RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE UNCHECKED

Road To Berlin Is Shortened 15 Miles; Military Shrine Has Been Captured In East Prussia

Tannenberg, Heart of Prussian Soldierly and Tomb of Hindenburg, Falls—Nazis May Try to Save Silesia

MOSCOW, Jan. 22 (CP)—The great Russian offensive has entered its tenth day in a blazing demonstration of military might. Advancing unchecked through crumbling German defense lines, Red Army tanks and infantry have driven into industrial Silesia for 19 miles and into East Prussia a distance of 16 miles. The road to Berlin has been shortened by troops of the First White Russian Army, which have reached the Polish rail hub of Konin—only 195 miles from the German capital. Today the gap to the heart of the Reich was reduced to 165 miles.

Round Up Absentees

Measures Being Taken by Military and Police Authorities in British Columbia

VANCOUVER, Jan. 22 (CP)—Steps are being taken to round up nearly 500 British Columbia members of Home Defence and Active Army units absent without leave since late in December. A meeting has been called for Monday of provincial, military and Royal Canadian Mounted Police to discuss steps to be taken in apprehending the missing men.

At the same time all civilian and military police in British Columbia are being asked to make special efforts to round up army deserters in their areas.

The regimental band participated in the parade and the Court House grounds where a substantial number of spectators gathered.

From the south another Russian Army is also driving into East Prussia and has captured Tannenberg, military shrine and burial place of Paul von Hindenburg. In Silesia General Zuko's forces are only 27 miles from Breslau, the capital of Silesia and important steel centre. The Nazi defenses are still collapsing.

Western Front

The Allies are advancing on all sectors of the western front except Alsace where the American Seventh Army has been forced to yield another five miles. The Germans are now only eight miles from Strasbourg. Fourteen hundred American heavy bombers and fighters raided German positions in Alsace Sunday.

Record Crew Is Engaged in Handling Herring At Nearby Fish Plant

Working full blast on canning and reduction of a big run of herring which is coming in from Laredo Sound, the Nelson Bros plant at Port Edward near Prince Rupert has a record crew of six hundred persons employed and is looking for more women.

The canning plant is putting up 2000 cases of herring per day and the reduction plant is working at top capacity.

A steady flow of herring is being delivered to the plant by the packing vessels.

The Nelson Bros cannery at Port Edward is also being used by the B.C. Packers for canning of clams, commencing on this work this week.

Millions of people all over the world will join with him in observing this anniversary through birthday balls, held to raise funds for the "March of Dimes." Money derived from these parties is donated to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and provides aid in the battle against this deadly disease.

SNOWFALLS HALT FIGHT

Even Patrol Activity On Italian Front Has Now Been Cut to Minimum

ROME, Jan. 22 (CP)—Snowfalls on already snowbound mountain positions limited even patrol activity along the Italian front today, the first anniversary of the historic landing on Anzio. In the Adriatic sector an enemy raiding party penetrated nearly three miles into Allied lines northeast of Alphonisina after a heavy artillery barrage was thrown back to original positions by British Eighth Army troops.

PRESERVING OF FISHING NETS

The British Columbia Industrial and Scientific Research Council announces the appointment of B. Farrar as research chemist to carry on investigations for fishing nets. These investigations have been undertaken to meet the need of B.C. fishermen who have long desired effective preservatives to increase the life of their fishing nets. V-BOMB STRIKES MAIN CROSSROAD IN BELGIAN CITY—It can now be disclosed that many Belgian civilians were killed and others severely injured when a V-bomb exploded in the main crossroad of a Belgian city, resulting in scenes of indescribable horror. Picture taken shortly after the explosion shows injured and dead lying about the street. Latest reports say the Germans are using a new V-3 weapon in Belgium.

THIEVES BLOW SAFE DOOR OUT OF WINDOW

Western Front—

Allies Are Advancing

Situation Is Satisfactory Everywhere But In Alsace Where Strasbourg Is Still Menaced

PARIS, Jan. 22 (CP)—Allied troops on the western front are fighting the Germans today over a deep blanket of snow which covers the battlefields from Holland to the Alsatian Rhineland.

Despite weather conditions, American Third Army troops have scored advances up to five miles. The Americans are retreating through Vianden on to the Sigfried Line. The Third Army drive has swept a third of the way across northern Luxembourg and has liberated a dozen or more villages in Luxembourg and Belgium.

At the same time, the American First Army has closed in from the north and west to within three miles of the road junction of Saint Vith.

Further north the British Second Army has battled two miles deeper into the German Roer-Maas River salient above Aachen. The British troops have repelled strong Nazi counter-attacks in this sector.

British troops of the Canadian First Army have driven German paratroops out of Zetten, eight miles northwest of Nijmegen, after three days of savage fighting. The enemy was forced to withdraw to a canal one mile north of Zetten.

The action began with an enemy assault on Thursday and the British troops counter-attacked Saturday to push the enemy back to and slightly beyond the starting point of the thrust. Latest word on the area around Zetten says that sector is quiet.

Strasbourg Is Still Menaced

The French First Army has gained up to three miles in a new offensive aimed at the Germans south of imperilled Strasbourg.

Farther north, the American Seventh Army is regrouping its forces for new attacks after a recent set-back. The Americans fell back some five miles when strong German tank forces attacked north of Strasbourg. The Nazis managed to reach the town of Weyersheim, six miles west of the Rhine and nine miles north of Strasbourg.

The German threat to Strasbourg has not yet been lifted, although the new French attacks have lessened the danger. The enemy is continuing to send more troops and tanks across the Rhine north of Strasbourg in order to exploit the five-mile break in American lines.

Big Blast In Packing Company Office — No Money Is Taken

So violent was a charge of explosives used by safecrackers who attempted to blow open the safe in the office of Burns and Company, Cow Bay, early this morning that it sent a portion of the steel safe door flying 30 feet through a window and created havoc to fixtures in the office of the meat and wholesale company.

No money was taken by the crackmen who failed to open the inner door of the safe and were, apparently, either frightened off by the uproar of the explosion or the appearance of two city constables a short time later.

Constables W. C. Gardiner and M. H. McLeod discovered the attempted burglary while on patrol at 3:15 this morning.

Seeing the rear door of the building open, Constable Gardiner and McLeod investigated. The office where the safe stood presented a confused scene of upset furniture and smashed windows. Office files and equipment were strewn about, and the outer door of the safe was blown off. Part of the heavy door was found in the office, but the steel plate which forms its outer surface was found lying on the ground 30 feet from the building where it had been blown by the violence of the blast.

R. E. Moore, local manager of Burns and Company, commented ruefully on the condition of his office this morning.

"They didn't get any money but they certainly did a good job of wrecking the place. They not only ruined the safe, but it looks as if we will have to get a new comptometer."

Park Steamship Co. Favors Deepsea and Inland Boatmen's Union

VANCOUVER, Jan. 22 (CP)—Crew members of 52 Park Steamship Co. vessels have voted in favor of the Deepsea and Inland Boatmen's Union as bargaining agency, J. M. Smith, Pacific representative of the union, reported. The vote was 813 for Deepsea and 415 for the British Columbia Seamen's Union. The balloting started in July. The result will be sent to the War Labor Board for certification.

Both unions are identified with the American Federation of Labor.

SOLDIER SENATOR IS DEAD

EDMONTON, Jan. 22 (CP)—Famous soldier and long prominent in public life, Senator W. A. Griesbach died suddenly at his home here yesterday at the age of 57 years. He had been in failing health for several months and succumbed in the end to a heart attack.

Major-General in command of the First Canadian Infantry Brigade in the last war and former inspector-general of the Canadian Army in western Canada, Griesbach was a barrister in civil life and was mayor of Edmonton in 1907. He was a Conservative and at one time sat for Edmonton in Parliament.

CLASSED AS DESERTERS

This Expected to be Next Move In Case of H. D.'s Absent Without Leave

OTTAWA, Jan. 22 (CP)—It is expected here that many Home Defence troops who have been absent without leave since being granted overseas embarkation leaves will forthwith be classed as deserters, having now been at least more than 21 days absent which constitutes desertion. The punishment for absenteeism might range from brief detention and stoppage of pay to life imprisonment.

Lieut. General A. G. L. McNaughton, minister of national defence, in announcing on Saturday the arrival in Britain of 8300 Home Defence troops, also disclosed that 6300 men destined for similar service were absent without leave in Canada and would be classed as deserters after they had been at large a total of 21 days. He said that the troop movement began Christmas week but there was no indication as to from what day the 21-day count would be made. The general said then that the majority of the men absent were not in the deserter class yet. The impression was that many would start being classed as deserters after Sunday based on the assumption that leaves generally were up about January 1.

General McNaughton's statement followed reports and rumors from various parts of Canada on mass absenteeism which say censorship authorities permit the publication of hitherto secret directives confirming that substantial numbers of draftees were overdue from embarkation leave.

The official confirmation that substantial numbers of men in Canada's Home Defence Army were overdue from embarkation leave prior to going overseas came in the form of the censor's directive. Reports from Quebec, Calgary, Regina and Montreal made it appear that the number ranged from 1500 to 2000. Pacific Command headquarters in Vancouver said that about 20 percent of British Columbia members of Home Defence units stationed in British Columbia until last December when they moved east failed to report for duty.

Reich Is In Panic

Hysteria Increases As Soviet Threat Grows

LONDON, Jan. 22 (CP)—Unmistakable signs of hysteria inside the Reich came from German broadcasts today as the mighty Russian armies, striking through Silesia, drove to a point approximately 165 miles distant or well within six hours by fast express from Berlin. The Nazis themselves, in home broadcasts, did not try to conceal that "power of the greatest peril to the Fatherland has struck" and admitted for the first time that Berlin itself is threatened by the Russian offensive.

Indicating confusion caused by the rapid Red advance, a German commentator said: "German listeners, I cannot tell you where the front runs, where our reserves are or where the volks-sturm are thrown in."

The commentator's description of scenes inside Berlin indicated that rumors were sweeping the capital and hysteria was growing.

An unconfirmed Swiss report said that Berlin was being evacuated.

LOCOMOTIVE DISCHARGED

Secret Engine Was Used Here on Armored Train

MONTREAL, Jan. 22—One of the best known diesel locomotives in Canada—the 9000 of the Canadian National Railway—has just been discharged from military service. On the secret list since shortly after the start of the war, the 9000 had been completely remodelled in the railway's Transcona shops, near Winnipeg, to furnish the power for an armored train.

These shops also converted four all-steel C.N.R. flat cars and three all-steel box cars for this train which was used in British Columbia until the Japanese invasion menace disappeared. The locomotive and cars looked alike making it difficult for the enemy to pick out the engine in case of an attack.

At present the 9000 is in the C.N.R. shops here having its armor plate removed and other changes effected to fit it for passenger service. All of the cars have been stripped of their war dress and are back in regular freight service.

The Canadian National Railway pioneered the development of diesel power for railway service in Canada. This was in June, 1925, when it introduced the first oil-electric rail car. By the end of 1928 the 9000, which was Canada's first diesel locomotive, made its appearance. This twin unit was then the largest and most powerful locomotive of its kind in the world. From then until the outbreak of war the 9000 had been on various passenger and freight service runs.

When the 9000 went into war service only one unit was remodelled. Its 12 cylinder engine was replaced with a new V-type, two cycle, 16-cylinder engine. Railway officials are confident that this single unit will develop sufficient power to handle a medium sized train.

A Second Theatre . . .

Prince Rupert people have been curious for some time about what might or might not be done in the matter of providing the city with a new theatre. Therefore, the announcement by the visiting British Columbia manager of Famous Players-Canadian Corporation that his company would be building a second theatre on an already purchased site on Third Avenue was timely.

The theatre business is something for the theatre people to know about as far as the economic and financial end is concerned. However, we do know that the theatre-going people here have had to put up with a good deal of inconvenience owing to there being only one theatre. We also know that there are few cities in the country of the size and importance of Prince Rupert that have but one theatre. So we are glad to know now that, at the earliest moment possible, Prince Rupert is to have a second theatre and that it is to be operated in addition to the present one which has given and still is giving a service regarding which the only complaint can be its inadequacy, an inadequacy which the company itself admits.

A Situation Which Must Be Met

Of course, the situation now existing whereby thousands of the men of Canada's Army are absent without leave because they do not want to fight is ridiculous and cannot be tolerated. No army can permit its men to flout orders and discipline in this manner and take the law into their own hands. There is no excuse for them and it is to be expected that they will be systematically and persistently rounded up and accorded the penalties for desertion which can be very severe.

The H.D.'s never were very popular but they did have the chance to show the stuff of which they were made and many of them eventually did as more doubtless will. Any who have now deliberately made deserters of themselves are deserving of rigorous punishment. The military authorities will rightly enough be expected to take a firm hand in the matter so that this sort of thing, amounting to practically anarchy in the forces, will be put down once and for all.

Thousands of men like this cannot be allowed to remain any longer inexcusably at large. If they were, the whole army might soon be out of control.

Light Truck Is Taken, Recovered

A light delivery truck belonging to Bacon Fisheries was taken from in front of the Central Hotel Saturday night. W. B. Bacon reported to Police. Mr. Bacon said that as he emerged from the hotel the truck was being driven away from the curb. At 2:30 Sunday morning Constables H. D. Johnston and W. C. Gardner, took into custody Douglas George Odam, a sailor, whom, they said, was driving the truck in the Seal Cove district. Odam was turned over to the naval authorities.

Dangerous Days Ahead . . .

It is a pity more people are not given to reading those formidable looking "Addresses Made at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Blank Bank of Canada." They are set in small type, and lack the entertainment value of the comic strips.

They are not as dull as they look. In fact, they are about as concise a statement of the state of the nation as anyone could ask. Since they are based on facts and seasoned by the opinions of men who have a sensitive touch on our industrial pulse they are entitled to our respectful consideration.

Thus when Morris Wilson, president of the Royal Bank of Canada, emphasizes in his annual report that Canada's economic development has been dependent on foreign trade since the days when raw furs were our only export he voices the opinion of many, if not all, of Canada's leading business men and economic advisers.

In the United States the great size of the domestic market provides a substantial backlog for domestic products but in Canada prosperity cannot be based on internal demand, due to our small population and our great productive ability.

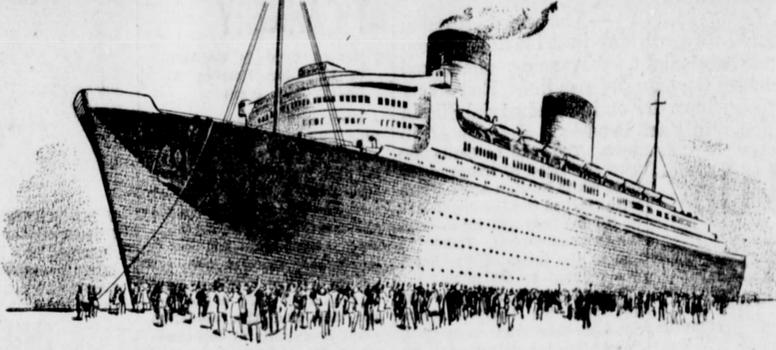

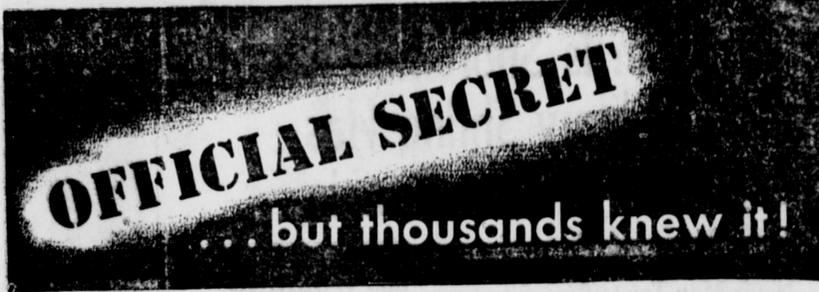

Canada's periods of prosperity and of depression can be measured almost exactly by the rise and fall of our export trade as anyone who wishes to look up the facts may find out for himself.

This being so, it is only another way of saying the same thing when one points out that Canadian economic development in the future as in the past depends on this country's degree of participation in the sphere of international trade. Monetary stability is one of the foundation stones of international trade.

All those who are offering their particular panaceas are succeeding only in adding to the general bewilderment. The inescapable facts remain as they have always remained and cannot be glossed over with airy generalities about Plenty for All.

We are all eager to carry out the progressive ideas of our time.

However, if Canada is to maintain a high degree of employment, it is reasonable to suppose this condition will be based on the same circumstances

The Incident . . .

A year or two back, a crowd of hundreds of people gathered around a dock and along the shoreline of a Pacific coast port, awaiting the arrival of one of the world's largest ocean liners, the Queen Elizabeth . . . The name of the vessel and the time of arrival were an official secret!

How did they know?

There can be only one answer: SOMEBODY TALKED! This was valuable information for the enemy which could have resulted in disaster—loss of many lives, loss of a great ship.

Any information whatsoever about the movements of ships, planes, men and materials is a military secret. If you have such information, whether it seems important to you or not, DON'T TALK ABOUT IT! Enemy agents are everywhere!

BEYNON STAR IN HALIFAX

Sonny Beynon, for so many years a Prince Rupert basketball star, is distinguishing himself as one of the top-ranking basketball players in Halifax. He is playing with the Army team which recently defeated King's team for its first loss of the season. Sonny played an important part in upsetting the officers-in-training by a score of 20 to 15.

Here is what Sonny did, according to a Halifax newspaper report of the game: "The winners were never headed and were paced to victory by Beynon who registered 11 of the 20 points scored by the Army. The soldiers scored five baskets and one free throw in the opening half against three baskets by King's. In the final period all Army scores were made by Beynon who registered three field baskets and one penalty shot."

Although Fitzsimons' name always was spelled with a double "M" the present owner of the cottage told Weston that the champion's birth certificate showed only one "m." The spelling on the plaque was made to conform with the certificate. The plaque reads: "Robert Fitzsimons, champion of the world, 1897. Born here in 1863."

The teachers dwell for some time on suggestions made by Mr. B. Thorsteinsson, Inspector of Schools, during his visit in December. It was decided to spend some time getting together suitable material for a radio recording. The teachers have noted with much interest the progress being made in radio work by the Prince Rupert schools.

Red Cross work was discussed and, in order to raise funds for this organization, plans were made to hold a combined tea and sale of handicrafts in the spring. Ways and means of improving the basements were considered. During the next two months, with pupil, teacher and community co-operation, it is hoped that the basements will be transformed from dull, drab, unattractive play-rooms, into bright, cheerful, interesting ones. Some of the money made at the Christmas Concert is to be used for this purpose.

Library books were also discussed and the teachers expressed regret that there is not more money on hand to purchase good books as they are so urgently needed.

Before the meeting adjourned, a motion was carried to the effect that a letter be written to the School Board thanking the members for improvements made in the heating system during the Christmas holidays.

The qualified voters of the Terrace School District have been notified that a special school meeting will be held on January 24 for the purpose of authorizing the borrowing of necessary funds and also to discuss the providing of more classroom accommodation.

Harry Haugland and Maurice Cote arrived back in town on Thursday night's train. They are on enlistment leave. Harry is joining the mobile Artillery, Maurice a tank corps.

Sergeant Albert Haugland, R.C.A.F. of Terrace was married to Ida Crear, R.C.A.F. on Monday, January 14, at a quiet wedding ceremony in Kelowna. They are spending their honeymoon in Vancouver. Afterwards, the groom will resume his duties at Boundary Bay and the bride hers at Patricia Bay.

On Monday evening, the I.O.O.F. had a public installation of officers for the year. Those installed were as follows: Noble Grand, Jack Barman; Vice-Noble Grand, Fred Thomas; Financial Secretary, Emil Haugland; Treasurer, Jim Smith; Recording Secretary, Geoff Lambly. The members brought guests and had a pleasant social evening. Sergeant Ed Earl, who was leaving Terrace, was presented with a gift from the members. A dance was held and this was followed by a supper. Music was provided by an orchestra consisting of Mrs. Hubble, Mrs. Kirkaldy, Mr. McLaren, Mr. Beecher, and Mr. Lambly.

Here Is The Story:

Each year the people in every community in the United States have a Birthday Party for President Roosevelt. These parties are held for three reasons—to honor the President, to raise funds with which to combat Infantile Paralysis, to provide folks in the various communities with a GOOD TIME.

The President, a Good "Joe," would like to have you with him in the White House on his Birthday. That being impossible, a "G.I. Joe" stationed on Acropolis Hill came forward with this suggestion.

Here it is and it concerns YOU:

Said he . . . "Let's throw a dance on the eve of the President's Birthday, January 29 . . . an Army Dance . . . but let's make it possible for men in the Canadian Forces to come with their dates and also the citizens of Prince Rupert to come with their ladies. Sure, we will charge a dollar a couple . . . but they will have a wonderful time and, besides, they will have the satisfaction of knowing that their dollar will help make it possible for someone, now stricken with Infantile Paralysis, to dance again.

JUST LOOK AT THIS SET-UP!

Grand March at 9 p.m., led by Commanding Officers in the Area and Mayor Daggett.

Two bands, the Navy Band and the U.S. Army Band, will provide continuous music.

Decorations will remind you of Hollywood.

"GI" skits and floor shows will be sprinkled throughout the program.

Punch and other refreshments will be served.

HURRY, GET YOUR DATE! Tickets on sale at down town Stores and at various Orderly Rooms for One Dollar . . . and remember . . . while you are enjoying the dance . . . you will be helping win the fight against Infantile Paralysis.

NEW SERVICES WELL RECEIVED

A gathering of forty-three bright and interested scholars greeted the three Sunday School workers when the new "Regular Baptist" Sunday School opened Sunday, Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby was in charge of the primary work and interest and enthusiasm was exhibited on the part of the whole school. At the Gospel service at 7:30 p.m. there was a smaller but satisfactory audience and it was felt that the work had got away to an excellent start. Many indicated their desire for its continuance and volunteered their individual support. The general feeling was that the "Old Time Gospel," without frills or additions was still able to draw men and women to God.

Interment followed in the Roman Catholic section of Fairview Cemetery. Pallbearers were John Basso, D. Cavalier, V. Calderone, G. Decino, D. Santurbane and B. Sylvester.

Nutrition Queries---

Nutrition Division, Ottawa, supplies the answers to questions which are prompted by popular beliefs about foods.

Q: A thick, juicy steak is more nutritious than one of the cheaper cuts of meat... true or false?

A: False. Weight for weight and properly cooked, broiled or stewing meat is just as nutritious as the best steak. Liver, kidney and heart are even more nutritious. Tenderloin steak ranks far below other meats in nutritive value.

Q: Milk is fattening... true or false?

A: False. Milk is not fattening if taken as part of the day's meals as recommended in Canada's Food Rules. In fact, milk is considered one of the most essential foods because it is the best source of calcium and protein. For strong bones and teeth and general good health, adults need at least half a pint and children at least four cups every day. Adolescents require at least four cups a day too as long as they are growing.

Q: Eggs can be used as a meat alternative... true or false?

A: True. The protein of eggs has the same body-building value as that of meat. Three eggs contain the same quantity and kind of protein supplied by one-quarter pound of meat.

Companions Serve Well If High Heat Is Avoided;

Cheese are good companions, as with most good foods, they have many common. They are both "building" foods and can step into the shoes of meat. They require high cooking temperatures which turn them into "meats." They like to be broiled hot water and when baked dishes in any form they ask for a pan of water to sit in.

EAT TURNIPS—That's the advice from Grace L. Duggan, chief nutritionist at the Health and Welfare Department. Turnips are a good source of Vitamin C and make a satisfactory nutritional stand-in for salad greens and fresh fruits which are often expensive and hard to get at this time of the year. Eaten raw as turnip sticks or freshly grated in salads they contribute appreciable amounts of vitamin C. This vitamin doesn't take kindly to cooking but if turnips are eaten directly after cooking one serving should supply about one-seventh of the day's requirement.

SAUCE SENSE—Here are some apple sauce tips from the Consumer Section of the Agriculture Department:

Salt your apple sauce—but lightly. A sprinkle of salt brings out natural flavor and sweetness and saves sugar.

Use left-over syrup from canned fruit in making apple sauce to replace water and some or all of the sugar.

Be sparing with the water. Apples are about four-fifths water anyway and they don't need much in cooking.

Stir sugar into the hot sauce when it is cooked and you'll need less than if you added it at the beginning.

Don't add spices unless the apple sauce is going to be used the same day. Spices, particularly nutmeg, make apple sauce bitter if allowed to stand.

LEFT OVER—If you find cut bread left over, or part of a loaf going stale, dry the unused slices in a slow oven, when you have it on for other cooking. When the bread is crisp, crush it with a rolling pin and store it away as topping for scalloped dishes.

THRIFTY COOK—These days when wilful waste makes woeful want the thrifty cook earns her name—she heats a measured amount of water for coffee, not a kettleful; turns the heat low under vegetables once they start steaming and uses the oven for a complete meal or for several baked dishes while it's heated.

BABY CARE—To guard your precious youngster from harm make sure a responsible person is salt. Add a little of the hot milk to the egg mixture then combine with remaining milk in double boiler. Cook, stirring constantly until the custard coats the spoon, about 2 minutes. Remove from heat, add vanilla and pour over fruit.

Add salt to egg whites and beat until they peak. Gradually beat in the sugar. Half-fill a shallow baking dish with boiling water. Float the meringue in six peaked mounds on the hot water and bake in a moderately slow oven, 325 degrees F., until lightly browned, about 12 to 15 minutes. Lift meringue from water and place on custard. Six servings.

always in the house—eliminate hanging table covers that a child could tug and pull over on himself. Put away, out of reach, matches, poisons, lye and any small objects a baby could swallow. Be sure that toys have no sharp projections—make his bed carefully, tucking in the covers firmly, so they will never be pulled up over his head—and have a first-aid kit available, which you and other members of the family know how to use.

FABRY DESSERT—Here's a dessert which can be put together in almost no time and which adds a tang to any lunch or dinner. The Agriculture Department recipe calls for six egg whites, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder and one cup fine granulated or fruit sugar. Put mixture into two well-buttered cake or pie tins and bake at 350 degrees F. for 20 minutes. Turn out. When cool put together with sliced fruit mixed with whipped cream. Cover top with whipped cream. Chill well in refrigerator before serving.

Designed for closer check on coupons and ration documents all the way from consumer to producer, the new ration regulations require all persons handling gummed sheets of coupons to endorse them.

The Way to Cotton

Last year, each Canadian serviceman required 150 yards of cotton for clothing, fighting equipment and bedding. This is enough cotton in civilian figures for 10 men's shirts, four house-dresses, four girls' playdresses, four pair of sheet, five pair of floor-length curtains and a dozen diapers.

UNEMPLOYMENT

YOUR INSURANCE BOOK

Every insured worker is given a book. Your employer keeps it during employment. This book is a record. It is the only record of current contributions. It is like a War Savings Stamp Book. If it is lost or destroyed You may lose your benefit.

Many insurance books are lost annually. Workers who would lock up a War Savings Stamp Book, Often lose their insurance book. This may be very costly to the worker.

Keep your insurance book safely. Follow instructions in the book. Then if you should have to ask for benefit, your book will be available.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR TIM BUCK

The Labor-Progressive Clubrooms on Third Avenue and Sixth Street, was the centre of much merriment last Saturday evening when over forty persons gathered to celebrate the birthday of Tim Buck. The early part of the evening was spent in a good old-fashioned way, with everybody choosing either bridge, whist, crib, checkers, or getting acquainted. Musical chairs was even indulged in which caused much hilarity. A game which helped to break the ice was introduced when the name of prominent persons was pinned on one's back, and one had to guess who it was by questioning neighbors. Dancing was enjoyed and refreshments served.

The winner of a fine cake, the door prize, was Paul Taranger while an autographed photograph of Tim Buck was won by Mrs. Charles Wallace. Mrs. A. Ponder and B. Lamb organized the affair and Bruce Mickleburgh was master of ceremonies.
