paid special attention to Priestley's vocal intonations . . . and picked up an authentic accent.

Redgrave is becoming a specialist in dialects. In his last picture, "Kippis," he spoke in a high-pitched Cockney. For this film he, also had his hair dyed blonde and took off a stone of his weight.

Much to his relief he is back at his normal weight in Jeannie . . . which means to say that he is back on mild-and-bitter. He has also had his hair dyed back to its original color.

Co-starring with Redgrave in "Jeannie" is Barbara, daughter of the Irish poet, Pat Mullen, the "Man of Aran."

"MY DAY" RESUMED

"S' Mutiny!"

THE day Aunt Agatha said, "No more tea and coffee until your disposition improves... you'll drink Postum instead"—Uncle Jack almost decided to go back to sea.

But Aunt Agatha can be persuasive, and Uncle Jack actually tried Postum. "Shiver my timbers if it isn't all right", he said. "It's not like tea and it's not like coffee. But it's mighty good just the same". And that night he slept like a baby.

It is free of caffeine, or any other thing that might affect nerves or heart action. It is made right in the kitchen by adding hot milk or boiling water. Try Postum! You'll like it.

Learned to Shoot In Her Spare Time

Young Western Ontario Woman Became a Champion in Five Months

WYOMING, Ont., April 18 — There aren't many family squabbles between Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Barnes of this town east of Sarnia.

Mrs. Barnes holds the Dominion indoor rifle championship and "we don't get into any arguments unless I have the ammunition," says her husband prudently.

Pretty, blond Mrs. Barnes, 23-year-old mother of two small daughters, won the 1944 championship in matches conducted by the Canadian Small Bore Association with a score of 1,797 out of a possible 1,800. She holds the championship jointly with four men.

Mrs. Barnes has been handling a rifle for less than two years. Five months after she started shooting, she was individual woman's champion of Canada, a title she has held for two successive years. One year later she won the open title.

"I had no idea I could shoot," she explains with a laugh. "They needed somebody to fill in on one of the teams so they asked me, I had nothing much to do with my spare time, so I thought it would be fun. I never dreamed. I would be so successful." Her marksmanship has helped make the Wyoming rifle club one of the best known in the country.

S. H. Thompson, secretary and instructor of the Wyoming club says she is a crack shot because she is naturally clever and a good student.

"It doesn't take brain to make a good shot," he says, "only brains, a good eye, and application."

SEES LIBERAL TRIUMPH AT OCEAN FALLS

A strong and enthusiastic Liberal organization is functioning at Ocean Falls, and it represents a broad cross-section of the population at the paper mill town, E. T. Applewhite, Liberal candidate in the forthcoming federal election said in an interview Tuesday after returning from an organizational trip to Ocean Falls where he spent a week initiating campaign plans with the Liberal Association.

Confident that the Liberals will "top the poll" at Ocean Falls, Mr. Applewhite said that the record of the present administration will undoubtedly outweigh any arguments or criticisms which can be employed against it.

"A large section of public opinion there believes that the Liberal party offers the only leadership which can carry the country forward in the difficult years of peace," the candidate asserted.

He said that the southern community would exercise from 1,200 to 1,500 votes and that women there are taking a very active interest in the forthcoming election.

Mr. Applewhite said that he

Adventure in search of SECURITY

It was a journey of over 500 miles. After he crossed the American boundary, Mr. Baker boarded a stage-coach and in it jolted day after day across upper New York State. He was a true pioneer of a new way of life.

In 1845, Hugh C. Baker, a Hamilton mathematician, was one of the first Canadians to do more than wish for security for his family. But there were no Canadian life insurance companies, and no American companies operating in Canada.

He finished his journey by river steamer down the Hudson. In New York, he found life insurance already a national force in the United States. As a Canadian, he resolved to help his own countrymen obtain the same security.

The office of the only British company here was in Quebec City—a long way to go to seek protection. Roads were bad, and there was only the beginning of a railway.

Returning to Hamilton he, with a few associates, organized the first of the Canadian life insurance companies. And in the 100 years since Mr. Baker pioneered protection of the people by the people in Canada, millions of Canadians have enjoyed financial security through life insurance.

But Mr. Baker was a determined man. To him, life insurance meant security for himself and his family. Because New York was the easiest centre to reach where life insurance was available, he set out—on horseback.

LIFE INSURANCE has developed into a great institution because it has grown with the growing needs of our people. The financial stability which it affords has made it an essential factor in our everyday life and a vital instrument of social service through the years.
