BATHING

The Civic Centre Carnival search for the ultimate in feminine pulchritude in connection with the Atlantic City "Miss America" pageant is an endeavor to locate the loveliest lovely in Northern British Columbia.

This contest, which is in no way connected with the Carnival Queen Contest, is a distinct feature in itself and invites young ladies of physical and mental beauty as its contestants.

Each local entrant will receive $15.00 toward the cost of her bathing suit for the occasion. The winner for the Prince Rupert title will receive $75.00. Second prize is $50 and third, $25,

The Prince Rupert winner will also compete for the Northern British Columbia title and the girls chosen by the judges will be sent by air, expenses paid, to Atlantic City for the annual national competition there. Here, she will compete with 39 other girls and not a few hundred as many think.

Few contestants have entered from Prince Rupert. We must have more to make a good display. The pageant is conducted in a dignified, clean-cut manner and the young ladies who enter the pageant are under good care.

There is still time to enter. A girl from this district has as much chance to become "Miss America" as any contestant from any part of the continent.

> T. NORTON YOUNGS, Chairman, Carnival Committee and "Miss America" Pageant.

this and the company says they believe him. Workers in the company's Edmonton plant have voted in favor of a strike and have asked permission of the Alberta government to take strike action. The strike is already making itself felt by meat shortages.

Other Companies May Be Involved

There is a possibility that the six other meat-packing plants in Winnipeg besides the Canada Packers Limited branch may join the Canada Packers employees in a sympathy strike. The plant union loctls will decide the question tonight in a vote. The plants involved are Swift Canadian, the Manitoba Cold Storage Company, Western Packers, St. Boniface Abatoir and the Public Abatoir.

Japanese Peace Terms . . .

What might be acceptable surrender terms for Japan? Certainly minimum terms must be those of the Cairo declaration: Surrender of all islands in the Pacific taken by Japan since 1914, all territories stolen from China (Manchuria, Formosa and the Pescadores), the liberation of Korea, and measures to "restrain and punish the agression of Japan." To implement the last, much more will doubtless be demanded. But for the Allies to formulate and offer more specific terms up to now would have been highly inexpedient. To have done so would have ignored Russia's great potential stake in any Far Eastern settlement and possibly jeopardized whatever co-operation Russia may be prepared to give. The discussions at Potsdam might well go beyond Russia's participation in the war against Japan. Russia's part in a peace imposed upon Japan---a peace which the Japanese may have already gone a long way toward accepting-is a topic quite consistent with the logic of recent events.

lost, says the Red Shield Report, a Salvation Army publication.

These fronts include those involved in want and fear, so often enumerated as poverty, sickness, old age and unemployment. These can, to some considerable extent, be alleviated by legislation, and no doubt the measures now in force or being put forward will do much to improve the lot of the lower income groups.

But there are other fronts not so easily relieved by legislation. Many are the evils which spring from the imperfections of human nature which constitute fronts on which we must all fight.

These are the fronts of misfortune and maladjustment, delinquency and crime, vice, viciousness, and avarice.

When we cease to war on these fronts, the enemy wil rush in like a flood and no change of the economic system or beneficent legislation will keep us from ultimate destruction, as complete as would have been the loss of the war, if the Home Front against these evils is not maintained with all our powers. Because of the strain of the war years and the wonderful response which has been given to the war effort, and to all great forward movements for social betterment; because the people are tired of regulations and restraints, and because human nature calls for relaxation, the Home Front is seriously threatened by subtle suggestions that strenuous effort is no longer necessary and now we can let things take their course. Nothing would be further from the truth than to say we have won all for which we fought. No! We have only won the right and the opportunity to bring into being the kind of world we want. The old world is dead but the new world must yet be won.
