DOMINION'S FINANCES— FUNDED DEBT REACHES NEW HIGH CANADA; NEARLY FIFTEEN BILLION

War Brought Huge Increases
But Half Cost of Conflict Paid
From Taxation and Loans
By GEORGE KITCHEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada's funded debt, which indicates the Dominion's basic financial position, increased during the war by $11,500,000,000, it was shown today in a survey of the 1945 financial picture on the basis of six years of wartime financing.

From March 31, 1940, to August 31, 1945, total funded debt soared from $3,695,685,000 to $14,900,000,000 and officials estimate that by next March 31 it will have reached nearly $16,000,000,000.

The survey also showed that throughout the war Finance Minister Ilsley was able to maintain budget commitments to pay

Aid to Britain Growing Costly

The wide increase in 1942-43 expenditures over the preceding year was due in part to the $1,000,000,000 gift voted as aid to Britain. Similar assistance under mutual aid legislation for the United Kingdom and other Allied countries was passed in later years.

For the current fiscal year war expenditures were estimated at $3,365,000,000 and non-war at $1,024,000,000.

PARLIAMENT IS PROROGUED

OTTAWA—After three months of debate and study, the first session of the twentieth parliament was prorogued yesterday. The House made the customary prorogation until January 28 but it is believed the new session will not begin until late in February or early March. The coordinating committee of the Dominion-provincial conference reconvenes January 28 and the new session of parliament is not expected to start until these meetings are concluded.

John Emery Executed

Former British spy executed for high treason to his King and country. The execution took place at 9 a.m. British time (1 a.m. Pacific Standard Time).

The 33-year old Emery was convicted of broadcasting Nazi propaganda from Europe during the war. Witnesses testified at his trial that he had been selected by the Germans to be the British Quisling.

Amery said in his broadcasts that the Germany army was defending European civilization and urged Britain to surrender.

WIRE TAPPING BY JAPANESE

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP)—The United States Congressional inquiry committee learned yesterday that the Japanese had intercepted an American broadcast December 6, 1941, that gave them information on the number of battleships, cruisers and destroyers entering or anchored at Pearl Harbor.

CAN TRANSPORT CHINA TROOPS

WASHINGTON—The United States State Department has issued orders to the War Department, stating that General Wedemeyer, American military chief in China, can transport Chinese Nationalists to Manchuria when the General considers such transportation necessary. However, the order declares that Wedemeyer may take such action only upon the approval of the new American ambassador to China, General George Marshall.

WIRE TAPPING BY JAPANESE

They Knew How Many Ships Were at Pearl Harbor on Eve of Fateful Day

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP)—The United States Congressional inquiry committee learned yesterday that the Japanese had intercepted an American broadcast December 6, 1941, that gave them information on the number of battleships, cruisers and destroyers entering or anchored at Pearl Harbor.

This disclosure came in a Japanese naval officer's statement obtained through General Douglas MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo and submitted to the committee.

The committee had heard at length about American activities in breaking Japanese codes but it was the first time it had received evidence that the Japanese were also reading American messages.

Vancouver Hard Hit by Weather

While Prince Rupert was enjoying fair, moderating weather with a minimum temperature reading of 28 above for 24 hours, Vancouver was still in the throes during the night of the coldest wave in years while the city was blanketed in high impenetrable fog. The temperature slipped to 15 above at Vancouver during the night.

NUERNBERG COURT HEARS OF JEWISH PERSECUTION

LORD LOTHIAN COMES HOME—Stanley Woodward, chief of protocol, U.S. state department, is shown boarding a coast guard cutter for transportation to the United States cruiser Augusta, with the ashes of the Marquess of Lothian, who died in Washington, D.C., on December 12, 1940, while ambassador to the United States. The Augusta later sailed for Greenock, Scotland. When an ambassador dies at his post, it is customary for the government to which he was accredited, to send his body home on a warship. The five-year delay was caused by the war. Lord Lothian's body was cremated, and until recently the ashes rested in a vault in Arlington National cemetery.

TERRORIZING OF ALL POLITICAL OPPONENTS STORM TROOPERS' AIM

NUERNBERG (CP)—One brigade of Adolf Hitler's brown-shirted storm troopers alone blew up or burned 35 synagogues in a two-day outbreak of anti-Jewish terrorism, the prosecution told the international military tribunal today. Evidence of violence and terrorism from the storm troopers' own records was presented to the tribunal in the prosecution's effort to place war crimes convictions against thousands of lesser Nazis as well as a score of Hitler's top henchmen sitting in the prisoners' box in the courtroom.

The prosecution said that the storm troopers were organized before Hitler's rise to power "to beat up and terrorize all political opponents."

Mayor Daggett Given Job as Cupid's Helper

Mayor H. M. Daggett calculates that he ought to start up a matrimonial bureau—his counsel is being sought by a multitude of harassed lovers.

The courtship of a number of American soldiers and Prince Rupert girls was interrupted by the withdrawal of the American troops from this city and since that time too the United States immigration regulation, have created barriers to many Canadian girls wishing to enter the United States.

"So many of them have written me asking me to use my influence in getting their girls into the States that I feel I ought to start a matrimonial bureau," Mayor Daggett chuckled. "However, I feel that I haven't much influence with the U. S. immigration authorities."

Not only has the mayor been asked to act as cupid's helper by American soldiers and their girls but his guidance was sought by a canny Dutch girl who wrote from Holland to ask the mayor about the character of a Prince Rupert man who, she said, had obvious intentions of matrimony.

DELEGATION IS WARNED

Mayor of Vancouver Gives Advice to Those Planning Unemployed Procession

VANCOUVER—Plans are proceeding for a march on the City Hall this Saturday by Vancouver unemployed unionists, veterans, unemployed and families to demand immediate action to ease the jobless situation.

Mayor Cornett said last night that the group would have to arrive before 10 a.m. if they wanted to interview him. He said further that it was no use a big procession trying to enter the city hall as he could only receive a small delegation.

The mayor said that the city council had already taken the initiative in trying to get a public works program started here and he pointed to a representative committee which was formed a week ago and was already at work seeking ways and means of remedying the situation locally with assistance of the federal authorities.

Ruth Watson Reappears—MISSING VANCOUVER GIRL MADE RUPERT TRIP UNDER FALSE NAME

VANCOUVER (CP)—Ruth Alice Watson, 19-year-old former member of the Canadian Women's Army Corps, who returned to her home unharmed yesterday after being missing for eight days, revealed in an interview last night that she had spent the time on a boat trip and a visit to Prince Rupert under an assumed name. She said her former story of loss of memory was "just made up on the spur of the moment."

She said she had bought a one-way ticket to Prince Rupert under the name of "Anne Wilson" with the intention of never returning home. At Prince Rupert she registered at a hotel December 14 and 15 as "Irene Johnson."

The escapade finished, she said that, when walking independently along Hastings Street in Vancouver, she decided "I was cold and wanted to go to bed."

She said she did not know the reason for her despondency and had never intended meeting her friend at a downtown intersection here on the night of her disappearance.

Police were informed yesterday morning by the girl's mother, Mrs. Alice Watson, that she had returned home "unharmed."

The police added that no further details were given by Mrs. Watson at that time in connection with the reappearance of her daughter, who had been the object of search since she left her home in the city December 10 a few hours after obtaining her discharge from the C.W.A.C.

The girl spent from noon last Wednesday to Friday night in Prince Rupert, sailing north on the steamer Prince Rupert and returning south on the Cardena. She spoke of a Chinese hotel employee who helped her to board the Cardena on Saturday.

Her Movements Here Uncertain

The record of Miss Watson's visit to Prince Rupert still remained unclarified following inquiries by the Daily News this morning. Apparently arriving here last Wednesday on the Prince Rupert, there was no indication of her movements until she checked into a local hotel as Miss Irene Johnson at 9 o'clock Friday night.

"She was a tall, pleasant-looking girl and she appeared quite normal when she checked in," the desk clerk at the hotel said. "She said that she had spent the last two days 'up town.'"

A canvass of other city hotels failed to reveal either of the names of Anne Wilson or Irene Johnson on the registers.

"She was alone and carried a black suitcase," the desk clerk at the hotel where Miss Watson registered Friday night said.

The clerk did not question the girl further as to where she spent her time prior to registering at the hotel.

An assistant at the hotel said he thought it strange that the girl had no friends to see her off when she departed on the Cardena late Saturday afternoon.

"Usually girls travelling alone at least have friends to see them off," the assistant said. "I thought it strange when she said she had no friends."

Officers of the steamship Prince Rupert, in port today, were surprised to learn that it apparently was on their vessel that the girl left Vancouver last Monday night. Purser Bert Robson said that he had no recollection of the girl.

PRINCETON HAS SECOND BLAZE

Canadian Legion Building Destroyed in Afternoon Following Big Conflagration in Morning

PRINCETON, CP—Late Tuesday afternoon a second blaze occurred in Princeton to gut the inside of the Canadian Legion Building. This fire, started by an overheated stove, followed the early morning conflagration which destroyed almost an entire downtown block, causing $100,000 damage.

Eight premises were razed in the morning blaze which was fought in six below weather by the local fire department and equipment of the Granby Consolidated Co. at Allenby. Three families who escaped in night attire were rendered homeless. No one was injured.

The flames destroyed four retail stores, a cafe, a dentist's office, a law office and Selective Service headquarters.

Astronomical Phenomenon Viewed Under Perfect Circumstances in Prince Rupert

There was perfect visibility of the entire phenomenon of the total eclipse of the moon in Prince Rupert last evening. Sky was clear and bright. Gradually the shadow of the earth intervened between sun and moon. First there was the ruddy darkness until the eclipse became complete after which the moon could not be seen. Then the rim lightened and the process of shadow diminution proceeded until the whole of the moon became bright and shining again. Many people viewed the phenomenon with keen interest.

STORM AT ABERDEEN

ABERDEEN—A storm here today was so intense that two persons were blown off a dock and drowned in the sea.

NATIONALIZING OF 'OLD LADY'

Unprecedented Legislation Passes British House—Coal Bill Passed

LONDON, (CP)—Nationalization of the 250-year-old Bank of England won final approval in the House of Commons tonight on a vote of 306 to 128 and the measure was sent to the House of Lords.

Fuel Minister Shinwell presented his coal industry nationalization bill to the House of Commons earlier today. The measure would establish public ownership and control of the industry and would centralize all its activities. It is one of the key points in the Labor government's program.

Amid cheers from the Labor benches, the bill was given its first reading.

Bulletins

LARGER PENSIONS LONDON—Disabled servicemen in Britain will get larger pensions. A government white paper says the raises will cost the country an additional $40,000,000 and will eventually cost twice that before the number of pensioners starts falling off. About 900,000 servicemen are expected to benefit under the scheme.

LOOK FOR KILLER MONTREAL—Police are searching today for a short young man who last night shot and killed a 69 year old Montreal tavern keeper, Edmond Brisvert. Police are also looking for four young men who were seen hanging around the tavern during the evening.

MARSHAL IN MANILA MANILA—The newly appointed United States ambassador to China, General George C. Marshall, has arrived in Manila on his way to Chungking. He is expected to continue his flight tomorrow night, Philippine time.

BRITISH IN JAVA WASHINGTON—A spokesman for the United States State Department has admitted that the decision to send British troops into the Dutch East Indies was arrived at by the combined Anglo-American chiefs of staff. The State Department official implied, however, that while the American government shared the responsibility for dispatching the troops, it is not responsible for the manner in which the operations are being carried out by the British.

TO MEET STALIN MOSCOW—Secretary of State Byrnes of United States and Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin of Great Britain will meet Premier Joseph Stalin tonight.

NOT NAMING CAPITAL LONDON—The preparatory commission of the United Nations Organization apparently has decided against naming any particular site. The final decision presumably will be left to the general assembly.

TO CHANGE AMBASSADOR LONDON—British newspapers say Lord Halifax may shortly be succeeded by Sir Archibald Clark Kerr as British ambassador to the United States. Sir Archibald is at present Britain's ambassador to Russia.

CANADIAN HONORED BEVERLY HILLS, Cal.—An R.C.A.F. Wing Commander from Beverly Hills, California, Carl Clark Taylor, has been awarded the Air Force Cross by the Canadian ambassador to Washington, L. B. Pearson. The presentation was made for distinguished service in the service. Wing Commander Taylor was cited as chief instructor for his unit for 15 months, making notable contributions towards Canada's training program.

CANADIANS OPPOSED LONDON—The British House of Lords voted 90 to eight to accept the terms of a United States loan to Britain. Of the 150 members in the Upper Chamber, 50 members did not vote either way. Among those voting in opposition were two former Canadians, Viscount Bennett and Lord Beaverbrook.

Joyce and Amery . . .

How many, if they found themselves under similar circumstances, might not also have done as did William Joyce and John Amery, both of whom have been condemned to death by British courts for high treason for engaging in the dissemination of enemy propaganda against their own country in its extremity? Young and loving easy living, they fell ready victims to intrigue and, for the reward which was tendered them, cunningly at first, became dupes of the astute enemy, traitors to their own homeland. Particularly tragic was the case of young Amery who came of good family and whose father enjoyed position of high trust in the government and affairs of the country. But John put money and the easy life above principle so now he has gone to his death.

No doubt there are many more who were equally as treacherous as Joyce and Amery and who have not been caught. Doubtless there are many more who, had they found themselves similarly situated, might have shown no greater fortitude of character than did they.

Practical Appointment . . .

Dr. Maxwell Cameron, author of the Cameron report on educational costs in British Columbia, which is to be implemented by the provincial government, should be a happy and practical choice in his appointment as head of the department of education at the University of British Columbia as announced yesterday by the board of governors of the university.

Dr. Cameron is no stranger to the University of British Columbia of which he is, indeed, a graduate, having also served on the faculty of education there. He took his Master of Arts at U.B.C. and his Doctor's degree from University of Toronto.

As head of the department of education at University of British Columbia, Dr. Cameron succeeds Dr. George M. Weir, now member for Vancouver-Point Grey and minister of education.

KITWANGA CHIEF PASSES, NEW ONE IS INSTALLED

KITWANGA (Special to Daily News)—Chief Mathias Bright, Wee-clan-gwak, second leading chief and councillor of the Kitwanga band, passed away here last week and 400 friends from the native villages along the Skeena attend the funeral service held for him at St. Paul's Anglican Church. Following the funeral a nephew of the deceased, Joseph Bright, was installed into the chieftainship held by his uncle.

The funeral sermon was delivered by Philip Sutton of Cedarvale, who took his text from the twenty-third chapter of St. Luke verse 46. St. Paul's choir, conducted by Solomon Bryant, sang the anthem "Hear My Prayer." Organist was Mrs. J. Hayhurst.

Deceased was a member of St. Paul's Church, Kitwanga, and was a beloved and reliable chieftain. There were many warm attestations of his standing in the community by other chiefs of the village.

Among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris and Joshua Campbell of Hazelton.

New Chief Installed

Following the funeral rite, Rev. Hayhurst began the installation ceremony for the new chief, Joseph Bright, with a prayer. This was followed by speeches of approval by other leading chiefs, and a demonstration of acceptance by the gathering.

In his speech of acceptance of the position of second leading chief, Joseph Bright affirmed the feeling of responsibility his new position brought with it. He paid tribute to the advice of his late uncle to whom, he said, he was deeply indebted for guidance.

"Accepting the position of your new chief, which I do with your approval, I shall do my best not to mislead my people, and shall try and lead them out of many of their old-time ways," he said.

"It is my opinion that if the native people are to progress we should seek to allow our young people the benefits of education. Only in that way can we achieve the respect of people throughout the world, and the betterment of our own conditions."

"It is true that we have our native rights on the trapping, hunting and fishing grounds and that we are well based in ancient folklore. But because many of us have no education, our ways of life are in many respects similar to those of our fathers."

"It is my definite opinion that we must cultivate education and

CHRISTMAS ON CIVVY STREET

Six Christmas seasons subdued by war are behind us . . . now we celebrate our first Christmas since Victory, bringing back the absent ones to bridge the years between with the joy of family reunions.

The old familiar things . . . the tree lights glowing in the windows . . . haunting echoes of carols long remembered . . . the happy flurry of excitement unwrapping the gay parcels on Christmas morn . . . these have a deeper meaning now.

Let's make it a really Merry Christmas—an old-fashioned festive season for enjoying the good things of the table and the quieter pleasures of home firesides.

But, in our season of rejoicing with the men returned from overseas we shall remember those yet to come home . . . the valiant wounded in our military hospitals . . . and all those in less fortunate circumstances than our own.

Athletic Record For Year— CANADIAN SPORT HEADS INTO 1946 WITH CONFIDENCE FOR GOOD FUTURE

Outlook Brightened By Revival of Pre-war Classics, Return of Stars from Services

By ALAN HARVEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Apparently on the threshold of an expansive new era after wartime retrenchment, sport heads buoyantly into 1946, confident of mastery over reconversion problems which followed V-J Day. In all lines of athletic activity, the outlook for Canada is brightened by revival of pre-war national classics, return of established stars from the services and indications of increased participation in sport by men and women who learned to play games in training camps. Sprinkled through swelling lists of competition in the late months of 1945 are old familiar names: Syl Apps, Frank Brimsek and Milt Schmidt in hockey; Tony Golab, Bill Stukus and Andy Tommy in football; Canadians Dick Fowler and Phil Marchildon in major league baseball. All spent more than a year in uniform and Fowler set the comeback pace by pitching Philadelphia Athletics to a no-hit, no-run victory against St. Louis Browns — first perfect game in the American League since 1940.

Sport leaders announce renewal of blue-ribbon events like the blacked-out Macdonald's Brier curling classic and prepared for a Canadian entry in revived Davis Cup tennis competition. Golf officials dusted off the Seagram Trophy for Canadian Open competition even before the war against Japan ended.

New leagues blossomed everywhere.

Reconversion Problems Are Up

For sport another hopeful legacy of war was a cross-country trend toward construction of war memorial centres designed as sport playgrounds.

Reconversion problems principally affected football and hockey. The national football crown finally went to Toronto Argonauts, returning to the game after a three-year hiatus. It was a strange season of "window shopping" with players out of the service drifting from one camp to another in search of better terms, but Argos gained steadily in strength and easily defeated Winnipeg Blue Bombers 35-0 in the Canadian final. Their display stamped them one of the great teams of all time.

Toronto Maple Leafs won the 1944-45 Stanley Cup on Babe Pratt's third-period goal in the seventh game of a tense series against Detroit Red Wings, but Leafs opened shakily in the campaign which ends next April. General Manager Conny Smythe said "Toronto never had faced such problems as those of the transition period from war to peace.

1945 Record in Canadian Sport

Other major developments through 1945:

Horse racing: Wagering totals $42,193,258 in biggest pari-mutual boom since 1929; Uttermost wins King's Plate, Koroway wins label of "Canadian champion" in Western Canada and Tulachmore becomes greatest all-time money winner among Canadian breds.

Basketball: Merritton, Ont., Hellcats win Canadian senior title second straight year by defeating Vancouver Lauries; new professional league and possibility of East-West cage final mooted.

Badminton: Jack Purcell abdicates world title; Doug Grant of Montreal and Stanley Cutts of Toronto arrange challenge match to determine successor.

Golf: Bryon Nelson, golf's mechanical man, wins Canadian Open with 72-hole score of 280. Stan Leonard of Vancouver, 11th in field, is closest Canadian.

Rowing: Philadelphia's Penn Barge wins 63rd Canadian Henley regatta renewal; Lieut. Bob Pearce indicates impending abdication of world's professional sculling title.

Lacrosse: Vancouver Burrards trounce St. Catharines Athletics for Mann Cup in three straight; ill feeling between teams reflected in attack on referee Jimmy Gunn.

SHORT SPORT

Joe Louis began training for the twentieth defence of his world's heavyweight boxing championship four years ago yesterday. It was a second engagement against Buddy Baer and the result was the same as the first—a knockout victory for the Brown Bomber. Louis is preparing to fight Billy Conn early next summer.

John Henry Lewis, lightweight champion of the world, knocked out Coleman Johns in the second round of a non-title bout 10 years ago. Lewis defeated Dutch Weiner the following night in another non-title tussle.

The Experts Say - -

CARVING THE TURKEY—By now you probably have the turkey bought for the Christmas feast and it is time to sharpen up the carving knife and take a lesson in carving the bird. These suggestions are also handy to give the man of the family if he is going to preside over the platter. First consideration is to have the platter large enough to give the carver room to work. Provide him with a well-sharpened, long-blade carving knife, a carving fork, a serving spoon for dressing and a small side plate on which to put legs and wings.

The steps in carving follows:

1. Place bird on platter with neck to carver's left side.
2. Carve nearer side of bird first.
3. Place fork in bird, pointing to the rear, halfway along breast on far side of bird.
4. Remove leg by making cut through skin between body and thigh and around the hip joint. Disjoint leg at socket with tip of knife. Transfer to small platter and separate thigh and drumstick. Cut up for serving.
5. Remove wing by cutting through joint of wing at shoulder.

er. (Discard outer tip of wing). Divide wing into two sections for serving.

6. Slice white meat, cutting toward the front and downward on the breast. Do this as plates are being served to prevent meat from becoming cold. Slice full-length of breast to make full-sized slices.

7. Make a horizontal cut across the abdominal section to remove dressing and serve a small portion on each plate.

8. After completing one side, carve the other side the same way. For convenience the bird may be reversed on the platter so that the uncut side is directly in front of the carver.

Each side of a 15-pound turkey, if properly carved, will yield 10 pieces of dark meat and 12 slices of white, besides the wing and leg.

COOKING THE BIRD—For cooking the turkey these directions are given: Wash turkey after it has been drawn, rinse and dry well. Rub inside of bird with salt before adding dressing. Allow about three-quarters of a cup of dressing for each pound of turkey. Sew up openings. Truss the bird by turning tops of wings under back and pressing legs close back against the body. Hold in place by inserting skewer under the wings and another under the legs. Then tie turkey in shape with cord, fastening it to skewers. Place turkey breast side down on rack or crossed skewers in roasting pan. Bake in moderate oven, 300 degrees F., allowing 20 minutes a pound, dressed weight. For turkeys under 10 pounds allow 25 minutes a pound. Baste occasionally during roasting. Turn turkey on back for last hour of roasting to brown the bird uniformly.

Peace in 55 years?

Here's a fight that's far from over—against tuberculosis, the dread plague that still kills more Canadians between 15 and 45 than any other disease.

Your annual purchase of Christmas Seals since 1900 has helped cut the TB death rate 75%! And TB can be wiped out—some authorities say by the year 2000.

Yet wartime conditions give TB a new lease on life—human life.

So please, help us bring up the reserves. This year, buy extra Christmas Seals. Remember, there can be no peace treaty with tuberculosis.

six years $18,186,437,000 for war and $3,818,415,000 for civil expenditures, a grand total of $22,004,852,000. While actual expenditures are not up to date, they are not believed to vary greatly from the amounts indicated.

To help meet these expenditures personal income tax rates were increased by 20 per cent at the outbreak of war and moved in three more swift steps to the full war level established in the 1942 budget, a level maintained until Mr. Lisle announced an over-all 16 per cent reduction in his last budget.

The excess profits tax, provisionally enacted in the fall of 1939, was increased in 1942 to 100 per cent, of which 20 per cent is to be refunded. That tax also was reduced in the 1945-46 budget.

In 1940 and 1941, succession duties and new and increased commodity taxes were imposed for revenue, for exchange reasons and to encourage transfer to war production. Later, the main increases in taxation were in indirect taxes applying to non-essential commodities and services.

HELP THEM FIND A PLACE TO LIVE

Six years ago this month Canada's First Division landed in England. On the 25th of December, 1939 they spent their first Christmas away from home. This year thousands of them returned. December 25, 1945, will see them reunited with their families for their first Christmas since 1938.

There is provision under Wartime Prices and Trade Board regulations for short-term leases of five months or less in which the non- eviction regulations do not apply. Accommodation for five months or less would see many veterans over the winter period and would give them an opportunity to find more permanent accommodation.

There is provision also under which a large portion of the money received for rent of rooms can be exempt from income tax if the revenue is designated as the income of the wife or blood relative. Two-thirds of this income may be deducted as expense.

Canada's veterans need accommodation and need it badly in every section of the Dominion. They are looking to Canadians who can assist them in this emergency. Who's not you be a good neighbour and rent to a veteran?

It is a day they have looked forward to for many years, but for thousands of them it won't be a real Christmas. They will be spending it in one room. They will be eating Christmas dinner in restaurants. It will not be the Christmas they expected.

You Canadians who have unused space in your homes, however, can help. You can make this unused space available to a veteran. You can provide them with a place where they can be together with their wives and their children.

Prices and Trade Board about five months or less rental agreements. These are exempt from normal Wartime Prices and Trade Board non- eviction regulations, and five months tenancy will help many veterans through the winter.

If you have space which you can make available, list it with the Citizens' Rehabilitation Committee, or the local branch of the Canadian Legion; advertise it in the newspapers or list it with a real estate agent. Inquire at the nearest Rentals Office of the Wartime
